As Mirza Shuffee's Grandfather was Brother to Sufdar Jung, there can be no Doubt of what his Declaration means; and if this Meaſure of diſtreſſing the old Begum ſhould be perſiſted in, I ſhould not, from the State of Affairs, and the Character of Amir ul Omrah, be ſurpriſed at ſome immediate and violent Reſolution being adopted by him.

Sir,

I have received your Letter of the 9th, and, in the Abſence of the Vizier, am requeſted by his Highneſs's Miniſter, Hyder Beg Cawn, who is inveſted with full Power to act in his Behalf, to inform you, that the Report concerning the Object of the Nabob's Viſit to the Begums is entirely void of Foundation.—The Miniſter likewiſe deſires I would communicate his Maſter's Sentiments to you;—"That he conſiders the Amur ul Omrah's Declarations as an Inſult; that "his Interference in his Highneſs's internal Governmnnt is inadmiſſible; and that he has been "highly wanting in the Reſpect due to the Nawaub Vizier; in the firſt Place, in ſuppoſing him "capable of ill-treating the Begums; and in the next, admitting the Fact as ſtated by Mirza "Shuffee, his Threats were unbecoming, and would in all Situations be diſregarded."

If Mirza Shuffee ſhould repeat his Applications to you, I muſt requeſt you will give this Anſwer, either verbally or in Writing, as expreſſive of his Highneſs's Sentiments, which now be-

RECEIVED the following Letter from Mr. Briſtow.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſq. Governor General, and the Members of the Honourable Supreme Council at Fort William.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I had the Honour to write laſt on the 6th Inſtant.

The Honourable Board are already fully convinced of the diſtracted State of the Nabob's Government, in the guaranteed Provinces; though the Brigade is upon the Spot, yet he is exceedingly ill obeyed, and in many Parts his Troops have been defeated, and only Seven or Eight Days * he was obliged to diſpatch Six Battalions to reinforce thoſe on Command.

* Sic in Orig.

A great Part of this Country is poſſeſſed by Zemindars, who having held their Lands in their Families for a long Period of Time, ſupport a perſonal Influence with their Reiats, and can at all Times induce them to reſiſt the Aumils. The Zemindars ever evade the Payment of their Rents, frequently from a Spirit of Litigiouſneſs alone, and as frequently from the Demands of the Aumils exceeding the eſtabliſhed Cuſtom.—Military Men are generally appointed to this Station. They have been accuſtomed to exerciſe almoſt unlimited Authority; for if the late Vizier obtained the Money he little regarded the Means, and when Balances accrued he compelled the Aumils to make good the Sums out of their private Fortunes, imagining that they muſt have embezzled the Deficiency or cauſed it by their Negligence. This was the Conſequence of Oppreſſions, for the Complaints of the People were only a Pretence for him to make Exactions from the Aumils; and the Man, who, but a Month ago, refunded the Fruits of his Extortions, was frequently entruſted with the Management of an extenſive Department.

We may judge from what is above recited, that neither the Aumils nor the People will ever pay their Rents regularly, but when compelled; and without the Nabob is punctual in demanding them, numberleſs Evaſions will be made. This indeed is the Caſe, for he himſelf confeſſed to me that inſtead of Twenty Lacks, which ought to have been collected on the new Year, he had received hardly Ten. He ſaid it was much owing to the Drought, though I believe we may impute the principal Cauſes to be the Want of Vigour and Regularity on his Part in not obliging his Aumils to the Diſcharge of their Duty, for at this early Period the Dearneſs cannot well be materially felt. At all Events I fear what has paſſed cannot be retrieved for the Seaſon, for the Collections once ſuffered to elapſe without enforcing Payment, the Balances are rarely recovered, and if at all, with the greateſt Difficulty.

To add to this unfortunate Circumſtance, the Nabob has not yet been able to procure any Money from the Begum.

☞ (a) [Immediately on his Return from Fyzabad he ſtated his Diſtreſſes to me, and begged of me to uſe my Endeavours to perſuade the Begum to aſſiſt him. I wiſhed to have declined complying with his Excellency's Requeſt, eſpecially after he had indirectly objected to my having any Correſpondence with her; but being ſenſible of his Neceſſities, I conſented, upon the Condition of his not expecting of * me to uſe violent Meaſures. I accordingly went to Fyzabad, and explained particularly in Writing to the Begum, how impoſſible it was for the Nabob to conduct his Government without her Aſſiſtance; and likewiſe inſinuated to her that ſhe could not complain of him, for he had granted her an additional Jaghyr of Four Lacks a Year for the Sums he had already borrowed of her, and treated her with great Reſpect. I further inſinuated to her, that the Treaſures ſhe poſſeſſed were the Treaſures of the State, as ſhe had not ſucceeded to them by any legal Right, and they had been hoarded up to provide againſt an Emergency: That that Emergency was arrived; and I recommended it to her to ſpare his Excellency the Sum of Fifty Lacks as a Donation: If this did not pleaſe her, to let the Treaſure be divided according to the Laws of the Koran, or elſe grant him a Loan, and that I could engage for the Repayment of it.

After much Perſuaſion the Begum agreed to pay the Nabob Twelve Lacks, and this ſhe declared was wholly to oblige me, and upon the Conditions of the Company's being to ſecure her the Poſſeſſion of her Jaghyrs for Life; and that the Nabob ſhould not interfere with her upon any Account. I excuſed myſelf, becauſe of the Inſignificancy of the Sum, but offered to comply with her Terms in caſe of her granting Fifty Lacks. This I had Authority for from the Nabob, who, on deſiring me to undertake the Negociation, repeatedly and earneſtly expreſſed his Deſire not to uſe any Violence; and in order to prove it, he ſaid he would ſubmit to the Company's being Mediators of all Differences between him and the Begum. But it was hard, when reduced to ſuch Diſtreſs, that his Mother ſhould uſeleſsly keep up immenſe Treaſures.

On my Return his Excellency approved of my Conduct, and deſired of me to write to the Begum very fully, again explaining his Situation to her; that I had interfered merely to prevent any Differences or Doubts ſubſiſting between them, which I thought the Part of a mutual Friend.

That I had always diſſuaded the Nabob from violent Meaſures, and would continue my Endeavours; but the Point in queſtion was a domeſtic Matter, in which I could not inſiſt on his Excellency's following my Advice.

The Begum, in her Anſwer, complained much of the Adminiſtration of Affairs, and told me, in plain Terms, that what ſhe would do ſhould be for the ſake of the Engliſh, and, as for the Nabob, ſhe would not advance him a ſingle Rupee upon his Word; but ſooner throw her Jewels and Money into the River. On my preſenting the Letter to his Excellency, he again deſired of me to go to Fyzabad, and as there were great Doubts entertained of the Eunuch employed between the Begum and me not having explained my Repreſentations fully to her, but concealed ſuch Part as did not conform to his Views; the Nabob ordered Sellar Jung and Buſſant Ally Cawn to go to Fyzabad alſo, and follow Murtehzeh Cawn's and my Advice in making any additional Repreſentations which might be found neceſſary. It is generally believed the Begum has Four Crores in her Poſſeſſion; but I fancy I may venture to ſay ſhe has One Crore and Seventy Lacks.—Conſidering this immenſe Sum, I hope, now we are all here, and when Circumſtances are impartially ſtated, that ſhe will yield to our Perſuaſions.]

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, and the Members of the Honourable Supreme Council at Fort William.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

SINCE my laſt of the 11th Inſtant, I have received the Honourable Board's Letter of the 25th ult. (a) [I have already fully explained to the Honourable Board the Part I took in the Negociation between the Nabob and the Begum. My Repreſentations ſince my Arrival this laſt Time have tended to prove to her Excellency, that the Nabob's Situation was deſperate; and ſhe might have determined on what raſh Reſolutions ſhe pleaſed in her own Mind, ſtill it was now a Queſtion, whether the Nabob ſhould ſeize his Right, or ſuffer a Lack of Souls to periſh, and the Sovereignty of theſe Soubahs, now in the Fourth Generation, to be transferred to another Family? I afterwards uſed many mild Arguments. I alſo met Sellar Jung, Myrza Ally, and Murtehzeh

Cawn,

Cawn, and we conſulted together; and after many Meſſages to the Begum, and many Alternatives propoſed by both Parties, Thirty Lacks were conſented to. I am ſure I could have obtained Fifty, the Sum I aſked, if Murtehzeh Cawn had not been impatient to return, and unguardedly mentioned, that the Nabob would be ſatisfied with Thirty. When I preſſed him to adhere to our firſt Requeſt, he ſeemed to be apprehenſive of the Begum's Temper hurrying her into ſome violent Act, diſgraceful to the Nabob's Government; and as the bare Probability of forcing her to Extremities was enough to determine me from aſking ever ſo ſmall a Sum, I at once gave up the Point.

The Begum not only grants the Nabob this Sum, but gives up to him Twenty-ſix Lacks, for the Repayment of which ſhe had Security in Land. In lieu of this, ſhe aſked of the Nabob never to interfere with her again, upon any Pretence whatſoever; and for her entire Satisfaction, ſhe inſiſted on having the Company the Guarantees of a Treaty to be entered into betwixt her and the Nabob, and that I likewiſe ſhould execute another directly with her, on the Part of the Company; with which having complied, I have the Honour to incloſe Copies of both Treaties, N° 1 and 2.

I now ſubmit my Conduct in this Negociation to the Conſideration of the Honourable Board. It is Neceſſity alone which has obliged me to act the Part I have done; for without the Company as Guarantees of the Treaty, the Begum would not have given a ſingle Cowry. The Nabob wholly of himſelf aſked me to interfere, contrary to my Inclination; and I therefore hope the Honourable Board will approve of my Conduct, eſpecially as it was the only Means of realizing a conſiderable Sum at this Juncture. Half of the Money procured from the Begum is to be paid to the Company; which, with Five Lacks now receiving, making all together Twenty Lacks, is a conſiderable Sum in the preſent State of the Nabob's Affairs.

I have written Powers, and the Teſtimony of the Perſons concerned in this Negociation, of my having had the Nabob's Sanction: However, I think it neceſſary to provide againſt any future Doubts, and ſhall therefore forward the Honourable Board a Treaty on the Part of the Nabob with the Company, acceding to the Terms with the Begum, which the Miniſter promiſes to get executed with all Expedition. The Begum having at firſt inſerted the Word "Heirs," we had very near broke off the Negociation; for I poſitively refuſed, and told her Excellency, the Company were in Alliance with the Nabob Auſſuf ul Dowla alone, and during his Life knew of no Heirs, or any other Sovereign in this Country.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

I Aſoph ul Dowlah Bahadre engage and give this written Agreement, viz.

I have now taken from my Mother 30 Lacks of Rupees on Account of the preſent, and 26 Lacks on Account of former Debts, in Specie, Goods, Jewels, Elephants, Camels, &c. from the Patrimony of my Father, and have no further Claim on her. Having received this through the Engliſh Chiefs, I renounce all further Demands on her. I alſo engage that I will never moleſt my Mother in the Enjoyment of the Jaghiers, Gunges, Culladarries, Gardens, or the Mints of Oude, Fyzabad, &c. conferred on her by the late bleſſed Nabob, but will leave her in the full Poſſeſſion of them, during her Lifetime.—As long as my Mother lives, I will give her no Trouble on account of them.—She ſhall collect whatever appears to be due from the ſaid Jaghiers, by her own People; I will not obſtruct it.

When my Mother goes on her Pilgrimage ſhe is at Liberty to leave the Jagheers, &c. under the Charge of whomſoever ſhe pleaſes.—It is entirely at her Option: I will not oppoſe it.

Whether ſhe reſides here or goes on her Pilgrimage, the Jagheers, &c. ſhall remain in her Poſſeſſion; and no Perſon ſhall on any Occaſion obſtruct or moleſt her therein. To whomſoever my Mother ſhall give Charge of the Jagheirs, &c. I will on every Occaſion protect and aſſiſt him; and when ſhe goes on her Pilgrimage ſhe is at Liberty to take with her ſuch of her Slaves, Women, and Goods as ſhe thinks proper; I will not moleſt her; nor will I give any Trouble to Johur Ally Khawn, Bahadre Ally Khawn, Nuhaut Ally Khawn, Shegoon Ally Khawn, or to the Taveldarries, by any Demand on them. My Mother is at Liberty to act as ſhe pleaſes therein; ſhe is the Miſtreſs. For the Obſervance of theſe Articles I give God and his Prophet, the Twelve Imaums, the Fourteen Mauſſooms, and the Engliſh Chiefs are joined in this Engagement. Further I will not in future demand any Loan from my Mother. I have no Claim on her; nor will I ever deviate from this Engagement. Should I act contrary thereto, it may be ſuppoſed that I am eſtranged from the Engliſh Chiefs and the Company.—I have accordingly given this as a Coulnâmâ to remain as a Voucher.

To Mr. John Bristow, Resident at the Court of Oude.

Sir,

We have received your Letters of the 11th, 16th, 20th, and 26th of October. We think that the Circumstances of the Nabob's Affairs, and the unfavourable Disposition which his Mother, the Begum, shewed towards him, made it necessary for you to comply with his Request, for affording your Assistance to persuade her to supply him with a Sum of Money; and we therefore approve and confirm your Guarantee of the Treaty which has been entered into between them.]

We wait with great Impatience for the Account which you have promised to send us of the Regulation proposed for re-establishing the State of the Nabob's Affairs, and as the Reports which we have already received from you are very alarming, we desire you will not fail to take every Occasion to advise us of any Alterations which may happen.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor General and Council, to the Court of Directors; dated Fort William, 20th November 1775.

Par. 8. WE informed you in our Letter of the 3d August, that we had rejected the Proposal of Mr. Bristow to take Assignments from the Nabob on certain Districts for the Payment of the Subsidy to the Brigade. Whilst there remained the least Probability of obtaining ready Money we thought it to be preferred to the precarious Receipts of Money, arising from the Revenues of Lands; but when we perceived the distressed State of the Nabob's Finances, and that there could be no other Means of securing a Fund for the Brigade, we authorised Mr. Bristow to accept them on Lands contiguous to the Situation of the Brigade, or to Chunar; but to be particular in his Choice of them, and to take care to free them from prior Mortgages. We are informed that he had received Tuncaws on Districts valued at 30 Lacks per Annum, the Aumils of which were ordered to account for the Rents only to the Company; but understanding the Collections would fall considerably short of that Amount, he has obtained a further Assignment to the Value of about 15 Lacks. We expect from him soon a particular Account of the Situation and net Amount of the Collections on those Lands.

☞ * Sic in Orig. [(a) 9. The Nabob's Mother, Buboo * Begum, retaining Possession of all the late Vizier's Treasure, to a very considerable Amount, the Nabob, when he found all his other Means were exhausted, had recourse to her for a pecuniary Aid, but she was immoveable on his first Applications; he at length found it necessary to press Mr. Bristow to use the Influence of his Mediation, which, after some Solicitation, he complied with. By the Assistance of many of the Nabob's Friends, and the most earnest Entreaties to the Begum, they prevailed on her to give the Nabob Thirty Lacks in ready Money, and a Release for a Sum of Twenty-six Lacks, which she had formerly lent him; but her Conditions were positive, that he should enter into a Treaty with her, under the Ratification of the Company, never to molest her more with Demands for Money, as she would not grant the present Relief on any other Terms. The Nabob signed the Treaty, and Mr. Bristow ratified it: Which Ratification, as the Urgency of the Case rendered necessary, we have approved. The Company were to receive Fifteen Lacks of this Sum, which, together with Five Lacks before in Course of Payment, we expect Mr. Bristow will shortly dispatch to us.] With the remaining Fifteen Lacks obtained from the Begum, and some small Collections made from the Country, we just learn that the Nabob has for the present satisfied his Troops; but when these temporary Supplies are expended it is hard to say how far their refractory Spirit may carry them, as they had even got to such a Height of Disobedience as to form Schemes for seizing the Nabob's Person. We hope, therefore, no Time will be lost in adopting some effectual Measures for securing his Collections and extricating him from the Scene of Confusion and Distress in which he is now involved, and we wait with great Impatience for a Copy of those Regulations mentioned by Mr. Bristow.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Bristow to Mr. Hastings and Council, &c.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings Governor General, and Council, &c.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

THE repeated Applications I receive from the Begum, of the Ill-Treatment she meets with, induce me to trouble the Honourable Board on this very disagreeable Subject. I find all my Endeavours to reconcile her and the Nabob in vain; but as the Facts have happened, so shall I state them and intreat the particular Instructions of the Honourable Board.

The Heads of the Begum's Complaints are as follows:

Article 1st. That the Nabob's Agents at Fyzabad treat her Servants in a Manner unbecoming her Rank and Character, so that they have not the same Liberty as the other Inhabitants of the Place.

2d. That Murteza Khan, when at Fyzabad, threatened to prevent her Servants from bringing the Necessaries of Life into the Zenana, and did actually, by having a Number of Military with him when he waited upon her, terrify her, and sent her a Message that he would order Sepoys to force Money from her, if she did not willingly give it.

3d. That the Nabob encourages his Agents to make Difficulties about the Receipt of Goods in Part Payment of the stipulated Sum, by objecting to the Identity of her Property, and claiming Effects as his Excellency's which belong to her.

4th. That in Matters relative to her Treaty with the Nabob, I have not backed her Application in the Style I ought to have done, as the Inducement she had for stipulating to pay any Sum of Money was the Confidence she placed in the Company's Guarantee of the Treaty, and the Justice she expected to have rendered to her on all Occasions. She therefore makes the Company Principals in the Violences committed against her.

Most of these Heads I have already troubled the Honourable Board with in my Address of the 30th November.

The Violence complained of in the First Article, I really, from the Evidence of any Individuals I ever met with, do not understand to have been committed; I before informed the Honourable Board that I obtained positive Orders from the Nabob not to have any Disrespect shewn to the Begum or her Servants, and indeed it is improbable any Thing of the Kind could have happened, for Myrsa Ally Cawn and Sellar Jung her Brothers, were both at Fyzabad a long Time after Murteza Cawn and I left it, and were the Governors of the Town. They are under many Obligations to the Begum, and pay more Attention to her than to the Nabob himself. Sellar Jung in particular always backed her Assertions relative to her Poverty, and was even with Difficulty persuaded to undertake the Negotiation, and throughout the whole of it did not promote the Nabob's Interests so much as he might have done; he joined the Nabob since we left Lucknow, but Mirza Ally still remains with the Charge of Fyzabad. In making this Complaint, the Begum forgets the improper Conduct of her own Servants, who have hitherto preserved a total Independence of the Nabob's Authority, beat the Officers of his Government, and refused Obedience to his Perwannahs.

I humbly conceive the 2d Article to be erroneous also; for on the First Visit to the Begum, Mirza Ally, Sellar Jung, Murteza Cawn, and I, went together; Sellar Jung had Two Companies of Sepoys as his Guard, being the Number he generally appears abroad with, and for the Reasons given in my First Answer, he could hardly be suspected of agreeing to any violent Measures.

Murteza Cawn had perhaps Twenty Troopers and some orderly Sepoys, but in other Respects he did not go with Half his usual Retinue. The Begum's Eunuchs did industriously spread Reports of Murteza Cawn's ill Intentions to break into the Zenana and seize all the Effects and Money that could be found; on the other hand Murteza Cawn pretended to be afraid of

Attempts

Attempts on his Life, and kept a Body of Sepoys conſtantly under Arms at his Houſe. I conſidered the Reports ſpread by both Parties, intended to ſerve the Purpoſe of diſcrediting each other's as much as poſſible, and which I did not believe to have any Foundation in Truth.

Murteza Cawn, when he went from Myndigaut to Fyzabad in April laſt, was ſaid to have ſent a harſh Meſſage to the Begum; but this Inſtance being previous to the Solicitation for the Engliſh to interfere, of courſe no Blame, I humbly conceive, could fall on me for any Tranſactions at that Period. When I was at Fyzabad, I am perſuaded none but reſpectful Language was uſed to the Begum; one Thing only that I remember could be taken amiſs, and that was my telling her, that unleſs ſhe paid the Money the Treaty became null. Whether ſuch a Hint was neceſſary, I ſubmit to the Conſideration of the Honourable Board; for the Eunuchs practiſed every Art to delay the Payment, proteſting in poſitive Terms that the Begum had neither Money nor Effects, though, upon my one Day repreſenting to her that I ſhould immediately leave Fyzabad unleſs the Conditions were fulfilled on her Part, ſhe found Means to ſend Six Lacks in Specie in leſs than Three Hours after; and it was hardly a Month before that ſhe aſſerted her Inability to pay a ſingle Rupee. The Copy of the Begum's Letter to me making this Aſſertion I troubled the Honourable Board with in my Addreſs of the 9th September laſt.

The Third Complaint I am perſuaded is partly erroneous, from the Begum's claiming every Article of the late Vizier's Property, even to his Military Stores.

The Nabob would be very glad to receive any Thing, but the Appraiſer appointed by the mutual Conſent of both Parties, remains at Fyzabad without having any Goods offered him, but ſuch as are already in the Poſſeſſion of the Nabob's own Officers.

I underſtand the late Vizier depoſited the Surplus of his Revenues with the Begum; and having died Inteſtate (or at leaſt a Will was never produced, though one is ſaid to be ſecreted by the Begum), it left a Door open to the Diſputes which have happened; for, according to the Koran, and the Uſages of the Country, the Nabob could claim an infinitely greater Share than he has got. It is beyond a Doubt that ſhe has Money; for her principal Eunuch brought me a Meſſage one Day, not as a Matter of any Secrecy or Confidence, that the Wealth the late Vizier had amaſſed was intended to ſupply an Emergency. I anſwered, the Nabob could not well want it at a greater one; and preſſed her very earneſtly to ſupply his neceſſary Wants.

That ſhe has Jaghires equal to her Rank in every Reſpect, is evident from her own Confeſſion to me, in One of her Letters, wherein ſhe ſays her own Charge amounts to 12,000 Rupees a Month; and her Income is known to be Seven Lacks a Year. If the Complaints contained in the Three Firſt Articles are groundleſs, I humbly conceive the Fourth is not much better founded. The Begum can make no great Claim on the Company for Protection, when ſhe herſelf has infringed the Conditions of the Treaty of which they were Guarantees. Let her pay the Nabob the ſtipulated Sum, and he not only conſents, but is deſirous that the Treaty ſhould remain in force. He has obſerved that Conduct to the Begum which Nature dictates; and ſo far from harſh Uſage, he has on all Occaſions treated her with the greateſt Delicacy.

Murteza Cawn is afraid to uſe her ill, for he knows the Influence ſhe has over the Nabob; and beſides this, a Contract of Marriage is to take place between his and Sellar Jung's Children.

The Begum had great Influence in the late Vizier's Time. On the Nabob Auſuph ul Dowlah's Acceſſion, he at once placed the ſole Management in the Hands of Murteza Cawn, which diſguſted both her and her Adherents, particularly her Eunuchs, who have their Views in keeping the Wealth in the Begum's Poſſeſſion. The Principal, Bahar Ally Cawn, enjoys her entire Confidence; and how far ſhe may be better affected to the Engliſh than the Nabob, I leave to the Conſideration of the Honourable Board from the following Fact:—On the Concluſion of the Treaty between the Company and the Nabob, the Begum blamed his Excellency very highly, and inſiſted on his not ceding Benares, offering of herſelf a Sum of Money in lieu of it. The Propoſal was afterwards made to me by the Nabob; but I anſwered, I was not authorized to accept an Alternative; and that if he intended to have me repreſent the Matter to the Honourable Board, he ſhould give me his Inſtructions in Writing, and explain his Sentiments himſelf to the Governor General—which he did not do.

As the Begum's Sentiments, at the preſent Juncture, will be beſt explained in her own Words, I trouble the Honourable Board with a Copy of the laſt Letter I received from her, as alſo my Anſwer to it.

I have, &c.

☞ (a) [Copy of a Letter from the Begum, Mother of the Nabob Aſuf ul Dowlah, addreſſed to Mr. Briſtow.

Encloſure in Mr. Briſtow's Letter.

I have received your agreeable Letter, and perfectly underſtand the Contents. Some Time ago the Affair in queſtion was ſettled in your Preſence for 30 Lacks of Rupees. The Goods which I delivered for Appraiſement were taken poſſeſſion of and carried away. It is not I who interrupt this Buſineſs, but Aſuf ul Dowlah and Murteza Cawn. I am ſo far from wiſhing the Continuance of this Diſpute, that I am very deſirous it ſhould be ſpeedily accommodated; but Aſoph ul Dowlah and Murteza Cawn do not deſire to have it adjuſted. I now encloſe you an Inventory of the Prices of the Broad Cloth, Elephants, and Camels, which I delivered in your Preſence, by which you will be made acquainted with the Value of the ſeveral Articles; whatever Balance remains ſhall be paid. You aſk me, ſince the Acceſſion of the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowla, what ill Treatment or Diſgrace I have experienced from him. Alas, that you ſhould be ſtill ignorant of it! God forbid that even my Enemy ſhould ſuffer ſo much Diſgrace. Murteza Cawn ſtationed a Battalion of Sepoys at my Door, and ſent me Word, that if I would quietly deliver the Sum, it was well, otherwiſe he would prevent any Proviſions being brought me, and take it. This is not all the Diſgrace I have ſuffered. Whatever he ſays is a Law. You were not a Witneſs of the late bleſſed Nabob's Muſnud, and without having ſeen it, you can form no Idea of what Kind of a Ruler he was. You came at an unſeaſonable Time and ſaw it. ‡ Aſoph ul Dowla on the Muſnud the late bleſſed Nabob went with him.

‡This Paſſage is very obſcure in the Original;—I imagine ſome Words are omitted.—The Tranſlation I have made of it is quite literal.

There never was an Inſtance in the World of a Son exerciſing ſuch Oppreſſion on his own Mother, as to ſend his Servants to diſtreſs and afflict her. Reflect maturely that no ſuch Inſtance ever occurred in former Times. I have already written you what Aſoph ul Dowla has done to his own Mother, and that I am ready to give up my Life without Fear. Whatever he wiſhes let him do.

I have written the real Value of the ſeveral Articles, in the Liſt which I have ſent you, without the leaſt Variation. Did I wiſh to procraſtinate this Affair, I ſhould have written that the Goods which were ſeized and carried off amounted to Eleven Lacks of Rupees; but I do not wiſh to delay it, and have therefore written down the real Value I ſent it to you. Deduct this, and whatever Balance appears ſhall be made good in other Goods, China Ware, and Bullocks. Guards are ſtationed over my Goods; cauſe theſe to be removed, that a Price may be ſet on them, and the Balance made good. You have repeatedly written me that the Coulnama is inefficacious.

You were a Party in this Affair, and took from me the Sum of Fifty-ſix Lacks of Rupees. If you will cauſe the Fifty-ſix Lacks to be reſtored to me, then the Coulnama will not be binding. And do not you then take any Part in the Affair; and then let Aſoph ul Dowla and Murteza Cawn, in whatever Manner they are able, take Sums of Money from me; they will then ſee the Conſequences.]

Copy of Mr. Briſtow's Anſwer to the Begum.

I have been honoured with your friendly Letter, accompanying an Inventory of Bullocks, &c. with their Prices, and underſtand the Contents. The Nabob conſents to take the Ruths, Bullocks, Elephants, and Camels, at their real Value. I repreſented to the Nabob, and Mokter ul Dowlah, what you wrote me concerning the Broad Cloth, at the Price of 4 Lacks of Rupees. The Nabob replied, I have not received the Broad Cloth and Linens; ſuch of thoſe Articles as were out, her Highneſs carried within the Mohal. As the Nabob is deſirous of paying your Highneſs the greateſt Reſpect, and has agreed to take the Broad Cloth and Linens; if your Highneſs will deliver them, and let them be appraiſed by a creditable Ameen; Auka Heem has been here a long Time in Expectation of ſuch Employ. Your Attendants, who related to you the Circumſtance concerning the ſtopping your Proviſions, were undoubtedly the Inventors of it themſelves; it never proceeded from the Nabob, for he never acted in this Manner, and it is contrary to the Diſpoſition, as well as to the Inclination, of the Nabob Azoph ul Dowlah. Some evil diſpoſed and malicious Perſons have miſrepreſented Matters to your Highneſs, and ſown the Seeds of Diſſenſion. It is incumbent on your Highneſs to give no Heed to the Repreſentations of inſidious Men, but to regard the Advice of well-diſpoſed Perſons, and ſettle this Affair on an eligible Footing. With regard to what you write me, concerning the Compenſation for the Houſe at Garukpore, I ſhall undoubtedly take the neceſſary Meaſures in this Affair, if you comply with the Terms of the Coulnâmâ. It would not be proper or becoming, that your Highneſs ſhould not give your Aſſent to my Repreſentations, as, by denying it, Diſgrace is brought on the Engliſh Chiefs. I have therefore given a full and particular Account of every Tranſaction to the Governor and Council, and whatever Directions I may receive from them, I ſhall carry into Execution. With reſpect to your Highneſs's Jaghiers, the Nabob agrees to one Method, which is, that you give them up entirely, and inſtead thereof, receive a Monthly Stipend, through the Channel of any Perſon you chuſe to fix on; for the Nabob obſerved to me, that Two Rulers were too much for one Country. By this Propoſal, the Nabob is deſirous of promoting your Highneſs's Quiet, Tranquillity, and Satisfaction. The Nabob ſays, that in this Caſe, you will have no Vexation, and will conſtantly receive your Stipend without Trouble.

 Circumſtance

Extract of a Conſultation of the 3d of January 1776.

Fort William, the 3d of January 1776.

Secret Dep. Wedneſday.

At a Council; Preſent,
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident;
Lieutenant General John Clavering,
The Honourable George Monſon,
Philip Francis Eſquire.

☞ (a) [RE-conſidered the Letter from Bow Begum, Mother of the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah, recorded in Conſultation the 21ſt of laſt Month.

This Letter having been circulated with the following Note, the Opinions entered after the Note were returned.

Minutes on Baboo Begum's Letter.

The Governor General requeſts, that the Members of the Board will be pleaſed to conſider this Letter, and to deliver their Sentiments upon it, to enable him to write an Anſwer; the Perſon who brought it being very impatient to obtain one, and having refuſed a Houſe which the Governor had offered him to live in, preferring to remain in his Budjerow, that he might be in Readineſs to return with the Anſwer.

(Signed) J. P. Auriol, Secy.

I ſhould be glad to know the Governor General's Sentiments on it.

(Signed) John Clavering,
Dº Dº George Monſon,
Dº Dº P. Francis.

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 447.

I ſhould

I ſhould have been better pleaſed on ſuch a Subject to have concurred in the Reſolution * with the other Members of the Board might have thought it proper to paſs, in conſequence of the preſent Remonſtrance, than to offer my ſeparate Opinion upon it, in the Uncertainty whether it would be adopted. All my preſent Wiſh is, that the Orders of the Board may be ſuch as may obviate or remove the Diſcredit which the Engliſh Name may ſuffer, by the Exerciſe or even the public Appearance of Oppreſſion, on a Perſon of the Beghum's Rank, Character, and Sex. Had the Nabob choſen to have made uſe of the Means with which his own Power alone ſupplied him, to exact Money from the Beghum his Mother, this Government would have wanted a Pretext to interfere in her Behalf; but as the Repreſentative of our Government has become an Agent in this Buſineſs, and has pledged the Honour and Faith of the Company for the punctual Obſervance of the Conditions under which it was concluded, we have a Right to interfere, and Juſtice demands it, if it ſhall appear that theſe Engagements have been violated, and an Injury offered to the Beghum under the Cover of the Authority by which they were contracted.

* Sic in Orig.

I am therefore of Opinion, and I recommend that a Letter be written by the Board to Mr. Briſtow, commanding him to remonſtrate to the Nabob againſt the Seizure of the Goods as his own original Property, which he received from his Mother in Payment of the Eleven Lacks ſtipulated to be ſo made; to inſiſt on the Nabob's receiving them in Payment; and that he either admit of the Valuation which ſhe has put upon them, or that he allow them to be appraiſed by Perſons appointed for that Purpoſe by both Parties. And that Mr. Briſtow be further ordered to requeſt, and, if neceſſary, to inſiſt, in the Name of this Government, that the Nabob do grant Permiſſion to the Beghum to repair to, and reſide within, any Part which ſhe may chuſe of the Company's Territories.

If theſe Propoſitions are approved, it will be neceſſary to give other Orders for the Accommodation of the Beghum in any Place which ſhe may chuſe for her future Reſidence; and theſe may be conveyed in the Name of the Board, by Mr. Briſtow, either to Mr. Francis Fowke, or to the Chief of Patna, as it would be improper to notify to either the Intentions of the Board, on a Point of ſuch Delicacy, until it was finally determined.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.]

§ ("I think the Nabob ſhould be informed of the Repreſentation which the Beghum has made to "this Government, and a Copy of her Letter ſent to him. I join with the Governor General in "thinking that the Goods which the Beghum has delivered ſhould be appraiſed, and whatever "their Value may appear to be, under Eleven Lacks, which the Beghum engaged to pay, ſhe "ought to be made acquainted with the Difference; for it was on the full Accompliſhment of her "Promiſe that Mr. Briſtow's Guarantee was to have its Effect. Provided that the Beghum be de-"ſirous of withdrawing her Perſon within theſe Provinces, and the Nabob do conſent to it, I think "every Aſſurance of Protection ſhould be granted to her, and a proper Place provided for her "Reſidence; but I cannot conſent that the Company's Authority ſhould be employed in placing "both Elich Cawn and Buſheer Cawn in their former Offices, agreeably to the Beghum's Requeſt; "becauſe the Nabob, conſidering them as his mortal Enemies, would never be prevailed on to "acquieſce in their Return, from the Certainty that his Removal from the Muſnud, and probably "his Death, would be the certain Conſequence of ſuch an Event.

"(Signed) John Clavering."

"The Beghum's Letter ſhould be ſent to the Nabob and Mr. Briſtow, as it contains a Charge "againſt them, and a Breach of Faith in this Government, in the Conduct of the Reſident, which "it will be neceſſary for him to obviate. She ſhould be informed of the Sums of Money the late "Nabob owed this Government by Treaty, for Services performed, and which were not liquidated "at his Death; that ſhe received the Advantages of the Rohillah Conqueſt, the Plunder of thoſe "Countries being depoſited with her; as ſhe ſucceeded, therefore, to all the Nabob's Wealth, it "is juſt ſhe ſhould diſcharge the Demands due for thoſe Services by which ſhe is the principal "Gainer.

"The Vizier's Eſtate has not been divided according to the uſual Cuſtom of Mahomedan "Princes. The preſent Diſpute turns upon the Value of Goods, Elephants, and Camels: I do not "conceive, according to ſtrict Juſtice, theſe Effects to be the Beghum's Property, as I underſtand "Women can only claim a Right only to what is within the Zenana; but if it be a Condition "made by the Nabob with his Mother, that he ſhould take theſe Things in Part of Payment of "the Thirty Lacks, the Value of them ſhould be aſcertained by Arbitration.

"If the Beghum has an Inclination to retire within theſe Provinces, ſhe may be received, the "Nabob's Conſent being obtained, and it being underſtood that ſhe is not to expect any Support "from Government. We have no Right to inſiſt that the Nabob ſhould reſtore Elich Cawn and "Buſheer Cawn: Such an Application from us would be juſtly offenſive to him.

"(Signed) Geo. Monſon."

"The Board have already approved of Mr. Briſtow's Conduct in negociating the late Agree-"ment between the Begum and the Nabob. Until ſhe has fulfilled her Part of it ſhe has no Claim "to the Company's Protection. Before we determine whether ſhe has been ill-treated or not, we "ought to hear the Nabob's Reply to the Charges contained in her Letter; for this Purpoſe, and "that

" that he may be able to judge from whoſe Advice they originate, a Copy of it ſhould be communi" cated to him. With reſpect to the Property of the Effects in queſtion, I am inclined to think,
" with Colonel Monſon, that Women can claim a Right only to what is within the Zenana. The " Property being determined, the Value, if diſputed, may be ſettled by Arbitration or public Sale
" I cannot conceive that ſhe has the leaſt Right to interfere in the Nabob's Government: In a " Country where Women are not allowed a free Agency in the moſt trifling domeſtic Affairs, it
" ſeems extraordinary that this Lady ſhould preſume to talk of appointing Miniſters and govern-
" ing Kingdoms. Upon the whole, I look upon the Letter before us not as of her writing,
" who probably cannot read, but as the Compoſition of ſome of her Servants, perhaps of the " Eunuch who brings it. With reſpect to receiving her into the Provinces, I ſhall have no " Objection to it, provided ſhe can obtain the Nabob's Conſent, without that ſhe can have no " Right to remove the immenſe Wealth ſhe poſſeſſes, or even her own Perſon, out of his Do" minions.

" (Signed) P. Francis."

" Agreed, That Mr. Briſtow be deſired to recommend it to the Nabob, that the Goods taken " by him from the Begum be appraiſed, by ſuch Perſons appointed to value them as ſhall be " agreeable to both Parties.

" And reſolved, That a Retreat ſhall be granted by this Government to the Begum, if ſhe
" can obtain the Conſent of the Nabob to her retiring into theſe Provinces.

" Reſolved alſo, That as ſoon as her Engagements with the Nabob, to which Mr. Briſtow is a " Party, ſhall be fulfilled on her Part, this Government * this Government will think themſelves
" bound to protect her againſt any further Demand or Moleſtation.

* Sic in Orig.

" The Governor General. I diſſent to the Second Reſolution; becauſe I think, by being made " Guarantees to the Engagements between the Nabob and the Begum, we have a Right to require
" his Conſent to her Removal from his Dominions; as we can have no other Security for the " faithful Performance of thoſe Engagements, and it may not be in the Power of the Begum to " make a Second Application to this Board, after the Notification of this to the Nabob; in " which Caſe, we ſhall not have it in our Power to afford her Protection, not knowing that ſhe
" is injured."

" Mr. Francis. I think that Mr. Briſtow ſhould be ordered to obſerve the Conduct of the Na-
" bob and his Miniſter to the Beghum, and to aſſure her of his Readineſs to interpoſe in her Be" half, if ſhe ſhould at any Time hereafter have Reaſon to complain of ill Treatment; we have " no Right to ſuppoſe, that the Nabob will violate an Engagement guaranteed by this Government,
" as long as our preſent Influence at his Court continues; at preſent there is no Appearance or " Likelihood of its diminiſhing; if, however, any injurious Attempt ſhould be made againſt the " Beghum, after ſhe has fulfilled her Part of the Agreement, I ſhall be inclined to give her a Re" treat in the Provinces at all Events. I do not think that, in the preſent Circumſtances, we " ſhould be juſtified in doing it now."

" Agreed, That Orders be ſent to Mr. Briſtow agreeable to the Terms of the above Minute.

" Reſolved, That a Copy of the Beghum's Letter be ſent to Mr. Briſtow, with Orders for him " to communicate the Contents of it perſonally to the Nabob only.

" The Governor General. It appears ſo conſonant to the Principles of ſtrict Juſtice, to afford " thoſe who are accuſed, the Means of vindicating themſelves, that I ſhall requeſt the Board's Per-
" miſſion to wave, at this Time, entering the Objection which I have to this Reſolution, as it will " be neceſſary to explain my Sentiments very fully upon it. I approve of the Reſolution, and " ſhould recommend it for communicating the Beghum's Letter to Mr. Briſtow. I diſapprove of " its being made known, either to the Nabob or to Murtezza Cawn."

" Mr. Francis. Having obſerved, in the Begum's Letter, a Paſſage apparently reflecting on
" Mr. Briſtow's Character and Conduct, and charging him directly with having ſent a Meſſage
" to her in his own Name, that he would ſtop her Proviſions, beat her Servants, and ſend People
" to plunder the Zenana, I beg leave to lay before the Board a literal Tranſlation of the whole
" Paſſage, as I think it differs materially from the firſt.)" §

Tranſlation (viz.)

" After a great deal of writing and reading Mr. John Briſtow went to the Light of my Eyes
" (an Expreſſion applied to a Son); afterwards Mr. John Briſtow and Sallar Jung Bahaudre and " Murtezza Cawn came to my Door, and ſent Word, if you eaſily deliver Sums it is well, other-
" wiſe, having ſtopped Water and Grain (meaning Proviſions of all Kinds), I will take Monies,
" even your People (literally Men) I will beat, and having ſent People into the Mahal, what" ever Goods ſhall be there I will plunder."

The Board will obſerve that in the Conſtruction of this Sentence there is a ſudden and irregular Change of the Perſons, which makes it uncertain who it is that ſpeaks in the Firſt Perſon, or who it is ſhe means to charge with having ſent the Meſſage. I ſubmit my Opinion to the Board, that Mr. Briſtow ſhould be required to explain this Part of his Conduct, and that the Beghum ſhould be aſked whether ſhe received the Meſſage in queſtion directly from him, or by the Channel of any of his Servants.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, That Mr. Briſtow be required to explain this Part of his Conduct, and relate very circumſtantially all the Converſation and Meſſages that paſſed on that Occaſion.

And agreed, That in Reply to the Beghum, ſhe be aſked whether this Meſſage was delivered to her directly by Mr. Briſtow, or through the Channel of any of his Servants.

Reſolved, That with reſpect to her Recommendation of recalling and replacing in their former Offices Mahomed Elich Cawn and Buſheer Cawn, the Nabob is the Maſter of his own Government; and this Board cannot with Propriety interfere.

Reſolved, That Mr. Briſtow be addreſſed as follows:

To Mr. Briſtow.

Sir,

Baboo Begum has addreſſed a Letter to this Government by One of her Eunuchs; a Copy of which we think it neceſſary to tranſmit you encloſed, that you may perſonally communicate the Contents to the Nabob, but to him only, acquainting him at the ſame Time, if he ſhould demand a Copy of it, that you are not authoriſed to grant him one.

As ſome Parts of the Letter contain direct Charges againſt you, we expect a full Explanation of that Part of your Conduct, and deſire you will relate very circumſtantially all the Converſation and Meſſages that paſſed on the Occaſion referred to by the Begum.

With reſpect to the Articles taken by the Nabob from the Beghum, we think that they ſhould be appraiſed by ſuch Perſons appointed for that Purpoſe, as may be agreeable to both Parties, and received by him at the Amount of their Valuation in Part Payment of the Thirty Lacks which ſhe had engaged to ſupply. We therefore deſire that you will recommend this Mode of Adjuſtment to the Nabob.

If the Beghum can obtain the Nabob's Conſent to her retiring into the Company's Provinces, to fix her Reſidence there, we ſhall agree to grant her a ſuitable Retreat. We have appriſed her of this Circumſtance in Reply to her Letter, and have alſo informed her, that as ſoon as ſhe ſhall have fulfilled her Engagements to the Nabob, to which you became a Guarantee on behalf of the Company, we ſhall think ourſelves bound to protect her from any further Demands or Moleſtations of the Nabob her Son.

We have alſo told her in Reply to her Recommendation of Mahomed Elich Cawn and Buſheer Cawn, to be replaced in their former Offices, that the Nabob is Maſter in his own Government, and that we cannot with Propriety interfere.

RECEIVED the following Letters from Mr. Briſtow.

Camp near Etawa, 30th April 1775.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I had the Pleaſure of addreſſing the Honourable Board on the 24th Inſtant. The Nabob, in order to put a ſtop to all further Diſputes with the Begum, had transferred the Share of the Balance due to him, to the Company. In conſequence of which I did myſelf the Honour to write to her, and requeſt the Payment of the Money. The Begum refuſes to admit the whole of the Vizier's Demand, and I therefore for the Information of the Honourable Board incloſe the Copies of my Letter and her Anſwer.

As

As I ſuppoſe it will be impoſſible to ſettle the Account to the Begum's Satisfaction, without attending to every minute Circumſtance, I informed her that I ſhould not trouble her on the Subject any more by Letter, but ſend Mr. Chandler to examine into every Particular, ſoon after my Arrival at Lucknow, of which I hope the Honourable Board will approve.

[Signed at the End] John Briſtow.

☞ (a) [Reſolved, That the following Reply be written to Mr. Briſtow.

To Mr. Briſtow.

Sir,

We have received your Letters of the 30th paſt and 1ſt Inſtant.

We conclude that you will be appriſed of the Begum's ultimate Reſolution with reſpect to the Payment of the Balance of her Account with the Vizier, before this Letter reaches you; and that you will either have recovered the Amount, or received her peremptory Refuſal to pay it. We do not diſapprove of your accepting of the Vizier's Transfer of that Debt to the Company; but as it is highly improper to make them the Inſtrument of aſſerting his Pretenſions on any his Subjects, not in open Rebellion againſt him, and more particularly in enforcing diſputed Claims on his Mother, we direct, that if ſhe ſhall not have diſcharged the Aſſignment, or freely conſented to pay it, when you receive this Letter, you will immediately return it to the Vizier, and leave it to him to adjuſt the Account with the Begum, accepting at the ſame Time any Part that ſhe may be willing to pay you on Account.

READ the following Letter from Mr. Briſtow.

Mr. Briſtow. Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

In conſequence of the Information I gave the Honourable Board, I attended his Excellency to this Place, to obtain Payment of the Money due from the Begum, and a final Adjuſtment of her Accounts. The Vizier claimed Nine Lacks Sixty-three thouſand Nine hundred and Sixty-ſix Rupees; but the Begum admitted only of Three Lacks Sixty-ſix thouſand Six hundred and Seventy-ſix Rupees, Seven Annas, and Nine Pies; the Particulars of which are explained in the encloſed Account (N° 1.). Neither Party would at firſt relinquiſh their Claim, and I apprehended a Settlement would not have been effected; but his Excellency, after Two or Three Interviews with the Begum, ſhewed a great Inclination to come to an Adjuſtment upon almoſt any Terms; and I, the Day before Yeſterday, attended him to her Palace, when he agreed to take the ſpecific Sum of Five Lacks. He ſet off immediately after for Lucknow, and left with me an Acquittance, of which the encloſed is a Copy (N° 2.). On the Vizier's Departure, the Begum objected to the Payment of the whole in Money, and wanted me to accept three Lacks in Goods, which I declined; and informed her, if it was not perfectly agreeable to her to comply with the Vizier's Draft, I ſhould not urge her to it, contrary to her Inclination. She afterwards gave up the Point of the Goods, upon Condition that ſhe had Time granted her to provide the Money in.

The Periods ſhe fixed were as follows, viz.

In Two Days — — —	100,000
In Twelve Days — — —	100,000
In Six Monthly Kiſts, at 50,000 Rupees per Kiſt	300,000
Owd Sicca Rupees — — —	500,000

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 450.

(b) Vide ſupra, P. 452.

I ſaid,

I ſaid, I could not agree to theſe Terms without the Sanction of the Honourable Board; but offered to receive whatever Sums ſhe would pay me, until their Approbation ſhould arrive. To afford the Honourable Board further Information on this Subject, I herewith do myſelf the Pleaſure to encloſe the Copy of the Begum's laſt Letter to me (N° 3.) Lieutenant Grant will ſtay at this Place to receive the Two firſt Payments, all together amounting to Two Lacks of Rupees.

The Cloth was the only Article in the Account on which the Begum laid any great Streſs; but by her own Confeſſion it was much worm-eaten and damaged, ſo that by what I underſtood it could not be ſold at a Fifth of what it was valued*.

The Begum in her Arguments principally urged the late Miniſter's having agreed to accept Eleven Lacks of the ſtipulated Sum in Goods, a Circumſtance I well remember, though not mentioned in the Treaty; and under this Pretence ſhe offered all the Cloths and Plunder taken in the Rohilla Campaign in Part Payment, at a moſt exorbitant Rate. I, for my Part, have been very cautious in ſaying any Thing to induce either the Vizier or Begum to adopt my Opinions in the Settlement that has taken place, but to let them act entirely from themſelves.

Sir,

We have received the Lette you addreſſed to us on the 17th and 29th ultimo.

We conſent to your accepting the Offers which you acquaint us the Begum has made to you for the Payment of the Five Lacks of Rupees aſſigned by the Nabob to the Company; but with this expreſs Reſervation, that the Company's Right to reclaim from the Nabob himſelf the Amount of ſuch Part as ſhe may refuſe to diſcharge ſhall not be impaired thereby. And we ſtrictly caution you to avoid interfering or becoming a Party in any Differences which may ariſe between the Nabob and his Mother.

READ and approved the Consultation of the 5th Instant.

Received the following Letters from Mr. Bristow.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs.

I wrote last on the 21st, and am favoured with the Honourable Board's Letter of the 3d Instant: Agreeable to the Directions therein contained, I presented to the Nabob Buboo Begum's Address to the Governor General; at the same Time for fear of any Omission in my verbally explaining the Board's Sentiments, I troubled him with a written Representation, of which the enclosed is a Copy. As his Excellency did not request either this or the Letter to be left with him, I had no Occasion to excuse myself from it. He informs me has fully answered every Article of the Begum's Complaints in a Letter to the Governor General, which renders it unnecessary for me to relate any of his Observations.

In respect to the particular Charge against myself, of having, in Conjunction with Mirza Ally, Sellar Jung, and Murteza Cawn, threatened to stop the Necessaries of Life from being brought into the Zenana; in my Address of the 3d Instant, I was particular on this Subject, and I can further safely assert, if any such Message was carried to the Begum, that it was wholly without my Knowledge or Acquiescence. I think it very probable she might have been told this by her Eunuchs in order to irritate her against the Nabob. I know the difficult Part I had to act, and avoided as much as possible all verbal Messages, as Misinterpretations might be given to them. The only Menace I ever used was, to threaten to set off from Fyzabad and leave the Nabob and Begum to settle their Differences without the Mediation of the Company, for that it was unnecessary for me to stay unless my Representations were attended to. It is astonishing that the Begum does not produce any of my Letters, which were numerous; and upon this Evidence the Honourable Board might at once acquit or condemn my Conduct.

In regard to the Begum's "Insinuation of her having sent many Letters to the Governor "General, without receiving Answers," I am persuaded all that were transmitted to me I regularly forwarded; but this Matter may be easily settled by her dispatching Copies of any which may have miscarried.

For further Particulars relative to the Begum's Charges, I had, previous to the Receipt of the Honourable Board's Commands, been explicit in my Address of the 3d Instant, to which I refer.

In my Negociations between the Begum and the Nabob, I have been very disagreeably situated, as I never could give entire Satisfaction to either. My Motives for entering into them were, for procuring Money at a Time that the Nabob could not have taken the Field without it, and his Affairs must have materially suffered.

I have, &c.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

IT is with much Concern I obſerve the Want of Diſcipline which ſtill reigns in that Part of the Vizir's Army not under Britiſh Officers. Two Battalions marched, a ſhort Time ago, from their Stations to this Place, and demanded their Pay, which if they were not granted, they threatened to plunder the Town. The Vizir was obliged to comply with their Demand, and when he wanted to diſmiſs them for their mutinous Behaviour, they refuſed to give up their Arms unleſs his Excellency would promiſe, through me, not to uſe any Violence towards them. The Night of the Mutiny I was ſent for at 10 o'Clock, by the Vizir, to be the Arbitrator between him and the Mutineers, which Office I however unwillingly took upon me, in order to prevent a Diſturbance at Fyzabad. The Troops have gone to great Extremities, and compelled the Begum to pay them a conſiderable Sum of Money. The Particulars of this Diſturbance the Honourable Board will underſtand from her Letters to me on this Subject, Copies of which I have herewith the Honour to encloſe, N° 1. The Vizir, the Night before laſt, received Intelligence, that after the Mutineers diſperſed, the Begum had thought proper to put her own People into all the Offices in the Town, and diſplaced his: That ſhe had confined a Soubadar and ſome Seapoys who were Guards on the Store Houſes, ſeized the Gates, and publiſhed to the World that ſhe had bought the Town for the Money the Troops had exacted from her. The Vizir was extremely mortified at this Intelligence, and ſent, at Half paſt 11 o'Clock at Night, to let me know, that he had ſome very particular Buſineſs to ſpeak to me about; and before I could return him an Anſwer to his Meſſage, he did me the Honor to call on me. He complained heavily of the Begum's Behaviour, and declared, that if it was not for the Treaty he had made with her through the Engliſh, he would immediately order her two principal Eunuchs to be capitally puniſhed. He at firſt determined to ſend the Body Guard to Fyzabad, and retake Poſſeſſion of the Town; but changed his Mind on my aſking him, whether there was a Probability of any further Diſturbance? He anſwered, there was not the leaſt, as the Troops concerned in the Mutiny were all diſperſed, and another Battalion had been ordered to Fyzabad, which would be arrived there by that Time. After many Propoſitions, he at laſt reſolved on ſending the Miniſter Huſſein Reza Cawn, to which I adviſed him, knowing the Begum was well affected towards him, and that he would act with Moderation. The Vizir inſiſted on my immediately writing her a Letter, that Huſſein Reza Cawn might ſet off with it before Day-break. I incloſe a Copy of it, N° 2. I am inclined to think the Begum's Conduct has been exaggerated, in order to cauſe Ill-will between her and his Excellency; but I hope the Honourable Board will approve the Part I was obliged to take to moderate Matters.

the

I have the Honour, &c.

☞ (a) [The Board approve of Mr. Briſtow's Conduct on Occaſion of the Difference between the Nabob and the Bhegum his Mother.]

Ordered, That this be ſignified to him by the Secretary.

Copy of a Letter from the Bhegum to Mr. Briſtow, received the 7th Shawaul, 18th Sun (19th November 1776).

You were ſo kind ſome Time ago to ſend Perwannahs for the Battalion and Artillery-men, forbidding them to offer any Diſturbance to me. Theſe Perwannahs were delivered to them. They are notwithſtanding beginning to be riotous; and the two Battalions and Artillery-men have ſworn in a Confederacy together, with a Determination to ſeize upon the Amount of their Aſſignments. Conſider what Concern theſe Men can have with me. They without any Right raiſe Diſturbances. It is highly neceſſary to conſider of ſome Expedient, for they will be troubleſome ſoon.

Copy of a Letter from the ſame to the ſame. Dated 11th Shawaul (23d November 1776).

I have before adviſed you of the Diſturbances which have been raiſed by the Sepoys and Artillery-men through Sub ul Mahlee. They were aſſembled in a tumultuous Manner at my Door, a Day, the Night, and the preceding Day, in a Manner exceeding Deſcription. They broke open Two Doors, brought their Cannon within, and diſregarded every Argument which was uſed to diſſuade them from it. They were near coming into the inner Apartment, and firing the Cannon. Under ſuch a Neceſſity I paid them the Sum of 82,669 Rupees, partly from the Sum which I intended to apply to the Payment of your Kiſt, and partly from Money which I borrowed, which completes the Amount of the Aſſignments. They have received this Money To-day, being the 8th Shawaul, and are gone without the Town. They carried the Cutwaul with them, for the Purpoſe of delivering to him their Muſkets, Cannon, and Cartouch Boxes. The Sepoys abuſed all the Sirdars and others, and made a Diſturbance to a Degree which cannot be deſcribed. I never before experienced ſuch diſgraceful Treatment as on the preſent Occaſion. The Sepoys and Artillery-men declared, when they received the Amount of the Aſſignments, that they had ſold their Cannon Markets to me in Return for that Money. The Cutwaul is gone with them to receive their Guns; but I have been informed that they refuſe to deliver them up. Holaſs Roy your Mutſeddy was preſent at my Door when this Diſturbance happened. I had before written to my Brother Muktar ul Dowla, deſiring that he would prevent the ſtationing Sepoys round my Houſe; but no one attended to me; but Affairs have ſince arrived at this Criſis: The Sepoys have deſerted from the Fort and Town, in which I have ſtationed Men of my own. Grant them Aſſignments on Almaus Ally Khan, and let no one be admitted into the Fort, or the ſame Kind of Diſturbance will recur; the Apprehenſion of which induces me to requeſt that you will ſend Guards for the Protection of my Houſe. If I had been furniſhed with Guards, the Diſturbances would not have happened. I have written a very particular Account of what has paſſed. Round the Fort of Fyzeabad there is a fine open Country, but the Fortifications are in Ruin, and there are many Avenues into the Fort. I write this for your Information.

Mr. Briſtow's Anſwer to the Bhegum.

I am very much concerned to hear of the Diſturbances of the Sepoys and young Moguls who were ſtationed at Fyzeabad. I have been informed by his Excellency the Nabob that Juaker Ally Khan has placed the Fougedar, who was ſtationed in the ſmall outer Apartment, in the Guard. I am aſſured that you have conſiderately ordered this Meaſure for the Security of the Property of the Nabob, which is in fact as your own. His Excellency has deputed Hoſſein

Reza

Reza Khan, who has long borne the moſt ſteady Attachment, and being devoted to you and the Service of you and the Nabob, to ſettle the Affairs of Fyzabad; that he may diſpoſe every Matter ſo judiciouſly as to prevent any of the Sepoys or Military from raiſing Diſturbances in future, and ſecure you againſt any vexatious Treatment. The Nabob is willing from his Heart to repay to you the Sum of 70,000 Rupees, which you have paid from your own Caſh to the Sepoys and young Moguls. Myrza Hoſſein Reza Khan has been deputed to ſatisfy you on this Subject. I requeſt that you will conſider, both preſent and abſent, your undoubted Well-wiſher, and favour me with frequent Letters.

READ the following Letter from the Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

§ (a) (" Honourable Sir, and Gentlemen,

" I have been duly honoured with your Letter of the 3d Inſtant, requiring an additional Grant " of 30,00,18,812 Rupees, in Tunkaws, from his Excellency the Vizier, and declaring your Diſ- " approval of the Remiſſion of any Part of the Aſſignments already granted; on the contrary, " that if any of the Jagheers were reſtored, other Aſſignments of equal Value and Security are to " be taken in their Stead. Likewiſe deſiring every Information relative to the Jagheers.") §

☞ " [The Account, Particulars of the Jagheers, I have the Honour to encloſe, with ſuch Remarks and Papers annexed to them, as, I hope, will prove fully explanatory on the Points you require Information on. I have nothing to add, but that no one has advanced a Claim to an Exemption, but thoſe obſerved upon in the Account. The Nabob certainly exerts an abſolute Authority, as to the continuing or reſuming of every private Jagheer.] ☜

§ (" Immediately after the Arrival of the Board's abovementioned Orders, I addreſſed his Excel- " lency in the encloſed Letter marked A, which is a Tranſlate, and received an Anſwer, of which " I forward Copy of the Perſian and Tranſlate B. In conſequence of his Excellency's Orders, the " encloſed Abſtract of the whole Amount of his Finances and Diſburſements was prepared, and " would have been forwarded to you long ere this; but the Time it has unavoidably taken to " arrange it for your Inſpection will, I hope, prove a ſatisfactory Apology for the Delay. Such " Remarks as are explanatory of the Account I have annexed to it.

" It is hardly neceſſary to obſerve, that the Deductions allowed on account of the Drought are " the chief Cauſe of the Nabob's preſent Diſtreſs, as will be plainly ſeen by the Second Head of " the Abſtract.

" The Board will perceive in my Letter to his Excellency the Vizier, that I have deſired he will " prohibit the ſeveral Aumils from paying any further Sums to the private Tuncawdars, whoſe " Claims, according to the Abſtract, amount to R$ 26,04,671:9. This Sum, which I regarded " as the only Source capable of furniſhing new Aſſignments, includes many of the Nabob's public " Eſtabliſhments, ſome Tuncaws granted for the Pay of his private Debts, and others for the Ar- " rears due to his Servants. The greater Part of this Sum has been paid, and ſome Part will un- " avoidably remain in Balance; nor do I think, that in caſe a Stop was put to the further Receipts " of theſe Tuncawdars, there would be obtained Three Lacks of Rupees.—In ſhort, as I believe " this Account contains a true Repreſentation of the State of the Nabob's Finances; and as his " private Expences are much circumſcribed, in compariſon with former Periods, it does not ap- " pear to me poſſible that any further Expectations can be anſwered in the preſent Year.

" Having given my Opinion upon the Honourable Board's Requiſition for further Tunkaws, as " far as I could judge from the Abſtract, and the beſt Information I could obtain, I beg your In- " dulgence while I lay before you the following Obſervations.

" Under the Head of Mootina, or Expences of Troops ſtationed with the Aumils for the Pur- " poſe of enforcing the Payment of the Revenues, there appears a Sum of 53 Lacks of Rupees. " Tho' from the natural State of this Country, where the Zemindars take immediate Advantage " of every Relaxation in the Government, and continually avail themſelves of the Removal of " the Forces from their Diſtricts, by raiſing Troops of their own, building Forts, and withholding " their Rents, ſuch a Charge is always neceſſary, yet the Amount of it here ſeems very exorbitant; " and the Purpoſe for which theſe Sums are allowed appears not to be anſwered, becauſe when- " ever the Aumils are preſſed, they have always Recourſe to the Honourable Company's Battalions.

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 480.

" Some Regulations might be made to put theſe Forces on a reſpectable Footing, anſwer all the " Ends of this Government, and ſave a conſiderable Sum of Money. This, I imagine, might be " accompliſhed in the enſuing Year; the preſent is too far advanced to admit of a new Regulation.

" As the Firſt Object muſt ever be, to ſecure ſufficient Sums in the Beginning to anſwer the " Exigencies of the whole Year, it appears neceſſary, that the Eſtimate, having been ſubmitted to " the Honourable Board, ſhould be returned with ſuch a Letter through him to his Excellency, " as to ſhew him that the Reſident has no Authority to diſpenſe with any Part of it, and that he acts " in ſuch Demands agreeable to their Injunctions. This Letter ſhould at leaſt be written a Month " before the Concluſion of the old Year, that private Tunkawdars may be totally excluded till the " Honourable Company's Claims are ſatisfied. This has occurred to me from the Conviction, " which the Nabob in all his Converſations appeared to have, that the Honourable Board would, " upon his Repreſentation, diſmiſs the Eſtabliſhments paid by Mr. Wombwell. In this Idea, his " Excellency would not hear of another Demand, until he ſhould receive the Honourable Board's " Anſwer to his Refuſal. The Change in the Reſident was a Delay of a Month and a Half in ob- " taining the additional Tuncaws. The Reference afterwards to your Honourable Board, waiting " the Reply, and then ſettling the Agreements and Accounts with the Aumils, loſt full Five " Months of the Year. The Kerreef Harveſt, ſmall as it was, owing to the Drought, was loſt; " and the realizing of the Company's Tuncaws upon a Collection of Eight Months depended " on a Six Months Source, the Rubbee Harveſt. Another peculiar though unavoidable Circum- " ſtance has occurred to oppoſe my ſtanding in ſo fair a Light in my Collections as my Prede- " ceſſors, and that is, that my Predeceſſors were allowed to keep their Accounts till the Collec- " tions of the Month were cloſed, which did not happen till a Month after: They did not cloſe " their Collections and ſend away their Accounts at the End of the Month; this makes their " Collections in the Accounts appear uniform, while mine, under the late Regulation, are ſent " away at the End of each Month, and the Kiſts having, from invariable Cuſtom, never been paid " till near the End of the enſuing, my Accounts muſt always have a Balance of a whole Kiſt.

" I have the Honour to ſubmit to your Honourable Board an Eſtimate of the Receipts and Diſ- " burſements of my Treaſury for the paſt Seven Months of the Year. The Troops are all paid " up to the preſent Time, and I calculate, that the Amount required for the neceſſary Diſburſe- " ments of the Remainder of the Year, excluſive of all Contingencies, will be about 30 Lacks " of Rupees.—This is about the Sum I expect will be realized in the Courſe of the abovementioned " Period, after deducting the Batta between Fyzabad 16 Sun Sicca Rupees and the ſeveral " Species, which are collected from the Country. The Eſtimate of 30 Lacks I cannot declare to " be juſt, becauſe the Paymaſters have not furniſhed me with their Accounts Current with the " Military Paymaſter General, to the preſent Period, which alone could ſerve me in my Calcula- " tion. The Want of theſe Accounts prevents my keeping my own with the Regularity I could " wiſh.

" Lucknow, I have the Honour, &c. &c.
" 30th April 1780. (Signed) C. Purling."

" Ordered, That the Incloſures in the above Letter be entered after the Conſultation.") § ☞ ["Agreed, That the following Letter be written to Mr. Purling.

" Sir,

" We have received your Letters of the 31ſt of April and 22d of May, with their ſeveral Incloſures.

" At this late Period of the Year, and in conſequence of the ſtrong Objections made by his Excellency the Vizier, added to the Teſtimony which you bear to the Truth of the Account given of the State of his Finances, we are compelled for the preſent to wave our Claim to the addi- tional Aſſignments, which in our Letter of the 3d of April, we required you to obtain for the whole Amount of the Company's Demand upon him; but we hope, that at the Commencement of the Year enſuing, your Efforts, not only to provide for the Exigencies of that Year, but to ſecure the Payment of the Balance due from his Excellency at the Concluſion of the preſent, will be more ſucceſsful."] ☞

To his Excellency the Nabob Vizier Aſoph ul Dowlah, dated 19th April 1780.

I informed the Council in the Month of Maug of your Situation, and the Want of Sources in your Country. I have To-day received an Anſwer to my Letter; and lay before you the Subſtance of their Orders, that you are to provide for the Remainder of the Demands required for the Service of the preſent Year. You have granted Joydaad or Aſſets to the Amount of 1,06,62,000, from which there are to be no Deductions; and I now ſend you encloſed an Account (which was before ſubmitted to you) ſtating 30,00,188 : 12 in Addition to the above 1,06,62,000, amounting in the whole to 1,36,62,188 : 12, which I hope you will be ſo good as to provide for.

And if you are pleaſed to releaſe any of the Jagheers, you will grant Tunkaws in the room of them, upon other Lands. I therefore requeſt of you that you will be pleaſed to iſſue Orders upon your ſeveral Aumils, that they ſhall pay no Tuncaws whatever of private Tunkawdars, in order that the Amount which was to have been received by them be brought to the Account of the Honourable Company, to whom I deſire additional Aſſignments may be granted.

Letter from the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah to Mr. C. Purling.

I have received your Letter.—You write, that you informed the Council, in the Month of
* Sic in Orig. Maug, that I had not * Sources in my Country, and my Expences were very great; and that you have received an Anſwer from the Council, that whatever Balance was due at the End of the Year, I ſhould pay; and that the Sum 1,06,62,000 Rupees, which were granted as Aſſets, ſhould ſuffer no Diminution; nor will the Gentlemen of the Council allow One Rupee; but that, agreeable to the Account Particulars, the Balance of 1,36,62,188 : 12 muſt be aſſigned.

I have in no Reſpect failed in my Compliance with the Pleaſure of the Council, or my Friendſhip for the Company, as far as I have had Ability. And I have acquainted you very fully with the State of my Country, and the Sources of the Revenue: And I have even put a ſtop to the Expences of my Table, and the Animals which I ought to keep; and the Jagheers of my Servants and Attendants; and there are Aſſets of 98,98,375. After this, I wrote the Jagheers of my Grandmother and my Mother, and of the Nabob Sallar Jung, and of my Family, and the Sons of my Uncle Mirza Alla Khan, which were granted them for their Livelihood; and they amounted to the Sum of 7,63,625 Rupees. By this Means has the Buſineſs been done. But they all poſſeſs Engagements. And I have made over in Aſſignment the Expences of my Table, which I have put a ſtop to with this View, that the Gentlemen of the Council, underſtanding my diſtreſſed Situation, would ſhew me their Friendſhip. I at firſt oppoſed the aſſigning the Jagheers of my Grandmother and Mother, and my Uncle. Now that the Council have, upon ſuch a Repreſentation of my Diſtreſs, written, that there ſhall not be leſs Aſſignments than 1,06,62,000 Rupees, and that the Balance of 1,36,62,188 muſt be given, I am acquainted with the Particulars of the 1,36,62,188. If the Gentlemen of the Council, or you, Sir, will inform yourſelves from the Accounts, you will find, it is not to be obtained. Whatever, in Juſtice, can be obtained from the Accounts, have been granted; but at this Time Aſſignments are demanded of me. The Buſineſs of the World is eaſy, and paſſes away; and the Gentlemen of the Council ſhould, in every Thing that is juſt, be my Guardians and my Friends. I do not put my Life in Competition with Friendſhip. Whatever Aſſets were in the Country, with even my Table, my Animals, the Jagheers of my Servants and Attendants, are granted in Aſſignments, amounting to 98,98,375 Rupees: Beſides theſe, the Jagheers of my Grandmother, Mother, and my Uncles, the Nabobs Mirza Allee and Sallar Jung, which were granted them for their Maintenance, are at your Diſpoſal. If the Council have directed you to attach them, do it. In the Country no further Sources remain, and I have no Means, for I have not a Subſiſtence. Alas! I have Elephants, Horſes, and Houſes; if they will ſerve the Purpoſe of my Friends, they are ready for them; the Country and the Aumils are at hand; wherever Aſſets can be found, take them—I do not oppoſe it—In this Situation I am in want of a daily Subſiſtence—I feed upon the Hope and Expectation of Tranquillity—Upon this the Council's Order is arrived.—Whatever proceeds from Friendſhip is good—my Situation is no way concealed—How long ſhall I dwell upon my Misfortunes!——I have written ſufficient.] ☞

READ the following Letters from Mr. Middleton.

☞ (b) [Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I am ſorry to acquaint the Honourable Board, that I have not been ſucceſsful in my Applications to the Nabob in behalf of the Begum. He has poſitively refuſed to come to any immediate Determination upon any one of the ſeveral Points I have ſubmitted to him; anſwering me only in general Terms, that it is his Intention to viſit Fayzabad on his Return from his Hunting Party, when he will requeſt my perſonal Aſſiſtance in accommodating all Matters of Diſpute between him and the Begums. In the mean Time, he intreats me to take every Means in my Power to prevail upon the old Begum to ſuſpend the Execution of her Purpoſe, until he ſhall have had an Interview with her; and to accompliſh this Object, he even authoriſes me to make her ſuch Aſſurances on his and my own Behalf, and * in my Judgment ſhall ſeem reaſonable and juſt. 2d February. * Sic in Orig.

It is needleſs for me to remark upon the Ambiguity of this Reply, or the indefinite Terms in which his Authority to me is conceived. The Begum's Requiſitions were laid before him in the Form I received them, clearly and ſpecifically noticed; ſo that it required only that he ſhould have given me his Sentiments upon them, and have informed me how far he wiſhed me to engage his Compliance; but inſtead of this, he contents himſelf with deſiring me to uſe every conciliating Argument I can with the Begum, to diſſuade her from her Purpoſe, while he denies me the only Means by which he knew it could be effected, and by his Conduct, in fact, ſtrengthens and confirms her Reſolution. I have acquainted the Begum with the Subſtance of the Nabob's Reply to my Letters, which ſhe is by no means ſatisfied with; and, indeed, I am myſelf convinced there is very little Faith to be placed on the foregoing Aſſurance; but ſhe has, at my earneſt Requeſt, and from a firm Reliance on the Juſtice and Equity of the Honourable Board, conſented to ſuſpend her Journey until I may be favoured with your Sentiments and Deciſion upon this Reference, which I hope to be indulged with as ſoon as poſſible, as any conſiderable Delay might perhaps raiſe Doubts in the Begum's Breaſt as to the Part the Honourable Board would take in her Affairs, and induce her, at all Events, to take her Departure before your Deciſion reaches me.

I have, &c.

Fayzabad, 2d February 1778. (Signed) N. Middleton, Reſt at the Vizier's Court.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I had the Pleaſure to addreſs you Yeſterday; and having cloſed the Subject of the old Begum's Complaints and Requiſitions, it is neceſſary I ſhould now trouble you with thoſe of the Bow Begum, who has, through me, demanded the Protection of our Government, and its Influence to reſtore and confirm her Rights. 3dFeb.1778.

On my Arrival here, ſhe addreſſed a long Letter to me on the Subject of her Affairs, covering the original Treaty which had been entered into between her and the Nabob, and guaranteed by my Predeceſſor on the Part of the Honourable Company; Copies of all which I have now the Honour to lay before you, together with a particular Account of the Begum's ſeveral Claims and Requiſitions, with my own Obſervations on each Article.

As moſt of theſe Claims are expreſsly admitted in the Treaty, and guaranteed by the Reſident, I apprehend by public Authority, I did not ſuppoſe the Nabob would have heſitated to comply with them: I therefore thought it unneceſſary to take up the Attention of the Honourable Board with a Matter which had before been ſo particularly diſcuſſed and ſettled, and which, after ſuch ſolemn Engagements on the Part of the Nabob, they would hardly expect could at this Time become a Subject of Diſpute. His Excellency has, however, declined Compliance with them.] ☞

I have

I have on all Occaſions as much as poſſible avoided troubling the Honourable Board with any Matters which reflect upon the Conduct or Government of the Nabob, wiſhing rather to check and obviate Abuſes, by friendly Admonitions and Remonſtrances to his Excellency himſelf, than to correct them by an Appeal to your Authority; but ſuch is his Excellency's Diſpoſition, and ſo entirely has he loſt the Confidence and Affections of his Subjects, that unleſs ſome Reſtraint is impoſed upon him, which would effectually ſecure thoſe who are living under the Protection of his Government from Violence and Oppreſſion, I am but too well convinced, that no Man of Reputation or Property will long continue in theſe Provinces. Out of many of the Nabob's Acts, which have cauſed ſuch a total Diſaffection and Want of Confidence amongſt his Subjects, I ſhall take the Liberty to trouble the Honourable Board with One which I have lately been a reluctant Witneſs to.

The Nabob Sheir Jung, whoſe Death happened in the Nabob's Camp a ſhort Time ago, was a Man nearly related to this Family, and who, in the Lifetime of the late Nabob Shujah-ul-Dowlah, had ſuitable Allowances made him for the Support of his Rank, and the Dignity of his Family, and which he enjoyed, without Interruption, until the Acceſſion of the preſent Nabob to the Muſnud, who thought proper to reſume them. Since that Time, until the Period of his Death, this old Gentleman had no Means left of ſupporting himſelf, his Offſpring and Dependants, but from his private Fortune; nor had his Children any Proſpects or Hopes, but from being permitted to inherit ſuch Property as their Father might die poſſeſſed of: Theſe, however, were Conſiderations which had not the ſmalleſt Weight with the Nabob; for immediately upon the Demiſe of Sheir Jung, he himſelf ſent People to ſeize the Tents and Effects of the deceaſed in Camp, not even leaving his Friends the Means of carrying the Body to Lucknow, and diſpatched his moſt poſitive Orders to the Miniſter to do the ſame with the Effects of the deceaſed wherever they might be found.

As ſoon as I was informed of theſe Proceedings, I took the Liberty of remonſtrating to him againſt a Meaſure which appeared to me unnatural and tyrannical to a Degree, and no leſs alarming to his Subjects in general. In Anſwer to which he was pleaſed to ſay, it was a Matter which did not in any reſpect concern me, and that he alone was the Maſter in this Buſineſs; but that for my Satisfaction he would for the preſent ſuſpend the Execution of his Orders, and poſtpone finally determining upon the Diſpoſition of the deceaſed's Effects until his Return to Lucknow, when he would conſult with me upon the Subject, and act agreeable to my Advice on the Occaſion. Notwithſtanding theſe Aſſurances, the Nabob has privately written to the Miniſter, ordering him, in peremptory Language, immediately to ſeize all the Houſes, Effects, and Property of Sheir Jung in Lucknow, and to appropriate them to his Excellency's Uſe. As this Meaſure, if permitted to be carried into Execution, will be the Means of reducing a once opulent Family to a State of Indigence and Want; I hope the Honourable Board will be pleaſed to take this Matter into their humane Conſideration, and interpoſe their Influence to prevent an Act which muſt inevitably bring Diſgrace upon himſelf, and a proportionate Degree of Diſcredit upon the national Character of the Engliſh, which I conſider to be more or leſs concerned in every Act of his Adminiſtration.—Had my Remonſtrances produced the deſired Effect, I ſhould not have troubled the Honourable Board with this Detail, but I cannot ſee an helpleſs Family deprived of its Rights and only Means of Support, without endeavouring to procure them Redreſs. Beſides, the Effect which ſuch an Act, if ſuffered to paſs unnoticed, would have upon the Minds of his Excellency's Subjects in general, and upon every Man of Property in particular, will I doubt not appear to the Honourable Board deſerving of their moſt ſerious Conſideration.

I have, &c.

From the Bahoo Bhegum. Received 29th April 1780.

THE Nabob Khan Khanan Salar Jung Bahadre is my elder Brother, and Uncle to my Son the Nabob Vizier Aſoph ul Dowlah Bahadre; his good Qualities and Virtues are not now for the firſt Time repreſented to you, as I am certain that you muſt have long ago heard from other Quarters with what diſtinguiſhed Honour he was treated by his late Majeſty Mahomed Shah, above all the other Servants of his Majeſty, being always admitted to his moſt ſecret Councils—you muſt alſo be well acquainted with the great Regard, Reſpect, and Affection which the late Nabob always entertained towards him. I have no Relation but that Nabob, and God knows how much he is attached to the Company, and how deſirous he is of your Friendſhip. It is about Seven Months ſince he came on a Viſit to me to Fyzabad; and in the many Interviews which we had his whole Converſation was a Recapitulation of your Praiſes, and while he remained with me he was entirely taken up with the Accounts of your great Qualities.

☞ (a) [At preſent the Naibs have begun a Negociation about the Nabob's Jaghier, of ſo remarkable a Nature, that it has greatly alarmed us. For firſt, his Jaghier is by no means equal to his Dignity; yet, on account of the preſent State of Affairs, he has contented himſelf with it, though it approaches not to his Expences. Secondly, About a Year and an Half ago, Mr. Middleton gave a poſitive Promiſe to him, that he would take care no Interruption ſhould be given to his Jaghier, or that of the late Iftekar ul Dowlah, and entered into a ſacred Engagement to this Purport. It is now Matter of great Aſtoniſhment to us, that, notwithſtanding all this, ſuch a Negociation ſhould have been thought of, ſince your Highneſs can have no Wiſh that the Nabob's ſmall Income ſhould be ſtopped, as the Promiſes of the Engliſh Chiefs are as if written on a Stone, and can admit of not the ſmalleſt Variation.] ☜

I therefore hope that you will upon receiving this Letter grant me Letters to Mr. Purling, Huſſein Reza Khan, and Hyder Beg Khan, directing in a moſt poſitive Manner that no Interruption be given to the Jaghier of the Nabob, and that they never in future think of any Negociations of this Nature. This will be the greateſt Satisfaction and Honour you can beſtow on me and on my Brother. He before this ſent ſome Otter and Paintings to your Preſence, but has not yet heard whether you received them or not. As ſoon as I ſhall be informed of their being ſafe arrived, I will diſpatch ſome other Preſents to you. I am hopeful that an Intercourſe of Letters may be eſtabliſhed between your Highneſs and the Nabob, which is his greateſt Wiſh. I am very anxious to receive an Anſwer to my former Letter; do not delay replying to it and to my preſent Letter, for Friendſhip is ſought againſt the Seaſon of Diſtreſs.

From the Vizier. Received 23d Auguſt 1782.

57. Par. MAJOR William Palmer and Mr. Davy have made known to me your Orders, reſpecting my Authority in the Country, with great Regard and Conſideration, and have made me greatful * for your Favours. They aſked for a Paper of Requeſts, which I accordingly wrote and gave to them; they afterwards ſpoke about Ten Lacks of Rupees for the Expences of the Sircar of the Company; next, they ſpoke about Four Regiments, that I ſhould employ them from the Company's Troops in the Sebundy's of my Country. Reſpecting theſe Two Articles, although I have no Power, yet, as Major William Palmer repeatedly ſaid, that this would be giving Pleaſure to the Nawab (meaning your Highneſs), being remedileſs, in Obedience to your Will, I wrote a Letter to Major Palmer in the Manner I agreed to it, from which you will become acquainted with it. They now ſay, that as important Matters are in Hand, for the Expences of the Company's Sircar, I muſt give Sixty Lacks of Rupees by way of Loan, that either I muſt borrow it from the Merchants, and from my Relations, and take a Bond, or give Aſſignments on the Country. After Two Years, when this Matter ſhall have been ſettled, that Money ſhall be repaid; my Country and Property belong to your Highneſs, to the utmoſt of my Life. I am not backward in the Company's Affairs, and your Highneſs's Pleaſure. By the Bleſſing of God you are wiſe in the Times. The full Particulars of my Country are not concealed from you. How ſhall I make known my Situation? From the Time that theſe Propoſitions have been made, all Judgment has left my Mind. After the Death of the deceaſed Nawab, on account of the Greatneſs of the Expences of the Army of the Sircar of the Company, which was here, I ſupported myſelf in a Manner that I cannot deſcribe.

☞ (a) [I never found Reſource equal to the neceſſary Expences: Every Year, by taking from the Miniſters, and ſelling the Articles of my Karkhanna, I, with great Diſtreſs, tranſacted the Büſineſs; but I could not take care of my Dependants; ſo that ſome of my Brothers, from their Difficulties, aroſe and departed; and the People of the Khord Mahault of the late Nawab, who are all my Mothers, from their Diſtreſſes, are reduced to Poverty, and involved in Difficulties.—No Man of Rank is deficient in the Care of his Dependants, in proportion to his Ability.]

Notwithſtanding the Exiſtence of theſe Diſtreſſes, I am thankful and ready to ſatisfy you. But never was the Money of the Tuncas for the Brigades, &c. received without a Balance from the Jaidad of the Company; and yet the Gentlemen, to the utmoſt of their Abilities, were guilty of no Neglect in taking Aſſignments, and collecting the Money. This Year, that you, from your Goodneſs, having diſcovered the State of my Diſtreſſes, recalled the Brigade and Battalions, and granted me an Engagement that all Matters ſhould be as in the Time of the deceaſed Nawab, I took from my Mother, and diſcharged the Balances to the Company's Sircar as they appeared from my Bond. Many Years are required to relieve me from the former Diſtreſſes. I know, that as you, from real Affection, had releaſed me from the Weight of Expences, I ſhould have ſome ſmall Relief from the neceſſary Expences at this Time theſe Propoſitions are brought forward. My Brother and Companions, from the Reſumption of the Jagheers, are reduced to great Affliction and Diſtreſs; from the Mahajens of this Town ſhould I requeſt the Loan of One or Two Lacks of Rupees, they cannot give it, having no Reſources. I have never been deficient in the Friendſhip of the Company, and Obedience to your Pleaſure. I have looked upon my Difficulties as a Cauſe of Satisfaction, and am always ready to execute your Commands. In theſe Propoſitions I am aſtoniſhed and confounded at my bad Fortune, that I ſhould have ſuch a compaſſionate Friend as your Highneſs, and be involved in ſuch a Situation. What Anſwer can I give, and how can I ſupport my Life?

Difficulty, with your Favour, becomes eaſy; what is eaſy, by your Neglect, becomes difficult. Night and Day paſs in Grief and Affliction. Either make looſe my Difficulties, or elſe call me to your Preſence. I will reſide with your Highneſs, and whenever you ſhall give me my Diſmiſſion, with the Favours and Affection which belong to you, I ſhall return to my Country, and be releaſed from continual Afflictions.

Encloſures.

N° 1. Copy of a Letter from the Nawab Vizier to Major William Palmer, dated 19th Shabaun.

On the Subject of Ten Lacks of Rupees, you repeatedly have ſaid, that the Nawab Governor's Pleaſure is, that I ſhould give them for the Expences of the Company's Sircar. The Nawab Governor's Will is binding upon me. I can make no Excuſes. Take Ten Lacks of Rupees for the Expences of the Company's Sircar. But you have ſaid, that if I am willing to aſſiſt the Affairs of the Company's Sircar, you will fulfil my Requeſts agreeably to the Paper, as the Nawab Governor's Permiſſion is arrived. With reſpect to the Two Points of which you have ſpoken, I agree to both of them, and will give for the Expences of the Company's Sircar Ten Lacks of Rupees this Year, and Six Lacks of Rupees yearly, in lieu of Regiments, upon Condition that I obtain my Requeſts and Authority. It is proper that you adjuſt my Requeſts, agreeably to the Paper upon which the Nawab Governor has given Orders, and reſtore me to the Management of every Concern.

N° 2. Copy of a Letter from the ſame to the ſame, dated 30th Shabaun.

In Anſwer to your Demand of a Loan of Sixty Lacks of Rupees, I repreſented and explained to you, with the greateſt Reverence, the full Particulars of my Inabilities; that in Caſes where I have Power and Ability, I am never negligent, to the Extent of my Life, in promoting the Affairs of the Company's Sircar, and in obeying the Nawab Governor's Orders. You, in my Preſence, ſpoke to me, and ſent a Meſſage to me, that if I did not give Sixty Lacks of Rupees, by way of Loan, the Nawab Governor would be highly diſpleaſed, and would quit my Friendſhip, and would alſo recall the Old Brigade which is here; and beſide, the * whatever may be the Nawab Governor's Will you did not know. Why did not you give me prior Information that it would proceed to this Extremity?

* Sic in Orig.

My Friend! the Friendſhip of the Company, the Nawab Governor, and the Gentlemen of the Council, is fixed in my Heart, and I have remained ſo inattentive and forgetful, from a Dependance on their Friendſhip and Satisfaction, that I have nothing left to me but my Name; and every Thing elſe belongs to them.

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 465.

To

To the Glorious and Omnipotent God it is known, what Diſtreſſes having brought upon myſelf, in the Obedience to his Pleaſure, I have ſupported Life. Notwithſtanding all this, you make theſe Kinds of Propoſitions and Meſſages on behalf of the Governor. I had never an Idea that the Nawab Governor would behave in ſuch a Manner towards me, as to withdraw his Favour and Friendſhip; if it is really and fully known to you, that the Nawab's Will is to ceaſe the Connection, I will go myſelf to his Preſence, and explain my Situation. Had I any Reſources, I would not make any Delay and Excuſes. If the Nawab will be favourable, it is well; if not, I will remain there. As I, conformably to the Nawab's Letter, conſider what you ſay to have been ſpoken by the Nawab, having repreſented all my Particulars, when you anſwer that in future, there will be no Blame on you for the Diſgrace of this Place; therefore, being remedileſs, I write this much, that my Friendſhips for the Company, the Nawab, and the Gentlemen of Council, are not ſuch as to be thrown to the Wind without a Cauſe; and to the End of my Life I cannot agree to it; the Nature of the Governor's Firſt Meſſage of Friendſhip was ſuch: At this Time, Propoſitions to this Effect confound me greatly. In ſhort, whatever you know of the Nawab's Intentions, write to me explicitly; as in this Caſe my remaining here is impoſſible.

At a Council; Preſent,
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident.
Philip Francis, Edward Wheler, } Eſquires.

READ the following Letters and Incloſure from Mr. Purling.

Honourable Sir, and Gentlemen,

In conformity to your Orders of the 15th December, I addreſſed his Excellency upon the Subject of the Sums required for the Service of the preſent Year; I alſo delivered the Letter written to him by the Honourable the Governor General, prior to which Sir Eyre Coote had taken much Pains to convince him of the Neceſſity of his Compliance.

Mr. Purling. [(b) I have now the Honour to inform you, that his Excellency has been pleaſed to grant Tuncaws for 37,80,000 more, which makes, with the former Grants, about Rupees 1,06,62,000. I beg Leave to encloſe the Account Eſtimate of Demands made on his Excellency and the general Kiſtbundee. I hope the Sum granted will be more than ſufficient for the Exigencies of the Year, though inferior to that of the Eſtimate, which amounts to 120 Lacks, including the Balance of the Honourable Company's Account current with the Vizier to the End of Baudun 1186. Out of this Eſtimate I have omitted the Demand for the Donation to the Army, and the Six Lacks eſtimated Loſs on the Exchange; for the Nabob declares an utter Impoſſibility to provide more Money for the preſent Year; and, indeed, the Situation of his Excellency's Affairs at this Period are *ſuch as demand my faithful Repreſentation of them, and a very ſerious Conſideration on the Part of your Honourable Board; and Sir Eyre Coote, who has an Opportunity of judging on the Spot, has required it of me as a Point of indiſpenſable Duty. To be enabled to provide ſo large a Sum upon the reduced State of his Finances, when Half the Year is elapſed, and One Harveſt totally deſtroyed for want of timely Rain, his Excellency is now certainly getting rid of a great Part of the Animals he has kept, either for his State or for his Diverſion; has reduced Part of his Troops which attended his Perſon, has diſbanded many of his Battalions raiſed for his Collections; has diſcharged a large Number of the Servants of his Houſehold, among whom are included many old Attendants of his Family; and has put an entire Stop to his Buildings. Notwithſtanding theſe Retrenchments, his Excellency has been obliged to give Aſſignments upon his Jagheerdars to the Amount of near 15 Lacks of Rupees. The only Means of relieving the Nabob from his preſent Diſtreſs is, by ſuſpending the Demand of the Balance of the laſt Year's Account current with the Honourable Company, which, I have Reaſon to believe, his Excellency will be ſatisfied with; and there is no Doubt he will be able to pay in the enſuing Year, if the Misfortune of a ſecond Drought does not prevent his reſuming the large Deductions he has been obliged to give his Collectors. If your Honourable Board are pleaſed to give your Aſſent to this, the Accounts of the Grants will ſtand thus:

His Excellency's Balance at End of the Year 1186,	20,60,608 2 1

Balance Tuncaws remaining,	—		90,25,677 11 4

The Amount of the Army Debt I have included in the general Head of Demands on the Nabob, although he has not in fact provided for them; but in caſe the Collections turn out favourably, your Honourable Board may be pleaſed to aſſign ſome Part of them to be liquidated, and it will remain with you to determine at the End of the Year what Part it ſhall be.

The ſettling of the Aſſignments with his Excellency has prevented my Monthly Accounts being hitherto tranſmitted to your Honourable Board, but they will now be prepared and forwarded with Regularity.

Lucknow, the 25th January 1780. (Signed) C. Purling.

The Secretary having drawn up the following Reply to the Resident at the Vizier's Court, he circulated it for the Approbation of the Board, and received back the Minutes which are entered after it.

To Mr. Purling.

Sir,

We have received your Letters of the 29th January and 9th February.

We are very much disappointed at the Vizier's Assignments falling short of the Estimate, notwithstanding your Account is incomplete by the Omission of Sixteen Lacks and an Half of Rupees, which of course leaves an actual Deficiency of Rupees 30,00,188 : 12, in the Supplies for realizing all the Demands of the present Year, to which, if the Sum you propose to be given back of the Assignments, being 16,36,322 : 4 : 8, be added, the Balance at the End of the Year, exclusive of Arrears of Collection, will amount to the Sum of Rupees 46,36,511 : 0 : 8. We cannot therefore consent to any Remission, but, on the contrary, must insist on retaining the Assignments which have been granted, or of receiving others equal to their Amount, in Exchange for such as shall be justly exceptionable.

Fort William, 3d April 1780.

Mr. Francis.—It is my Opinion, that Assignments should be demanded to the Amount of the Estimate as it ought to stand, including the Balance of last Year, and the Articles omitted by Mr. Purling, that is, for the entire Sum of 1,36,62,188 : 12 Rupees. To suspend any Part of this Demand now is only throwing it on the succeeding Year, when every Difficulty that exists at present is very likely to be increased. I could also have wished that Mr. Purling's Letter of the 9th of February had been brought before the Board, and taken into Consideration at an earlier Period.

(Signed) Philip Francis.

I agree in Opinion with Mr. Francis.

(Signed) Edward Wheler.

(a) Vide supra, P. 480.

Governor General.—The Letter is written conformably to the Reſolution of the Board, which was formed, as I underſtood, of the concurrent Opinions of the Members; ſuch is the State of the Vizier's Dominions, that I cannot agree to demand Aſſignments for a larger Amount, much doubting their Capacity to realize even that.

On whomſoever the Reproach may fall, for the Neglect of bringing this Letter earlier before the Board, I muſt for my own Part declare, that it is not imputable to me. The accumulated Difficulties of this Government have thrown a greater Weight of Buſineſs on my Hands than it is poſſible for me wholly to diſcharge, and the Want of Official Aſſiſtance has been a *Sic in Orig. grievious * Addition to my Embarraſſments. Few are the Moments which I allow to Relaxation; and in the Selection of ſuch Subjects as require my Attention, I have been ever attentive to their Priority in point of immediate Urgency and of intrinſic Conſequence. I knew not of this Letter till it came in its Courſe before the Board; I could not therefore bring it earlier to the Conſideration of the Board.

In conſequence of the foregoing Minutes, the following Letter was written and diſpatched to Mr. Purling on the 6th Inſtant.

To Mr. Charles Purling, Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Sir,

We have received your Letter of the 26th January and 9th February.

We are very much diſappointed at the Vizier's Aſſignments falling ſhort of the Eſtimate, notwithſtanding your Account is incomplete by the Omiſſion of Sixteen Lacks and an Half of Rupees, which of courſe leaves an actual Deficiency of Rupees 30,00,188 : 12 in the Supplies for realizing all the Demands of the preſent Year; to which, if the Sum you propoſe to be given back of the Aſſignments, being 16,36,322 : 4 : 8 Rupees, be added, the Balance at the End of the Year, excluſive of Arrears of Collection, will amount to the Sum of Rupees 46,36,511 : 0 : 8. We cannot therefore conſent to any Remiſſion, but, on the contrary, muſt inſiſt not only on retaining the Aſſignments which have been granted, but upon your obtaining additional Aſſignments, to the Amount of the whole Demand of Rupees 1,36,62,188 : 12.

Extract of a Consultation of the 25th October 1774.

Fort William, the 25th October 1774.

At a Council; Present,
The Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, President,
Lieutenant General John Clavering,
The Honourable George Monson,
Richard Barwell, } Esquires.
Philip Francis, }

THE following Minute delivered into Council yesterday by the Governor General being referred for Consideration to this Department, is now recorded, having been sent in Circulation to the different Members of the Board.

Gentlemen,

The Governor's Minute on the Revenue and Politics of the Country.

All the Members of this Council being now assembled, I could wish to point out some general Plan for carrying into Execution the Regulations of the new System of Government, agreeably to the Instructions received from the Company; but upon an attentive Review of the various Subjects which occur, I find it necessary to select such particular Parts of them as seem to claim your earliest Notice, reserving the rest for future Consideration, to be taken up in the Order in which their respective Importance or particular Exigencies may point out. I shall take the Liberty to accompany every Proposition with a brief Relation of such Circumstances and such past Transactions as have any Relation to it, and are necessary to be known for the Purpose of forming your Resolutions upon it. I mean not, Gentlemen, to preclude any other Member of the Council from offering any Point for present Deliberation, which in his Judgment may claim a Preference in point of Time above those which I may wish to introduce. I only propose this Method as the most likely to facilitate the Dispatch of Business, which may be retarded by undertaking too many Subjects at the same Instant. It will unavoidably take some Time to arrange and perfect the new System of this Administration. In the mean while the current Affairs will require your daily Assistance to keep them in Motion; and in both—I mean both in forming the new Mode of Government and conducting the daily Business—you will find it necessary to consult the Records of the former Administration for the sake of due Connection and Consistency. I desire also to shorten the Time and lessen the Trouble of such a Search among the voluminous Books of Consultations, by the Mode I have proposed of laying before you a succinct View of each Subject with References to the Consultations for the successive Orders which have been issued, and the Advices which have been received concerning them. I think it my Duty to add, and I think I may do it without presuming too much upon the Experience which I have acquired in the Affairs of this Government, that I shall be at all Times happy to assist any Member of the Council with my Communications upon any Point upon which he may desire to be so informed.

Professions of Zeal and Solicitude for the public Good are too commonly made use of to be received with implicit Credit; but I feel my own Honour and my own Interest so intimately blended with the successful Issue of the Measures of this Government, that I may with Truth, and without Hazard of having my Declaration suspected, affirm that I have not a Wish even for myself which has not the Good of the Company for its immediate Object, and my own ultimately as derived from it. I believe I may safely conclude the same for the other Gentlemen embarked with me in this great Undertaking; and I have the most thorough Confidence in your Disposition to unite with me in the Prosecution of the Company's Interests; while I with the strictest Sincerity and Cordiality declare that nothing on my Part shall be wanting to render that Union effectual.

The next Point which I have proposed for your Consideration is the political System of these Provinces.

The Alliance with the Nabob Shujah Dowlah, the Vizir of the Empire, is the only Foreign Connection in which the Government can be with Propriety said to be engaged. This took place originally by the Treaty formed by Lord Clive at Illahabad in the Year 1765.

By a new Treaty with the Vizir, dated the 8th September 1773, in consequence of an Interview which I had with him at Banares, the monthly Subsidy for the extraordinary Expence of our Forces employed in his Assistance was fixed at the Sum of 210,000 Rupees for One Brigade, and the Provinces of Corah and Illahabad ceded to him for the Sum of Fifty Lacks of Rupees, of which Twenty Lacks were to be immediately due and were accordingly paid; Fifteen Lacks were to be paid at the Expiration of a Year, and the remaining Fifteen at the Expiration of Two Years.

At the ſame Time the Vizir had ſolicited the Aid of our Troops to reduce the Rohillah Country, lying on the North of his Dominions, between the Ganges and the Mountains of Tibbet. The immediate Plea for theſe Hoſtilities was the Breach of Faith with which the Rohillah Chiefs were charged in the Supplies of Money afforded by them to the Marattas, againſt whom they had ſolicited and obtained the Vizir's Aſſiſtance, under a ſolemn Engagement to pay him Forty Lacks of Rupees on the Departure of the Marattas, and for refuſing afterwards to fulfil that Engagement.

This Enterprize, the Deſign of which furniſhed the firſt Occaſion of my meeting with the Vizir, formed an Article in the original Draught of our Treaty, but it was afterwards omitted at his Deſire, and I promiſed that it ſhould ſtill take place if it ſuited the Affairs of the Company at any other Time, when he ſhould find himſelf in a Condition to reſume it. Accordingly, in the Month of January 1774, the Vizir made a formal Requiſition of the Aſſiſtance of a Brigade of the Company's Forces for the Defence of his Dominions, and for the Proſecution of his former Purpoſe of invading the Country of the Rohillahs. For this Service he engaged to pay the Company, beſides the ſtipulated monthly Subſidy, Forty Lacks of Rupees when it ſhould be concluded. The Vizir's Requeſt was granted. The Second Brigade was ordered on this Service, and Colonel Champion, the Provincial Commander in Chief, appointed to the Command. Having been joined by the Vizir and his Troops, he entered the Rohillah Borders on the 17th April; and on the 23d of the ſame Month attacked and defeated the Army of the Rohillahs, commanded by Hafez Rahmet their Leader, who was killed in the Action. This Victory was deciſive; no other Enemy appeared in the Field; and the Vizir having obtained Poſſeſſion of the greateſt Part of the Country, both Armies marched on the 7th of May to the City of Biſſooly, where Quarters were prepared for them, and it was intended they ſhould paſs the Rains there; but the remaining Leaders of the Rohillahs having aſſembled Forces under the Command of Fyzoola Cawn at Nigeetgur, a Town on the Northern Frontier of the Country; the Vizir apprehending their acquiring too great Strength, and that the Marattas might return to interrupt the Operations before they were brought to a Concluſion, prevailed upon Colonel Champion to put the Brigade again in Motion about the latter End of July, and to march with him againſt the Enemy, although the Rains were then at their Height.

The Troops enjoyed remarkable good Health, and proceeded without Oppoſition to Potteſgur, the Enemy flying before them to the Skirts of the Hills, whither the combined Armies have followed them. They have lain for a conſiderable Time within a ſhort Diſtance of each other, Colonel Champion waiting for Orders from the Select Committee to purſue the Enemy beyond the Line to which he conceived himſelf limited by his Inſtructions; the neceſſary Orders were ſent out, and we have been for ſome Time paſt in daily Expectations of hearing that the War was brought to a Concluſion, either by the Attack and Defeat of the Enemy, or by Negociation. The laſt Letters from Colonel Champion, which you, Gentlemen, have read, were dated the 2d Inſtant, and adviſe that Fizoollah Cawn had delivered himſelf up, but that the Negociation was ſtill continued.

The Advantages propoſed from this Expedition were, 1ſt. An Addition of Territory, and of courſe of Wealth, to the Vizir, in which the Company will always participate. 2d. The Completion of the defenſive Line of his Dominions, by freeing them from an inconvenient Neighbour, and by taking into them the whole Space included between the Ganges and the Northern Mountains. 3d. The Employment of a Third Part of our Force, and a ſaving at the ſame Time of its Expences. And, laſtly, The Stipulation of Forty Lacks, to be paid on the Concluſion of the Undertaking. The Retreat of the Marattas to their ancient Territories, and the violent Diſſenſions which had ariſen in their State, were Arguments ſtrongly favouring the Time which was choſen for beginning the War; and the Juſtice of it is ſupported by the undoubted Refuſal of Hafez Rahmet to fulfil the Conditions of his Treaty with the Vizir, of which the Original, witneſſed by General Sir Robert Barker, is in our Poſſeſſion.

Many detached Events, ſuch as the Claim of the Army to a Share in the Plunder of the conquered Country, the Donation offered to them by the Vizir, a Claim of the King Shaw Alum to a Share of the conquered Diſtricts, will appear in the Courſe of the Correſpondence between the Select Committee and Colonel Champion, and do not require further Notice in this Place.

The Second Payment of the Treaty Money for Cora and Illahabad ſtill remained undiſcharged by the laſt Advices; but Orders had iſſued for effecting it, and an Engliſh Gentleman had been appointed by the Vizir to receive and take charge of it at Fyzabad, his Capital. The Monthly Subſidy has been paid with ſufficient Exactneſs, at leaſt we have had no Information to the contrary. The Forty Lacks of Rupees, ſtipulated for the Performance of the preſent Service, I conſider as now due, though the Vizir makes ſome Objections; but the Defeat of Fyzoolla Cawn's Troops, or the Concluſion of the Negociation with him, has probably, by this Time, put the Company's Right beyond Diſpute. There remains alſo a ſmall Balance of former Accounts ſtill unadjuſted. Theſe will conſtitute the principal Part, if not the whole, of our Concerns with the Vizir. When the Buſineſs on which we have been to this Time engaged with him is concluded, I apprehend no Difficulty in procuring Payment.

The

The Bounds which I had preſcribed to myſelf in this Paper, and which I have already exceeded, will not admit of my entering into a Diſcuſſion of the Benefits depending on the Alliance of the Company with the Vizir. Theſe will appear at large on various Parts of our Records, to which I ſhall hereafter diſtinctly refer. They may be reduced to the following Abridgment—A ſecure Barrier, a conſtant Occupation for Part of our Army, a Reduction of our Military Expences, and an accumulating Fund of future Wealth. He cannot long ſubſiſt without our Protection, and is incapable of himſelf of becoming an Object of our Jealouſy or Apprehenſion.

For the better Communication with the Vizier, and for the Maintenance of that Confidence which is neceſſary to perpetuate the Alliance between the Vizier and the Company, it has been judged adviſable to appoint a Reſident at the Durbar as the immediate Agent of the Governor, with whom alone he officially correſponds. The Gentleman employed in that Station is Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, with whoſe Diſcretion, Integrity, and Ability for the Diſcharge of this Truſt, I have every Reaſon to be abundantly ſatisfied.

The King remains at Delhi, the ancient Capital of the Empire, a mere Cypher in the Adminiſtration of it. With him, our Connection has been a long Time ſuſpended, and I wiſh never to ſee it renewed, as it has proved a fatal Drain to the Wealth of Bengal, and the Treaſury of the Company, without yielding one Advantage or poſſible Source, even of remote Benefits, in Return. The Tribute which he claims from the Provinces hath been withheld from him ſince his Deſertion of the Company, and his Union with their natural Enemies the Mahrattas; and a Reference has been made to the Court of Directors for their Orders concerning the future Payments of it, with every Argument urged that can induce them to forbid it.

The Mahratta State, after having threatened the whole Empire with Subjection during the active Adminiſtration of their Paiſhwa, or acting Chief, Mahderow, has been for this Twelvemonth paſt the Scene of internal Diſtractions, which ſtill ſubſiſt. On the Death of Mahderow, his Brother Narain Row ſucceeded him; he was treacherouſly ſlain, and his Uncle Raganot Row releaſed from Priſon, and declared Paiſhwa in his Stead. The Miniſters of the Government, to whom he owed his Elevation, became the Objects of his Jealouſy; and, acting from that Impreſſion, he made them his Enemies; they formed a powerful Combination againſt him, ſet up the new-born Son of Narain Row in Competition againſt him, and defeated him. He has ſince thrown himſelf on the Protection of Takojee Hulkar, and Mahadajee Sindea, Two Chiefs of Conſideration, who were lately in the Party of his Opponents. The Leaders of this Oppoſition, Sookeram Bolboo the Principal Miniſter, Gaujaboy the Mother of the Paiſhwa, Mahde Row, and Narain Row, Shubajee Bonſela the Chief of Berar, and the Nabob Nizam Alle: The Two laſt may be rather conſidered as Auxiliaries; Moodajee, the Brother of Shubajee, was on the Side of Ragonat Row till his Defeat; both the Brothers are now in Berar. The laſt Letter from Mr. Moſtyn the Reſident at Poonah, dated the 22d Auguſt, explains the State of theſe Diſputes to that Period. They ſeem yet likely to be of longer Duration, and whenever concluded, will probably leave the prevailing Party too weak to undertake any Plan of remote Conqueſt for ſome Time at leaſt to come; of courſe we have no Cauſe to apprehend any Diſturbances from the Mahrattas during the preſent Seaſon.

The Province of Berar, adjoining to our own Borders on the South and Weſt Side of the Provinces, merits from that Conſideration, and from the Power and Independency of its Rulers, a diſtinct Conſideration. The preſent Chief Shawbajee Bonſelah is the Brother of the late Janajee Boonſla, who for many Years paſt enjoyed the Sovereignty of the Country. His Brothers are Moodajee, who has been already mentioned in this Narrative, and Binbajee; the latter poſſeſſes little other Conſequence beſides that which he derives from the Credit of his Family. The Two other Brothers have been long at Variance; but by the Mediation and Authority of Derriaboy, the Widow of Janojee, and a Woman of great Spirit and reputed Ability*, prevented from carrying their Animoſities to violent Extremes. Their being engaged in oppoſite Factions of the Mahratta State, is not a certain Proof of their mutual Enmity, it being (as I underſtand) a Policy not uncommonly practiſed among the Mahrattas, for the ſame Family to take different Sides in Civil Diſſenſions, with a View to its Aggrandiſement.—While I was at Benares the laſt Year, a Vakeel from Shawbajee Booſla arrived at that Place with a Letter addreſſed to me by that Chief, and attended me in Calcutta till the Month of September laſt, when he received his Diſmiſſion to return to his Maſter, in conſequence of Orders received for that Purpoſe. The Purport of Shawbajee's Letter, and the verbal Propoſitions made to me by his Vakeel, was to ſolicit the Friendſhip and Alliance of this Government; to which I have replied in ſuch Terms as were moſt likely to encourage him to nearer Advances, if he has formed any Deſigns which may make it ſtrongly his Intereſt to court the Friendſhip of the Company. He is deſcended from the ancient Rajahs of Sitterah. The preſent Rajah is called Ram Rajah. He has no Children. It is worthy of Remark, and may ſerve to convey ſome Idea of the Inſtability of the preſent Government of the Mahrattas, that it is exerciſed through Two ſubordinate Gradations: The Raja, in whoſe Name all the Orders of the State are iſſued, is deprived of all Authority; the Peiſhwa, or prime Miniſter, an Infant of Nine Months old, and the actual Miniſter or Regent, who exerciſes the legal Powers of both; a Man deriving his Authority ſolely from the Combination of a few wealthy Individuals. From this this divided State of the Mahratta Empire, and the Intereſts and Pretenſions of the ſeveral Competitors for Power amongſt them, great political Advantages may, perhaps, be attained to the Company, to which the preſent united Syſtem of the Company's Eſtabliſhments in India is well calculated to contribute.

* Sic in Orig.

The Governor called on for his Correſpondence with the Reſident at the Vizier's Court, and Col. Champion.

The Commander in Chief propoſes that the Governor General be deſired to lay before the Board his original Correſpondence with the Reſident at the Vizier's Court, and with Colonel Champion, commanding the Troops acting in Conjunction with the Army of the Vizier.

The Governor obſerves on this Propoſition, that he will lay before the Board all ſuch Extracts of the Reſident's and Colonel Champion's Letters as regard the Conduct of Public Affairs; but as they may contain many Things, in the courſe of a free and perſonal Communication, which might not be proper for a Public Record, and as he believes that many of them do contain ſuch, he begs leave to decline laying the original Letters, or the whole of the Correſpondence, before the Board.

The General, in Reply to the Governor, offers the following for the Conſideration of the Board:

The Preſident deſired to give up the whole original Correſpondence.

In order that the Board may judge of the Nature and Extent of the Engagements which have been contracted with Suja Dowla, and how far they have been fulfilled, by the taking of Puttengur, and by the entire Reduction of the Rohilla Country, and with a View to our claiming the Forty Lacks of Rupees ſtipulated by theſe Engagements, and conſequently whether it will be proper to ſend an Order for the immediate Recal of the Brigade, or to leave it there till Sujah Dowla pleaſes to ſend it back, it appears abſolutely neceſſary that the whole of Mr. N. Middleton's and Colonel Champion's Correſpondence, which the late Preſident maintained with them, they being both employed on a Public Service, ſhould be communicated to this Board; and, for the Reaſons above ſtated, he moves that the Governor be deſired to lay the whole of the Correſpondence with the Reſident and Colonel Champion, according to his firſt Propoſal, before the Board.

The Majority of the Board agree in the General's Propoſition, and reſolve, that the Governor be deſired to give in the Letters moved for by the General accordingly.

☞ (a) [THE Governor delivers in the Minute in Diſſent to the Reſolution of the Majority of the Board Yeſterday, which he then promiſed, as follows:

I diſſent from the Reſolution of the Board, becauſe I do not think the whole of the Correſpondence which the Commander in Chief deſires to have laid before the Board, is neceſſary for their Information, and becauſe, as I have already declared, there are ſeveral Parts of Mr. Middleton's, which comprehend an unreſerved and confidential Communication of his Opinion, and of ſuch Occurrences as he judged neceſſary for my private Information, entered into, and carried on by him, on my repeated Aſſurances that I would not reveal any Part of his Correſpondence which might ſubject him to Ill-will or Inconvenience.

That I had a Right to give Mr. Middleton ſuch Aſſurances at the Time I delivered him his Inſtructions, cannot be doubted; and it will be found perfectly conſonant to the Truſt repoſed in me by the Adminiſtration. It was the Condition and expreſs Declaration of the Board in his Appointment, that he ſhould be my official Agent in the Maintenance of that Intercourſe with the Vizier, which the Honourable Company had committed eſpecially and ſolely to my Charge, and for which I alone was reſponſible; ſuch were the Ideas and the Practice, with no Exceptions which could invalidate the Rule, of every Adminiſtration in Bengal, from the Year 1757 to the Diſſolution of the late Government; and I will venture to appeal to the Members of the laſt Council, whether they did not underſtand that I was allowed to employ the Services of Mr. Middleton with the Latitude I have deſcribed.

If the Latitude allowed to me in the Exerciſe of theſe conſtitutional Powers by the former Adminiſtration, ſhould be deemed under the new Government too extenſive, it depends on them to retrench it; but I conceive that Engagements of whatever Nature contracted by me during that Period, underſtood to be conſiſtent with the Rules of the Service and the Powers veſted in me, can loſe no Part of their Obligation by a Change of Government. If theſe Engagements were legal, no Power on Earth can authorize me to violate them; much leſs ſhall I ſubmit to an ex poſt facto Law of ſo ſudden Formation: If they were not legal, I ſhall patiently ſubmit to the Cenſure of thoſe to whom only I am accountable.

I muſt be permitted further to obſerve, That to me the whole Proceeding in this Buſineſs carries the Air of an Inquiſition into my perſonal Conduct, in my Negociations with the Vizir. After having ſolemnly declared to the Board, that I would lay before them every Part of the Correſpondence required, which could give any Information upon public Affairs; without waiting for this Communication, without knowing whether it would furniſh them with every Light that could be deſired, or whether any Chaſm would be found in the Intelligence, for want of the reſt of the Correſpondence, they arbitrarily reſolve, That I ſhould expoſe to them all the Minutiæ of a confidential Correſpondence, and betray into public Record the unreſerved Opinions of a young Man, hazarded only on the moſt ſacred Aſſurances of Secrecy, from the only Perſon to whom he looked upon himſelf as accountable in that immediate Duty. I muſt declare, that I regard this as prejudging a Matter not yet completely laid before the Board, merely to convey a Cenſure on my former Adminiſtration in the Branch of Correſpondence with the Foreign Powers, and to introduce the Change propoſed with every Circumſtance of Mortification to me.

I will conclude with a few Words, which I think neceſſary, reſpecting Mr. Middleton, for obviating any Conſtruction to his Prejudice which may be drawn from what I have ſaid of the ſecret Nature of Part of his Correſpondence. I therefore now declare, that I never either expected or received from him any Information reſpecting Individuals, which the ſtricteſt Honour could not juſtify, nor has he ever conveyed to me an Opinion or a Word reflecting upon the

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 506.

Character of any Gentleman in the Service, unleſs the Letters which I ſhall lay before the Board ſhall be conſtrued to have ſuch Tendency. As to the reſt, I am certain that the whole of Mr. Middleton's Management, including even his moſt ſecret and confidential Correſpondence, whenever it ſhall be publicly known, will reflect Honour both on his Principles and Abilities, and recommend him to the Notice of his Employers, in a Manner that will be favourable to himſelf, and do Credit to me in the Choice I made of him.

I have now formally to acquaint the Board, that all the official Letters of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, and ſuch Parts, even of his private Correſpondence, as I can with Propriety ſhew, ſhall be laid before them; a Copy alſo ſhall be delivered of my Letters addreſſed to him, in which I ſhall obſerve the ſame Reſervation.

All Colonel Champion's official Letters ſhall be laid before the Board, with Copies of mine to him if required; but ſuch as have paſſed between us of a familiar and friendly Communication, I do not think myſelf authorized to produce, becauſe they were written only for our mutual Information, and his are expreſsly marked with a diſtinct Mode of Addreſs, for thoſe which are intended for official, and for thoſe which he intended as confidential. I am the more obſervant of this Rule towards Colonel Champion, becauſe our Correſpondence has not been altogether cordial on many Points; and we have ſeveral Times expoſtulated with each other on theſe Topics, with the Freedom of private Friends, and in a Style which, though decent in every Degree, is yet different perhaps from the formal Addreſſes of official Correſpondence.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

The General thinks it proper to proteſt againſt the Governor's Refuſal to deliver up the whole of the Correſpondence, and will deliver his Reaſons in a Minute To-morrow.

Colonel Monſon the ſame; and

Mr. Francis the ſame.

Colonel Monſon propoſes the following Queſtion to the Board:

Whether or not Mr. Middleton ſhould be continued Reſident at the Court of the Vizir, the Governor having refuſed to lay before the Board the whole of his Correſpondence?

This Queſtion being accordingly put;

Mr. Francis thinks that he ſhould not be continued.

Mr. Barwell thinks that it would be improper to remove him at this Juncture.

Colonel Monſon thinks that Mr. Middleton ſhould not be continued there.

The Commander in Chief alſo thinks that he ought not to be continued.

The Governor objects to the Removal of Mr. Middleton.

Reſolved by the Majority of the Board, That Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be not continued Reſident at the Vizir's Court.

The Governor enters the following Diſſent to this Reſolution:

I diſſent from the Reſolution of the Majority of the Board, for the Diſmiſſion of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton from his Employment; and I hereby enter my ſolemn Proteſt againſt all the Conſequences of ſo violent a Meaſure, which proclaims to all the Powers of Hindoſtan, in almoſt the firſt Public Act of the new Adminiſtration, the total Abolition of the Authority which they have hitherto ſeen exerciſed by me, either in Perſon or through my official Agent, as the firſt and executive Member of the Government of Bengal, an Authority which has been confirmed to me by an Act of the Britiſh Legiſlature, and eſpecially aſſigned me by the Inſtructions of the Honourable the Court of Directors, in the Clauſe appointing me the ſole Channel of Correſpondence with the Princes and Powers of India.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.]

The Commander in Chief propoſes, that Mr. Middleton be immediately ordered to repair to the Preſidency, and directed to bring down with him the whole of his Correſpondence during his Reſidence at the Court of the Vizir; and to order Mr. Grady to come down with the Money he has received from Sujah Dowla on Account of the Second Payment ſtipulated in the Treaty of Benaras, and if he has not already received any, to come away without waiting further.

Mr. Francis agrees to both Parts of the General's Propoſal.

Mr. Barwell delivers his Opinion as follows:

As the Majority of the Board have reſolved to call on the Governor for his original Correſpondence, and don't leave him to be the Judge of what is only material for the Board's Information, the natural Reſult is the Call now made upon Mr. Middleton. I think, as I before delivered my Sentiments, that this ſhould be declined; for I cannot imagine that private Correſpondence, for ſuch I deem all that has not immediate Relation to public Affairs, can be of the leaſt Utility in judging the Subject before us.

(Signed) R. B.

Colonel Monſon againſt the General's Propoſal in both Parts.

The Governor objects to the laſt Part of the Propoſal, becauſe it ſeems to imply that Mr. Middleton ſhould bring the whole of his Correſpondence with him, public and private, the laſt of which he conceives the Board can have no Right to demand from him or any Perſon.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, by a Majority of the Board, That Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be ordered down to the Preſidency, and directed to bring the whole of his Correſpondence with him.

Ordered therefore, that the Secretary diſpatch to him the following Letter.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton.

SIR,

Letter to Mr. N. Middleton.

The Honourable the Governor General and Council having judged it expedient to withdraw you from the Vizir's Court, I am directed to ſignify to you their Commands, that you repair immediately to the Preſidency, bringing with you the whole of your Correſpondence during your Reſidence there, and that you alſo order Mr. Grady thither directly, with the Money which he may have received at Fyzabad, in conſequence of the Charge you entruſted him with.

You are, on taking leave of the Vizir, to acquaint him, that your Departure will not interrupt the Intercourſe of this Government with him, and that Colonel Champion, or the Commanding Officer of the Brigade, will, in the mean Time, be charged with any Negociations which you may have unfiniſhed with him; and you will accordingly leave in Writing with Colonel Champion, or the Commanding Officer, a State of the ſeveral Sums due to the Company by the Vizir, in conſequence of his different Engagements, the Payments he may have made in Diſcharge of them, and the Balances which remain due, and, in general, all the Papers and Documents relating to your pecuniary Tranſactions with him, that the ſaid Officer may be enabled to liquidate theſe Accounts as ſoon as poſſible.

Fort William, the 26th October 1774. We are, &c.

It being reſolved to recall Mr. Middleton, the Commander in Chief propoſes, that Colonel Champion, or the Officer commanding the Brigade, be appointed to treat with Suja Dowla in the Room of Mr. Middleton.

Mr. Francis agrees to this Propoſal.

Mr. Barwell thinks, that, in conſequence of the Recall of Mr. Middleton, the Neceſſity of an Appointment in his Room, in the preſent Juncture, is obvious; but he never obſerved, in any general Propoſition of this Nature, that it involved the Nomination of a particular Perſon; and he has many Reaſons for objecting to our political Affairs with the Aſiatic Princes being carried on through a military Medium. For this Reaſon, and in conſequence of the Precedent before the Board, Mr. Barwell declares he muſt propoſe a civil Servant of the Company to this Charge, though he will not venture to name any particular Perſon, leaving that to the Governor, as has been cuſtomary hitherto.

Colonel Monſon agrees to the General's Propoſal.

The Governor objects againſt appointing the military Commander.

Reſolved by the Majority.

Reſolved by the Majority, according to the General's Propoſal, that the Commanding Officer of the Army in the Field be appointed to treat with the Vizir in the Room of Mr. N. Middleton.

The Governor's Diſſent.

The Governor judges it proper to enter the following Diſſent and Proteſt againſt this Appointment.

I diſſent from this Reſolution, and proteſt againſt the Conſequences which may attend it, becauſe it cuts off all Communication between Government and the Vizir but through the Channel of the Commander of the Army, which is contrary to the * Article of the Company's Inſtructions; becauſe it gives the Commander of the Army the Power of deciding in all Caſes of Difference between himſelf and the Vizir; and, by ſo declared a Proof of the Prevalence of the military Influence, inevitably tends to diſſolve the Alliance between the Company and the Vizir, who can hope for no Redreſs from an Appeal to the Government, and muſt therefore either ſubmiſſively acquieſce in every Act of the military Commander, however violent, or ſeek for a Remedy in other Alliances.

* Sic in Orig.

By the Syſtem hitherto eſtabliſhed, the Controul of the Board has been ſufficient to reſtrain the Power of the military Commander from every dangerous Exceſs, had he been diſpoſed to make that ill Uſe of it; and the Vizir was freed from every Apprehenſion of the Kind by his Reliance on the Interpoſition of the Governor, to whom he had an immediate Appeal. To whomſoever this dangerous Truſt may be delegated, which is now given to the Officer who may chance to be in the Command at the Time that the Orders of the Council may reach the Army, I declare that I cannot, conſiſtently with my Duty, admit his Advices as authentic, ſince it is his Intereſt to conceal from the Knowledge of the Council every Circumſtance and Tranſaction, which, if known, might ſubject his Conduct to blame, or oppoſe any Deſign which his Ambition, his Intereſt, or Prejudices, might dictate.

The Board have been pleaſed to compliment me with the Nomination of the Perſon who ſhould ſucceed Mr. Nath. Middleton in his Office, and I have declined it, becauſe I foreſaw, in his Removal, the Reſolution to throw all Power and Truſt into the Hands of the military Commander. The Propoſal was actually made to this Effect before the Intimation of any Reference to my Choice; and with ſo recent an Inſtance of my own Agent recalled, without a ſingle Proof or Suſpicion alleged of his Miſconduct, I did not chuſe to expoſe any other Perſon whom I ſhould recommend to the Hazard of ſuffering the ſame cauſeleſs Diſgrace.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, That the Governor General be deſired to write to the Vizir, acquainting him of the new Government having taken place, of Mr. Middleton's Recall from his Court, and of the Appointment of the Commanding Officer of the Brigade in the Interim to treat with him in the Room of Mr. Middleton. The Governor requeſted to write to the Vizir.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 2d December 1776.

Fort William, the 2d December 1776.

At a Council; Preſent, Secret Dep. Monday.
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,
General Clavering,
Richard Barwell,
and
Philip Francis, } Eſquires.

☞ (a) [THE Governor General moves, that Mr. John Briſtow be recalled from the Court of the Nabob of Oude, and that Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be reſtored to the Appointment of Reſident at that Court.]

Mr. Francis.—I beg leave to aſk the Governor General, whether he means the ſame Office which Mr. Middleton before held at that Court, which I think the Word reſtore ſeems to imply?

Governor General.—I do not, in the Senſe in which Mr. Francis ſeems to underſtand it. The Court of Directors having expreſſed their Diſapprobation of the Channel through which he was to receive his Inſtructions, that is no Part of my preſent Propoſal. But, that I may not be miſunderſtood, I beg leave to correct my Motion, and to propoſe, which is in Effect only what I meant by the preceding, That Mr. Briſtow be recalled from the Court of the Nabob of Oude, and that Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be reſtored to the Appointment of Reſident at that Court, ſubject to the Orders and Authority of the Governor General and Council.

Mr. Francis.—My Determination to withdraw myſelf from an unavailing Conteſt with the preſent Majority of the Board, does not depend on any Act of theirs; Motives of perſonal Intereſt or Animoſity did not dictate to me the Line which I have hitherto followed in public Affairs, nor ſhall they have any Influence over my future Conduct.

Without affecting to conceal my own immediate Senſe of the Injuſtice done to Mr. Briſtow; I need look nowhere but to the Meaſure itſelf for Arguments to oppoſe it; a Propoſition to remove him from a Station he has filled with diſtinguiſhed Credit to himſelf, and Advantage to the Company, and for no other avowed Reaſon, but to give his Place to another, is open to Objections too ſerious and important in a public View to be mixed with any Conſideration of the perſonal Concern which I may receive from it. Having already mentioned them at the Board, I ſhall content myſelf with giving a Negative to the Queſtion, reſerving a more formal Declaration of my Opinion on the whole Subject, for a Diſſent to the Reſolution, which I take for granted will follow the Motion.

(Signed) Philip Francis.

Mr. Barwell.—I aſſent to the Motion becauſe I think it a Juſtice due to Mr. Middleton, and what the Governor General could not avoid taking the firſt Opportunity of effecting. I have not the leaſt perſonal Objection to Mr. Briſtow; ſo very far from it, that did I not conceive it would be prolonging the Injury already done to Mr. Middleton, to keep that Gentleman in the Station to which he was advanced on the Removal of Mr. Middleton, I ſhould have been glad to have had him ſtill employed; but I cannot indulge the Wiſh I have to ſerve Mr. Briſtow, at the Expence of what I conceive the Rights of another.

General Clavering.—The Motion before the Board comprehends Two Queſtions, the Removal of Mr. Briſtow, and the reſtoring Mr. Middleton to the Office of Reſident to the Vizir's Court: To enable me to give my Opinion on the Firſt, I muſt beg the Favour of the Governor

General

General to inform the Board of his Charge againſt Mr. Briſtow, and the Faults which he has committed, that have induced him to make the preſent Motion for Mr. Briſtow's Recall.

Governor General.—I bring no Charge againſt Mr. Briſtow; I do not accuſe him of any Faults; I know of no Charge that was produced againſt Mr. Middleton when he was removed; the Majority of the Board thought it proper at that Time to remove the public Miniſter at the Court of the Nabob of Oude, who had received his Nomination from me, and to appoint another in his ſtead, in whom they had a Confidence. Highly as I eſteem the Merits of Mr. Middleton, I will not bring them into an invidious Compariſon with thoſe of Mr. Briſtow, whom, though totally unknown to me but by his public Character, I eſteem; I have a greater Confidence in Mr. Middleton, and as the Reſponſibility of all public Meaſures has been pointedly thrown upon myſelf and Mr. Barwell, in the numerous Diſſents and Proteſts which have been recorded during the Courſe of the Two laſt Months, I claim the Right belonging to that Reſponſibility and conſtitutionally to the Office which I fill, as the Head and executive Member of this Government, to chuſe the Means and Inſtruments by which it may be exerciſed, and in the moſt effectual Manner for the Good of the Service and the Credit of thoſe who are inveſted with the Charge of it.

General Clavering.—I am ſatisfied with the Anſwer that the Governor General has given; that he brings no Charge againſt Mr. Briſtow, nor does he accuſe him of any Faults. This Declaration will be at leaſt ſome Conſolation to Mr. Briſtow and his Friends, and will ſhew the Court of Directors that he has not exerciſed the Truſt which has been repoſed in him, even in the Governor General's Opinion, unworthily. The Governor General is pleaſed to ſay, that he knew of no Charge that was produced againſt Mr. Middleton when he was recalled, but it is impoſſible that he can have forgot the Reaſons that were aſſigned for it. It appears in the Conſultation 26th October 1774, that the Governor General having refuſed to deliver up the whole of his Correſpondence with Mr. Middleton, the Queſtion was propoſed and put, That that Gentleman ſhould not be continued at the Nabob's Court any longer, and he was accordingly ordered to withdraw from that Court, and to bring the whole of his Correſpondence with him: The Court of Directors have had this Subject very fully before them, and in their Letter 15th December 1775, they were pleaſed to diſapprove of the independent and ſeparate Authority which had been delegated to the Governor General, and afterwards to expreſs their Diſapprobation that any Part of Mr. Middleton's Correſpondence had been withheld from the Peruſal of the Supreme Council. The Board did not conſider Mr. Middleton as a public Miniſter, the Term which the Governor General now gives to him, but his own Agent, as he avowedly was acknowledged both by the Governor General himſelf, and by Mr. Middleton, on his Return to the Preſidency, who, in his Letter recorded the 6th February 1775, declares, that he conceives himſelf not to be authoriſed to make any Communication of his Correſpondence with the late Preſident, without his expreſs Commands. Such were the Reaſons which the late Majority of the Board aſſigned for the Recall of Mr. Middleton. As no Fault nor Imputation of Fault or Neglect is alledged for the propoſed Recall of Mr. Briſtow, I cannot but object to it as a moſt unjuſt, unwarrantable Proceeding. If the Governor General will think proper to defer his Motion till after the Arrival of the Eagle Packet, which may be now hourly expected, it is more than probable, that we ſhall have further Lights than have been hitherto given to us, of the Sentiments of the Court of Directors, both on Mr. Middleton's Recall and on Mr. Briſtow's Appointment to the Vizir's Court. I would therefore, with the Governor General's Conſent, beg leave to propoſe that the Motion be deferred till after the Arrival of that Ship.

Governor General.—I think it a Duty incumbent on me to adhere to my Motion. I will not take up the Time of the Board by anſwering the Objections which have been made to it at this Time, having other Queſtions which I wiſh to propoſe immediately for their Determination.

Mr. Francis.—I think General Clavering's Propoſal in every Reſpect reaſonable and expedient. If the Inſtructions which we may receive by the Eagle Packet ſhould make no Alteration in the Circumſtances or Meaſures of this Government, it will always be opened to the Governor General to purſue his preſent Plan. The Difference of Time cannot be conſiderable; but if ſuch Inſtructions as this Board have ſome Reaſon to expect ſhould arrive, they cannot but produce the immediate Reverſal of the preſent Reſolution; and in that Caſe it will have ſerved no Purpoſe whatſoever either public or private.

Governor General.—I would willingly wait for the Arrival of the Eagle Packet, if I thought it probable that ſhe was on her Road; I have already waited till this Time, in the Expectation of deciſive Advices from England, but I repeat, that, charged as I am, pointedly charged, with the Reſponſibility of public Affairs, it is my Duty to avail myſelf of ſuch Means as may enable me to conduct them for the public Good and my own Credit. I have Intelligence which convinces me that no public Meaſure of any Conſequence reſpecting this Government could have taken place in England ſo late as the Month of June laſt. This News, though not of official Authority, is come to me ſufficiently authenticated for my own internal Conviction: I muſt therefore object to the General's Motion.

Mr. Barwell.—The Governor General having declined to withdraw his Motion, and the Opinion I have already given being direct to the Governor's Motion, it precludes my ſaying any Thing to the General.

General Clavering.—I am ſorry that a Motion which I have made to prevent the daily Alteration of Meaſures, which is a Diſgrace to all Government, ſhould not have been accepted, particularly when the Object of it was to learn the clear and deciſive Opinion of the Court of Directors, as well on the Subject now before the Board, as on many others of the higheſt Importance to this Government; it is therefore ſufficient that I declare my Diſſent to the Removal of Mr. Briſtow; and I cannot agree to the Appointment of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton till he has acknowledged the Authority of this Government, in ſubmitting to give up the Papers which were before required of him. As this is a poſitive Order of the Court of Directors, a Refuſal from him can no longer be admitted.

Mr. Francis.—I beg leave to aſk the Governor General at what time he received his lateſt Intelligence from England.

Governor General.—About the Middle of Auguſt, I believe the 14th of Auguſt.

Mr. Francis.—I took the Liberty of aſking this Queſtion, becauſe the Governor General has ſaid, that he has waited to this Time in the Expectation of deciſive Advices from England: That Expectation muſt have been founded on the Intelligence which he received on the 14th of Auguſt; and as he has not received any Advices ſince that Period, I do not comprehend what new Motive or Conſideration induces him to give up the Expectation of thoſe deciſive Advices for which he has hitherto waited. If he has hitherto expected the Arrival of the Eagle Packet, or of Intelligence by any other Channel, there is no apparent Reaſon why he ſhould not ſtill expect them.

Governor General.—I have not expected the Eagle Packet, and I think the Seaſon is now too far advanced for Intelligence to be received for ſome Months yet to come by the Route through which I received my laſt Letters from England, which was by the Poſt of Suez, and through the Red Sea.

Some Arguments ariſing reſpecting the Regularity of the previous Queſtion propoſed by General Clavering for ſuſpending the Conſideration of the Governor General's Motion;

Governor General.—To bring the General's Motion more regularly before the Board, I deſire that the Queſtion may be put, whether my Motion ſhall be deferred till the Arrival of the Eagle Packet?

Mr. Francis.—The General's Motion cannot be more regularly put than it was by himſelf. I entirely approve of it.

Mr. Barwell.—I look upon this in the Light of a previous Queſtion, whether the Governor General's Queſtion ſhall be put or not? I have already acquieſced to its being put, and muſt therefore put a Negative upon this Motion.

General Clavering agrees to the Motion.

Governor General.—I again object to it.

Reſolved, That the Board do not agree to General Clavering's Propoſition for deferring the Conſideration of the Governor General's Motion until the Arrival of the Eagle Packet.

General Clavering.—The Court of Directors having been pleaſed, in the 28th Paragraph of their Letter, of the 15th December 1775, to declare that Mr. Nathaniel Middleton's Correſpondence with the late Preſident ſhould have been addreſſed to the Preſident and Council, or ſpeedily and unreſervedly laid before them by the Preſident, and to expreſs their Diſapprobation that any Part thereof had been with-held from the Peruſal of the Supreme Council; I move, that before the Conſent of this Board be obtained for the Appointment of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton to the Vizier's Court, that the Orders, or at leaſt the plain and direct Intention, of the Court of Directors be complied with.

Mr. Francis.—If any Reſpect be due to the Senſe of our Superiors, or if we expect Submiſſion to our Authority hereafter, the Propriety of this Motion, I conceive, cannot poſſibly be diſputed. The Court of Directors, and a General Court of Proprietors, have unanimouſly reſolved, that the whole of Mr. Middleton's Correſpondence with the Governor General ought to have been laid before the Board; and the Court of Directors expreſs their ſtrongeſt Diſapprobation of the Refuſal to communicate ſuch Correſpondence entire to us, as long as no Propoſition was made for employing Mr. Middleton; and as the Public Service did no longer require that we ſhould receive that Communication for our Guidance, it was needleſs to renew the Reſignation to Mr. Middleton. I would now have it renewed, upon the ſingle Ground of the Obedience he owes to Government; and I ſhould think that the Governor General himſelf, although he might have Reaſons to avoid inſiſting upon it at that Time, when the Requiſition only proceeded from General Clavering, Colonel Monſon, and myſelf, will now ſee the Neceſſity of enforcing it as a Duty impoſed upon this Board by the whole Authority of the Eaſt India Company.

Mr. Barwell.—This is the Second previous Queſtion that has been put upon the Governor General's Motion; it comes indeed in a new Dreſs, but ſtill it is the previous Queſtion; for if it was not to reſtore Mr. Middleton to his Rights, and the Governor General did not think it incumbent on him ſo to do, I apprehend the Motion would not have been made. I acquieſce with Mr. Francis, that there would have been no Neceſſity for calling upon Mr. Middleton for his Correſpondence at this Juncture, if the Governor had not propoſed to employ him, as it is evident from the Length of Time that has elapſed ſince the Receipt of the Company's Letter, and the Call now propoſed to be made upon Mr. Middleton, the Company have diſapproved of the Governor General's not giving his Correſpondence entire, although what he did ſubmit contained the whole of of the public Tranſactions; but as they throughout cautiouſly avoid imputing the leaſt Blame to Mr. Middleton, I don't ſee that the Governor's Conduct can be a Bar to any Appointment that may be propoſed for that Gentleman.

I regard the Motion as a ſecond previous Queſtion, and put my Negative upon it.

General Clavering agrees to the Motion.

Governor General.—I object to the Queſtion, upon the ſingle Ground of its being directly contrary to the manifeſt Intentions both of the Court of Directors and the General Court of Proprietors; neither of theſe Courts have ordered that Mr. Middleton's Correſpondence with me ſhould be laid before the Board. This, together with the Recall of Mr. Middleton, and the Appointment of Mr. Briſtow, were the firſt Subjects which were referred to their Deciſion. Their Opinions, though ſolemnly given, expreſs neither Approbation nor Diſapprobation of the Recall of Mr. Middleton or the Appointment of Mr. Briſtow, but leave thoſe Subjects open to any Change which might afterwards be propoſed reſpecting either.—Upon my Refuſal to deliver up Mr. Middleton's Correſpondence, the Court of Directors have expreſſed their Diſapprobation, that any Part thereof had been with-held from the Peruſal of the Supreme Council; but though it ſhould obviouſly follow, if ſuch was their Intention, that I ſhould, on Receipt of their Orders, deliver up the Correſpondence which I had before improperly with-held, yet no ſuch Order, nor Intimation of ſuch an Order, appears in any Part of the General Letter quoted by the General; and the Court of Proprietors in expreſs Terms confine their Approbation of the Opinion delivered by the Court of Directors to the Time paſt. They too agree with the Opinion of the Court of Directors, that the whole Correſpondence between the Governor General and Mr. Middleton ſhould have been laid before the Members of the Supreme Council, adding, as the Reaſon, the following Words: "Who ought to have received every Information reſpecting the Tranſactions of the Company's Agent at Sujah Dowlah's Court, in order to regulate their Conduct at that critical Period."

Forgetfulneſs may be imputed to Individuals, but it is impoſſible to ſuppoſe that Twenty Men of known Abilities and Experience in Buſineſs, ſhould have omitted ſo neceſſary an Order, or left it to be gathered by Implication from an Opinion given upon a Subject paſt; much leſs can ſuch an Inadvertency be imputed to the whole Body of the Proprietors. I object to the Motion.

The following Motion of General Clavering's is reſolved in the Negative, viz. That before the Conſent of this Board be obtained for the Appointment of Mr. Middleton to the Vizier's Court, that the Orders, or at leaſt the plain and direct Intentions, of the Court of Directors be complied with, viz. That Mr. Nathaniel Middleton's Corrreſpondence with the late Preſident ſhould be ſpeedily and unreſervedly laid before the Board.

☞ (a) [Reſolved, That Mr. John Briſtow be recalled to the Preſidency from the Court of the Nabob of Owde, and that Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be reſtored to the Appointment of Reſident at that Court, ſubject to the Orders and Authority of the Governor General and Council, conformably to the Motion of the Governor General.]

Mr. Francis.—I beg leave to enter my Diſſent from the Reſolution of the Board, for the following Reaſons: ☜

1ſt. Mr. Briſtow's Removal is not founded on any Plea of Neceſſity, or of Advantage to the Public Service, but ſolely on the particular Confidence which the Governor repoſes in Mr. Middleton.

2d. It is not founded on any Plea of Incapacity or Demerit in Mr. Briſtow, or even of ſuperior Qualifications in the Perſon who is to ſucceed him.

3d. It is in Effect a Diſavowal of, and Contradiction to, the unanimous Declarations which the Board have repeatedly made as well to himſelf as to the Court of Directors, of the high Senſe we all entertain of his Services to the Company, and which I am happy to find is not yet diminiſhed in any of us. The following Paſſages from the Records will ſhew that, however we might differ as we did on many other Queſtions, Mr. Briſtow's Conduct united every Opinion in his Favour.

In our Letter of the 3d Auguſt 1775, we informed the Court of Directors, that Mr. Briſtow's Conduct in negociating, and bringing to a happy Concluſion, the important Buſineſs committed to him, notwithſtanding the Difficulties which were at firſt thrown in the Way, was very meritorious, and that, as the ſignal Service he rendered the Company, in the Acquiſition of ſo great an additional Revenue, afforded us the Means of acknowledging his Services, without any Charge on their ancient Fund, we determined to reward him by a Preſent of One Lack of Rupees.

While ſuch diſtinguiſhed Teſtimonials accompany Mr. Briſtow's Diſmiſſion, the preſent Reſolution touches nothing but the Honour of the Board, and the Conſiſtency of their Proceedings: Our Letter to Mr. Briſtow himſelf demonſtrates ſtill more ſtrongly the Board's unanimous Approbation of his Conduct.

We told him,

We intirely approve of every Article in the Treaty, and of the Negociation of it.

We ſaid, that in ratifying a Treaty ſo highly honourable and advantageous to the Company, as that which you have had the Honour of concluding with the Nabob, we cannot, in Juſtice to your diſtinguiſhed Zeal and Aſſiduity in the Courſe of this important Negociation, omit expreſſing to you the higheſt Approbation of your Conduct, and returning you our Thanks for the Service you have rendered to the Company. The Terms you have obtained are ſo complete and ſatisfactory, that they equal our warmeſt Expectations and you may be aſſured, that we ſhall not fail to repreſent the whole of your Conduct ſince your Appointment, to the Honourable Court of Directors, in that favourable Light in which it appears to us, and in which we do not doubt it will be received by the Company.

As a further Mark of Favour and Approbation, we have agreed to order a Bond to be made out in your Favour, for One Lack of Rupees, bearing Intereſt at 5 per Cent. from the 21ſt May, being the Date of the Signature of the Treaty, ſubject however to the final Approval of the Honourable the Court of Directors, to whom we ſhall recommend it as a juſt Reward of your Services.

The intended Reward however has not been received by Mr. Briſtow; it would not be improper to inſert in this Place, a Copy of the whole Treaty of Fyzabad, ſince there is not a Line of it, that does not in effect arraign the Juſtice of the preſent Reſolution. I ſhall however only mention thoſe Two Articles in favour of the Company, which a leſs faithful Servant, and a leſs honourable Man, might have uſed the Latitude allowed him by his Inſtructions, and eaſily have compounded for Abatements, yet ſtill have preſerved the Credit of having rendered an eſſential Service to his Employers: I mean the Acquiſition of a net Revenue of Twenty-three Lacks, with all the Rights of the Nabob over the Country of Benares, and of Six Lacks a Year in Addition to the Subſidy. The Company, I truſt, will long preſerve the Poſſeſſion of theſe Acquiſitions, as well as a grateful Senſe of the Ability and Integrity to which they owe it.

4th. At a Time when the Eſtabliſhment of our Ally the Nabob of Owde is repreſented to be inſecure, and when ſome extraordinary Meaſures are recommended for protecting his Dominions againſt a foreign Invaſion, I deem it in the higheſt Degree hazardous to the Welfare of his Government, and of courſe to our own, to remove a Man thoroughly acquainted with the Affairs of that Country, and with the political Intereſts, Views, and Connections of all the Indian Powers that ſurround it; and that if the Meaſure were otherwiſe defenſible, many Circumſtances which peculiarly belong to the preſent Conjuncture, ought to have deterred the Board from adopting it.

5th. The preſent Reſolution appears to me an Attack on the Authority of the Company themſelves, who are informed of Mr. Briſtow's Appointment, who have left it unreverſed, and who have expreſsly adopted and confirmed the Principles on which Mr. Middleton was recalled.

6th. Suppoſing the preſent Majority not to be bound by any Obligation of public Duty, to maintain an Uniformity of Councils in the Eyes of the Indian Powers, and to preſerve ſome Appearance of Dignity and Conſiſtency in the Operations of this Government, and ſuppoſing that the Governor General and Mr. Barwell have no Rule to conſult, but the Extent of their preſent Power, to direct them in the Uſe of it; ſtill I affirm that, on any Principles they can poſſibly avow, the Recall of Mr. Middleton is not a Precedent to juſtify that of Mr. Briſtow. The Records will ſhew that the Motives on which the late Majority acted, were ſolely of a Public Nature. We deemed it a Violation of the Conſtitution of this or any Government, not veſted in a ſingle Perſon, that the chief Member of it, who is no more than Firſt among his Equals, ſhould tranſact the Affairs of the Government, through the Channel of a private Agent, receiving Inſtructions from him alone, and anſwerable to him alone for the Execution of them: The Honourable Court of Directors themſelves tell us, "That the Conduct of the late Council in this Reſpect was very improper. They expreſsly order that no ſuch independent or ſeparate Authority be ever delegated to any Governor, or Member of Council, or to any other Perſon whatever; and they declare that Mr. Middleton's Correſpondence ſhould have been addreſſed to them, or ſpeedily and unreſervedly laid before them by the Preſident."

If the public Principle on which we profeſſed to act, be now clear and incontrovertible, it will appear from the ſtrongeſt preſumptive Evidence, that we did not aſſume it to cover any ſecret unwarrantable Purpoſe.

The Governor General himſelf will acquit us of partial Views to the Eſtabliſhment of any other Perſon at the Expence of Mr. Middleton. He cannot but recollect that General Clavering, Colonel Monſon, and myſelf, made him a Tender of continuing Mr. Middleton as the Public Reſident of the Company, which the Governor thought fit to decline. With reſpect to Mr. Briſtow, I moſt ſolemnly declare, that his Name for this Appointment was not, to my Knowledge, in Contemplation with any Member of the Board, till a conſiderable Time after Mr. Middleton's Arrival in Calcutta. If vindictive Meaſures were in any Caſe capable of a Juſtification, it could only ariſe from a Compariſon with other Meaſures of the ſame Temper; but, even on this Principle, the Removal of Mr. Briſtow has no Plea to ſupport it.

To Mr. John Briſtow.

Sir,

Having thought proper to recall you to the Preſidency, and to reſtore Mr. Nathaniel Middleton to the Station of Reſident at the Vizier's Court, we direct that on his Arrival at the ſaid said Court, you immediately deliver up to him the Charge of that Appointment, and repair to Calcutta.

Extract of a Letter from the Court of Directors to the Council at Bengal, dated 4th July 1777.

☞ (a) [Par. 11. UPON the most careful Perusal of your Proceedings of the 2d of December 1776, relative to the Recall of Mr. Bristow from the Court of the Nabob of Oude, and the Appointment of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton to that Station, we must declare our strongest Disapprobation of the whole of that Transaction.

12. We observe, that the Governor General's Motion for the Recall of Mr. Bristow, includes that for the Restoration of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton; but as neither of those Measures appear to us necessary, or even justifiable, they cannot receive our Approbation.

13. With respect to Mr. Bristow, we find no Shadow of Charge against him. It appears that he has executed the Orders of the Board to the entire Satisfaction even of those Members of Council who did not concur in his Appointment. You have unanimously recommended him to our Notice; Attention to your Recommendation has induced us to afford him Marks of our Favour, and to re-annex the Emoluments affixed by you to his Appointment, which had been discontinued by our Order. And as we must be of Opinion that a Person of acknowledged Abilities, whose Conduct has thus gained him the Esteem of his Superiors, ought not to be degraded without just Cause, we do not hesitate to interpose in his Behalf, and therefore direct, that Mr. Bristow do forthwith return to his Station of Resident at Oude, from which he has been so improperly removed.]

14. In regard to Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, to whose Conduct we have no other Objection than his refusing to submit his Correspondence to the Perusal of the Governor General and Council, we feel a Concern in being obliged again to express our Disapprobation of such Refusal, and are particularly sorry that the Tenderness with which we treated the Subject in our Letter of the 15th December 1775, should have induced the Governor General to draw Conclusions manifestly contrary to our Intentions, and to the Sentiments expressed in that Letter.

15. In order to obviate every Doubt on this Head, we hereby order and direct, that our Governor General do forthwith deliver in to your Board all such Parts of his Correspondence with Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, from the Day of his Departure from Fort William, as have hitherto been withheld from your Perusal, or withdrawn from the said Correspondence.

16. It is also our express Direction that Mr. Middleton deliver to you without Delay, the whole of his original Correspondence with the Governor General, with Sujah ul Dowlah, and with all and every other Person, on public Business, from the Time of his Departure from Fort William in January 1774, to his Return thither in January 1775, together with his Diary, and all Minutes made by him in such Diary; and that an authenticated Copy of the whole be transmitted to us by the first Opportunity, for our Information.

☞(a) [MR. Francis moves, That the 11th, 12th, and 13th Paragraphs of the Company's general Letter of the 18th July 1777, and the 149th Paragraph of the general Letter of the 23d December 1778, be now read.

Alſo, That the Governor General be requeſted to furniſh Mr. Briſtow with the uſual Letter of Credence to the Nabob Vizir.]

The Governor General.

Before the Board enter into the Conſideration of this extraordinary Motion, I muſt beg leave to offer ſome Obſervations upon it. Were the moſt inveterate and determined Adverſary of the Britiſh Nation to poſſeſs, by whatever Means, a Share in the Adminiſtration, he could not deviſe a Meaſure in itſelf ſo pernicious, or time it ſo effectually for the Ruin of the Britiſh Intereſts in India, as that now introduced to the Board. Mr. Francis alone is conſcious of his own Motives and Intentions; I can ſpeak only to their Tendency. We are at this Inſtant involved in a new War with perhaps the moſt powerful of all the States in India, which has opened with a Calamity ſo dreadful, as to require the moſt immediate and vigorous Exertions of this Government to prevent what muſt otherwiſe be the Conſequence, the total and ſpeedy Loſs of the Carnatic, and of all the Britiſh Eſtabliſhments and Poſſeſſions in that Part of India. To ward off this impending Danger we have, beſides immediate Preparations of War, reſolved to offer a Peace on their own Terms to the Marattas, with whom we have been, during the paſt Two Years, engaged in a hazardous, though hitherto ſucceſsful War. At ſuch a Time to proclaim an entire Subverſion of the Influence of this Government (for ſuch muſt be the Effect, whether it be or be not the Intention of the preſent Queſtion), will be to defeat every End of the Meaſures on which we have lately reſolved to give Encouragement to our Enemies by the Proſpect of an inverted, fluctuating, or divided Government, and diſcourage thoſe to whom the Advances of this Government are made, when they ſee the Perſon in whoſe Name they are offered, and to whom alone they look as the repreſentative Inſtrument of the Britiſh Nation in India, treated at the ſame Inſtant with Contempt, and diſarmed of the Power of fulfilling the Engagements, and maintaining the Faith of the Treaties offered by him for their Acceptance.

☞(b) [I will aſk who is Mr. Briſtow, that a Member of the Adminiſtration ſhould at ſuch a Time hold him forth as an Inſtrument for the Degradation of the firſt executive Member of this Government. What are the profeſſed Objects of his Appointment? What are the Merits and Services, or what the Qualifications, which entitle him to ſuch an uncommon Diſtinction? Is it for his ſuperior Integrity, or from his eminent Abilities, that he is to be dignified at ſuch Hazards of every Conſideration that ought to influence the Members of this Adminiſtration? Of the former I know no Proofs.—I am ſure it is not an Evidence of it, that he has been enabled to make himſelf the Principal in ſuch a Competition; and for the Teſt of his Abilities, I appeal to the Letter which he has dared to write to this Board, and which I am aſhamed to ſay, we have ſuffered. I deſire that a Copy of it may be inſerted in this Day's Proceedings, that it may ſtand before the Eyes of every Member of the Board, when he ſhall give his Vote upon a Queſtion for giving their Confidence to a Man, their Servant, who has publicly inſulted them, his Maſters, and the Members of the Government to whom he owes his Obedience; who, aſſuming an Aſſociation with the Court of Directors, and erecting himſelf into a Tribunal, has arraigned them for Diſobedience of Orders, paſſed Judgment upon them, and condemned or acquitted them as their Magiſtrate and Superior. Let the Board conſider, whether a Man poſſeſſed of ſo independent a Spirit, who has already ſhewn ſuch a Contempt of their Authority, who has ſhewn himſelf ſo wretched an Advocate for his own Cauſe, and Negociator for his own Intereſt, is fit to be truſted with the Guardianſhip of their Honour, the Execution of their Meaſures, and as their confidential Manager and Negociator with the Princes of India.] As the Motion has been unaccompanied by any Reaſons which ſhould induce the Board to paſs their Acquieſcence in it, I preſume that the Motion which preceded it for reading the Orders of the Court of Directors, was intended to ſerve as an Argument for it, as well as an Introduction to it. The laſt of thoſe Orders was dictated the 23d December 1778, almoſt Two Years paſt; they were dictated at a Time when, I am ſorry to ſay, the Court of Directors were in the Habit of caſting Reproach upon my Conduct, and heaping Indignities on my Station; at a Time when their Affairs in every Part of India wore the Aſpect of Proſperity; at a Time too when the Renewal of the Company's Charter was in Contemplation, and a new Settlement of Government was required for the Adminiſtration of theſe Provinces. It was certainly their Intention or Expectation that I ſhould be immediately removed from this Government, and ſome other Perſon ſubſtituted in my Place. To what Cauſes the Suſpenſion of this Deſign is to be aſcribed I ſhall not enquire; but ſince they themſelves have thought it proper to continue me in the chief Adminiſtration of their Affairs, I ſhall not offer ſo groſs an Inſult to their Underſtandings, or Impeachment of their Integrity, as to ſuppoſe that they could ever think it conſiſtent with the Intereſts and Security of their Conſtituents to deprive me of thoſe Authorities and Sources of Influence, which can alone enable me to fulfil the Duties they have aſſigned me, and on the Foundation of which ſo heavy a Reſponſibility reſts on me particularly. The relative Situation of the Governor General, and of the other Members of the Council, has not indeed been defined by the Act of Parliament, which has conſtituted their collective Authority; but in all Inſtances in which that Act has been ſilent, the Powers and Practice of the former Government were declared by the Act itſelf to ſubſiſt unchanged. By the ancient and immemorial Conſtitution of the Company, the executive Authority of every Preſidency was committed to the firſt Member of it. He was declared the immediate and ſole Agent in all Negociations and Tranſactions with the Country Powers, and his Name alone was announced to them as the Repreſentative of the Government; as the Government: Let it then be conſidered, how far the Principles and obvious Deſign of this Prerogative are generally connected with the Queſtion now before the Board, independently of the peculiar Circumſtances which attended it—(a) [The Removal of Mr. Middleton, my Agent at the Court of the Nabob of Oude, was the firſt Act of a Majority of this Adminiſtration in the Year 1774, to proclaim the Annihilation of my Authority; and the Effect moſt completely anſwered that Intention, for from that Moment I was conſidered, both at the Court of Oude, and in every other Court, which had any Connection with this Government, in no other Light than as the conſtrained Inſtrument of exerciſing an Authority which had been eſtabliſhed on the Ruins of my own. Such muſt be the evident Effect of the preſent Queſtion if it ſhall be carried againſt me.] I will not carry this Argument to the further Lengths or Concluſions to which it would warrantably lead me; but I do not* ſolemnly adjure the other Members of the Board, that, unleſs they think me totally unqualified to execute the Functions of my Station, they will not give their Sanction to a Meaſure which muſt reduce me to the State of a nominal Member of it, which ſhall take the Reins of Adminiſtration from my Hands, to place them in thoſe of Mr. Francis, and which, by ſubverting the natural Order of the Conſtitution, muſt deprive it of its Vigour by whomſoever it may be occaſionally held. While they pay that Obedience and Reſpect which I am as ready as they are to yield to the Orders of the Court of Directors, let them compare the Situation of Things as they ſtood at the Time when theſe Orders were iſſued, with the preſent, and let them imagine what Orders the Court of Directors would, at ſuch a Period as this, paſs on ſuch a Queſtion. If they think, but it is impoſſible to ſuppoſe it, that a Body of Men, ſo reſpectable in their Characters and in their Rank of Life, would, at a Time like this, conſent to degrade and diſarm the firſt Inſtrument of their Authority, let them give their Votes for the Queſtion; if not, let them act by their ſtrongeſt Conviction of what would be the Orders of the Company in the preſent Caſe, not what it is, applied to one which it was impoſſible for the Company to have foreſeen; I again call upon them moſt ſolemnly to ſupport my Authority, and at the ſame Time their own Rights and their Reputation, which are connected with it, both in its immediate Effect, and its remoter but inevitable Conſequences.

Mr. Briſtow's Letter, alluded to in the foregoing Minute.

Honble. Sir, and Gentlemen,

I beg leave to repreſent to your Honourable Board, that I arrived at the Preſidency on the 16th of February laſt. Not having yet been put in Poſſeſſion of the Office of Reſident at the Vizier's Court, in which I had the Honour of being reinſtated agreeable to the Orders of the Court of Directors, dated the 4th July 1777, and the 23d of December 1778, I think it my Duty to addreſs your Honourable Board with a humble Requeſt to carry the aboveſaid Orders into Execution. I make this Application in conſequence of my Solicitations to the different Members of the Board to move for my Reinſtatement, having been repeatedly refuſed by every Member individually; and it being now incumbent on me to make a public Claim of my Right.

In Juſtification of my Conduct in not having, immediately on my Arrival, requeſted to be forthwith put in Poſſeſſion, I humbly repreſent that I underſtood my Reinſtatement ought to have been moved by a Member of the Board. Under other Circumſtances my Conduct might be deemed premature; but ſituated as I am, after Three Months Solicitation in vain, I hope our Honourable Superiors will do me the Juſtice to conſider the Delay in my Application a Point of Delicacy to your Honourable Board, and no Want of Attachment to them, or Zeal for their Service.

I have never given my Conſent to being held out of my Office; and I mean by this Addreſs to efface any bad Impreſſions that might be entertained of me in thus long ſuſpending a Claim grounded upon the higheſt Authorities.

I alſo beg leave to repreſent, that I was removed from my Office the 2d December 1776, after having, for Two Years ſucceſſively, received the unanimous Approbation of your Honourable Board. Our Honourable Superiors have ſince likewiſe been pleaſed to favour me with Marks of their Approbation; notwithſtanding which I am treated with Neglect by your Honourable Board; and the Members individually have poſitively refuſed to do me the Juſtice I have every Right to claim. In order to diſcharge my Duty to your Honourable Superiors, I humbly ſolicit, that it may be recorded upon your Proceedings, I have neither directly nor indirectly conſented to my Right having been thus long withheld from me.

In Juſtice to Sir Eyre Coote, I take the Liberty of mentioning that I have the Honour of a Letter from him, under Date the 3d of laſt Month, in which he declares his Determination of ſupporting the Orders of the Court of Directors in my Favour.

I have the Honour, &c.

Fort William, 1ſt May 1780. (Signed) John Briſtow.

Mr. Francis.—I believe no Man living will ſeriouſly attribute to me the Character of a determined and inveterate Adverſary of the Britiſh Nation. It is well known to every Man in India, that if Mr. Wheler's Advice, and mine, for theſe Three Years paſt had been regarded, or if our unremitted Efforts had availed any Thing, this Government would not have been in the diſtreſſing Situation to which it is reduced by a Series of other Meaſures adopted and purſued in Oppoſition to our Sentiments: But I have done with Controverſy. If the Company's Orders are not binding on this Government—if they convey no poſitive Right to Mr. Briſtow, his Pretenſions fall to the Ground. If the contrary be true, the Queſtion is ſimply, whether the Orders ſhall be obeyed or not. In the Governor's Minute I ſee no Connection between the Premiſes and the Concluſion: I ſee no Proportion between the Miſchiefs ſuppoſed to follow from Mr. Briſtow's Re-appointment and the Cauſe which is to produce them. The other Members will judge for themſelves; but I foreſee many Miſchiefs and Dangers of the firſt Magnitude from this Government contracting a Habit of diſobeying the Company's Orders. Their Authority is the only Link by which this Dominion is held by Great Britain. If that Authority be not binding on us, or if we may wave it when we think fit, I know not through what other lawful Medium the ſuperior State can exerciſe its Juriſdiction over the inferior.

The Queſtion applied perſonally to Mr. Briſtow might with equal Reaſon and Propriety be applied to Mr. Middleton, Mr. Hoſea, Mr. Purling, or any other Gentlemen in the Company's Service. The Paragraphs of the Company's Letters which have been read contain a complete Anſwer to them; and if they do not, I am not bound to take any Part of ſuch Queſtions, ſince I reſt my Propoſition on the Grounds of the Company's poſitive and repeated Orders.

Governor General.—I paſs Mr. Francis's Minute, availing myſelf of it only to aſſert my own Pretenſions on the very Ground on which he ſupports his Queſtion; and on this Occaſion Mr. Wheler will pardon me if I addreſs myſelf in a more particular and pointed Manner to him.

He was my Superior at the Time I held this Government under another Syſtem; he was during ſome Part of that Time the Chairman of the Court of Directors, and on him I venture to call as an Evidence of the implicit and effectual Obedience which I paid to the Commands of the Court of Directors in every Inſtance in which they thought it proper to put my Fidelity to the Trial; for this my Reputation, my Ambition, my Intereſt, my private Feelings, were ſeverally taxed; yet in all that Period I never ſuffered any Conſideration to prevail for a Moment in Oppoſition to my Duty and to the Confidence which they generally repoſed in me. In return, I claim from him that Portion at leaſt which he can beſtow of the Reward which was due to ſuch Services, performed with ſuch Sacrifices; and as he once did me the Honour to think me deſerving of his Applauſe, I hope that now I ſhall receive his Support.—He will well remember the Inſtances to which I allude, and the Belief entertained by many at the Time in which thoſe Orders were iſſued, that I ſhould either refuſe or evade the Execution of them.

Mr. Wheler.—The high Senſe which the Court of Directors entertained of the peculiar Merits and Abilities of the Governor General, at the Period alluded to in the foregoing Minute, were more conſpicuouſly marked by their Choice and Appointment of him to the exalted exalted Station which he now holds, than they can poſſibly be by any particular Inſtance at this Time recited by me. A general Compliance with the Company's Orders I am perſuaded conſtituted no ſmall Part of thoſe Merits which at that Time met with the unanimous Reward of the Court of Directors. I am equally deſirous to ſupport the Authority of the Governor General at this Period, as I was, when in a different Situation, happy in promoting thoſe Ends which I thought moſt conducive to his Honour, and to the general Intereſt of the Company's Affairs; but in the preſent Conteſt I cannot effect it without a Sacrifice of that Power from whence I conceive he derives his Authority.

The Orders of the Court of Directors are too pointed and ſtrong to leave me a Choice; I muſt therefore give my Aſſent to the Motion in Support of them.

Sir Eyre Coote.—At a Time when I am ſo engaged in the public Concern, I little expected that any Queſtion of a private Nature would be agitated at this Board that could poſſibly interrupt the Harmony of it; and that at a Time when that Harmony is ſo neceſſary for carrying on the Public Service. The Queſtion to me is of ſo much Magnitude that I muſt beg leave to defer giving my Opinion on it till To-morrow.

The Governor General informs the Board, that for the Purpoſe of concluding this Debate he ſhall requeſt their Attendance in this Department again To-morrow Morning.

Deferred the further Conſideration of Mr. Francis's Motion until To-morrow Morning.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 3d October 1780.

Fort William, 3d October 1780.

Public Department. Tueſday.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,

Philip Francis, Edward Wheler, } Eſquires,

Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote, K. B.

RENEWED the Conſideration of Mr. Francis's Minute recorded on Yeſterday's Proceedings. Sir Eyre Coote delivers in the following Minute.

Sir Eyre Coote. After having created the Board the Trouble of a ſecond Meeting on the Queſtion which formed the Subject of Yeſterday's Debate, and for which I truſt its Importance, my own Situation at this Juncture, and my being without any previous Knowledge until I arrived in Town in the Morning, that ſuch a Buſineſs was likely to come before us, will plead Excuſe. It is not my Intention to encroach further on their Time by tedious Argument or Diſcuſſion.

Whilſt I am bound in Honour, by my Opinion recorded on the Proceedings of this Board on a former Occaſion, to ſupport all Orders received from the Court of Directors, ſubſequent to my Arrival in this Country, I nevertheleſs hold it a Duty equally incumbent upon me as a Member of this Adminiſtration, appointed under the Authority of an Act of Parliament, and to which Tribunal of the Britiſh Conſtitution we are ultimately reſponſible for the due Execution of the important Truſt committed to our Charge, the Care of the Intereſts of the Engliſh Nation in India, to judge how far, in following ſuch Orders, I am likely to injure that firſt Object of our Attention.

The late Requiſition made of me by this Board, to take upon me the Command of the Army at Madras, and the Grounds upon which that Requiſition was made, render it altogether unneceſſary for me to bring forward, on this Occaſion, Arguments in Proof of the very critical State of the Intereſts of the Company and the Engliſh Nation in India. Our unanimous Agreement on the Meaſure, and our ſubſequent Reſolutions to carry it into force, evince its Expediency; and which I flattered myſelf had been the Reſult of a diſintereſted Conviction in the Mind of every Member of this Board, and of a Determination to allow no Objects to interpoſe which could have a Tendency to obſtruct the ſucceſsful Execution thereof. That the Reſtoration of Mr. Briſtow, at this Time, to the Charge of the Reſidency at Lucknow, will produce Effects highly prejudicial thereto, I have not a Doubt of; as it will generate in the Minds of every Power of Hindoſtan, that the Governor General is carrying on Treaties with them which he has not the Power to ratify, and will produce on their Part Conſequences deſtructive to all Negociation, Indeciſion and Procraſtination. The Neceſſity of avoiding every Step that can give riſe to ſuch Impediments, at the very Time the Governor General is negociating, under the Sanction of this Board, Terms of Peace with the Marhattas, I am perſuaded is too obvious to every Member of it to require Elucidation, and that they ſee it as a Conduct highly inſeparable from the real Purpoſe of their Reſolves, to give him every poſſible Support, both in Word and Action, for the Accompliſhment of a Buſineſs in which the Intereſts of the Public are ſo eſſentially concerned.

In ſhort, although my former Declarations, added to the Rule I had laid down for my Conduct in all Caſes where I could have the Orders of the Court of Directors for my Guide, obliges me to give my Voice in favour of Mr. Francis's Motion, I nevertheleſs ſee, and am ſo thoroughly convinced of the great Neceſſity there is in the preſent critical Conjuncture of our Affairs in India, of ſupporting the Governor General as the firſt Inſtrument of our Adminiſtration, that I here declare, I will moſt heartily join with him in any Meaſure he can deviſe, whereby the ill Effects of the Change at Lucknow may be obviated, and the World in general be convinced, that he is ſtill in Poſſeſſion of that Authority in the Adminiſtration of the Public Buſineſs, ſo abſolutely requiſite for the Support of our Government.

In urging theſe Sentiments, I am naturally led to reflect on what may be my own Situation in the Execution of that Duty which I am on the Eve of undertaking, the Operations of which may be materially injured by any Meaſure which * in the leaſt impede the Negociations ſet on foot by the Marattas. I therefore, as a Duty I owe myſelf and the public Welfare, call upon every Member of this Board to give me ſuch Teſtimony of their Determination to ſupport me in the Proſecution of a Service ſo important in itſelf, and in its Conſequences, as that, when once entered on *, I may not be expoſed to the Apprehenſion of Failure, from a Doubt of not receiving that ample Aſſiſtance from them which the Nature of the Undertaking renders ſo indiſpenſably neceſſary, and which they alone can afford.

* Sic in Orig.

* Sic in Orig,

(Signed) Eyre Coote.

Mr. Francis's Motion carried in the Affirmative.

Mr. Francis.—If the Commander in Chief will ſtate on what ſpecific Points he wiſhes to obtain from me a Teſtimony of my Determination to ſupport him in the Proſecution of the Service which he is going to undertake, I dare ſay I ſhall be able, as I am ſure I am deſirous, to give him every Satisfaction he can deſire. If the Requeſt be left generally, I can only anſwer it by a general Aſſurance to him, that it is my Determination to ſupport him.

The Reinforcement of Men, and the great Supply of Money which he will carry with him, will empower him to act for a conſiderable Time at leaſt; and if there be any Thing elſe he wiſhes for, I only beg it may be ſtated.

Mr. Wheler.—I have already given my feeble Support to all the Meaſures that have yet been propoſed for the Reſtoration of our Affairs in the Carnatic by the Governor General, with the Concurrence of the Commander in Chief. I am ready to go yet further, and to remove every Interruption to the General's Meaſures, in a Quarter where I apprehend they might poſſibly be oppoſed. I doubt not but I am underſtood.

The Governor General.—It is unneceſſary for me to give Aſſurances to the General of my particular Support, after having been the Mover of the Meaſures which ſo eſſentially require his perſonal Execution of them, and of the Requeſt made to him ſo urgently by this Board, to undertake the Conduct of them. I regard the Intereſt, and eventually perhaps the Exiſtence, of this Government, to be dependent on the Succeſs of his Operations; and declare, I will at all Hazards make this my firſt and invariable Object.

☞ (a) [The Governor General delivers in the following Minute.

I cannot, conſiſtently with what I conſider due to the Dignity and Authority of my public Station, and to my own Character and Feelings as a Man, conſent to affix my Signature to the Letters of Credence or Inſtructions of Mr. Briſtow, as Reſident at the Court of Oude. The Court of Directors, after having, in their firſt Inſtructions to this Government, expreſsly enjoined every Member of the Board not only to be guided by the Voice of the Majority, but alſo to ſubſcribe to all Letters, Orders, Acts, and Meaſures reſulting from the Deciſions of ſuch Majority, have ſince thought proper to compliment General Clavering and Mr. Francis upon their Departure from this Rule in Inſtances where their Sentiments have not accorded with thoſe of the other Members of the Board. This will be a Juſtification to me in the Reſolution I have taken; for whatever Law is binding on One Member of the Adminiſtration, muſt certainly be ſo to the whole; and although it is a Latitude I neither approve, or ſhould in general wiſh to avail myſelf of, yet in this very particular Inſtance, I truſt I ſhall ſtand acquitted not only to my Employers, but to the whole World. I muſt therefore deſire that the Board will deviſe ſome other Means of notifying Mr. Briſtow's Appointment to the Vizier, and as they have thought it incumbent on them, as a Point of official Duty, to receive and put in force an antiquated Order of the Court of Directors in favour of Mr. Briſtow, which, for the Reaſons aſſigned in my Minute of Yeſterday, will neceſſarily be conſidered by all the Country Powers as a Superceſſion of my Authority, I am yet willing to hope that the Board will not only liſten to, but afford me their Support in a Motion which I ſhall beg leave to make, with a View to repair the Injury which I conceive my public Station has ſuſtained, and avert, in ſome Degree, the prejudicial Effects which this Meaſure cannot fail to produce on our Affairs.

I propoſe that Mr. Briſtow's Appointment be limited ſolely to the Conduct of ſuch political Negociations, Correſpondence, and Tranſactions, as this Government may now, or at any future Period, be engaged in with the Vizier, and in no Shape whatever to interfere in any Matters reſpecting our pecuniary Engagements with his Excellency. That a ſeparate Agent be appointed by us to that Truſt, whoſe Duty it ſhall be to receive, collect, and manage the Tuncaws, or Aſſignments, which have been, or may hereafter be granted by the Nabob, for the Liquidation of the Claims of this Government upon him. That he be entruſted with the Adjuſtment of all Accounts relative to theſe Claims with the Nabob and his Miniſters, with all Diſburſements to the Paymaſters of the Company's Troops ſtationed in the Dominions of the Vizier, as alſo to his Excellency's own Military Eſtabliſhment under Britiſh Officers, &c.; remitting the Reſidue of his Collections immediately to us, and that he be directly amenable to our Authority and Orders, and in no Reſpect whatever dependent on or connected with the Office of the Reſident. And as Mr. Purling cannot continue with a diminiſhed Commiſſion, and as it now becomes more than ever neceſſary that I ſhould have a Perſon in Station in thoſe Provinces, not only in whom I can confide, but who is publicly known to be attached to me, I propoſe Mr. Middleton for the above Office, hoping to meet with the Concurrence and Support of the Board.

Debates. Sir Eyre Coote.—I agree to the Governor General's Propoſal of the Appointment of Mr. Middleton to the Office mentioned, not becauſe Mr. Purling may not continue at Lucknow with a diminiſhed Commiſſion, but becauſe Mr. Nathaniel Middleton is a Perſon publicly known to be attached to the Governor General. The Neceſſity of the Times requires an Appearance of that Kind.

Mr. Wheler.—I object to the Queſtion.

Mr. Francis.—The Office deſcribed in the Motion is the ſame which Mr. Briſtow had before, and which has been held ſince by Mr. Middleton and Mr. Purling. I know no Reaſon why it ſhould be diminiſhed, and ſo materially altered, when it is given to Mr. Briſtow. I therefore cannot conſent to the Propoſition:—At the ſame Time it is a Matter of Indifference to me by whom the Duties propoſed to be veſted in Mr. Middleton are exerciſed.

The Governor General's Motion carried in the Affimative.

Reſolved accordingly, That Mr. Briſtow's Appointment be limited ſolely to the Conduct of ſuch political Negociations, Correſpondence, and Tranſactions, as this Government may now, or at any future Period be engaged in with the Vizier; and that he in no Shape whatever interfere in any Matters reſpecting our pecuniary Engagements with his Excellency.

Reſolved, That Mr. Nathaniel Middleton be appointed Agent on the Part of this Government, for receiving, collecting, and managing the Tuncaws or Aſſignments, which have been, or may hereafter be granted by the Nabob, for the Liquidation of the Claims of this Government upon him: That he be entruſted with the Adjuſtment of all Accounts relative to theſe Claims with the Nabob and his Miniſters, with all Diſburſements to the Paymaſters of the Company's Troops ſtationed in the Dominions of the Vizier, as alſo to his Excellency's own Military Eſtabliſhment under Britiſh Officers, &c.; remitting the Reſidue of his Collections immediately to us; and that he be directly amenable to our Authority and Orders, and in no Reſpect whatever dependent on or connected with the Office of Reſident.

Mr. Francis moves, That as the Governor General declines ſigning the Letter of Credence for Mr. Briſtow, Mr. Briſtow's Appointment may be communicated to Mr. Purling by the Board, with Directions to make it known to the Vizier.

Agreed to.

Ordered, That Mr. Charles Purling be directed to deliver over Charge of all the Papers of the Office hitherto held by him, which have a Relation to the Office to which Mr. Briſtow has been appointed, to Mr. Briſtow; and that he be directed to deliver over Charge to Mr. Nathaniel Middleton of all the Papers and Accounts of the Office hitherto held by him, which have a Relation to the Office to which Mr. Middleton is appointed, together with the Balance of Caſh in his Hands.]

Agreed, That the following Letter be written to Mr. Purling:

Sir,

Having, in conſequence of the Commands of the Honourable Court of Directors, thought proper to appoint Mr. John Briſtow Reſident at his Excellency the Vizier's Court, we direct, that on Receipt of theſe Orders you make the ſame known to the Vizier; and that on Mr. Briſtow's Arrival at Lucknow, you deliver over Charge to him of all Public Papers in your Poſſeſſion, relative to the Management and Conduct of the political Negociations, Correſpondence, and Tranſactions between this Government and his Excellency. And having been pleaſed to appoint Mr. Nathaniel Middleton our Agent, to receive, collect, and manage the Tuncaws or Aſſignments, which have been, or may hereafter be granted by the Nabob, for the Liquidation of the Claims of this Government upon him; to adjuſt all Accounts relative to theſe Claims with the Nabob and his Miniſters, and to make the requiſite Diſburſements to the Paymaſters of the Company's Troops ſtationed in the Vizier's Dominions, as alſo to his Excellency's own Military Eſtabliſhment under Britiſh Officers, &c. We direct, that on Mr. Middleton's Arrival at Lucknow, you deliver over Charge to him of ſuch Papers in your Poſſeſſion as relate to theſe Offices; and after the Execution of theſe Orders, we require that you forthwith return to the Preſidency.

At a Council; Present,
The Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, President,
And Edward Wheler, Esq.
Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote, K. B. absent on Command at the Presidency of Fort St. George.

☞(a) [THE Governor General finds himself under the disagreeable Necessity of reviving the Subject of Mr. Bristow's Appointment of Resident at the Court of the Nabob of Oude, and of moving that he may be recalled. His general Reasons for this Motion have been recorded very fully in various Parts of the Consultations, and particularly in those of the 2d and 3d of October and the 14th January last. To these a recent Motive is added, in the Necessity of removing every Circumstance which may contribute to lessen his Influence on the Effect of any Negociation in which he may be engaged in the Prosecution of his intended Visit to Lucknow, and in the accompanying Letters just received from the Nabob Vizier to the Governor General, and to his Minister Raja Govendram.

Agreed to the Governor General's Motion, and ordered accordingly.] ☞

From the Nabob Vizier to the Governor General. Received the 20th May.

I have frequently written to you that I cannot submit to the Authority of Two Gentlemen, and desiring that you would recall Mr. John Bristow, and engage by Writing to continue Mr. Middleton for ever with me, because from the Beginning to this Time I have never deviated from the Friendship of the Company and you. I have been for a long Time hopeful, that from the encreased Friendship I shall be in Peace, and relieved from all Difficulties, and particularly at this Time, when, agreeable to my Wishes, you have by the Blessing of God the Power. You have frequently promised in Answer to my Request, that you would send for me, but as yet you have never done it. The Particulars of Mr. Bristow are as follow: He openly and publicly declares, that he is in Expectation of Orders from Europe, giving him entire Authority over the Affairs of this Quarter; and that he has such Connection and Interest with the Gentlemen in Europe that Orders for his Authority will most certainly be sent; and that he will not give up the Point for Ten, Fifteen, or Twenty Years; that he now remains silent, but will at last receive full Powers, and will then call me to an Account for my Behaviour to him. These Expressions there can be no Doubt of, as they are publicly spoken. As such Declarations and Threats made use of by him are an Insult to you, and an Injury to the Administration of Affairs here; I am therefore certain you will not consent to my suffering such Distresses. For God's sake do not be unfavourable in this Matter, but recall Mr. John Bristow from hence, and grant me a written Agreement, specifying that Mr. Middleton shall be continued for ever with me; and to prevent his applying to Europe, send me, if you think proper, the Drafts of Letters which I may write to the King, the Vizier, and the Chiefs of the Company; and do you also write. From your Favour and Kindness, let this be done without Delay.

To the Nabob Vizier, written 21st May.

I have received your Two Letters; the one advising me to quit Calcutta during the present unhealthy Air of it, which has caused the Death of several Persons; and the other acquainting me that you cannot submit to the Orders of Two Gentlemen, and desiring that I will recall Mr. Bristow, who publicly declares that he is in Expectation of Orders from Europe, giving him the sole Authority in this Country, &c. &c. with many other Particulars which I fully understand, and which gave me great Pleasure.

In obedience to Orders from the Court of Directors, as at that Time there was a different Object and System, Mr. Bristow was sent to your Province, and his continuing with you was thought the same Thing as if I was there, and although you frequently wrote to me desiring his Removal, and I knew it could easily be done, yet I would not do it. At this Time, however, that you have written to Rajah Govind Ram, that any Delay in his Recall will be attended with Disgrace; and as you have written to me likewise fully in the same Words, I therefore,

therefore, to ſhew nothing is further from my Wiſh than your Diſhonour, immediately on the Receipt of your Letter ſent to Mr. Briſtow to return to Calcutta.

It is nearly Three Years ſince Rajah Govind Ram, who is a faithful Servant of your Government, has been deſirous of effecting an Interview between your Highneſs and myſelf, and you yourſelf have repeatedly written to me, that if I have no Leiſure you will come to this Quarter; and this you likewiſe mention in your Hand-writing, in a Letter from the Nabob Monier Uddowlah, which was delivered to me by Mr. Vanſittart. As I conſider that this would be putting your Highneſs to great Inconvenience, and as I myſelf had no Leiſure from the Weight of Public Affairs, I promiſed you that as ſoon as I could find the ſmalleſt Opportunity I would have the Honour of an Interview with your Highneſs. At this Time that you mentioned in your Letter to the Rajah that you will come to Calcutta in Perſon, without the Knowledge or Permiſſion of any one; in order to prevent you from taking that Trouble, I have reſolved, now that I have a little Leiſure, to go to your Quarter; but as it will require One Month for Preparations, I ſhall be detained for a little Time, after which, by the Bleſſing of God, I ſhall leave this Place, and arriving with you, ſhall, by the Bleſſing of God, have an Interview with your Highneſs, which is the greateſt Wiſh of my Heart. But I requeſt that you will never take the Trouble of coming.

I have already, agreeable to your firſt Directions, diſmiſſed Bahar Ally Khan; the Particulars of which you will learn from Rajah Gobind Ram.

Copy of a Letter from the Nabob Vizier to Rajah Gobind Ram.

I have frequently written to the Nabob Amaud ud Dowlah about the Recall of Mr. John Briſtow, and the Nabob promiſed he would ſoon do it; but to this Time he has not had an Opportunity of doing it. In the mean while, Mr. Briſtow reſides here, and has come twice to pay a Viſit, but I have not yet returned it, nor will I return it. He is now expecting Orders from Europe, which, he ſays, will give him ſole and entire Authority. Repreſent this to the Nabob in private. By the Bleſſing of God, you are wiſe, and acquainted with all Matters. This long Delay, after Mr. Briſtow has been told that he will be recalled to Calcutta, is a Diſgrace to both Sides. I imagine the Nabob is acting prudently, ſo as to prevent Mr. Briſtow's Attempt from reaching Europe; otherwiſe how could the Orders from Calcutta have been ſo delayed? By the Bleſſing of God, at this Time the Nabob, conformable to the Wiſhes of his Friends, has got the Power; it is therefore neceſſary for him to attend to the Concerns of his Friends, and to recall Mr. Briſtow from hence, and grant a Sunnud, in the Nature of an Engagement, for Mr. Middleton to remain here for ever. If it is proper, I will write to the King, the Vizier, and the Chief of the Company, in ſuch Manner as he ſhall direct, and in the Words which he ſhall order, that Mr. Briſtow's Views may be thwarted there. A long Time has paſſed in anxious Expectation; let him now be favourable to me, and recall Mr. Briſtow without Delay. Should any further Delay happen in this Matter, or no Anſwer be returned to my Letters, being remedileſs, I will, without the Permiſſion or Knowledge of the Nabob, leave this Place and go to the Nabob's Preſence. Why is Bahar Ally Khan ſtill in that Quarter? Do you mention it to the Nabob, and procure his Diſmiſſion from thence, that he may come to Fizeabad; and let the Nabob write to my Mother, that when he comes in Perſon to this Quarter he will do whatever the Nature of Affairs ſhall require.

Public Dep. Monday. At a Council; Preſent,

Edward Wheler, and John Macpherſon, } Eſquires,

The Governor General indiſpoſed.

Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote abſent on Command at Fort St. George.

RECEIVED the following Letter from the Governor General.

Gov. Gen. 22d Sept. 1782.

Gentlemen,

A few Days before my preſent Indiſpoſition commenced, I informed you that I was ſorry to find that the Reſident at the Vizier's Court had evidently failed in his Duty to this Government, ment, in not having carried into Execution the Conditions and Spirit of the late Treaty with the Vizier. I had further the Mortification to be obliged to inform you, that neither the Resident, nor his Deputy in his Absence, had communicated to me the Confusions which had arisen in the Vizier's Dominions, from a Neglect or Violation of the Treaty. The Letters which I wrote, in consequence of such Mismanagement, to the Resident and the acting Minister of the Vizier, were laid before you and approved.

☞ (a) [Upon the same Occasion I observed to you, that the Obstacle which opposed itself to the Nomination of Mr. Bristow to the Residentship at Oude no longer existed: It was removed by my having vindicated what must ever be esteemed one of the necessary Privileges of this Government. I had the Pleasure of finding, upon the most impartial Inquiry, that the Conduct of Mr. Bristow, during his former Residence at the Court of the Vizier, had been proper and attentive. I accordingly wished to recommend him to succeed the present Resident, provided the Vizier had no reasonable Objections to his Appointment.]

I have now great Satisfaction in informing you, that my Letter to the acting Minister of the Vizier has had the happiest Effect in realizing the heavy Balances due to the Company from Oude; and it is said that the present Resident and his Deputy are brought to a proper Sense of their Duty to the Company.

But as in every Act of my Administration of the Affairs of the Company, I never had an Object in view but their permanent Interest, as far as my Judgment could direct me, and as Prejudices in favour of those in whom I have confided, or against those who opposed me, vanish in my Mind, when the Good of the Service requires it, I now wish you to recall Mr. Middleton from the Court of the Vizier, and to appoint Mr. Bristow in his Room.

My weak State of Health obliges me to dictate this Letter from my Bed; yet I cannot but add, that your Instructions to Mr. Bristow should be strong and positive upon these Points—First, That he should always shew every possible Respect to the Vizier and his Family. Secondly, That he should take the most effectual Steps for securing all that may remain unpaid of the Company's Balances. Thirdly, That the Security and internal Peace of the Vizier's Dominions, and the Happiness of the People, should be continually in his View; and that he should communicate fully and freely with this Government upon those Subjects.

The State of my Health requires my proceeding further up the River; and I shall communicate to Mr. Bristow, with your Approbation, any more particular Instructions that may occur to me, and that I may be able to send them.

I am, with Esteem and Regard,
Gentlemen,
Yours, &c.

The Board, in conformity to the Governor General's Recommendation, and sensible of the Propriety of the Measure, Resolve to recall Mr. Middleton immediately from the Vizier's Court.

The Board further resolve, That Mr. Bristow be appointed to succeed Mr. Middleton, and ordered to proceed with the utmost Dispatch to Lucknow, to take charge of that Office.

The following Letters are accordingly written.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, &c.

To Mr. Middleton.

Sir,

Having thought fit to recall you to the Presidency, and to appoint Mr. John Bristow to succeed to your Station, we hereby direct, that on Mr. Bristow's Arrival at Lucknow, you immediately deliver over Charge to him of the Office of Resident, with all the Treasure, Accounts, Papers, Documents, and Dependencies thereunto belonging, and make the best of your Way to Calcutta; for which Place you will then set out without further Delay.

To Mr. Bristow.

Sir,

I am directed by the Honourable the Governor General and Council to inform you, that they have been pleased to appoint you Resident at the Court of the Vizier Asoph ul Dowla, in the Room of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton removed. You will therefore proceed to Lucknow with all possible Dispatch, and receive Charge of that Station, with all the Treasure, Accounts, Papers, Documents, and Dependencies thereunto belonging, from Mr. Middleton. Instructions and Credentials will be immediately prepared for you.

Mr. Macpherſon. Mr. Macpherſon.—I cannot but expreſs great Satisfaction at the Governor General's Recommendation of Mr. Briſtow to ſucceed to the Reſidency at the Vizier's Court, an Office to which he was named by the Company, and to which his Abilities and Experience are underſtood to render him very equal.

The Conduct of Mr. Middleton, in various Inſtances, appears to me highly reprehenſible. His Negligence, in not informing the Government of the Confuſions, if not general Rebellion, in the Vizier's Country, and his Dilatorineſs in realizing the heavy Debt due by the Vizir to the Company, appear to me, in the preſent Criſis of public Affairs, as Crimes againſt the State; and that as ſuch they ſhould be rigidly inveſtigated.

* Sic in Orig. Mr. Johnſton's Conduct, as acting Reſident, appears to me to be ſubject to a ſimiliar * Impeachment; but as I ſhould be equally ſorry to condemn the Conduct of any Servant of this Government, before he has every fair Power for Vindication given him, as I would be rigid in enforcing a juſt Puniſhment after Condemnation, ſo I ſhall move, upon the Return of Meſſrs. Middleton and Johnſton to the Preſidency, that they may be called upon to account for their Miſmanagement at Oude, and that the Complaints made of their Conduct, both by the Vizier and his acting Miniſter, be taken into Conſideration. If ever there was a Period in the Diſtreſs of any Government when Neglect of Duty, or Corruption of Servants in high Station, is ſuperiorly criminal, it is the preſent Criſis of the Company's Diſtreſſes *, and critical Situation with its few Allies and numerous Enemies.

Extract of a Conſultation of 12th June 1783, and Appendix to the ſame.

Secret Dep. Thurſday. Fort William, 12th June 1783.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,
Edward Wheler,
John Macpherſon,
John Stables,
} Eſquires.

THE Secretary having, in conſequence of the Reſolution of the Board of the 21ſt April laſt, received from the Governor General the Letters from Mr. Middleton and Mr. Johnſon to him, in order to draw up the Charges againſt thoſe Gentlemen, and having accordingly prepared the Charges in conformity to the Board's Orders, and circulated them, with the Letters above mentioned, they are now recorded as follows, and ordered to be immediately ſent to Meſſrs. Middleton and Johnſon reſpectively, that they may reply to them.

Charges againſt Mr. Nathaniel Middleton.

1ſt. For leaving unexecuted the ſeveral Articles of the Governor General's peremptory Orders and Inſtructions to you, dated at Chunar, the 20th September 1781, notwithſtanding thoſe Inſtructions enjoined and commanded your ſtricteſt Obedience, and were, both by the Vizier's formal Agreement, on which they were founded, and by the Tenor of them, intended to be carried into immediate Effect, the Object of them being the Reduction of the Vizier's Debt to the Company, which was in a conſtant State of Accumulation, and a Conſciouſneſs of it ſeemed implied in your Firſt Letter from Lucknow, dated 4th October 1781, which contained the following Words: "We have not yet been able to enter on any Buſineſs of Moment, but you may reſt aſſured "no Time ſhall be unneceſſarily conſumed;" and in your Letter of the 12th October, where you write in the moſt preſſing Terms for the Recall of the late temporary Brigade, as being a Part of the Reform. Notwithſtanding the Governor General, on the 26th of December following, finding that you had not to that Time taken any Steps towards accompliſhing the Treaty, in the Points in which the Vizier had engaged the Interference of our Government, wrote to you, you, "that the Reformation of the Vizier's Army, and the new Settlement of his Revenues, "were Points of immediate Concern, and ought to be immediately concluded;" and added, "I now demand and require you moſt ſolemnly to anſwer me, Are you confident in your "own Ability to accompliſh all theſe Purpoſes, and the other Points of my Inſtruc-"tions? If you reply that you are, I will depart with a quiet and aſſured Mind to the "Preſidency, but leave you a dreadful Reſponſibility if you diſappoint me. If you tell me "that you cannot rely on your Power, and the other Means which you poſſeſs, for perform-"ing theſe Services, I will free you from the Charge: I will proceed myſelf to Lucknow, "and I will myſelf undertake them." To which you returned for Anſwer, "I confidently "reply, that I am fully competent to undertake and effect the Completion of the Reform, "upon the Grounds ſtated in my Anſwer to the 4th Paragraph, and therefore again repeat "that your coming here is unneceſſary." Your Anſwer to the 4th Paragraph admits, that you have erred in ſuppoſing that the Reform was not meant to take place that Year; and adds, that "the Inſtant the Fyzabad Buſineſs is finiſhed, which cannot take more than One Fort-"night from the Day of marching there, I ſhall take ſuch Steps, as the Means in my Power "will admit of, towards procuring from the Nabob Orders to each Aumil to pay his groſs "Revenues to the Miniſters, and to receive the Pay of their Troops, being reduced into "regular muſtered Eſtabliſhments, from the General Treaſury; and ſhould he refuſe, I will "iſſue my own, together with thoſe of the Miniſters, to that Purpoſe."—And further, that "theſe Three Points complete the Heads of your (the Governor General's) Recommendation "to the Nabob." Upon the Strength of theſe Aſſurances, the Governor General deſiſted from his Intention to viſit Lucknow, as he hoped it would be unneceſſary, and returned immediately to the Preſidency, leaving upon you the Reſponſibility he had denounced. Letter to the Governor General, 30th Dec. 1781.

2dly. For giving not only precipitate and unwarranted Aſſurances, as above quoted, but contradictory Information of Facts; for by your Letters of the 11th February 1782 to the Governor General, you ſay you incloſe one from the Vizir, "informing him of his Compli-"ance with the only Points that remained unfiniſhed of his Part of the late Agreements," &c. and add, "I have, in confirmation of the above-mentioned Letter, received one from the "Miniſter, informing me of the Accompliſhment of this Reform, from which, with the total "Reſumption of all Jagheers, which is now perfectly completed, I have every Reaſon to hope "for the moſt beneficial Reſult, and that every Part of this Government will now be in a State "of Regularity and Tranquillity ſcarcely ever before experienced."

"I alſo truſt, that you will now deem every Wiſh, expreſſed in your Inſtructions to me, "fully performed."—Again, in your Letter to the Governor of the 10th March following, you ſay, "Having ſucceeded in the Impreſſion which I wiſhed to make on the Miniſters, and the "Reduction which has been made in the Nabob's Mooteyana Troops ſtrengthening the Ground "I had argued on, I availed myſelf of this Opportunity to propoſe an Eſtabliſhment of the "Company's Troops."—In your Letter to him of the 20th of that Month, you ſay, "In "order to complete the Check you have directed over the Mooteyana and their Payment, I "have been neceſſitated to appoint an Aumeen to receive and remit to me the Collections of "Litaput, Ally Cawn's Jaidads, &c."—And in your Letter of the 25th March 1782, addreſſed to the Governor General, you defined the particular Manner in which the ſeveral Parts of your Inſtructions had been carried into Execution; but by your Letter of the 17th September 1782, addreſſed to the Board, you only then declare, that you had ſtationed an Agent of your own in each Aumildarry throughout thoſe Provinces, as Muſter Maſter of the Mooteyana Troops, and ſay, that you "could not with Propriety have taken ſo deciſive a Line in this Buſineſs at an "earlier Period, as the Nabob and Miniſters returning to the Capital ſo late as the Month of "October found themſelves obliged to continue the Aumils already in Employ in their reſpec-"tive Truſts, or riſk by new Appointments at that advanced Seaſon the Loſs of the whole Col-"lections on the Kierreeff or firſt Crop, amounting to Two Fifths of the Annual Revenue, "and the ſame Circumſtances involved the Neceſſity of leaving their Agreements nearly in the "Form in which they ſtood in the preceding Year. Hence it became difficult and dangerous "to take any immediate Steps for the Introduction of the Governor General's Arrangements, "beyond laying the Foundations of a future Reform, which was duly attended to; and theſe I "can now ſecurely build upon, as, by availing myſelf of this early Period, every Aumil is ap-"prized of the Terms on which he embarks, and left without Excuſe for any Failure in his "Engagements."—And thus deferring till September 1782, what you thought it too late in the Seaſon to carry into Execution in October 1781, although you had urgent and poſitive Orders for doing it immediately, and although you had reported the actual Peformance thereof to have paſſed in your Letters above quoted.

3dly. For theſe and other Contradictions and Inconſiſtencies, particularly pointed out to you in the Governor General's Letters, dated 1ſt and 3d of January 1782.

4th. For not reporting to the Governor General, or to the Board, the Progreſs which you had made from Time to Time in your Endeavours to comply with his Inſtructions; and if you met with any Impediments in the Execution of them, for omitting to ſtate thoſe Impediments, and to apply for freſh Orders upon them.

5th. For Diſobedience to the Governor General's peremptory Orders of the 26th December 1781, contained in the following Words:—"I approve the Nabob's Reſolution to deprive the

"Begums

" Begums of the ill-employed Treasures. In both Services it must be your Care to prevent an " Abuse of the Power given to those that are employed in them. You yourself ought to be " personally present—You must not allow any Negociation or Forbearance, but must prosecute " both Services until the Begums are at the entire Mercy of the Nabob, &c."—Whereas, by a Letter from Major Naylor to the Governor General, dated at Camp Killa Fyzabad, 14th January 1782, it is declared as follows:—" After my Arrival, a Couple of Days passed in " Negociation, but without Effect, and the Party in the Town collecting and hourly gaining " Strength, at length, after mature Deliberation, it was resolved that I should, with my Regi- " ment and Four Guns, storm the Town; which I effected the 12th in the Morning."—And by this Disobedience of the Order which forbad any Negociation or Forbearance, you allowed Time for Opposition, which evidently had been meditated, to take its full Effect, and for the Concealment of the Wealth which was in the Begum's Possession, as is acknowledged by your Letter of the 18th January to the Governor General. Your Letter of the 5th February is not a sufficient Exculpation from this Charge, as the Forbearance alluded to was before the Attack of the Killa, and not " after the Begums were to be considered as entirely at the Mercy of the " Nabob," which is the Time it alludes to.—It might be good Policy, after they were so reduced, to observe a temporizing Conduct, because the Treasure was then concealed, and none but the Accessaries to its Concealment were acquainted with the Places where it was deposited.

6th. For neglecting to realize the whole of the Vizier's Debt to the Company at the End of the Year 1189, Fussily, notwithstanding your repeated Assurances that it should be completely liquidated by that Time, and in particular, the Assurances contained in your Letter to the Governor General, dated 6th December 1781, " that from the Begums alone you had no " Doubt of the complete Liquidation of the Company's Balance."

7th. For neglecting to secure the Means of liquidating this Debt, by only taking Tunkaws or Assignments upon the Country for the Sum of Rupees 76,37,458, when you must have known that the Demand on the Vizir for that Year (1189) would amount to more than double that Sum.

8th. For omitting, according to annual Custom, and the positive Orders of the Board, to send down to them a regular Account of the Demands upon the Vizir for the Year 1189, and of the Assignments taken to satisfy those Demands; and for accepting the Assignments without the Authority of the Board.

9th. For omitting to take any Notice of the additional Balance of R^{s} 26,48,571. 3. 8. stated by the Accountant General to be due from the Vizir to the Company on the 30th April 1780, and not charged to him by the Resident, although such a formal Intimation of it from the Accountant General, as you received, was at least a sufficient Authority to have induced you to apply for the Board's Orders concerning it, had you been otherwise dubious about admitting it; and although it arose from positive Charges and Demands upon the Vizir, which ought to have been carried immediately to his Account, and could not be in the least affected by any counter Claims of the Vizir; which if allowed to be just, he might equally receive Credit for, in Account, at any future Time after they had been so allowed.

10th. For anticipating the Revenues of the Vizir's Country, and burthening them with an enormous Load of Interest, by mortgaging Assignments upon them to the Shroffs, at the Usury of 2 per Cent. per Mensem, in order to accomplish a Remittance of the above additional Balance to the Presidency, by the Means of their Bills, within the Year 1189, after having omitted to include the said Balance in the regular Assignments.

11th. For loading the Vizir's Revenues in like Manner with the further usurious Charge of 2 per Cent. per Mensem, in order to anticipate the Liquidation of the Excess of Disbursements beyond the Amount which you had received Assignments for at the Beginning of the Year 1189, by mortgaging to the Shroffs the Balances of the Assignments uncollected at the End of the said Year 1189.

12th. For endeavouring to conceal from us the Knowledge of the Rebellion of Almas Ally Cawn, the Vizir's principal Renter, by studiously avoiding the Mention of his Disobedience and Flight, which, from the Treasures and Forces he carried with him, threatened to involve the Vizir's Country in a State of Warfare.

13th. For afterwards pursuing Measures to encrease the Power of Almas Ally Cawn (already too formidable for a Subject) by procuring for him, on his Return to Lucknow, a Grant of additional Districts, on the Condition of his becoming bound to the Shroffs for the Payment of their Tunkaws or Assignments in their Favour, and thereby releasing your own Security to them for the Liquidation of those Tunkaws.

14th. For neglecting to advise us of the Disturbance at Daranagur, when Two of the Vizir's Battalions were attacked and dispersed by a Body of Fyzoola Cawn's Horse; and the Consequences might have been more serious from this Effect, although it appears to have proceeded from a private Fray, and was unauthorized and unknown by Fyzoola Cawn.

15th. For neglecting on every other Occasion of Disaffection or Disturbance in the Vizir's Aumils, to report them to the Board, although considerable Detachments were made from the Brigade to quell such Disturbances, by your own Requisition, or that of your Assistant, Mr. Richard Johnson.

16th. For concealing from us a Knowledge of the State of the Vizir's Dominions, and when you knew them to be under such precarious Dependance as to require the constant Awe of a Military Force to prevent a Civil War, from the Machinations of rebellious Zemindars; when you knew likewise that we were surrounded by Enemies (the Peace with the Marattas not having then been ratified at Poona); for endeavouring at such a Crisis to increase the Number of our Enemies, and consequently our Difficulties, by recommending an Expedition, in concert with the Vizir, to deprive Fyzoola Cawn of his Zemindarry; although you acknowledge, in the same Letter, "that the Possessions of Fyzoola Cawn are so situated, that there is no "Possibility of cutting off his Retreat, whenever he might choose to attempt it."—And again, that "there can be no Doubt but Zabit-a-Cawn, with whom he is closely connected, and "keeps up a constant Intercourse, would seize any Opening which might yield him the faintest "Hopes of recovering his hereditary Possessions in Rohilcund." Mr. Middleton's Letter, 17th Sept. 1782.

Charges against Mr. Richard Johnson.

1st. For assuming an unlicensed Authority in Prejudice of the Vizir's Government; and interfering in the Management of his Country, in opposition to his Will, and to the Endeavours and Remonstrances of his Minister. The particular Instances alledged are, "by ap-"pointing Aumils of your own Choice, and in such a Manner that no one either attended "the Presence of the Nabob, or visited his Minister." Consultation, 7th Sept. 1782. Hyder Beg's Letter.

2dly. "By exacting Sunnuds, and Orders from the Presence, at your own Pleasure, and "issuing the Sunnuds on your own Part, as if his Duty had been held independent of the Vizir's "Authority." Ditto.

3dly. For sending repeatedly to the Vizir, and to his Minister Hyder Beg Cawn, to advise them against transferring the Ten Lacks of Rupees, intended as a Present to the Governor General, to the Company's Account, as it would be a Precedent for further Demands, which, if the Vizir did not resist in the first Instance, this Government would never cease to harass him for Money. Consultation, 7th Sept. 1782. Major Palmer's Letter.

4thly. For Neglect of Duty, in not having communicated to this Government any Measures which the State of Affairs in the Vizir's Country might render it necessary for you to adopt, if such Necessity prevailed.

5thly. For further Neglect of Duty, in not having written a single Letter to this Government during the Absence of Mr. Middleton from his Station at Lucknow, to report the State of the Upper Provinces, or of the Vizir's Dominions, or to mention any one Occurrence of those Parts, notwithstanding the important Events which took place during that Interval from the Contentions which ensued upon the Decease of Nudziff Cawn, and the Disturbances in the Vizir's Country from the Defection and Flight of Almas Ally Cawn, one of his principal Zemindars, with a considerable Treasure and Force; from the Refractoriness and Disobedience of other Zemindars, and from other Causes, which the Board have since been informed of; and for not mentioning the Disaster which happened to Two Battalions of the Vizir's Troops at Daranagur; all which the Board obtained no Knowledge of but from private Information.

7thly. But particularly for detaching, by the Means of your Application to the Commanding Officer at Cawnpore, One Regiment from that Brigade, to enforce the Vizir's Demands upon the Nabob of Furruckabad, notwithstanding the positive Prohibition of any Interference from the Resident in the Vizir's Claims upon that Nabob, and notwithstanding the further positive Prohibition of Detachments being required from the Brigade, except in Cases of extreme Necessity; and on all these important Occasions, for neglecting to make any Communications to this Board. Governor General's Orders to the Resident.

Ordered, That the Letters from Mr. Middleton and from Mr. Johnson be entered after the Consultation.

Appendix to Consultation, 12th June 1783.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, 4th October 1781.

I have the Pleasure to inform you that I arrived here, by forced Marches, on the 2d Instant, having parted with the Nabob, who took Fayzabad in his Way, at Hussapore *.— As his Excellency will not be at Lucknow till Saturday next, and the Ministers arrived only To-day, we have not yet been able to enter upon any Business of Moment; but you may rest assured no Time shall be unnecessarily consumed. * Sic in Orig.

On my Arrival here, I was extremely concerned to find, from Colonel Hannay's Letters to my Brother, that his Situation was far more critical and dangerous than I could have had any Reaſon to ſuppoſe; in ſhort, the Safety of himſelf and Detachment appeared to depend ſolely upon his obtaining immediate Aſſiſtance from this Place; my Brother therefore, previous to my Arrival, had ſent Major Naylor's Regiment, which in conſequence of your Orders had been detached to Lucknow, to the Colonel's Relief, and I am hopeful it will be the Means of extricating him from his apparent Difficulties. Major John M'Pherſon, with One Battalion of his Regiment, arrived here Yeſterday, which enables us to ſpare Major Naylor's, otherwiſe I am convinced it would not have been by any Means ſafe to detach it from Lucknow, as Diſturbances prevail almoſt univerſally around us, and ſome daring Deſigns have been meditated, though happily detected before they were ripe for Execution, againſt the Tranquillity of this Town. I ſhall addreſs you on theſe Subjects at large in a Day or Two, and I truſt be able to leave you without any Apprehenſions for this Quarter, whatever Dangers there may have been.

The encloſed Letter from Colonel Hannay will exhibit to you an unpleaſant, but I fear too true a Picture of his Situation, and evince to you the Neceſſity there was for ſending him the Aſſiſtance we have done.

My dear Sir,

The Honble. Warren Haſtings. Your, &c. &c.

I have juſt received your Two Notes of the 30th: My Deſtruction is infallible, unleſs Two Regiments, or at leaſt One, arrive to my Aſſiſtance, without a Moment's Delay.—I am ſurrounded on Three Sides by incredible Numbers of Inſurgents, and I ſhall not be able to keep the Road open to Byramgaut above another Day. My Sepoys, the Remains of Seven broken Companies, deſert ſo faſt, that I ſhall ſoon be without any; moſt of my Horſe have made their Terms with the Rebels, and I am helpleſs. I have heard nothing more of Meer Ahmed Ally, and his Reſaula.—I have no hope but in Aſſiſtance from Lucknow: For theſe Three Days I have written to you, in the moſt preſſing Terms, for Aid; but I am afraid my Letters have not got to you: Without immediate Aſſiſtance we are loſt.

A true Copy,

(Signed) Nath[l] Middleton.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, 12th October 1781.

Incloſed I take the Liberty of tranſmitting Copies of the ſeveral Papers you ſigned previous to my Departure from Chunar. The original Agreement between you and the Nabob I am afraid to truſt to the preſent Uncertainty of the Dauks; it ſhall however be forwarded the Moment you deſire it, and an authentic Copy may in the mean Time anſwer your immediate Purpoſe. Theſe Papers I have put under a ſealed Cover, that you may not have them opened and entered before you wiſh them to become public.

Permit me on this Occaſion, my dear Sir, to ſuggeſt to you the Neceſſity there is of the preparatory Steps being immediately taken towards accompliſhing the Point ſtipulated and agreed upon between you and the Nabob, by iſſuing the General Orders under which the temporary Brigade is to prepare to move out of the Vizir's Dominions, and the Engliſh Officers commanding Corps in his Excellency's Service to return to their reſpective Stations in the Company's Service.

Two Months from the Date of the Agreement were to be allowed (which will expire in the enſuing Month) for the Purpoſe of enabling the Troops at remote Stations to march down or diſband by Degrees, ſo as that what remains of them may paſs the Nabob's Boundaries by the Time ſtipulated. If Orders to this Effect are not now iſſued, the Time allowed will elapſe without Avail, and its intended Purpoſe be defeated. If you have not already fixed or iſſued your Orders and Arrangements for this Purpoſe, I venture to intrude the Propoſal of the following Mode, which I entreat you will receive merely as it is intended, to ſave, or aſſiſt in ſaving, you any Trouble this Subject might give you, at a Time that your Mind and Attention muſt be ſo wholly occupied by the great Object more immediately under your Conſideration.

Firſt, A General Order, that all Officers now employed in the interior Service of the Vizir do immediately repair with their Commands to Lucknow, and there completely pay off their Troops, and ſettle their Accounts with the Paymaſter General of the Vizir's Eſtabliſhment under Britiſh Officers, ſo that they (the Officers) may join their reſpective Brigades before the End of next Month, or at leaſt quit the Vizir's Provinces by that Period.

Secondly, An Order that the Second, or ſuch other Brigade as may be intended to occupy the Frontier Station, do march to Etawah, and canton there, excepting One complete Regiment of Sepoys, which is always to remain with the Reſident at Lucknow, and to be relieved every Three Months without Deviation.

Thirdly, An Order, ſignifying, that as it had been ſtipulated with the Nabob Vizir that the temporary Brigade and Cavalry ſhall no longer be at his Charge after the 30th November next, the Officers of that Brigade are to furniſh Drafts to the 2d Brigade to complete their Regiments to the Number newly regulated, and to march down their remaining Men to complete in like Manner the Regiments of the 1ſt and 3d Brigades, previouſly delivering over the Ordnance, Arms, &c. received from the Nabob Vizier—the Intention of this being, that the whole of the Futty Ghur and Daranagur Detachments, after being drafted for the 2d Brigade, do paſs the Nabob's Boundaries on or before the 30th November next. The Paymaſter to ſettle all Accounts with the Reſident to that Time.

Fourthly, An Order to direct the Paymaſter of Colonel Muir's Detachment, that he do not ſend in his Eſtimates for that Detachment to the Reſident, for the Pay and Allowances of any Period after the 30th November next, but from thenceforward to make his Drafts upon the Military Paymaſter General, or the Reſident and Collector of Benares, and to cloſe whatever Accounts he may have with the Reſident at Lucknow, to the Period above mentioned.

This laſt Order ſeems more urgently neceſſary than any of the foregoing, on account of the remote Situation of that Detachment, which might render any Diſappointment in its Supplies of the moſt ſerious Conſequence.

A Fifth Order, to ſtop the temporary Brigade from recruiting, might be of great Uſe, if immediately iſſued, as I underſtand that Officers are now employed in different Parts of the Vizier's Country on that Service.—In ſhort, my dear Sir, if it be true, as I have heard it lately reported, that you mean to re-eſtabliſh the Golundaz Corps, and to have an additional Military Eſtabliſhment at Benares, the Men required for theſe Two Objects, together with the Drafts ſufficient to complete the 3d Brigade, will preclude all Difficulty in diſpoſing of the Officers and Men which now compoſe the temporary Brigade and the Cavalry, whether you chuſe to allot One Regiment to each Brigade, or fix the whole at Benares.

It is alſo to be obſerved, that it is not indiſpenſably neceſſary, by the new Agreement with the Nabob, that the Troops are to leave his Dominions on a fixed Day; it is ſufficient that he is exonerated from the Charge of maintaining them, and that the Company find Funds for their Pay from the Period ſtipulated: But if the Orders above ſuggeſted, or ſome others to a ſimilar Effect, be not immediately iſſued, the ſudden Expiration of the ſtipulated Time muſt create much Confuſion and Difficulty, as the effectual Accompliſhment of this Arrangement, in all its Branches, will neceſſarily require Time, and the Proviſion of new Funds and Reſources muſt become an Object of your early Conſideration.

Excuſe, my dear Sir, the Freedom with which I have ſuggeſted the above Points, as Preparatives to the final Execution of your Engagements with the Vizier; and do me the Juſtice to believe that I am actuated by no other Motive than a ſincere Deſire to ſave you Embarraſſment.

Major Naylor's complete Defeat of the Rebels in the Goruckpore Country has left Colonel Hannay without any Apprehenſions of Danger to himſelf or Detachment; but the Country is yet in a very unſettled, diſaffected State, and will I fear remain ſo, until ſome ſevere Examples have been made of the leading Inſurgents, which the Circumſtances of their local Situation, their Reſources, and inacceſſible Retreats, may render both a difficult and a tedious Operation.

I am, moſt reſpectfully, &c. &c.

The Honble. Warren Haſtings. (Signed) Nath. Middleton.

Lucknow, the 16th October 1781.

My dear Sir,

I have been duly honoured with the Receipt of your Letter of the 7th Inſtant, to which the uſual and unavoidable Delays of the Vizier's Office prevented my giving you an earlier Reply.

Incloſed I now do myſelf the Pleaſure to tranſmit you an Addreſs from his Excellency, aſſenting to the Requeſt I made to him on your Behalf, in regard to the Farm of Khyra Ghur, and a Shocka to Raja Meyhipnarain on the ſame Subject; the neceſſary Orders having alſo been forwarded to the Fougedar of Allahabad, it remains only for the Raja to depute an Officer to receive Charge of the Pergunnah, which will be made over to him immediately on his Arrival.

From the Difficulties which the Nabob's Miniſters have heretofore experienced in realizing the Rents of this Farm, owing to the Want of any effectual Controul or Authority over Cheit Sing, his Excellency was ſecretly very averſe to continuing it to his Succeſſor, and had, I have Reaſon to believe, expedited the Reſumption of it on that Account; but I muſt do him the Juſtice to declare, he did not ſuffer this Objection to have any Weight in Competition with your Inclinations.

I am, &c.

To

To Mr. Middleton.

Chunar, 21ſt November 1781.

I know not how to account for the little Attention which you ſhew to my Orders, eſpecially on a Point which you know to be the moſt important to my Reputation. Before you left this Place, I gave you a Liſt of Papers which I ſhould want, both to explain and juſtify the Engagements which I had concluded with the Nabob Vizier, and you promiſed to ſend them on your Arrival at Lucknow. You obliged me to write preſſingly, and I believe repeatedly for them. You then ſent me Accounts, which, had you but looked at their Titles, you would have known could be of no Uſe, being the Accounts of Eſtabliſhments, not of actual Expenditures, and of Eſtabliſhments of the Year 1778, which are either obſolete or much changed; and the Account which I moſt wanted you have not ſent, which was the Account of the Nabob's preſent Debt to the Company. I have been prevented by your Neglect of me from ſending to the Board the Report of this Tranſaction, which of courſe will go Home only in private, and of courſe not the moſt favourable Accounts of it.

I now once more deſire that you will inſtantly ſend me the following Accounts:

1. An Account of the Sums due to the End of the laſt Month of the Fuſſulee Computation from the Nabob Vizier to the Company, on account of each ſeparate Charge.

2. An Account of the Diſburſements made and due for the laſt Fuſſulee Year for every different Department paid by Mr. Wombwell, viz. The temporary Brigade, Major Martin's Arſenal, Colonel Hannay's Corps, Body Guard, Penſions and Salaries, and the actual Expence of Captain Oſborne's Corps for the laſt Year of his Command.

To theſe I muſt add another equally neceſſary with the foregoing, which I deſire you to give me, as you can, but not to delay the foregoing for it; viz. An Account of the nominal Value of each Jagheer; and oppoſed to it, its real Produce or its eſtimated Value.

I am, &c.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

My dear Sir,

Lucknow, the 1ſt December 1781.

The Account of the Jagheers, in the Manner you deſire it in your Letter of the 21ſt Ultimo, is by no means eaſy to make, with any Degree of Certainty, while they remain ſeparated and diſtinct from the Mahls of the Sircar, as every Jagheerdar finds it too much his Intereſt to conceal any Exceſs of Collections above the Amount for which the Lands are granted to him, to ſuffer an exact Valuation to be taken, ſo long as he has the Means of preventing it; but as the Jagheers will now either be re-annexed to the Khalſa Lands, or made a ſeparate Aumildarry, under the Direction of a Perſon of my own Recommendation, it will not be difficult for me to obtain the Informations you require, as their Produce, whatever it may be, will be brought into the Treaſury, from whence thoſe who are entitled to the Mediation of the Company will receive their Proportions in Ready Money. I have this Day ſignified to the Miniſter my Expectation that the whole of the Jagheers be reſumed, and their Revenue, after paying to ſuch of the Proprietors as have a Right to claim the Mediation of our Government, the Amount of their Jagheers, be applied to the Liquidation of the Nabob's Debt to the Honourable Company. I ſhall be very glad if his Excellency conſents to make this Meaſure an Act of his own, as I conceive it would be more agreeable to you, and more conſiſtent with thoſe Appearances which it may be thought expedient to preſerve with his Excellency; but if he declines it, as is by no means improbable, I ſhall think myſelf juſtified by your Inſtructions in inſiſting on its being done even without his Concurrence.

I expect to be informed of his Excellency's Determination on this Subject To-morrow, and ſhall loſe no Time in taking my Meaſures accordingly, and informing you thereof.

The Miniſter informs me that Meyhipnarain has not yet ſent an Aumil to Khyragur, which cauſes great Confuſion in that Pergunnah; may I therefore, my dear Sir, beg to be informed whether it is your Intention to continue the Farm under Meyhipnarain, or reſtore it to the Authority of the Vizier?

I am, &c.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings.

My dear Sir,

It is with the greateſt Concern that I have to acknowledge the Receipt of your Letter of the 21ſt, as you appear to be much hurt at the Neglect you accuſe me with towards you.

I really thought that I had ſent you every Account which you had aſked me for at Chunar. The Eſtabliſhments of the Troops under Britiſh Officers which I tranſmitted, although made, as you obſerve, in the Year 1778, are the ſame by which the Payments are at this Moment made, excepting any extra Diſburſement and Contingency which cannot be provided for, and which but rarely occur in the Service.

And the Revenue Accounts were of the very laſt Year that had then been drawn out. The Accounts of the new Year are not yet ſettled or delivered in; and what have been tranſcribed has been ſince my ſending the Accounts to you.

However,

However, the Accounts, as you now desire them, are transcribing, and shall be sent you without a Moment's Loss of Time. The Receipts and Disbursements of the last Year will not be quite complete, as the Accounts of Gurruchpore and Furruckabad have not yet been closed.

Sir Elijah Impey leaves us on Wednesday Morning, after which, I dare venture to assure you, you will have much less Cause to tax me with want of Punctuality. I have, and must necessarily continue to be constant in my personal Attendance upon him, which I trust you will admit as some Excuse for me.

I am, &c.

Nath. Middleton.

Lucknow,
25th Nov^{r} 1781.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings.

Lucknow, the 2d Dec^{r} 1781.

My dear Sir,

I had Yesterday the Honour of informing you of the Message I sent to the Nabob through the Minister, respecting the Jagheers, to which his Excellency this Morning returned me a Reply, purporting, that if the Measure proposed was intended to procure the Payment of his Balance due to the Company, he could better and more expeditiously effect that Object, by taking from his Mother what she is very able to spare, and what he has an undoubted Right, as he conceives, to exact from her. The present Debt to the Company, as he with Truth observes, is a great Part handed down from his Father; and the Funds from which he might have been enabled to liquidate it, it is notorious, were withheld from him by the Begum, on the late Nabob's Death. That according to the Laws of the Koran, and the invariable Custom of the Country, he is justly entitled to the whole Estate and Treasures of his Father, and could legally demand their being put in his Possession; but that the Sum he desires to take from his Mother (about Sixty Lacks) bears no Sort of Proportion to the immense Wealth which fell into her Hands on the Death of his Father, nor would it bear at all hard upon her, as he knows how much her Treasures exceed that Sum. All therefore that he asks, is not to be interrupted in recovering a Part of his hereditary Right, by which he will be enabled to discharge immediately the whole of his Debt to the Company.

This, my dear Sir, is a flattering Proposition; and as to the Point of Right, admitting it to be less clear and defined than the Nabob chuses to consider it, you may possibly be of Opinion that the Conduct of the Begums, on the late Disturbances at Benares, as set forth in the several Testimonies laid before you, has forfeited any Claim they might originally have had to the Protection and Mediation of the Company; and further, that it may not be political, or yet perfectly safe, to trust them any longer with such powerful Means of promoting an Opposition to our Interests.

For my own Part, I am so well persuaded of the Disaffection of the Begums, particularly the present Nabob's Mother, to our Cause, and of their Promptitude to unite in any Measure to distress us, that I could very easily reconcile it to my Conscience to assist the Nabob, instead of obstructing him, in wresting from them every Benefit they enjoy beyond a decent Maintenance; however, this is only my own Opinion, and by no means meant to influence yours. The Nabob writes you himself on this Subject, and you have his Letter inclosed. Neither he nor I expect that you should give a formal Sanction to the Measure proposed: It will be sufficient that you but hint your Opinion upon it, and enable me to inform his Excellency whether you would or would not oppose his Design. Let me therefore entreat you, my dear Sir, to favour me with a Line by the Return of the Dauk; and if your Sentiments should happen to accord with my own, I doubt not but I should be able to congratulate you, in a very short Space of Time, upon the Remittance of a handsome Sum to the Presidency.

I am, &c.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

P. S. Whatever may be your Resolution upon the Subject of this Letter, it will be expedient to keep it secret. The Resumption of the Jagheers it is necessary to suspend, until I have your Sentiments on this Letter.

The Honourable Warren Hastings.

Lucknow, the 5th December 1781.

My dear Sir,

The inclosed Letter from the Nabob, stating his Situation relative to his Claims to Furruckabad, I have had some Days by me, waiting till I should learn your final Determination upon this Point from Sir Elijah Impey; and having now received this, I shall look to nothing but the Enforcement of your Wishes, by bringing the Nabob to expect the Recovery of his Dues from Furruckabad from your Interference alone. In the mean Time I forward his Letter, that you may be fully acquainted with his former Situation in that Respect.

I am, &c.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 6th Dec^r 1781.

I underſtand, from a Letter I have received from Sir Elijah Impey, that you are not yet ſatisfied with the Statement tranſmitted to you of the Nabob's Debt to the Company, which induces me to trouble you with a few further Remarks.

In the Nabob's Account Current, dated and forwarded to you the 20th ultimo, I purpoſely particularized, as far as my Judgment could point out, any Diviſion or Detail in it. The Sum of Rupees 32,78,613. 11. after deducting 10,000 R^s for an Error, was the Balance of the Year 1187, agreeably to Mr. Purling's Account, ariſing from ſhort Payments of the Claims made upon the Nabob for that Year, and occaſioned by the total Collections of the Country not having proved adequate to the Nabob's own Wants and our annual Claims; and upon theſe Conſiderations I found myſelf obliged, upon my Adjuſtment with his Excellency for the Year 1188, to take a Bond for that Amount, of which I duly informed the Honourable Board. The Army Donation, R^s 10,50,000, was under the ſame Circumſtances; as the unavoidable Claims for the immediate Pay of the eſtabliſhed Troops, and other indiſpenſable Diſburſements, fully engroſſed all the Funds that could be ſet apart from the Nabob's abſolute Wants, after deducting the uſual Charges of Collection. For this, therefore, I was obliged to accept a Bond, the Honourable Board being informed of it, and ſanctifying it by their Concurrence. Both theſe Bonds I ſeparately particularized at the Foot of the Nabob's Account for 1188, and added the actual Balance of R^s 12,09,876. 9. 8. for which new Aſſignments were receiving.

Believe me, my dear Sir, if this Explanation does not anſwer your Purpoſe, it is not owing to the Want of Inclination to take any Pains to afford you complete Satisfaction, but to my Ignorance of any clearer Mode of ſtating it, or any other Elucidation of which the Account is ſuſceptible; I muſt therefore entreat you will do me the Favour to inform me, what Queſtion, unanſwered by my Explanation, can be aſked upon it, and I will inſtantly do my utmoſt to make it more clear and explicit.

I underſtand alſo from Sir Elijah's Letter, 'that you approve of a Subſidy from Fayzula 'Cawn, and the Troops to be raiſed upon it to be ſtationed at Cawnpore or Allahabad, but not 'higher.'

The Troops Fayzula Cawn offered through Mr. Johnſon to hold in Readineſs upon his Interpretation of the Treaty, were 2,000 Cavalry, and 1,000 Infantry. If Money inſtead of theſe be required, he will probably propoſe his own Rates of paying them, which are from 14 to 17 Rupees per Month for each Horſeman, with his Arms, Accoutrements, and Horſe, and 4 R^s each for the Infantry; which would only amount together to little above 4 Lacks per Annum—ſay 5 Lacks, including Oadadars or Officers; a Sum which I imagine you would conſider ſcarcely worth the Company's Acceptance, and at the Rates of our own Service, the ſame Number of Troops would exceed Twelve Lacks, which I ſuppoſe is conſiderably beyond what he will voluntarily pay. However, if it is your Wiſh that the Claim ſhould be made, I am ready to take it up, and you may be aſſured nothing within my Power ſhall be left undone to carry it through. The Tofeer or Exceſs of Fayzula Cawn's Collections above the Valuation of his Grant, is ſaid to be equal to the laſt-mentioned Sum. I wait only your Orders to proceed in this Buſineſs.

Finding the Nabob wavering in his Determination about the Reſumption of the Jagheers, I this Day, in Preſence of, and with the Miniſter's Concurrence, ordered the neceſſary Perwannahs to be written to the ſeveral Aumils for that Purpoſe, and it was my firm Reſolution to have diſpatched them this Evening, with proper People to ſee them punctually and implicitly carried into Execution; but before they were all tranſcribed, I received a Meſſage from the Nabob, who had been informed by the Miniſter of the Reſolution I had taken, intreating that I would withhold the Perwannahs until To-morrow Morning, when he would attend me, and afford me Satisfaction on this Point. As the Loſs of a few Hours in the Diſpatch of the Perwannahs appeared of little Moment, and as it is poſſible the Nabob, ſeeing that the Buſineſs will at all Events be done, may make it an Act of his own, I have conſented to indulge him in his Requeſt; but, be the Reſult of our Interview whatever it may, nothing ſhall prevent the Orders being iſſued To-morrow, either by him or myſelf, with the Concurrence of the Miniſters. Your Pleaſure reſpecting the Begums I have learnt from Sir Elijah; and the Meaſure heretofore propoſed will ſoon follow the Reſumption of the Jagheers. From both, or indeed from the former alone, I have no Doubt of the complete Liquidation of the Company's Balance.

I am, &c.

Nath. Middleton.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 7th December 1781.

I had the Honour to addreſs you Yeſterday, informing you of the Steps I had taken in regard to the Reſumption of the Jagheers. This Morning the Vizier came to me according to his Agreement, but ſeemingly without any Intention or Deſire to yield me Satisfaction on the Subject under Diſcuſſion; for after a great deal of Converſation, conſiſting on his Part of triſling Evaſion and puerile Excuſes for withholding his Aſſent to the Meaſure, though at the ſame Time profeſſing the moſt implicit Submiſſion to your Wiſhes, I found myſelf without any other Reſource than the one of employing that excluſive Authority with which I conſider your Inſtructions to veſt me: I therefore declared to the Nabob, in Preſence of the Miniſter and Mr. Johnſon, who I deſired might bear witneſs of the Converſation, that I conſtrued his Rejection of the Meaſure propoſed as a Breach of his ſolemn Promiſe to you, and an Unwillingneſs to yield that Aſſiſtance which was evidently in his Power towards liquidating his heavy accumulating Debt to the Company, and that I muſt in conſequence determine, in my own Juſtification, to iſſue immediately the Perwannahs, which had only been withheld in the ſanguine Hope that he would be prevailed upon to make that his own Act, which nothing but the moſt urgent Neceſſity could force me to make mine. He left me without any Reply, but afterwards ſent for his Miniſter, and authorized him to give me Hopes that my Requiſition would be complied with; on which I expreſſed my Satisfaction, but declared that I could admit of no further Delays, and unleſs I received his Excellency's formal Acquieſcence before the Evening, I ſhould then moſt aſſuredly iſſue my Perwannahs; which I have accordingly done, not having had any Aſſurances from his Excellency that could juſtify a further Suſpenſion. I ſhall, as ſoon as poſſible, inform you of the Effect of the Perwannahs, which, in many Parts, I am apprehenſive it will be found neceſſary to enforce with Military Aid; I am not, however, entirely without Hopes that the Nabob, when he ſees the Inefficacy of further Oppoſition, may alter his Conduct, and prevent the Confuſion and diſagreeable Conſequences which would be too likely to reſult from the Proſecution of a Meaſure of ſuch Importance, without his Concurrence. His Excellency talks of going to Fayzabad, for the Purpoſe heretofore mentioned, in Three or Four Days: I wiſh he may be ſerious in this Intention, and you may reſt aſſured I ſhall ſpare no Pains to keep him to it.

I am, &c.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

The Honourable W. Haſtings.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 9th December 1781.

I had the Honour to addreſs you on the 7th Inſtant, informing you of the Converſation which had paſſed between the Nabob and me on the Subject of reſuming the Jagheers, and the Step I had taken in conſequence.—His Excellency appeared to be very much hurt and incenſed at the Meaſure, and loudly complains of the Treachery of his Miniſters; Firſt, in giving you any Hopes that ſuch a Meaſure would be adopted; and, Secondly, in their promiſing me their whole Support in carrying it through: But, as I apprehended, rather than ſuffer it to appear that the Point had been carried in oppoſition to his Will, he at length yielded a nominal Acquieſcence, and has this Day iſſued his own Perwannahs to that Effect; declaring however, at the ſame Time, both to me and his Miniſters, that it is an Act of Compulſion.—I hope to be able, in a few Days, in conſequence of this Meaſure, to tranſmit you an Account of the actual Value and Produce of the Jagheers, oppoſed to the nominal Amount at which they ſtand rated on the Books of the Sircar.

I have the Pleaſure to inform you, the Nabob ſtill adheres to his Reſolution of proceeding immediately to Fayzabad, for the Purpoſes already mentioned to you, and will, I believe, depart in Three Days from this Date. I entertain the moſt flattering and ſanguine Expectations from his Journey; and we ſhall not be kept long in Suſpenſe concerning the Reſult, as he is convinced of the Danger and Impropriety of Delay.

Sir Elijah Impey has ſignified to me your final Commands reſpecting the Nabob of Furruckabad, and Iſhmael Beg; in both which Inſtances reſt aſſured they ſhall be implicitly obeyed. I wait only the arrival of Suftulla Cawn, whom Sir Elijah informed me you had diſpatched to me, to withdraw every Shadow of Interference in the Government of Furruckabad. Iſmael Beg's Accounts with the Nabob ſhall be inveſtigated in the Manner you direct, and full Information tranſmitted you the Moment I can ſpare Time from the Two important Objects to which you have directed my firſt Attention.

Under this Date I have diſpatched to you, at the Nabob's Deſire, Two Elephants, with an Ambarry and Howdah, Four Horſes, a Palenquin, a Maulah Seerpeach, and Caulgah, appertaining to the Dreſs, &c. you did him the Honour to accept at Chunar.

I am, &c.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

The Nabob Vizier having appointed an Aumil to take charge of the Begum's Jaguirs, ſhe has, it appears, prepared a large Body of Troops, with a ſuppoſed Deſign to reſiſt him. A violent and threatening Letter, which I have juſt received from the Begum, would ſeem to leave no Doubt of her Intentions to ſupport the already-declared Licentiouſneſs of her Servants, in oppoſing the Nabob's Orders; I have therefore been obliged to join my Solicitation to the Vizier's, for obtaining a Regiment from Colonel Morgan, to ſupport the Aumil in the Execution of his Excellency's Commands; and I may add, that unleſs my Judgment far miſleads me, we ſhall be in want want of ſtill farther Aid, before the Meaſure of reſuming the Jaguirs ſhall become fully eſtabliſhed, and the Country reſtored to that State of Tranquillity and Subordination which it enjoyed before the Contagion ſpread by Chyte Sing's Machinations.

I encloſe Copy of my Letter to Colonel Morgan, and have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

(Copy.)

To Colonel Charles Morgan, commanding at Cawnpore.

Sir,

Incloſed I have the Honour to tranſmit you a Letter from the Nabob Vizier, requeſting a Regiment of Native Troops to aſſiſt the Aumil of Selon, &c. in eſtabliſhing his Authority, which is threatened to be violently diſputed by an armed Force. I muſt join my Requeſt to that of his Excellency's, as I am but too well aſſured of the great Neceſſity there will be for a Military Force to re-eſtabliſh a regular Obedience to Government in many Parts of this Country; if you will therefore pleaſe to order a Regiment here, I will take care to procure proper Inſtructions for the Commanding Officer.

I have the Honour, &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I have been honoured with the Receipt of your Letter of the 19th Inſtant; and in obedience to your Commands ſhall forward to you, by the Firſt ſafe Opportunity, your Agreement with the Nabob Vizier, together with ſuch other authentic Papers as are connected with it; and have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Sir,

Your moſt obedient, &c. &c.
(Signed) Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Vizier's Court.

Lucknow,
the 22d December 1781.

To Mr. Middleton.

Benares, 26th December 1781.

Sir,

My Mind has been for ſome Days ſuſpended between Two oppoſite Impulſes; one ariſing from the Neceſſity of my Return to Calcutta; the other from the Apprehenſion of my Preſence being more neceſſary and more urgently wanted at Lucknow. Your Anſwer to this ſhall decide my Choice.

I have waited thus long in the Hopes of hearing that ſome Progreſs had been made in the Execution of the Plan which I concluded with the Nabob in September laſt. I do not find that any Step towards it has been yet taken, though Three Months are elapſed, and little more than that Period did appear to me requiſite to have accompliſhed the moſt eſſential Parts of it, and to have brought the whole into Train. This Tardineſs, and the Oppoſition prepared to the only decided Act yet undertaken, have a bad Appearance. I approve the Nabob's Reſolutions to deprive the Begums of their ill-employed Treaſures. In both Services it muſt be your Care to prevent an Abuſe of the Powers given to thoſe that are employed in them. You yourſelf ought to be perſonally preſent. You muſt not allow any Negociations or Forbearance, but muſt proſecute both Services until the Begums are at the entire Mercy of the Nabob, their Jagheers in the quiet Poſſeſſion of his Aumils, and their Wealth in ſuch Charge as may ſecure it againſt private Embezzlement. You will have a Force more than ſufficient to effect both theſe Purpoſes.

The Reformation of his Army, and the new Settlement of his Revenues, are alſo Points of immediate Concern, and ought to be immediately concluded. Has any Thing been done in either?

I now demand and require you moſt ſolemnly to anſwer me. Are you confident in your own Ability to accompliſh all theſe Purpoſes, and the other Points of my Inſtructions? If you reply that you are, I will depart with a quiet and aſſured Mind to the Preſidency, but leave you a dreadful Reſponſibility if you diſappoint me. If you tell me that you cannot rely upon your * Power, and the other Means which you poſſeſs, for performing theſe Services, I will free you from the Charge; I will proceed myſelf to Lucknow, and I will myſelf undertake them; and in that Caſe I deſire that you will immediately order Bearers to be ſtationed, for myſelf and Two other Gentlemen, between Lucknow and Illahabad, and I will ſet out from hence in Three Days after the Receipt of your Letter.

I am ſorry that I am under the Neceſſity of writing in this preſſing Manner; I truſt implicitly to your Integrity: I am certain of your Attachment to myſelf, and I know that your Capacity is equal to any Service; but I muſt expreſs my Doubts of your Firmneſs and Activity, and above all, of your Recollection of my Inſtructions, and of their Importance. My Conduct in the late

Arrangements will be arraigned with all the Rancor of disappointed Rapacity, and my Reputation and Influence will suffer a mortal Wound from the Failure of them. They have already failed in a Degree, since no Part of them has yet taken place, but the Removal of our Forces from the Douab and Rohilcund, and of the British Officers and Pensioners from the Service of the Nabob; and the Expences of the former thrown, without any Compensation, on the Company.

I expect a Supply of Money equal to the Discharge of all the Nabob's Arrears, and am much disappointed and mortified that I am not now able to return with it

Give me an immediate Answer to the Question which I have herein proposed, that I may lose no more Time in fruitless Inaction.

I am, &c.

(Signed) Warren Hastings.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 26th Decr 1781.

I have long been waiting, with very great Impatience, for the Arrival of Sultulla Cawn, who Sir Elijah Impey informed me you had dispatched to Lucknow, to adjust with me the Account between the Vizier and Muzuffer Jung, and settle the future Mode of Payment of what might appear due from that Chief to his Excellency; but having heard of Sultulla's Arrival at Furruckabad, and of his having, as he reports, by your Authority, declared Muzuffer Jung exempted from all Sort of Dependance on the Vizier, I was unwilling to delay any longer the Execution of your Commands, and therefore prefsed upon his Excellency and the Ministers the Necessity of an immediate Compliance with your Requisition for the Recall of Almâs Ally Cawn from Furruckabad, which has accordingly been done; and I have now the Honour to inclose you Translate of a Letter addressed to me by his Excellency on the Subject.

Permit me, my dear Sir, in this Place, to suggest to you the Necessity of your writing in very peremptory Terms to the Nabob Muzuffer Jung, respecting the Payment of his Dues to this Government, which I am more particularly anxious about, as the Amount unavoidably has become a Part of the Funds assigned to the Liquidation of the public annual Claim upon the Vizier. As yet no Security whatever has been offered for any Part of the Demand, nor any Thing paid, although Four Months of the Year are elapsed; and as neither his Excellency or myself have now any Means of exacting Payment, I am very apprehensive that, without the immediate and vigorous Exertion of your Authority, very little, if any Thing, will be got from Muzuffer Jung. On this Point, as the Claim is considerable; and the Nabob, at your Requisition, has given up the Means he formerly had of enforcing it, I could wish, on your Authority, to give him some satisfactory Assurance, which I hope you will enable me to do.

As I understand you interested yourself in the Welfare of a Person by the Name of Hadjee Mahmood Caudry, who some Time ago visited this Court in his Way to Delhy, I beg leave to inclose you an Article of curious Intelligence concerning him, which has been transmitted by Luttarefut Ally Cawn. I have not heard what has been, or is likely to be, the Consequence of the Hadjee's Manœuvre.

I shall, To-morrow, do myself the Honour of addressing you officially respecting the Bhow Begum, whose Conduct, on the intended Resumption of her Jagheer, has removed the Veil by which her real Dispositions have long been covered, and seems to render what I should before have recommended as a Measure of Prudence, at present an Act of indispensable Necessity—I mean depriving her of the Power of doing Mischief.

I am, &c.

The Honourable W. Hastings. Nath. Middleton.

From Lataufut Ally Khan to Nazir Collah Beg Khan, his Vakeel.

I have received the Letters from the Nabob and Mr. Middleton respecting Hadjee Shaw Mahmood Kaudrie; also one from yourself, mentioning the same Person. On his Arrival, I lodged him at my House, furnishing him with every Thing necessary, and introduced him to the King and Nabob Nezif Khan; also obtained for him a Grant of Two Lacks of Rupees. On his taking his leave, I secured to him the Compliment of a Doshawlah and Shawl Handkerchief from the King; likewise from Nabob Nezif Khan Five Trays, in which were Two Pair of Doshawlahs, Four Pieces of Shawls, One Piece of Kumbkaub, and Two Shawl Handkerchiefs; notwithstanding which, he has been guilty of the Fraudulency of making out Sunnuds for the Countries of Arcot and Hydernaig, in the Name of Mahmud Ally Khan, under forged Seals, promising to give the forged Seal-cutter a thouland Rupees, of which he paid only Two hundred, withholding the Balance, and proceeded to Desnah, distant from Dhelly Sixteen Cos. There were Four Accomplices in the Forgery, One of whom was the Seal-cutter, and received the Two hundred Rupees. One out of the Four has turned Informer, and made the Nabob Nezif Khan acquainted with the whole, who seized the Three other People, and sent them to the King. There were Three of the King's Kismutgars on whom the forged Seals were found. The King tried the Seals with his own Hands on Paper, when there was not to be perceived the smallest Deviation on comparing with his own. The People are now in Confinement. They say that the Hadjee promised them, that if they would make out the Sunnud for Arcot, and give it him, he would pay them them Ten thouſand Rupees; that, induced by this promiſed Reward, and the Hadjee's Perſuaſion, they have been guilty of this Fraud. The King has directed Nazif Khan to apprehend the Hadjee, and take from him the forged Sunnud. In compliance therewith Nazif Khan has ſent to Dornah.—Explain the whole of this Affair to the Nabob Hyder Beg Khan and Mr. Middleton.

From the Nabob Vizier to the Reſident.

I have received the Governor's Letter, directing me to withdraw my Naib from Nabob Mozuffer Jung, leaving the Bundebuſt to be ſettled by him; I have accordingly been waiting for a reſponſible Perſon on the Part of Mozuffer Jung, to attend and account with you for the Company's Aſſignments, that I might then recall my Servant from thence, and after that addreſs the Governor reſpecting my Humiliation. Hitherto no one from Mozuffer Jung has appeared for that Purpoſe. Mozuffer Jung, on Receipt of the Governor's Letter, ſent a Copy of it to Almas Ally Khan, which I now encloſe you. It being my Wiſh to give Satisfaction in all Reſpects to the Governor, I relinquiſh all Interference with Mozuffer Jung's Dominions. The Particulars reſpecting Mozuffer Jung, from the Beginning, are theſe:—On the Death of Ahmud Khan, the Brothers and Family of Mozuffer Jung attempted to deprive him of the Muſnud, when my Father ſent his Troops to ſupport him, who engaged with the Patans of Mhow, &c. who were in Oppoſition, and eſtabliſhed Mozuffer Jung in his Acceſſion. Since this, I have protected him againſt his Brothers, Meerbhaun Khan, &c. Houſehold Slaves, allotting, at my own Charge, One thouſand Troops and Artillery for his Guard; the Truth of which enquire of others: You will know in what Manner he has made good, during theſe Five Years, the Tribute promiſed for theſe Services. From the Beginning, when every Thing was in his own Power, by his Indolence, and the Knavery of his Servants, nothing was received; I therefore was reduced to the Neceſſity of appointing a reſponſible Man; and, in the ſame Manner as I ſettled the Collections of my own Country, cauſing Engagements or Bonds to be written by my Aumils for the Company's Aſſignments, and Payment of the ſame, to you; ſo Mozuffer Jung took Engagements or Bonds from his Aumils, to ſecure the Payment of the Company's Aſſignments to him; but from the Ignorance of Mozuffer Jung, and Knavery of his Servants, the Aſſignments have not been paid, which will appear from the Balance accumulated during the Collectorſhip of Mr. Shee. Thus circumſtanced, I appointed Almas Ally Khan, that having adjuſted every Matter reſpecting Mozuffer Jung to his Satisfaction, he might effectually ſettle the Bundebuſt of the Country.—Now the Governor writes me, not to have any one there——His Pleaſure is the Line of my Conduct. There is due to me from Nabob Mozuffer Jung, to the End of the Year, Rupees 1,58,456; —this I will aſſign to the Company towards the Payment of my Debt to them, which, if ſatisfactory to be received from Mozuffer Jung, you will give me Credit for the ſame in Part Payment of the Company's Claim on me, and I ſhall recall my Servant from thence, not meaning to offer any Excuſe. This being ſettled, I ſhall addreſs to the Governor on the Subject of my preſent and future Humiliation. If I heſitate, the Governor may deem it an Oppoſition to his Will: If I recall my Aumil, it will be conſidered by Mozuffer Jung as a Relinquiſhment of my Claim. Do you therefore, my Friend, take immediate ſatisfactory Steps for the Recovery of the Debt, that I may withdraw my Aumil in Obedience to the Governor's Orders. It is notorious that his Friendſhip and Connexion with me exceeds that of any other Prince of Hindoſtan; and in Return for which, my Life and Fortune are devoted to him. The particular and declared Object of my Application for the Removal of Mr. Shee, was to obtain the uncontrouled Management of Furruckabad, which was granted me accordingly, and made an Article of my laſt Agreement. What has led the Governor to alter his Sentiments on this Point, I am at a Loſs to conceive. My Humiliation will reach Dehly. When you ſhall have taken the neceſſary Steps for ſecuring Payment of the Claims from thence, let me know, and I will recall the Aumil, and then I will write the Governor.—My Elevation or Diſgrace remains in his Breaſt.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

The very great Inconvenience, Loſs, and Indignities to which the Vizier has long been ſubject, from the Authority and Dominion aſſumed and exerciſed by the Jagheerdars with the Support of armed Force, and the Impoſſibility of ſtriking out any Medium by which theſe Evils could effectually be remedied, have induced his Excellency to reſume all the Jagheer and Marofee Lands throughout his Country, promiſing to ſuch Perſons as have juſt or equitable Claims to his Bounty, or thoſe guaranteed by the Company for the Amount of their Jagheers, Allowances in Ready Money equal to the Net Sum they ſhall appear to have annually realized from their Jagheers.

This Meaſure, the Utility, and I may ſay the abſolute Neceſſity, whereof will not be diſputed by any one who has had an Opportunity of obſerving the Conduct of the Jagheerdars in general, and particularly ſome whoſe Incomes enabled them to maintain Armies not only ſuperior to thoſe of the Aumils of the Country, who ſhould properly be a Check upon them, but even ſufficient to reſiſt the Force of the State itſelf, has met with violent Oppoſition from the Bhow Begum, who falls particularly under the laſt Deſcription, and whoſe Power is rendered the more pernicious and dangerous, Firſt, From its being wholly delegated to her Servants, who have their own Views of Ambition and Intereſt to anſwer, and in the next Place from the Reluctance with which the Miniſters, and even the Nabob himſelf, interfere with any Concerns of the Begum.

From theſe Two Circumſtances, ſtrengthened by the immenſe Wealth in her Poſſeſſion, alſo intruſted to her Two Chief Eunuchs, Bahar and Jowar Ally Cawn, and her unreaſonable Expectations of Support from the Engliſh Government, of all which ſhe and her Servants avail themſelves to the utmoſt, ſhe is become One of the moſt ſerious internal Evils that, among others, ſeems to bid fair to give great Diſturbance to this Country.

The great Awe in which the Nabob, and of courſe every one under him, ſtands of her Diſpleaſure, leaves without Bounds or Reſtraint the Effects of her uncommonly violent Temper. Death and Deſtruction is the leaſt * me Menace ſhe denounces, upon the moſt trifling Oppoſition to her Caprice. * Sic in Orig.

By her own Conduct, and that of all her Agents and Dependants during the Benares Troubles, it may with Truth and Juſtice be affirmed, ſhe forfeited every Claim ſhe had to the Protection of the Engliſh Government, as ſhe evidently, and it is confidently ſaid avowedly, eſpouſed the Cauſe of Rajah Cheyt Sing, and united in the Idea and Plan of a general Extirpation of their Race and Power in Hindoſtan.

Her Agent at Taunda, who is the Cheyla and adopted Son of Bahr Ally Cawn, her principal Miniſter, treacherouſly turned his Guns upon Lieut. Gordon's Detachment, and was by that Gentleman's Account the ſole Cauſe of the Loſs of it. She gave every Encouragement in her Power to the Adherents of Cheyt Sing by her Agents; aſſiſted them in raiſing Troops in the Town of Fyzabad; promiſed, and as is generally believed, actually advanced Money to the rebellious Rajahs of the Vizier's Country; raiſed Troops to ſupport them, and iſſued Perwannahs for their Operations againſt the Forts garriſoned by the Nabob's Troops under the Command of Britiſh Officers; all which is fully ſtated in the Depoſitions made by Colonel Hannay and the Gentlemen of his Corps. Notwithſtanding all theſe Facts, upon the general Reſumption of the Jagheers I made the Rents of her Lands payable to me; under an Engagement of making the Amount good to her by ſuch Inſtallments as ſhe might direct, in Return for which I have received Letters from her, containing the moſt groſs Abuſe and the wildeſt Threats that can be tranſcribed, Copies of which I have the Honour to encloſe.

Her chief Agent, Bahar Ally Cawn, has marched a conſiderable Force into Nabob Gunge, One of her Jagheers, declaring that if any Attempt is made to reſume it, he will lay the whole Country of Goonda waſte. Theſe declared and repeated Acts of Rebellion are ſurely more than ſufficient to forfeit all Claim whatever to the Interference in her Behalf from our Government; and if ſome Stop is not immediately put to it, it appears but too certain that ſhe will light a Flame throughout theſe Provinces, which if not difficult to extinguiſh will at leaſt put a heavy Bar to the Company's Collections here. I cannot therefore avoid making theſe Repreſentations to you, or doubt but you will approve of the Vizier's immediately taking thoſe Steps which may be neceſſary for effectually eſtabliſhing his Government and Authority, and depriving the Begum of thoſe great Reſources which ſhe has ſhewn it would be extremely impolitic and unſafe to truſt longer in her Hands. On this Subject the Nabob has communicated to me his Sentiments in a long Letter, Copy whereof I have the Honour to encloſe you, in which you will obſerve he ſignifies his Intention of proſecuting his legal Claims upon her for the Public Treaſure and Effects belonging to his Inheritance from his Father, which ſhe detains from him, and ſquanders in ſuch deſtructive Purpoſes, while he is overwhelmed by Public Debts, principally incurred by his Predeceſſor, and on account of his Inability to diſcharge which the Company have indiſpenſably been driven to take upon themſelves the Burthen of a large Military Eſtabliſhment hitherto entertained for their Service at the Charge of the Nabob.

On this Head I think it unneceſſary to offer any Remark, ſince a Reference to the eſtabliſhed Laws and Cuſtoms of the Country will ſufficiently prove his Excellency's inherent Right to claim the Property of his Predeceſſor.

I muſt alſo take the Liberty to add my Opinion, that unleſs Fyzullah Cawn, remotely ſituated as he is, out of reach of Interruption, in the Centre of his own Tribe and Country, connected uninterruptedly with the other Two remaining Patan Powers, becomes included in this general Reform of the Jagheer, or ſome effectual Check impoſed upon him, the whole may prove abortive, while, if fully enforced, may ſave this Country, and with it poſſibly much of our own Blood and Treaſure.

I have the Honour to be,
&c. &c.

Lucknow,
the 27th Dec[r] 1781.

(Signed) Nathaniel Middleton,
Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

From the Bhowe Begum to the Reſident.

The underwritten Particulars have juſt come to my Knowledge—That the Nabob's Orders to Meer Mahboob Ally are arrived, directing the Reſumption of Nabob Gunge on the other Side of the River, and Bene Gunge my Jagheer, and for him to take charge thereof; alſo that that the Charge of Purgunnah Salone, my Jagheer, is given to Meer Nazir Ally; every Thing reſpecting myſelf is ſpecified in your Caulnama. Hitherto no Interference has taken place by any one; I am at a Loſs to account for the preſent Meaſure. On what Plea has the Nabob reſumed my Jagheer, or what are his Intentions? While you are Reſident can ſuch Proceedings be admitted? Expreſs your Diſapprobation, that it may not be carried into Effect. Before, Application was made through Molvie Fuzzle Azeem Khan to me, for Lowanah Talook, my Jagheer, when I wrote to Huſſein Reza Khan, and Hyder Beg Khan, on the Subject, who ſilenced Molvie Fuzzle Azeem Khan—but now the Reſumption of my Jagheer is reſolved on.

The Jagheer is not the Grant of the Nabob, that he ſhould reſume it—let thoſe who granted reſume it. The Nabob has nothing to do with me. Let me have a ſpeedy Anſwer. Countermand the Order to Meer Nazir Ally for the Reſumption of my Jagheer. The preſent State of Matters is trifling, but the Conſequences ſhall be great.

From the Reſident to the Bhowe Begum.

I have received your Letter—recapitulated the Contents—The Nabob has thought proper, on account of the Inconveniences, Loſs, and Indignities he ſuſtains from the Authority exerciſed by the Jagheerdars throughout the Country, to reſume all the Jagheers in his Dominions, in which yours is neceſſarily included; but as the Amount of your Jagheer is confirmed to you by a written Agreement between you and the Nabob, and guaranteed by Mr. Briſtow in behalf of the Governor General and Council, it will be made good to you in Ready Money. If you will therefore be pleaſed to tranſmit me an accurate Account of the Amount you realized from your ſeveral Jagheers, Gunges, Bazars, &c. as ſpecified in the Caulnâma, after deducting the Expences of Collection, Sebundee, and all other Charges, I will pledge myſelf that the ſaid Sum ſhall be regularly remitted to you at ſuch ſtated Times, and in ſuch Proportions, as you ſhall preſcribe:—As to any Thing farther, his Excellency is Maſter.

From the Bhowe Begum to Huſſein Reza Khan.

I find that Meer Nazir Ally has been veſted with Charge of Purgunnah Salone, my Jagheer, which to me is unaccountable. From whence proceeds his Excellency's Interference with my Jagheer? The Jagheer is not from his Grant, that he ſhould reſume it; what his Intentions may be, I am at a Loſs to form an Idea of.—Note this, that if my Jagheer falls, the Country ſhall not ſtand: Remember this, and make the Nabob acquainted with it. It is not well that for a trifling Matter much Trouble ſhould be occaſioned.—Recall the Aumil, to whom the Charge of the Jagheer of Salone has been given; if not, it will not be well done. Hitherto I have been ſilent and patient, but I cannot continue ſo longer. Whence this Reſolution for the Reſumption of my Jagheer? Let me have your Anſwer ſpeedily.

From the Bhowe Begum to the Reſident.

The Particulars I have written you, reſpecting my Jagheers, having arrived, will be read by you. The Nabob has ſent Aumils to take charge of them. The Caulnâma under your Seal is in my Poſſeſſion, in which all Interference with my Jagheers is diſclaimed, as well as all Demands on me for Money. Now the Engagements of the Nabob are diſregarded, although the Engliſh are at hand. I ſhall in Ten Days, the Mohrum being over, proceed to Lucknow, where, having fully explained and adjuſted Affairs, I ſhall repair to wherever my Will may direct. Your being at Lucknow will expedite the clearing and cloſing the Affair. Let there be no Interference with my Jagheer previous to my Arrival at Lucknow, neither vexatiouſly interfere with my People. I am repairing to Lucknow; wherefore this Precipitation? You are Guarantee for the Caulnâma. Should the Country be loſt to me, it ſhall be loſt to all. I give you this Intimation—Note it.

From the Bhowe Begum to the Reſident.

Having written to you particularly reſpecting my Jagheers, you are now acquainted therewith. Now the Nabob's Order to Meer Maboob Ally is arrived, directing the Reſumption of my Jagheers, Nabob Gunge, on the other Side of the River, and Bene Gunge, and their Amount Collections, to be paid into the Treaſury.—Whence this Meaſure? You are acquainted with the Purport of the Caulnâma, diſclaiming all Interference with my Jagheers, and by the Bleſſing of God are at hand for my Benefit. Yet am I aſtoniſhed with this Proceeding. The Jagheers are not granted by the Nabob, that he ſhould reſume them. What has he reſolved againſt me? The Conſequences ſhall be Extremities. There has been a Friendſhip of long Date ſubſiſting between the Engliſh Government and me. I underſtand Aumils for other of my Jagheers are in Agitation. Interpoſe, and put a ſtop to ſuch Proceeding. Application was made before by Molvie Fuzzle Azeem Khan, for Lowanah Talook, my Jagheer; on which I wrote to Huſſein Reza Khan, and Hyder Beg Cawn, who explained the Matter to the Molvie, and cauſed the Matter to be dropped. Huſſein Reza Khan and Hyder Beg Khan are my profeſſed Friends. The Buſineſs I write to them on is effected. With them I am perfectly ſatisfied. I am now convinced this Trouble is cauſed by Molvie Fuzzle Azeem Khan. Make known to him your Diſpleaſure at it, that this Affair may be relinquiſhed, forbidding him ever to enter on the Subject of my Jagheers, to prevent any further Interference of this Kind therewith.

From the Reſident to the Bhowe Begum.

I had the Honour to reply to your former Letter Yeſterday; to the Contents of which I muſt beg leave to refer you, as far as relates to ſecuring to you the actual Income of your Jagheers, Gungees, Bazars, &c. as ſet forth in the Caulnâma ſubſiſting between you and his Excellency the Nabob. I certainly am bound in Duty to interfere, becauſe the Faith of the Governor General and Council, my Maſters, has been pledged to you for it; and I am ready, as I before informed you, to ſettle that Point to your Satisfaction; but as to continuing the Lands, &c. in the Form you have hitherto held them, his Excellency the Nabob is the Maſter, and I cannot oppoſe his Pleaſure. It behoves you to reflect well on this Matter. I am equally the Friend of you and your Son the Nabob, and can have no Prejudices in favour of one or the other. His Excellency declares, and I have myſelf ſeen too many Proofs to doubt it, that the Authority and Dominion exerciſed by the Jagheerdars is extremely prejudicial to his Revenue and Government. A Medium, therefore, being propoſed, by which you loſe nothing, and his Excellency gains ſo much, I ſhould * you would not continue to reject it, ſince it is unqueſtionably the ſame to you, whether you receive the Income of your Jagheer through the Channel of an Aumil appointed under the Nabob's Authority, or from the Hands of your own immediate Agent. For the regular Remittance of whatever Net Income you may heretofore have received from your Jagheers, I willingly make myſelf reſponſible; but I again repeat, that in all other Reſpects the Nabob is Maſter.—What more ſhall I ſay?

* Sic in Orig.

From the Bhowe Begum to the Reſident.

I underſtand, from Huſſein Reza Khan, that he has ſpoke to you concerning my Jagheers, and that you in Reply ſhould ſay that the Nabob's ſending Aumils into my Jagheers was not of any Conſequence or Prejudice. If theſe are your Sentiments, I cannot but be much aſtoniſhed. Had any other Perſon expreſſed ſuch, I ſhould not have felt it, but imputed them to his Ignorance. Since I heard that you ſhould have declared ſuch as the above, I have been in Deſpair, as I cannot think the Country any longer proper for my remaining in it, as thoſe who bound themſelves by Engagements, now diſregard them. After the Mohrum is paſt, I ſhall repair to Lucknow, and take my Leave of it to ſojourn elſewhere, as neceſſitated by the Gentlemen at Lucknow, and as my Inclinations once led me, and is now God's Decree; though, ſhould I be neceſſitated to quit the Country, God grant that no Soul may be able to remain in it in Peace. The Power of Exiſtence reſts not with you, but God. You are a Ruler of the Country, and can take to yourſelf the Jagheers of others. Many are involved in Diſtreſs. Pride is not commendable; it is not countenanced by God. How long is to be the Period of your Reign? Infamy is your due. The Countries of Puttaghur, Owde, &c. yield Four Crore of Rupees; if they are not ſufficient to ſatisfy you, what can my Jagheers contribute towards it? And why, without my Knowledge, ſhould Aumils be ſent into them? If you mean to proceed in this Mode, ſend Aumils into Nezif Khan's Country, &c. and try the Conſequences. While I do remain in the Country, recall the Aumils from my Jagheers. Why ſo precipitate? Be aſſured I ſhall with Expedition take my Departure.

From the Reſident to the Bhowe Begum.

A Perſon aſſuming your Name has juſt arrived here, with a Letter under your Seal, addreſſed to me; but as I cannot believe, either from the Subject Matter or the Stile, that it can have been dictated by you, or written with your Knowledge, I encloſe a Copy of it, that you may detect the Forgery, and inflict a proper exemplary Puniſhment on the Perſon who ſhall have dared thus to abuſe your Confidence, and inſult me.

From the Nabob Vizier to the Reſident.

I have received your Letter, covering Copies of Letters from my Mother to yourſelf—recapitulated* the Contents.—She ſays her Jagheers were not granted by me. At the Time of the late Nabob's Death, theſe Mahls were under the Charge of Jowaur Ally Khan, on the Footing of other Aumils, inſomuch that the Accounts, &c. were lodged in the Dewan's Office; theſe Accounts, as they were delivered into the Dewan's Office to the Date of the Nabob's Death, are forthcoming. After his Death, I, as a dutiful Son, made over theſe Mahls to her in Jagheer, that it could not be ſaid I left my Mother unprovided. The Buſineſs and Mahls of the Khalſa ſuffer conſiderably, and are much prejudiced by the Authority and Conduct of the Aumils of theſe Jagheers, Mahls, as alſo from the Inſolence of the Houſehold Khajahs; witneſs the Conduct of Bhar Ally Khan's Naibat Tondah. My Life, Eſtate, and Dominions originate from the Friendſhip of the Engliſh Government. Yet what Knavery have not theſe Houſehold Khajahs been guilty of. As therefore it is not prudent that theſe Mahls ſhould be continued in the Charge of my Mother,

* Sic in Orig.

Mother, or Houſehold Khajahs, I have appointed my own Aumils—receive the Amount ariſing from theſe Mahls, and pay it to my Mother, after deducting the Charges of Collections, &c. abſolute Charges. I am ready to acquieſce in any Thing for my Mother. As for the other Parts of her Letters, I truſt in God they are dictated by the Houſehold Khajahs; and that I have not cauſed Shame to myſelf from my Conduct to God or my Mother. After the Death of my Father, whatever was due from him to the Company, alſo to the Troops, I took upon myſelf; but whatever Effects there were remained with my Mother. Some Time ſince ſhe gave ſome Part to me, but it went no Way in the Diſcharge of the Claims of the Company or Troops. For theſe many Years I have endured much Inconvenience and Trouble for the Diſcharge of theſe; yet Half is not made good, and I am in daily Anxiety on this Account, from a Deſire to diſcharge all juſt Dues to the Company. It is my Intention to proceed to Fyzabad in Ten Days, the Mohrum being over, when I mean to requeſt of my Mother the whole of my Father's Eſtate, to enable me to pay off all Debts to the Company. Agreeable to the Laws of God, all my Father's Effects are my Right, that I may make good all Claims on him. If my Mother, from Affection, conſents, I ſhall be happy; if not, in whatever Manner ſhe may render it, I ſhall pay it towards the Adjuſtment of the Balance due to the Company. With reſpect to the Houſehold Khajahs, I ſhall confine and puniſh them, for the Knavery and Means they have uſed towards effecting a Breach between my Mother and myſelf. You will in Friendſhip cauſe this Letter to be tranſlated into Engliſh, and ſend it immediately to the Governor, deſiring him not to liſten to any one, or what my Mother may write, neither adopt her Opinion, but direct me to receive Money from her, towards the Payment of the Company's Demands. I am ready to defray and allow her for her Expences—with reſpect to the Amount Collections of her Jagheers, after deducting all neceſſary Charges of Collection; you may receive and tranſmit it to her.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 28th Decem^r 1781.

I am this Day honoured with your public Letter of the 24th Inſtant; and I do not loſe a Moment in informing you, that without a total Seizure of the Country, it is not poſſible to collect this Year a larger Sum than the Nabob has already granted, which altogether exceeds that of any other Year, at a Time when his Collections have been greatly diminiſhed by the Miſconduct of Raja Bowanny Sing, late Aumil of Bycewarrah, the Inſurrections acroſs the Gogra, and in other Parts of his Country, and laſtly the heavy Remiſſions he has been obliged to allow on the preſent Year's Rents, for the Loſſes by Drought and Hail, which fell upon the Cloſe of the laſt Harveſt. Hence, my dear Sir, you will be able to judge how far it would be in his Power to grant further Jaidads.

If your new Demand is to be inſiſted upon, which your Letter ſeems to portend, I muſt beg your preciſe Orders upon it; as, from the Difficulties I have within theſe few Days experienced, in carrying the Points you had enjoined with the Nabob, I have the beſt Grounds for believing that he would conſider it a direct Breach of the late Agreement, and totally reject the Propoſal as ſuch; and I muſt own to you, that, in his preſent fermented State of Mind, I could expect nothing leſs than Deſpair, and a declared Rupture.

He has by no means been yet able to furniſh me with Means of paying off the Arrears due to the temporary Brigade, to the ſtipulated Term of its Continuance in his Service. The Funds neceſſary for paying off and diſcharging his own Military Eſtabliſhment under Britiſh Officers, and his Penſion Liſt, have been raiſed on the private Credit of Mr. Johnſon and myſelf, from the Shroffs of this Place, to whom we are at this Moment pledged for many Lacks of Rupees; and without ſuch Aid, which I freely and at all Hazards yielded, becauſe I conceived it was your anxious Deſire to relieve the Nabob, as ſoon as poſſible, of this heavy Burden, the Eſtabliſhment muſt have been at his Charge to this Time, and probably for Months to come, while his Reſources were ſtrained to the utmoſt to furniſh Jaidâds for its Maintenance to this Period. I therefore heſitate not to declare it utterly impoſſible for him, under any Circumſtances whatever, to provide Funds for the Payment of the Troops you now propoſe to ſend him.

The wreſting Furruckabad, Kyrague, and Fyzula Cawn's Country from his Government (for in that Light, my dear Sir, I can faithfully aſſure you he views the Meaſures adopted in reſpect to thoſe Countries), together with the Reſumption of all the Jagheers, ſo much againſt his Inclination, have already brought the Nabob to a Perſuaſion, that nothing leſs than his Deſtruction, or the Annihilation of every Shadow of his Power, is meant; and all my Labours to convince him to the contrary have proved abortive. A ſettled Melancholy has ſeized him, and his Health reduced beyond Conception; and I do moſt ſolemnly believe, that the March of Four Regiments of Sepoys towards Lucknow, under whatever Circumſtances it might be repreſented, would be conſidered by him as a Force ultimately to be uſed in ſecuring his Perſon. In ſhort, my dear Sir, it is a Matter of ſuch immediate Moment, and involving apparently ſuch very ſerious and important Conſequences, that I have not only taken upon me to ſuſpend the Communication of it to the Nabob, until I ſhould be honoured with your further Commands, but have alſo ventured to write the incloſed Letter to Colonel Morgan—Liberties which I confidently truſt you will excuſe, when you conſider that I can be actuated by no other Motive than a Zeal for the Public Service; and that if, after all, you determine that the Meaſure ſhall be inſiſted on, it will be only the Loſs of Six, or at moſt Eight Days, in propoſing it. But, in the laſt Event, I earneſtly entreat your Orders may be explicit and positive, that I may clearly know what Lengths you would wish me to proceed, in carrying them into Execution. I again declare it as my firm Belief, and assure yourself, my dear Mr. Hastings, I am not influenced in this Declaration by any Considerations but my public Duty, and my personal Attachment to you, that the enforcing the Measure you have proposed would be productive of an open Rupture between us and the Nabob; nay, that the first necessary Step towards carrying it into Effect, must be on our Part a Declaration of Hostility.

There can, I apprehend, be no Doubt but such an Extremity would end in the Ruin of the Nabob, and I think he would have Sense enough to see it; but, under the Circumstances I have mentioned, and encouraged as he would be by all the Malecontents of his Court, I am persuaded, as far as my own Reason and Judgment enable me to predict, that he would disregard all future Consequences.

I entreat you will excuse the Freedom with which I have addressed you on this Subject. I have been obliged to write in great Haste, to save the Dauk, and consequently not so connectedly or fully as I could wish; but be assured I have given you the genuine Sentiments of my Heart; and as such I am persuaded you will receive them with Indulgence.

I am, &c. &c.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

To Colonel James Morgan, commanding in the Field.

Sir, (Copy.)

I was last Night honoured with your Letter, informing me that you had Orders from the Governor General to furnish me with more Troops, should I want them.

I have this Day received Information from the Governor, that he has ordered a large Force to repair to Lucknow. If you have received such an Order, I must beg you will suspend the Order until I have received the Governor's Reply to the Representation I have made to him upon this Subject, as such a Movement at this Juncture might be productive of the most serious Consequences. While I make this Application to you, I do not know how far it is in your Power to comply; yet I deem it my Duty to make the Representation, whatever the Result may be.

Lucknow, I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.
28th December 1781. (Signed) Nath. Middleton.

My dear Sir, Lucknow, 28th December 81.

I do myself the Honour to inclose you Letters from Koman and Goxnan Sing, brought to me by one of my Servants, who was in those Quarters.—They conceive, or affect to conceive, that you have some Designs upon Bundeeleund, and volunteer themselves to act in Conjunction, offering to join with a large Body of Cavalry, in Hopes of benefiting by any such Expedition, or at least saving their own Shares of that Country: I do not know whether you will think them deserving of any Answer.

(a) [Your Letter of the 24th is just arrived, ordering the temporary Brigade to be again put on the Vizier's List, which the late Treaty had just eased him of. Nothing less than Blows can effect this; for he is not even able to pay off the Arrears still due to it for the last Year, which, with the 2½ Months stipulated by the Treaty, amount to Nine Lacks, by Mr. Day's Statement. Upwards of Twelve Lacks have been paid to Mr. Wombwell, besides Remittances made to the Second Brigade and Colonel Muir, and scarce Six Lacks have yet been collected: A hard Strain of private Credit alone has made these large extra Payments,—and total Ruin must inevitably be the Consequence of any Interruption in the Recovery of the Money advanced. However, this is merely a private Consideration, and therefore cannot weigh in public Measures; but in a public Light, the Troops being all in Arrears, and no Possibility of present Payment, so large a Body assembled here, without any Means in Hand to check or controul them, nothing but Disorder could follow. As one Proof that the Nabob is as badly off for Funds as we are, I may inform you that his Cavalry rose this Day upon him, and went all armed to the Palace, to demand from 13 to 18 Months Arrears due to them, and* with great Difficulty persuaded to retire, which was probably more effected by a Body of Troops getting under Arms to go against them, than any other Consideration.] Without troubling you with Detail of Arguments, I may venture to pledge myself to you, that the additional Demand you propose making cannot this Year be obtained without a total Reform of his Government, which, if brought about by a Campaign against him (by which alone it can be done), would, at the same Time, stop at once all Resources of Collections; so that, admitting Success, our Situation, in point of Finance, would be worse than before. As I feel confident of your full Credit to this Assertion, I shall add nothing further upon the Subject, excepting, that the Troops hitherto called for by the Vizier have been solicited under that Article of the late Treaty which authorizes him to remove the Subsidiary Brigade where he pleases, with the Concurrence of the Resident; which Power is still more fully explained in the Letter of Instructions:—Both Papers can only allude to the Troops which they stipulate to remain within the Vizier's Dominions. Whenever you no longer may chuse to permit his detaching the Brigade, he

he muſt then of courſe conduct his Meaſures by his own Sebundy, or be driven to make new Propoſals from himſelf for the Aid and Pay of our Regiments.

As I have made uſe of the Name of the temporary Brigade in the Firſt Part of my Letter, it may be neceſſary to remind you that One additional Regiment is already paid by the Nabob, to which add 4 Regiments, and a Train of Artillery, now propoſed, makes Ten Battalions of 500 Men each, which is equal to Seven Battalions of 780 Men, which formed the temporary Brigade, as ſtipulatedto be paid by the Nabob.

I ſincerely hope, though I ſcarcely expect, to avoid diſpleaſing you by the Freedom of this Repreſentation. But, as it is impoſſible that you ſhould poſſeſs Facts without their being plainly ſtated, and as you cannot act upon any other Grounds, while aiming, as I know you do, to do that which is beſt, I muſt run the Riſque, or ſerve you unfaithfully, which would contradict what I ſhall ever endeavour to prove, that I am, upon all Occaſions, your truly devoted, &c. &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, R. Johnſon.
Governor General, &c. &c.
Benaras.

My dear Sir,

Upon re-peruſing the Tranſlate of the Nabob's Letter to me, reſpecting the Furruckabad Buſineſs, I find a capital Miſtake was made in the Statement of the Sum due from Muzuffer Jung. I beg leave therefore to incloſe you a Memorandum to rectify it.

Lucknow, I am, &c. &c.
29th Decem^r 1781. (Signed) Nath. Middleton.
The Honourable Warren Haſtings.

Memorandum:

The Sum of 1,58,456 Rupees, mentioned in the Tranſlate of a Letter from the Nabob Vizier to the Reſident, as due from Mozuffer Jung, ſhould have been 7,58,456. This Miſtake was made in copying fair from the Tranſlate.

☞ (a) [To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

The ſolemn Call you have made upon me, in your Commands of the 26th Inſtant, with which I was honoured Yeſterday, demands from me the moſt unreſerved and decided Reply; and that I might not advance any Thing haſtily, I took all Yeſterday to deliberate upon my Reply: For the ſake of Perſpicuity, I have thought it beſt to recapitulate the ſeveral Paragraphs of your Letter, and arrange my Anſwers to them reſpectively in the ſame Order.

1ſt. My Mind has been for ſome Days ſuſpended between Two oppoſite Impulſes; One ariſing from the Neceſſity of my Return to Calcutta, the other from the Apprehenſion of my Preſence being more immediately and more urgently wanted at Lucknow; your Anſwer to this ſhall decide my Choice.

To this Paragraph I freely anſwer, That your Preſence is in no Shape neceſſary here, but, on the contrary, could not fail of being of conſiderable Retardment to the Collections; becauſe in theſe Countries the Motions of Governors are looked upon to imply great intended Exertions, and with them great Changes; conſequently all Agents in public Stations, from the higheſt to the meaneſt, put an immediate Stop to all their Avocations, and gaze motionleſs for the Reſult. This is the Height of the Khereiff Collection, and any Impediments now thrown in the Way loſes * the Produce of the Crop. The encloſed Statement ſhews what I have received and what I have diſburſed; it will at Firſt Sight evince the Importance of realizing every immediate Reſource. The current Diſburſements of the 2d Brigade have not been made good, and the Arrears due from the Nabob to the late temporary Brigade and Cavalry, agreeably to Stipulation, have not yet been liquidated.

* Sic in Orig.

2d. I have waited thus long, in Hopes of hearing that ſome Progreſs has been made in the Execution of the Plan which I concluded with the Nabob in September laſt; I do not find that any Step towards it has yet been taken, though Three Months are elapſed, and little more than that Period did appear to me requiſite to have accompliſhed the moſt eſſential Parts of it, and to have brought the whole into Train.

In Reply to the Second Paragraph, I beg leave to refer you to my former Letters, ſtating the turbulent State of the Country. Three Months is a Period in which the Changes you allude to probably might have been effected in Times of perfect Tranquillity; but when all the Diſtricts acroſs the Gogra were in Arms, and all the Jagheerdars (a very numerous and powerful Body) were very little ſhort of the ſame State in every Diſtrict, and for the regulating and Reduction of whom the Aumils were principally

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 529.

Train. This Tardineſs, and the Oppoſition prepared to the only decided Act yet undertaken, have a bad Appearance.

3d. I approve the Nabob's Reſolution to deprive the Begums of their ill-employed Treaſures. In both Services it muſt be your Care to prevent an Abuſe of the Powers given to thoſe that are employed in them. You yourſelf ought to be perſonally preſent.—You muſt not allow any Negociation or Forbearance, but muſt proſecute both Services until the Begums are at the entire Mercy of the Nabob, their Jagheers in the quiet Poſſeſſion of his Aumils, and their Wealth in ſuch Charge as may ſecure it againſt private Embezzlement.—You will have a Force more than ſufficient to effect both theſe Purpoſes.

4th. The Reformation of his Army, and the new Settlement of his Revenues, are alſo Points of immediate Concern, and ought to be immediately concluded. Has any Thing been done in either?

pally to be applied to—could a general Change or Attack upon thoſe Aumils with Eaſe have been undertaken? I think not; but I put this Argument of the Practicability or Impracticability out of the Queſtion, as it was not that Conſideration which prevented me from enforcing the Meaſures recommended by you to the Nabob in the Treaty;—the Fact is this: I did not underſtand, at the Period of executing the Agreement between you and the Vizier, that your Intention was, that the whole of the Reform propoſed was in its fulleſt Extent to take place this Year, nor indeed at all, if the Company's Debt became liquidated; I conceived your Interference in the Nabob's Government tended ſolely to eſtabliſh the Means of the moſt ſpeedy Payment poſſible of the Company's Debt; and that whenever this ſhould be accompliſhed, every Shadow of Interference was to be deſiſted from, which I ſtated to the Nabob and the Miniſters, and I believe upon the Faith of that Aſſurance principally was his Excellency's Acquieſcence obtained. For the Proſecution of theſe Meaſures, I looked to the occaſional Aſſiſtance of the Regiments of the ſubſidiary Brigade, as permitted in the Treaty, and your ſubſequent Inſtructions, and intended employing the Aumils and their Sebundy in the Firſt Inſtance for the Reduction of the Jagheerdars, that I might not have the whole Country to attack at once. This Mode of proceeding threatened no Interruption to the Collections, but an immediate Increaſe of Means in hand to defray the Charges of the Troops, without which previous Point even our own Army muſt be uſeleſs. The Meaſure of reſuming the Jagheers involved many and ſome very powerful Intereſts, ſubject to ſuch Odium, from the Diſappointment of the Parties, deprived of their Means of Subſiſtence, and in ſuch extenſive Dominions, under a Government ſo irregular in its Conſtitution, and ſo ſhaken as this is, it could not be effectually accompliſhed in a Day.—However, it is now effected nearly throughout with the Nabob's Sanction (which at the Point of Execution there was the moſt alarming Difficulty to obtain), and in a very few Days I truſt it will be completely enforced; and, bad as the Appearance of Oppoſition may be, I truſt to be able to execute the whole Reform, without Delay, upon the Grounds I ſhall ſtate in my Anſwer to your Paragraphs ſucceſſively.

To the 3d Paragraph I ſhall only ſay, That I march To-morrow with the Nabob to enforce both the Services you exact in it; and if I ſucceed, as I have the ſtrongeſt Reaſons to hope, in obtaining large Ready Money Reſources towards liquidating the Arrears to the Troops, which form a large Proportion of the Debt to the Company, I have not a Doubt of accompliſhing every End you have now declared you look to the inſtant Performance of; but as Troops alone can do it, their Aſſiſtance cannot be depended upon without previous Pay, or the Poſſeſſion of certain Means in hand for that Purpoſe; as it follows, that an immediate Stop to all Collections muſt enſue from any general Military Exertion.

To the 4th I anſwer, That nothing has been done, for the Reaſons aſſigned in my Anſwer to the Second Paragraph. If I erred in the Judgment I had formed of your Intentions, I can ſay no more, as it is paſſed, than that the Inſtant the Fyzabad Buſineſs is finiſhed

5th. I now demand, and require you moſt ſolemnly to anſwer me: Are you confident in your own Ability to accompliſh all theſe Purpoſes, and the other Points of my Inſtructions? If you reply that you are, I will depart with a quiet and aſſured Mind to the Preſidency, but leave you a dreadful Reſponſibility if you diſappoint me.—If you tell me that you cannot rely upon your Power, and the other Means which you poſſeſs, for performing theſe Services, I will free you from the Charge, I will proceed myſelf to Lucknow, and I will myſelf undertake them; and in that Caſe I deſire that you will immediately order Bearers to be ſtationed for myſelf and Two other Gentlemen between Lucknow and Illahabad, and I will ſet out from hence in Three Days after the Receipt of your Letters.

6th. I am ſorry that I am under the Neceſſity of writing in this preſſing Manner. I truſt implicitly to your Integrity, I am certain of your Attachment to myſelf, and I know that your Capacity is equal to any Service; but I muſt expreſs my Doubts of your Firmneſs and Activity, and above all of your Recollection of my Inſtructions, and of their Importance.

7th. My Conduct in the late Arrangements will be arraigned with all the Rancor of Diſappointment, Rapacity, and my Reputation and Influence will ſuffer a mortal Wound from the Failure of them. They have already failed in a Degree, ſince no Part of them has yet taken place, but the Removal of our Forces from the Doaub and Rohilchund, and of Britiſh Officers and Penſioners from the Service of the Nabob; and the Expence of the former thrown without any Compenſation on the Company.

ſucceſsfully, which cannot take more than One Fortnight from the Day of marching there, I ſhall take ſuch Steps as the Means in my Power will admit of towards procuring from the Nabob the Orders to each Aumil to pay his Groſs Revenues to the Miniſters, and to receive the Pay of their Troops, being reduced into regular muſtered Eſtabliſhments, from the general Treaſury; and ſhould he refuſe, I will iſſue my own, together with thoſe of the Miniſters, to that Purpoſe, as I did in a former Inſtance when the Nabob refuſed his Perwannahs for the Reſumption of the Jagheers; and ſhall further enforce the Execution againſt each diſobeying Aumil by marching againſt him, and diſplacing him. Theſe Three Points complete the Heads of your Recommendations to the Nabob, the Fourth Article, which was the Separation and Limitation of his own Diſburſements to the Medium of his Receipts for the laſt Three Years, having already taken place; and then no Aſſignments will remain upon the Country, but thoſe of the Company, as expreſſed in the Treaty.

To the 5th I confidently reply, That I am fully competent to undertake and effect the Completion of the Reform, upon the Grounds ſtated in my Anſwer to the 4th Paragraph; and therefore again repeat, that your coming here is unneceſſary; and that, as far as regards the Duties of my Station towards the Execution of your Orders, you may depart, in Conviction that neither Activity or Firmneſs ſhall be wanting in the Exertion of every Means within my Power: And thoſe Means I can foreſee no Deficiency in, upon the Permiſſion I have of calling upon Colonel Morgan for Aid, and the Receipt of Aſſets at Fyzabad.—For theſe Reaſons, therefore, I have not thought it neceſſary to lay the Bearers that you conditionally ordered.

In Reply to the 6th Paragraph, nothing need be offered by me but my Acknowledgments for the Juſtice you do to my Sentiments towards your Perſon and Government.

To the 7th. If your Conduct ſhould be arraigned, as you ſuſpect, I can at all Times teſtify, that upon the Plan of the foregoing Years, the Receipts from the Nabob were only a Deception, and not an Advantage, but even an Injury to the Company; for by the accumulating Encreaſe of the Demands upon him, and the proportionate Decreaſe of his Means, only his Debt to the Company encreaſed, with a Diminution of Proſpect of its Liquidation; while the Company's actual Money or Aſſets went to the Payment of the Troops ſuppoſed to be maintained ſolely at the Vizier's Expence. In Proof of this, it will ſuffice to remark that the annual Net Remittances to the Preſidency ſhould have been the Difference

8th. I expect a Supply of Money equal to the Diſcharge of all the Nabob's Arrears; and am much diſappointed and mortified, that I am not now able to return with it.

9th. Give me an immediate Anſwer to the Queſtion which I have herein propoſed, that I may loſe no more Time in fruitleſs Inaction.

or about 20,00,000 of Current, which never yet has been the Caſe from the Annual Jaidads, or Current Collections—conſequently the Plan was a Fallacy; for the Difference between this Amount and the Remittances to the Preſidency was an actual Loſs that the Company annually ſuſtained, inſtead of a ſuppoſed Advantage of a Brigade of Infantry and Cavalry being totally defrayed by the Nabob; from this therefore I may ſafely conclude, that the Remiſſion to the Nabob of this inſufferable Burthen was a Profit to the Company whenever the extra Troops paid by the Nabob ſhall be diſbanded or quartered upon other Neighbours, who are protected by our Power, and the Debt put into a probable State of ſpeedy Liquidation.

To the 8th Paragraph. If the Supply expected at Fyzabad ſhall prove adequate to the Diſcharge of all Arrears due to the Troops, and afford an adequate Fund for a Liquidation of the Company's Debt, it will remain at your Option to employ it as a Remittance to the Preſidency, or the future Payment of the Troops you may ſtill think neceſſary to keep up, to regulate the Nabob's internal Government, in regard to which I ſhall hope for your Determination, when I can inform you of what Means I poſſeſs.

To the laſt Paragraph. I truſt you will find all my Anſwers as explicit and deciſive as you could wiſh them, and that they will enable you to determine upon yielding with Confidence to the Impulſe ariſing from the Neceſſity of your Preſence at the Preſidency.

☞ (a)[My dear Sir, Lucknow, the 30th December 1781.

I have this Day anſwered your public Letter, in the Form you ſeemed to expect. I hope there is nothing in it that may to you appear too pointed. If you wiſh the Matter to be otherwiſe underſtood than I have taken up and ſtated it, I need not ſay I ſhall be ready to conform to whatever you may preſcribe, and to take upon myſelf any Share of the Blame of the (hitherto) Non-performance of the Stipulations made on behalf of the Nabob; though I do aſſure you, I myſelf repreſented to his Excellency and the Miniſters, conceiving it to be your Deſire, that the apparent Aſſumption of the Reins of his Government (for in that Light he undoubtedly conſidered it at the Firſt View), as ſpecified in the Agreement executed by him, was not meant to be fully and literally enforced, but that it was neceſſary you ſhould have ſomething to ſhew on your Side, as the Company were deprived of a Benefit without a Requital; and upon the Faith of this Aſſurance alone, I believe I may ſafely affirm his Excellency's Objections to ſigning the Treaty were given up. If I have underſtood the Matter wrong, or miſconceived your Deſign, I am truly ſorry for it; however, it is not too late to correct the Error; and I am ready to undertake, and, God willing, to carry through, whatever you may, on Receipt of my public Letter, tell me is your final Reſolve.

If you determine at all Events, that the Meaſure of reducing the Nabob's Army, &c. ſhall be immediately undertaken, I ſhall take it as a particular Favour if you will indulge me with a Line at Fyzabad, that I may make the neceſſary previous Arrangements with reſpect to the Diſpoſal of my Family, which I would not wiſh to retain here in the Event either of a Rupture with the Nabob, bob, or the Neceſſity of employing our Forces in the Reduction of his Aumils and Troops; this done, I can begin the Work in Three Days after my Return from Fyzabad.

I am, &c. &c.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings. Nath. Middleton.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I have herewith the Honour to ſubmit to you an Account of my current Claims, for the preſent Year, upon the Nabob Vizier, amounting to R^{s} 70,99,882, for which Amount I have received Aſſignments, as per the encloſed Liſt, for R^{s} 76,38,114, in which I have been neceſſitated to include the Nabob's Demand for the current Year upon Furruckabad; and as his Excellency has now totally withdrawn his Sizawal from the Collection of it, as well as every Interference whatever, I beg I may be honoured with your Inſtructions, whether Muzuffer Jung is to pay the Amount at the Preſidency, or, as uſual, to me: Khyragur is in the ſame Predicament, the Vizier having no Authority over the preſent Aumil.

The reſt I have little Doubt of receiving, for the large Balance now due from the Nabob I am given ſtrong Hopes of receiving Aſſets from the Funds expected by the Recovery of the Nabob's paternal Eſtate, hitherto withheld by his Mother, but which he has now demanded. The Reſult is yet in Suſpenſe; as ſoon as any Certainty of the Grounds of this Expectation can be determined, and may come to my Knowledge, I ſhall not fail to impart it to you.

The new Regulation, of reſuming the Jagheers, is carrying into Execution in every Part of theſe extenſive Provinces, and, when effected, will afford a very material Encreaſe in the Nabob's Revenues.

The Order of 7 Lacks upon them could not be encreaſed this Year, as, before the Seizure can be completed, the Collections upon the Firſt Crop will be over; beſides which, many of the Jagheerdars having ſtrong Family Claims upon the Nabob, he has been obliged to aſſign ready Money Payment in lieu of the Rents of the Lands.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſ^{t} at the Court of the Vizier.

To

To Nathaniel Middleton, Esq^r.

Sir, Benares, 1st January 1782.

I have been deceived, I know not yet by whom. The Agreement which I concluded with the Vizier has yet served only to gratify Revenge, or some concealed Interest, and to make me odious to my own Countrymen.

The temporary Brigade is withdrawn, and its Expence thrown on the Company, without any Equivalent.

The English Officers and Pensioners dismissed.

The English Resident withdrawn from Furruckabad, to give place to a worse Tyranny, and the Nabob afflicted and offended at my Opposition to the latter.

The Nabob afflicted and desponding because I oppose his invading Fyzoolla Cawn, when he is confessedly unable to suppress the Sedition of his own Subjects.

The Resumption of the Jagheers, withheld for Three Months, now attempted against the Nabob's Consent, although originally solicited by himself; a Regiment of Sepoys required for its Execution, which you declare to be insufficient; and when I ordered a competent Force, you countermand it, because the Nabob will not approve it.

It was stipulated, that a complete Brigade should be stationed at Cawnpore, for the Protection of the Nabob's paternal Dominions; but that if he wanted a further Aid, he should pay for it. He wants a further Aid; I require that it shall be charged to his Account; you tell me, that though it is wanted, you dare not let it come; and Mr. Johnson calls it 'ordering the temporary 'Brigade to be again put on the Vizier's List.'

I cannot wait your Answer to my Letter; but have written a Letter to the Nabob, which I desire you to present to him, and tell him, that if he suspects the Motive of my Interference, I will withdraw it altogether, both the Resident and the Army; but he must first pay the Balance of his Debts to the Company.—I will not hazard the Company's Arms in scanty Detachments, for Services to which they are declared to be unequal; nor will I break the Strength of the Brigade while the Marrattas are yet on his Borders, and the Peace with them imperfectly concluded.

I agreed to the Nabob's Requisitions from a Desire to relieve him from a State of Distress, and to enable him to discharge his Debt to the Company. You know these were my only Objects: Have either of these been attained; or has any Step been yet taken to attain them? If you say they have, let me know what has been done, or what attempted.

I must desire, that your Letters, upon all official and public Subjects, may be official. I cannot receive any, or avail myself of them, as private; and my Reputation and Character have been too far committed to admit of an Intercourse which I cannot use as Authority.

You will be cautious that the Nabob does not misconceive my Letters as bearing any Expression of Displeasure towards him. I think him too deceived. I wish him to regard me as his Friend, and to confide both in my Faith and Attachment. I am willing to give him undoubted Proofs of both. I will do nothing for the Preservation of his Interests against his Will; but I will not hazard the Safety and Honour of our Arms, nor sacrifice the Company's Interest and Rights to the Caprice of his Advisers.

I am, Sir, &c. &c.

(Signed) Warren Hastings.

To Mr. Middleton.

Sir, Benares, 2d January 1782.

I have received your Letters of the 30th December, and shall reply to them fully. It has afforded some Relief to the Anxiety which I have felt. If you have not already declared to the Nabob the Explanation which I desired you to give him, of the Sentiments expressed in my Letter, I desire you to defer it till you hear further from me. In the mean Time you may assure him that whatever is written in the Agreement concluded between us at Chunar shall be literally and firmly observed on my Part. I shall immediately compare it, for that Purpose, with the Measures now under Consideration.

I am, &c. &c.

(Signed) Warren Hastings.

To Nathaniel Middleton, Esquire.

Sir, Benares, 3d Jan^y 1782.

I have already acknowledged the Receipt of your Letter of the 30th, and am determined, by the Assurances and Promise made to me in it, to return to Calcutta, and shall leave to you the Charge and Execution of the Measures necessary to the Execution of the Agreement concluded between the Nabob Vizier and myself in September last.

Willing as I am to trust to your Declarations, I cannot avoid yielding to the Doubts suggested by the Inconsistencies of your Representations of their Grounds. You, in a former Letter, told me that the Nabob had required the Assistance of a Regiment of Sepoys to enforce the Resumption of the Jagheers, but that it was your Opinion that a much larger Force would be be required for it, as a powerful Oppoſition was prepared againſt it: I in conſequence ordered a ſtrong Detachment to perform this Service; you then wrote that the Nabob would not allow it, that you durſt not communicate it to him, that you knew he would even oppoſe it by Force, and that the Payment of the Detachment would be a Breach of Treaty; and now you write, that the Nabob's Sebundy alone are equal to this Service, and that it will be but a Fortnight's Work to accompliſh it. Theſe are abſolute Contradictions.

But I am moſt affected by your declaring, that you did not underſtand it to have been my Intention that the Reformation of the Nabob's Military Eſtabliſhment ſhould take place this Year; and that nothing has been done in the new Settlement of the Revenue, for the ſame Reaſon.

Theſe are freſh Inſtances of what I have had too frequent Cauſe to complain of, your total Inattention to my Inſtructions. The like Inattention is manifeſted in a former Letter, in which you tell me that you did not know that I expected a preſent Supply to the Company's Treaſury.

*Sic in Orig. In my Inſtructions I premiſe, as a Matter well know * to yourſelf, "that the chief Object "of my Negociation has been to induce and aſſiſt the Nabob to bring this Government and †Sic in Orig. "Finances into Regularity, † as to prevent his Alliance being a Clog to the Company, and to "enable him to diſcharge his Debt to the Company in the ſhorteſt Time poſſible."

It adds, "I ſhall expect that the whole of the Exceſs (of the Jagheers beyond the eſtimated "Amount) be appropriated to the Diſcharge of the Nabob's Debt to the Company."

The Order in which the Meaſures neceſſary to the Execution of the Agreement ſhall be taken is preſcribed in the following Words:

"After ſettling the Amount of the perſonal Diſburſements of the Nabob Vizier and his "Houſehold, the next Point that will require your Exertions, towards the general Arrange- "ments of the public Charges, is the Reform of the eſtabliſhed and Muttaiena Troops, "&c. &c."

The only Point which is left for future Adjuſtment, is the Eſtabliſhment of the Courts of Juſtice.

The Reformation of the Nabob's Troops, I conſidered as a Point which neither required nor admitted Delay—that his Muttaiena Troops were almoſt wholly fictitious, and his regular Eſtabliſhment ſcanty in Numbers, and in long Arrears. And I conſidered and ſtated this Reformation as One of the Means of reducing the Nabob's Expences, and enabling him to pay his Debts to the Company.

I have clearly explained my Intention to be, that the Firſt Receipt of the current Revenue ſhould furniſh the ſtipulated Amount of the Nabob's private Expences; that his Aſſignments for the Company's Debt, and other Charges defrayed by them, ſhould remain as uſual; and that the whole of the Exceſſes of the Jagheers ſhould be appropriated to the ſame Account: I require no more; nor can I add either Explanation or Comment on the Inſtructions which have been originally given to you, that can be more clearly expreſs, or more fully, than the Words of the original Text.

I have carefully peruſed the Agreement itſelf, and the former Treaties exiſting with the Nabob Vizier, but can find no Clauſe in any of them which either expreſsly, or by Implication, gives him a Right to employ the Company's Forces, except thoſe of the Subſidiary Brigade, without indemnifying the Company for their Expences. The Brigade itſelf is expreſsly declared to be for the Defence of his Dominions, and therefore has always been ſtationed on the Frontier neareſt to Invaſion. It was never intended that its Strength ſhould be diſſipated in little Detachments, and its Diſcipline ruined by employing it to ſuppreſs the Inſurrections of his Reiats, and to enforce the Payment of the Collections, although a diſcretionary Power has been given to you, in Caſes of great Emergency, to call for the Aid of Detachments from it for the former Service. And you know, that had our other Exigencies permitted it, it was intended to remand the whole of Sir John Cumming's Detachment to Bengal, and to leave no more than the Subſidiary Brigade, and the Regiment appointed for Lucknow, in the Vizier's Dominions. If the Oppoſition propoſed by the Begum is ſo formidable as you repreſented it when you firſt intimated it to me, your Employment of the Nabob's Sebundy to ſuppreſs it would only ſerve to make it a ſerious and protracted War; which my Order was intended to prevent, by ſuppreſſing all Attempts inſtantaneouſly. I ſhall now revoke my Orders; but I muſt poſitively forbid you to employ the Aid of the Regiment, which has been required and ſent, on any Service to which you ſhall judge it not fully equal. This is no Part of the Agreement.

I meet with a captious Expreſſion in your Letter, which, as it is not warranted by any in mine, I deem unbecoming.

Alluding to Sir John Cumming's Detachment, you deſire "my Determination on the future "Payment of the Troops, which I may ſtill think neceſſary to keep up to regulate the Na- "bob's internal Government"

It is not my Intention, nor ever was, to keep up Troops to regulate the Nabob's internal Government, but ſolely to defend his Country againſt Invaders, unleſs he ſhould require occaſional and temporary Aids to reſtore internal Peace and Order to it, to enable him to acquit himſelf of his Debt to the Company, and thereby recover the whole and unparticipated Regulation of his internal Government. If he conceives my Design to be any other than this, it is now your Duty to undeceive him.

I now refer you back to the Agreement concluded by me with the Nabob, and my Instructions delivered in consequence of it. These are to be your sole Guide; nor do I mean by any Thing which I have since written, whether in this or any former Letter, to revoke or change a Tittle of what is written in them. On these I ground the whole of your present Responsibility, except what I have written concerning the additional Claims made on the Begums, and which I consider a virtual Part of my formal Instructions.

I am, &c. &c.
(Signed) Warren Hastings.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I have the Honour to inform you, that the Nabob marched to Fayzabad on the 1st Instant, and that I follow him, conformably to your Orders, To-morrow Morning, having Yesterday ordered away the 8th Regiment to be ready to arrive with me on the 6th Instant at Fayzabad. The 20th Regiment, under the Command of Major Martin Gilpin, which was detached some Days ago from Cawnpore to enforce the Vizier's Order for the Resumption of the Begum's Jagheer, I have thought it necessary to station at Lucknow, in lieu of the 8th Regiment, until my Return from Fayzabad, when I shall be better able to judge how far, and what Force it may be necessary to employ against the Agents of the Begum, who I understand have all received the most positive Injunctions to oppose, by every Means in their Power, the Execution of the Vizier's Orders respecting the Jagheers.

I have the Honour, &c. &c.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I arrived with the Nabob at Fayzabad Two Days ago, and his Excellency has made his Demand upon the Bhow Begum; but nothing final or decisive having yet taken place, I defer writing fully or entering on the Subject until To-morrow, when I hope to be able to do it with some Certainty as to the Result.

☞ (a) [I was honoured with your Letter of the 1st Instant on the Road, as also your subsequent Commands of the 2d and 3d, to which I shall pay the most submissive Obedience; and at present trouble you with no other Observations on the Points they contain, excepting a Paragraph in the First, to which it is indispensably incumbent on me immediately to reply, lest an Accusation it implies, though not absolutely applied, nor, I am persuaded, meant to be imputed to me, should, by any Misrepresentation or Misconstruction, be attempted to be forced upon you against me.

I do not know that any other Gentlemen than Mr. Johnson and myself were employed between you and the Nabob in the Agreement you concluded with his Excellency at Chunar; we therefore jointly subscribe to the following Attestation, which we shall be ready at any Time to confirm by a more formal Oath if desired.

" We do most solemnly declare before God, and upon our Honours, that we never have, " either of us, in Fact or Idea, received, or been tendered or promised, directly or indirectly, " any Benefit whatsoever, by any Person living, in consideration of any one or the whole of " the Articles specified or contained in the Agreement concluded between you and the Nabob " Vizier of the 19th September last."

Nath. Middleton,
R. Johnson.

If the above solemn Asseveration can have Effect in counteracting any Misrepresentations which it is possible may have been made or suggested to you on this Subject, we cheerfully and voluntarily offer it.

To

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I was this Day honoured with your Commands of the 10th Inſtant, informing me of the Military Station you have eſtabliſhed at Juanpore, with the Liberty you grant the Nabob Vizier of claiming their Aid to quell any Diſturbances in the adjacent Parts of his Provinces. I have accordingly communicated it to his Excellency, who with great Juſtice was highly pleaſed with the Diſpoſition, as in Truth the Diſtricts bordering upon the Zemindary of Benares have for a long Period of Time been of all others the moſt turbulent and diſaffected, and nothing leſs than the Arrangement you have now formed could effectually ſecure the Peace and Tranquillity in that Neighbourhood, ſo eſſential to the Proſperity of the Nabob's Government and Revenues.

With reſpect to the Buſineſs here, I have the Honour to inform you, that Yeſterday finding that the temporizing and indeciſive Conduct of the Nabob ſeemed to promiſe an Iſſue very different, * very different from that expected in your Commands of the 26th December laſt; and that the only Uſe the Two leading Eunuchs under the Bhow Begum made of the Delay was, to aſſemble and call in armed Men from all Quarters, which when united with the large Force already in the Town under their Direction, would in all Probability have brought the Matter to a much more ſevere and arduous Teſt than it at preſent could admit of. I found myſelf neceſſitated to take the moſt immediate and deciſive Interference which the Force with me was capable of; and accordingly, having the Nabob's written Requiſition, marched the 23d Regiment, under the Command of Major Naylor, with a Detachment of his Excellency's own Troops, againſt the Kella, and had the Happineſs to ſucceed in putting the Nabob's Party in Poſſeſſion of it without any Effuſion of Blood; the armed Men retiring from it on the Approach of our Troops, and drawing up with their Guns in a large broad Street before the Houſe of the old Begum, to which the Bhow Begum and her Two principal Eunuchs had retired the preceding Evening. This effected, the Nabob iſſued his peremptory Orders for the immediate Departure of all armed Men, excepting his own Troops, beyond the Precincts of the Town, threatening them with an inſtant Attack if they diſobeyed. This Order, after many Evaſions, was promiſed to be complied with; and the Two Eunuchs, Bahr and Jowar Ally Cawn, at the ſame Time coming in, and delivering themſelves into the Nabob's Cuſtody, the armed Men, amounting to between Three and Four thouſand, evacuated the Town and diſperſed. I have ſince learnt, that had the Nabob's Troops alone attempted the Seizure of the Kella, a very deſperate Reſiſtance was reſolved upon, which appeared very probable, from the State in which the armed Men were found, being the preceding Evening furniſhed with a large Store of Ammunition, and now drawn up in regular Order, with loaded Pieces, and their Matches lighted; but they were prudent enough to think themſelves unequal to the united Efforts of his Excellency's Troops, ſupported by an Engliſh Regiment, and by this Conviction much Miſchief has happily been prevented.

* Sic in Orig.

To-morrow I hope to be able to inform you of the Effect of the preſent advantageous Situation, and in the mean Time have the Honour to remain, &c. &c.

P. S. I have the Honour to encloſe you a Letter from the Vizier, in reply to your laſt to his Excellency.

Honourable Sir,

Camp, Kella, Fyzabad, Janry 14th, 1782.

Some Buſineſs of Importance, which the Reſident had to ſettle at Fyzabad, occaſioned my ſuddenly joining him there. After my Arrival, a Couple of Days paſſed in Negociation, but without Effect; and the Party in the Town collecting, and hourly gaining Strength, at length, after mature Deliberation, it was reſolved that I ſhould, with my Regiment, and Four Guns, ſtorm the Town, which I effected the 12th in the Morning. I very ſoon got Poſſeſſion of the Kellah, in which is the Palace and Zenanah; and as there were not only ſeveral Gates, but Openings in the Walls, as I entered on one Side they eſcaped at the other; but ſhortly after the Party returned again, headed by the Two principal Eunuchs, Bahr Ally Cawn and Jewar Ally Cawn, and drew up oppoſite and within Sixty Yards of One of my Poſts, with Three Guns, and added the moſt aggravated* Behaviour; however, as they did not fire, or offer any other Acts of Hoſtility, and when I reflected on the Conſequence that would attend a conteſted Diſpute in the Streets of the Town; of the Zenanah, &c. being ſubject to be plundered even by themſelves, which would have been attributed to me; and being ſo ſituated for the Safety of the Female Part of the Family on one Hand, who were under the moſt dreadful Apprehenſion, and for the Support of his Excellency's Authority on the other, who was waiting the Reſult on the Outſide of the Town, I was for a ſhort Time doubtful how to decide; however, as I had Mahomed Affrein Cawn along with me, a Perſon in high Favour with the Nabob, and well acquainted with both Parties, I deſired to circulate lenient Advice, pointing out how fatal an Attack would be to them, and inevitable Ruin to thoſe they appeared ſo zealous to ſupport. It had the Effect; the Two Eunuchs immediately ſurrendered, their People inſtantly left the Town, and I ordered their Guns to be dragged away.

* Sic in Orig.

As ſoon as the tumultuous Noiſe was over, and I had poſted Guards for the Safety of the Palace, &c. I directly ſent a Chubdar to the Begum, and offered every Aſſiſtance ſhe might want, and at the ſame Time conſiſtent with my Inſtructions, which ſhe accepted; and now I have the Satisfaction to inform you the Shops are all open, and Peace and Tranquillity prevails through the Town.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

To the Honourable W. Haſtings, &c.

☞ (a) [To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I was duly honoured with your Commands of the 12th and 22d December laſt; the former reſpecting a Seizure which has been made by Choja Bahr Ally Cawn of ſome Cloths, manufactured at Tanda, on Account of Gualdaſs and Bolanaut, Merchants of Benares, under Pretext of their being the Property of Ram Laulla, whom he had confined on a Charge of Debt; and the latter recommending Gopaul Doſs in particular Terms for his Services to our Government, and the Punctuality with which he has acquitted himſelf of all his Engagements and Tranſactions with it. To this, Sir, be aſſured, I ſhall pay the moſt attentive Regard, and always give his Houſe that Preference to which it has ſo juſt a Claim, in all Remittances which may paſs through my Office.

I immediately, on my Arrival at Fayzabad, made a ſtrict Enquiry into the Complaint of the above-mentioned Seizure; and finding, from a Variety of Evidence, the Fact preciſely as it had been ſtated to you, I cauſed the Cloths to be releaſed, and delivered over to the Gumaſtah of Gualdaſs and Bolanaut, who attended here for that Purpoſe.

It having alſo been intimated to me, that Ram Laulla, a Shroft, and Relation of Gopaul Doſs, had been impriſoned by Bahr Ally Cawn, on Pretences equally vague and unjuſt, which I had Reaſon to believe was the Caſe, from my having failed in my Endeavours to procure his Enlargement near a Twelvemonth ago, although ſolicited on an Offer of the Security of Gopaul Doſs, and my own, if deſired, for the Payment of whatever Sum ſhould appear due from him on an Adjuſtment of their Accounts, I determined alſo to take this Opportunity of enquiring into that Matter, and procuring the Man Juſtice; for which Purpoſe I applied to Bahr Ally Cawn to ſend him to me, and repeated the Offer of Security which I had before made; he however thought proper to decline, or rather evade, Compliance with my Demand, and, to teſtify his Reſentment at the Application made for my Interference, he inſtantly doubled the Guard on his Priſoner, diſpatched an Eſcort to bring his Family from Tanda, and by every Means in his Power increaſed the Rigor of his Confinement. In this Situation he remained until the Day after the Seizure of Bahr and Jowar Ally Cawn, when he was brought to me by my own People, loaded with Irons; which I had immediately taken off, and, ſetting him at large, have deſired him to deliver me a Statement of his Account with Bahr Ally Cawn, which I ſhall take care to ſee equitably adjuſted.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.] ☞

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have been honoured with your Commands of the 8th and 14th Inſtant; and in Reply to the Firſt, have to inform you, that having repreſented to the Nabob the improper Treatment which Dewanjee Punt met with from the Officers of Government at Allahabad, on his Way to you, ſtrict Orders have been iſſued to the Phougedar of that Province to prevent any Impediment or Moleſtation to him on his Return to the Deekan; and I alſo, in obedience to your Commands, ſignified to the Nabob's Miniſters your Sentiments and Diſapprobation of a Conduct which reflected ſo much Diſgrace on his Excellency's Government. Their Reply was, That the Waſhing Duties, or Tax levied upon all Perſons coming to bathe at the Conflux of the Rivers Ganges and Jumma, has long been an eſtabliſhed Thing, and at preſent forms a conſiderable Article of Revenue in the Tohud of the Farmer of Allahabad; that it ſhall be their Care to prevent, as much as poſſible, any Abuſe of this Privilege during the Remainder of the current Year, and at the Period of the new annual Settlement to aboliſh it altogether, if it is your Wiſh that it ſhould not exiſt.

I had the Honour to addreſs you under Date the 13th Inſtant, incloſing you the Letter from his Excellency the Vizier, for which you inform me you are waiting, and acquainting you with the Meaſures which had been taken here towards accompliſhing the Object of your Commands. I have hitherto withheld any farther Communication, in the Expectation of ſhortly being able to inform you, with Certainty, what would be the Iſſue of our Proceedings; a Subject on which I have been extremely unwilling to touch, until I could do it on ſuch Grounds as could not miſlead your Hopes or Expectations: Until Yeſterday the Buſineſs was in no Form that could enable me to pronounce, or even conjecture, what would be the Reſult.

It very early appeared, that the Begum, with the Aſſiſtance of her Cojahs, had diſpoſed of and ſecreted her Wealth in ſuch a Manner as to elude almoſt the Poſſibility of obtaining Poſſeſſion of it by mere Force of Arms; and whatever rigorous Meaſures it might be proper for the Nabob ultimately to adopt, it ſeemed, at all Events, in the firſt Inſtance highly expedient that we ſhould purſue the Courſe which promiſed, with the greateſt Certainty, the Accompliſhment of his First Object, in which the Intereſts of the Company, and your Deſires, were too much concerned for me to heſitate a Moment in giving my Concurrence to a temporary Forbearance, which I had reaſon to believe was the moſt adviſeable, and, if it did not ſucceed, could be attended in the Iſſue with no worſe Effect than a few Days Delay in cloſing the Buſineſs.

Your Letter to the Begum, which I had the Honour to receive and forward to her Yeſterday, having deſtroyed a Reliance, which, notwithſtanding the Part I have avowed and acted with reſpect to her, ſhe probably placed in the Support and Mediation of our Government, has given a very favourable Turn to the Buſineſs, and afforded me a well-grounded Hope that in One or Two Days more I ſhall be able to inform you of a ſatisfactory Concluſion of it.

I have the Honour, &c. &c.

Fayzabad,

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

The Begum having finally agreed to ſurrender to the Nabob the Treaſures of his late Father the Nabob Shujah ul Dowlah, which ſhe had hitherto retained in her Poſſeſſion, his Excellency deſired me to withdraw the Troops from the Kella, that the Begum might return into it in order to deliver the Treaſure—to this I conſented, as alſo to the Re-delivery to the Nabob of the Two Eunuchs Bhar and Jowar Ally Cawn, without whoſe Preſence and Aſſiſtance nothing could be effected, as they were the only Agents employed by the Begum in the ſecreting and depoſiting it; they previouſly pledging themſelves to be preſent, when called upon, to anſwer to the Accuſation which I have informed them was laid againſt them. In the mean while, the Begum has delivered over her Chelah, Shumſheen Khan, who was Phouſdar of Tanda when Captain Gordon arrived there —So that I now hope the whole Buſineſs upon which I came here is in the moſt favourable Train.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to addreſs you, under Date the 25th Inſtant, acquainting you of the Vizier's having, from the Treaſure delivered up to him by the Bhow Begum, commenced on the Payment of his Debt to the Honourable Company. I have now the Pleaſure to inform you, that I am this Day in Poſſeſſion of a Sum equal to the Liquidation of his Bond for the Balance of 1187; and he further gives me Hopes, that he ſhall be able ſhortly to begin Payment of the 12 Lacks due for the Balance of 1188, of which I ſhall in due Courſe give you Information.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Fayzabad,
the 27th January 1782.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have had this Day the Honour to receive your Commands of the 25th Ultimo, and am extremely concerned that the Mode of conducting the Fayzabad Buſineſs, as ſet forth in my Addreſs of the 18th January, did not meet your entire Approbation. Permit me to aſſure you, Sir, it is with the greateſt Reluctance I ever venture to deviate from the expreſs Letter of your Inſtructions; and I cannot accuſe myſelf of having done it on any Occaſion, where it did not appear to my Judgment that the Object and Spirit of them rendered it adviſeable, and that the apparent Neceſſity would juſtify ſuch Latitude.

In the preſent Inſtance, it was more in Appearance and Expreſſion, than in Fact, that any Deviation was made from your Orders of the 26th December; for although I was conſtrained, from my ſtrict Regard to the Accompliſhment of what I conſidered the First Object of this Undertaking, to admit of a temporary Forbearance, for the Reaſons aſſigned in my Addreſs of the 18th Ultimo, the Begums were at that Time to be conſidered as entirely at the Mercy of the Nabob, their Jagheers were in the Poſſeſſion of his Aumils, their Troops diſperſed, and the Kella of Fayzabad, which included alſo the Bhow Begum's own Habitation, under the Guard of his Excellency's and our Troops.

It remained only to get poſſeſſion of her Wealth; and, to effect this, it was then, and is ſtill, my firm and unalterable Opinion, that it was indiſpenſably neceſſary to employ temporizing Expedients, and to work upon the Hopes and Fears of the Begum herſelf, and more eſpecially upon thoſe of her principal Agents, through whoſe Means alone there appeared any probable Chance of our getting Acceſs to the hidden Treaſures of the late Vizier; and when I acquaint you that by far the greateſt Part of the Treaſure which has been delivered to the Nabob was taken from the moſt ſecret Receſſes in the Houſes of the Two Eunuchs, whence of courſe it could not have been extracted without the Adoption of thoſe Means which could induce the Diſcovery, I ſhall hope for your Approbation of what I did. I muſt alſo obſerve, that no further Rigour than that which I exerted could have been uſed againſt Females in this Country, to whom there can be no Acceſs. The Nabob and Salar Jung were the only Two who could enter the Zenanah: The Firſt was a Son, who was to addreſs a Parent, and of courſe could uſe no Language or Action but that of earneſt and reiterated Solicitation; and the other was in all Appearance a Traitor to our Cauſe: Where Force could be employed, it was not ſpared. The Troops of the Begum were driven away and diſperſed, their Guns taken, her Fort, and the outward Walls of her Houſe, ſeized, and occupied by our Troops, at the Nabob's Requiſition, and her chief Agents impriſoned and put in Irons. No further Step was left. And in this Situation they ſtill remain, and are to continue (excepting only a Remiſſion of the Irons) until the final Liquidation of the Payment; and if then you deem it proper, no poſſible Means of Offence being left in her Hands or thoſe of her Agents, all her Lands and Property having been taken, I mean, with your Sanction, to reſtore her Houſe and Servants to her; and hope to be favoured with your early Reply; as I expect that a few Days will complete the final Surrender of all that is further expected from the Begum.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſident at the Court of the Vizier.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to addreſs you Yeſterday; and this Morning I was favoured with your Commands of the 27th Ultimo.

You are already apprized, by my Addreſs of Yeſterday, and my preceding Letters, of the promiſed Iſſue of the Buſineſs at Fayzabad, as well as of the State in which I left it; both which I hope will be ſatisfactory, as they ſeem to leave the Matter in that State of Suſpenſe which you wiſh it to remain, until the Board or yourſelf ſhould have been adviſed of the Amount of the Treaſure recovered from the Begums, and ſignified your further Pleaſure.

The Nabob has concluded no Settlement whatever with the Begums, but left Fayzabad ſome Hours before me, without taking leave of them, upon their Agents having agreed to complete the 55 Lacks, which appeared due to the Company upon the cloſing of my Accounts for the laſt Year, and the Begums declaring that this was the Extent of all their Poſſeſſions, including down to their Table Utenſils, which they have, and are ſtill delivering, and no Proof has yet been obtained of their having more. I ſhall, as you direct, uſe my Influence to diſſuade his Excellency from concluding any Settlement until I have your further Commands.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to addreſs you, under Date the 6th Inſtant, informing you of the State in which I had left the Buſineſs at Fayzabad, and the Hopes I entertained of a ſpeedy Completion of it; permit me now to acquaint you, that, of the remaining Balance engaged to be made good by the Two Eunuchs Bahr and Jowar Ally Cawn, I have this Day had Advice of the Receipt of between Five and Six Lacks, which is now on the Way to Lucknow; and the Reſidue I have every Reaſon to believe will be realized before this Letter reaches your Hands: So that I have now to repeat my Requeſt, that I may as ſoon as poſſible be honoured with your final Commands reſpecting the Conduct it is your Wiſh ſhould be purſued with the Begum and her Eunuchs.

The Services of Major Naylor's Regiment being required to the Eaſtward of the River Gogra, as well to ſupport the Authority of the Nabob's Government in that Quarter, as to be ready to join in the Plan of Operations which may be determined on, in Obedience to your Commands, againſt Futty Saw, I have ſent One Battalion of Major Gilpin's Regiment to relieve Major Naylor at Fayzabad; which I hope you will approve.

I have the Pleaſure to inform you, that the 8th Regiment, which I left to eſcort the Treaſure from Fayzabad, arrived this Day, and ſafely delivered its Charge. Upon its Arrival, I immediately diſpatched to Colonel Muir the Sum requiſite for the Payment of the Arrears due to his Detachment; I am now forwarding to Colonels Morgan and Sir John Cummings, the the Amount upon which they have called upon me, after which I ſhall loſe not a Moment in remitting the Reſidue to the Preſidency.

Sir,

I have had the Honour to receive your Commands of the 22d Ultimo, through your Military Secretary, informing me of your Inſtructions given to Mr. Charters for the Seizure of Futty Saw, and your Directions, that I ſhould apply to the Vizier to give the moſt poſitive Injunctions to the Aumils, and other Officers of his Government, to afford no Shelter or Retreat to this Rebel, but in general to give every Aſſiſtance they can to the Detachment acting againſt him. I beg leave to acquaint you, that, in obedience to your Commands, I have applied for, and obtained his Excellency's Inſtructions, and have further written to Major Thomas Naylor, whoſe Regiment is employed on Service in the Gorruckpore Country, to co-operate with the Detachment under the Direction of Mr. Charters, and to uſe every Means in his Power to promote the Succeſs of the Expedition.

Lucknow,

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

Incloſed I have the Honour to forward your Addreſſes from his Excellency the Vizier and his Miniſters.

In Juſtice to the latter, it is incumbent upon me to inform you, that during the Progreſs of the Buſineſs at Fayzabad, I received from them the moſt willing and zealous Support; and that to their Exertions I conſider myſelf greatly indebted for the complete Succeſs which attended that Buſineſs, as well as for the Fruits of it being ſolely applied to the Liquidation of the Nabob's Debts to the Honourable Company.

Under theſe Circumſtances, it would afford me great Satisfaction, and, I conceive, tend to promote the public Service, were they honoured with ſome Teſtimony of your Approbation and Favour, which would be particularly acceptable to them at this Period, as their Conduct in the Tranſactions at Fayzabad, and in the Reſumption of the Jagheers, has excited the inveterate Reſentment of the Begum, and many Perſons of the firſt Conſequence about the Court, whoſe Intereſts have been affected by the latter Meaſure, and created a far more powerful Combination againſt them, than they have ever before had to oppoſe. In ſhort, Sir, they are conſidered, not only by this Party, but by the Nabob himſelf, as the actual Dependants of the Engliſh Government; which they certainly are, and it is by its declared and moſt obvious Support alone, that they can maintain the Authority and Influence, which is indiſpenſably neceſſary to enable them to diſcharge the Truſt repoſed in them, either with Credit to themſelves or Advantage to the Public.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have the Honour herewith to tranſmit a Letter addreſſed to you by the Nabob Vizier, informing you of his Compliance with the only Points that remained unfiniſhed of his Part of the late Agreement made with you, by having changed the Mode of the Receipt of his Revenues now ordered to be all paid at the Huzzoor to the Miniſters, by whom all Tuncawdars and Mooteyenah, &c. are to be paid, the Nabob firſt paying himſelf the Expences of his private Purſe, eſtimated at the Medium Receipts of the laſt Three Years.

I have, in Confirmation of the above-mentioned Letter, received One from the Miniſter, informing me of the Accompliſhment of this Reform; from which, with the total Reſumption of all Jagheers, which is now perfectly completed, I have every Reaſon to hope for the moſt beneficial Reſult, and that every Part of this Government will now be in a State of Regularity and Tranquillity ſcarcely ever before experienced.

I alſo truſt that you will now deem every Wiſh, expreſſed in your Inſtructions, to be fully performed.

To

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have juſt received Intelligence, which I think may be relied on, of the Death of the Nabob Nudziff Cawn.

It is impoſſible to pronounce, with Certainty, what may be the immediate Conſequences of this Event. The ultimate ones, I have no Doubt, will be the total Subverſion of that extenſive Government, acquired alone by his powerful Influence and high military Character, and by which, rather than any effective Force, he has been able hitherto to maintain it. I do not know any one of his Partizans, whoſe Talents, Activity, or ſuperior Influence over the reſt, are likely to create an abſolute and permanent Authority; Diſſenſions, therefore, among the principal Officers of his Army may be expected to enſue, and thoſe Rajahs and Chiefs who have been deprived of their Territorial Poſſeſſions, will ſcarcely omit ſo favourable an Opportunity of attempting to retrieve them.

Abdulâhd Cawn, the laſt Miniſter, will probably be reſtored to Office; and his Object will naturally be the Extinction of every Shadow of Nudjif Cawn's Power.

Upon the whole, however, I do not apprehend any Conſequences which can affect the Honourable Company's Intereſts, or the Security of the Nabob Vizier, unleſs Zabita Cawn, who, it appears, has long entertained Views of attempting the Recovery of his former Poſſeſſions in Rohilcund, ſhould be prevailed on to conſider this a favourable Occaſion to proſecute them. In ſuch an Event, I ſhould think it very probable he would be joined by Fayzula Cawn, who, there is ſtrong Reaſon to believe, is by no means well affected to the Vizier's Government, and who has of late made ſuch Preparations, and ſuch a Diſpoſition of his Family and Wealth, as evidently manifeſt either an intended or expected Rupture.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to tranſmit you, a few Days ago, Intelligence I had received of the Death of the Nabob Nudjif Cawn, which, from the authentic Channel through which it came to me, I thought might be relied upon; but I have ſince been informed the Report was premature; and late Accounts from Dehly mention, that the Violence of the Nabob's Diſorder had ſo far abated as to give Hopes of his Recovery.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,

Jawnpore,
28th Febry 1782.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

Upon the Spirit of your former Orders, relative to the Appointment of a Detachment under Sir John Cumming, for the Support and Protection of the Vizier's internal Government, and your ſubſequent Letters declaratory of your Senſe of the Footing on which the Subſidiary Brigade muſt be underſtood to remain with his Excellency, I have had repeated Converſations with the Miniſters, endeavouring to ſhew the Impropriety of making Detachments from the Frontier Brigade, originally intended ſolely for the Defence of the Nabob's Dominions againſt a foreign Enemy, for the Aſſiſtance of the Aumils, or other ordinary Services of the Collections; and to convince them of the Impoſſibility of continuing that Practice, now that the whole effective Force of the Country was reduced to One Brigade, without perverting this obvious Deſign of its Eſtabliſhment, and thereby riſking Conſequences to the Honourable Company's Arms and his Excellency's Government, which it equally behoved them and myſelf to avoid; as from the frequent Calls for ſuch Aid, and the Nature of the Service, and the very remote Diſtance to which the Troops were occaſionally ſent, neither the neceſſary Attention to their Diſcipline could be paid, nor their Re-junction effected upon any Emergency which might call for the immediate Exertion of the whole Force of the Brigade.

Having ſucceeded in the Impreſſion which I wiſhed to make on the Miniſters, and the Reduction which has been made in the Nabob's Mooteyna Troops ſtrengthening the Grounds I had agreed upon, I availed myſelf of this Opportunity to propoſe an Eſtabliſhment of the Honourable Company's Troops, which ſhould at once obviate the Neceſſity of applying to the Subſidiary Brigade for Aſſiſtance, and enable the Nabob to make ſtill further Reductions in his Mooteyna and Sebundy Eſtabliſhments: Three Regiments, with their Guns and complete Artillery Eſtabliſhments, I am of Opinion, would anſwer this Purpoſe; and the Miniſters are now ſo thoroughly convinced of the Utility of it, that they have authorized me to ſubmit the Meaſure to your Conſideration, with an Aſſurance that they will cheerfully co operate with me in carrying it into immediate Execution, ſhould it meet with your Approbation.

To

To leave as little as poſſible for future Diſcuſſion, and that no Diſpute might ariſe about the Payment of this Eſtabliſhment, I propoſed a Subſidy of 25,000 Rupees per Menſem for each Regiment, or 75,000 for the whole; which Terms will be agreed to, and I hope be deemed ſatisfactory by you, as they will be fully adequate to every poſſible Expence of the Eſtabliſhment, without Staff or Commanding Officer, which I preſume you will not conſider neceſſary, as the Regiments muſt of courſe always be ſtationed and employed ſeparately, to make them anſwer the Purpoſes for which they are intended.

I loſe not a Moment, Sir, in communicating this propoſed Arrangement to you in its preſent Stage, that I may immediately receive your Sentiments and Commands upon it; and I am happy in the Opportunity which it at the ſame Time affords me of evincing to you the Attention which has been paid to your Orders reſpecting the Reduction of the Nabob's Mooteyna, as well as the inſtant beneficial Effect of them, ſince the Expence of the Eſtabliſhments I now propoſe, is to be defrayed from that Fund, without the ſmalleſt additional Charge to the Nabob's Government.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Lucknow,
the 10th March 1782.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

In further Explanation of the Plan which I ſubmitted to you Yeſterday, I now beg leave to incloſe a Draft of a G. O. which is drawn up conformable to the Sentiments and Wiſhes of the Miniſters, and calculated to obviate an Evil they ſeem moſt to apprehend, which is accumulating Charges upon the Nabob over and above the Amount ſtipulated for the Three Regiments.

The 8th, 20th, and 23d Regiments are now upon Service in theſe Provinces, and of courſe will by far be the eaſieſt to leave here upon the new Plan; which, excluſive of ſaving the Time and Expence of marching freſh Troops, will at once, by ſhewing how they are to be employed, preclude the Danger ſo much dreaded here of having any Commanding Officer or Staff appointed to theſe Regiments.

They moſt probably never can be employed together, as the preſent diſperſed Poſition of them evinces.

The Staff Expence, and Inconveniency of Controul in the Diſpoſition of theſe Regiments, were what the Miniſters ſeemed moſt fearful of, and probably conſtituted the greateſt Objection they had originally to the Plan. I have taken upon me to aſſure them, their Wiſhes on this Head, as they appeared to me not unreaſonable, would be attended to, and I ſhall be happy to find this Aſſurance confirmed by you.

I have been guided by the Terms of your laſt Agreement with the Nabob, in propoſing the Period of relieving theſe Regiments; but as the Nature of the Service on which they are employed may not always admit of a ſtrict Attention to this Rule, I could wiſh to have the diſcretionary Power of diſpenſing with it, when it ſhall appear neceſſary.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.
Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

Lucknow,
the 11th March 1782.

G. O. The Nabob Vizier having ſtipulated to pay a fixed and limited Sum for the Uſe of Three Regiments, which his Excellency has applied for towards the Support of his Aumils and Collections, this is to direct that no Officer going upon ſuch Service ſhall, under any Pretence whatſoever, claim or receive from the Nabob or his Agents, any Sum of Money whatever, either for himſelf or any contingent Expence he may incur, but ſhall tranſmit any Claim he may have, through the uſual and eſtabliſhed Channels, to the Paymaſters and Commiſſary General, as the Payment made by the Nabob includes an Amount equal to all Charges to which Service is liable.

The firſt Regiments appointed for this Service are the 8th, 20th, and 23d; which are to be relieved, in like Manner with the Lucknow Regiment, every Three Months, upon the Application of the Reſident, who alone can determine whether the Service they may be engaged upon can prevent it.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

Previous to the Receipt of your Commands from Patna, of the 22d January, relative to the Expulſion of Futty Saw, I had cauſed the ſtricteſt Injunctions to be laid on the Officers of the Vizier's Revenues in Gorruckpore, to render every Aſſiſtance in their Power towards the effectual Reduction of this notorious Diſturber of the Honourable Company's Government; and had given Mirza Abdoola Beg, the Fougedar of Gorruckpore, a Letter to preſent to Mr. Greme on this Subject; and I take the Liberty of troubling you with a Copy of that Gentleman's

Acknow-

Acknowledgment of the willing Diſpoſition which has been teſtified by Abdoola Beg to promote the Succeſs of this neceſſary Service.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

To Nath. Middleton Eſquire, Reſident at the Court of the Vizier.

Sir,

I have been honoured with your Letter of the 20th ultimo, which was ſent to me by Mirza Abdoola Beg, the Aumil of Gorruckpore, who, I have the Pleaſure to acquaint you, has manifeſted the moſt earneſt Deſire to fulfil the Wiſhes of this Government, and of the Vizier his Maſter, for the Apprehenſion of Futty Saw. Some Time before the Receipt of your Letter, he ſent a Perſon to me with Propoſals for executing this Purpoſe, which I immediately concurred with him in; and, a Plan of Operations having been concerted in conſequence, I communicated it to Major Lucas, commanding the Company's Troops at Burragong, who approved, and inſtantly took all Meaſures for carrying it into force. Though the Project was planned with all poſſible Secrecy, the March of the Detachment from this Place appears to have been known to Futty Saw, who changed his Ground the Evening before the Time fixed on for making the Attack, but could not evade entirely the Effects of the Expedition; for Lieut. Lally (with Two Companies of Major Lucas's Regiment, which were ſtationed at Bogga) having received Intelligence of this Motion of Futty Saw's, marched directly to the Spot where he was encamped with about Three hundred Men, attacked and ſlew about Twelve of them, and was very near taking Futty Saw himſelf.

It would be unjuſt to Mirza Abdoola Beg, if I omitted to communicate to you the Teſtimonies I have received of his good Behaviour. Major Lucas, in his firſt Letter to me after their Junction, expreſſes himſelf as follows:

"The Phouzdar and my Parties have met juſt as we could wiſh; he has ordered out both "Horſe and Foot, and ſeems to be the Man you repreſented. We have agreed to join heartily "in the Cauſe, and hope yet to prove ſucceſsful, &c." And again, in his Letter of the 22d Inſtant, he ſays, "I have halted To-day by Deſire of the Phouſdar, who promiſed to join me; "but as he has the Country to ſettle as he goes on, he has again requeſted to ſee and conſult be-"fore I go farther. As he ſeems inclined to prove himſelf the Man you repreſented, I wiſh "to have his Advice in this critical Situation, particularly as I don't think the Service I am on "can be hurt by this (ſeeming) Delay; for 'tis now certain that Futty Saw, with his preſent "ſmall Party, may evade every Effort of the moſt vigilant and numerous Troops, in a Country "like this."

Whilſt a good Underſtanding (which has never heretofore been the Caſe) continues to ſubſiſt between the Officers of the Revenue in theſe Diſtricts and thoſe of the Vizier in Gorruckpore, I think I may venture to aſſert, that Futty Saw will never have it in his Power to diſturb the Peace of either.

I am, &c. &c.

A true Copy.
(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have the Honour to inform you, that, in conſequence of ſome Miſmanagement having again intruded in the Mint of Lucknow, I have been under the Neceſſity of appointing a Sezaual on my own Behalf to check and examine every Rupee that may be iſſued from it.

I hope this unavoidable Interference with the Vizier's Officers will meet your Approbation; as the Preſervation of the Standard here is extremely material to the Intereſt and Convenience of the Honourable Company.

In order to complete the Check you have directed over the Mooteynah, and their Payment, I have been neceſſitated to appoint * appoint an Aumeen to receive and remit to me the Collections of Letafut Ally Cawn's Jaidads, the net Amount of which I have pledged myſelf to ſend to him; and, to prevent the Miſappropriation of theſe Funds, which he heretofore ſo notoriouſly was guilty of, I have appointed a Muſter Maſter and Pay Maſter to his Corps at Dehly.

* Sic in Orig.

The Perſon I have choſen for this Duty is Cazem Ally Cawn, whoſe Abilities muſt be known to you when formerly employed in Bengal as Phouſdar of Houghly; I therefore hope this Step will alſo meet with your Sanction. Since the above Arrangement was adopted, I have learned from certain Intelligence, that Letafut Ally Cawn has entered into the Pay of Nadjif Cawn, from whom he has received Jaidads for the Maintenance of his Troops. It of courſe follows, that the Vizier can no longer retain them in his Pay and Service; upon which I have this Moment received a Meſſage from the Nabob, but have waved a Reply until I ſhould receive your Anſwer to the following Queſtion:

Whether

Whether you think it moſt adviſeable, to the better Arrangement and Œconomy of the Nabob's Finances, to take this favourable Opportunity of ſtopping the large Expence incurred upon this Head; or, as our Intereſt and Politics muſt neceſſarily be connected more or leſs with the Court of Dehly, Whether you think it beſt to have any Perſon of declared Attachment to our Intereſt recommended to the Vizier to fill the Station vacated by the Delinquency of Letafut Ally Cawn?

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Lucknow, the 20th March 1782.

Nath. Middleton, Reſt at the Vizier's Court.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have received the Honour of your Commands under Date the 27th February.

I had carried the original Treaty down with me, in obedience to your Orders of the 19th December; but, having determined, upon Receipt of your firſt above-mentioned Letter, to return immediately to my Station, I have brought it back with me, and ſhall now forward it by the firſt ſafe Conveyance.

In obedience to the Explanation you require, of the general Aſſertion, That the Objects of the late Treaty have been fulfilled, I now proceed to recapitulate unitedly what I have hitherto in detached Letters taken the Liberty of ſubmitting to you; and, for Regularity, I ſhall take up the Paragraphs of your Inſtructions, accompanying the Chunar Treaty in the Order they ſtand.

Para. 1ſt. Requires the Execution of the ſeveral Articles of the Treaty, being Five in Number.

The Firſt has been fully effected by the complete Payment of all Arrears, and the March of the temporary and Cavalry Brigade into the Provinces.

Nothing remains but the Return, or Adjuſtment, of the Value of the Stores furniſhed by the Nabob when the temporary Brigade was firſt eſtabliſhed; of which only Nine Pieces of Field Artillery have yet been returned by Colonel Morgan. The incloſed is a Letter from the Nabob upon the Subject.

Mr. Wombwell's Office has been fully paid off and diſcharged, and all the Arms and Stores of the different Corps delivered to the Nabob, and Aſſets for the Payment of the extra Regiment ſtationed at Lucknow included in the Aſſignment for the Current Year.

The Second Article relates to the Reſumption of the Jaguire Lands. This has been fully effected. The Three moſt conſiderable are now under my Charge—the Bow Begum's, Salar Jung's, and Letafut Ally Cawn's; a Meaſure I was driven to enforce, on account of the Mode in which the Firſt Reſumption of the Jaguires was conducted; which, by leaving the reſumed Lands in the Farm of thoſe who before held them on behalf of the Jaguirdars, little more than a Shadow of the intended Change was effected.

The Third Article, which includes the Jaguire of Fizzulla Cawn among the reſt, has hitherto been deferred by the Poſtſcript to your general Inſtruction, which forbids it until Circumſtances may render it more expedient and eaſy to be attempted than the preſent more material Purſuits of Government make it appear.

However, I beg leave to repeat, that a Stipend or Allowance in Ready Money, to that Chief, in lieu of his Jaguire Lands, ſituated and peopled as they are by his own Tribe, in Vicinity to Three capital Territories of the ſame Caſt, would be far more conducive to the Intereſts and Security of this Government; and, as ſuch, permit me to recommend it to your Conſideration.

The 4th Article, as far as regarded this Office, was fulfilled here.

The Fifth and laſt Article being only a Proviſion for a future eventual Contingency, was liable to no Exertion here.

The Counterpart of the Treaty, being the Arrangements which the Nabob pledged himſelf to effect towards introducing Œconomy into his Finances, conſiſting chiefly in Three Points—The Reduction and Regulation of his Mooteyenah Troops—the Separation of his private Purſe from the public Funds—and placing the latter under the ſeparate Management of the Miniſters.

The Firſt of theſe Meaſures is in as great Forwardneſs as it is poſſible; Pay and Muſter Maſters having been appointed to the whole, and the Saving already made produced a Fund equal to defray the eſtabliſhed Charge of Three Regiments, as propoſed in my Addreſs of the 10th Inſtant. The other, of ſeparating and limiting the Privy Purſe, was immediately effected upon my Return here from Chunar, and with that the ſeparate Public Funds placed under the Miniſters.

I now proceed to the Continuation of the Paragraphs of your Letter of Inſtructions.

The 2d is only claiming my implicit Obedience to what follows; to fulfil which has been and ſhall be my conſtant Study.

The 3d Paragraph is a Recapitulation of the chief Object of the Treaty, being the ſhorteſt poſſible Liquidation of the Nabob's Debt to the Honourable Company.—To this Purpoſe I have ſecured Aſſignments, which I deem adequate to the full Diſcharge of all Demands by the End of the preſent Fuſſullee Year; which, conſidering the Greatneſs of the Aggregate Amount, is, I apprehend, as ſoon as could be expected.

The

The 4th Paragraph is partly anſwered above; the Reduction has chiefly been in the Infantry, ſo as to bring in our Troops to ſupply the Deficiency; upon which Subject my Propoſal is before you. The Corps under this Denomination here are chiefly Nudjeibs, and employed for the Garriſons of the Aumils, Forts, Kutcherries, and Tânahs.—The Corps of Cavalry could not ſo eaſily be diminiſhed or immediately reformed.—They conſiſt moſtly of Mogols, entertained for the State and perſonal Security of the Aumil, who they generally attend in Perſon; and, ſuch is the refractory Diſpoſition of the People, who have never yet been properly controuled, that, was not ſome immediate viſible ſtanding Force with the Aumil, at his Command, to enforce his Orders, he would neither be reſpected or obeyed, and conſequently unable to fulfil the Duties of his Charge.

The Sebundy is a ſeparate Eſtabliſhment from the Two above-mentioned, being a Charge of generally about 4 per Cent. upon the Collections of the different Aumils, for a Duty executed by a Set of Peons, not military diſciplined Men, who are ſtationed upon the Crops and Fields all over the Country, for their Protection. Theſe, from the Nature and preſent State of this Government, appear to me abſolutely and indiſpenſably neceſſary for the Collections, and can neither be embodied or farmed into any regular fixed Eſtabliſhment; but the new Year will afford an Opportunity of reducing their Numbers, and of bringing this Part of the Plan into greater Perfection.

The 5th Paragraph, regulating the Mode of paying the Mooteyanah, has been completely eſtabliſhed, notwithſtanding the Complaints and Obſtructions brought againſt it by the Aumils; who are by it ſubjected to a Check and Controul which they are not pleaſed with, and deprived of an ideal Proportion of Authority over their Men, by the Interference of the Pay and Muſter Maſters.

To the 6th Paragraph, which regards the Nabob's Choice of Officers, I have only to obſerve, that no Vacancies have occurred which can have afforded Room for an Exertion of its Clauſe.

The 7th, regarding the Choice of Aumils, can only come under Execution at the Commencement of the Year, when the Aumils are named.—The few Inſtances of Change which have accidentally occurred by the Reſumption of the Jaguires, have been conducted under the Spirit of this Order.

Upon the 8th Paragraph, I have written a ſtrong Letter to the Nabob, recommending moſt earneſtly to him to eſtabliſh Courts of Juſtice throughout his Dominions, beginning by a Sudder ul Hukk at the Capital; of the Effect whereof I ſhall hereafter inform you. I have not urged an inſtant Adoption of the Plan, as it appears more mentioned as a Point you wiſh to be brought about by Degrees than expect to ſee immediately enforced; nor is the Government here yet ſufficiently regulated to promiſe juſt now thoſe beneficial Conſequences which are the Objects of ſuch an Inſtitution.

The 9th Paragraph conveys a diſcretionary Power, eventually to be exerciſed; an Occaſion for which hath not hitherto occurred.

The Notice directed by the 10th Paragraph has been publicly given to every Perſon coming under its Deſcription, and who have ſignified their having received the Order.

Theſe complete your Inſtructions; ſince which you have directed, as an additional Article, that the Nabob ſhould be ſupported in his Claim upon the Bhow Begum, for the Inheritance of the late Vizier's Public Treaſure. This has alſo been done; 45 Lacks have been recovered, and the Begum's Chief Agents are now under ſevere Reſtraint for the Remainder of what they engaged to produce.

Truſting that from this Explanation you will be ſatisfied that I have done all that the Time I have had, and the Circumſtances I have been under, would admit,

I remain, with profound Reſpect, &c. &c.

Nathaniel Middleton, Eſq. Reſident at Lucknow.

Fort William, 24th April 1782.

Sir,

As I underſtand that there are ſtill remaining at Lucknow, or in other Parts of the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier, many Perſons ſubject to our Government, or poſſeſſing an Influence from their Connection with it, beſides the Company's covenanted Servants attached to your Department, and the Officers and Followers of the Army, contrary to the Agreement made by me with the Nabob Vizier in the Month of Auguſt laſt, it is my poſitive Order that you give them freſh Notice to depart, and on Failure of their immediate Compliance, that you apply to the Nabob for his Authority for their Removal by Force. Lieut. Colonel Polier, and Major Martin, are excepted from this Order, having received Permiſſion of the Board to remain, provided they have the Nabob's Licence; and Mr. Thomas, to whom the like Permiſſion has been granted, at the Nabob's expreſs Requeſt.

I am, Sir,
Your moſt obedient Servant,
(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Resident at the Court of the Nabob Vizier, Lucknow.

Sir,

When his Highness the Vizier did me the Honour of a Visit at Chunar, he made me a Request, that we might have an Interview once in every Year, for the Purposes of discussing and adjusting the mutual Concerns of the Company and himself, and of improving the Harmony and Confidence which subsisted between the Two Governments. To this Requisition I readily assented, and greatly lament that the Situation of Affairs makes it impossible for me to effect a Meeting at this Time. The present important Conjuncture demands the united and vigorous Exertions of both Governments for their common Safety and Success; and in this Situation, whilst the greatest Cordiality is requisite, you inform me that his Highness is much dissatisfied on many Points contained in our late Agreement, and which he made his own Request.—To remove his Uneasiness on these Subjects, and to give him entire Satisfaction on others which may be the Objects of his Fears and Suspicions, and to give a lasting Cement and Encrease of Strength and reciprocal Advantage to our Alliance, would be impracticable by any other Mode than verbal Communication, Explanations, and Assurances; and as, for the Reason above assigned, I cannot make these in Person, I think it indispensable to delegate the Trust to another.—For these Purposes I have deputed Major Palmer to attend his Highness and his Ministers at Lucknow. Major Palmer, as you know, has been my confidential Secretary for several Years; I have disclosed to him, without Reserve, my Sentiments on every Point of the relative Connection between the Company and the Court of Owde, and I can rely upon him for a faithful Explanation of them.

I have also instructed Major Palmer to give the most express Assurances to the Ministers, of my Approbation of their Conduct, and Determination to protect and support them, so long as they preserve their Attachment to this Government, and pursue the real Interest of the Vizier.

Major Palmer has other public Objects in Charge, which he will personally communicate to you; and I most earnestly require of you the strongest Co-operation of your Authority and Influence towards his attaining them. I think his Success almost certain, if he meets with your cordial Support and Assistance: Whatever may be the Event, a considerable Share in producing it will be attributed to you, and affect you accordingly.

Such Explanations as are intended solely for the Satisfaction of the Nabob, and coming from myself, I have directed Major Palmer to communicate separately to him, but in doing this to use every Precaution to avoid any Diminution of your Authority or Influence.

I have sent Major Davy as a confidential Assistant to Major Palmer, and in case any Accident should happen, the latter to execute his Commission.

Sir,

Lucknow, the 9th May 1782.

I have received, through a Channel of seeming Authenticity, the following Intelligence; which it is my Duty to communicate to you, whether or not you may consider it of Importance.

A Frenchman, whose Name I cannot learn, but who is said to have been of some Note at Dehly, has lately been sent from that Court, on a supposed Deputation from the present Administration to Hyder Ally Cawn, and the French Commandant on the Coast, and thence to the Government at Mauritius; for which latter Purpose a Frigate was to be ordered for his Reception at Mangalore.

He arrived at Agra on the 20th of last Month, and staying only One Night there, pursued his Journey by the Route of Bundelcund, towards Naugpore, where it is surmised he has also some Dispatches to deliver for the Mahratta State.

If you think the Matter of sufficient Importance, an early Intimation to the Resident with Modajee Bousula might be the Means of intercepting this Agent, or at least of ascertaining the Truth or Falsehood of the Intelligence.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

The Honourable
the Governor General.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings, Govr Genl, &c.

Sir,

I have received the Honour of your Commands of the 24th Ultimo, which I have again signified to all Dependants of the Honourable Company's Government resident in the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier, falling under the described Predicament; who, I hope, will shew an immediate Obedience; but should it prove otherwise, your further Orders shall be strictly attended to.

There are Two Gentlemen of my Family whom I hope to be indulged with Permission to exempt from an immediate Effect of the above Order, holding myself entirely responsible for their Conduct, so long as they may be allowed to remain with me; the one is Mr. John Pendred Scott, my private Book-keeper, and sole Agent for the Management of the Salt Petre provided in these Provinces on Account the Honourable Company, whose Removal therefore would subject me to very great Inconvenience and Difficulty; the other is Mr. James Orr, who is in the monthly Pay of my Office, and occupied wholly in tranſcribing the Accounts laid by me before the Honourable Board, the Superintendant of the Offices, and the Accomptant General.

The Loſs of this Gentleman's Services, which could not be replaced here, would be extremely inconvenient to me, as the Buſineſs of Accounts is what very few are converſant in, either from the Want of Practice, or from never having made it an Object of their particular Study; I muſt therefore trouble you with my Solicitations in favour of theſe Two Gentlemen, and hope for your Indulgence.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Incloſed I have the Honour to forward you an Addreſs from the Nabob Muzuffer Jung, of Furruckabad, in Acknowledgment of a Letter of your's to him, lately forwarded to me by Mr. Markham, with your Commands; and that I ſhould cauſe it to be delivered into the Nabob's own Hands, which was accordingly done.

I deſire that you will not leave your Station at a greater Diſtance than Patna, as the Board will have Occaſion for your Preſence there ſpeedily, for the Adjuſtment of the Accounts of this, and for framing the Aſſignments of the enſuing Year. Inſtructions are preparing for you on both Subjects.

Sir,

I have had the Honour to receive your Letter of the 2d Inſtant; and, in obedience to your Commands, I ſhall not leave my Station at a greater Diſtance than this Place, but hold myſelf in Readineſs to return with all poſſible Expedition, to execute any Orders you may be pleaſed to tranſmit me.

To Mr. Nathl Middleton.

Sir,

Fort William, 24th July 1782.

Notwithſtanding the Faith of Government pledged to the Nabob, for the Removal of all unlicenſed Europeans from his Capital, and from his Country, and notwithſtanding my repeated Injunctions to you, I am informed that Numbers yet remain at Lucknow, and the Nabob himſelf has made it the Subject of a formal Complaint. He undoubtedly conceives them to be under Protection; and as it is your Duty, ſo I muſt again deſire that you will undeceive him; that you will repreſent to him that my Credit and the Dignity of our Government is hurt by this Contempt of its Authority; but that he is the Magiſtrate of his own Country, and that it is incumbent on him to remove thoſe who have been forbidden to remain in it.—If they will not remove, why does he not uſe Force to compel them? Why does he not cauſe them to be arreſted, and tranſported beyond his Borders, with Orders to his Aumils not to permit them to return?

I have been much ſolicited to let Mr. Scott ſtay; and his Advocates have aſſured me that he had your Promiſe. I cannot permit it; and if he has not left Lucknow, I muſt inſiſt on his leaving it inſtantly.—I am told that Captain Marſack is ſtill there. Why do you, and why have you ſuffered it? For I know that it is not with the Nabob's Connivance.

I ſome Time ſince read a Letter from Captain Darell, requeſting to be permitted to continue at Lucknow, for the Recovery of his Health. If the Nabob will conſent to it, I will not object to his ſtaying till the End of the Rains, if he ſhall find it neceſſary, but no longer.

I muſt

I muſt deſire that you will ſend me a Liſt of all the Engliſh Gentlemen, of every Denomination, who ſhall be at Lucknow, or in any other Parts of the Nabob's Dominions, when you receive this Letter, and of the Means uſed for removing thoſe who have no Right to be there.

Col. Polier and Col. Martin have been excepted by the Board from the General Order; but their Continuance muſt be with the entire Option of the Nabob, or they muſt alſo be required to depart.

I am, &c. &c.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Reſident at Lucknow.

Sir, Fort William, 10th Aug^st^ 1782.

I have had the Mortification to hear that Almaſs Ally Cawn has at length, as was long ſince foreboded, fled from the Vizier's Dominions, taking with him an immenſe Treaſure, the Fruits of his Embezzlements and known Oppreſſions. Though this Intelligence has not come through its authentic Channel, I have no Doubt of its Truth; I am compelled to credit the Reports which aſſure me that every Point of the Vizier's Adminiſtration is in the ſame Diſorder. For this, and every other Failure in the Inſtructions which I gave to you in Writing on the 20th September, at Chunar, you are ſolely reſponſible to this Government, as Hyder Beg Cawn is to the Nabob; for to your conjoint Hands has the Adminiſtration of his Affairs been from that Time committed.

I have received your repeated Aſſurances, addreſſed to myſelf and to the Board, that the Nabob's Debt to the Company ſhould be completely diſcharged by the Cloſe of the Year. In my Fears for a Diſappointment in this Expectation, and in the contrary Belief, that in its actual Train the Debt is more likely to exceed the Amount at which it ſtood the laſt Year, than to be paid, I hereby apprize you, that if at the End of the Fuſſellee Year any Part of it ſhall remain in Arrears, I ſhall move the Board to call upon you publicly to account for it; and, that you may know that this Declaration is not made on light Grounds, I ſhall enter a Copy of this Letter upon the Company's Records. It will do you no Injury, if you diſprove the Juſtice of my Suſpicions by the Effects of your Exertions.

I have written to Hyder Beg upon the ſame Subject, and intended to refer you to his Letter for my fuller Sentiments, but I ſhall not have it ready for Diſpatch for this Poſt.

I am, Sir, &c.

Sir, Patna, the 17th Auguſt 1782.

I was duly honoured with your Commands of the 24th July, which a neceſſary Reference to Lucknow prevented my replying to before.

I have already had the Honour to inform you, that your Orders had been repeatedly notified to all the unlicenſed Gentlemen reſiding at Lucknow, who ſeverally aſſured me of their Obedience; and when I left that Place, the End of June laſt, ſome had taken their Departure, and the reſt appeared to be preparing to do it with all poſſible Speed. I learn from Mr. Johnſon, that on Receipt of your Letter Meſſrs. Scott, Orr, Marſack, Carvalho, and Darell, were yet at Lucknow; the Two former Gentlemen were poſitively to depart by the End of this Month at fartheſt, and Meſſrs. Marſack and Carvalho were then on the Point of ſetting out. Captain Darell, whoſe Health I am informed is in a very indifferent State, having your Permiſſion, is to remain to the End of the Rains.

Beſides the abovementioned Gentlemen, Mr. Robert Grant and Mr. Bird are, I underſtand, reſident at Furruckabad; but I have not ſignified your Orders to them, being uncertain how far they might be conſidered to fall under their Deſcription. Theſe are all the Dependants of our Government, that I know of, reſiding within the Vizier's Juriſdiction, without public Appointments, or the expreſs Licence of the Board.

I beg leave to aſſure you, Sir, that I never made any Promiſe whatever to Mr. Scott, or gave him any Hopes of continuing at Lucknow, excepting ſuch as he might have derived from my conſenting to forward a Recommendation to you in his Behalf.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſ^t^ at the Vizier's Court.

To the Honourable the Governor General.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to receive your Commands of the 10th Auguſt, previous to my Departure from Patna, and delayed the Acknowledgment of them until my Arrival at Lucknow, only that I might be enabled to yield you the fulleſt Information and Satisfaction on the Subject of their Contents.

I have had the Pleaſure to find, upon my Arrival, that the Report of Almas Ally Cawn's Flight from the Vizier's Dominions was premature. His Conduct, for ſome Time paſt, no doubt, indicated ſuch an Intention, and Appearances at one Time warranted a Belief that his Reſolution was decidedly decidedly taken; but although he withdrew himself and his Naibs from the Charge of the Country, he never broke off his Correſpondence with the Court, or manifeſted any Diſinclination to return to his Duty under his Excellency's Government, whenever he might be aſſured he could do it on Terms of undoubted Security to himſelf.

The haſty and ill-founded Alarms, with which the Miſrepreſentations of the Enemies of the Vizier's and our own Government had impreſſed him, having been removed by the fulleſt Aſſurances of Security and Protection, he has reſumed the Charge of the Diſtricts he before held; and I truſt his future Conduct will merit your Forgiveneſs and continued Patronage.

I muſt entreat, Sir, that you will ſuſpend your Judgment upon the State of the Vizier's Adminiſtration, until I ſhall be able to lay before you a Review of the Meaſures already adopted, and now in Agitation, for the Regulation of this Country, which I have not a Doubt will afford the moſt ſatisfactory Evidence of the happy Effect of your Arrangements.

Upon the laſt Paragraph of your Commands, I muſt beg leave to refer you to my Addreſs of this Date to the Honourable Board, which I confidently truſt you will receive as an Acquittal of the Reſponſibility with which you charged me; and, as you have candidly reſted your Deciſion on my Conduct on the ultimate Effect of my Exertions to realize the Honourable Company's Balance, conformably to the Aſſurances I had repeatedly given on that Head, I am encouraged to hope for that Teſtimony of your Approbation which it has ever been equally my Study and Ambition to merit, and which with me muſt ever conſtitute an eſſential Part of any Satisfaction I could look for in the moſt ſucceſsful Diſcharge of my Duty.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

Lucknow,
the 7th Septr 1782.

Sir,

Lucknow, the 9th Septr 1782.

In the Courſe of the Diſcuſſion with the Nabob and the Miniſters, upon the further Claim of the Honourable Company, as ſtated by the Accomptant General, they mentioned the Right, which they conceived his Excellency derived from the Treaty, to charge the Company with the Expence of Abdul Rahaman Cawn's Corps, and ſeemed to intend making it the Subject of an immediate public Addreſs to you; I have however, for the preſent, taken upon me to prevent ſuch an Application being made, wiſhing to be favoured with your previous Sentiments upon it.

If the Honourable Board are diſpoſed to admit theſe Pretenſions, no embarraſſing Conſequence could attend the public Aſſertion of them; but if, on the other hand, they deem it inexpedient to admit the Claim, and wiſh to avoid a public Deciſion upon it, I apprehend it would be moſt adviſeable to ſtop it altogether here; which I have no Doubt I ſhould be able to effect, if you are pleaſed to approve of my ſo doing. At all Events, I flatter myſelf you will approve of the Motive which induced me to trouble you with this Intimation; and that you will believe me, with the greateſt Reſpect, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

The Honourable the Govr Genl.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c.

Sir,

I have the Honour to inform you, that all the unlicenſed Gentlemen formerly reſident at Lucknow have, in obedience to your Orders, taken their Departure, excepting Mr. Orr, Captain Darell, and Mr. Scott.—The former acquaints me, that he has received an Authority through Mr. Wombwell to continue at Lucknow.—Captain ſtays only until the Rains are over, for which he has your Permiſſion; and Mr. Scott, from whom I beg leave to lay before you a Letter, with Surgeon's Certificate, is preparing with all poſſible Expedition, conſiſtent with the reduced State of his Health, to fulfil your Commands.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Reſt at the Court of the Vizier.

Lucknow,
16th Septr 1782.

Richard Johnſon, Eſquire, acting Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Sir,

In obedience to the Governor General's Orders (which I did not conceive extended to my Removal, before I received Replies from Calcutta) the Beginning of laſt May, I have ſince then been uſing every Means to clear my Concerns, in order to withdraw myſelf from his Excellency's Dominions.

This I would have accompliſhed ere now, had it nōt been for the bad State of Health I have laboured under ſince February laſt. My Diſorders Mr. Murchiſon has attended to with the moſt attentive Care, without being able to remove them; but gives me Hopes, from the preſent Change of Seaſon, they may come to a Criſis. He imagines my Removal from immediate Aſſiſtance may be attended with Danger to my Life, before he ſees a Probability of my Recovery; and as ſuch he he has given me his Sentiments, which I have incloſed you. I beg leave to requeſt you will inform the Governor General and his Excellency, that as ſoon as I can be moved with any Safety, that I ſhall, in obedience to their Orders; hoping that they will afford my People every juſt Support for their collecting my outſtanding Advances, which were made before I ever knew of ſuch an Order intended to be publiſhed. This makes my Situation peculiarly hard, and leaves me every Reaſon to dread I ſhall ſuſtain Loſs of more than my own Property, the Fruits of 15 Years unwearied Toils in Buſineſs. The Balances now outſtanding amount to very near Four Lacks of Rupees.

Any Enquiry you chooſe to make into the Truth of my Aſſertions ſhall with Cheerfulneſs be laid before you, by,

Sir,

Lucknow, Your moſt Obed^{t}, &c.
12th July 1782. John P. Scott.

Mr. John Pendred Scott having for many Months been afflicted with various Complaints, and being now in a very infirm State of Health, I am induced to believe, from what I have known of his Caſe, that his undertaking a Journey, in his preſent Situation, might be attended with fatal Conſequences; and I therefore ſtrongly recommend to him not to remove from hence, till the Effects of a Courſe of Medicines and Regimen, now preſcribed for him, can be aſcertained.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 21ſt December 1774.

Fort William, the 21ſt December 1774.

Secret Dep. Wedneſday.

At a Council; Preſent,
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident;
Lieutenant General John Clavering,
The Honourable George Monſon,
Richard Barwell, Philip Francis, } Eſquires.

RESUMED the Conſideration of the Governor General's Propoſal deferred for Conſideration from the 15th Inſtant.

The Governor General gives in the following Minute:

The Governor General, conceiving that the Reaſons aſſigned for Mr. Middleton's Recall from his Station of Reſident at the Court of the Vizier will of courſe operate to preclude him from the Nomination now before the Board, moves, That the Honourable Mr. Frederick Stuart be nominated to the Office of Reſident at the Court of the Vizier, and Agent on the Part of this Government.

In making this Propoſition, the Governor is in part influenced by one Conſideration, which at any other Time, or on any other Occaſion, would have had little Share in directing his Judgment. His Eſtimation of Mr. Stuart's Abilities and Judgment is very high, but he conſiders that at this particular Time, the Connections of Mr. Stuart, and the Opinions commonly entertained of the Dignity and Credit of his Family, will have greater Weight on the Mind of the Vizier, whoſe Pride and Ambition are his predominant Qualities, and whoſe Fears may be alarmed by the late Meaſures of this Government, which for want of a due Knowledge of the Motives that produce them, he may conceive to proceed from a Diſpoſition in this Adminiſtration adverſe to him, and to the Engagements ſubſiſting between him and the Company, than any other Qualifications which might fall to that of the Perſon who might be entruſted with the Charge of the Negociations between him and this Government, and thereby keep him ſteady in his Attachment to the Company, and punctual to his pecuniary Engagements, which at this Time are the chief Object of our Concerns with him.

For Mr. Stuart's Aſſiſtance in the Diſcharge of this Truſt, which, from the Variety of Accounts now depending with the Vizier, and from the Probability of other incidental Affairs which may occupy his Attention, is likely to be a laborious one; the Governor General propoſes, that Sir John D'Oyley be appointed to accompany him in the Quality of his Aſſiſtant, for which Office he is peculiarly qualified by an ample Acquaintance with the Perſian Language, having, ſince the Abſence of Mr. Redfearn the Perſian Tranſlator, whoſe Aſſiſtant he now is, tranſacted all the Buſineſs of that Office with much Ability and Aſſiduity.

(Signed) W. H.

Mr. Francis delivers in the following Minute on the Governor's Queſtion:

Before I give my Anſwer to the Governor General's Propoſition, I beg leave to obſerve upon the Minute with which it is introduced, that when I gave my Voice for the Recall of Mr. Middleton, it was not upon the Idea of any Offence or Demerit in him. I had no Reaſon to think perſonally ill of him at that Time; I have Reaſon to think perſonally well of him at preſent: My Ground was public; I underſtood that he was the Public Reſident of the Company at the Vizier's Court. I aſked to ſee the whole of his Correſpondence with this Government. I was then told that he was the Private Agent of the Governor, who refuſed to communicate the whole of his Correſpondence to the Board. I thought that an Office of that Nature ſhould not be continued, and that the Perſon who holds it ought to be recalled to the Settlement, in order that the Board might obtain from him thoſe Explanations which were refuſed by the Governor. If his Conduct in this Reſpect ſhould prove ſatisfactory to the Board, I ſhould think him a very proper Perſon, from all that I have heard of his private Character, and ſeen of his Proceedings, to come under the favourable Conſideration of the Board for the Office of Public Reſident. As the Governor General however has propoſed that the Appointment ſhould be immediately made, and as the Neceſſity of the immediate Appointment has been repeatedly urged to the Board, I yield to the Governor's Propoſal to have it determined this Day. I mean not to agree to the Nomination of a Reſident propoſed by the Governor General for affirmative Reaſons, which I think ought to influence my Judgment in this important Choice. My Reſpect for Mr. F. Stuart however, and for the high Connections which he has in England, oblige me to ſay, that if I do not accede to the preſent Nomination, it is not owing to any perſonal Diſreſpect to him, or Inattention to them; on the contrary, I ſhould think myſelf happy in having an Opportunity, where the Public Service did not, in my Judgment, require from me more than barely having no Objection, to ſhew him the real Reſpect I feel for his Perſon and high Family. This Voice of courſe includes a Negative to the Nomination of Sir John D'Oyley, whoſe Aſſiſtance otherwiſe, I do not doubt, would have been indiſpenſably neceſſary to Mr. Stuart on the Knowledge and uſe of the Perſian Language.

(Signed) P. Francis.

Mr. Barwell declares his Sentiments as follows:

I am for the Nomination of Mr. Stuart. Independent of thoſe Particulars which have weight with the Governor General, from a long Reſidence in the Country, I have had Opportunities of becoming acquainted with all the Servants of the Company, and from my Knowledge of the Service, I can venture to affirm, there is not a ſingle Character in it, that can boaſt ſuperior natural Talents to Mr. Stuart; and if the Conſideration alone of underſtanding the Perſian Language is to ſway in Appointments of Importance, and where it is more abſolutely neceſſary than in a ſubordinate Sphere, it is an Objection againſt the firſt Characters of the Settlement, and incapacitates them from all political Intercourſes. For theſe Reaſons I do ſincerely and heartily wiſh, for the Promotion of the Public Service, that Mr. Stuart ſhould be appointed Reſident at the Vizier's Court, and Sir John D'Oyley, his Aſſiſtant.

Colonel Monſon's Opinion, viz.

My Motives for giving my Opinion for the Recall of Mr. Middleton from the Vizier's Court, did not ariſe from any Diſreſpect to him; but conſidering him as a Perſon in a Public Character, I thought his Correſpondence neceſſary for the Inſpection of this Board, and as that was denied, I judge proper to give my Opinion for his Recall. With regard to Mr. Stuart, the Gentleman now propoſed to be his Succeſſor, I reſpect him as a Man of diſtinguiſhed Rank; his Abilities I honour, as they are repreſented by the Governor General and Mr. Barwell to be of an extraordinary Extent. Theſe Conſiderations have their due Conſequence with me; but when I reflect, that Mr. Stuart has not as yet appeared in any Public Character, I muſt conſider him at preſent as a Perſon improper for this weighty Charge, which has for its Object the cementing of the Friendſhip between the Company and the Vizier, and the obtaining large Sums of Money ſaid to be due from him; and therefore I muſt refuſe my Aſſent to the Governor's Propoſal.

General Clavering delivers his Opinion in the following Words:

It having been determined by the Board to recall Mr. Middleton, for Reaſons that have been ſo properly aſſigned both by Colonel Monſon and Mr. Francis, it now only reſts with us to conſider the Propriety of the Governor General's Recommendation of the Honourable Mr. Frederick Stuart for this Appointment; in which Nomination, however deſirous I am of ſhewing my perſonal Regard for this Gentleman, and my Reſpect for his Family, I think it my Duty only to conſider the Fitneſs of the Perſon to take charge of ſo great a Truſt as will be repoſed in him; and as I have another Perſon in my Eye whom I imagine the Board will deem fitter for ſuch an Employment, from his general Knowledge of Buſineſs, and his particular particular Acquaintance with the Perſian Language, I am under the Neceſſity of giving my Negative to the Governor General's Propoſition.

Reſolved by the Majority of the Board, That the Governor General's Propoſition be not agreed to.

☞ (a) [General Clavering now propoſes, That Mr. John Briſtow be appointed Reſident at the Vizier's Court, as qualified for it from his general Knowledge of Buſineſs, and his particular Acquaintance with the Perſian Language.

The Governor General objects to this Propoſition, becauſe in his Judgment Mr. Briſtow is not qualified for the Office, neither by his Knowledge of the Perſian Language, nor by any diſtinguiſhed Abilities.

Agreed, that the Queſtion above propoſed by General Clavering, be put.

Mr. Francis delivers the following Reply:

I am happy in hearing a Gentleman named for this high Office, to whoſe Appointment I can ſafely give a poſitive Approbation. I know him to be a Man of Senſe, Induſtry, and Judgment. I have poſitive Reaſons to think that he underſtands the Perſian Language, as well from the Aſſiſtance he has favoured me with in the Letters I have received and anſwered, as from his Public Office of Tranſlator to the Khalſa. This Office implies Knowledge of Buſineſs, Knowledge of Accounts, and Knowledge of Language. I do not inſiſt upon his Engliſh Connections, though in this Reſpect few Gentlemen are better connected than Mr. Briſtow. I agree to the Propoſition.

(Signed) P. Francis.

I beg leave to explain to the Board, that by the Word poſitive, uſed in this Minute, I mean no more than a contradiſtinction to negative, which I had uſed in my former Minute.

(Signed) P. Francis.

Mr. Barwell.—I cannot aſſent to the Nomination of Mr. Briſtow, for the following Reaſons; becauſe I think when a Propoſition from the Chair is over-ruled, there ought to be very good Grounds for ſuch a Meaſure. The Preference given to the General's Nomination undoubtedly ſpeaks Inattention to the Governor; beſides, in this Particular, I think the Governor ſhould have been conſidered, as he is the Channel of Public Correſpondence, and ſhould be ſupported as the Head of this Government in the Eyes of the Princes of India. This Character he will ſcarcely maintain, if a Gentleman, in oppoſition to his Sentiments, goes the Public Agent to the Court of the Vizier.

(Signed) R. B.

Colonel Monſon.—I aſſent to the General's Nomination, as I ſuppoſe Mr. Briſtow to be a Perſon qualified for the Truſt from the Station which he now fills.

The Governor General diſſents from the Propoſition.

Agreed by a Majority of the Board, That Mr. Briſtow be appointed Reſident at the Court of Sujah Doula.]

Mr. Francis moves, That the Reſident at the Vizier's Court be allowed an Aſſiſtant out of the Company's covenanted Servants.

Agreed, That an Aſſiſtant be allowed him accordingly.

Letter from the Governor General to the Honourable Court of Directors, and Inclosures.

To the Honourable Court of Directors of the Honourable United East India Company.

Honourable Sirs, On the River Ganges, 21st February 1784.

HAVING had Occasion to disburse from my own Cash many Sums, for Services which, though required to enable me to execute the Duties of my Station, I have hitherto omitted to enter in my public Accounts, and my own Fortune being unequal to so heavy a Charge, I have resolved to reimburse myself in a Mode the most suitable to the Situation of your Affairs, by charging the same on my Durbar Accounts of the present Year, and crediting them by a Sum privately received, and appropriated to your Service in the same Manner with other Sums received on Account of the Honourable Company, and already carried to their Account.

The Particulars of these Disbursements are contained in the inclosed Accounts, N° 1, 2, 3, and 4, of which N° 5 is the Abstract.

I shall subjoin a brief Explanation of each.

The Sum of the Account N° 1 is the Difference between the Allowance of 300 Rupees a Month, which was the customary Pay of the Governor's Military Secretary, and that which I allowed to Lieutenant Colonel Ironside during the Time that he acted in that Capacity, on account of his superior Rank. It was referred to your Honourable Court in One of the General Letters of the Year 1773 or 4; but I presume that it was overlooked, in the Pressure of other more important Matters which at that Time occupied your Attention.

N° 2 and 3 are explained in the Accounts themselves.

N° 4 consists of Three several Kinds of Charges, which I confess to have been unauthorised, but which I humbly conceive neither to be of a private Nature, nor unworthy Subjects of the Bounty of a great and rising State.—The First is inconsiderable, consisting chiefly in the Subsistence of the Pundits, who were assembled in Calcutta, and employed during Two Years in compiling the Code of Hindoo Laws for your Use. The Sum allotted to them was, as I recollect, One Rupee per Diem; a larger Recompense was offered, but refused; nor would they receive this, but for their daily Support: They had indeed the Promise of some public Endowments for their Colleges, which yet remain unperformed.—The Second is the Amount of sundry Monthly Salaries paid to some of the most learned Professors of the Mahomedan Law, for translating, from the Arabic into the Persian Tongue, a Compendium of their Law, called the Hedaya, which is held in high Estimation, and Part of a more voluminous Work, which I could not prosecute. Your Honourable Court is in Possession of a Part of the English Version of Hedaya, made by Mr. James Anderson, and a subsequent Part of the same Work has been lately translated by Mr. Hamilton. These Gentlemen are both engaged in the Completion of it, and are both eminently qualified for it. It would exceed the due Bounds of this Letter, to expatiate on the Utility of this Work; yet I may be allowed to vindicate the Expence of it by One summary Argument, which is, that while the Mahomedan Law is allowed to be the Standard of the Criminal Jurisprudence of your Dominion, under the Controul and Inspection of your English Servants, it seems indispensably necessary that the Judges of the Courts should have a more familiar Guide for their Proceedings than the Books of the Arabic Tongue, of which few have Opportunities of attaining a competent Knowledge; and as necessary that your Servants should possess the Means of consulting the Principles on which those Judgments are founded, which, in their ultimate Resort, and in extraordinary Cases, may fall within their immediate Cognizance, and of the Laws of which they are the Protectors.—The Third Charge is that of an Academy, instituted for the Study of the different Branches of the Sciences taught in the Mahomedan Schools. After a Trial of about Two Years, finding that it was likely to answer the End of its Institution, I recommended to the Board, and obtained their Consent, to pass the subsequent Expence of the Establishment to the Account of the Company, and to erect a Building for the Purpose at my own immediate Cost, but for a Company's Interest Note granted me for the Reimbursement of it. It is almost the only complete Establishment of the Kind now existing in India, although they were once in universal Use, and the decayed Remains of these Schools are yet to be seen in every capital Town or City of Hindostan and Decan. It has contributed to extend the Credit of the English Name, and to soften the Prejudices excited by the rapid Growth of the British Dominion; and it is a Seminary of the most useful Members of Society.

I humbly submit the Propriety of carrying these Expences to your Account, by the Consideration, that it was not possible for me to have been influenced, in incurring them, by any Purpose of my own Interest. Something, perhaps, may be attributed to the Impulse of Pride, in the Share which I might hope to derive of a public Benefaction; but certainly not to Vanity or Ostentation, since I believe it to be generally conceived, that the whole Expence, of which the greatest Part is yet my own, has been already defrayed from the Treasury of the Company.

I will candidly confeſs, that when I firſt engaged, both in this and the preceding Expence, I had no Intention of carrying it to the Account of the Company. Improvident for myſelf, zealous for the Honour of my Country, and the Credit and Intereſt of my Employers, I ſeldom permitted my Proſpects of Futurity to enter into the View of my private Concerns. In the undiſturbed Exerciſe of the Faculties which appertained to the active Seaſon of my Life, I confined all my Regards to my public Character, and reckoned on a Fund of Years to come for its Duration. The Infirmities of Life have ſince ſucceeded, and I have lately received more than One ſevere Warning to retire from a Scene to which my bodily Strength is no longer equal, and threatens me with a correſponding Decay in whatever Powers of Mind I once poſſeſſed, to diſcharge the laborious Duties and hard Viciſſitudes of my Station. With this Change in my Condition, I am compelled to depart from that liberal Plan which I originally adopted, and to claim from your Juſtice, for you have forbid me to appeal to your Generoſity, the Diſcharge of a Debt which I can, with the moſt ſcrupulous Integrity, aver to be juſtly my Due, and which I cannot ſuſtain.

☞ (a) [If it ſhould be objected, that the Allowance of theſe Demands would furniſh a Precedent for others of the like Kind, I have to remark, that in their whole Amount they are but the Aggregate of a contingent Account of Twelve Years; and if it were to become the Practice of thoſe who have paſſed their Prime of Life in your Service, and filled, as I have filled it, the firſt Office of your Dominion, to glean from their paſt Accounts all the Articles of Expence which their Inaccuracy or Indifference hath overlooked, your Intereſts would ſuffer infinitely leſs by the Precedent, than by a ſingle Example of a Life ſpent in the Accumulation of Crores for your Benefit, and doomed in its Cloſe to ſuffer the Extremity of private Want, and to ſink in Obſcurity.]

I have thought it proper to complete the preſent Subject, by the Addition of a Charge which I intended to have ſubmitted regularly to the Board; but which, if divided at this Time from the others, might have admitted an unfair Conſtruction. It is in the Account N° 6, and conſiſts of Charges incurred for Boats and Budgerows provided by me, for my own Uſe, on ſuch public Occaſions as require my Departure from the Preſidency on extraordinary Services.

My Predeceſſors have always had an Eſtabliſhment of this Kind provided for them, and my Succeſſor will have a Proviſion devolve to him, ſuperior in Convenience and in Elegance to any that I have yet ſeen, and furniſhed with a Coſt which would not be credited by thoſe who have ſeen the Subjects of it.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,
Honourable Sirs,
Your moſt obedient and moſt faithful Servant,
Warren Haſtings.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,

Philip Francis,
Edward Wheler, } Eſquires.

Sir Eyre Coote on a Viſit to the different Stations of the Army.

READ the following Letter from the Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Members of Council.

Honourable Sir and Gentlemen,

I have delayed thus long addreſſing you on the Subject of the firſt Object of my Buſineſs at this Court, in the Hope of being able to inform you that I had obtained from his Excellency ſufficient Supplies for the Exigencies of the preſent Year. I have had frequent Conferences with him upon the Subject, but have found him uniform and determined in a Refuſal of any more Tuncaws than thoſe obtained by Mr. Middleton, prior to my having Charge of this Appointment. The incloſed Paper No. 1 will ſhew you what they are, and for what Services they are granted. No. 2. is an Eſtimate of the whole Demands upon the Nabob for this Year. From theſe Accounts it will appear, that the whole Amount required for the Expences of the Year is Rupees 1,36,12,108:12, and the Amount granted Rupees 68,82,000.

I have in vain laid before him the ruinous Conſequences of a Diſmiſſion of any Part of the Troops who are now employed under the Command of Britiſh Officers, the certain Deficiency in the Collections, and the laying of his Country open to foreign Marauders.

☞ (a) [I have in vain urged him on the glaring Impropriety of refuſing Tuncaws upon the ſame Diſtricts as laſt Year, and giving them to his own Troops without Diſcipline to ſupport his Government, and always ready to plunder every Country to which they had been ſent. His Anſwer has been invariably, that while he had the Means of providing for the Demands of the Company he has never refuſed it, but he is now deprived of that Ability by the Drought which has obliged him to give Deductions to the Amount of Twenty-five Lacks of Rupees, and even now the Aumils are deſirous of being releaſed from their Engagements, upon the Plea of Inability to comply with them. His Family, and that of his Father and Grandfather, after repeated Promiſes made to them and broken, are ſtill unprovided for; that he did not believe the Council meant to ſeize the Expences of his Table and Houſehold, which was all that was now left him. When I quitted him, I declared I did not imagine the Governor and Council would give Conſent to the Reform of the new Brigade, and the other preſent Eſtabliſhments for his Collections; that if they were not diſmiſſed they muſt be paid, and from the Sources of that Country, for the Protection of which they were raiſed. That I would leave him for the preſent to conſider the Means of granting the Supplies, in the Hope of an Anſwer more likely to be pleaſing to our Government. A Day or Two after I received a Letter from him, a Tranſlate of which, No. 3, I think it neceſſary to lay before you. As I have never been able to induce his Excellency to adopt any other Sentiments than thoſe he firſt declared, and have received another Letter from him, expreſſing much Diſſatisfaction at my Urgency on a Point he had determined on, and would not give up unleſs he ſhould be compelled by the Governor and Council, I have thought it needleſs to preſs him further at preſent, but, at his Requeſt, have tranſmitted a Letter from him to the Governor General, ſetting forth his Diſtreſs.

In this Situation it only remains for me to lay before you the following Extract of Mr. Nathaniel Middleton's Letter of the 5th Inſtant, the Day on which Charge was delivered to me.

" When I have of late preſſed his Excellency for further Aſſignments, he has pleaded Inabi" lity to anſwer the very heavy Demands which will this Year fall upon him, on account of " the Drought which was unfortunately happened to the almoſt total Deſtruction of the Khur-
" reff Harveſt, and the conſequent Diminution of his Revenue. I am concerned to confeſs
" there are but too good Grounds for this Plea. The Misfortune has been general throughout " the whole of the Vizier's Dominions, obvious to every Body, and ſo very fatal have been " its Conſequences, that no Perſon of either Credit or Character would enter into Engage" ments with Government for farming the Country, without a very heavy Direction * in the laſt * Sic in Orig.
" Year's Jumma, which his Excellency has been compelled to allow to all who have hitherto " been appointed to Farms; and ſome who have engaged under theſe Circumſtances, have, to " my Knowledge, made moſt urgent Applications to the Nabob and his Miniſters to be releaſed
" from their Obligations, and allowed to relinquiſh their Farms, which they found they could " not hold but at a certain Loſs to themſelves. You will be ſoon convinced by undoubted
" Teſtimony, and loud Complaints from every Quarter, of the Reality of this Misfortune,
" which has neceſſarily been the Means of delaying the general Settlement of this Country,
" and of preventing my hitherto getting Aſſignments for more than Rupees 68,82,000; but " how far its Operation and Effects preclude the Nabob from anſwering the Demands upon him
" in public Account, you will be the beſt able to judge from the Statements you will obtain of
" his eſtimated Revenue."

As it appears from the whole of this Extract that Mr. Middleton had met with Obſtacles from a Reaſon aſſigned which no human Foreſight could prevent, I hope your Honourable Board will not imagine I have been remiſs and inattentive. Nothing but a compulſive Order from me upon an undefined Right could obtain the Collection of a Rupee, more than I have Tuncaws for; and nothing but a deciſive and ſpeedy Inſtruction from you, when the Time elapſed may not occaſion a material Loſs in the Revenue, can poſſibly procure the Grants neceſſary for the current Diſburſements from my Treaſury.

Upon this Principle it is needleſs to add, that no Bill from the Preſidency can poſſibly be anſwered, ſince the Demands on the Treaſury upon the preſent Eſtabliſhment exceed the expected Income, and the laſt Drafts of the Honourable Board, and their Order for the Payment of Two Lacks and a Half of Rupees to Captain Popham, which has been complied with, have ſo effectually drained the Treaſury, that I have not yet been able to pay the Firſt Brigade for October.] Upon the Eſtimate of the preſent Year, that of the Troops under the Command of Britiſh Officers, paid by Mr. Wombwell, exceeds the laſt Years by Rupees 4,25,533 : 12 : 6, and the Exceſs of the Eſtimate of the temporary Brigade is Rupees 8,13,559 : 13 : 9. The Paymaſters, upon being applied to by me, declare, that the Reaſon of this Exceſs is, that the laſt Year's was only what was ſuppoſed would be the Expence, and the preſent Year's Eſtimate is made upon the actual Diſburſements of laſt Year. As his Excellency did not ſtart any Objections to particular Articles of theſe Eſtimates, but to the whole, from a want of Revenue to pay them, I have not thought proper to curtail any Thing. Your Letter under Date the 25th Auguſt laſt has occaſioned the Incluſion of the Army's Donation, and the Loſs by Exchange I thought but a proper Demand.

Notwithſtanding what has paſſed, I ſhould not relax in my Endeavours to prevail upon his Excellency to grant the Tuncaws required, but he ſeems to be unmoveable in his preſent Reſolution. He is now preparing for his Departure to meet the General, and I imagine will not return before the Arrival of deciſive Inſtructions from your Honourable Board.

I have the Honour to be with Reſpect,

Lucknow,

at Cawnpore; a Demand for the Recall, or Reduction of the Troops ſtationed at Rohilcund for his Service in that Diſtrict, and his new-acquired Dominions in the Doaub; and for the Diſmiſſion of the Corps eſtabliſhed in his own immediate Service, under the Command of Britiſh Officers; viz. Thoſe ſeverally commanded by Major Hannay, Captain Oſburne, and the Body Guard under Captain Mordaunt, for the Purpoſe of ſubſtituting additional Eſtabliſhments of Horſe and Foot, under his immediate Command, for the Service of the Revenues. Theſe Demands, the Tone in which they are aſſerted, and the Seaſon in which they are made, are all equally alarming, and appear to me to require an adequate Degree of Firmneſs in this Board, in oppoſition to them. Without further Comment, I ſhall proceed to recommend the following Draft of a Letter to be written to Mr. Purling, which, if agreed to, may ſerve as the Subſtance of One to be written on the ſame Subject to the Nabob."]

Draft of a Letter to Mr. Purling.

To Mr. C. Purling, Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Sir,

We have received your Letter of the 19th November, ſtating the Objections of the Nabob to the immediate Diſcharge of the Sums due from his Government, for the Expences of the current Year. The Principle on which theſe Objections are made appears to us ſo repugnant* to the Nabob's Engagements with the Company, and with the intimate Connection of his Intereſts and theirs, that we cannot heſitate a Moment to declare them totally inadmiſſible; and as we have no Doubt of the Nabob's Ability to furniſh the Sums abſolutely neceſſary for the Service of the Year, we require you to repeat the Demand in Writing. To give Weight and Efficacy to your Requiſition, we have judged it expedient to adviſe him formally, by Letter, of your being authoriſed to make it, and that we expect his ready and cheerful Acquieſcence in it. In the preſent Circumſtances of his Government and ours, to diſband any Part of the Troops that we maintain for his Service is a Meaſure no leſs improper for him to ſuggeſt than it would be for us to adopt. He ſtands engaged to our Government to maintain the Engliſh Armies which, at his own Requeſt, have been formed for the Protection of his Dominions; and it is our Part, not his, to judge and to determine in what Manner, and at what Time, theſe ſhall be reduced or withdrawn; but, were it otherwiſe, this is not the Time to propoſe it, when we are threatened with external Dangers common to both, which require rather an Augmentation than a Diminution of the Means which we poſſeſs for repelling them. That this gives us Cauſe for the moſt alarming Suſpicions, ſince he cannot be ignorant that the Marattas, our Enemies, and the ancient Enemy of his Government and Family, are in Arms, and a War unavoidable; that, at ſuch a Juncture, a Propoſition for diſbanding any Part of his Forces cannot fail to encourage them to attack his Dominions; that the Advice of his Miniſters, who have inſtigated him to make it, will, we perſuade ourſelves, appear to him as inſidious as it is dangerous; and that, we hope, he will diſmiſs them from his Service and Confidence, as unworthy of both.

Tranſlation of a Letter from the Vizier to the Reſident at his Court.

The Friendſhip between the Honourable Company, Mr. Haſtings Governor General, Supreme Council, and myſelf, has not the leaſt Shadow of Diſunion: Dominion, Property, and Honour are but one and the ſame to us.

The Situation of my Affairs, reſpecting the preſent Time, I informed Mr. Middleton of, both by Writing and Converſation, and I now proceed to lay the whole before you.

During theſe Three Years paſt, the Expence occaſioned by the Troops in Brigade, and others commanded by European Officers, has much diſtreſſed the Support of my Houſhold, inſomuch that the Allowance made to the Seraglio and Children of the deceaſed Nabob has been reduced to one-fourth Part of what it was, upon which they ſubſiſted in a very diſtreſſed Manner for theſe Two Years paſt; the Attendants, Writers, Servants, &c. of my Court have received no Pay for theſe Two Years; and there is at preſent no Part of the Country that can be allotted to the Payment of my Father's private Creditors, whoſe Applications are daily preſſing upon me. All theſe Difficulties I have for theſe Three Years paſt ſtruggled through, and found this Conſolation therein, that it was complying with the Pleaſure of the Honourable Company, and in hope that the Supreme Council would make Enquiry from impartial Perſons into my diſtreſſed Situation; but I am now forced to a Repreſentation. From the great Increaſe of Expence, the Revenues were neceſſarily farmed out at a high Rate, and Deficiencies followed yearly. The Country and Cultivation is abandoned; and this Year in particular, from the exceſſive Drought of the Seaſon, Deductions of many Lacks have been allowed the Farmers, who were ſtill left unſatisfied, and I have received but juſt ſufficient to ſupport my abſolute Neceſſities; and for this Reaſon many of the old Chieftains, with their Troops and uſeful Attendants of the Court, were forced to leave it, and now there is left only a few Foot and Horſe for the Collection of the Revenues; and ſhould the Zemindars be refractory, there is not left a ſufficient Number to reduce them to the Obedience of my Collectors. The late raiſed Brigade at Futtaghur is not only quite uſeleſs to my Government, but is moreover the Cauſe of much Loſs both in the Revenues and Cuſtoms, the detached Bodies of Troops under other European Officers being nothing but Confuſion to the Affairs of Government, and are entirely their own Maſters.

In this diſtreſſed State of my Affairs, it is juſt and requiſite that Mr. Haſtings, General Sir Eyre Coote, and the Supreme Council ſhould give me Relief. This Year I cannot poſſibly provide for the new Brigade at Futtyghur, the Corps of Horſe, and other detached Bodies of Troops in my Country. I hope you will conſider well theſe Repreſentations, and explain them in a Manner you may judge proper to the Governor General and Supreme Council. On my Part, Country, Property, and Life are devoted to the Will of the Honourable Company; and I hope they will therefore do Juſtice to theſe my Complaints, and prevent my falling into Diſtreſs, by not having wherewith to ſupport the neceſſary Expences of my Houſhold. For the Expence of the Brigade at Cawnpore, and other Diſburſements, I have given Tuncaws and Orders upon my Country. The Remainder of my Revenue, on account of the Drought, has fallen ſo ſhort as not to be ſufficient for my neceſſary Expences, being deficient to the Amount of Fifteen (15) Lacks, and the above Proviſion will bring upon me this Year very great Diſtreſs. What can I ſay more?

APPENDIX, N° XLII.

Book 115.

Letter from the Vizier to the Governor General.

69. From the Vizier: Received 21ſt April 1785.

Whatever you ſaid to Raja Gobind Ram upon every Point, the ſaid Raja has fully written it to me. My Friend, from the Beginning of the Friendſhip between the noble Chiefs of the Company, and the exalted Gentlemen of Council, and my deceaſed Father and myſelf, no Deficiency ever appeared; and after the Death of my deceaſed Father I have conſtantly remained, and ſtill remain, employed from my Heart and Soul in preſerving this Friendſhip more than formerly; and on the Part of the Gentlemen alſo the Syſtem of Intimacy was preſerved. In many Concerns, the Diſtreſſes which from various Cauſes had happened, the Governor General, Mr. Haſtings, after learning, applied himſelf to relieve my Situation, and ſettled a Plan by which the Company's Money would properly be paid by my Miniſters, and the Company and all the Engliſh Gentlemen would receive Credit.

After his Departure, you, from your Kindneſs, were favourable to my Concerns, and preſerved the Plan and Agreement which had been ſettled between him and myſelf, and with the greateſt Friendſhip you wrote to me the completeſt Confirmation; and Major Palmer, in obedience to your Orders, gave repeated Conſolation to me and my Miniſters. I am convinced that the good Situation of my Concerns will be increaſed by your Favour. Conformably to the Agreement to pay the Company's Money, which was ſettled between me and the late Governor General, my Miniſters have to this Time paid the Kiſts, and no Deviation has happened; you may learn this from Mr. Wombwell. And I, conſidering the Diſcharge of the Company's Debt to be the moſt neceſſary of all Affairs, pay it from the Receipts of the Country and the Loans of the Bankers, and I apply myſelf to nothing but the Diſcharge of the Company's Debt and the Preſervation of your Friendſhip. You told Raja Gobind Ram that to this Time the Money had not been regularly paid, according to the Agreement which had fixed Kiſts for the Company's Money: This Order aſtoniſhes and confounds me, becauſe from laſt Year to this Time, whatever Agreement had been made for the Payment of the Company's Money, my Miniſters have paid conformably to the Kiſts, and are in future ready to pay, by the Bleſſing of God, according to the Engagements of Payment; but your Favour and Countenance is requiſite. This Order muſt certainly have been cauſed ſolely by the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons; and I from this am much afflicted, that notwithſtanding the regular Payment of the Money according to the Kiſts, you ſhould give ſuch an Order upon the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons, otherwiſe ſuch Orders could not have proceeded from your exalted Mind, becauſe many Days have not elapſed ſince you, in Writing, gave me Confidence on every Point; and whilſt the Money were * regularly paid, you would not give ſuch Orders: At any Rate, I hope from your Favour the Obſervance of this Rule, never to liſten to the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons, becauſe in ſuch Caſes the Affairs are diſgraced, and the Bankers and Miniſters are diſpirited. With reſpect to the Brigade at Futtyghur, you ſay that you had, agreeably to my Requeſt, ſent Orders for it to march to Behurghurra; but to this Time Hyder Beg Khan has not advanced the Money for their Expences. My Friend, my Requeſt, whatever it be, is known to you. In all Concerns there is One Word upon which I rely, that whatever Agreement was made between me and Mr. Haſtings, and the Plan which was ſettled, and you have repeatedly written that you have approved of and preſerved that Engagement and Plan, in that Engagement†, out of Conſideration to my Diſtreſſes, whatever is promiſed with reſpect to the Removal of that Brigade is well known to you; and you alſo have written to Major Palmer, who has given me Confidence that you, from your Kindneſs for my Relief, do not approve of keeping an increaſed Army in this Country; but that now, until the Doubts from the Weſt are removed, the Futtyghur Brigade muſt remain. I alſo, who deſire only your Satisfaction, approved of this Advice, becauſe, as the Reduction of my Expences, and the Relief of my Concerns, is your Wiſh, it will be done at a proper Opportunity. When your Letter for the Futtyghur Brigade to remain a little Time longer here was received by Major Palmer, and the Major, agreeably to your Orders, told me, that this Year, beſides One Crore and Five Lacks of Rupees, which had been engaged for the Payment of the Company's Money, no more would be demanded, I was entirely ſet at Eaſe by your Kindneſs. You now order, that I ſhould make Advances for the Expences of the Brigade. My Situation is not hidden from you; why ſhould I for ever trouble you, that this Year I pay from the Receipts of the Country, and the Loans of the Bankers, for the Diſcharge of the Company's Money, what has been engaged. Do you yourſelf order, from your Favour and Kindneſs, whatever may be adviſeable towards the Relief of my Concerns. The Affairs of my Country and Property, and of the Company's Government, through Friendſhip are the ſame. Such Matters depend upon your Kindneſs. You will learn full Particulars from the Letters of

* Sic in Orig.

† Sic in Orig.

Major

☞Major Palmer. (a) [With reſpect to the Expences of the Gentlemen who are here, I have before written in a covered Manner; I now write plainly, that I have no Ability to give Money to the Gentlemen, becauſe I am indebted many Lacks of Rupees to the Bankers for the Payment of the Company's Debt. At the Time of Mr. Haſtings's Departure I repreſented to him, that I had no Reſources for the Expences of the Gentlemen. Mr. Haſtings, having aſcertained my diſtreſſed Situation, told me, that after his Arrival in Calcutta he would conſult with the Council, and remove from hence the Expences of the Gentlemen, and recall every Perſon except the Gentlemen in Office here. At this Time, that all the Concerns are dependent upon you, and you have in every Point given Eaſe to my Mind, according to Mr. Haſtings's Agreement, I hope that the Expences of the Gentlemen may be removed from me, and that you may recall every Perſon reſiding here beyond the Gentlemen in Office. Although Major Palmer does not at this Time demand any Thing for the Gentlemen, and I have no Ability to give them any Thing, yet the Cuſtom of the Engliſh Gentlemen is, when they remain here they will in the End aſk for ſomething. This is beſt, that they ſhould be recalled.] Mr. Haſtings wrote to me for the Abolition ☞ of Captain Frith's Battalion. At that Time the Diſturbances of the Seiks exiſted in the Neighbourhood of Berelly, and my Army was ſtationed on the Ghauts of the River, at thoſe Places, which at this Seaſon are always fordable. This Year many other Ghauts were fordable, and the Seiks croſſed over to plunder, which is their Cuſtom. My Army, which was already there, came upon them, and puniſhed them, and they, finding no Strength to remain, croſſed back again, and returned; but it became neceſſary to guard all Ghauts, and I therefore ſtationed for the Defence of the Berelly Ghauts, my old Battalions, which were fixed at Kherrabad, and the other Mahuls; and I ſent the Battalions of Captain Frith, which were newly raiſed for the Settlement of the Mahuls of Kherrabad, &c. Thoſe Battalions went under the Command of a Commandant belonging to me, and no Engliſh Gentlemen went there. In theſe Four Battalions, according to the Rule of all my Battalions, there are Three thouſand Men, and the Expence of them, including the Artillery, is 35,000 Rupees in each Month. For a little Time I thought this Expence adviſeable for the Execution of Two important Objects, the Settlement of the Country, and the Expulſion of the Seiks, which by the Bleſſing of God have both been effected: I have now determined to diſband them after ſatisfying them; but I conſider it proper to guard the Ghauts until Chyte; till when the Fords continue; after that, when the River be full, ſo large an Army will not be wanted at the Ghauts. In this Caſe I requeſt your Advice, that as the Army is on a reduced and ſaving Eſtabliſhment, if you chuſe, I will keep the Battalions until Chyte; or if you order, I will diſmiſs them immediately. Captain Frith will have no Concern in the Battalions, Commandants belonging to me will command them. With reſpect to Lieutenant Polhill's Battalion, which with other Gentlemen, is in Attendance on the Prince, you ordered me to learn his Royal Highneſs's Wiſh, and that if he ſhould be deſirous to keep them they might remain a little Time with him. Upon learning his Deſire, I, conformably to your Inſtructions, have conſented to retain the Battalion a little Time, but I did not ſpeak about retaining Lieutenant Polhill, and the other Gentlemen, nor does he continue with me in this Command; I merely wrote to you in Obedience to his Royal Highneſs's Deſire, requeſting that Lieutenant Polhill alone might remain; the Approbation and Refuſal of which depend entirely upon your Pleaſure; I have no Ability to maintain the Battalion with the Gentlemen: I deſire nothing but your Satisfaction, and hope that ſuch Orders as relate to the Friendſhip between the Company and me, and as may be your Pleaſure, may be written in your own private Letters to me, through Major Palmer, or in your Letters to the Major, that he may, in obedience to your Orders, properly explain them to me, and whatever may be ſettled, he may firſt in ſecret inform you of it, and afterwards I may write to you, having learnt your Pleaſure: In this Way the Secrets will be known to your Mind alone, and the Advice upon all the Concerns will be given in a proper Manner.—For further Security, I trouble you again with my Requeſt, that you will not liſten to the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons with reſpect to my Concerns; for in this Caſe, my Affairs are diſgraced, and the Bankers, from whom I have borrowed many Lacks towards paying the Kiſts to the Company, are alarmed.—I labour from my Heart and Soul to preſerve your Satisfaction, and you from your Kindneſs are inclined to maintain the Plan and Agreement which has taken place; therefore to give Entrance to intereſted Perſons, is laying the Baſis of Diſagreement. I hope from your Favour that in the Concerns between me and you, no intereſted Perſon may be admitted to hear the Secrets between the Company and myſelf, and your Orders.

Mr. Middleton's Defence. Mr. Johnſon's Defence.

Honourable Sir and Sirs, Fort William, 28th July 1783.

I have been honoured with your Commands of the 12th Inſtant, through your Secretary, accompanied with a Paper of Charges againſt me, arranged under Sixteen ſeparate Heads, which I am required to anſwer.—

At a Period ſo diſtant from that at which I delivered over the Charge of my Office to Mr. Briſtow, I muſt be permitted to obſerve I was as little prepared to receive as to anſwer Charges againſt me for my Conduct in the Diſcharge of that Office, as the Honourable Board, when they informed me of that Gentleman's Appointment to ſucceed me, communicated not the leaſt Hint of Diſpleaſure, or Diſapprobation of my public Conduct; and unconſcious myſelf of having merited Cenſure, I had not a Doubt but my Removal was in conſequence of the Orders, which I underſtood had been received from the Honourable the Court of Directors for the Reſtoration of Mr. Briſtow to the Reſidency at Oude.—But however unexpected this Call upon me may be, I am very far from complaining of any Occaſion afforded me of explaining my Conduct where it may have been miſunderſtood: On the contrary, I acknowledge my Obligation to the Honourable Board, for permitting me to ſtate collectively my Conduct in the Cloſe of the important Truſt I have been honoured with for ſuch a Series of Years. If I cannot vindicate my Conduct for the Period I ſtand accuſed, I ſhall be leſs forward in claiming Indulgence from the Honourable Board; as a Succeſſion (with ſome Interruptions) of Nine Years Reſidence and Intercourſe with the Court and Provinces of Oude, muſt impreſs an Idea of local Experience and continued Approbation, which would leave no other Conſtruction upon Miſconduct than a wilful Neglect of my Duty, amounting to little leſs than a premeditated and determined Breach of Truſt, loaded with Ingratitude and Treachery to the Intereſts of my Employers.

The Charges before me regarding my Conduct for the Fuſſullee Year 1189—that is, from the 23d September 1781, when my Inſtructions upon the Chunar Treaty were delivered to me, to the 23d of October 1782, when I delivered over Charge to my Succeſſor Mr. Briſtow.

They generally aim to eſtabliſh, 1ſt. That I did not effect the various Objects of the Treaty. 2dly. Diſobedience of ſome ſubſequent, though connected Orders; and, 3dly. Inattention to my Duty upon ſome Heads more connected with a Diſcharge of current Buſineſs, than bearing any relation to the Treaty.

Conceiving theſe Three Diviſions to involve and deſcribe the Outline of my Charges, I ſhall take them up in this Succeſſion to ſpeak to them collectively, as my Correſpondence during that Year to which I ſhall occaſionally refer, will on Examination, I think, be found to have anſwered in Detail the major Part, if not the whole, of what is now before me.

In replying to my firſt Diviſion of the Charge, Non-execution of the Treaty, and Inſtructions that accompanied it, I ſhall beſt avoid Confuſion, and ſhorten what I wiſh to urge, by taking up unitedly the Treaty and Inſtructions, and briefly ſtating, in the oppoſite Column, what was done upon them, premiſing to lead the Attention of the Board, that the grand Object was to liquidate the Nabob's Debt of accumulating Balance to the Company, which the Governor General's Recollection will confirm. To obtain this Liquidation, the Nabob was perſuaded to agree to ſundry Arrangements in his Government and Finance, without which it was deemed impracticable to provide adequate Reſources to accompliſh it within the Year 1189, which, although unexpreſſed, was underſtood to be the Period for the Attainment of this grand Object; nor could it poſſibly be expected to take leſs, becauſe the Vide Preamble to the Governor General's Inſtructions on the Treaty.

Regulations of a Land Revenue (other Resources there are not in Oude) can scarcely operate within the Period of a Year.

For a clearer understanding of my Conduct, it may not be unnecessary to advert to the Situation and Power of a Resident at the Court of Oude, that his Success or Failure in the Services expected from him, may be measured by the Means he shall appear to possess—the only just Criterion.

The Resident, from his Appointment, is the sole Agent from an Ally to the Court he resides in, with Two obvious and peculiar Lines of Duty. One is the political Correspondence for Information of our Government, and the Preservation of a good Understanding between the allied Parties. In addition to this, within these few Years another Object of very material public Concern has become an Appendage of his Office—the receiving the current Claims and Balances due to the Company.

To effect this last Object, he is competent to no positive Act of his own Authority, but is limited to obtain what Success he may, from his Influence over the Nabob's Chief Minister.

The current annual Claims varied from 70 to 130 Lacks of Rupees, which the Revenues of the Country, as will appear by Reference to former Accounts, never answered to, seldom yielding to the Resident's Treasury beyond from 60 to 80 Lacks; the Consequence of which was, that the Balance was annually accumulating, instead of decreasing, by the annual Receipts (a.) [When I took charge of the Office of Collector of the Vizier's Assignments to the Company, this Balance upon the Resident's Book, closed to the End of the Fussullee Year 1187, was 32 Lacks, exclusive of 10½ Lacks, Army Donation. In the Year 1188 it encreased 12 Lacks, making 44 Lacks, when the Governor General arrived at Benares the Beginning of 1189. To discharge so much of this Balance as was due to the Company therefore was the Object of the Treaty; and to insure the Accomplishment of it in the shortest Time possible, a Plan was laid down, one Part of which was the Suspension of sundry Current Claims upon the Nabob, such as Mr. Wombwell's Office, and the temporary and Cavalry Brigades, which together amounted to so heavy an Expence, that, with the Continuance of them, even the current annual Claim could not be answered, much less the abovementioned Balance liquidated. (b) [But the Year 1180, from unforeseen Events, was already began ere the Treaty was signed, and these large Bodies could not be removed without some previous Notice; between Two and Three Months were assigned them for Preparation, in which Time it was supposed sufficient Funds would have been forthcoming for their Discharge. The paying them off involved another Balance of Arrears to them respectively, not included in the Balance of 1187 and 1188 to the Company. These Arrears farther swelled in their Amount, because the monthly Collections, to the Period of their Discharge, were not equal to their Pay and Arrears, and a Provision for the other indispensable Disbursements of my Office, which obliged me to devise other Means of liquidating them; accordingly, after a long Negociation, attended with much Difficulty, I accomplished a Loan at the Beginning of the Year, on my own Credit, of 10 Lacks, without which Exertion the Resources of the whole Year would have been clogged with the encreasing Amount of these Arrears.] While the Effect of my Negotiation was yet in Suspense, another Balance, before * we heard of, amounting to upwards of 26 Lacks, was sent up from the Presidency. Why this Balance was unknown to the Resident, to the Governor General, and consequently not included at the signing the Treaty, will be shewn in its proper Place. I had pledged myself to the Governor General for realizing the Company's Balance, which of course meant the Balance in Agitation before us at the signing of the Treaty, which had this for its declared Object.]

* Sic in Orig.

Notwithstanding which I realized both, as well as the Arrears, then also unknown, and further replaced the Failure of the Assignment on Furruckabad, &c. amounting altogether to 138 Lacks of Fyzabad Siccas, near a Crore and a Half of Current Rupees, instead of 60, 70, or 80 Lacks, which had been the utmost Exertion of the Management of former Years.

The following short Sketch of the gross Amount realized by me, will now clearly explain the foregoing.

Amount Assignments for current Claims, the first Instalments of which I was forced to anticipate by an Advance of 10 Lacks,	— —	76,00,000
Amount Balance, agitated at the signing of the Treaty, deducting Army Donation,		44,00,000
Amount further Balance from the Presidency,	— —	26,00,000
	Rupees of Shorts,	1,46,00,000

This might suffice to shew, that the main Object of the Treaty and my Instructions was fulfilled.—But I now proceed to the separate Heads of them.

(a) Vide supra, P. 546. (b) Vide supra, P. 544.

1ſt Par. Regards the Separation of the Vizier's perſonal Diſburſements from the public Accounts.

This was attended to. Vide Letter from the Reſident, N° 2, and Tranſlation of a Letter from the Miniſter, N° 3.

2d Par. Regarding the Reform of the Sebundy and Moteyna Troops into regular muſtered Eſtabliſhments.

This was alſo done. Vide the above Vouchers.

3d Par. Regarding the Reduction of the Nabob's Moteyna Troops.

This alſo was done; proved by the Miniſter's Offer of Nine Lacks (expreſsly Savings from the Moteyna Reductions) for the Maintenance of Three of the Company's Regiments propoſed to be introduced in their Stead. Vide Reſident's Letter, N° 4.

4th and 5th Pars. Regarding the Vizier's Selection and Appointment of his Commander, under certain Proviſions, and the Reſident's Concurrence with the Miniſter in the Choice of Aumils and Collectors.

Theſe Paragraphs convey eventual Directions, to enforce which no Contingency occurred. They were my Guide in concurring with the Miniſter in the Choice of Aumils and Collectors, when any new ones were appointed, and dictated the Principle on which I concurred with the Miniſter in the Meaſure of increaſing the Farms of Almaſs Ally Cawn, or rather, which was the Fact, reſtoring to him what he had before held. His Reſponſibility was unqueſtionable, and his Attachment to the Engliſh, of which he gave ſeaſonable and unequivocal Proofs during the Benares Inſurrection, proved him worthy of our Confidence.

The Governor General diſtinguiſhed him on this Occaſion with honorary Teſtimonies of his Approbation.

6th Par. Regarding the Inſtitution of Court of Adawlut.

My Inſtructions on this Head, recommending this rather as a Matter for the future Conſideration than immediate Adoption, I did little more in it than lay the Foundation of ſuch Inſtitution.

7th Par. Authorizing Military Aid to be required from Cawnpore, when Emergency ſhould require it.

This I availed myſelf of, as explained at length hereafter in my Reply to the Third Diviſion of my Charge.

Major Scott's was the only Regiment undirected by any immediate Order of the Board. And the Neceſſity of this aroſe from the Execution of my Orders to Fyzabad.

8th Par. Regarding the Removal of unlicenſed Europeans from Lucknow.

This was attended to; vide Reſident's Letter, N° 5 and 6.

The foregoing appears to me to comprehend the Subſtance of the Chunar Treaty, and the Inſtructions given me upon it, which I have in this Place abſtracted, for the ſake of ſhortening my Addreſs, but ſubjoined at large in the Appendix. I have ſtated what was done; I muſt reſt with the Honourable Board to decide how far I have performed my Orders.

I ſhall now ſtate the Circumſtances of the Balances which I am charged for not realizing. I have ſaid, that the Balance, as it ſtood on the Reſident's Books at the ſigning of the Treaty, was the Balance I ſtood pledged to the Governor General to realize. It afterwards appeared, that upon adjuſting the general Books at the Preſidency, a ſeparate Balance, accumulated in a Courſe of Seven Years, was due from the Nabob for Military Stores, &c. ſupplied from the Company's Magazines, Difference of Coinage, and other Heads therein particularized, amounting to 26 Lacks, to the 30th of April 1779. But from Circumſtances unknown to me, no Intimation of any ſuch Claim had ever before been given to me or my Predeceſſors. Notwithſtanding this, and its coming to me unaccompanied with any Order of the Board, I propoſed in my Letter of 21ſt February 1782, N° 8, to recover it, and did actually bring the Amount to Credit in my Accounts for 1189, as ſtated in my Addreſs to the Honourable Board of the 7th September 1782, N° 9.

But after this, when the General Books at the Preſidency were brought up another Year, a further ſimilar Claim appeared for 14 Lacks * for Military Stores, &c. ſupplied the Nabob to that Period, the 30th April 1780. This came too late to be included within the Year 1189 †. I had already exceeded my Pledge, and accepted Reſponſibility from 44 to 70 Lacks, above Half as much again. I could not venture, at ſo advanced a Period, or more properly the Cloſe of the Collections, to extend to 84 Lacks. The new Reſources, formed on new Savings, could not operate without End, nor in ſuch great Proportions, within the firſt Year. Moreover, had I been poſſeſſed of Reſources to enable me to include it, I met a greater Oppoſition from the Nabob and his Miniſter, on the ſecond Claim, than I had experienced on the firſt. Upon explaining the firſt Account to them, when I came to the Charge of Military Stores, they they demanded to have their Deliveries of Military Stores, and the Charge of the Candahar Horſe with the Bombay Detachment, ſet againſt it. When * much Difficulty I prevailed ſo far, as to induce them to ſuſpend this Claim, aſſuring them that it would be duly and equitably conſidered in future Accounts, which the Governor General's Aſſurances afterwards to the Nabob confirmed.—This ſerved once, but would not a ſecond Time; when the Demand of 14 Lacks became repeated on the ſame Grounds, ſo far from acquieſcing, they called on me then to perform the Aſſurances I had given them on the former Occaſion, by ſetting againſt the Account the Amount of their Delivery of Stores, &c. which they would be ſatisfied to have eſtimated by any Mode of Valuation the Board would preſcribe. They agreed, that if I would not agree to this, they muſt conclude that their Claims were not meant to be conſidered, in which Caſe, "I might at once take the Country, ſince Juſtice was out of the Queſtion." This was their paſſionate Language. I for the preſent yielded to it, and referred the Claim to the Conſideration of the Board, who alone could decide upon it.

* This is the groſs Difference; but after reducing the total Balance, by deducting the Batta, it would become ſomething ſhort of 7 Lacks.

† It reached me at Patna in Auguſt. The Year begins in September.

Upwards of Two Crores and a Half, beſides Arrears to Troops recalled, and Failures above explained, for which the Miniſter raiſed 25 or 26 Lacks more. The Nabob's net Revenue, to my Knowledge, never exceeded a Crore and a Half, but generally fell very ſhort of that Sum.]

The ſecond Diviſion which I have made of my Charges, is Diſobedience of ſubſequent, though connected Orders, which alludes to my Conduct at Fyzabad. In this I ſtand accuſed of diſobeying the Governor General's peremptory Commands, which I now proceed to reply to.

Upon the Nabob's Letter to the Honourable the Governor General, forwarded under Date the 2d December 1781, I received the Orders under Date the 26th of the ſame Month; my Diſobedience whereof is made the Foundation of this Charge.

I had given the ſtrongeſt Hopes of liquidating the Company's Balance, for which I ſtood pledged, from the Fruits of this Negociation; and that I ſhould be able to conclude it in Fourteen Days. I performed it within Ten Days after my Arrival at Fayzabad; and I truſt, when the Nature of this Buſineſs becomes duly conſidered, my Conduct in the Execution of it will not appear any more a criminal Diſobedience of Orders, than it was a Breach of Promiſe on theſe Orders; as I underſtood the Caſe, the Nabob had a Claim of Inheritance of his Father's Treaſures upon the Begums. The public Treaſury was unqueſtionably his Right, with the Dominions and Government that devolved upon him at his Father's Death. However, from Conſiderations of Reſpect and Attention to the Begums, the Company (upon their yielding up a Part of the Treaſures of the Deceaſed, declaring it to be the whole) agreed to ſtand between them and any Attack from the Nabob, and further guaranteed Jagheers for their Subſiſtence. The Influence of the Company's Reſident at the Court of the Vizier became the Pledge and Security of his Excellency's Agreement with his Family, and would probably have continued to the preſent Hour, had it not appeared that theſe Begums and their Agents had uſed the Property and Power, thus increaſed and preſerved by our Mediation, as Inſtruments againſt us. They fomented and joined in the Plan of a general Extirpation of the Engliſh. In return for which, the Company's Guarantee was withdrawn. I was no longer to yield to them the Protection of my Office, but leave the Nabob to the Recovery of his Rights; my Part being to take effectual Care that ſuch Recovery ſhould be converted to the Liquidation of the Company's Balance, and generally to aſſiſt the Nabob in effecting the Object. All this I did. I arrived at Fayzabad the 10th January, in Three Days; on the 13th, at Day-break, I put the Nabob in full and quiet Poſſeſſion of the Kella and Palace of the Begums, who were conſequently at his entire Mercy and Devotion. In Seven Days more, on the 20th, the Buſineſs was concluded. Under that Date, I informed the Governor General of my Succeſs, to which he replied in Terms that encouraged me to hope my Conduct and complete Succeſs in that very delicate Buſineſs had met his Approbation; and that the Juſtification of my firſt Proceedings, offered in my Addreſs of the 5th February, would be admitted. The whole Buſineſs took up but Ten Days. I had promiſed Fourteen from the Day of March.

I ſet

I ſet out the 4th from Lucknow, which carries me Two Days beyond my Promiſe: But had it taken Twenty Days, or even a Month, it could not, I flatter myſelf, be termed a long or unwarrantable Delay, when the Importance of the Buſineſs, and the peculiar Embarraſſments attending the Proſecution of it to its deſired End, are conſidered. The Nabob was Son to the Begum we were to proceed againſt. A Son againſt a Mother muſt at leaſt ſave Appearances in his Mode of proceeding. The Produce of his Negociation was to be received by the Company. Receiving a Benefit, accompanying the Nabob, withdrawing their Protection, were Circumſtances ſufficient to mark the Engliſh as the principal Movers in this Buſineſs. At a Court where no Opportunity is loſt to throw Odium upon us, ſo favourable an Occaſion was not miſſed to perſuade the Nabob that we inſtigated him to diſhonour his Family for our Benefit. The Impreſſions made by ſuch Suggeſtions conſtantly retarded the Progreſs, and more than once actually broke off the Buſineſs, which rendered the utmoſt Caution on my Part neceſſary, eſpecially as I had no Aſſiſtance to expect from the Miniſters, who could not openly move in the Buſineſs. In the Eaſt, it is well known that no Man, either by himſelf or his Troops, can enter the Walls of a Zenanâ, ſcarcely in the Caſe of acting againſt an open Enemy, much leſs of an Ally, an Ally acting againſt his own Mother. The outward Walls, and the Begum's Agents, were all that were liable to immediate Attack. They were dealt with, and ſucceſsfully, as the Event proved. I therefore confidently truſt, if it ſhall appear to the Honourable Board, as it does to me, that the Spirit and main Object of my Orders were ſtrictly adhered to and fulfilled, that they will not longer hold me criminal for a Deviation from the preciſe Letter of them.

Of this Delicacy a noble Inſtance was ſhewn to our infinite Credit at Bidjey Gheer,

The Third and laſt Diviſion of my Charge relates to the current Buſineſs of my Office, unconnected with the immediate Objects of the Treaty; this includes Want of political Information, exemplified in the Flight of Almaſs Ally Cawn; Employment of Troops; Diſorders in the Nabob's Country, &c.

In Anſwer to this Charge, I muſt be permitted to obſerve, that beſides the general Information contained in my Liſt of my Public Correſpondence hereto ſubjoined †, immediately after my Arrival at Lucknow, on the 2d October 1781, I gave a complete and particular Detail ‡ of the ſpreading of the Rebellion (influenced by Rajah Cheyt Sing) throughout the Country, with the Teſtimony of Colonel Hannay and other Officers, which was afterwards confirmed in fuller Detail, by the Depoſitions taken on the Spot by Sir Elijah Impey. After this nothing new in that Line occurred, the Rebellion every Day, and in every Quarter, ſubſiding, not encreaſing. Thoſe who roſe in ſupport of the Begum, my Letters from Fayzabad ſtated, but they roſe and fell with the Buſineſs; excepting One of the Aids ſought by the Begums in Bulbudder Sing, who, in ſpite of all our Efforts to cruſh him, continued his Reſiſtance, and fell only Two Months ago.

‡ Vide Letter 17th October N° 14.

The Death of Nudjiff Cawn, with all the Conſequences, probable and actual, attendant on that Event, I duly noticed in a Series of Letters, to which I beg leave to refer §.

§ N° 15, containing Letters of the following Dates; viz. 24th Feb. 9th April, 10th April. Two Letters, 15th ditto. 14th Sept. 15th ditto. 19th ditto.

The ſuppoſed Rebellion and Flight of Almaſs Ally Cawn, I informed the Board, upon my Return to Lucknow in September, was a premature Report, as I had always conſidered and treated it. ‖

The only material Occurrence worthy the Honourable Board's Information relative to the Nabob's interior Government, was the Aſſaſſination of Mirza Abdoola Beg, Aumil of Gorruckpore; which proceeded not from any Diſorders in the Country, but an unfortunate Diſpute with Two of his own immediate Dependents. This Accident was duly communicated to the Board, as well as the Meaſures that had been taken to avert any bad Conſequences, under Date the 27th May 1782 ¶.

‖ Vide Letter of the 7th Sep. N° 16.

¶ Vid. Letter N° 82.

To the other Article, Employment of Troops, I have to obſerve, that there were fewer Regiments on Service in the Nabob's Country, during the Year 1189, than in many, I believe I might affirm any, the preceding Years ſince the preſent Nabob's Acceſſion to the Muſnud, although more might in Reaſon have been expected to be wanted, upon withdrawing of the Stations of Futty Ghur and Daranaghur. The Engliſh Regiments under Colonel Hannay acroſs the Gogra, Captain Gall in Rohilcund, Major Clarke at Allahabad, and Captain Plowden at Lucknow;—theſe regular and other Troops occupied the whole Country in every Direction in former Years. Notwithſtanding Major Crabb's Regiment at Khyrabad, Major Lucas's acroſs the Gogra, Two Regiments in the Doawb, and others were employed, and ſtill more wanted; inſtead of all theſe, in a very turbulent Year, when a Rebellion had ſpread acroſs the Country, only Four Regiments were employed; of theſe Four, Major Nailor's had been called over during the Heat of the Inſurrection at Benares, and ſent to Colonel Hannay's Relief, even before I reached Lucknow.—Another, Major Griffin's, was, in conſequence of the Orders regarding the Fayzabad Buſineſs, called in to put the Begums Jaghires into the Nabob's Hands. A Third moved in conſequence of the Orders of the Board reſpecting Furruckabad, although firſt called in by me in conſequence of the Fayzabad Buſineſs; which had brought Bulbudder Sing into the Begum's Jaghire. The Fourth was obtained by my Aſſiſtant Mr. Johnſon, on an Application to Colonel Blair, in my Abſence, upon his having returned the 23d Regiment (late Major Naylor's) to Dinapore.

Theſe

These are all the Regiments that I directly or indirectly used (a). I say all, because I take it for granted the new Treaty Regiments stationed at Lucknow, for particular Purposes explained in the Treaty, can have no Reference to my Charge.

In a State of almost general Revolt, and the total Recall of 18 Regiments and Battalions of Infantry, and Two of Cavalry, I might, without exposing myself to the Charge of making too free an Use of the Power given me by my Instructions (b), have called in as many Troops at least as were used in Times of Peace and Quiet, when all these were in being, and fully stationed for the Nabob's Service; consequently I must hope, I shall not appear criminal in the Judgment of the Honourable Board, when I shew that myself and Assistant in my Absence, of our own Motion only called in Two Regiments, and One of those in Exchange for another returned into Cantonments.

I cannot conclude this Address without offering my Apology to the Honourable Board for the long Intrusion I have been compelled to make upon them. I will not trespass longer on their Time; but here close what I have to urge in Vindication of my Conduct on the Charges preferred against me.

If in the course of the foregoing Recital, supported by the several Vouchers I have annexed, I shall have shewn, that I accomplished the grand Objects of the Treaty by liquidating not only the Balance I stood pledged for, but the new Claim from the Presidency; that I effected the several Regulations prescribed by my Instructions to bring about this Liquidation by the total Resumption of the Jaghires (excepting Fayzoola Cawn's only), and the Arrangement and Reduction of the Mooteyna; that I further fulfilled the Objects of my Orders respecting the Begums at Fayzabad, within Ten Days after my Arrival there; and finally that I discharged the current Business and Duties of my Station by realizing the current Claims, quelling the Insurrection extending from Benares to the Extremity of Rohilcund, and subduing such other Disturbances as are perpetually arising from the Turbulence of the Zemindars without the Aid of more Troops than shall be found to have been employed in former Years; I assure myself, from the Justice of the Honourable Board, that they will declare me fully acquitted of the Responsibility with which I was charged at the Conclusion of the Treaty, and deem me warranted in the Belief I had formed, that my Recall was the necessary Consequence of Obedience to the Orders of the Court of Directors in favour of my Successor, and not for any Delinquency or Misconduct on my Part.

Earnestly intreating the Honourable Board to relieve my anxious Suspense, by indulging me with as early a Decision on my Conduct as may suit with their more important Occupations,

I have the Honour to subscribe myself, with the highest Respect, Calcutta, 30th June 1783. (Signed) Nath. Middleton.

P. S. I have thought it unnecessary to mention that I have made no Distinction, in quoting my Public Correspondence, between Letters addressed to the Board and to the Governor General; the Orders of the Honourable Board of the Third July 1781 (never since revoked) precluding the Necessity of such Distinction. Vide Orders N° 21.

Such Subjects as could not, without Interruption, be brought into this collective Statement of my Conduct, I have placed opposite the Charges they respectively regard, and request they may be received as a Part of my Answer to the Charges.

Charges againſt Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, with his Anſwers.

Charge the 1ſt.

For leaving unexecuted the ſeveral Articles of the Governor General's peremptory Orders and Inſtructions to you, dated at Chunar the 20th September 1781, notwithſtanding theſe Inſtructions enjoined and commanded your ſtricteſt Obedience, and were, both by the Vizier's formal Agreement, on which they were founded, and by the Tenor of them, intended to be carried into immediate Effect, the Object of them being the Reduction of the Vizier's Debt to the Company, which was in a conſtant State of Accumulation; and a conſciouſneſs of it ſeemed implied in your Firſt Letter from Lucknow, dated 4th October 1781, which contained the following Words: "We have "not yet been able to enter on any Buſineſs of "any Moment, but you may reſt aſſured no "Time ſhall be unneceſſarily conſumed." And in your Letter of the 12th October, where you write in the moſt preſſing Terms for the Recall of the late temporary Brigade, as being a Part of the Reform; and notwithſtanding the Governor General, on the 26th December following, finding that you had not to that Time

Anſwer to the 1ſt Charge.

This I have fully anſwered in my Firſt Diviſion of my Charges in the accompanying Addreſs. I arrived at Lucknow only on the 2d of October; a Letter therefore of the 4th, however expreſſed, could not mean to acknowledge a Conſciouſneſs of Neglect or unneceſſary Delay; ſince it muſt be evident to every one that much more than Two Days would be required to concert the Means of carrying ſuch weighty Points into Execution. If I wrote preſſingly on the 12th, reſpecting the Troops removed by Treaty, it muſt be adverted to, that I could not with Propriety enforce our Claim upon the Nabob for his Part of the Treaty whilſt it was in his Power to plead that the previous Steps, upon which his Conditions were founded, had not yet taken place; and further, if on the 26th December it did appear that the Regulations had not been fulfilled, it muſt be remembered that I had the whole Year before me, within which Period I entertained the moſt ſanguine and well-grounded Expectations of accompliſhing the grand Object of the Treaty. Rough and haſty Meaſures might have Time taken any Steps towards accompliſhing the Treaty in the Points in which the Vizier had engaged the Interference of our Government, wrote to you, that "the Reformation "of the Vizier's Army, and the new Settle- "ment of his Revenues, were Points of im- "mediate Concern, and ought to be imme- "diately concluded;" and added, "I now "demand and require you moſt ſolemnly to "anſwer me: Are you confident in your own "Ability to accompliſh all theſe Purpoſes, and "the other Points of my Inſtructions? If you "reply that you are, I will depart with a quiet "and aſſured Mind to the Preſidency, but "leave you a dreadful Reſponſibility if you "diſappoint me. If you tell me that you "cannot rely on your Power, and the other "Means which you poſſeſs, for performing "theſe Services, I will free you from the "Charge. I will proceed myſelf to Lucknow, "and I will myſelf undertake them."—"I "confidently reply that I am fully competent "to undertake and effect the Completion of "the Reform upon the Grounds ſtated in my "Anſwer to the Fourth Paragraph, and there- "fore again repeat that your coming here is "unneceſſary." Your Anſwer to the Fourth Paragraph admits, that you have erred in ſuppoſing that the Reform was not meant to take place that Year; and adds, that "the Inſtant "the Fyzabad Buſineſs is finiſhed, which can- "not take more than One Fortnight from the "Day of marching there, I ſhall take ſuch "Steps as the Means in my Power will admit "of, towards procuring from the Nabob Or- "ders to each Aumil to pay his groſs Reve- "nues to the Miniſters, and to receive the Pay "of their Troops, being reduced into regular "muſtered Eſtabliſhments, from the General "Treaſury; and ſhould he refuſe, I will iſſue "my own, together with thoſe of the Mini- "ſters to that Purpoſe;" and further, "that "theſe Three Points complete the Heads of "your (the Governor General's) Recommenda- "tion to the Nabob." Upon the Strength of theſe Aſſurances, the Governor General deſiſted from his Intention to viſit Lucknow, as he hoped it would be unneceſſary, and returned immediately to the Preſidency, leaving upon you the Reſponſibility he had denounced.

Charge the 2d.

For giving not only precipitate and unwarranted Aſſurances, as above quoted, but contradictory Information of Facts; for, by your Letters of the 11th February 1782 to the Governor General, you ſay, you encloſe from the Vizier, "informing him of the Compli- "ance with the only Points that remained un- "finiſhed of his Part of the late Agreements, "&c." and add, "I have, in Confirmation of "the above-mentioned Letter, received One "from the Miniſter, informing me of the Ac- "compliſhment of this Reform; from which, "with the total Reſumption of all Jagheers, "which is now perfectly completed, I have every "Reaſon to hope for the moſt beneficial Re- "ſult, have cauſed a total Failure—I ſucceeded without them—I was confident I ſhould ſucceed—I therefore, without a Moment's Heſitation, made the Anſwer ſtated in this Charge; and the Event, when weighed upon my preſent Repreſentation, will, I truſt, ſhew that I was well grounded and juſtified in ſo doing. With regard to the Meaſures preſcribed by the Treaty, I * underſtood that I was directly to interfere in the Nabob's Management further than might be neceſſary to enſure the Liquidation of the Company's Balance, which my Inſtructions hold out to me as the Drift and chief Aim of the Treaty. This End I obtained; the Reſponſibility I muſt therefore again expreſs my Hope ſtands diſcharged by my Accounts of 1189 having not One Anna Balance upon them all. Preceding annual Accounts had many Lacks Balance on them.

Anſwer to the 2d Charge.

However my Anxiety to diſcharge my Duty to the Public, and acquit myſelf of the Reſponſibility with which I ſtood charged, may have made me precipitate in ſtating my Proceedings, or however Inaccuracy of Style, or the Want of connecting Expletives, may have cauſed my Informations ſometimes to appear contradictory, I ſhall not ſeek to occupy much of the Honourable Board's Time in attempting to give a better Gloſs to my Words. My chief Study and Hope have been to obtain their Approbation to my Actions; for which Reaſon I have endeavoured to bring them in a collective View before them as clearly as it has laid in my Power; for any Inaccuracies, Omiſſions;

" ſult, and that every Part of this Govern" ment will now be in a State of Regularity
" and Tranquillity ſcarcely ever before ex" perienced."

" I alſo truſt that you will now deem every
" Wiſh expreſſed in your Inſtructions to me
" performed." Again, in your Letter to the Governor of the 10th March following, you ſay, " Having ſucceeded in the Impreſſion
" which I wiſhed to make on the Miniſters,
" and the Reduction which has been made in
" the Nabob's Mooteyana Troops ſtrengthen-
" ing the Ground I had argued on, I availed
" myſelf of this Opportunity to propoſe an " Eſtabliſhment of the Company's Troops." In your Letter to him of the 20th of that Month, you ſay, " In order to complete the " Check you have directed over the Mooteyana and their Payment, I have been neceſ-
" ſitated to appoint an Aumeen to receive and " remit to me the Collections of Letafut Ally
" Cawn's Jaidads, &c." And in your Letter of the 25th March 1782, addreſſed to the Governor General, you defined the particular Manner in which the ſeveral Parts of your Inſtructions had been carried into Execution; but by your Letter of the 17th September 1782, addreſſed to the Board, you only then declare, that you had ſtationed an Agent of your own in each Aumildarry throughout thoſe Provinces as Muſter-maſter of the Mooteyana Troops, and ſay, " that you could not with " Propriety have taken ſo deciſive a Line in " this Buſineſs at an earlier Period, as the " Nabob and Miniſters returning to the Ca" pital ſo late as the Month of October, found
" themſelves obliged to continue the Aumils
" already in Employ in their reſpective Truſts,
" or riſk by new Appointments at that ad" vanced Seaſon, the Loſs of the whole Collec" tions on the Keeriff or Firſt Crop, amounting " to Two Fifths of the Aumial Revenue, and
" the ſame Circumſtances involved the Neceſ-
" ſity of leaving their Agreements nearly in the " Form in which they ſtood in the preceding " Year. Hence it became difficult and danger" ous to take any immediate Steps for the In" troduction of the Governor General's Ar" rangements, beyond laying the Foundations
" of a future Reform, which was duly at" tended to; and theſe I can now ſecurely
" build upon, as, by availing myſelf of this " early Period, every Amil is apprized of the " Terms on which he embarks, and left with" out Excuſe for any Failure in his Engage" ments." And then deferring till September 1782, what you thought it too late in the Seaſon to carry into Execution in October 1781, although you had urgent and poſitive Orders for doing it immediately, and although you reported the actual Performance thereof to have been paſſed in your Letters above quoted.

or Contradictions, not affecting my eſſential Duty, I muſt crave their Indulgence. But as it is my ſincere Deſire to yield the Honourable Board the utmoſt Satisfaction I am able upon every Head on which I ſtand accuſed; I will intrude upon them a few Moments in reſpect to the Two contradictory Letters alluded to in this Charge. The Caſe was thus: On the 11th February * I addreſſed the Governor General, and encloſed the Nabob's Letters; ſtating that the Plan of œconomical Arrangements, directed by the Treaty, had been as far executed as it then could, that is, by the Court's having iſſued Orders throughout the Country conſonant to the Modes laid down. The Efficacy of thoſe Orders, and the Mode of executing them, could not be immediately apparent. In the Execution, the Irregularity and Confuſion, and in ſome Points the Duplicity, of Eaſtern Government, ultimately became too obvious; I then confirmed what they had done, by joining throughout Agents of my own. This I informed the Board of, under Date 17th September (a), without obſerving to connect it with had been written before, as now explained; which Omiſſion I truſt is the Extent of the Crime the Honourable Board will ſee fit to charge me with under this Article.

* Vide N° 2.

(a) Vide No. 17. Note, In this Letter it is propoſed that Four of the Company's Regiments ſhould be introduced, amounting to 12 Lacks per annum, in lieu of the reduced Mooteyana, the Savings of which had before been declared only equal to the Maintenance of Three Regiments.

Charge

Charge the 3d.

For theſe and other Contradictions and Inconſiſtencies particularly pointed out to you in the Governor General's Letters, dated 1ſt and 3d January 1782.

Anſwer to the 3d Charge.

This being a Part of the foregoing Charge, containing no new Matter, my Anſwer of courſe includes it.

Charge the 4th.

For not reporting to the Governor General, or to the Board, the Progreſs which you had made from Time to Time in your Endeavours to comply with his Inſtructions; and if you met with any Impediments in the Execution of them, for omitting to ſtate theſe Impediments, and to apply for freſh Orders upon them.

Anſwer to the 4th Charge.

Annexed is my Liſt of Public Correſpondence. It contained Information of all the Impediments I met with. I do not recollect meeting with any material Difficulties or Impediments, or I ſhould undoubtedly have repreſented them, and applied for freſh Orders.

Charge the 5th.

For Diſobedience to the Governor General's peremptory Orders of the 26th December 1781, contained in the following Words: "I "approve the Nabob's Reſolution to deprive "the Begums of their ill-employed Treaſures. "In both Services it muſt be your Care to "prevent an Abuſe of the Power given to "thoſe that are employed in them. You "yourſelf ought to be perſonally preſent. "You muſt not allow any Negociation or Forbearance, but muſt proſecute both Services "until the Begums are at the entire Mercy of "the Nabob, &c." Whereas by a Letter from Major Naylor to the Governor General, dated at Camp Kella Fyzabad, 14th January 1782, it is declared as follows: "After my Arrival, "a Couple of Days paſſed in Negociation, but "without Effect; and the Party in the Town, "collecting and hourly gaining Strength, at "length, after mature Deliberation, it was re"ſolved that I ſhould, with my Regiment and "Four Guns, ſtorm the Town, which I ef"fected the 12th in the Morning." And by this Diſobedience of the Order, which forbade any Negociation or Forbearance, you allowed Time for Oppoſition, which evidently had been meditated, to take its full Effect, and for the Concealment of the Wealth (a) which was in the Begum's Poſſeſſion, as is acknowledged by your Letter of the 18th January to the Governor General. Your Letter of the 5th February is not a ſufficient Exculpation from this Charge, as the Forbearance alluded to was before the Attack of the Kella, and not "after "the Begums were to be conſidered as entirely "at the Mercy of the Nabob," which is the Time it alludes to. It might be good Policy, after they were ſo reduced, to obſerve a temporizing Conduct, becauſe the Treaſure was then concealed, and none but the Acceſſaries to its Concealment were acquainted with the Places where it was depoſited.

Anſwer to the 5th Charge.

This ſtands fully anſwered and explained in my Second Diviſion of my Charges in the accompanying Letter.

(a) Note, The Treaſure of the Begums had been concealed long before we arrived at Fayzabad, and the Two principal Eunuchs, who alone were privy to its Concealment, had taken refuge in the Begum's private Apartments upon the Alarm of our Approach; from whence, under the Circumſtances ſtated in my Anſwer to the Second Diviſion of my Charge, it would have been extremely difficult, perhaps abſolutely impoſſible, to have ſecured them by any other Means than by Negociation. Their Eſcape would probably have defeated One great Purpoſe of this Buſineſs, as even the Begums themſelves did not know where their Treaſures were concealed.

Charge the 6th.

For neglecting to realize the whole of the Vizier's Debt to the Company at the End of the Year 1189 Fuſſulee, notwithſtanding your repeated Aſſurances that it ſhould be completely liquidated by that Time, and in particular the Aſſurances contained in your Letter to the Governor General, dated 6th December 1781, "that from the Begums alone "you had no Doubt of the complete Liqui-"dation of the Company's Balance."

Anſwer to the 6th Charge.

A Reference to my Accounts for 1189 would leave me little to ſay in Anſwer to this Charge; I have however further explained myſelf on this Subject in my Reply to the Firſt Diviſion of my Charges. The Amount received from the Begums did preciſely diſcharge the Balance alluded to on the 6th December. It amounted to 44 Lacks, and was the Balance I had pledged myſelf for.

Charge the 7th.

For neglecting to ſecure the Means of liquidating this Debt, by only taking Tuncaws, or Aſſignments upon the Country for the Sum of Rupees 76,37,458, when you muſt have known that the Demand on the Vizier for that Year (1189) would amount to more than double that Sum.

Anſwer to the 7th Charge.

My Reaſons for limiting the Company's Aſſignments for the Year 1189 to Rupees 76,37,458, are ſtated at large in my Addreſſes of the 30th December 1781, and 7th September 1782*, to which I refer. They were equal to the eſtimated Amount of the Current Claims. The Company's Balance was to be paid from Fayzabad; and theſe Two comprehended all the then known Company's Claims upon the Nabob.

*N° 18 and 9.

Charge the 8th.

For omitting, according to annual Cuſtom and the poſitive Orders of the Board, to ſend down to them a regular Account of the Demands upon the Vizier for the Year 1189, and of the Aſſignments taken to ſatisfy thoſe Demands, and for accepting the Aſſignments without the Authority of the Board.

Anſwer to the 8th Charge.

Upon referring to my Addreſs of the 30th December 1781, No. 18, it will appear that the Account of the Demands on the Vizier for the Year 1189, together with a Liſt of the Aſſignments taken for the Satisfaction of them, were as uſual forwarded, and afterwards particularly referred to by me under Date the 7th September, No. 9, in Anſwer to a ſimilar Charge conveyed by the Board's Commands of the 7th July preceding; the Aſſignments not being objected to, I deemed an Authority for accepting them.

Charge the 9th.

For omitting to take any Notice of the additional Balance of Rupees 26,48,571, ſtated by the Accountant General to be due from the Vizier to the Company on the 30th April 1780, and not charged to him by the Reſident, although ſuch a formal Intimation of it from the Accountant General, as you received, was at leaſt a ſufficient Authority to have induced you to apply for the Board's Orders concerning *, had you been otherwiſe dubious about admitting it; and although it aroſe from poſitive Charges and Demands upon the Vizier, which ought to have been carried immediately to his Account, and could not be in the leaſt affected by any Counter-claims of the Vizier, which, if allowed to be juſt, he might equally receive Credit for in Account at any future Time after they had been ſo allowed.

*Sic in Orig.

Anſwer to the 9th Charge.

This Amount I recovered and brought to Credit, as ſtated in my Firſt Diviſion of my Charges. Upon referring to my Addreſs of the 21ſt of February 1782, No. 8, the Honourable Board will perceive, that I did at that Period notice this Balance, and that although unfurniſhed with any Orders for realiſing it, and the Claim itſelf oppoſed with Counter-demands, I did not neglect to make the beſt Proviſion I could for it. I am happy the Board notice the Nabob's Counter-claim, as it affords me their Sanction for the very ſame Words which I uſed to the Court at Lucknow on this Occaſion.

Charge the 10th.

For anticipating the Revenues of the Vizier's Country, and burthening them with an enormous Load of Intereſt, by mortgaging Aſſignments upon them to the Shroff, at the Uſury of 2 per Cent. per Menſem, in order to accompliſh a Remittance of the above additional

The

*Sic in Orig.

Charge the 11th.

For loading the Vizier's Revenues in like Manner with the further usurious Charge of 2 per Cent. per Mensem, in order to anticipate the Liquidation of the Excess of Disbursements beyond the Amount which you had received Assignments for at the Beginning of the Year 1189, by mortgaging to the Shroffs the Balances of the Assignments uncollected at the End of the said Year 1189.

The last Collections of the Balances of the Assignments annually granted for the Satisfaction of the Company's Claims upon the Nabob usually run Two Months, and often more, into the new Year, which Time elapses before the Amils can adjust their Accounts at the Capital, and be ready to depart upon their new Agreements. In order therefore to prevent the Nabob from appearing to have failed in his Part of the Execution of the Treaty of Chunar, by which he was to liquidate his Debt to the Company within that Year, and to the Performance of which, this customary Delay would have given a false Appearance, this Agreement joining in its Issue with an Advantage to the Company by a more speedy Payment and Supply, it was mutually agreed (a) to raise the Amount of the outstanding Balances from the Shroffs, they to grant Bills or Pauts as wanted for Payment at Lucknow, or Remittance to the Presidency, in Exchange for, or in Advance upon, the said Balances, which thenceforward became payable to them, the Nabob allowing them the customary Interest of the Country for their Money while they remained out of it.

The Shroffs, upon the Strength of the English Faith, accepted the Proposal, and accordingly granted the Bills for the whole Balance, as brought to Credit in my Accounts to the last Day of August transmitted to the Board. The original Deed for the Security of the Shroffs was authenticated by the Seals of the Nabob and the Ministers; and, as a further Security and Satisfaction to them, I also was compelled to yield them an Obligation under my own Signature, by which, with the Nabob's Acquiescence, I stood pledged to see the Conditions of the Agreement, as stated above, duly performed. I think it necessary in this Place to observe, that I afterwards prevailed upon the Shroffs to return me the Obligation I had executed, upon Almas Ally Cawn's having, at the Solicitations of the Minister, become their Security.

The Balances thus realised by these Means, it was again proposed to the Shroffs to agree to a further Advance in like Manner of Twenty-six Lacks, to make up the Difference of Balance stated in the Nabob's Accounts at the Presidency; the Advance to be upon similar Terms with the Negociation for the Balances of the Assignments. To this they also agreed, pointedly repeating that they were stimulated by their Faith upon the English. The Nabob and Ministers signed this Agreement, but not the Resident.

The Security and Funds for Repayment of this latter, were chiefly the resumed Jaghires or alienated Estates from the Government Lands, which before formed no Part of the Nabob's Revenue, and consequently the assigning them, which in no Shape curtailed his Power or usual Resources, or interfered with those Lands upon which the Assignments for the Company were granted, could not, any more than in the preceding Caſe, be deemed an Anticipation of the Nabob's uſual Revenue; and that it did not affect his Powers, is proved by the ſeparate Grant of the Company's Aſſignments for the Year 1190, made at the ſame Time, and iſſued with the Orders for the Payment of the Shroffs.

(a) The Measure suggested and actually concluded by the Minister, I only gave my Sanction to it.

Charge the 12th.

For endeavouring to conceal from us the Knowledge of the Rebellion of Almaſs Ally Cawn, the Vizier's principal Renter, by ſtudiouſly avoiding the Mention of his Diſobedience and Flight, which, from the Treaſures and Forces he carried with him, threatened to involve the Vizier's Country in a State of Warfare.

Anſwer to the 12th Charge.

This Rebellion and Flight I never believed, but always denied. When I left Lucknow with the Governor General's Permiſſion in June 1782, I left Almaſs Ally Cawn peaceably occupied in the Duties of his Aumildarry, and ſo I found him on my Return the Beginning of September following.

My Letter of the 7th of that Month, No. 16, informed the Board that I had found the Reports of Almaſs Ally Cawn's Flight premature. Under the Influence of this Statement I cannot be held criminal, ſince I could not endeavour to conceal what I did not know or believe exiſted.

Charge the 13th.

For afterwards purſuing Meaſures to increaſe the Power of Almaſs Ally Cawn (already too formidable for a Subject), by procuring for him, on his Return to Lucknow, a Grant of additional Diſtricts, on the Condition of his becoming bound to the Shroffs for the Payment of the Tuncaws or Aſſignments in their favour, and thereby realiſing your own Security to them for the Liquidation of thoſe Tuncaws.

Anſwer to the 13th Charge.

I purſued no Meaſure to this Effect. The Miniſter himſelf did this firſt, and aſked my Concurrence afterwards. This Concurrence I could not deny him upon the Grounds of the Treaty, and the 4th and 5th Articles of the Inſtructions I acted under. If he was too great for a Subject, it would ſeem to me it was ſo much to our Benefit, after the Proof he gave of his Attachment to the Engliſh when the Combination appeared, and was deemed univerſal againſt us. I at this Moment believe him poſſeſſed of the ſame favourable Sentiments towards us. I hope the Day is far off to prove this Aſſertion.

Charge the 14th.

For neglecting to adviſe us of the Diſturbance at Daranagur, when Two of the Vizier's Battalions were attacked and diſperſed by a Body of Fyzoola Cawn's Horſe; and the Conſequences might have been more ſerious from this Effect, although it appears to have proceeded from a private Fray, and was * authoriſed and unknown by Fyzoola Cawn.

Anſwer to the 14th Charge.

This Charge has alſo been laid againſt my Aſſiſtant. He was at Lucknow when the Event happened—I was at Patna. He has given his Reaſons for not addreſſing the Board on this Head.

Charge the 15th.

For neglecting on every other Occaſion of Diſaffection or Diſturbance in the Vizier's Aumils to report them to the Board, although conſiderable Detachments were made from † Brigade to quell ſuch Diſturbances by your own Requiſition, or that of your Aſſiſtant, Mr. Richard Johnſon.

I have ſaid that no conſiderable Events of the Nature here alluded to did occur, excepting what my Letters regarding Colonel Hannay, and the ſubſequent ones reſpecting the Begums and the Fayzabad Buſineſs, ſtated. The Detachments I obtained from the Brigade, I have alſo explained and ſtated at Length in my Third Diviſion of my Charge in the accompanying Letter.

Anſwer to the 16th Charge.

I know no eſſential Occurrence that I omitted to inform the Board of, far leſs that I attempted you knew them to be under such precarious Dependance as to require the constant Awe of Military Force to prevent a Civil War, from the Machinations of rebellious Zemindars; when you knew likewise that we were surrounded by Enemies (the Peace of the Mahrattas not having then been ratified at Poona); for endeavouring at such a Crisis to increase the Number of our Enemies, and consequently an Expedition, in concert with the Vizier, to deprive Fyzoola Cawn of his Zemindarry, although you acknowledge in the same Letter, that "the Possession * of Fyzoola Cawn are so "situated, that there is no Possibility of cut-"ting off his Retreat whenever he might "choose to attempt it. And again, that there "can be no Doubt but Zabita Cawn, with "whom he is closely connected, and keeps up "a constant Intercourse, would seize any "Opening which might yield him the faintest "Hopes of recovering his hereditary Posses-"sions in Rohilcund."

tempted to conceal. No Force I ever employed during the Year was considered by me to be employed to prevent a Civil War, excepting what I stated from Fyzabad; and even there, no Part of the Country ever promised to rise exclusively of the Begum's own Jaguire. The Turbulence of the Zemindars or Jageirdars never to me bore the Appearance of tending to a Civil War; Disturbances arising from Disputes among the Zemindars themselves, or with the Officers of Government upon withholding their Revenue, could not deserve that Name. Such happened almost every Day, but they were never considered in any serious Light, and subsided with the first Efforts of Government to subdue them. With regard to Fyzulla Khan, he was particularly mentioned in the Treaty and my Instructions. He has long caused great Uneasiness to the Nabob, who constantly combats the Policy of that Chief's Position. I communicated in several Letters (vide No. 19.) my increasing Distrust of him: Nothing but a proper Time was understood to be required to delay the Change in his Situation, as agreed upon in the Treaty. The Inexpediency and Danger of continuing Jagheirs so fully proved in September 1781 applied most directly to his Situation: There appeared to me an urgent Necessity at all Events for checking the Conduct he was pursuing, which evidently aimed at Independency and an Increase of Strength, by Connections with Powers notoriously disaffected to the Vizier's Government. Early Periods are best to act upon well * Suspicions well grounded; and I was † no Obstacle which could, in my Judgment, operate as a valid Objection against the Measure I proposed. Hostilities with the Mahrattas on this Side of India (although the Peace was not ratified at Poona) had ceased, and our Detachment, which had been acting against Mahadajie Sindia, in consequence returned within the Provinces. The Powers to the Westward were too much occupied with their own Dissensions, and the Events succeeding the Death of Nudjif Cawn, to be able, or attempt, to afford any Assistance to Fyzulla Cawn. The Nabob's own Country was in Peace: This therefore, to my Judgment, appeared as favourable and unexceptionable a Conjuncture as was ever likely to occur, to enforce the Article of the Treaty respecting this Chief, which was to give him a Stipend in Money equal to the Income of his Jageer instead of Land. It did not absolutely follow that a Rupture was to ensue; and it would have been his own Fault if it had happened. These were my Motives for the Recommendation contained in my Letter of the 17th September, No. 17. To which I shall only further add, that I stated the Case, and left the Period, Mode, and Approbation, or total Rejection, to the Board.

Sir,

I have the Honour herewith to tranſmit a Letter addreſſed to you by the Nabob Vizier, informing you of his Compliance with the only Points that remain unfiniſhed of his Part of the late Agreement made with you, by having changed the Mode of the Receipt of his Revenues, now ordered to be all paid at the Huzzoor, to the Miniſters by whom all the Tuncawdars and Mooteynah, &c. are to be paid, the Nabob firſt paying himſelf the Expences of his private Purſe, eſtimated at the Medium Receipts of the laſt Three Years.

I have, in confirmation of the above-mentioned Letter, received one from the Miniſter, informing me of the Accompliſhment of this Reform, from which, with the total Reſumption of all Jagheers, which is now perfectly completed, I have every Reaſon to hope for the moſt beneficial Reſult, and that every Part of this Government will now be in a State of Regularity and Tranquillity before * experienced.

A true Tranſlation.

(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

To the Honoourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

Upon the Spirit of your former Orders, relative to the Appointment of a Detachment under Sir John Cumming, for the Support and Protection of the Vizier's internal Government, and your ſubſequent Letters declaratory of your Senſe of the Footing on which the ſubſidiary Brigade muſt be underſtood to remain with his Excellency, I have had repeated Converſations with the Miniſters, endeavouring to ſhew the Impropriety of making Detachments from the Frontier Brigade, originally intended ſolely for the Nabob's Dominions againſt a foreign Enemy, for the Aſſiſtance of the Aumils, or rather ordinary Services of the Collections, and to convince them of the Impoſſibility of continuing that Practice, now that the whole effective Force of the Country was reduced to One Brigade, without perverting the obvious Deſign of its Eſtabliſhment, and thereby riſking Conſequences to the Honourable Company's Arms and his Excellency's Government, which is † equally behoved them and myſelf to avoid; as, from the frequent Calls for ſuch Aid, the Nature of the Service, and the very remote Diſtance to which the Troops were occaſionally ſent, either ‡ the neceſſary Attention to their Diſcipline could be paid, nor their Rejunction effected upon any Emergency which might call for the immediate Exertion of the whole Force of the Brigade.

† Sic in Orig.

‡ Sic in Orig.

Having ſucceeded in the Impreſſion which I wiſhed to make on the Miniſters, and the Reduction which has been made in the Nabob's Mooteyna Troops ſtrengthening the Grounds I had argued upon, I availed myſelf of this Opportunity to propoſe an Eſtabliſhment of the Honourable Company's Troops, which ſhould at once obviate the Neceſſity of applying to the ſubſidiary Brigade for Aſſiſtance, and enable the Nabobs § make ſtill further Reduction on his Mooteyna and Sebundy Eſtabliſhments. Three Regiments, with their Guns and complete Artillery Eſtabliſhments, I am of opinion would anſwer this Purpoſe, and the Miniſters are now ſo thoroughly convinced of the Utility of it, that they have authoriſed me to ſubmit the Meaſure to your Conſideration, with an Aſſurance that they will cheerfully co-operate with me in carrying it into immediate Execution, ſhould it meet with your Approbation.

§ Sic in Orig.

To leave as little as poſſible for future Diſcuſſion, and that no Diſpute might ariſe about the Payment of this Eſtabliſhment, I propoſed a Subſidy of 25,000 Rupees per Menſem for each Regiment, or 75,600 for the whole; which Terms will be agreed to, and I hope be deemed ſatisfactory by you, as they will be fully adequate to every poſſible Expence of the Eſtabliſhment, without Staff or Commanding Officer, which, I preſume, you will not conſider neceſſary, as the Regiments muſt of courſe always be ſtationed, and employed ſeparately, to make them anſwer the Purpoſe for which they are intended.

I loſe not a Moment, Sir, in communicating this propoſed Arrangement to you in its preſent Stage, that I may immediately receive your Sentiments and Commands upon it; and I am happy in the Opportunity which it, at the ſame Time, affords me of evincing to you the Attention which has been paid to your Orders reſpecting the Reduction of the Nabob's Mooteyna, as well as the inſtant beneficial Effect of them, ſince the Expence of the Eſtabliſhment I now propoſe it to be defrayed from that Fund, without the ſmalleſt additional Charge to the Nabob's Government.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect, Sir,

Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,

Lucknow, the 10th March 1782.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I have received the Honour of your Commands, under Date the 27th February.

I had carried the original Treaty down with me, in obedience to your Orders of the 19th December, but having determined, upon Receipt of your Firſt above-mentioned Letter, to return immediately to my Station, I have brought it back with me, and ſhall now forward it by the firſt ſafe Conveyance.

In obedience to the Explanation you require of the general Aſſertion, that the Objects of the late Treaty have been fulfilled; I now proceed to recapitulate unitedly what I have hitherto in detached Letters taken the Liberty of ſubmitting to you; and for Regularity I ſhall take up the Paragraphs of your Inſtructions accompanying the Chunar Treaty, in the Order they ſtand.

Paragraph the Firſt requires the Execution of the ſeveral Articles of the Treaty, being Five in Number.

The Firſt has been fully effected by the complete Payment of all Arrears and the March of the temporary and Cavalry Brigade into the Provinces. Nothing remains but the Return or Adjuſtment of the Value of the Stores furniſhed by the Nabob when the temporary Brigade was firſt eſtabliſhed, of which only Nine Pieces of Field Artillery have yet been returned by Colonel Morgan. The encloſed is a Letter from the Nabob upon the Subject.

Mr. Wombwell's Office has been fully paid off and diſcharged, and all the Arms and Stores of the different Corps delivered to the Nabob; and aſſerts * for the Payment of the extra Regiment ſtationed at Lucnow included † the Aſſignments for the Current Year.

* Sic in Orig.

† Sic in Orig.

The Second Article relates to the Reſumption of the Jaguire Lands. This has been fully effected. The Three moſt conſiderable are now under my Charge. The Bow Begums, Salar Jung and Letafutally Cawns, a Meaſure I was driven to enforce on account of the Mode on which the Firſt Reſumption of the Jaguires was conducted, which by leaving the reſumed Lands in the Farm of thoſe who before held them on behalf of the Jaghuirdars, little more than a Shadow of the intended Change was effected.

* Sic in Orig.

† Sic in Orig.

The Third Article, which includes the Jaguire of Fizulla Cawn among the reſt, * hitherto been deferred by the Poſtſcript to your general Inſtructions, which forbids it until Circumſtance † may render it more expedient and eaſy to be attempted than the preſent more material Purſuits of Government make it appear. However, I beg leave to repeat, that a Stipend or Allowance in Ready Money to that Chief in lieu of his Jaguire Lands, ſituated and peopled as they are by his own Tribe, in Vicinity to Three capital Territories of the ſame Caſt, would be far more conducive to the Intereſts and Security of this Government; and as ſuch permit me to recommend it to your Conſideration.

The Fourth Article, as far as regarded this Office, was fulfilled h ee.

The Fifth and laſt Account, being only a Proviſion for a future eventual Contingency, was liable to no Exertion here.

The Counterpart of the Treaty, being the Arrangements which the Nabob pledged himſelf to effect towards introducing Œconomy into his Finances, conſiſting chiefly in Three Points, the Reduction and Regulation of his Mooteyenah Troops, the Reparation of his Private Purſe from the Public Funds, and placing the latter under the ſeparate Management of the Miniſters. The firſt of theſe Meaſures is in as great forwardneſs as it is poſſible; Pay and Muſter Maſters having been appointed to the whole, and the Saving already made produced a Fund equal to defray the eſtabliſhed Charge of Three Regiments, as propoſed in my Addreſs of the 10th Inſtant. The other, of ſeparating and limiting the Privy Purſe, was immediately effected upon my Return here from Chunar, and with that the ſeparate Public Funds placed under the Miniſters.

I now proceed to the Continuation of the Paragraphs of your Letter of Inſtructions.

The Second is only claiming my implicit Obedience to what follows, to fulfil which has been and ſhall be my conſtant Study.

The 3d Paragraph is a Recapitulation of the chief Object of the Treaty, being the ſhorteſt poſſible Liquidation of the Nabob's Debt to the Honourable Company. To this Purpoſe I have ſecured Aſſignments which I deem adequate to the full Diſcharge of all Demands by the End of the preſent Fuſſullee Year, which, conſidering the Greatneſs of the aggregate Amount, is, I apprehend, as ſoon * have been expected.

The 4th Paragraph is partly anſwered above. The Reduction has chiefly been in the Infantry, ſo as to bring in our Troops to ſupply the Deficiency, upon which Subject my Propoſal is before you. The Corps under this Denomination here, are chiefly Nudjeebs, and employ § for the Garriſons of the Aumils, Forts, Kutcherries, and Tanahs; the Corps of Cavalry could not ſo eaſily be diminiſhed, or immediately reformed: They conſiſt moſtly of Moguls, entertained for the State and perſonal Security of the Aumils, who they generally attend in Perſon; and ſuch is the refractory Diſpoſition of the People, who have never yet been properly controuled, that was not ſome immediate viſible ſtanding Force with the Aumil, at his Command, to enforce his Orders, he would neither be reſpected or obeyed, and conſequently unable to fulfil the Duties of his Charge.

* Sic in Orig.

§ Sic in Orig.

The Sebundy is a ſeparate Eſtabliſhment from the two above mentioned, being a Charge of generally about 4 per Cent. upon the Collections of the different Aumils, for a Duty executed by a Set of Peons, not military diſciplined Men, who are ſtationed upon the Corps † and Fields all over the Country for their Protection. Theſe, from the Nature and preſent State of this Government, appear to me abſolutely and indiſpenſably neceſſary for the Collections, and can neither be embodied or formed into any regular fixed Eſtabliſhment; but the new Year will afford an Opportunity of reducing their Numbers, and of bringing this Part of the Plan into greater Perfection.

† Sic in Orig.

The 5th Paragraph, regulating the Mode of paying the Mootteynah, has been completely eſtabliſhed, notwithſtanding the Complaints and Obſtruction brought againſt it by the Aumils, who are by it ſubject to a Check and Controul which they are not pleaſed with, and deprived of an ideal Proportion of Authority over their Men, by the Interference of the Pay and Muſter Maſter.

To the 6th Paragraph, which regards the Nabob's Choice of Officers, I have only to obſerve, that no Vacancies have occurred which can have afforded Room for an Exertion of its Clauſe.

The 7th, regarding the Choice of Aumils, can only come under Execution at the Commencement of the Year, when Aumils are named. The few Inſtances of Change which have accidentally occurred by the Reſumption of the Jaguire have been conducted under the Spirit of this Order.

Upon the 8th Paragraph I have written a ſtrong Letter to the Nabob, recommending moſt earneſtly to him to eſtabliſh Courts of Juſtice throughout his Dominions, beginning of ‡ a Sudder ul Hukk at the Capital, of the Effect whereof I ſhall hereafter inform you. I have not urged an inſtant Adoption of the Plan, as it appears more mentioned as a Point you wiſh to be brought about by degrees, than expect to ſee immediately enforced; nor is the Government here yet ſufficiently regulated, to promiſe juſt now the beneficial Conſequences which are the Objects of ſuch an Inſtitution.

‡ Sic in Orig.

The 9th Paragraph conveys a diſcretionary Power eventually to be exerciſed, an Occaſion for which hath not hitherto occurred.

The Notice directed by the 10th Paragraph, has been publicly given to every Perſon coming under its Deſcription, who have ſignified their having received the Order.

Theſe complete your Inſtructions; ſince which you have directed as an additional Article, that the Nabob ſhould be ſupported in his Claim upon the Bow Begum for the Inheritance of the late Vizier's public Treaſure. This has alſo been done, Forty-five Lacks have been recovered, and the Begum's chief Agents are now under ſevere Reſtraint for the Remainder of what they engaged to produce.

Truſting that from this Explanation you will be ſatisfied that I have done all that the Time I have had, and the Circumſtances I have been under, would admit, I remain with profound Reſpect, Sir,

Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I was duly honoured with your Commands of the 24th July, which a neceſſary Reference to Lucknow prevented my replying to before.

I have already had the Honour to inform you that your Orders had been repeatedly notified to all the unlicenſed Gentlemen reſiding at Lucknow, who ſeverally aſſured me of their Obedience thereto; and when I left that Place the End of June laſt, ſome had taken their Departure, and the reſt appeared to be preparing to do it with all poſſible Speed.

I learn

I learn from Mr. Johnſon, that on Receipt of your Letter Meſſrs. Scott, Orr, Marſack, Carvalho, and Darell, were yet at Lucknow; The two former Gentlemen were poſitively to depart by the End of this Month at furtheſt, and Meſſrs. Marſack and Carvalho were then on the Point of ſetting out. Captain Darell, whoſe Health I am informed is ſtill in a very indifferent State, having your Permiſſion, will remain till the End of the Rains.

Beſides the above-mentioned Gentlemen, Mr. Robert Grant and Mr. Bird are, I underſtand, reſident at Furruckabad; but I have not ſignified your Orders to them, being uncertain how far they might be conſidered to fall under their Deſcription. Theſe are all the Dependents of our Government that I know of, reſiding within the Vizier's Juriſdiction, without public Appointments, or the expreſs Licence of the Board.

I beg leave to aſſure you, Sir, that I never made any Promiſe whatever to Mr. Scott, or gave him any Hopes of continuing at Lucknow, excepting ſuch as he might have derived from my conſenting to forward a Recommendation to you in his Behalf.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Sir,

Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,

The Nabob's Treaty or Agreement with the Honourable the Governor General, original in the Perſian Language, was ſigned and ſealed by his Excellency. Having on my Behalf agreed to the Requiſitions of the Nabob Vizier, without Diminution or Reſerve, I muſt now repeat the Requeſt which I before verbally made to him, that he will be pleaſed to attend to ſuch Propoſals as I ſhall have to make to him; and to theſe I expect his Aſſent the more readily, as they have for their ultimate Object his Intereſt alone, that of the Company being no further concerned than in the Influence which they will eventually have in the Payment of the Debt due from the Nabob to the Company. I therefore recommend him to reduce the great Number of his Sebundy and other Troops to regular and complete Eſtabliſhment, not to be paid by Aſſignments of Revenue, but in Money from the Treaſury, and their Number not to exceed the certain Means of paying them; but as this may be difficult, without making a Separation of the Nabob's public and private Funds, I further recommend that he receive into his private Purſe no more than a fixed monthly Sum for the Expences and Houſehold; and that the Remainder of the Net Collections be left in a public Treaſure, under the Management of his public Miniſters, and the Inſpection of the Reſident, for the Diſcharge of his military and civil Diſburſement. This Advice is not meant to affect the Aſſignments annually made, and which muſt be annually renewed for the Payment of the paſt Debt, and the current Demands of the Company.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Reſident at the Court of the Nabob Vizier.

Sir,

Having on the 19th Inſtant entered into certain Engagements with the Nabob Vizier, tending to relieve his Finances of a Burthen they were no longer able to ſuſtain, with ſundry other Clauſes, the Execution of which is entruſted to you, I herewith encloſe an authentic Copy of the ſame for your Guidance. The Nabob on his Behalf has ſubſcribed and ſealed an Agreement in your Preſence, and in the Preſence of Mr. Richard Johnſon and Hyder Beg Cawn, reſpecting the better Adminiſtration of his Affairs, of which I alſo tranſmit you an authentic Copy.

To theſe Papers, and to the Points conſequently and neceſſarily dependent on them, I think it neceſſary to add the following Inſtructions, to which I require your moſt implicit Obedience.

I need ſcarcely inform you that my chief Object in my Negociations with the Nabob has been to induce and aſſiſt him to bring his Government and Finances into ſuch Regularity as to prevent his Alliance being a Clog inſtead of an Aid to the Company, and to enable him to diſcharge his Debt in the ſhorteſt Time poſſible. To this End the moſt eſſential Point is to limit and ſeparate his perſonal Diſburſements from the public Accounts; they muſt not in their total annual Amount exceed what he has received in any of the laſt Three Years; this Amount, in Twelve equal Parts, ſhould be paid him monthly out of the firſt Receipts, and the Remainder of the Net Collections placed ſeparately in a Public Treaſury, from whence his Public Military and Civil Eſtabliſhment muſt be paid under the ſole Management and Controul of the Miniſters with your Concurrence.—It is of courſe to be underſtood that this has no Connection, and is in no Shape to interfere with the Company's Aſſignments, and the Collections upon them, which are to be conducted as uſual; and as by the Addition of the Jaguire Lands, with their Revenues, to the Nabob's regular Collections, his Income will, or ought to be, conſiderably encreaſed, I ſhall expect that the whole of the Exceſs be appropriated to the Diſcharge of the Nabob's Debt to the Company.

After ſettling the Amount of the perſonal Diſburſements of the Nabob Vizier and his Houſehold, the next Point that will require your Exertions towards the general Arrangement of the public Charges, is the Reform of the eſtabliſhed and Muttaena Troops, reducing them into One eſtabliſhed Corps for the whole Service. If this Corps could be brought to conſiſt ſolely of Cavalry, it would beſt anſwer mutual Benefits, leaving no Infantry in the Nabob's Service, but what may be neceſſary for his Body Guard; and to ſupply the Deficiency, ſhould any occur *ſuch Arrangement, our Infantry may be employed where Infantry are wanted. *Sic in Orig.

The Corps reformed and eſtabliſhed, their Pay muſt be iſſued from the public Treaſury; no Aſſignments upon the Revenues to be in future granted them, and thoſe already iſſued to be recalled: To complete this, all Numbers above what the real Service may require, or the actual net Receipts may be adequate to the full Payment of, muſt be diſbanded as faſt as their Arrears can be paid off.

The Nabob will ſelect and appoint his own Commanders; but if he ſhould nominate improper Perſons, ſuch as the Men commonly known by the Name of Orderlies, or other deriving their Influence from them, or of known Diſaffection to our Government; you are in ſuch Caſe to remonſtrate againſt, and if the Vizier ſhall perſiſt in his Choice, you are peremptorily, and in my Name, to oppoſe it as a Breach of his Agreement.

For the Management of the Collections, the Miniſters, with your Concurrence, are to chuſe all Amils and Collectors, and in their Choice to be guided by the Reſponſibility, good Reputation, and known Ability of the Perſons they elect, that as far as poſſible Changes ſhould be avoided.

Much is to be ſaid, though little may now ſuit, upon the Subject of the Diſtribution of Juſtice in the Nabob's Dominions; for the preſent I limit myſelf to direct you to urge the Nabob to endeavour, gradually, if it cannot be at once, to eſtabliſh Courts of Adawlet throughout his Diſtricts; the Darogas, Moulovies, and other Officers of which muſt be ſelected, as in the Caſe of the Aumils, by the Miniſters, with your Concurrence. The Want of theſe Courts is equally hurtful to the Revenue, Government, and the Reputation of the Nabob.

In conſequence of the Diſturbances which the rebellious Example of Rajah Chyte Sing has cauſed in the Nabob Vizier's Country, I have inſtructed Colonel Morgan to aſſiſt you on the Requiſition of the Vizier, communicated by you to him, or at your own ſingle Application, if any Caſe of Emergency ſhall make it needful, with ſuch Detachments as may be neceſſary, excluſively of the Regiment of Sepoys, which is ſtipulated to remain with you at Lucknow. This Power you are not to uſe, but in Caſes of the moſt urgent and manifeſt Neceſſity. It is directed, that the Regiment ordered for the immediate Protection of your Office and Perſon at Lucknow, ſhall be relieved every Three Months, and during its Stay there ſhall act ſolely and excluſively under your Orders.

It is finally my poſitive Order, that you do not permit any Britiſh Subject, or others claiming the Name and Protection of the Company, to reſide at Lucknow, or within any Part of the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier, except the Officers and Soldiers of the Army acting in their Duty, and ſuch Perſons as are officially appointed to remain there; and that to ſuch as are now at Lucknow, or in any other Part of his Dominions, not falling within the Deſcription of the above Exception, you give due Notice in Writing, that they quit the Country, allowing them a reaſonable Time, not exceeding Three Months, to ſettle their Affairs; and in caſe of their Refuſal, you are to inform the Nabob thereof, that he may uſe his own Authority to compel them to depart.

I am, Sir,

Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

Chunar,

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

It appearing by a Letter received from your Accomptant General, dated 23d Auguſt 1781, that the Nabob's Debt to the Honourable Company, agreeable to his Statement, exceeds the Amount at which it ſtands in my Office, owing to Entries made in the Account at the Preſidency, never before communicated to this Station, I have deemed it expedient, although unauthoriſed by the Sanction of your Orders, to avail myſelf of Aſſets nearly equal to the Exceſs, and ſhall retain them while the Accounts go through that Examination of the Nabob's Officers, for which Purpoſe they have been delivered to them; and as ſoon as they have finiſhed and given me their Report upon them, which they aſſure me ſhall be in a very few Days, I ſhall do myſelf the Honour to lay it before you, in order to obtain your final Inſtructions for the Liquidation.

To

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, and the Members of the Supreme Council.

Honourable Sir and Sirs, Fort William.

I have been honoured with the Receipt of your Commands of the 11th July, directing, 1ſt. Sundry Entries to be made in the Nabob Vizier's Accounts, as additional Claims upon his Excellency, ariſing from a Difference of the Statement of his Balance, on the 30th April 1781.

2dly. Expreſſing your Surprize that I ſhould have limited my Aſſignments for the current Year to 76,37,458, while I had Information in the Middle of October, that 26,48,571 : 3 : 8 was claimed as a Difference of Balance on the 30th April 1780, and acknowledged on the Face of my own Account 55,28,512 : 12 : 11; making together a Sum of 81,77,084 : 0 : 7, unprovided for in the Aſſignments for 1189.

3dly. Noticing a Neglect of the preſcribed Line of my Duty, in having omitted to prepare and lay before the Honourable Board Eſtimates of Demands and Drafts of Aſſignments for the Year 1189, owing to which Omiſſion you could now only ſpeak upon them from accidental Information.

4thly. Requiring this preſcribed Rule to be fulfilled before the End of the current Year 1189, by preparing and tranſmitting you ſuch Eſtimates and Drafts for 1190.

5thly. Expreſſing your Diſappointment at the Proſpect of ſo large a Balance at the Cloſe of the current Year 1189, notwithſtanding the great Aids the Nabob's Finances had received from you, to enable him to liquidate the whole of his Balance in the Courſe of this Year.

6thly. Obſerving that I have received no Part of the Tunkaw upon Furruckabad, and have never intimated the Cauſe in my Addreſs either to the Board or the Governor General; and upon a Conception that the Payment withheld may have proceeded from an Advantage taken by the Nabob Muzzuffer Jung of your Mediation with the Nabob Vizier, you direct, in ſuch Caſe, that I immediately afford his Excellency effectual Aſſiſtance for the Recovery of what Money may be due to him from Muzzuffer Jung, and expreſsly to withdraw all other Interference with that Nabob.

In reply to theſe ſeveral Heads, which I have numbered for the Sake of Perſpicuity, I muſt beg leave to ſolicit the Attention of your Honourable Board to the particular Circumſtances I ſhall ſubmit to your Conſideration upon each Head ſeparately, taking them in the Order in which they ſtand in your Commands.

1ſt, Your Directions reſpecting the Entries in the Nabob Vizier's Accounts ſhall be punctually executed in the Manner following: In the Accounts of the current Year 1189, I propoſe entering ſuch Part of the new Claim as may fall within the Sum of Rupees 26,48,571 : 3 : 8, being
* Sic in Orig. the Difference of Balance firſt communicated to me as you * in the 2d Paragraph of your Commands the Middle of October. The remaining Fourteen Lacks (the whole Claim being Forty Lacks) I propoſe adding to the current Demands for the Year 1190, and I am encouraged to hope you approve the Motives which induce me to propoſe this Diſtinction, inſtead of making the whole Entry immediately as you are pleaſed to direct; they are theſe: In a ſubſequent Part of your Commands now before me, you call upon me to realize the Sum of Rupees 26,48,571 : 3 : 8, which I ſeparately reply to in regular Courſe, and in other Letters which I ſhall hereafter have occaſion to refer to, you are pleaſed to conſider and hold me reſponſible for the due Collection of this Sum within the Term of the Expiration of the current Year. If therefore I do not hold it ſeparated from the general Claim now tranſmitted, I cannot refer to what I have undertaken and executed relatively to it ſeparately, and ſhould involve and confound the Reſponſibility with which you juſtly charge me, upon the Grounds of my having had ſufficient previous Notice of this Claim, with a much larger Sum unknown in Amount or Exiſtence before the Receipt of your Letter. Further, were I to include the whole in the preſent Year, I ſhould, while only accepting, or meant to be charged with, the Reſponſibility of collecting ſuch Sum as I had timely Information of, lay myſelf open to the Proof of leaving a Balance this Year; which Proof I hope to obviate under the Reſerves hereafter explained. And finally, were I now to include the total new Claim of Forty Lacks in the Accounts of this Year, with the above Ob-
† Sic in Orig. jections, it would † of no Benefit or Uſe, as the Knowledge of it is come to hand at a Time
‡ Sic in Orig. when no Man can undertake ‡ it from a Country where the Collections ariſe ſolely and excluſively from the Two annual Crops, Kheriff and Rubby, both which were off the Ground long before the Receipt of your Commands, and no ſeparate Fund exiſting to recur to in Default of the Collections. Upon theſe Grounds I hope to ſtand excuſed, and meet Indulgence, for this § Sic in Orig. ſmall and immaterial Diviation § in the Mode of executing your Orders, eſpecially as it cannot be attended with any poſſible Detriment or prejudicial Conſequence to the Honourable Company,
‖ Sic in Orig. the Periods of the new and the old Years, being new ‖ ſo in ſtantaneouſly before us, that the Difference of Time between the divided Entries cannot exceed many Days.

Upon the Second Head, I muſt crave Leave to refer your Honourable Board to my Addreſs of the 30th December 1781; a Copy whereof is included a Number in this Packet, and ſtates my

my Reaſon for a temporary Limitation of the Aſſignments for this Year to the Sum of 76,37,458; viz. my Expectations from the Aſſurances given me by the Nabob and his Miniſters of a Supply from Fayzabad equal to the Liquidation of the Balance of his Excellency's Account with the Honourable Company, as apparent upon the Face of my annual Account for 1188; which Expectation, in the Reſult, proved to have been well founded. The Sum of 26,48,571 : 3 : 8, additional Claim ariſing from the Difference between the Balance of the Honourable Company's Account, as ſtated by your Accountant General and the Reſidents, of the 30th April 1780, was not included in the then Arrangement, for Reaſons which I truſt will claim the Conſideration of the Honourable Board: Firſt, from the Situation of the Nabob Vizier's Country and Finances at the Beginning of the current Year, as ſet forth in my ſeveral Addreſſes at that Period, but particularly in Two of the 17th and 20th of October laſt; of which, to ſave the Honourable Board Trouble, I beg leave to tranſmit Copies. I was forced to defer taking Aſſignments for the Balance of 1180, until the Nabob ſhould recover ſo much of his paternal Eſtate at Fayzabad; conſequently the ſame Arguments were of equal Force againſt including any other Balance in the firſt-claimed Aſſignments, which were calculated merely to anſwer the actual current Diſburſements. But then reaſonably may be expected to follow the Queſtion, Why not at leaſt have taken a Bond for this Sum, as well as the Balance of 1188? To this I beg leave, in the Second Place, to anſwer, that together with the Information of this Claim, unſupported and unſanctified by any Order of the Honourable Board, ſignifying their Approbation of it, or their Intention that it ſhould be brought to the Nabob's Debit, until it had undergone the uſual Forms of Examination in his Excellency's Offices, and obtained his Sanction, which had been the Caſe with all former Demands, I received Notice that it was liable to a Reduction or Diminution of near One Half its Amount; and upon laying it before the Nabob and his Miniſters, they ſtated a Counter-claim, which has been referred by his Excellency to the Honourable the Governor General, and promiſed to be equitably conſidered. From the ſeveral Objections to this Amount as a decided Claim, I truſt the Honourable Board will not hold me deſerving of Cenſure for not realizing it; but will, on the contrary, be inclined to allow, that upon Receipt of their Order now before me, I have gone every juſt Length in demanding and obtaining from the Nabob a conditional Depoſit of the Money, while the Heads of the Claim undergo Inveſtigation. His Excellency has granted me Aſſignment for the Amount, which I have pledged and mortgaged the Collections of to Gopaul Doſs Sah, and other Shroffs, who have agreed to advance the full Amount of the above-mentioned Aſſignments. I ſhall have the Honour of remitting the Amount within the Year, which is the Period ſtipulated by your Board for the Execution of this Order.

The Nabob's Counter-claim, as already communicated to the Governor General by the Original of the incloſed Duplicate, is for Stores, Horſes, Ordnance, &c. and I have Authority from his Excellency to inform you, that he agrees to refer to the Evidence of the Returns of your own Commiſſaries, and the Eſtimations of your Board of Ordnance, or to wave all Amount and Valuation upon Return of the actual or equivalent Stores. Upon this Head I would ſubmit one further Propoſition, which is, that it appears the Honourable Company have ſtill a further Claim for a Difference of Balance to April 30th, 1781 (about Fourteen Lacks), at leaſt equivalent in its Aggregate to the Amount of the Nabob's Counter-claim; that the Examination and Adjuſtment take place upon this laſt Account, and the Payment of the 26,48,571 : 3 : 8 be concluded and received as a full and final Payment to the Date it alludes to; viz. to the 30th April 1780. I have no Doubt of being able to bring the Nabob to agree to this Adjuſtment. If this ſhould, as I think it will, meet with your Approbation, in this Caſe I muſt requeſt you will be pleaſed to order your Accountant General to ſeparate the Amount, particular and general, of this Second Claim from the former; and here, from a Knowledge of your Juſtice, and a conſequent Conviction that you only mean to charge the Nabob with the real Exceſs proved to be due from him, after deducting the Amount of any well-founded Counter-claim, I beg leave to recommend that you direct your Accountant General to draw up this Difference of Balance in Two ſeparate Statements, each agreeing with the other; one being that as it now ſtands drawn up to the 30th April 1781, the other cloſing the Statement on the 30th September 1780, and from thence carried on to the 30th April 1781. The Reaſon of my propoſing this Check is, that the Nabob's Accounts being all cloſed in September, it is much eaſier for him and his Officers to comprehend, admit, or anſwer, a Statement correſponding with the Period of their own Accounts, than one totally irreconcileable with it. Should you be pleaſed to think this a reaſonable Indulgence, I would ſolicit this adjuſted Statement to be made up to September 1779 and September 1780, as well as thoſe already made to April 1780 and April 1781.

The 3d Paragraph ſtands anſwered in the Firſt Lines of my Reply to the 2d, as in the Addreſs I there allude to I ſubmitted a Statement of the Nature of that you ſuppoſe to have been omitted. In further Exculpation of myſelf, I beg leave to recall to your Memory, that on the 15th March 1781, I was inſtructed, through the acting Secretary, to correſpond upon all Subjects of Accounts with the Comptroller of the Offices, who being a Member of your Honourable Board, I concluded it became unneceſſary to trouble you with Repetitions on theſe Subjects, eſpecially as, in obedience to Orders, I regularly tranſmitted Duplicates of all my Accounts to the Accountant General, until he informed me it was an unneceſſary and ſuperfluous * from the Copies forwarded to the Comptroller ultimately coming into his Office; but I ſhall now,

* Sic in Orig.

now, conceiving it to be your Intention, addreſs the Board directly and ſeparately upon whatever I may in future tranſmit to the Comptroller of the Offices, to which End,

4th. I am now preparing the Eſtimates for the new Year, which only wait your Deciſion upon the Propoſals in the 3d Paragraph of this Letter to be completed and laid before you.

Upon the 5th Article of your Commands, I have the Pleaſure, in alleviation of this Diſappointment you apprehend, to inform you, that I have, as per incloſed Treaſury Account, not only realized the total Amount of the Aſſignments taken at the Beginning of the Year, but alſo an additional Sum equal to a complete Diſcharge of the Exceſs of Diſburſement beyond the Amount eſtimated at the Commencement of the Year; which I have thus early effected by raiſing the Amount upon the Balances of the Aſſignments, which always run in their final Adjuſtment Two Months, at leaſt, into the new Year, as all former Accounts will teſtify; and this Advance I have extended to the Amount diſburſed, including the Exceſs beyond the eſtimated Sum abovementioned. This Meaſure will, I flatter myſelf, prove acceptable to the Honourable Board, as it will enable me to make very conſiderable Remittances, much within the Period of the final accuſtomary Adjuſtment. I muſt avert * that I have been able to accompliſh this alone by aſſuring the Shroffs that I ſhould receive the fulleſt Support from the Honourable Board in enacting ſuch Meaſures as ſhall appear neceſſary to ſecure to them the complete Collection of the Balances; and upon this I hope to have your full Approbation and Sanction.

*Sic in Orig.

Upon the 6th Article the Honourable Board have anticipated my Reply, by adverting to what they conjecture may have been the Cauſe of the total Failure in the Collections from Furruckabad, which was, as they have juſtly ſuppoſed, an improper Advantage taken by Muzzuffer Jung of the Mediation employed with the Nabob Vizier in his Behalf. I have therefore immediately, upon Receipt of your Orders, withdrawn all Mediation and Interference which ſtood between the Nabob Vizier and the Collection of the Tribute from Furruckabad, and afforded him the Aſſiſtance directed, by ſending a Regiment to ſupport the Sezawal appointed by his Excellency for the Collection of the Tribute of the enſuing Year, and have added my Inſtructions to the ſame Agent to collect the Aſſignment of Seven and a Half Lacks, firſt abovementioned, upon the Tribute and Balances due to the End of the Current Year; and as I have anticipated the Succeſs of this Truſt, by raiſing this Amount among the other Balances as above ſtated, I have the Satisfaction to reflect, that the Honourable Board will not even feel the Inconveniency ariſing from the Delay that the Mediation in favour of Muzzuffer Jung has occaſioned.

It may be proper to explain, that the Exceſs of Diſburſements beyond the eſtimated Amount has ariſen from Two Cauſes. The Firſt was, that the Troops of Futty Ghur, and Mr. Wombwell's Office and Eſtabliſhment, received their Pay and Allowances beyond the Date ſtipulated by Treaty (upon which the Eſtimate was made), becauſe the Nabob's Finances not being adequate to the immediate Diſcharge of their Balances, and this being a previous Condition of the Treaty, their Pay and uſual Diſburſement went on until they could be fully paid up. Secondly, the Army Debts were rated in the Eſtimate at Five Lacks, and have in the Reſult much exceeded that Sum, which unavoidably cauſed the Diverſion of Aſſets to that Channel which were expreſsly granted and intended for other Purpoſes. This unforeſeen Accumulation of the Army Debt, and the Preference which it was my Duty to ſhew to the Honourable Company's Claims, have neceſſarily retarded the Payment of the late Vizier's promiſed Donation to the Second Brigade, which I hope will meet your Approbation, as that Sum, as well as the Fourteen Lacks unliquidated of the Honourable Company's new Claim, will be an eaſy Proviſion, with the Current Demands of the enſuing Year; the full Amount of which I have not a Doubt of being able to realize.

I am willing to flatter myſelf, that, under your Indulgence, I ſhall appear to have acquitted myſelf of the Reſponſibility annexed to my Office; your public Teſtimony upon which I am the more anxious to merit, as the many unforeſeen and uncommon Obſtacles which have occurred in the Courſe of this Year rendered me apprehenſive that the Effects of my Exertions might fall ſhort of your Expectations.

I have the Honour to be, with great Reſpect,
Honourable Sir, and Sirs,
Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

The Begum having finally agreed to ſurrender to the Nabob the Treaſures of his late Father the Nabob Shujah ul Dowlah, which ſhe had hitherto retained in her Poſſeſſion, his Excellency deſired me to withdraw the Troops from the Killa, that the Begum might return into it, in order to deliver the Treaſure. To this I conſented, as alſo to the Re-delivery to the Nabob of the Two Eunuchs Bahar and Jowar Ally Cawn, without whoſe Preſence and Aſſiſtance nothing could be effected, as they were the only Agents employed by the Begum in the ſecreting and depoſiting it; they previouſly pledging themſelves to be preſent when called upon, upon, to anſwer to the Accuſation which I have informed them was laid againſt them. In the mean while the Begum has delivered over her Chelah Shumſheer Cawn, who was Phouſdar of Tanda when Captain Gordon arrived there; ſo that I now hope the whole Buſineſs upon which I came here is in the moſt favourable Train.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Fayzabad, Sir,
20th January 1782. Your moſt obedient, and moſt humble Servant,

(True Copy.) Nath. Middleton. (Signed) Nath. Middleton.

Sir, Baugulpoor, 27th January 1782.

I have received your Letter of the 20th Inſtant. I thank you for the good News which it contains, and for the Proſpect which it has afforded me of a complete and proſperous Termination of the Meaſures impending.

I deſire that you will endeavour to diſſuade the Nabob from concluding any Settlement with the Begums until the Board or myſelf have been adviſed of the Amount of the Treaſure recovered from them, and of the Balance due at the lateſt Period from the Nabob to the Company.

I hope to receive from you a Report of the final Iſſue of this Buſineſs, and of a Sum realized and in your Poſſeſſion for our Relief, in time to ſend Advice of both, by the Packet now under Diſpatch; and I ſhall keep it open until the 7th of next Month, but no longer, for that Purpoſe.

I am, Sir,
Your moſt obedient Servant,

(True Copy.) Nath. Middleton. (Signed) Warren Haſtings.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I have had this Day the Honour to receive your Commands of the 25th ultimo, and am extremely concerned that the Mode of conducting the Fayzabad Buſineſs, as ſet forth in my Addreſs of the 18th January, did not meet your entire Approbation. Permit me to aſſure you, Sir, it is with the greateſt Reluctance I ever ventured to deviate from the expreſs Letter of your Inſtructions, and I cannot accuſe myſelf of having done it on any Occaſion, where it did not appear to my Judgment that the Object and Spirit of them rendered it adviſeable, and that the apparent Neceſſity would juſtify ſuch Latitude.

In the preſent Inſtance, it was more in Appearance and Expreſſion, than in Fact, that any Deviation was made from your Orders of the 26th December; for although I was conſtrained, from ſtrict Regard to the Acoompliſhment of what I conſidered the firſt Object of this Undertaking, to admit of a temporary Forbearance for the Reaſons aſſigned in my Addreſs of the 18th ultimo, the Begums were at that Time to be conſidered as entirely at the Mercy of the Nabob; their Jagheers were in poſſeſſion of his Aumils; their Troops diſperſed at the Kella of Fayzabad, which included alſo the Bhow Begum's own Habitation, under the Guard of his Excellency's and our Troops.

It remained only to get poſſeſſion of her Wealth; and to effect this, it was then, and is ſtill, my unalterable Opinion, that it was indiſpenſably neceſſary to employ temporiſing Expedients, and to work upon the Hopes and Fears of the Begum herſelf, and more eſpecially upon thoſe of her principal Agents, through whoſe Means alone there appeared any probable Chance of our getting Acceſs to the hidden Treaſures of the late Vizier; and when I acquaint you, that by far the greateſt Part of the Treaſure which has been delivered to the Nabob, was taken from the moſt ſecret Receſſes in the Houſes of the Two Eunuchs, whence of courſe it could not have been extracted without the Adoption of thoſe Means which could induce the Diſcovery, I ſhall hope for your Approbation of what I did. I muſt alſo obſerve, that no further Rigour than that which I exerted could have been uſed againſt Females in this Country, to whom there can be no Acceſs. The Nabob and Salar Jung were the only Two who could enter the Zenanah. The firſt was a Son who was to addreſs a Parent, and of courſe could uſe no Language or Action but that of earneſt and reiterated Solicitation; and the other was, in all Appearance, a Traitor to our Cauſe. Where Force could be employed, it was not ſpared. The Troops of the Begum were driven away and diſperſed, their Guns taken, her Fort and the outward Walls of her Houſe ſeized and occupied by our Troops at the Nabob's Requiſition, and her Chief Agents impriſoned and put in Irons; no further Step was left, and in this Situation they ſtill remain, and are to continue (excepting only the Remiſſion of the Irons) until the final Liquidation of the Payment; and if then you deem it proper, no poſſible Means of Offence being left in her Hands, or thoſe of her Agents, all her Lands and Property having been taken, I mean with your Sanction to reſtore her Houſe and Servants to her, and hope to be favoured with your early Reply, as I expect that a few Days will complete the final Surrender of all that is further expected from the Begum.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

When I had laſt the Honour of ſeeing you, I more than once urged my Reaſon for thinking that the Rebellion of Rajah Chyte Sing was but a Part of a larger and more extenſive Plan, which was, by the good Fortune of your Arrival, prematurely brought forward, before all the Parties to it were united, and properly Action *. In Support of this Belief, and to prove that I am far from being ſingle in the Eſpouſal of it, I beg leave to trouble you with ſome Extracts from the Letters I received from Colonel Hannay, written from the Time of the firſt breaking out of the Rebellion, to my Return to Lucknow. His Situation for obtaining the Knowledge he imparts, his Experience, and his Judgment to guide what he advances, muſt make his Sentiments of Weight and Authenticity.

* Sic in Orig.

In his Letter of the 8th of September from Fyzabad, ſcarcity † Ten Days after he had ſet about obeying the Nabob Vizier's Orders to march with his Force to your Aſſiſtance, he writes "that "the whole Country, on the Eaſt Side of the Gogra, was in Arms and Rebellion, his own "Troops deſerting, and the ſingle Companies ſcarcely able to join other Detachments. The Forts "of Gurruckpore, Bilma, and Dumreeagunge, taken from the Aumils by the Jemindars, and "that even Hircarrahs cannot paſs; ſo that all Communication of Intelligence from his other "Detachments under Major M'Donald, Captain Williams, and Lieutenant Gordon, was cut off. And at End he adds, "this Town (Fayzabad) has more the Appearance of belonging to Cheyt "Sing than the Vizier. The Begums have placed Guards to prevent any of my People going to "the Bazar in it. Within theſe few Days Shake Chaun, with near 1000 Horſe and Foot, has "marched from hence to Benaras. They were raiſed here; and I muſt confeſs that, for my "own Part, I have no doubt but Jewar Ally Cawn, and Behar Ally Cawn, through their Agents "have ſtirred up all the Diſturbances which extend from hence to Powey Azimgur. I have ſent "Hooleſs

† Sic in Orig.

" going into the Town, Chyte Sing's being ſuffered to raiſe Troops here, and why her Servants
" attempted to prevent my getting Boats to tranſport the Company's Guns and Horſe from
" Amora? I have alſo deſired ſhe will give Orders for ſeizing the Family of Shake Chaan
" (above mentioned), and when Hoolaſs Ray returns I will write you his Anſwer. In Khyrabad,
" Sylack, and all the Country on the (Weſt) Sides of the Gogra between Fyzabad and Khyra-

" all Hours. Chyte Sing has ſent Money to Futtey Saw, Ghino Ray, Adjitmull, Zalem Sing,
" and all the refractory Rajahs, to enable them to raiſe Men. I this Moment received Gordon's
" Account of the Loſs of his Detachment, which puts my March to join you out of the queſ-
" tion. It happened by the Villany of the Phouzdar of Tanda, Shum Sheer Khan, a Cheelah of " Behar Ally Khan, who turned his Guns upon the Detachment, and an unfordable Nulla in " Front, and many Thouſands of Rajepoots, who had fought them all the Way from Chowra
" Gaut, made the Sepoys deſpair. Zalem Sing, and Pretty Paul Sing, mean to attack M'Do-
" nald To-morrow with 2100 Men. Behar Ally Khan deſerves Death; as the Loſs of Gordon's
" Detachment can only be imputed to him. His Chelah would never have acted ſo damning a " Part without Orders from him. Jewar Ally Khan, in the Chocke of Fyzabad, aſks every " Man who bears the Appearance of a Soldier, why he goes not to Chyte Sing for Service? I " mention theſe Circumſtances that you may mention them to Mr. Haſtings and the Nabob,
" and the neceſſary Steps be immediately taken to prevent what Delay will render a very ſerious
" Matter. A few Days more will lead the Ferment which is here to Lucknow. If the Nabob
" inſiſts of my proceeding, I muſt bring every Body with me; for whoever is left behind will
" be ſacrificed."

On the 7th September Captain Williams writes: " Upon my Arrival here, I found that Part " of Futty Saw's, Ghenoo Ray's, and Adjeet Mull's People had croſſed to Manjowlay. They " have been urged to this Step by Cheyt Sing, who has ſupplied them with a conſiderable Sum " of Money, and promiſed them great Sums if they will put the whole Country into Confuſion.
" 5000 Men are on the oppoſite Side of the River ready to croſs. Futtey Saw has written to all " his Adherents to be up in Arms. Saadit Ally and the Begums are concerned deeply in the late
" Buſineſs."

In a ſubſequent Letter received immediately after the above, but without Date, Colonel Hannay ſays, " I have before told you how violently the Begum's People inflame the preſent Diſ-
" turbances; and in Addition to this, the principal Zemindars and Rajahs have all Certificates
" under the Seal of Chyte Sing, that he will ſupply them with whatever Money they may require
" for ſubſiſting all the Troops they can raiſe. In a very ſhort Time I apprehend the greateſt
" Part of the Nabob's Dominions will be in the State we are in here; and it is the general Belief
" of every Man in this Part of the Country, that the Conduct I have related is a concerted Plan " for the Extirpation of the Engliſh. What may be the Situation of the reſt of the Nabob's Do-
" minions I know not; but it is moſt certain, that from Goonda to Manjee, and from Fyzabad to " Benares Diſtrict, and croſs from the Gogra to the Ganges, the Country is in the utmoſt Ferment.
" Should the preſent Diſturbances proceed from a Plan of Policy, it will be concealed from you
" as much as poſſible, and therefore I take all poſſible Means of communicating to you what I " really know to be Fact. I know not whether the Dauks paſs freely from you to Lucknow;
" but if they do not, and no Meaſure is immediately taken to bring about Order and draw the " Troops together, we may be deprived of all poſſible Means of aſſiſting one another, and the " Army loſt by detached Regiments. We have no Communication with Bengal; and the Troops
" on this Side Benares are at preſent too much ſeparated to yield one another timely Aſſiſtance.
" I hope to God a ſufficient Force is ordered for the Reduction of Chyte Sing, for the People " who are daily ſent to him, Horſe and Foot, from Fyzabad, and the Seat of Rebellion I have " before named, is very great." In his next of the 13th he ſays, " it is impoſſible, in the " general Inſurrection which now reigns almoſt univerſally, for me to get the Force together the " Nabob demanded, or to force my Way to you with a leſs. The greateſt Anarchy prevails.
" The preſent Inſurrection is ſaid, and believed to be, with an Intention to expel the Engliſh. I " am compelled to give up all the Country below Goondah. Be upon your Guard againſt the Vi-
" zier, for there are many Circumſtances to make me believe he means to eſpouſe the Cauſe of
" Chyte Sing: The Begums have almoſt themſelves recruited for him."

In his next Letter of the 18th he ſays, " If you meet but with a Check at Benares every Man
" in the Country is ready to fall upon your ſcattered Parties. The State of the Vizier's Domi-
" nions is in general beyond Deſcription: The Inſurrection is not partial, but generally ſpread
" throughout the whole;" though it rages moſt violently in the Mahls of Sultanpoor, the Mahls from Fyzabad to the Banaris Country, the Mahls on this (Eaſt) Side of the Gogra, and in Koonry Khyrabad and Sylak; and if I may truſt to the Information I receive, it is already begun, and will ſoon rage as violently in Shajehanpore, Rohilcund, Kora, and the Doâb. I have already and repeatedly informed you of the Diſpoſitions of thoſe in Power in Fyzabad, which has in fact been one of the great Sources of the Inſurrection, and the Place of all others in the Vizier's Dominions which has ſupplied Chyte Sing with the greateſt Number of Troops. The old Begum does in the † Sic in Orig. moſt open and violent Manner ſupport Chyte Sing's Rebellion, and the † Reſurrection; and the Nabob's Mother's accurſed Eunuchs are not leſs induſtrious than thoſe of the Burrac Begum.

Capital Examples made of Jewar Ally Khan and Behar Ally Khan would, I am perſuaded, have the very beſt Effect

On the 20th, he ſays, after relating his own imminent Danger, "I have already written you ſo "fully my Reaſons of being convinced of the Treachery practiſed at Fayzabad, and which I am "afraid extends to your Camp, that I need ſay no more on the Subject;" and again mentions the general Inſurrection.

The Truth of theſe Poſitions I found moſt fully proved upon my Return; but obſerved in particular that the moſt vigorous Efforts were limited to the Jaghuirdars, among whom the Begums, Fyzullah Cawn, and Luttafutt Ally Khan diſtinguiſhed themſelves. However, the Nabob's Return, the Victories gained by the Troops with you in the total Reduction of Chyte Sing's Country, and the March of Two Regiments from Cawnpore to our Aſſiſtance here, have unitedly contributed to reſtore Matters nearly to their uſual Tranquillity. The Example moſt neceſſary to be made of the Two active and turbulent Eunuchs mentioned by Colonel Hannay remains yet to be done, as well as of a Villain now in Confinement, who had aſſembled 5000 Gongwars for the avowed Purpoſe of reſcuing Two principal State Priſoners from their Confinement with the Nabob, and, as it is univerſally believed, to make an Attempt upon the Treaſury, for which he had fixed the Day of Duſſarâh, but was moſt happily detected, ſeized only a Day before by the Vigilance of the Cutwal, and the Fact proved by Papers found in his Houſe. Unleſs Spirits of this Sort be controuled, the moſt * of Conſequences may be expected from the Neglect, ſhould, which God avert, any freſh Opportunities occur.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I have juſt received Intelligence, which I think may be relied on, of the Death of the Nabob Nudjiff Cawn.

It is impoſſible to pronounce with Certainty what may be the immediate Conſequences of this Event; the ultimate ones, I have no Doubt, will be the total Subverſion of that extenſive Government, acquired alone by his powerful Influence and high military Character, and by which, rather than any effective Force, he has been able hitherto to maintain it. I do not know any one of his Partizans whoſe Talents, Activity, or ſuperior Influence over the reſt, are likely to create an abſolute and permanent Authority. Diſſenſions therefore amongſt the principal Officers of his Army may be expected to enſue; and thoſe Rajas and Chiefs who have been deprived of their Territorial Poſſeſſions will ſcarcely omit ſo favourable an Opportunity of attempting to retrieve them.

Abdulahd Cawn, the late Miniſter, will probably be reſtored to Office; and his Object will naturally be the Extinction of every Shadow of Nudjiff Cawn's Power.

Upon the whole, however, I do not apprehend from this Event any Conſequences which can affect the Honourable Company's Intereſts, or the Security of the Nabob Vizier, unleſs Zabitta Cawn, who it appears has long entertained Views of attempting the Recovery of his former Poſſeſſions in Rohilcund, ſhould be prevailed on to conſider this † favourable Occaſion to proſecute them. In ſuch an Event I ſhould think it very probable he would be joined by Fazoola Cawn, who, there is ſtrong Reaſon to believe, is by no means well-affected to the Vizier's Government, and who has of late made ſuch Preparations and ſuch a Diſpoſition of his Family and Wealth as evidently manifeſt either an intended or expected ‡.

To the Honourable Board.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I have this Day received confirmed Information of the Death of the Nabob Nudjiff Cawn. My Opinion upon this Subject I had the Honour to ſubmit to the Governor General, under Date the 24th February laſt, upon a premature Information of the Deceaſe of that Nabob, which hitherto I find no Reaſon to alter; I therefore beg leave to refer your Honourable Board to that, as containing every Sentiment or Information that I can at preſent offer upon the Subject.

The Nabob Vizier ſeems to think it probable, or poſſible, that Mahadajee Scindia may be induced, either at the Inſtigation of his own Ambition, or at the King's Solicitation, to proceed to Delhi upon this Conjuncture; his Alarms and Apprehenſions upon this Head, he ſtates in his Letters, of this Day's Date, to the Governor General, and in order to prevent the only one of the Two aforementioned Inducements which lays within his Reach to attempt, he has written an Arzee to the King, aſſuring him of his Attachment to his Intereſt, declaring himſelf ready to march with his Forces to ſupport his Views, and mentioning your Government as equally well diſpoſed to his Majeſty; and finally, recommending to him to call in no other foreign Aid. He has alſo written Letters of Condolance to the late Nabob's Family; and others of Encouragement to the principal Commanders of his Armies, adviſing them to continue firm in their Duty and Allegiance to the King, whom he tells them he is marching to Delhi to ſupport. Moſt of theſe Chiefs were formerly the Servants of this Court, and many of them connected by Blood with the Vizier's Family. His Excellency has alſo made an Application to Colonel Morgan to move the ſubſidiary Brigade towards Etawa, to be in Readineſs to act in caſe any Emergency ſhould require it. I have ſent his Excellency's Application to the Colonel, but have only recommended his holding the Brigade in Readineſs to march to that central Station, either upon the Receipt of your Orders to this Effect, or ſome intermediate urgent Neceſſity occurring, which may preclude the Propriety of making any Delay whatever. This will, I hope, meet your Approbation.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

On the 10th Inſtant I had the Honour to inform you of the Death of the Nabob Nudjiff Khan, ſince which, nothing material has occurred in that Quarter worth intruding upon you with. Through the Intereſt of the late Nabob's Siſter, Afraiſab Khan has received the Charcel, or Inveſtiture of Succeſſion from the King; but as many of the principal Officers of the Army refuſe or evade Submiſſion to the Authority of that Chief, it is not likely that he will be able to hold his Station.

Zabetta Khan, at Ghous Ghur, is arming and entering into Alliances with the Seiks. The Nabob Fyzoola Khan, from the beſt Intelligence I am able to procure, carries on a cloſe and ſecret Correſpondence with him. He has gone ſo far as to throw out ſome very inflammatory Diſcourſes in his Durbar; and by this Day's Intelligence, it appears ſome unuſual * Reſtraints have been impoſed upon my Agent, who hitherto had free Acceſs at his Durbar, to ſend Intelligence of what paſſed there. * Sic in Orig.

E

To the Honourable Board.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

The Contentions and Party Diſputes which have prevailed at the Court of Delhy, ſince the Death of the late Nabob Nudjiff Cawn, ſeem now to have taken a decided Turn in favour of Mirza Shuffee Cawn, whoſe Pretenſions to the chief Rule in the Adminiſtration, although acknowledged and ſecretly eſpouſed by the King, have hitherto met with violent and ſucceſsful Oppoſition from Affraſiab Cawn; but the latter having a few Days ago found it expedient to move with the main Body of his Army acroſs the Jumma, for the Defence of his own Poſſeſſions againſt the threatened Attacks of Mahomed Beg Cawn Amdâny, who is joined with the oppoſite Party, Mirza Shuffee availed himſelf of this Conjuncture to attempt, by Force, the effectual Eſtabliſhment of his Authority at the Capital. Accordingly, on the Eleventh Inſtant, he marched his whole Army into the Town, ſeized upon the principal Gates and Avenues, ſurrounded the Houſes of Mudjeed ul Dowla the Dewan, Nudjiff Cooly Cawn, and Luttauft Ally Cawn, all of whom were united in the Combination againſt him, and ſecured the Perſon of the former, as he has alſo, probably by this Time, that of Nudiff ‡ Cooly Cawn, who had, when my laſt Intelligence was diſpatched, loſt all his Artillery, ſeveral of his principal Sirdars, and was reduced, as a laſt Reſource, to the Neceſſity of defending himſelf with Muſketry only, within the Walls of his private Habitation. The Capture of his Perſon will leave Mirza Shuffee Cawn without any Competitor upon the Spot capable of oppoſing him, and enable him immediately to turn his whole Force, in conjunction with Mahomed Beg Cawn, againſt Affraſaib and his Party, with the faireſt Proſpect of Succeſs. ‡ Sic in Orig.

There can, I apprehend, be no Doubt but his Majeſty, upon this Turn of Affairs, will cheerfully and openly acquieſce in the Demands of Mirza Shuffee Cawn, which, it appears, have never extended beyond the Inveſtiture of ſuch Offices as he is univerſally allowed to have had an indiſputable Claim to upon the Death of Nudjiff Cawn; and as he is a Perſon attached both from Ties of Conſanguinity and Inclination to the Vizier's Government, as well as the firſt in Rank and Credit among the remaining Chiefs of the Empire; I preſume the Honourable Board will conſider his riſing Influence as a favourable Incident to the political Intereſts of the Company, being well aſſured that the ſmalleſt Encouragement given to this Chief, were it to conſiſt only in an Acknowledgment of his Title to the Aſcendency he has acquired, with the bare Name of our Support, would ſecure his Attachment to the mutual Intereſts of our own and the Vizier's Government, and render him not only a powerful Barrier to theſe Provinces, but a moſt uſeful Partizan, ſhould Motives of Neceſſity or Expedience, at any future Period, induce your Honourable Board to extend your Views beyond the Limits to which they are at preſent confined.

To the Honourable Board.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

You will have been informed by my Addresses of the 14th and 15th Instant, of the late Occurrences at Delhy, and of my Sentiments as to the probable Issue of them, which stand confirmed by Intelligence this Day received of his Majesty's having conferred upon Mirza Shuffee Cawn the Office of Meer Buxy, with all the other Employments held by the late Nabob Nudjiff Cawn.

This Measure appears to have yielded universal Satisfaction to all Ranks of People, excepting those few immediately attached to Affrasaib Cawn; and for the Reasons assigned in my First Address on this Subject, may, I flatter myself, prove acceptable to your Honourable Board; in which Case I would humbly presume to recommend a Letter of Congratulation from the Honourable the Governor General to Mirza Shuffee Cawn on his Advancement.

We hourly expect the News of an Action between the Forces of Affrasaib Cawn and Mahomed Beg Amdanny, unless the rapid and complete Success of Mirza Shuffee Cawn at Delhi should induce the former to Submission.

Lucknow,

To the Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I had the Honour to receive your Commands of the 10th August, previous to my Departure from Patna, and delayed the Acknowledgment of them until my Arrival at Lucknow, only that I might be enabled to yield you the fullest Information and Satisfaction on the Subject of their Contents.

I have had the Pleasure to find upon my Arrival, that the Report of Almas Ally Cawn's Flight from the Vizier's Dominions was premature. His Conduct for some Time past, no doubt, indicated such an Intention, and* appears at one Time warranted a Belief that his Resolution was decidedly taken; but although he withdrew himself and his Naibs from the Charge of the Country, he never broke off his Correspondence with the Courts, or manifested any Disinclination to return to his Duty under his Excellency's Government, whenever he might be assured he could do it on Terms of undoubted Security to himself.

* Sic in Orig.

The hastily and ill founded Alarms with which the Misrepresentations of the Enemies of the Vizier's and our own Government had impressed him, having been removed by the fullest Assurances of Security and Protection, he has resumed the Charge of the Districts before held, and I trust his future Conduct will merit your Forgiveness and continued Patronage.

I must entreat, Sir, that you will suspend your Judgment upon the State of the Vizier's Administration, until I shall be able to lay before you a Review of the Measures already adopted, and now in Agitation, for the Regulation of this Country, which I have not a Doubt will afford the most satisfactory Evidence of the happy Effects of your Managements.

Upon the last Paragraph of your Commands, I must beg leave to refer you to my Address of this Date to the Honourable Board, which I confidently trust you will receive as an Acquittal of the Responsibility with which you charge me; and as you have candidly rested your Decision on my Conduct, on the ultimate Effect of my Exertions to realize the Honourable Company's Balance, conformably to the Assurances I had repeatedly given on that Head, I am encouraged to hope for that Testimony of your Approbation, which it has ever been equally my my Study and Ambition to merit, and which with me muſt ever conſtitute an eſſential Part of any Satisfaction I could look for in the moſt ſucceſsful Diſcharge of my Duty.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

To the Honourable Board.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

Conformably to the Spirit of the Inſtructions given to me for my Guidance by the Honourable the Governor General, upon the Concluſion of the Agreement with the Nabob Vizier at Chunar, I have the Honour to inform you, with his Excellency's Concurrence, I have ſtationed in each Aumildary throughout theſe Provinces an Agent of my own Nomination, in the Capacity of Daroga Taſſuah, or Muſter-maſter to the Mooteyna Troops, whoſe Duty it is to muſter and tranſmit to my Office regular monthly Returns of thoſe Eſtabliſhments, and upon whoſe Report and Signature alone their Pay is to be iſſued. This Meaſure will eſtabliſh a neceſſary Check upon the Conduct of the Aumils, and effectually obviate thoſe Abuſes and Miſapplications conſequent on the former irregular Mode of conducting this Branch of Expence. I could not with Propriety have taken ſ* deciſive a Line in this Buſineſs at an earlier Period, as the Nabob and Miniſters, returning to the Capital ſo late as the Month of October, found themſelves obliged to continue the Aumils already in Employ in their reſpective Truſts, or riſk by new Appointments at that advanced Seaſon the Loſs of the whole Collections on the Khereef, or firſt Corps; which amount of † Two-fifths of the annual Revenue and the ſame Circumſtance, involved the Neceſſity of leaving their Agreements nearly in the Form in which they ſtood the preceding Year. Hence it became difficult and dangerous to take any immediate Steps for the Introduction of the Governor General's Arrangements, beyond laying the Foundations of a future Reform, which was duly attended to; and theſe I can now ſecurely build upon, as by availing myſelf of this early Period, every Aumils ‡ is previouſly apprized of the Terms on which he unbarks §, and ſtands without Excuſe for any Failure in his Engagements. I ſhall have the Satisfaction of laying before you very ſhortly as correct a Return of the Troops actually employed, as it may be poſſible to make, after curtailing Numbers every where, as far as it can be done conſiſtently with the Security of the Collections; and out of the Savings, which I am confident of immediately producing, I have ſtipulated with the Miniſter for the Maintenance of Four complete Regiments of the Honourable Company's Troops, at the Rate of Twenty-five thouſand Rupees per Month each, as eſtabliſhed by the Chunar Treaty; ſhould this Meaſure meet your Approbation, and it be ſuitable to your Views to enlarge the Plan, I have no Doubt of being able by degrees to introduce as many more Regiments as you may wiſh to have employed, in lieu of the Government Troops now maintained for the Service.

* Sic in Orig.

‡ Sic in Orig.

§ Sic in Orig.

I have the further Satisfaction to inform your Honourable Board, that I have at length prevailed on the Nabob Vizier to carry into effectual Execution the Meaſure recommended by the Honourable the Governor General, for the Inſtitution of Courts of Adawlut, under proper Regulations, throughout his Dominions. Molovy Mowbean, a very reputable, learned, and diſtinguiſhed Man of the Law, has been appointed Sudder ul Huck, and a Deputy on his Behalf is going out with each Aumil, accompanied with a proper and competent Eſtabliſhment for the due Adminiſtration of Juſtice, independently of the Phougedars and Collectors. This Meaſure will alſo, I flatter myſelf, meet with your Approbation.

It is incumbent upon me to inform you of the improper Conduct of Fyzula Cawn, who for ſome Time paſt has been carrying on a conſtant Correſpondence with the other Rohilla Chiefs, and maintains Diſcourſes in his public Durbar of a very contrary Tendency to the Line of his Duty and profeſſed Allegiance to the Vizier.

It is not very likely he would be able to effect any Thing that could materially endanger theſe Provinces; yet it muſt be obſerved that any Attempt, however unſucceſsful to himſelf, would to a Certainty occaſion a very heavy Loſs in the Vizier's Collections. And * Advantage gained by his Troops in a late unfortunate Diſpute with Two of his Vizier's Battalions at Darrangur, has had the natural Effect of exciting Inſolence and Temerity, and makes it now not very eaſy for that Chief, were he ſo inclined, to repreſs the turbulent Spirit of his Follows †.

* Sic in Orig.

† Sic in Orig.

By the Third Article of the Treaty concluded between the Honourable the Governor General and the Vizier at Chunar, his Excellency is empowered to place Fayzula Cawn upon the ſame Footing with the other Jagheerdars, giving him his Allowances in Money inſtead of Lands; but the Honourable the Governor General, though acceding to the Nabob's Propoſal, deeming it ‡ inadviſeable that the Meaſure ſhould be attempted in the then Situation of this Government, and during the active Scene which occupied the Company's Troops, I, in conſequence, prevailed on the Nabob to ſuſpend it until a more convenient Opportunity might offer. Theſe Objections to the Meaſure being now, I conceive, removed, and this being the only Jagheer exiſting under the Vizier's Government, I would, if the Honourable Board are pleaſed to approve, venture to adviſe the Reſumption of it as ſoon as the Ceſſation of the Rains will permit. For this it will be neceſſary neceſſary the Nabob ſhould obtain not only your previous Sanction, but Aſſurance of your Support, in caſe, which I think very probable, his own Strength ſhould be found unequal to the Undertaking.

‡ Sic in Orig.

The Poſſeſſions of Fayzula Cawn are ſo ſituated, that there is no Poſſibility of cutting off his Retreat, whenever he might chooſe to attempt it; and, ſhould it ever ſo happen, the great extra Collections he has for ſome Years paſt made beyond the Amount for which the Jagheer was originally granted, now ſuppoſed to be accumulated to One Crore and an Half of Rupees, muſt prove a total and irreparable Loſs to this Country. It ſeems therefore worthy the Attention of your Honourable Board to co-operate with the Vizier in ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt effectual in obviating the Miſchiefs which his Excellency juſtly apprehends from leaving Fayzula Cawn in his preſent unreſtricted Situation, eſpecially as the propoſed Change cannot, in my Conception, be conſidered as any actual Innovation on the Rights of that Chief's Treaty with the late Vizier, which ſecure to him an annual Income of Fifteen Lacks; and this the Nabob by no means deſigns to deprive him of, but wiſhes to pay it in Money inſtead of allowing him to collect above Thrice
* Sic in Orig. that Sum from Lands, by Means which drain the other Parts of Rohilchund of their Recates * and Revenues, and enable him to maintain a large Force ready upon all Occaſions to join any internal † Sic in Orig. or foreign Enemy which might † up in Oppoſition to his Excellency's Government; and there can be no Doubt but Zabitta Cawn, with whom he is cloſely connected, and keeps up a conſtant Intercourſe, would ſeize any Opening which might yield him the faineſt Hopes of recovering his hereditary Poſſeſſions in Rohilchund.

I have encloſed an Addreſs from the Nabob Vizier to the Honourable the Governor General on this Subject, and am, with the higheſt Reſpect,

Sir,

I have herewith the Honour to ſubmit to you an Account of my Current Claims for the preſent Year upon the Nabob Vizier, amounting to Rupees 70,99,882, for which Amount I have received Aſſignments, as per the encloſed Liſt, for Rupees 76,38,114, in which I have been neceſſitated to include the Nabob's Demand for the current Year upon Furruckabad; and as his Excellency has now totally withdrawn his Sezamul from the Collection of it, as well as every Interference whatever, I beg I may be honoured with your Inſtructions whether Muzuffer Jung is to pay the Amount at the Preſidency, or as uſual to me. Khyragur is in the ſame Predicament, the Vizier having no Authority over the preſent Aumil. The reſt I have little Doubt of receiving; for the large Balance now due from the Nabob, I am given ſtrong Hopes of receiving Aſſets from the Funds expected by the Recovery of the Nabob's paternal Eſtate, hitherto withheld by his

The new Regulation of reſuming the Jaguires is carrying into Execution in every Part of theſe extenſive Provinces, and, when effected, will afford a very material Increaſe in the Nabob's Revenues.

Hon. Sir and Sirs,

I am ſorry to communicate to your Honourable Board the Aſſaſſination of Mirza Aboola Beg, Aumil of Goruckpore and Bahrach, by Two diſcontented Men among his Troops, who alſo paid the Forfeit of their own Lives for their Temerity.

I cannot help being under ſome Alarm for the poſſible Effects which this Accident may produce on the general State of thoſe Countries, and particularly on the Nabob's Aſſignment upon them in favour of the Honourable Company, it unfortunately happening at a moſt critical Period of the Rubbee Harveſt, upon which the heavieſt Collections fall; nothing, however, has been left undone which Prudence could ſuggeſt to prevent Confuſion or Loſs; Rajah Soorut Sing, Dewan to the preſent and late Vizier, a Man of the firſt Repute and Conſequence in this Country, having been deputed to take charge of the Collections, and by his Influence to endeavour to prevent thoſe Inſurrections which might be apprehended among a People naturally prone to Rebellion. I have, with the Vizier's Concurrence, ordered Major Naylor's Regiment to move Northward from Goonda to the Diſtricts moſt likely to be diſturbed; and Major Gilpin's Regiment being at § Sic in Orig. Fayzabad,§ the ſmall Balance yet due on the Nabob's Aſſignment upon the Bhow Begums, is alſo conveniently poſted to act upon an Emergency; ſo that I have every Reaſon to flatter myſelf the Country will ſoon be reſtored to Peace and Tranquillity, ſhould, contrary to my Hopes, theſe Meaſures not prove effectual in entirely preventing Diſorders.

I received the Honour of your Commands of the 25th November, conveying the Proceedings of the Seventh September againſt me, founded upon Two Letters of as Perſons* ſo general and ſo unſupported by any defined Act, that I could not anſwer them otherwiſe than by a Negative, as unqualified and equally general. This uſeleſs Reply I ſuſpended until I ſhould receive the Charges on that Date, promiſed to be drawn up from theſe Letters, and other Matter not then recorded. Theſe I have now received, under Seven Heads: The Two firſt immediately from the Letters, as recorded on the 7th September; the Third upon a Part of the ſame Letter, not then entered, and the Four laſt, Complaints of Neglect of Duty, under Heads particularized.

Encloſed I have the Honour to ſubmit my Anſwers to each Charge. Anxiouſly waiting your final Deciſion upon them, I have the Honour to ſubſcribe myſelf, with the greateſt Reſpect, Calcutta, the 14th June 1783. Delivered in 5th July.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,
Your moſt obedient, and moſt humble Servant,
(Signed) R. Johnſon.

First Charge from Hyder Beg's Letter, entered, Conſultations the 7th* September 1782.

* Sic in Orig.

For aſſuming an unlicenſed Authority in Prejudice of the Vizier's Government, and interfering in the Management of his Country in oppoſition to his Will, and to the Endeavours and Remonſtrances of his Miniſter. The particular Inſtances alledged are, by appointing Amils of your own Choice, and in ſuch a Manner that no one either attended the Preſence of the Nabob or viſited his Miniſters.

(See N° 1. Mode of appointing Amils.)

(See N° 2. Orders.)

Anſwer.

I am nearly as much difficulted to anſwer this Abſtract, as I am the Letter it is taken from, and for the ſame Reaſons. It contains no defined Act except in the laſt Words, by which it is ſtated that I have appointed Amils, but not one is named.

I appointed no Amils; I recommended more than One, and urged the Miniſter to obtain their Appointment from the Nabob (who alone is competent to this Act) by every Means in my Power. Theſe Means were limited to Reiteration of Requeſt. My Duty, as well as my Orders, directed me in this. I ſhould have been influenced by either ſeparately, had they not united in one Iſſue. I never recommended but upon ſelf-evident Neceſſity. Had any one Inſtance been named, I ſhould thereby have been called upon to trouble the Honourable Board with a full Explanation of that Inſtance. As the Charges* now ſtands, a general Hiſtory would be as vague in its Effect, as the Miniſter's general Accuſation is. Other Aſſumption of unlicenſed Authority is undefined. I deny any:—And with it "the Prejudice to the Nabob's Government," equally unexplained. The Interference, the Oppoſition to the Nabob's Will, and the Endeavours and Remonſtrances of his Miniſter, are all as unknown to me as they are unſupported. I can only oppoſe my Negative to them. The particular Inſtances alledged, I have anſwered; to which I muſt add, that if "the Manner of appointing Amils of my own Choice, ſo that no one attended the Nabob's Preſence, or viſited the Miniſter," alludes to the Non-attendance of the Amils themſelves, the very Nature of the Act (explained in N° 1) refutes it. If it alludes generally to all Ranks of People being deterred from going to the Nabob and Miniſter, I muſt aſſert the contrary, and will ſtand by the Proof.

Second Charge from Hyder Beg's Letter, Conſultations 7th September 1782.

By exacting Sunnuds and Orders from the Preſence at your own Pleaſure, and iſſuing the Sunnuds on your own Part,

Anſwer.

This is as general as the firſt, which it muſt be if my Deſcription of the Letter it is taken from be true.

Exacting, as if this Duty had been held independent of the Vizier's Authority.

Exacting, is a very vague Term. The Mode, Degree, and Aim of an Act, conſtitutes its Criminality: Its Name does not. I have before ſaid, that urgent and reiterated Solicitation, Importunity through the Miniſter himſelf to the Nabob, were the only Means I had. I repeat that I employed no other. I obtained Sunnuds for the Amils I recommended; they could not have become Amils without them. I deemed this a Diſcharge of my Duty. I deemed the Succeſs a Merit; and until an unjuſtiiable * Mode of ſuch Obtention* is proved, or any unjuſtifiable Purpoſe in the ſubſequent Uſe of them eſtabliſhed, I muſt continue in this Error. This Act of Independency is diſproved by the Sunnud itſelf, by the iſſuing of it, and ſupporting it.

3d Charge, Con'. 7th September 1782.

Major Palmer's Letter "for ſending repeatedly to the Vizier, and to his Miniſter Hyder Beg Khan, to adviſe them againſt transferring the 10 Lacs of Rupees intended as a Preſent to the Governor General to the Company's Account, as it would be a Precedent for further Demands, which, if the Vizier did not reſiſt in the firſt Inſtance, this Government would never ceaſe to haraſs him for Money."

60 a Loan.
12 for Four additional Regiments.
10 the Sum in this Charge.
Total 82

Anſwer.

This Extract, and the Matter of the remaining Charges, are not in the Copy of the Proceedings of the 7th September ſent to me in December laſt. I am not the leſs ready to meet them here.

The Act and Intention, as far as I ſhall limit them, in admitting myſelf the Cauſe of preventing the 10 Lacs mentioned from being, at that Time, paid to the Company, are true. The Reaſons aſſigned for ſuch Prevention, "left* the Nabob ſhould be again haraſſed," &c. are the Miniſter's own Words and Objections, made to me, transferred into my Mouth. The Mode alſo, by Meſſage, is likewiſe miſrepreſented. But that is immaterial. Suffice it for me to explain the Act. I acknowledge Fifty Lacs were due in Balance. All the Nabob's Reſources not promiſing to prove equal to diſcharge this Balance, a new Claim was at this ſame Inſtant made of 82 Lacs. The Reſources in my Hands, the ſole Fund exiſting to anſwer both, the Means unequal to this End, the Queſtion remained, which of the Two Claims, the new or the old, ſhould be firſt paid? I did not heſitate one Inſtant to declare, that if any of the Aſſets placed in my Hands ſhould be attempted to be eſtranged from the Purpoſes for which they were aſſigned, I ſhould declare it a Breach of Treaty. They were to diſcharge the Balances of Years. The ſole Object of the late Treaty, and all the Meaſures connected with it, had this ſingle Point for their End. Could I, deeply pledged for the Fulfilment of this Treaty, ſubſcribe to the total Subverſion of theſe Meaſures at the very Moment of their Completion, in the Termination of the Year preſcribed and allotted for their Operation? I could not; I ought not; therefore, I thus obſtructed the whole; of courſe, the Parts of that whole, for the Reaſons above aſſigned, and no other whatever. Whether ſuch a Preference, ſo given to a previous Claim, was criminal or meritorious, reſts with the Honourable Board to declare, when they recollect that retarding neither expunges or diminiſhes a Claim. Permit me here to ſubjoin, had the 10 Lacs been uninvolved with the 72, or had the aggregate Sum not been required within the Period left for liquidating the Balances intruſted to me, or had not the Aſſets lodged in my Hands for this Purpoſe been the ſole Funds from which ſuch Payment could be attempted, ſo far from impeding even for a Moment ſuch a Claim, I ſhould have been the firſt to ſupport and urge it to its Completion.

4th Charge.

For Neglect of Duty, in not having communicated to this Government any Measures which the State of Affairs in the Vizier's Country might render it necessary for you to adopt, if such Necessity prevailed.

Answer.

No defined Measures, under this Description, being asserted in my Accusation, or acknowledged by me, the Necessity supposed is not in Agitation; and the Neglect of communicating any such falls until the Affirmative becomes established. I adopted no new Measures, but I earnestly and unremittingly pursued the usual Track of the Rules laid down to answer the Ends they were originally intended for. I allude to the Instructions for the Resident.

5th Charge.

For further Neglect of Duty in not having written a single Letter to this Government during the Absence of Mr. Middleton from his Station at Lucknow; to report the State of the Upper Provinces, or of the Vizier's Dominions; or to mention any one Occurrence of those Parts, notwithstanding the important Events which took place during that Interval, from the Contentions which ensued upon the Decease of Nudjif Cawn, and the Disturbances in the Vizier's Country from the Defection and Flight of Allmas Ally Khan, one of his principal Zemindars, with a considerable Treasure and Force; from the Refractoriness and Disobedience of other Zemindars, and from other Causes which the Board have since been informed of; and for not mentioning the Disaster which happened to Two Battalions of the Vizier's Troops at Daranagur; all which the Board obtained no Knowledge of but from private Information.

Answer.

Mr. Middleton left Lucknow the 18th June, and returned the last of August. The Duty he entrusted to me was limited and restricted to closing the Balances; in which he requested Major Palmer, to whom he made over the political Department, to assist me with his Support, if I called for it. The Line was specially drawn; the political Information, of course, rested with the political Agent. He attended the Durbar, where my Business never called me. In my Line, nothing new or remarkable occurred during the Period above mentioned. The Death of Nudjiff Khan, with all its Consequences, actual and probable, had been fully laid before the Board and the Governor General in the Resident's Letters of the 9th, 10th April, to the Governor the same Date, and, the 15th, to the Council; and again, in several Letters immediately after his Return, upon resuming the respective Charges entrusted to Major Palmer and me. With respect to the Vizier's Dominions, nothing new happened in the constantly turbulent State of the Zemindars of a Country where the Rents are collected at the Point of the Sword. Many Rumours were spread of the intended Disaffection and Flight of Allmass Ali Khan. The Resident, immediately after his Return, informed the Governor General, Date 7th September *, that he had ascertained them to be groundless Reports. While I was acting, during which Time the Rumour first began, I had always an Agent with him. His chief Manager, and most confidential Agent, was always with me, and with the Minister, who likewise had an Agent constantly with Allmass. The Minister's Intelligence uniformly agreed with mine. I never lost an Opportunity to compare them; and neither of us, I will confirm by Oath, ever believed him beyond the Nabob's Limits. What I offer to confirm and attest, is my own Belief, with the Minister's consonant Declarations made to me. And I trust, that the united Testimony of Mr. Middleton, the Minister, and myself, will be received by the Board as equal, if not superior in Weight, to that of others, who cannot have had Channels of Information so much to be depended upon as those I have stated. However, my Belief, well or ill grounded, being what I have stated, I could not have informed the Honourable Board of an Act I discredited.

* See No. 4. Extract Ref. Letter.

The Fray at Daranagur was the Result, immediately brought to an Issue, of a Dispute between Two Individuals in the Bazar. The Cause, Progress, and Result, were fully ascertained. The Chiefs of the respective Parties rejected all Knowledge of, and Interference in it. Any public Question, or Discussion of it, might have proved dangerous. Fyzulla Khan is the most timid of Men. The Court of Lucknow were were ſo ſenſible of this, that they offered not a Word about it. Such Frays, termed Khanna junghee, occur perpetually under the beſt-regulated of the Up-country Governments. Under all theſe Circumſtances, in Explanation of the Heads mentioned in the Charge, I hope it will no longer appear criminal my not having correſponded upon them to the Board, even had my Situation, and diſtinct Truſt, not carried upon the Face of it the general Objection firſt above ſtated in the Beginning of the Anſwer to this Charge.

6th Charge.

For applying, on different Occaſions, to Colonel Morgan, commanding the Brigade at Cawnpore, for military Aid to enforce the Orders of Government, and quell Diſturbances in different Parts of the Vizier's Dominions, without any Reference, or even Information given, to the Board of ſuch Applications, or the Occaſion for them.

Vide No. 5 and 6. The March and Deſtination of which the Reſident informed the Board with the 7th September. No. 5 further explained in Major Scott's Inſtructions, No. 6, dated 9th September.

Anſwer.

I obtained no Regiment, or military Aid, from Colonel Morgan. One Regiment was wanted in conſequence of the Board's Letter of the 11th July. Colonel Morgan could not ſpare one. Of the only Three Regiments employed during this uncommonly buſy Year, One, the 23d, had been returned to Dynapore; another, the 20th, remained employed at Fyzabad; the Third, which was the 3d Regiment, Major Scott, appeared to have a Moment's Reſpite at Sahlone; he was therefore ſent.—The Cauſe and Object of his March ariſing from the Orders of the Board, the immediate Communication of it did not ſeem to me ſo very urgently neceſſary. If the Honourable Board judge differently, I ſtand liable to the Cenſure that ſuch an Error of judging of the immediate Neceſſity of ſuch Communication may be thought to deſerve. After the Departure of the 23d Regiment, and the March of the 3d, the Reſpite Bulbudder had given threatened but ſhort Continuance. To prevent any Riſk from this, I availed myſelf of Colonel Blair's Offer (N° 8.), grounded on the Governor General's Tender of the Troops at the Jaunpore Station (N° 7.), and obtained Two Battalions, which was equal to the One Regiment that had been returned. But upon this I ſhall trouble the Board with no further Detail, as it is not included in my Charges. And in Truth, the Movement was of little Conſequence. The frontier Camp was neither weakened or affected by it. The Number of Troops on Service were not increaſed, and they acted very little beyond their immediate Stations.

7th Charge.

But particularly for detaching, by the Means of your Application to the Commanding Officer at Cawnpore, One Regiment from that Brigade, to enforce the Vizier's Demands upon the Nabob of Ferockabad, notwithſtanding the poſitive Prohibition of any Interference from the Reſident in the Vizier's Claims upon that Nabob, and notwithſtanding the further poſitive Prohibition of Detachments being required from the Brigade, except in Caſes of extreme Neceſſity; and, on all theſe important Occaſions, for neglecting to make any Communications to this Board.

Anſwer.

I have ſtated in the foregoing Anſwer, that I obtained no Regiment from Colonel Morgan's Brigade. Major Scott's March was laid before the Honourable Board in the annexed Letter (N° 5.) from the Reſident, wherein the whole Nature of this Tranſaction is fully explained, ſo as, I truſt, to remove every Ground of the Criminality couched in this Charge, proving it to have been done in conformity with the Spirit of the Board's Letter of 11th July 1782. The Governor General * Orders alluded to, were of a much anterior date. They were ſuperſeded by the Letter 11th July, founded upon Circumſtances that aroſe after the Date of the Governor's firſt Orders, and totally changing the Grounds of them. The ſecond Prohibition, herein mentioned, muſt of courſe give way, when the Board direct effectual Aſſiſtance to be give † to the Vizier, to realize his Claims upon Mozuffer

* Sic in Orig.

† Sic in Orig.

Mozuffer Jung. The leaſt * Step towards effectual Aſſiſtance was to enſure the Arrival of the Vizier's Negociator at Furrackabad, which was the End of Major Scott's March. The concluding Sentence of this Charge is a Recapitulation of what I have anſwered in Detail in the Four preceding Articles. * Sic in Orig.

I have offered to the Indulgence of the Board all that my immediate Self-juſtification ſeemed indiſpenſably to require againſt the Charges, as I find them ſtated: But ere I can call for their Deciſion, I muſt proceed to explain a Point with which I am not charged, but with which I muſt now charge myſelf, as I find it ſolely laid to Mr. Middleton. He is accuſed with anticipating the Revenues, and loading them with an uſurious Intereſt upon an Advance made to him, and brought to Credit in his Accounts. This Crime originated with me. He only ſanctified it by his Authority. The greater Share, if not the whole of the Blame, it may incur, muſt therefore reſt on me. The total Sum conſiſted of Two Parts, nearly Halves, 25 Lacks each; one was a Negociation of the Balances due from the different Amils, agitated and ſettled by the Miniſter himſelf: The other an Anticipation of Rents aſſigned to pay a Banker for the Advance he made of the Amount required and negociated. The Charge is or ſhould be therefore confined to this laſt. The whole Tranſaction will of courſe be fully ſtated by Mr. Middleton, as it ſtands included in his Charges. All that I here mean to explain, is, that the Rents anticipated by Aſſignment to the Banker, in other Words the Funds upon which the Advance was made, were not the Rents of Lands upon which the Company had ever received their Aſſignments, or which had ever ſupplied the Nabob's Treaſury and Wants, but the reſumed Rents of rebellions * and other Jagueerdars (chiefly Letafuts, Begums, and Salar Jungs), forming an entire new Fund, now and never before brought into the Nabob's and Company's Coffers. By this Plan it became therefore in ſo much a net Gain to the Nabob. The Plan in other Reſpects, had it met with Encouragement, opened a new Channel of Reſource, upon emergent Occaſions, to the Nabob and Company. The Bankers, properly noticed and rewarded for an Advance of 50 Lacks (an Inſtance I believe never before equalled), would have been ready upon a Repetition of the Call. The Intereſt termed Uſury by the Board, was the uſual Intereſt of the Country where the Loan was made. The eſtabliſhed Intereſt of a Country is no Uſury in that Country, whatever it may be deemed in others. But had the Intereſt been uſurious or high, the Nabob paid it; not from his own Reſources, Deficiencies in which could afterwards † b felt by his Allies, but from new Funds. He would gladly have paid it from his own, to anſwer the great Purpoſes effected by it. * Sic in Orig. † Sic in Orig.

It enabled him to fulfil a Treaty, a Treaty of the higheſt Concern to him; a Treaty, for the Performance of which himſelf, his Miniſter, and the Reſident, ſtood pledged; the Completion of which, compriſed a great Benefit to the Company. They were in want of Money. The Treaty was calculated to anſwer this Want, and this Plan to fulfil the Treaty. Therefore, had even the Nabob's own uſual Reſources, or even thoſe uſually aſſigned to the Company, been in Reality anticipated, ſuch Anticipation would have been an Advantage to the Company, by an advanced Payment, and not a Detriment or Injury, upon which alone the Diſapprobation of the Board can be grounded. I therefore now hope, that this Explanation will induce the Approbation, inſtead of Cenſure, of the Board upon this Meaſure.

(Signed) R. Johnſon.

Mode of appointing an Aumil at the Court of Owde.

After the Petition of an Amil to be appointed, either from himſelf or the Introduction or Influence of others, and the Election adopted by the Miniſter and Nabob, the old Accounts of former Years of the Province to be delivered in charge are produced by the Miniſter from the Dewannee and other public Offices, and upon theſe, after they have guided the Agreement of groſs Jumma, he examines the Wajeb ub Arz, a Paper written under diſtinct and widely ſeparated Heads, expreſſing every Requeſt and Stipulation propoſed by the intended Amil. Between theſe ſeparate Articles the Miniſter writes in his own Hand his Adoption or Rejection of the reſpective Claims, in Whole or in Part. The Paper thus prepared goes through the Dewannee, Bukſhygaree, Taſſeah, &c. inferior Officers, to be examined and regiſtered. After all theſe clear and well-known Forms, the Amil receives his Sunnuds and Shukkahs under the Nabob's great Seal, with the other Checks, Counterparts, and Confirmations of inferior Officers. The Nabob then grants him ſome of his own Troops to eſtabliſh and ſupport him, if neceſſary; and finally in Preſence of, and from the Nabob's own Hands, the confirmed Amil receives his Tebberuck or Khelat, upon which he preſents to the Nabob a Nezar, and is at Liberty to proceed the firſt fortunate Day upon his Commiſſion. He then viſits the Miniſters and other high Officers, to whom he likewiſe preſents Nezars, and expects Beetle, Otter, Shauls, or Marks of Approbation, Favour, and Protection, from them, without which he does not think it ſafe or prudent to ſet out. Of late Years, ſince a Reſident has been in that Court, who generally has ſo much to do with many of the Amils (that is, thoſe upon whom the Honourable Company's Aſſignment ‡ are granted) the newly appointed Amils, if under this Predicament, and not otherwiſe, ‡ Sic in Orig.

wiſe, think it alſo right to receive a Betle or Shaul from him, either at the Time of his ſigning and delivering his Acknowledgments of the Aſſignment upon him, or any other more convenient Period before his Departure.

Extract from printed Orders, dated Chunar, 19th September 1781.

In the Management of the Collections, the Miniſters with your Concurrence are to chuſe all Amils and Collections *; and in their Choice to be guided by the Reſponſibility, good Reputation, and known Abilities of the Perſons they elect, that Charges may as far as poſſible be avoided.

Again: That if the Nabob ſhall perſiſt in appointing improper Officers diſaffected to our Government, it is peremptorily to be oppoſed.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

Intelligence was this Morning received from Dolhy, which mentions the Death of Nudjiff Cawn; but no more authentic Account than the common Newſpapers having yet been received, either by Mirza Khullub or the Vizier, I cannot yield implicit Credit to the Report. To-morrow's Intelligence will no doubt aſcertain it.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

The Intimation which I had the Honour to give you in my Letter of Yeſterday's Date, reſpecting Nudjiff Cawn, has been confirmed To-Day, through various authentic Channels, and I have been deſired by his Excellency the Vizier to forward you the encloſed Addreſs from him on the Subject.

I have the Honour to be, with the higheſt Reſpect,
Sir, your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,
(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

Lucknow,
10th April 1782.

To the Honourable Board.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I have this Day received confirmed Information of the Death of the Nabob Nudjiff Cawn.

My Opinion upon this Subject I had the Honour to ſubmit to the Governor General under Date 24th February laſt, upon a premature Information of the Deceaſe of that Nabob, which hitherto I find no Reaſon to alter. I therefore beg leave to refer your Honourable Board to that, as containing every Sentiment or Information that I can at preſent offer upon the Subject.

The Nabob Vizier ſeems to think it probable, or poſſible, that Mahadajee Scindia may be induced, either at the Inſtigation of his own Ambition, or at the King's Solicitation, to proceed to Delhi upon this Conjuncture. His Alarms and Apprehenſions upon this Head, he ſtates, in his Letter of this Day's Date to the Governor General; and in order to prevent the only one of the Two aforementioned Inducements which lays within his Reach to attempt, he has written an Arzee to the King, aſſuring him of his Attachment to his Intereſts, declaring himſelf ready to march with his Forces to ſupport his Views, and mentioning your Government as equally well diſpoſed to his Majeſty, and finally recommending to him to call in no other Foreign Aid. He has alſo written Letters of Condolance to the late Nabob's Family, and other of Encouragement to the Principal Commanders of his Armies, adviſing them to continue firm in their Duty and Allegiance to the King, whom he tells them he is marching to Delhi to ſupport; moſt of theſe Chiefs were formerly the Servants of this Court, and many of them connected by Blood with the Vizier's Family. His Excellency has alſo made an Application to Colonel Morgan to move the ſubſidiary Brigade towards Etawa, to be in Readineſs to act in caſe any Emergency ſhould require it. I have ſent his Excellency's Applications to the Colonel, but have only recommended his holding the Brigade in Readineſs to march to that central Station, either upon the Receipt of your Orders to this Effect, or ſome intermediate urgent Neceſſity occurring, which may preclude the Propriety of making any Delay whatever. This will I hope meet your Approbation.

I have the Honour to be, with great Reſpect,
Honourable Sir and Sirs,
Your moſt obedient and humble Servant,
(Signed) Nath. Middleton.

Lucknow,
the 10th April 1782.
Again, 14th, 15th, 19th, and 8th October.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I have the Honour to receive your Commands of the 10th Auguſt, previous to my Departure from Patna, and delayed the Acknowledgment of them until my Arrival at Lucknow, only that I might be enabled to yield you the fulleſt Information and Satisfaction on the Subject of their Contents.

I have

I have had the Pleaſure to find upon my Arrival that the Report of Almas Ally Cawn's Flight from the Vizier's Dominions was premature. His Conduct for ſome Time paſt no doubt indicated ſuch an Intention, and appears at one Time warranted a Belief that his Reſolution was decidedly taken; but although he withdrew himſelf and his Naibs from the Charge of the Country, he never broke off his Correſpondence with the Court, or manifeſted any Diſinclination to return to his Duty under his Excellency's Government whenever he might be aſſured he could do it on Terms of undoubted Security to himſelf.

The haſty and ill-founded Alarms with which the Miſrepreſentations of the Enemies of the Vizier's and our own Government had impreſſed him, having been removed by the fulleſt Aſſurances of Security and Protection, he has reſumed the Charge of the Diſtricts he before held, and I truſt his future Conduct will merit your Forgiveneſs and continued Patronage.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Sir,

Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant.

Lucknow,
the 7th September 1782.

Extract from the Reſident, dated 7th September 1782, to the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, and the Members of the Supreme Council.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I have received the Honour of your Commands of the 11th July, obſerving "That I have received no Part of the Tunkaw upon Furruckabad, and have never intimated the Cauſe in my Addreſſes either to the Board or the Governor General, and upon a Conception that the Payment withheld may have proceeded from an Advantage taken by the Nabob Muzuffer Jung of your Mediation with the Nabob Vizier, you direct in ſuch Caſe, that I immediately afford his Excellency effectual Aſſiſtance for the Recovery of what Money may be due to him from Muzuffer Jung, and expreſsly to withdraw all other Interference with the Nabob."

Upon this Article, the Honourable Board have anticipated my Reply by adverting to what they conjecture may have been the Cauſe of the total Failure in the Collections from Furruckabad, which was, as they have juſtly ſuppoſed, an improper Advantage taken by Muzuffer Jung of the Mediation employed with the Nabob Vizier in his Behalf. I have therefore, immediately upon Receipt of your Orders, withdrawn all Mediation and Interference which ſtood between the Nabob Vizier, and the Collection of his Tribute from Furruckabad, and afforded him the Aſſiſtance directed, by ſending a Regiment to ſupport the Sezawal appointed by his Excellency for the Collection of the Tribute of the enſuing Year, and have added my Inſtruction to the ſame Agent to collect the Aſſignment of Seven and Half Lacks firſt above mentioned, upon the Tribute and Balances due to the End of the Current Year; and as I have anticipated the Succeſs of this Truſt by raiſing this Amount among the other Balances as above ſtated, I have the Satisfaction to reflect that the Honourable Board will not even feel the Inconveniency ariſing from the Delay that the Mediation in favour of Muzuffer Jung has occaſioned.

Tranſlation of a Letter from the Reſident at the Vizier's Court to the Nabob.

To Muzuffer Jung.

After the uſual Compliments: I have received your Letter (recapitulates the Contents). The generous and liberal Motives which induced the Governor General to employ the Mediation of the Company between the Nabob Vizier and you, are known to the whole World, and require from me no Explanation. It is equally notorious what has been the Effect produced by that Mediation, which, however you may have underſtood it, I am well aſſured was never meant to impede, ſtill leſs wholly to preclude the Collection of the Nabob Vizier's juſt Claims upon you; the Communication I have received from the Governor General from the firſt to the laſt reſpecting the Nature and Object of his indulgent Mediation in your Behalf have correſponded invariably with my own Opinion on the Subject. In his Firſt Letter relative to this Matter, he informs me, that he has conſented to exert his Endeavours with the Vizier to remove the Reſtraint and Controul which had been laid upon you for the Collection of the Tribute, and to prevail on his Excellency to receive his Dues through your Agents, inſtead of employing his own, for which Purpoſe he has given the neceſſary Inſtructions to Meer Suftoola Cawn, and diſpatched him to the Nabob Vizier and myſelf, to adjuſt the Amounts depending between you * his Excellency, and ſettle the future Mode of Payment. The Vizier moſt readily acceded to the Governor General's Wiſhes on this Point, and his Excellency's Agents and all Sort of Interference with the Government were in conſequence inſtantly withdrawn. But this was done upon the Faith of the Governor General's Aſſurances that you would take effectual Care to prevent a Meaſure which had been adopted principally for your Relief, from impeding the Liquidation of the Vizier's legal and juſt Claims; and agreeably to the Intimation I had from the Governor General, I waited patiently the Arrival of Suftoola Cawn; but to my utter Surprize I learnt, that inſtead of coming here as directed, he went ſtreight to Furruckabad, and publicly declared you excuſed from any further Claim of the Vizier. This being ſo contrary to the Tenor of the Governor General's Advices and Commands to me, that I con-

* Sic in Orig.

* Sic in Orig. I considered it merely a Piece * Artifice of Suftoola Cawn's to raiſe his own Credit and Conſequence, and ſuppoſed you as well as myſelf impoſed upon. Having repeatedly written to you, in conſequence of the Vizier's Claim upon you having become a Part of the Funds aſſigned for the Liquidation of his Excellency's Engagements to the E. Company, without receiving any explicit or ſatisfactory Anſwer, and no Payments either made or ſeemingly intended, I was under the Neceſſity of referring the Matter to the Conſideration and Deciſion of the Governor General, who, ſeeing the improper Advantage which had been taken by you and your Agents of his well-intended Mediation, to the great Prejudice of the Vizier, and the conſequent Injury of the Company's Engagements with him, thought proper to withdraw any further Interference between you, and to leave the Vizier again uncontrouled in the Proſecution of his juſt and reaſonable Claims upon you. The Vizier has thereupon been pleaſed to appoint a Sizawal for the Proviſion of Funds for the Payment of the enſuing Year's Tribute, and it is proper I inform you, that, as before it was my Duty to uſe every Means in my Power to prevent any Interference with your Government; ſo it now becomes incumbent upon me to yield every Aſſiſtance I may be able to the Nabob Vizier to enable him to aſſert and recover thoſe Rights which the Perverſion of an Indulgence ſo generouſly procured for you, has hitherto withheld from him.

What more ſhall I ſay?

N. B. Muzuffer Jung, inſtead of tendering Payment of his Tribute through his own Agents, conſtantly denied owing any Thing to the Vizier. He and his Agents during the whole Year appear totally to have miſtaken the Governor General's humane Interpoſition.

The Vizier and his Miniſters, foreſeeing this probable Conſequence, inſiſted upon the Furruckabad Tribute being included among the Company's Aſſignments, as appears in the following Letter.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c.

Sir,

I have herewith the Honour to ſubmit to you an Account of my current Claims for the preſent Year upon the Nabob Vizier, amounting to Rupees 70,99,882, for which Amount I have received Aſſignments as per the incloſed Liſt, for Rupees 76,38,114, in which I have been neceſſitated to include the Nabob's Demands for the current Year upon Furruckabad; and as his Excellency has now totally withdrawn his Sezawal from the Collection of it, as well as every Interference whatever, I beg I may be honoured with your Inſtructions, whether Muzuffer Jung is to ſay † the Amount at the Preſidency, or as uſual to me. Khyragar is in ‡ ſame Predicament, the Vizier having no Authority over the preſent Aumil. The reſt I have little Doubt of receiving. For the large Balance now due from the Nabob, I am given ſtrong Hopes of receiving Aſſets from the Funds expected by the Recovery of the Nabob's paternal Eſtate, hitherto withheld by his Mother, but which he has now demanded. The Reſult is yet in Suſpence; as ſoon as any Certainty of the Grounds of this Expectation can be determined and may come to my Knowledge, I ſhall not fail to impart it to you.

The new Regulation of reſuming the Jaguires is carrying into Execution in every Part of theſe extenſive Provinces, and when effected will afford a very material Increaſe in the Nabob's Revenues.

The Order of Seven Lacks upon them could not be encreaſed this Year, as, before the Seizure can be completed, the Collections upon the firſt Crop will be over; beſides which many of the Jaguirdars having ſtong§ Family Claims upon the Nabob, he has been obliged to aſſign Ready Money Payment in lieu of the Rents of the Lands.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

Sir,

I was this Day honoured with your Commands of the 10th Inſtant, informing me of the military Station you have eſtabliſhed at Juanpore, with the Liberty you grant the Nabob Vizier of claiming their Aid to quell any Diſturbances in the adjacent Parts of his Province. I have accordingly communicated it to his Excellency, who with great Juſtice was highly pleaſed with the Diſpoſition; as in Truth the Diſtricts bordering upon the Zemendary of Benares have for a long Period of Time been of all others the moſt turbulent and diſaffected, and nothing leſs than the Arrangement you have now formed could effectually ſecure the Peace and Tranquillity in that Neighbourhood, ſo eſſential to the Proſperity of the Nabob's Government and Revenues.

P. S. I have the Honour to encloſe you a Letter from the Vizier in Reply to your laſt to his Excellency.

To Nathaniel Middleton Eſquire, Reſident at Lucknow.

Sir,

I beg to acquaint you that the Officer commanding the Troops at preſent poſted at or near Juanpore, conſiſting of Two Regiments of Sepoys, the Second Regiment of Cavalry, with a Detachment of Artillery and Five Pieces of Ordnance, is inſtructed by me to ſupply you with a military Force ſhould you require one on any Emergency in the Nabob Vizier's Provinces; and he is further directed, in caſe of any ſuch Requiſition, to furniſh you with neceſſary Aſſiſtance without Delay or waiting for any further Orders from me.

I am to requeſt, in caſe you find it neceſſary to apply for any Part of the Troops under my Command, that you will be pleaſed as ſoon as convenient to acquaint me with the Nature of the Service they are required to perform.

(Signed) William Blair.

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Reſident at the Court of the Nabob Vizier.

Sir,

When his Highneſs the Vizier did me the Honour of a Viſit at Chunar, he made me a Requeſt that we might have an Interview once in every Year, for the Purpoſe is * of diſcuſſing and adjuſting the mutual Concerns of the Company and himſelf, and of improving the Harmony and Confidence which ſubſiſted between the Two Governments. To this Requiſition I readily aſſented, and greatly lament that the Situation of Affairs make it impoſſible for me to effect a Meeting at this Time. The preſent important † demands the united †, vigorous Exertions of both Governments for the common Safety and Succeſs; and in this Situation, whilſt the greateſt Cordiality is requiſite, you inform me that his Highneſs is much diſſatisfied on many Points contained in our late Agreement, and which he made his own Requeſt. To remove his Uneaſineſs on theſe Subjects, and to give him entire Satisfaction on others which may be Objects of his Fears or Suſpicions, and to give a laſting Comit‡ and Increaſe of Strength and reciprocal Advantage to our Alliance, would be impracticable by any other Mode than verbal Communication, Explanations, and Aſſurance; and as for the Reaſon above aſſigned I cannot make this in Perſon, I think it indiſpenſable to delegate the Truſt to another; for theſe Purpoſes I have deputed Major Palmer to attend his Highneſs and his Miniſters at Lucknow. Major Palmer, as you know, has been my confidential Secretary for ſeveral Years; I have diſcloſed to him without Reſerve my Sentiments on every Point of the relative Connection between the Company and the Court of Owde; and I can only rely upon him for a faithful Explanation of him.

I have the ‖ alſo inſtructed Major Palmer to give the moſt expreſs Aſſurances to the Miniſters of my Approbation of their Conduct, and Determination to protect and ſupport them ſo long as they preſerve their Attachment to this Government and purſue the real Intereſts of the Vizier.

‖ Sic in Orig.

Major Palmer has the public Objects in charge, which he will perſonally communicate to you; and I moſt earneſtly require of you the ſtrongeſt Co-operation of your Authority and Influence Influence towards his attaining them; I think his Succeſs almoſt certain if he meets with your cordial Support and Aſſiſtance. Whatever may be the Event, a conſiderable Share in producing it will be attributed to you, and affect you accordingly.

Such Explanations as are intended ſolely for the Satisfaction of the Nabob, and coming from myſelf, I have directed Major Palmer to communicate ſeparately to him; but in doing this, to uſe every Precaution to avoid any Diminution of your Authority or Influence.

I have ſent Major Davy as a confidential Aſſiſtant to Major Palmer; and in caſe any Accident ſhould happen to the latter, to execute his Commiſſion.

APPENDIX, N° XLIX.

Letter from W^m Larkins, Eſquire, Accountant General in Bengal, to the Chairman of the Eaſt India Company, dated Calcutta, 5th Auguſt 1786.

DUPLICATE.

☞ (a) [To William Devaynes, Eſquire, Chairman, or to the Chairman for the Time being, of the Honourable the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.]

Sir,

Par. 1. In conformity to the Directions which I had the Honour to receive by the Talbot, on the 28th April 1786, from my much-reſpected Friend Mr. Haſtings, dated Cheltenham, 18th July 1785, I have the Honour to tranſmit you Copies of the Papers, which I kept as Memorandums of the Particulars of the Dates on which the Sums contained in Mr. Haſtings's Account of 22d May 1782 were received.

2. Should it ever be required of me to authenticate the Veracity of theſe Copies upon Oath, I ſhall at all Times be ready to afford that Solemnity to the Fidelity with which they have been made; but it cannot be expected that I ſhould at preſent, by voluntarily making this ſerious Appeal to the Omniſcient, incur the Suſpicion of wantonly proſtituting ſuch ſolemn Aſſurances with Indifference; which is an Idea that would moſt probably be encouraged by thoſe who were pleaſed to inſinuate, in the Eleventh Report of the Select Committee of the Houſe of Commons, that becauſe there were other Modes, by which the Neceſſity of that which I did take on 16th December 1782, which accompanied Mr. Haſtings's Letter of that Date, might have been precluded, yet, as theſe were not taken, my Affidavit merited little Credit in the Eſtimation of Mankind.—And that the Juſtice of this Inſinuation may no longer be inferred, from my not having explained the Circumſtances which, as I thought, rendered that Affidavit neceſſary, I ſhall now ſtate them with the utmoſt Fidelity.

3. Mr. Haſtings returned from Benares to Calcutta on 5th February 1782: At that Time I was wholly ignorant of the Letter which, on 20th January, he wrote from Patna, to the Secret Committee of the Honourable Court of Directors: The rough Draft of this Letter, in the Hand Writing of Major Palmer, is now in my Poſſeſſion. Soon after his Arrival at the Preſidency, he requeſted me to form the Account of his Receipts and Diſburſements, which you will find journalized in the 280th, &c. and 307th Pages of the Honourable Company's General Books of the Year 1781-2. My official Situation, as Accountant General, had previouſly convinced me, that Mr. Haſtings could not have made the Iſſues, which were acknowledged as received from him, by the Accounts of ſome of the Paymaſters to the Army, unleſs he had obtained ſome ſuch Supply as that which he afterwards, viz. on the 22d May 1782, made known to me; when I immediately ſuggeſted to him the Neceſſity of his tranſmitting that Account which accompanied his Letter of that Date; till when, the Promiſe contained in his Letter of 20th January had entirely eſcaped his Recollection.—The Particulars of the Paper N° 1 were read over to me, from a Bengal Paper, by his Banyan Cauntoo Baboo; and, if I am not miſtaken, the Three Firſt Lines of that N° 2, were read over to me, from a Perſian Paper, by his Moonſhy. The Tranſlation of theſe Particulars, made by me, was, as I verily believe, the firſt complete Memorandum that he ever poſſeſſed of them in the Engliſh Language; and I am confident, that if I had not ſuggeſted to him the Neceſſity of his taking this Precaution, he would, at this Moment, have been unable to have afforded any ſuch Information concerning them.

4. The rough Draft of this Letter and Account having been made by Mr. Haſtings, in my Preſence, at his Garden Houſe at Alleypore, I wrote the fair Copies of them. After theſe were ſigned by him, they were put into a Cover, directed by me, which he ſealed up. I then took the Letter with me into Town, for the Purpoſe of being delivered to the Secretary, when the Cloſe of the Lively's Packet might be near at hand, not deeming it eligible to deliver it before, as I had known Inſtances of Letters that were delivered to the Secretaries any Length of Time before the Departure of a Packet, eſcape their Recollection at the Cloſe thereof.

5. On 21ſt Auguſt 1782, I was taken alarmingly ill, and when I was ſufficiently recovered to be put into a Budgerow for the Change of Air, apprehenſive that the Packet might be cloſed ere I returned to the Preſidency, I ſent the Letter by my Jemmautdar, with a verbal Meſſage to Mr. Secretary Auriol, requeſting that he would take care that it was put into the Lively's Packet; but Mr. Auriol not knowing that it was a Letter from the Governor General, declined taking charge of it for this Purpoſe, alledging that it was repugnant to the Standing Regulation of the Service, for any Servant to correſpond with the Court of Directors, but through the Governor General and Council. I was at this Time unable to write, and not having then any Perſon about me, who could have wrote what I dictated, I ſent the Letter by my Jemmautdar to Mr. George Neſbitt Thompſon, Mr. Haſtings's Private Secretary, with the ſame Requeſt as that by which it had been tendered to Mr. Auriol; I returned to Calcutta on 13th December 1782, and immediately ſuggeſted to Mr. Haſtings the Neceſſity of his accompanying this Letter with the Affidavit which I took before Mr. Juſtice Hyde, and a Letter explanatory of the Apprehenſions which ſuggeſted this Precaution.

6. Upon referring to the Liſt of Packet ſent by the Reſolution, it will be found to have been dated on 9th May 1782: And although the Public Department Proceedings of the 30th May will be found to ſtate, that the Commander reported, in a Letter dated 26th of that Month, that his Diſpatches had been delivered to him, but that he could not proceed to Sea until he had replaced the Anchors and Cables which he had loſt, there will not, I believe, be found any Letter or Paper, tranſmitted either to the Honourable Court, or to their Secretary, either by the Governor General and Council, or by either of their Secretaries, of a later Date than that of 9th May 1782, when I had not been made acquainted with the Tranſaction alluded to in Mr. Haſtings's Letter of 20th January 1782: And although the Statement of 22d May 1782 might have been deemed in 1783 "a new Diſcovery," yet it will appear, that the Second Article of it had been communicated to the Secret Committee of the Honourable Court of Directors on 29th November 1780, and that the laſt Article of that Statement had been reported to them on 20th January 1782. The Firſt of theſe Dates will, I believe, be found prior to the Inſtitution of any Parliamentary Enquiry into the Tranſactions of the Governor General and Council, and the laſt of them will alſo be found to be prior to any of the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Commons that were paſſed, which affected Mr. Haſtings; and it cannot require an Argument to prove, that it was not poſſible for him to have known in Bengal, what had not paſſed in England a Month, when I recommended the Formation of that Account and Letter which were wrote on 22d May 1782, when we had every Reaſon to ſuppoſe that the Reſolution had taken her Departure; but had it been known that there was an Opportunity of writing by her, yet, as that Ship was ſo badly manned, ſhe was not likely, at ſo unfavourable a Seaſon of the Year, to make any other than a very tedious Paſſage, and as we were then in daily Expectation of the Maratta Treaty arriving from Mr. Anderſon, when it was intended to diſpatch a Packet to England, I certainly ſhould not have adviſed Mr. Haſtings to tranſmit any ſuch Papers by her, unleſs I could have foreſeen that Neceſſity, which did not occur until after the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Commons of 15th April 1782 had become known in Bengal, when the Affidavit became neceſſary; but which could not have been the Caſe, had the Letter of 22d May 1782 been previouſly tranſmitted, either by the Reſolution or by any other Conveyance; ſince it could not have been required to prove what had already been eſtabliſhed.

7. While Mr. Haſtings filled the Station of Governor General, I had too much Reaſon to apprehend that any Explanation which I could have given of theſe Circumſtances, whatever might have been the Solemnity of the Aſſurances under which they could have been given, would have been attributed to the moſt abandoned, as well as the moſt ſelfiſh Motives; and it is only upon the Confidence which I deem myſelf entitled to place upon the Eſtimation in which my Character has hitherto been held, during the Fourteen Years that I have had the Honour to ſerve the Honourable Company, Nine of which have been paſſed in executing the Duties of One of the moſt important Offices under this Government, that I can venture to incur the Suſpicion of having ſacrificed the Duty which I owe to my Honourable Employers, and to my own Character, to Motives of Gratitude for one who was my Patron, by attempting to refute the implacable Reflections that affect my Character in the Fifth Page of the Eleventh Report of the Select Committee of the Houſe of Commons.

8. I ſhall now proceed to ſtate the Explanations which are required to elucidate the Correſpondence between the Papers No. 1 and 2, which accompany this Addreſs, and Mr. Haſtings's Account of 22d May 1782.

9. Although the Two firſt ſtated Sums are, in the Paper marked N° 1, aſſerted to have been paid to Mr. Croftes in 18th and 19th Aſſin 1187, which correſponds with the 1ſt and 2d November 1780; yet the Copy of the Bengal running Treaſury Account, which is now in England, will not be found to contain any ſuch Sums as received from Mr. Haſtings under theſe Dates; becauſe theſe, together with another Sum of Sicca Rupees One Lack, which were taken from his own Caſh at that Time, made up the firſt Supply that was ſent to the Maratta Army under Chimnajee Booſla, which the Sub-Treaſurer could not bring to Account, until he was authorized by an expreſs Order of Council upon the Treaſury for that Purpoſe, which was not granted until 5th January 1781; after which, viz. on 15th of that Month, the Head of Secret Service was debited for the Amount of that Supply, and the Head of Money borrowed at Intereſt 1780, credited for theſe Sums, for which the Bonds N° 1539, dated 1ſt October 1780, and N° 1540, dated 2d October 1780, each for the Sum of Current Rupees 1,16,000, or Siccas One Lack, were granted. The Remainder of that Amount was carried to the Credit of the Head of Four per Cent. Remittance Loan; Mr. Haſtings having taken a Bond, N° 89, which has been ſince completely liquidated conformable to the Terms of that Loan.

10. The Third Sum contained in Mr. Haſtings's Account, for which the Bond N° 1354, dated 23d November 1780, for Current Rupees 1,74,000, or Siccas 1,50,000, was granted, was for the the Payment ſtated in the Paper N° 1 to have been made to Mr. Croftes on 11th Augun 1187, which correſponds with 23d November 1780.

11. The Fourth Sum ſtated in Mr. Haſtings's Account was the Produce of ſundry Payments made to me, by Sadamund, Cheyte Sing's Buxey, who either brought or ſent the Gold Mohurs to my Houſe, from whence they were taken by me to Mr. Croftes's, either on the ſame Night or early in the Morning after; they were made at different Times, and I well remember that the ſame People never came twice.

12. On 21ſt June 1780, Mr. Haſtings ſent for me, and deſired that I would take charge of a Preſent that had been offered to him by Cheyte Sing's Buxey, under the Plea of atoning for the Oppoſition which he had made towards the Payment of the extra Subſidy for defraying Part of the Expences of the War; but really in the Hope of its inducing Mr. Haſtings to give up that Claim; with which View the Preſent had firſt been offered. Mr. Haſtings declared, that although he would not take this for his own Uſe, he would apply it to that of the Company, in removing Mr. Francis's Objections to the Want of a Fund for defraying the extra Expences of Colonel Camac's Detachment.

13. On my Return to the Office, I wrote down the Subſtance of what Mr. Haſtings had ſaid to me, and requeſted Mr. James Miller, my Deputy, to ſeal it up with his own Seal, and write upon it that he had then done ſo at my Requeſt. He was no further informed of my Motive for this, than merely that it contained the Subſtance of a Converſation which had paſſed between me and another Gentleman, which, in caſe that Converſation ſhould hereafter become the Subject of Enquiry, I wiſhed to be able to adduce the Memorandum then made of it, in corroboration of my own Teſtimony; and, although that Paper has remained unopened to this Hour, and notwithſtanding that I kept no Memorandum whatever of the Subſtance thereof, yet, as I have wrote this Repreſentation under the moſt ſcrupulous Adherence to what I conceive to be Truth, ſhould it ever become neceſſary to refer to this Paper, I am confident that it will not be found to differ materially from the Subſtance of this Repreſentation.

14. As this Preſent paſſed through my Hands, called upon as I was by the Perſon for whom it was deſtined, and who requeſted me to receive it for the Purpoſe of being applied to the Honourable Company's Uſe, I conceived it was incumbent upon me to relate circumſtantially the Part which I had taken in the Tranſaction.

15. The Fifth Sum mentioned in Mr. Haſtings's Account, is the Amount of the Payments ſtated by the Paper N° 1 to have been made to Mr. Croftes on 15 and 16 Byſack 1188, and will be found credited for, in the Copy of the Bengal running Treaſury Account, now in England, under 26th April 1781, which correſponds with 16 Byſack 1188; and as it will be found to have been moſtly made in Silver, it muſt have taken up more than One Day to count, as the Soucars at the Treaſury ſeldom can count more than One Lack of Sicca Rupees in One Day; of courſe, the whole Payment was brought to Account on the Date on which it was completely made.

16. The Sixth Sum ſtated in Mr. Haſtings's Account appears, by the Paper N° 2, to have been received of Nundoolol, and may, I ſhould ſuppoſe, be conſidered as a Part of the Balance of the Peſhcuſh of Dinagepore, which is ſtated in the Paper N° 1, at Siccas 1,00,000, which would conſequently become reduced to 50,000—but this was an Alteration which I did not chuſe to make, that I might be enabled at all Times to ſwear that theſe Papers have continued in their original State.

☞ (a)[17. The Dates on which this Payment was made to Mr. Haſtings, as well as thoſe made in Part of the Produce of the Preſents enumerated in the Paper N° 2, are ſtated the ſame in the 280th and 281ſt Pages of the Honourable Company's General Journal of 1781-2, as they are brought to Account in Mr. Haſtings's private Books; but as neither of the other Sums paſſed through his Hands, theſe contained no ſuch Specification, and conſequently could not enable him to afford the Information with which he has requeſted me to furniſh you; and it is more than probable, that if the Affidavit which I took on the 16th December 1782, had not expoſed my Character to the Suſpicion of my being capable of committing one of the baſeſt Treſpaſſes upon the Confidence of Mankind, I ſhould, at this Diſtance of Time, have been equally unable to have complied with his Requeſt; but after I became acquainted with the Inſinuation ſuggeſted in the Eleventh Report of the Select Committee of the Houſe of Commons, I thought it but too probable, that, unleſs I were poſſeſſed of the original Memorandums which I had made of theſe Tranſactions at the Time when I became acquainted with them, I might at ſome diſtant Period be unable to prove that I had not deſcended to commit ſo baſe an Action.—I have, therefore, always moſt carefully preſerved every Paper which I poſſeſſed regarding theſe Tranſactions.] ☜

18. Although Mr. Haſtings was extremely diſſatisfied with the Excuſes which Gunga Govind Sing aſſigned for not paying Mr. Croftes the Sums ſtated by the Paper N° 1 to be in his Charge, he never could obtain from him any further Payments on this Account.

19. Conſcious that the Concern which I have had in theſe Tranſactions need neither an Apology nor an Excuſe, and that I have in no Action of my Life ſacrificed the Duty or Fidelity which I owed to my Honourable Employers, either to the Regard which I felt for another, or to the Advancement of my own Fortune, I ſhall conclude this Addreſs, firmly relying upon the Candour of thoſe before whom it may be ſubmitted, for its being deemed a ſatisfactory as well as a circumſtantial Compliance with the Requiſition in conformity to which the Information it affords has been furniſhed, without which it would have been as baſe as diſhonourable for me ſpontaneouſly to have afforded it; for though the Duty which every Man owes to himſelf ſhould render him incapable of making an Aſſertion not ſtrictly true, no Man actuated either by virtuous or honourable Sentiments could miſtakenly apprehend, that unleſs he betrayed the Confidence repoſed in him by another, he might be deemed deficient in Fidelity to his Employers.

APPENDIX, N° L.

Extract of a Consultation of the 18th October 1781.

Fort William, 18th October 1781.

At a Council; Present,
Edward Wheler, and John M'Pherson, } Esquires.
The Honourable Governor General absent on a Visit to the Northern Provinces.
Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote absent on Service at Fort St. George.

MR. Wheler begs leave to inform the Board that he has been favoured with sundry Letters from the Governor General since his Arrival at Benares, most of them appearing as detached Accounts of the various Events that have happened subsequent to 16th August, which was occasioned by the Interception of the Dawk. Mr. Wheler judged it necessary to record them at the Time they came to hand, expecting a more particular Narrative from the Governor General of the various Occurrences on which they treat; but as it may be necessary at this Time to furnish the Court of Directors with such Particulars as are yet come to hand, Mr. Wheler begs leave to record the following Letters, and to recommend that the Letter dated 29th September, being a Recital of the others, be copied and sent to the Court of Directors via Fort St. George.

Governor General. 27th August.

Sir,

I have written to you many Letters, all probably intercepted. I arrived 14th at Benares; on 16th the Rajah having been put under an Arrest, a numerous Body of armed Men suddenly crossed, attacked, and massacred the whole Party which had him in Custody, consisting of Lieutenant Stalker, Scott, and Symes, and Two Companies of Major Popham's Grenadier Sepoys. These having no Ammunition fell without Resistance; the Rajah escaped and fled to Luteefgur. On 19th a large Force returned to Ramnagur; Captain Blair with his Battalion, and Captain Mayaffre with the Remainder of Major Popham's Detachment were ordered to assemble for the Attack of that Place, and Major Popham to join and conduct the Operations according to a concerted Plan. The Two Corps having joined Captain Mayaffre, the Senior Officer, without waiting for Major Popham, and against Orders, on the Morning of 20th marched precipitately into the narrow Streets of the Town, where in an Instant he fell with Captain Doxat and 33 Rangers and almost all the Sepoys of Captain Blair's Battalion that had entered with him; the rest of the Detachment returned to Chunar with the Loss of Two Guns, one Howitz, and 103 Men of all Denominations killed. I was in Benares with the broken Remains of Major Popham's first Party, consisting of about 400 Men in a Place incapable of Defence, even with equal Numbers. Preparations were making to attack me; I waited till the Evening for a Battalion ordered from Chunar to reinforce our Party; at Seven repeated Intelligence arrived, that the Rajah's Boats were in Motion. No News had arrived of the Battalion from Chunar; it was resolved to meet it, and march with it to Chunar. The Resolution was instantly carried into Execution. We passed the Battalion, which returned, and overtook us, and on 22d at Day-break we gained the Banks of the River opposite to Chunar, having met no Opposition. The Detachment crossed on the Morning of 23d. The Rajah's Forces are divided between Ramnagur and Luteefgur. His Family is at Beejygur. His fixed Establishment exceeds 10,000 Men, and all his Reiats bear Arms. Major Popham is encamped on the Plain East of the Fort. I expect to be joined by a Regiment from Cawnpoor, one arrived for my Guard at Lucknow, Lieutenant Polhill with Six Companies of the Nabob's Guard now at hand, and Major Moses Crawford's Battalion. My only Distress is the Want of Money, and is great. Baboo Ossaun Sing, Derbijey Sing, and his Son Meyipnarain, are with me.

I am, &c.

Lieutenant Polhill is arrived.

Warren Hastings.

Sir,

Chunar, 31st August 1781.

Enclosed are Copies of Two Letters which I have had the Honour to write to you; the first in Duplicate from Banaris, and the last from this Place. I doubt the Possibility of the first having escaped the Vigilance of the People who are stationed in every Part of this Zemeedary to intercept my Letters. For the Conveyance of this Packet I shall trust to a light Boat, which, with a strong West Wind aiding the Rapidity of the Stream, will certainly pass without Interruption, if the Fears of the Dandies do not urge them to quit the Boat. In the enclosed Letters you will receive a connected Relation of the Events which had befallen me to the 27th Instant, though purposely abbreviated in my last, for the safer Means of Conveyance.

The Arrival of Lieutenant Polhill, whoſe Activity cannot be too much applauded, has proved of very great Service in freeing the Communication with the oppoſite Shore. Our greateſt Diſtreſs has been in the Want of Money and Proviſions; the latter has been effectually removed, and with it the former in a Degree, by the Seizure of a large Store of Grain made by Lieutenant Polhill Yeſterday Morning, in a Village about Three Miles diſtant, Information having been given me of it the preceding Evening. He was oppoſed by a conſiderable Body of the Enemy, reported to conſiſt of 150 Horſes, Two Companies of Sepoys, and more than 2000 Match-lock-Men, and Gawarras, or armed Villagers; but they were repulſed and diſperſed with ſome Loſs on their Side: On ours none. The Quantity of Grain ſecured is eſtimated at 5000 Maunds, which in our Situation is a moſt important Acquiſition, as we have every Reaſon to apprehend a total Failure of our Supplies when the Troops of this Place are reduced, which they ſoon muſt be, to the Complement of the Garriſon. Numbers are yet aſſembling to reinforce the defeated Party of the Enemy, and they have been ſtrengthened by Four Guns from Ramnagur, with the profeſſed Determination of making one more Effort.

I have received no Anſwers to the Letters which I have diverſly and repeatedly written to Colonel Morgan, to Mr. Middleton, to Lieutenant Colonel Ahmuty, and to Major James Crawford, to whom it eſcaped me in my laſt to inform you that I had ſent Orders to march to the Borders of Bidjeygur; but I have received a Letter from Colonel Morgan, written with a Knowledge of the late Events, and cannot doubt that his Prudence will dictate to him the obvious Neceſſity, on an Occaſion of ſuch Emergency, of ſending a Party to my Relief, without waiting for the Formality of Orders, which he will know can with Difficulty reach him. I have Accounts, which I truſt to as authentic, that Major Moſes Crawford with his Regiment is on the Way; and my later Letters to Mr. Middleton have been ſafely paſſed beyond the Borders of this Zemeedary. Upon the whole, I can venture to aſſure you, that my Situation is actually ſuch as, with the Reſervation of that Influence which under every Circumſtance muſt be allowed to Fortune in the Events attendant on a State of Warfare, will warrant the Expectation of an eaſy and complete Succeſs.

Major Popham continues encamped on the Plain lying to the Eaſtward of the Fort, where he will be ſtrengthened by all the Men that can be ſpared from this Garriſon; and as ſoon as the Preparations are completed for that Service, he will march to the Attack of Ramnagur.

In the mean time I have not been inattentive to our more remote Concerns, which I ſhall reſerve for a future Detail and a more ſecure Conveyance.

The Rajah's Situation, and the Diſpoſition of his Forces, except the Detachment which is oppoſed to Lieutenant Polhill, are much the ſame as they have been deſcribed in my laſt.

Hyder Beg Khan has been ſome Time arrived at Banaris, but prevented from joining me by the Deſtruction of the Bridge laid over the Burna Nulla, on the lower Bank of which he is encamped, and by the ſudden great Swell of the Waters, which has made it unfordable. Yet I expect him ſoon, and his Preſence will afford me material Service. I have ordered to be encloſed Copies of Major Popham's Return of the Loſs ſuſtained in the Maſſacre of 16th; of a Letter which has been written to me by Captain Spark, and the Returns accompanying it, of the Killed and Wounded in the Attack of Ramnagur on 20th Auguſt; and of a Letter from Captain Blair, containing the Particulars of that ill-fated Enterpriſe; alſo a Liſt of the Gentlemen who were with me in Banaris on 21ſt, and who accompanied me to this Place.

I cannot cloſe this Letter without teſtifying my Satisfaction with Lieutenant Colonel Blair, for his Zeal and Attention, and for the Alacrity with which he executed the Orders ſent to him for the different Movements of the Detachments from his ſmall Garriſon; and my entire Reliance on the ſteady Conduct and approved Experience of Major Popham. My Regrets for the paſt are perſonal. I ſhall ever retain a painful Remembrance of that Scene of Blood, of which I have been too near a Spectator, and which no future Return of Proſperity can ever efface from my Mind; but in the Proſpect before me, I think that I have every Reaſon to expect the happieſt Termination of it, in the Extenſion of the Powers and Influence of the Company; and that the paſt Example may contribute to the Permanency of both, by prompting us to guard againſt the ſecret Growth of the like Evil which has produced it.

I have the Honour, &c.

Warren Haſtings.

Honourable Sir,

Incloſed I take the Liberty of tranſmitting you Returns of the Killed and Wounded in the Action before Ramnaghur, 20th Inſtant, as given in by the Officers commanding the different Corps then under my Comand; I am ſorry that ſeveral intervening Accidents prevented my ſending them ſooner; the Delay was owing to a Deſire of having it in my Power to tranſmit the Returns as genuine as I poſſibly could; thoſe now incloſed you may depend on as authentic.

Sir,

Captain Mayaffre joined me, and took the Command of the Detachment the Evening of 19th Inſtant. In the Morning of 20th, at Seven o'Clock, we marched off from Chutta Mirzapoor towards Ramnagur, and entered the Town by a Street which would only admit of Six Files. We had advanced about One hundred Yards when the Enemy fired upon the Line from the Houſes, and from behind old Walls. Captain Doxat's Corps, with a Three Pounder, was in Front of my Battalion. On turning into another Street, he was oppoſed by a very conſiderable Body of Men; he fired his Gun, the only Round of Ammunition he had, and commenced the Action with ſmall Arms. His Europeans in a few Minutes were in Confuſion; my Grenadiers marched up cloſe to their Rear, ſupported by the Battalion. Captain Doxat was ſoon after killed, and the Subaltern Officer wounded, with many Europeans killed and wounded. The Subahdar, two Jemidars of my Grenadiers, and many of the Men, were at this Time killed by the Firing from the Houſes all round us in poſſeſſion of the Enemy. Lieutenant Ball was wounded ſlightly in the Leg, making his Retreat with the few Grenadiers with him, and in the Side, covering our Retreat with the Rear Guard, which he commanded; the Laſcars and Europeans were ſo ſeverely fired upon, that they quitted their Guns; the Remainder of the Grenadiers, with ſuch Part of the Battalion as could be brought up, I put into ſuch open Spaces, and in the Street, as I judged would annoy the Enemy moſt. About this Time a Meſſage was brought to me to retreat, which I did in the beſt Manner the Situation of the Place would permit. I regained the Banks of the Nulla, and beat to arms; the Men joined as they could come up. Captain Mayaffre was in the Rear of my Battaljon, with a Gun was there killed, which I did not know till we were out of the Town. I underſtand he was ſhot a few Minutes after the Retreat commenced. Captain Spark's Battalion had been divided from mine a conſiderable Way by this Gun; his Men were out of the Town I believe about the Time I was. So ſoon as poſſible we collected the Men, and formed upon the Plain; ſome Parties were advanced, which kept the Cavalry off which were forming round us. The People followed us out of the Town, firing from incloſed Fields and the broken Grounds. It was judged moſt proper to gain the Banks of the River, which we did. The Troops were then formed, with their Rear to the River, and broken Ground on the Right, Left, and Front; a Shot from the Guns occaſionally, and advanced Parties in the broken Grounds, kept the Enemy at a Diſtance. They were taking poſſeſſion of a ſmall Village on the Left of my Battalion, and firing from it; I detached a Party to diſlodge them, and burn the Houſes, which was immediately done. The Men's Ammunition in their Pouches was nearly expended; I ſerved them out about Twenty Rounds a Man from the extra Ammunition which I had brought with me. They were bringing up Guns to fire upon the Line, when it was determined to march towards Chunar. About One o'Clock we begun our March, and reached Jurgah Nullah about Seven o'Clock, with little or no Loſs, where we encamped for the Night. I had the moſt exact Intelligence of the Number and Situation of the Enemy from my Hircarrahs, Two of which returned ſoon after we marched. I ſent to Captain Mayaffre, and communicated the Intelligence to him, with my Wiſh to avoid the narrow Streets. He either did not truſt the Intelligence, or had Reaſons for his Conduct which I am unacquainted with. I am confident in the Opinion, that our Loſs proceeds ſolely from our marching by the Road we did.

I have in my Battalion One Soubadar, Two Jemidars, Three Havildars, and One Naick killed; and the Number of Sepoys killed and wounded I have not yet been able to aſcertain, but believe not leſs than One hundred. Captain Sparks has, I believe, loſt about Twenty. Captain Doxat, and Twenty Men of his Corps, killed; One Lieutenant, and Seven Men, wounded. Captain Mayaffre, and Two Men of his Corps, killed; One Lieutenant, and Three Men, wounded, beſides Laſcars.

I beg

I beg leave to assure you, that I have Reason to be pleased with the Conduct of the Officers and Men of my Battalion. I hope you will impute any Mistakes in writing to my being exceedingly fatigued, and my Wish to have the Account transmitted without Loss of Time.

I have the Honour, &c.

Sir, Chunar, 4th September 1781.

Yeſterday Morning Major Popham detached Captain Blair with his Battalion, and Two Companies of his own Grenadiers, and Two Guns (6 Pounders), to attack the Enemy collected at Pateeta. They were prepared to receive him, and made a very ſpirited Reſiſtance. After a very ſevere Action, the Fortune of the Day was happily turned in our Favour, by a bold but well-judged Manœuvre. Captain Blair detatched his Two Grenadier Companies to attack Two Guns which were poſted on the Flanks and galled his Troops exceedingly. The Attack ſucceeded, and the Two Guns were turned on the Enemy, who were ſoon after totally routed. Captain Blair brought off Three of their Guns, and ſpiked the Fourth, the Carriage of which was diſabled. He alſo brought away One of their Tumbrils, and all his own loaded with their Ammunition. Three more of their Tumbrils, with much looſe Powder, were blown up on the Field. Captain Blair having no Means of bringing them away, he was obliged to leave about 1500 of their Shot piled in a Village. The Enemy's Numbers are reputed 8 or 9000 Men; though Captain Blair judges them from Appearance to be only 3 or 4000. They were their prime Men. Our Loſs, which I add with Regret, exceeds 105 Men killed and wounded; theirs muſt be proportionably more, though unknown. It is remarkable, that the Enemy's Artillery and Cartridges made at Ramnagur are almoſt equal to ours; their Cartridges and Portfires compounded with equal Skill, and their Powder much better. This is the ſecond Inſtance in which the Service is ſignally indebted to the collected and intrepid Gallantry of Captain Blair. Other Praiſes are due, which cannot be noticed in this. The 8th Colonel Morgan has diſpatched Two Regiments of Sepoys, 40 Artillery Men, with Captain Hill and Two Companies of European Infantry. They were at Allahabad the 2d. Major Crawford is by Accounts very near, and the Nabob but 20 Coſs diſtant on the 5th.

(Signed) Warren Haſtings.

Sir, Chunar, 11th September 1781.

I have adviſed you in Triplicate of the Succeſs gained by Captain Blair on 3d. It was dear, but deciſive. With 550 Men oppoſed to more than 4000, he completely routed them, took all their Guns (4), Tumbrils (4), and Ammunition immeaſurable. Major Moſes Crawford is at Dildarnagur, about the Midway between this and Buxar; there he remains till Major Popham moves. Yeſterday Morning Major Crabb with his Detachment, conſiſting of 100 European Infantry, 30 Artillery with Captain Hill, and Two Regiments of Sepoys, arrived, and theſe were all tranſported to this Side before the Evening. Major Roberts with his Regiment, with with 1½ Lack of Rupees, has paſſed Illahabad, and is hourly expected. The Nabob Vizeer, whoſe Conduct I muſt in Juſtice applaud, arrived this Morning at his Camp on the oppoſite Side of the River. There I met him. He propoſes to croſs and encamp on this Side with a ſmall Guard. His Army would ſtarve us. I hope that Major Popham will be able to begin his Operations on the 14th at the lateſt. Doubt not of the ſpeedy Succeſs. The Rajah has made repeated Overtures for Peace, leſs humble in Terms than in * Mode; but I have declined to anſwer him, or even to temporize: The Example is dangerous, and ought, even with Hazard, to be checked in the firſt Inſtance. You will have heard, and you will hear, many falſe and alarming Reports, for the Enemy invent, and our own Hircarrahs exaggerate. Colonel Morgan has acted with a Promptneſs and Deciſion which merit public Thanks; and I with Pleaſure learn, that all the Officers of the Detachment ſhewed an Eagerneſs equal to his. Colonel Morgan appears to have formed the Reſolution on 29th; the Troops were embarked on 31ſt, and they arrived in leſs than Ten Days from Cawnpore. I avail myſelf of this vacant Space to aſſure you, that all will terminate well.

Sir, Chunargur, 20th Sept. 1781.

I moſt heartily congratulate you on the Succeſs of our Arms in the Conqueſt of Pateeta, for the Particulars of which I refer you to the incloſed Letter from Major Popham. I underſtand that large Reinforcements, both from Lutteefpoor and Ramnagur, oppoſed him in the Field. It was intended to attack both Pateeta and Luttefpoor at the ſame Time, and the former † began inſtant Aſſault. Major Crabb, with a ſtrong Detachment appointed for the latter Service, marched on the Night of the 15th by a large, and, as it has ſince appeared, ſcarce practicable, Circuit, towards a Paſs which lies behind ‡, on to the South of Lutteefpoor. A Letter received this Morning mentions his Arrival on the Plain which adjoins to the Paſs, after a March of Three Days, inſtead of One, as was expected. It is the Road to Bidjeygur, and ſaid to be the Repoſitory of all the § Nabob's Ammunition. Major Popham marched at Two of the ſame Night, nor did he reach his Ground with his whole Line until Ten, and then found the Place too ſtrong to attempt it, without a regular Approach and battering Cannon. It fell at Six this Morning. I regard this Victory as a deciſive Turn of our public Influence; but the greateſt Proportion of my Joy is derived from the Conſideration that it was gained with little Bloodſhed, an Advantage which I attribute, as I expected it, to the ſuperior Skill and known Compoſure, nor leſs Humanity, of Major Popham. Major Crawford arrived here Yeſterday Morning, much haraſſed, but without Loſs or Impediment in his Way.

Sir,

I have the Happineſs to inform you we are in poſſeſſion of Pateeta, and I believe with little Loſs. When the Enemy heard our Attack, a large Body poſted on the Hills to the Left of our Rear, made for the Camp; but ‖ European Grenadiers and Light Infantry, whom I kept as a Corps de Reſerve, moved towards and totally routed them. Their Cavalry at the ſame Time made a Motion, with ſome Infantry, towards the Right of our Camp, on which a Gun was ſent through ſome high Graſs to our Out Poſt, and by firing Two or Three Rounds, obliged them to fly. Could I have afforded a few Sepoys from the Camp, or had the Cavalry done any Thing, Numbers of the Runaways muſt have been deſtroyed. I juſt hear very few of our Sepoys have been killed, and not an Officer hurt. The Enemy has ſuſtained great Loſs.

Sir, Chunar, September 22d.

On the 20th Major Crabb defeated and routed a Body of the Enemy in the Plain above the Paſs of Suckroot; their Loſs was 150 Men and 3 Guns, and much Ammunition: Ours ſmall. The Rajah that Evening fled from Lutteefpoor: His Men followed his Example; and Yeſterday at Noon Major Crabb took Poſſeſſion of * the Place being totally deſerted. I was Yeſterday in Major Popham's Camp, and viſited the Fort of Pateeta and its Intrenchments. They are both contemptible, but in their actual State abſolutely impregnable againſt an Attack, had they made any Reſiſtance. The Fort, though ſmall, is of Stone, with 4 Towers, a parallel Rampart and Towers, and a Ditch of great Depth ſurrounding them, and the Town itſelf guarded by an Intrenchment extending far beyond it; and the Space between, Hills, Rocks, and Jungle almoſt impenetrable. At One o'Clock we had the Satisfaction to receive, by a regular Salute of 21 Guns, the inſtant Information of the Poſſeſſing † of Lutteefpoor by Major Crabb. I have taken upon me to grant a Private ‡ Commiſſion of Major to Captain Lane, who commanded the Grenadiers of the Army, and performed diſtinguiſhed Service. I this Inſtant receive an authentic § Inſirmation of the above Intelligence from Major Crabb.

☞ (a) [Sir,

I have had the Honour to inform you, in various and successive Letters, of my Transactions, and of the Occurrences which have befallen me since my Departure from Calcutta, and especially since my Arrival at this Place, on the 14th of last Month. It is my Intention to employ the first Hours of my Leisure in drawing up a detached Narrative of the latter for your Information. In the mean Time I shall continue to advise you, from Time to Time, of such Circumstances of Moment as occur in the Course of daily Business, both for your Information and for the Means of obtaining your Sentiments upon them for my Assistance and Guidance. I deem it a Misfortune that not one of your Letters, written with the Knowledge of the late Troubles, have reached me; and I much fear that many of mine may have miscarried; for which Reason I shall cause to be transcribed Copies of all written since 16th of last Month, and shall transmit them to you.

Lest my Letters advising you of our late Successes should have been intercepted, I think it proper to repeat in this the Substance of them.

The Arrival of the Detachment from Cawnpore under Major Crabb, of 10th Instant, and Major Robertson, 13th, enable Major Popham to take the Field with a considerable Force. It was publicly expected that his first Attempt would be made upon Ramnagur; but such Information having been given of the State of the Two Fortresses of Lutteespoor and Pateeta, as seemed to promise the certain and immediate Reduction of those Places, he accordingly formed his Army into Two Detachments, one commanded by Major Crabb, consisting of 1st Battalion of 6th Regiment, the 7th Regiment, the Battalion of the Nabob's Body-guard, commanded by Lieutenant Polhill, with Six 6 Pounders, and One $5\frac{1}{2}$ Inch Howitzer; and the other under his own Command, consisting of 19th, 30th, and 35th Regiments, Two Companies of European Infantry, the Corps of Rangers, and about 30 Artillery, with Six 6 Pounders, Two $8\frac{1}{2}$ Inch Howitzers, and an 8 Inch Mortar. The First Detachment marched on the Night of 15th, by a large Circuit through almost impracticable Ways. But the Spirit of the Officers and Men surmounted every Difficulty. In Places where the Guns could not be drawn by Bullocks, the Sepoys lifted them up the Rocks; and at length, in the Morning of the 20th, they arrived at the Heights, lying behind and above the Fort of Lutteespoor, at a Place called Lora, which commands a Pass descending to Lutteespoor, and reported inaccessible against Opposition, but from above. The profound Secrecy with which this Expedition was undertaken, and to which the Security of the Enemy in a Region so little frequented not a little contributed, prevented any Opposition to our Troops in the difficult Parts of their Route. Their first Movement only, but neither their Strength nor their Destination, was known, till their very near Approach. At Lora they met a Body of 2000 of the Enemy, which they defeated and dispersed, with little Loss on our Side, but on theirs of 200 Men killed on the Spot. The next Morning they took possession of the Pass, and of the Fort of Lutteespoor, which they found evacuated.

In the mean Time, Major Popham marched with his Part of the Forces, on the Morning of the 16th, to Pateeta, a Place inconsiderable in itself, being a fortified Stone House, within a very high Rampart and a Ditch of very great Depth, and the Town, which is of great Extent, surrounded by Intrenchments. These being all obscured from Observation by Trees and thick Bushes, he judged it not adviseable to attempt an immediate Assault upon the Place, which fortunately proved the Cause of concurrent Success in both Enterprizes, almost in the same Instant of Time; for in the Morning of 20th, he stormed and took Pateeta, at the same Time defeating and dispersing Two Bodies of the Enemy that made an Attempt on his Camp. And on the same Day, and in the same Hour, Major Crabb fought and gained the Battle of Lora, which was the immediate and eventual Cause of the Capture of Lutteespoor.

The News of these combined Successes alarmed the Rajah to such a Degree, that he instantly fled, by a distant Route over the Hills, from Lutteespoor, which, till that Time, had been his capital Residence, regaining the Road to Bidjeygur, the only direct Way to it being through the Pass abovementioned.

The Consternation of his Followers was so great, and its Contagion so rapid, that, in a few Hours, the Fort or Palace of Ramnagur, and the Fortress of Lutteesgur, were wholly abandoned and evacuated.

Major Balfour marched on 22d, and took possession of Ramnagur.

On the Morning of 25th, I parted from the Nabob, who set out on that Afternoon on his Return to his Capital. It is but Justice to the Nabob to declare, that on the first Intelligence of these Troubles, notwithstanding my repeated and pressing Injunctions to return to Lucknow, he prosecuted his March to Benares, with only a few Companies of Sepoys and 100 Horse at that Time attending him; and has, in every other Instance, given the strongest Proofs of his Fidelity and Attachment. In the Evening I departed from Chunar, and on the next Morning arrived at Ramnagur. My Stay there being unneceſſary, and it having been repreſented to me, that my Preſence at Benares would be a Means of quieting the Minds of the Inhabitants, I accordingly returned hither Yeſterday Morning, and had the Happineſs to find the City reſtored to a State of perfect Order and Tranquillity.

I have iſſued Proclamations, offering Pardon to all who ſhall quietly return to their Obedience, excepting the Perſons of Cheyt Sing and his Brother Sujan Sing, whom their late rebellious Conduct, and their Rancour manifeſted to our Nation, in the deliberate Murder of many of our Soldiers, and even unarmed Paſſengers, who had the Misfortune to fall into their Hands, have precluded from every Title to Lenity.

The Perſons ſtanding next in the Line of Inheritance of the Zemindary, were Ranny Golaub Koower, the Widow of Rajah Bulwant Sing, their Daughter married to Rajah Durbijey Sing, and Bauboo Myipnerain their Grandſon by the Two latter. By the Concurrence of the Two firſt Parties, and in conſequence of a written Acknowledgment made by the Ranny, of the Right of her Grandſon, Mayipnerain, I have nominated him to the Succeſſion of the Rauge; and I have appointed the Morning of To-morrow for his Inveſtiture.

I have forborne any particular Comments in this Place, reſerving them, where they will be more properly introduced, for my detailed Narrative; yet I cannot ſuppreſs, without a Violence to my own Feelings, the Teſtimony which is due, eſpecially from me, to the unexampled Zeal and public Spirit of all our Officers, and the wonderful Activity with which theſe Qualities were diſplayed on the late Occaſion. I have already acknowledged the early Exertions which were made by Colonel Blair during my former ſhort calamitous Reſidence at Benares. Of Major Popham, I cannot ſay ſufficient to expreſs my Senſe of his Services. Though my Letters were every where intercepted, Colonel Morgan, with a Deciſion and Solicitude that reflect equal Credit on his Character, detached Major Crabb with his Party to my Aſſiſtance on the firſt and inſtant Rumour of my Situation. Colonel Sir J. Cuming, with the like Alacrity, obeyed the Order of his March to Cawnpore, as did Colonel Ahmuty, in the immediate Diſpatch of Major Crawford and the Troop of Cavalry. The ſame Spirit animated every Officer of every Corps, and infuſed itſelf into the Menunder their Command, with an Effect ſo far exceeding the common Occurrences of human Affairs, that in the complete Space of One Month, this great and valuable Province, which had been unexpectedly and wholly loſt, was in Subſtance wholly recovered to the Britiſh Empire.

I have the Honour, &c.
Warren Haſtings.]

Gentlemen,

I have received from the Secretary at the Preſidency the following Papers, tranſmitted to me by the Directions of Mr. Wheler, and have Pleaſure in making my Acknowledgments to Mr. Wheler for a Communication of them to me.

Copy of a Letter from the Admiralty to the Board, dated 3d July.
Ditto of the Board's Reply to ditto, dated 24th September.
Ditto of a Letter from Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote to the Select Committee at Fort St. George, dated 6th July.

Copy of a Letter from the Preſident and Select Committee at Fort St. George to ditto, dated 30th July.

Ditto of a Letter from Sir Eyre Coote to the Board, dated 30th July.

Ditto of a Letter written by the Board to Mr. Turing on the 24th September.

Ditto of a Letter from the Preſident and Select Committee at Bombay, dated 3d July, with Two Incloſures.

Ditto of a Letter from Brigadier General Goddard, dated 5th July, with Three Incloſures.

Copies of Letters from the Board to the Preſident and Select Committee at Bombay, and to Brigadier General Goddard, dated 24th September.

I have great Pleaſure in adding to the Proceedings of the Board during my Abſence from it; whatever Strength may be afforded them by my general, and, I believe I may ſay, literal Approbation of their Orders upon the ſeveral Subjects of this Correſpondence; and in offering the Remarks which I deſire their Permiſſion to make on them, I am chiefly influenced by the Motive of giving them further Weight, by the Addition of ſuch Reaſons in ſupport of them as have come to my ſeparate Knowledge ſince I left Calcutta, and could not have been before the Board; when the Letters to which they reply were under their Conſideration.

I entirely approve of the Meaſure propoſed to the Admiral, in the Board's Letter of the 24th Ultimo, for preſerving a free and open Communication between Bengal and the Ports on the Coaſt, during the next Northern Monſoon. I have the ſame Conviction of its Neceſſity, which the Board have, for the Reaſons they have expreſſed, and deem it the moſt uſeful Service to the Company on which the Fleet, or a Part of it, can be employed. If any Objection ſhould prevail with the Admiral againſt ſtationing it in the Road of Balaſore, Perſons converſant in the Navigation of theſe Seas (and of ſuch there are many Gentlemen at the Preſidency willing, and at all Times ready, to afford us the Aid of their Opinions upon theſe Subjects when deſired), could eaſily point out ſome Place contiguous to it, where Ships might lie with more Convenience, and their Services be as effectual as in the Road of Balaſore. I remember to have heard that at Coringa there is a good Road for Ships to lie in. The Situation is certainly convenient; but whether it will admit Ships of ſuch Depth in the Water as his Majeſty's large Ships of War, is a Queſtion which I am not ſufficiently Maſter of the Subject to determine.

I have read with Satisfaction Sir Eyre Coote's Letter to the Board, of the 30th July, even thoſe Parts of it which contain an implied Cenſure of our Meaſures. The Language of it differs widely from the Terms of that * of which we had ſo much Reaſon to complain of in his Letter of the 1ſt March. It is liberal, and ſuch as becomes a Man of Character and Station. I am now fixed in an Opinion which I have before entertained, if not expreſſed to the Board, that the Ground of his unpleaſant Differences with us, as apparent in the Courſe of his Correſpondence from the Time of his Arrival upon the Coaſt, is the Formation of the Military Regulations which we paſſed in the Beginning of this Year, and which he ſeems to think were framed from Motives of perſonal Hoſtility to him, and without a ſufficient Reaſon, purpoſely to overſet thoſe we had paſſed at his Recommendation in Auguſt 1779. Although I cannot ſuppoſe ſuch an Idea to exiſt with the Honourable the Court of Directors, or that they can attribute ſuch Motives to our Actions, ſince it does not appear in what Way they can affect either his Reputation or Intereſt, if regarded in a vindictive Light, and are too intereſting to our own Credit in the Conſequence, to have been undertaken without a ſtrong Conviction of their Neceſſity: Yet, as the Reaſons for the Meaſure may not have been completely before them, or may be lightly remembered when theſe Strictures upon them are read, I muſt beg the Board's Permiſſion to repeat in this Place, what I have before declared on our Records, and what is ſufficiently apparent to any one who will give an impartial Conſideration to the Subject: That theſe Regulations were framed to anſwer an immediate Exigency of the public Service, and were reſolved upon in a State of Affairs, very different from that which exiſted when I gave my Conſent to paſſing thoſe which were recommended in 1779 by Sir Eyre Coote. The Board will recollect, that when we reſolved to detach the Forces under Colonel Pearſe to the Coaſt of Coromandel, the Meaſure was founded on a particular Requeſt, made to us by the General himſelf, before he took his Departure from Bengal; and that, at the ſame Time that we well knew how ſerviceable ſuch a Reinforcement would be to his Operations on the Coaſt, the Dangers with which our own Provinces were threatened by the Neighbourhood of the Berar Army to their Borders; the Effects which the Fear of Invaſion might naturally be ſuppoſed to have upon the Minds of the timid People of Bengal; and above all, the Conſequences that might be expected to ariſe from the Intrigues of Hyder's Agents with the Country Powers, conſiderably aſſiſted by his great Succeſs in the Carnatic; ſo large a Force could ill be ſpared from the Protection of the Company's Poſſeſſions in this Part of India. It was at the ſame Time, I believe, within the private Knowledge of the Members of * Board, that even our reduced Force was not actually ſuch as it appeared on the Returns; I mean to ſay, that had we required inſtant Service for the Numbers which ſtood on the Returns, we ſhould have been greatly diſappointed—ſuch was the Practice of the Service, founded upon a very reproachful Cuſtom, and all our Efforts, in the Trial of various and repeated Expedients to ſuppreſs it, had hitherto proved ineffectual. In ſuch a Situation, it became not only abſolutely neceſſary that new Levies ſhould be raiſed to ſupply the Loſs which we ſhould ſuffer from the March of Colonel

* Sic in Orig.

* Sic in Orig.

Colonel Pearſe's Detachment to the Coaſt, but that the nominal Strength of our Forces ſhould alſo be its real one. Regulations were accordingly propoſed by Brigadier General Stibbert, and reſolved on by us, to effect ſo deſirable an End: An Increaſe of Numbers adequate to the Loſs of Colonel Pearſe's Detachment was to take place, and the Subaltern Officers of the ſeveral Companies of the Battalions, were ſeparately intruſted with the Pay and Muſter of their Corps, and, by the Duties preſcribed to them, were made, as far as the Good of the Services would allow, without intruding upon the Authority neceſſarily veſted in the Commanding Officers, a Check upon their Captains. More was yet thought politic and expedient: At the ſame Time that we reſolved upon Meaſures for maintaining a large Force fit for Duty whenever called on, and upon which we could always depend, we determined to increaſe the Number of our Battalions to a Thouſand Men; this Body was called a Regiment, and the Regiment divided into Two Battalions of 500 Men in each. This Diminution of Strength in each Battalion, as it ſtood on the former Eſtabliſhment, if known, would appear of little Moment in the Eyes of the Country Powers, and an Augmentation of the Numbers of our Battalions would impreſs them with the Awe of an increaſed Army. Having admitted no private Advantage whatever, and ſomething more than the common Pay of the Rank of Captain being thought due to the Officers commanding ſo large a Corps as a Regiment of 1000 Men, we reſolved on a general Promotion, giving the Commands of the Regiments to Majors, and by affording them the Pay of that Rank, and ſome other Advantages, placing them above the Neceſſity or Deſire of taking Profits, which we wiſhed to annul. I will add for myſelf, that I was influenced in giving my Concurrence in this Meaſure (and I believe Mr. Wheler was ſo likewiſe) by a Deſire of ſhewing ſome Diſtinction to a Number of deſerving Men, whoſe Exertions for the Public Service might ſoon become peculiarly neceſſary, and who would naturally feel a greater Zeal to do credit to their Profeſſion, when they found themſelves placed in higher and more reſponſible Situations, than if they continued undiſtinguiſhed in lower ones. This Alteration in our Eſtabliſhment, ſeparately conſidered, would of courſe be attended with ſome Increaſe of Charge; but it makes a Part only of a general Regulation, which provides a large Augmentation of Force, yet makes the Expence of the whole Army leſs than it was upon its former Footing. In aſſerting this I am warranted by the Eſtimates delivered in to us by General Stibbert, on the 26th December laſt, when the new Regulations were under Conſideration.

The new Regulations being in force before Colonel Pearſe's Detachment went away, it, with the reſt of our Army, was modelled by them; it partook, with it, of the ſame general Benefit, as to nominal Strength, and indeed received ſome Increaſe of its former Numbers; for, to make the Arrangement good, we added ſome Companies, and ſent to the General's Aſſiſtance a Detachment of Five Regiments of 1000 Men, inſtead of Six Battalions of 800. If the Officers on the Madraſs Eſtabliſhment have been Sufferers by an Arrangement which the public Service of this Country has made neceſſary, I will not cenſure them for complaining; but I muſt attribute the Cauſe to the Meaſure of breaking our Detachment, and dividing it among the Sepoy Corps of the Madraſs Eſtabliſhment, which, however neceſſary in the Judgment of the Commander in Chief, I recollect to be contrary to the Inſtructions of this Government, communicated to him when the Detachment moved from our Provinces.

I obſerve that Sir Eyre Coote remarks on the Staff allowed to a Major of Colonel Pearſe's Detachment, and thenceforth thinks it fit to reflect on the unneceſſary Expence which we have permitted to be incurred in the Charge of that Corps. The only Major of Colonel Pearſe's Detachment that had a Staff was Major Edmondſon, expreſsly appointed Second in Command of it: It has been always uſual, I believe, for the Second in Command of ſo large a Force to have the Staff which was allowed to Major Edmondſon; but it was not intended, nor was it neceſſary, that it ſhould be continued to him longer than he held that Station, and therefore when he no more was Second in Command, as would be the Caſe when a Junction was effected between the Detachment and the Main Army, he of courſe would loſe the Rights and Properties of the Office.

I beg leave to aſſure the Board of my entire Concurrence in their Reply of the 24th September to General Goddard's Letter of the 5th of July, and in that written by the Select Committee of the ſame Date. I have the Honour to tranſmit to them Two Letters from General Goddard, bearing Date the 11th June and 6th Auguſt, which I received at Chunargur, and have not been till lately able to tranſmit to them, on account of the great Inſecurity of the Conveyance: To theſe I have yet made no Reply, and none is now neceſſary from me, ſince the Sentiments of the Board, entirely conformable to my own, have already been expreſſed to him upon the moſt material Points of them; and, as to the reſt, the Board are much better able to judge, than I can be at this Diſtance from the Preſidency, how far the Plan propoſed by General Goddard, in his Letter of the 11th of June, or that ſubſequently propoſed by the Preſident and Select Committee of Bombay, of which no Intimation has yet been ſent me, for ſupplying the Troops on the Malabar Coaſt with Proviſions, can be complied with, without affecting the more eſſential Claims of the Army under Sir Eyre Coote, and the Settlement at Fort St. George.

I have been ſorry to obſerve, on a Peruſal of General Goddard's Letter to the Board of 6th Auguſt, that the General had miſtaken the Senſe and Meaning of our Orders of the 11th of June, reſpecting a Peace with the Maratta State; I judge ſo from my preſent Recollection of them, for I have not a Copy with me.—In a Minute, which the General has delivered at a Meeting of the

Select

Select Committee, and extracted in his Letter to us, he asserts, that one of the Events, in which the Powers which we had granted him were to be exercised, was the Deputation of Dewagur Pundit Moodajee Dewan to Poona, for the Purpose of mediating between this Government and the Marattas; whereas I believe that our Instructions to the General, not only provided for the Deputation of Dewagur Pundit to Poona, but of any one else who might be appointed to go there by the Court of Nagpoor.

I have already expressed my Approbation of the Orders sent to Bombay, and to Brigadier General Goddard, on the 24th September, against a Plan of offensive Operations, and an Augmentation of the Military Establishment on that Coast. The Reasoning in favour of an Increase of their Army, is doubtless overset, by their own Confession of Inability to maintain what they have already, and we are unable to supply them. I have not yet seen the Plan of offensive Operations recommended, but I am generally against it, not being able to discover to what useful Object it can tend, be it what it may. This Government has no Object but a Peace; we have acquired all that we sought for when we were forced into the War, and we have offered a large Part of that Whole to effect a Peace. But I am influenced by still further Reasons for opposing of the Orders sent to Brigadier General Goddard; and these I shall now recite; first making an Apology to the Board for not having before given them public Information of the Facts on which they were grounded. I alluded to them distantly in an official Letter which I wrote Mr. Wheler from Chunar; but from a Fear of its being intercepted, it was expressed with so much Caution, that I fear * may not exactly have been understood. In a private Letter, which I have since written to Mr. Wheler, I have been more explicit; and shall be obliged to him if he will be pleased to lay before the Board, and record upon their Proceedings, such Part of it as relates to the Subject.

* Sic in Orig.

I was made to understand, by a Letter which I received from Colonel Muir, and by distant Advances made to me after my first Arrival at this Place, that Madajee Scindia was very desirous of a Peace. His Wishes coinciding with those of our Government, I sent Orders to Colonel Muir to negociate, and full Powers to conclude, a separate Peace with him, accompanied by Instructions for the Colonel's Guidance in fixing the Conditions of it. As these appear to be the Orders on which a Treaty has since been prepared, I transmit a Copy of them enclosed for the Information of the Board, together with a Copy of my Credentials to Colonel Muir: They were both drawn up to go in the smallest Compass possible, on account of the Danger to the Passage of our Letters at that Period. Soon after I had dispatched these Orders, and before they could reach Colonel Muir, I received from him a Communication of his Correspondence with Scindia, with respect to the Conditions of a Peace, and was happy to find by it, that the Conditions to which Scindia would agree, were, except in very trivial Instances, the same which I had empowered Colonel Muir to yield.

I have the Honour to transmit enclosed to the Board a Translation of the Proposal made to Colonel Muir by Scindia's Dewan, on the Part of his Master, a Copy of my Replies, and a Letter which I wrote to Colonel Muir on the 11th Ultimo.

A Truce had been respectively agreed on between the Two Commanders, and my Instructions to Colonel Muir fortunately reached him before the limited Period of it was expired. I have been for some Time in hourly Expectation of hearing that the Treaty was concluded, having had the Satisfaction to learn from Colonel Muir, that neither the Arts of Cheit Sing, nor the worst State of our Affairs in this Country, even the most exaggerated Account of them, appear to have affected the amicable Disposition of the Maratta Chief. But as it will afford the Board Pleasure to know what Progress Colonel Muir has made, I have the Honour to subjoin an Extract of the last Letter which I received from him, under Date the 6th Instant: "The Treaty is at last fairly made out, "and this Day transmitted to Scindia for his Approbation. To morrow it will be returned; and, "if approved, Captain Ford will be dispatched for * to his Camp to see the Signature and Seal "affixed; after which Interview I shall be able to write you fully on every Part of the im- "portant Charge entrusted to my Management." To this Information I beg the Board's Permission to add an Extract of a private Letter from Colonel Muir's Camp, of yet a later Date: Sessai, dated 11th October 1781: "The Treaty is ready, and Ford is to set out this Morning for "the Maratta Camp, to have it executed by the Pateel, as he has already approved of the Articles "in it."

* Sic in Orig.

The Board will observe in Scindia's Proposals for a separate Peace, that he has promised his Interposition at Poona for effecting a general Peace with the Maratta State; and as in such Event it will be necessary to take some further Steps for securing Success to so desirable an Object, I shall soon have Occasion to address the Board again on this important Subject.

I have the Honour to be, with great Esteem,
Gentlemen,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
Warren Hastings.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Supreme Council.

Gentlemen,

I had the Honour of addreſſing you the 15th Ultimo, acquainting you with the March of the Army to Calian, and my Arrival at Bombay, ſince the Diſpatch of which Letter, nothing material has occurred relative to our political Tranſactions with the Maratta State, nor have any Meaſures been taken on the Part of their Government, which can be of Importance to the future Progreſs or final Termination of the War, as the only Motion made by them, ſince the Retreat of their main Army up the Gauts has been the detaching a Body of Troops to the Northward to ravage and deſtroy the Diſtricts near Surat; but as Major Forbes with his Force is ſtationed in the Neighbourhood of that City, and the Collections from theſe new Acquiſitions are almoſt, if not entirely completed, it will not be in the Power of the Enemy to do any material Miſchief to them till after the Rains, and * now when ſome Plan muſt be adopted for their Defence and Preſervation. The Troops under Major Forbes are equal to oppoſe the Force at preſent employed by the Enemy in that Quarter; and it is probable even a Part of theſe may return towards Poona, ſince by the lateſt Accounts from thence the Miniſter had not ventured to diſmiſs any Part of his Army, and it was confidently reported, that he propoſed keeping them together the whole rainy Seaſon in the Neighbourhood of the Capital.

* Sic in Orig.

The great and heavy Expence this muſt occaſion, together with the Sums he has been already obliged to diſburſe to reward the Services of the different Chiefs, as well as to ſatisfy them for the Loſs both of Men and Horſes ſuſtained during the late Campaign, will, it may be expected, make the Miniſter deſirous of bringing the War to a ſpeedy Termination. Hyder, apprehenſive of this Conſequence, has been, and ſtill continues very frequent and preſſing in his Repreſentations to the Poona Durbar, and exceedingly liberal in his Promiſes both of Men and Money to aſſiſt them againſt us. He has even given further and more ſtriking Proofs of his anxious Care to prevent any Coalition taking place between the Engliſh and Maratta State at this Time, by agreeing to pay the latter Fifty Lacks of Rupees; and it is confidently communicated to me, that of this Amount he has already ſent Nana Furneſe Merchants Bills for Two Lacks. All theſe Circumſtances, added to the whole Tenor of the Miniſter's Conduct ſince Hyder entered the Carnatic, prove ſo cloſe and intimate a Connection between them, that it is evident no diſtinct or ſeparate Intereſt can be purſued by either, and that the Maratta Government will be bounded and directed by the Event of the Operations on the Coaſt of Coromandel.

Here I cannot but lament the little Intercourſe we have enjoyed of late with that Quarter, by which Means we are kept in Ignorance of the State of the War there. The laſt certain Intelligence from thence was dated early in March; and though, ſince that Period, many Reports have been currently and confidently ſpread, very favourable to the Progreſs of our Arms againſt Hyder, yet the fallacious Nature of this Species of Intelligence is too well known, from repeated Experience, to admit of placing any real Dependence upon ſo uncertain and precarious a Foundation: It will not therefore be in our Power, conſiſtent with good Policy, to come to any fixed Determination, or decide upon the Plan moſt proper to be purſued at this Time, towards effecting an Accommodation with the Marattas, until we can obtain an actual Knowledge of the War on the Coaſt, eſpecially as we have ſo much Room to hope a favourable Iſſue to it, which alone can ſecure Succeſs to our Negociations, and without which it is not probable, from what has already paſſed, the Miniſter would liſten to any Conditions we might chooſe to offer.

I have in a former Letter, to which I here beg leave to call your Attention, moſt earneſtly recommended the Expediency of connecting the Operations of Colonel Camac's Detachment with thoſe of the Troops on this Coaſt under my Command, and leaving it to our mutual Endeavours and Reſources to form a Junction of Forces, in order to act with Vigour againſt the Enemy, ſhould the War be prolonged another Campaign, You are already acquainted with my Motives for propoſing this Meaſure, and I ſhall not therefore trouble you with a Repetition of them.

Since writing that Letter, another Diminution of our Military Strength on this Side, but with it a very conſiderable Decreaſe of Expence, no leſs than that of the whole Madraſs Detachment, has been reſolved upon.

The Select Committee of Bombay repreſented to me, as a Meaſure which they wiſhed to adopt from Motives of ſtrong Neceſſity, and to prevent the Danger to which they might be expoſed on account of the few Europeans belonging to this Eſtabliſhment, the incorporating the Men of the Madraſs European Battalion and Company of Artillery with their own Troops, and ſend round them * Officers to the Coaſt of Coromandel. The Deference and Regard I paid to their Judgment, reſpecting the Right they poſſeſſed of taking ſuch a Step, and the Neceſſity I was ſenſible there exiſted, from Conſiderations for the public Good, for adopting it, if admiſſible under any Circumſtances, has induced me to grant the Concurrence they required; but, in order to effect a more complete Reduction of the Expence incurred by maintaining a Detachment at this Diſtance from its own Preſidency, and at the ſame Time to contribute all in our Power to ſtrengthen

* Sic in Orig.

the Army upon the Coaſt, I thought it further expedient to propoſe to the Committee, that the Carnatic Battalion of Sepoys ſhould accompany the Officers. The Committee have acquieſced in this Propoſal, and Preparations are making accordingly for ſending them round in the Ponſbourne, Contractor, and Duke of Portland, Indiamen, which will, I conceive, be ready to ſail early in July.

I loſe no Time in acquainting you with this Reſolution, that you may be fully informed of our Situation, Military Force, and the Extent of the Reſources we poſſeſs for proſecuting the War next Campaign. The Reaſons which have determined the Select Committee and myſelf to diſpoſe of the Madraſs Troops in the Manner above mentioned, will be ſtated at large and explained to you by the Opportunity of the Diſpatch of the Indiamen; and I flatter myſelf the Meaſure will appear to you uſeful and neceſſary for the Good of the Public Service, and meriting your Approbation. In the mean Time, I beg leave generally to point out the material Benefits we ſhall derive from it: Firſt, the Reduction of a very heavy Expence, which has been hitherto ſupported with Difficulty, and which becomes every Day more and more and more * colonating. Second, the Acceſſion of a reſpectable Force for the Defence of this Preſidency, and at a trifling Addition of Charge, when the Advices from Europe, and the War lately declared againſt the Dutch, render Attention to its Security an Object of the greateſt and moſt intereſting Conſequence: And Third, The Aſſiſtance, however ſmall, which the Return of the Officers and Sepoy Battalions to the Coaſt of Coromandel will give to the Operations there.

* Error in Cypher.

I ſhall conclude this Letter by ſuggeſting and earneſtly recommending to your Conſideration a Meaſure, which it appears may be of the greateſt public Benefit, and muſt, excluſive of the certain Difficulty we ſhall find in raiſing Funds for the Payment of the Troops, be of the moſt material Aſſiſtance to relieve the Diſtreſs they will be expoſed to from the Want of Proviſions for their Subſiſtence in a Country that has been ſo long, and ſtill continues to be, the Seat of a Maratta War. The Meaſure I would propoſe is, to ſend round large Supplies of Grain from Bengal, where it can be purchaſed at a moderate Price, for the Subſiſtence and ſole Uſe of the Troops under my Command, which can be ſerved out to them at a fixed Rate, and be received by them in lieu of Money.

The Price can be calculated in ſuch a Manner as to indemnify the Company for every Charge they may incur in the purchaſing, Freight, &c. and at the ſame Time the Troops will be ſupplied at a low and reaſonable Rate; and beſides that, the very probable Event of an abſolute Scarcity from the Cauſe I have already aſſigned, will be fully provided againſt.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Gentlemen,

Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,

(Signed) Thoˢ Goddard.

Bombay,
11th June 1781.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſq. Governor General, &c. Supreme Council.

Gentlemen,

I had the Pleaſure to addreſs you the 30th ultimo from Bombay, acquainting you of my Intention of immediately ſetting out for Surat, which I accordingly did the Day following, and ſince my Arrival here have been honoured with your Commands ſignified in your Letter of the 11th June. Although the Letters which I addreſſed to you upon the Arrival of the Army at Panwell, and afterwards from Bombay, will have fully explained the Tranſactions of my March from Bove Ghaut, and have convinced you on whoſe Side the Superiority of Arms remained, as well as deſcribed the particular Reaſons which rendered my Movement to Panwell at that Time neceſſary, a Meaſure which you will perceive was dictated more by our Attention to the Operations of the War on the Coaſt, and the Deſire of being aſſiſting to their Succeſs by an immediate Relief of the Tillicherry Detachment, than the Conſequence of any Conſciouſneſs on our Part of inferior Strength to the Troops that oppoſed us, or an Apprehenſion of Danger from the Situation in which we were then placed; I cannot but moſt ſincerely regret the Period, however ſhort, that may have intervened before any certain Advices could reach you, and remove the unfavourable Impreſſion, which an Account as premature and exaggerated as that received from the Raja of Berar, muſt unavoidably have made in your Minds; though permit me here to add, with the moſt grateful Warmth of Acknowledgments, that I conſider the doubtful Light in which you beheld the Intelligence, notwithſtanding the authentic Channel through which it was conveyed to you, as the moſt ſtriking Proof of your Confidence in, and good Opinion of, my Zeal for your Intereſts, and ſhall endeavour to convince you, by my future Exertions and faithful Services, of the lively Impreſſion which ſuch reiterated Marks of Favour have made in my Mind.

Having addreſſed the Preſident and Select Committee of Bombay immediately upon Receipt of your Letter, incloſing a Copy of it for their Peruſal and Information, and at the ſame Time explained to them my Ideas upon the Sentiments therein expreſſed, I beg leave to tranſcribe a Part of that Addreſs for your particular Obſervation, and preſume to hope that the Opinion which I have formed of your Views, and the Plan I have perſiſted in recommending from a Conviction of its Expediency, founded on them, and an Attention to the general Situation of Affairs, as explained in the Minute lately delivered in to the Committee by me, and the Letters addreſſed to you you in conſequence, both by their Government and myſelf, will be honoured with your Concurrence and Approbation.

* Sic in Orig. '[Extract.] You will receive * the Inſtructions given for my Guidance in the Exerciſe of the Powers with which they have been pleaſed to intruſt me, are made to depend upon two Events, neither of which has to our Knowledge yet taken place, and of which, as far as we may venture to judge from Circumſtances, there is at preſent no Proſpect. Theſe are, firſt, the Deputation of Dewagheer Pundit, Moodajee's Dewar, to Poona, for the Purpoſe of mediating Peace between the Engliſh and Maratta State; and ſecondly, the Arrival of any Overture directly from the Government of Poona towards an Accommodation. Whenever either of theſe Events ſhall take

† Not decyphered in the Original. place, the Inſtructions contained in the incloſed Letter will become the Rule, and † 6028, i. e. by which to regulate and form the Conduct of any Negociation that may of conſequence be entered into. In the mean Time I muſt, after maturely conſidering the Contents of the Honourable Governor General and Council's Letters, and in particular attending to the falſe and exaggerated Account tranſmitted to them of the Tranſactions of my March from Bhou Gaut, which

‡ Sic in Orig. however they ſeem to have ſeen and underſtood in the real and proper Light, I ‡ perſiſt in the Sentiments I have already delivered to your Committee, and recommend the Proſecution of the Plan of Operation for the enſuing Campaign, recently agreed upon, as moſt conſiſtent with the expreſs Intentions of the Government of Bengal, and moſt likely to promote the Succeſs of their Views in the Attainment of an advantageous Peace, or even an honourable equal one. Since, in caſe Dewagher Pundit's actual Arrival at Poona to aſſiſt in effecting a Treaty, our Condition to proſecute Hoſtilities with Vigour will give Weight to his and our united Endeavours for that deſirable Purpoſe; and it is eaſy to conceive, that if we are to expect to receive any direct Over-

§ Sic in Orig. tures from the Maratta Government, the moſt probable, indeed the only effectual Means Meaſure § of producing a Diſpoſition ſo favourable to our Views, is to ſhew that we are prepared and able to enter upon any active and deciſive Campaign immediately, ſhould he neglect the preſent Opportunity, and ſuffer the War to be prolonged another Seaſon. [End of the Extract.]'

You ſee, Gentlemen, from a Peruſal of the above Extract, that my Sentiments regarding the Expediency of putting ourſelves in a Condition to proſecute, by every poſſible vigorous Exertion, an offenſive Campaign againſt the Marattas, cont the ſame as when I addreſſed you the 31 Ultimo. My Opinion upon this Occaſion is founded upon the following Reaſons, that as the Two principal Objects of our preſent political Purſuits are an honourable Termination of the War with the Marrattas, and an Opportunity of exerting all our Strength againſt Hyder, neither of theſe Points can be attained, but by the Means of ſome great and deciſive Advantage over the former, ſince it is natural to ſuppoſe they will never ſit down for a Time contented with the Loſs they have already ſuffered, and wait the Iſſue of Hyder Ally's Operations on the Coaſt of Coromandel, which have had ſo favourable a Beginning, and in whoſe final Succeſs they know they muſt ſhare rather than agree to any Terms we might offer, provided they remain free from the immediate Apprehenſion of further Danger or Moleſtation from us. Another Argument, and that a moſt powerful one, is, that the great and formidable Preparations now actually making by the Marratta Miniſter, promiſe an Exertion on the Part of the Enemy, which it is neceſſary we ſhould be prepared effectually to reſiſt, and if poſſible retaliate with double Vengeance upon them. This End will, I truſt, be fully obtained by carrying into Execution the Plan I have propoſed, and I therefore moſt ſtrenuouſly ſolicit that no Time may be loſt in tranſmitting ſuch Inſtructions, and affording ſuch effectual Aid as may enable me, in Concert with this Government, to adopt and enter upon the Meaſures neceſſary for its Accompliſhment. As the Particulars of the Plan above alluded to are contained in the Minute given in by me to the Select Committee, and explained at large in our ſeveral Addreſſes to you, and will be tranſmitted you by Sea, which at this Seaſon is the moſt expeditious Mode of Conveyance, I need not now ſwell this Packet, by entering into a minute Deſcription of it, which muſt be known long before this can reach you. It is ſufficient to mention here, that it is propoſed to collect as large a Force as Circumſtances will poſſibly admit of, and adequate to the Purpoſe of carrying on an offenſive Plan of Operations with Effect: That, for this Purpoſe, a temporary Increaſe is to be made in the military Eſtabliſhment: That Futty Sing is to be called upon to perform his Engagement with the Honourable Company, and required to give every Aſſiſtance in his Power to the Proſecution of the War: That, excluſive of this Aid, the Utility of Horſe to carry on any diſtant Operations againſt

‖ Sic in Orig. an Enemy, whoſe Strength conſiſts in Cavalry, is ſo obvious, and their Services ſo neceſſary ‖ give a deciſive and complete Succeſs to our Arms, that a Body of ſerviceable Horſe ſhould be employed by the Company, and at their own Expence, if no other Means can be found of

* Not decyphered in the Original. * 10840 them: And laſtly, That the Detachment under Colonel Muir ſhould be ordered to cooperate entirely with me, and, if poſſible, form a Junction of Force; without which the Plan propoſed muſt remain imperfect and defective: As the Execution of this Plan will neceſſarily involve us in a temporary Increaſe of Expence, and this Government continues to declare itſelf totally unpoſſeſſed of Reſources for its Support, it is needleſs to obſerve, that our entire Dependence muſt be placed upon you; and that without your timely Aid and Exertions in our Behalf, it will be impoſſible to adopt the Meaſures now propoſed in their full Extent; and unleſs we do ſo, no important or adequate Succeſs can be expected. I ſhall do myſelf the Honour of addreſſing you again very ſhortly, acquainting you with the Reſult of my preſent Viſit to the Northward, in the Buſineſs of which, on account of the ſhort Period that has paſſed ſince my Arrival, I have not been able to effect any Thing. After assuring you of the cheerful and implicit Obedience which I shall most scrupulously pay to the Commands with which you have been pleased to honour me, I shall conclude the present Address by acknowledging, with the most grateful Thanks for the further distinguishing Marks it contains of your Favour, your Letter of the 14th June, which reached me this Day.

To Colonel Muir.

Sir, Chunargur, 29th August 1781.

The Treachery of Rajah Cheyt Sing has compelled me to retreat to this Place, where I wait to reduce this Zemindary; a Work, I trust, of no great Difficulty or Time. I have received a Letter from you mentioning that Madagee Scindia has offered Terms of Peace. I send you full Powers.—Agree with him either for an Alliance of mutual Defence or Neutrality.—If he desires to include the Peshwa, you may agree to a Treaty of Peace with the Peshwa, and an Alliance against Hyder Ally Cawn, and all common Enemies; or of Peace simply on the Conditions of restoring all that we have acquired during the War, except Ahmedabad and and § the Territory conquered for Raja Futty Sing Gaycvan, and the Fortress of Guallier, and Fort and Territory of Satar. That we will never assist Raganaut Raw, nor interfere with his Concerns, nor admit him into our Forts or Territories; but we will not deliver him into the Hands of any one; let a Time be allowed him to repair to a Place of Security.

§ Sic in Orig.

We will yield what is ours, and what we can in Honour grant, but we will never suffer our Treaties to be infringed nor our Faith to be violated.——Reserve for us Bassein if you can, even if it should be necessary to yield in Exchange for it all the Lands obtained by the Treaty with Colonel Upton, except Salsett and the other ceded Islands, and the ceded Moiety of Baroach: but do not insist on the Bassein to the Hindrance of Peace. We want nothing from them but their Alliance against Hyder Ally Cawn, and that we dispense with. Be careful that the Agreement do not contain any Thing hostile to the Government of Berar, or hurtful to our Connection with it; obtain the Restoration of the Chundery Raja, and secure, as far as you may have the Means, the Interests of the Raja of Nurwerr, and any other Chiefs who have been active in our Cause. Include the Rana of Ghode and Futty Sing Gaycivan in the Peace, to prevent future Provocations of Hostility; let it be agreed to exclude the French and all the European Nations from the Ports and Dominions of the Marrattas. If a Treaty has already taken place between General Goddard and the Marratta State, the present Treaty must in such Case be void, but you may assure Scindia that no Peace shall be made to his Prejudice. Send, if you think proper, a confidential Person to Madajee Scindia. If he will engage on the above Terms, he must conclude them now: I am making my final Arrangements, and if the Time is lost, a Treaty * a Treaty with him may be for ever precluded by them. Obviate any Conclusion which he may draw from the present Scene.—It regards myself personally, and myself at this Time but little.—Cheyt Sing, by the sudden Massacre of some of the Sepoys of my Guard, which diminished it to the small Number of 100 Men, shut up with me in the close Suburbs of Benares, might have effected my Destruction. I escaped the Danger, and Troops are assembling daily, to which he can afford no Opposition. While the Effect of these Instructions is passing to Scindia, the Raja's total Exclusion ought to be accomplished; I hope it will.

Tranſlate of a Letter, and Propoſals of Peace from the Pundit Chumnajee Ra-Dewan, on the Part of the Maharajah Mahajee Pundit Patiel, delivered Muir the 27th Auguſt 1781.

Health to the generous and courteous Colonel, the Support and Protector of the indigent, &c.

The Patiel (may his good Fortune be perpetual) has deputed the Writer of this to negociate with you a Treaty of Peace. His Intentions are manifeſted by the under-written Propoſals; you are requeſted to communicate your Pleaſure therein.

Article 1ſt.

The Patiel will agree to ſeparate himſelf from his Principals, and to make a Peace with the Engliſh Gentlemen, provided he may at all Times be aſſured of the Aſſiſtance and Support of their Government.

Article 2d.

He offers himſelf as a Mediator for a Peace with the Peſhwa and Huder Naich, if ſuch an Event be deſired; a certain Time to be allowed him for that Purpoſe, in which the Reſult is to be waited: If a Peace is effected in that Time it is well, if not, the Engliſh Gentlemen are to act as they think proper, but not to require Aſſiſtance from him, not * to take their Route through his Country; in ſuch caſe he will neither oppoſe their Proceedings nor give Aſſiſtance to Poona.

* Sic in Orig.

Article 3d.

Such Parts of the Country on this Side of the Jumna now in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh, to be reſtored to him; and for the future they are not to diſturb his Dominions.

Article 4th.

On the Footing of Friendſhip and Honour ſincere and mutual, and on ſuch Conſiderations only, he requires that his Elephants and Artillery be reſtored to him.

Article 5th.

On the final Concluſion of Peace by the Parties, the Engliſh Gentlemen to return to their own Country, and he will march himſelf on one ſide till a Peace with Poona is effected: This Tranſaction is to be kept entirely ſecret, in order that it may not come to the Knowledge of the Miniſtry at Poona.

The Governor General's Replies tranſmitted to Colonel Muir for his Information and Guidance.

Article 1ſt.

We agree to this Article with the following Explanation, namely, We agree to make a Peace with the Patiel ſeparate from his Principals, and propoſe that in all caſes where either they or the Patiel ſhould be firſt attacked, and it ſhall be in the Power of the other either by Army (if they ſhall have a Force near enough), or by Mediation, they ſhall afford Aſſiſtance to the utmoſt of their Power, to the Party ſo attacked againſt the Aggreſſor.

Article 2d.

Agreed to except a Peace with Huder Naich.

Article 3d.

Agreed to, with the exception of the actual Poſſeſſions of the Ranna of Gohud.

Article 4th.

Agreed.

Article 5th.

Agreed.

Copy of a Letter from the Honble. the Governor General to Colonel Grainger Muir, dated Chunargur, 11th September 1781.

Sir,

I had juſt cloſed the accompanying Letter to you, when I Yeſterday received your ſeveral Diſpatches of the 25th and 27th Auguſt.

Scindia's Propoſitions are on the whole very nearly conformable to my Wiſhes; I now return them with ſhort Anſwers annexed to each, which I deſire you will explain to his Dewan Chinnagee. That Part of the Firſt Article in which he provides that he ſhall at all Times be aſſured of the Aſſiſtance and Support of our Government, if conſtrued literally, would require more than we could at all Times be able to perform; and as I think it neceſſary that nothing ſhould be inſerted which, under any poſſible Conſtruction of Words, may be inconſiſtent with Sincerity and good Faith, I have therefore qualified my Acquieſcence to the Firſt Article, by explaining to what Extent, and under what Circumſtances, Aſſiſtance ſhould be given by either Party.

You may further explain, that it is not expected that he ſhall afford us Aſſiſtance in any Caſe againſt the Peſhwa.

The Exception with reſpect to Huder Naich, in the Second Article, will, I imagine, form no Obſtacle to your concluding an Agreement regarding the reſt of Scindia's Propoſals.—He muſt know that in the preſent buſy Scene of War on the Coaſt, many important Events muſt have happened. Theſe muſt have Weight with regard to any Negociations relative to Hyder Ally, and theſe neither Scindia nor I can poſſibly foreſee or judge of; beſides, he is at too great a Diſtance to interfere in any Negociation between us and Hyder, if we were ever deſirous that ſuch a Thing ſhould take place.

I am well pleaſed with the Plan which Madajee Scindia propoſes with reſpect to the Peſhwa, and even wiſh that a ſeparate Treaty may be concluded with him without your finding it neceſſary to enter into any Diſcuſſion whatever regarding the Objects in Diſpute between the Peſhwa and us: Leave them open for future Diſcuſſion, and accept of Madajee Scindia's Offer of Mediation; deſire him, on concluding the ſeparate Treaty, to ſend me Paſſports and Perwannas without Loſs of Time, for a Gentleman whom I ſhall ſend to Poona in Company with a Perſon from him, with full Powers to ſettle and conclude a Treaty between us and the Peſhwa.

On finiſhing the ſeparate Treaty, you will immediately return with the Detachment under your Command to the Vizier's Dominions.

If it ſhould be agreed on betwixt you and Scindia that a Truce ſhould take place between us and the Peſhwa, during the Period which may be limited for ſettling a final Treaty betwixt us, I deſire that you will communicate to General Goddard this and any other Article which may affect his Operations, and forward to him the incloſed Letter from me, in which I have directed him to adhere to the Terms of your Agreement.

You will obſerve that in my Anſwer to Scindia's Third Propoſition, I have excepted generally the actual Poſſeſſions of the Rana of Gohud. I think it neceſſary however here to explain this Anſwer more fully; Gualior muſt poſitively be kept for the Rana; but if Scindia, in the courſe of your Negociations, ſhould inſiſt on our reſtoring Cutchwagur and the reſt of the Territories which have been put in the Rana's Poſſeſſion by us ſince the Commencement of the War, I deſire that you will not let theſe Territories be an Obſtacle to the Concluſion of Peace.—We may reſtore them without any Deviation from the Spirit of our Treaty with the Rana, in which the Reſervation of Gualior clearly implies a Right of diſpoſing of any other Conqueſt; and compared with the Acquiſition of Gualior, theſe Territories are of ſo ſmall Importance to the Rana, that I think it probable he will, if neceſſary, agree to their being reſtored.

The Letter, of which the above is a Copy, was not diſpatched until the 23d of September, and on that Day a Poſtſcript was added to it, giving a brief Account of the Raja's Rebellion, and the military Operations againſt him.

Gentlemen.

I have this Morning had the great Pleaſure of receiving your Letter of the 16th Inſtant, conveying to me Advices of Sir Eyre Coote's Victory over Hyder's Army on the 27th Ult. and do ſincerely and heartily congratulate the Board on this glorious Event. I have given Orders for the immediate Diſpatch of the Intelligence to the Officers of the Army without the Provinces, that it may be communicated to the Troops, and a Salute fired in Joy of our ſignal Succeſs. The News which you have done me the Honour of tranſmitting me, will, I hope, contribute to afford an advantageous Reſult to my Proceedings; and I beg leave to aſſure the Board, that nothing ſhall be wanting on my Part to do Credit and Honour to the pleaſing and generous Confidence which which they are pleaſed to repoſe in my Zeal for, and Attention to, the Intereſt of the public Service. I have the Honour to be, with much Eſteem, Gentlemen, Yours, &c. &c. &c.

Benares,
the 24th October 1781. (Signed) Warren Haſtings.

Agreed that a Letter be written to the Governor General as follows:

To the Governor General.

Sir,

We have had the Pleaſure to receive your Letters of the 13th, 18th, 22d, and 23d of laſt Month, in the Secret Department.

The Conduct of Beneram Pundit merits our Approbation in every Reſpect. We ſhall with Pleaſure add our Signature to the Bond which you have given him for the Advance of a Lac of Rupees. Indeed we ſhould be happy to reward ſuch an Inſtance of generous Attachment and public Confidence in any Manner that might be agreeable to him, and that would properly expreſs the Approbation of Government.

It is difficult for us to expreſs the Satisfaction which we feel at your having been able ſo ſpeedily and ſo ſucceſsfully to ſuppreſs the Rebellion of Cheit Sing; nor can we ſufficiently admire the Spirit and Alacrity with which the Troops flew from every Quarter to your Support. Much depended upon the Vigour and Rapidity with which the Forces of the rebellious Raja were attacked, and his Strong-holds inveſted. The Meaſures which you adopted, in ſo critical and ſo unexpected an Occaſion, do you no leſs Credit than the Promptitude and Ability with which your Orders were executed are honourable to the Officers and Soldiers who followed your Commands.

From the great Quantity of military Stores which Cheit Sing had collected, and his other Preparations, we are perſuaded that he looked ultimately to Independence, by aſſociating himſelf with our other Enemies. Your Arrival at Benares, and the Circumſtances that followed, precipitated his Reſolution. The Concluſion has been fortunate in every Reſpect.

The Daringneſs of the Raja's Conduct ſhews to us how much this Government ought to be upon its Guard in watching the Conduct of its powerful Tributories and Connections; and we are convinced, that the Iſſue of the Commotion will hold forth ſuch an Example as muſt deter all ſuch Attempts for the future, and eſtabliſh more firmly the Powers of this Government. We repoſe the utmoſt Confidence in your Wiſdom and Ability to bring theſe Troubles to a happy Termination. The Steps which you have already taken and communicated to us, appear the moſt proper that could be adopted; nor have we a Doubt but that your final Eſtabliſhment of Peace and Security in the Zemindary will be ſuch as ſhall be moſt for the public Honour, and the particular Intereſt of the Company.

When we are favoured with the full Detail of your Tranſactions, which you propoſe to ſend us, we ſhall with Pleaſure diſcuſs this Subject more particularly. The Interruptions to our regular Communication with you, have in no Inſtance, we believe, prejudiced the public Intereſt; they have even ſerved, as you juſtly remark, to ſhew the Similarity of our reſpective Sentiments and Determination, at a Time when neither you nor we could be informed of the Opinion of each other.

You judged right in not publiſhing our Proclamation at Benares, after your own had been iſſued. Declarations from an Authority that might be ſuppoſed different, could not add to the Force of your Repreſentations. We wiſh to ſtrengthen, not to embarraſs or weaken your Hands: We have accordingly ordered the Reſident at Benares to ſuppreſs our Proclamation, the Object of which Proclamation was to prevent the Contagion of Rebellion from ſpreading. We wiſhed to impreſs the Provinces with the proper Idea of that Steadineſs to the public Faith which is the true Intereſt of this Government, and which our Enemies are continually endeavouring to impeach to our Diſcredit. The Occaſion afforded us alſo a happy Opportunity of teſtifying to the World that Spirit of Union* and Harmony in our Council which is ever deſirable, but which, in the preſent Situation of Affairs, may be ſaid to be indiſpenſably neceſſary. We are convinced that your Sentiments on this Subject are exactly our own. Even in Times of leſs critical Emergency, a Difference of Opinion may prevail, and often does, with Advantage, in the Conſtitution of an Adminiſtration ſuch as ours. But the preſent Criſis admits not of the Embarraſſments of the Oppoſition of Opinions. We are ſurrounded with War. Its Expences have exhauſted our Reſources. The Difficulties and Diſtreſſes of the preſent State are without Example and beyond Conception. As good Servants, as Men capable of reflecting upon the intereſting Magnitude of our Truſt, what Inducements have we not to unite cordially in exerting every Faculty and Ability which we poſſeſs, to promote the Welfare of the public Intereſt with which we are charged?

Impreſſed as we muſt all be with theſe Sentiments, and equally impreſſed with the Neceſſity of Harmony among ourſelves, we need not add that we are perſuaded that every Latitude of Power with which you are veſted † ſhall be † executed for the public Good; and that the Readineſs of our Approbation can only tend to excite you to great and ſucceſsful Exertions.

Your

Your Situation, veſted with ſuch Powers and Confidence, has already enabled you to forward the great and neceſſary Object of Peace. We have every Reaſon to hope that the Arrangements with Scindia may lead to a ſpeedy Concluſion of the whole of the Maratta War. Your Approbation of the Letter of the Board of the 24th September to the Government of Bombay, is moſt ſatisfactory to us, as well as your Opinion of General Goddard's Propoſitions in his Letters of July and Auguſt laſt. The Force of the Expedition which was intended againſt the Cape of Good Hope having, upon Information of our Diſtreſs in the Carnatic, been moſt generouſly and wiſely directed by its Commanders to come to our Aid, we hope it may arrive upon the Malabar Coaſt at a Time the moſt ſeaſonable to give Succeſs to your Negociations at Poonah.

We wiſh to have your Opinion how the Government of Bombay ſhould be directed to act, in caſe General Meadows arrives there with the Troops under his Command? and whether, as General Meadows can have no direct Authority from the Company to act with their Troops, this Government ſhould not ſend him a ſpecial Authority?

Upon this and many other intereſting Subjects we feel the great Want of your Advice and Direction; but much as we wiſh your ſpeedy Return to the Preſidency, we cannot preſs it; the great Advantage which your preſent Situation affords you to regulate the Affairs of the diſtant Provinces, to ſtrengthen our Frontier, and forward the Buſineſs of Peace, is ſuperior to every other Conſideration.

As the Communication is now open between us, we ſhall inform you regularly of our Proceedings; and hope to hear of your Progreſs fully and confidentially upon every convenient Occaſion.

☞ (a) [RECEIVED the following Letters from the Governor General.—

Gov. Gen. Dec. 25th.

Gentlemen,

I have the Honour to tranſmit to you Copies of a Letter from Mr. Middleton—of my Anſwer thereto—and of my Inſtructions to Colonel Morgan in conſequence.—

An early and proper Exertion of our military Force will effectually ſupport the Authority of the Vizier, and in all Probability prevent any dangerous Combination amongſt the Jagheerdars, which their Wealth and numerous Dependants might otherwiſe enable them to form for reſiſting the Reſumption of their Jagheers.

In exceeding the Number of Troops expreſsly demanded on this Occaſion by the Vizier, I have conſulted only his Security and Advantage, and I am convinced from my own Information of the State of his Country, as well as from Mr. Middleton's Repreſentations, that it is but anticipating a further Requiſition, which, if deferred until the refractory and diſaffected Perſons ſhall become formidable, will be attended with great Hazard and proportionate Expence to the Vizier.

The Nabob having experienced from me ſo ready an Attention to relieve him from the conſtant Expence of the temporary Brigade, cannot think it unreaſonable that the Subſidy for the occaſional Force now to be employed for his internal Security, ſhould be liberal, and adapted to the Circumſtances under which we furniſh it, as well as including its actual Diſburſements. It is on this Principle that I ſhall eſtimate it, after having aſcertained as preciſely as poſſible the fixed and contingent Expences.

Upon theſe Grounds I hope that I ſhall meet with the Approbation of the Board in the Steps which I have taken.

The

The Detachment under Major Popham being ſickly, and the Services for which it was formed completely executed, I have ordered it to be diſſolved, and the Troops compoſing it to be put under the Command of Colonel Blair for the Protection of this Country, until the final Arrangement for this Duty ſhall be ſettled by the Board.

Sir,

The Nabob Vizier having appointed an Aumil to take charge of the Begum's Jagheers, ſhe had, it appears, prepared a large Body of Troops, with a ſuppoſed Deſign to reſiſt him. A violent and threatening Letter, which I have juſt received from the Begum, could ſeem to leave no Doubt of her Intentions to ſupport the already declared Licentiouſneſs of her Servants in oppoſing the Nabob's Orders; I have therefore been obliged to join my Solicitation to the Vizier's, for obtaining a Regiment from Colonel Morgan to ſupport the Aumil in the Execution of his Excellency's Commands; and I may add, unleſs my Judgment far miſleads me, we ſhall be in Want of ſtill further Aid before the Meaſures of reſuming the Jagheers ſhall be fully eſtabliſhed, and the Country reſtored to that State of Tranquillity and Subordination which it enjoyed before the Contagion ſpread by Cheyte Sing's Machinations. Sir,

In conſequence of the Repreſentation which you have made me of the Preparation made by the Begum to reſiſt the Order of the Vizier for the Reſumption of the Jaghire, and of the Probability that further Oppoſition from the other Jagheerdars, and Diſturbances from diſaffected Perſons, may be expected, I have directed Colonel Morgan to detach Sir John Cumming to Lucknow, with Four Regiments of Sepoys, and a proper Field Train, in order to ſupport the Authority of the Vizier, and maintain the Tranquillity of his Country, by ſuch Means as his Excellency ſhall pleaſe to direct. Incloſed in the Governor General's Letter, Dec. 25th.

As the Force to be thus employed for the domeſtic Tranquillity of the Vizier's Dominions is an Addition to the Brigade on Subſidy, and which is ordered to be in Readineſs for marching at the ſhorteſt Notice, to defend any Part of his Excellency's Territories, which a foreign Enemy might be tempted to invade during Civil Commotions, the Vizier will, I make no Doubt, cheerfully conſent to pay the Expences of the Detachment by a fixed monthly Subſidy during the Service, and which ſhall be determined and tranſmitted to you as ſoon as I can aſcertain the probable Diſburſements of it.

Sir,

Mr. Middleton, Reſident at Lucknow, having acquainted me that the Begum, Mother to the Nabob Vizier, is making Preparation to oppoſe by Force the Orders of the Vizier for reſuming the Jaheer which he formerly granted to her; and that it is to be apprehended that other Jagheerdars and diſaffected Perſons will endeavour to reſiſt the Vizier's Authority, and raiſe Diſturbances in his Dominions, I deſire that you will immediately detach Colonel Sir John Cumming to Lucknow, with ſuch a Force as ſhall, with the Troops from your Command already employed on Service at the Vizier's Requiſition, compoſe a Detachment of Four Regiments of Sepoys, excluſive of the Regiment ſtationed at Lucknow, and a proportionate Field Train, with Orders to ſupport the Authority of the Vizier, and to ſecure the Peace and Tranquillity of the Country by ſuch Means as his Excellency ſhall point out. To Colonel Morgan, incloſed in the Governor General's Letter, Dec. 25th, 1781.

At the ſame Time you will pleaſe to hold in readineſs for marching, at the ſhorteſt Notice, the Troops ſtipulated by Treaty for the Defence of the Vizier's Dominions.

I have given Orders for the 18th Regiment of Sepoys to return to its Station at Cawnpore.

From Gov. Gen.

Gentlemen,

I have now the Honour to ſend you the Narrative which I promiſed in my Letter of the 16th October, of the Tranſactions and Events which paſſed during the Courſe of the late Inſurrection of the Province.

I had begun it at the Time of the Date prefixed to it; but the buſy Scene which followed, both while I was at Chunar, and after my Return to Benares, hindered me from proſecuting it till a few Days before the Date which I have ſubjoined to it. I did not chuſe to alter the Introduction, although written at ſuch a Diſtance of Time from that in which the Body of the Work was executed, and even from the Exiſtence of the Events which are recorded in the latter, becauſe I found it not eaſy to give it a new Form, without a total Omiſſion of what had been already produced, while my Mind was animated by the recent and actual Scenes in which it was engaged, to an anxious and moſt feeling Solicitude, not more for the Iſſue of the impending Conteſt, than for its Conſequences on my own Reputation. In the Conſciouſneſs of the Rectitude of my own Intentions, I had allowed myſelf to uſe an Appeal the moſt ſolemn and moſt ſacred that could bind my Relation to Truth, or impreſs the Conviction of it on the Hearts of others; nor could I, conſiſtently with my own Senſe of its Obligation, withdraw it, or coldly place it after the Narrative already written, and written under the Check which I had impoſed upon it.—I know not whether I ſhall be clearly underſtood.—If I am not, yet let the Endeavour to explain a ſeeming Impropriety in the Conſtruction of this Performance be accepted for its Apology.

I have only to add my Hope, that as I have received the moſt cordial Support in the paſt Events from you, my reſpectable and moſt reſpected Aſſociates in the Adminiſtration, and as it has been my unvaried Study to prevent your ſuffering any Embarraſſment from them, my Conduct in them may alſo receive its firſt Reward in the Teſtimony of your Approbation.

Gentlemen,

I have the Honour to tranſmit to you the following Papers. They are under the Charge of Mr. Hay, who is proceeding to the Preſidency on Leave of Abſence.

Original Papers relative to the Settlement of this Country agreeable to the following Liſt.

N° 1. Engagement of Raja Mehipnarain to collect and pay in as much as he is able to recover of the Balance of Revenue ſtill unpaid for the Year 1188 Fuſſullee.

N° 2. Engagement of Raja Mekeepnarain for the Payment of 33 Lacks for the Year 1189, and 40 Lacks for each ſucceeding Year.

N° 3. Statement of the Revenue, with the Deductions allowed on ſundry Accounts for the Year 1189; alſo the ſtated monthly Payments.

N° 4. Ditto of ditto, with ditto, for the Year 1190; alſo the ſtated monthly Payments.

Original Affidavits, Copies of which were tranſmitted to the Board with my Narrative, on the 31ſt Ultimo.

Original Treaty concluded by Colonel Muir with Madajee Sindia, and received this Day.

Reſolved, That the following Letter be written to the Governor General:

To the Governor General.

Honourable Sir,

We have been favoured with your ſeveral Letters of the 29th November, 8th, 11th, and 13th December, and their different Incloſures.

We are ſorry that the Narrative of your Proceedings during the Courſe of the late Inſurrection at Benares, did not arrive in Time to be forwarded to the Honourable the Court of Directors by the Swallow. We had detained that Veſſel for a conſiderable Time, in Expectation of it; but judging it neceſſary at length to diſpatch her without them, we acted accordingly, and ſhe left the Pilot on the 3d Inſtant.

The Nancy, which has been coppered, was ordered immediately after to be got ready for conveying it, with the Papers annexed; and they ſhall be copied as ſpeedily as poſſible for that Purpoſe. We are now buſy in the Peruſal of them.

☞ (a) [The Board having already paſſed their Opinion, in Terms of the fulleſt Approbation, upon the Governor General's Conduct and Management in the Suppreſſion of the Rebellion of Cheit Sing, and the Regulation of the Province and City of Banaris; they think it unneceſſary to repeat their Opinion of thoſe Meaſures. Extract Secret Conſultations, 14th Jan. 1782.

They cannot at the ſame Time but remark, that the Explanation which the Governor General has given in ſome Parts of his Proceedings, during his firſt Diſcuſſions with Cheit Sing, and ſubſequent to the Convulſion, are rather an open Avowal of the Motives that actuated his Mind, than the guarded Repreſentations of a public Officer, ſtating to his Employers the Meaſures which an extraordinary Situation influenced, dictated, and juſtified.

To a liberal and candid Tribunal, ſuch was the natural, and certainly the wiſeſt Appeal. The Generoſity and Juſtice of a Britiſh Tribunal looks more to the real Motives and Zeal of their Agent, than to the preconcerted Artifice of his Conduct, or the legal Diſcriminations of his Defence. Even where a public Meaſure is unſucceſsful, the Reſponſibility required by the Agent (if riſqued upon public Principles) is frequently his Juſtification, and in many Caſes entitles him to Applauſe.

In theſe diſtant Dominions the ruling Servants of the State attend more to thoſe Rules and Forms which protect from Reſponſibility, than to an ardent Purſuit of the public Intereſt; under every private Riſque, the Hands of Adminiſtration may ſecure themſelves againſt Condemnation, even though the Country ſhould be loſt through their Miſmanagement.

It was not by avoiding perſonal Reſponſibility that the Servants of the Public eſtabliſhed the Britiſh Influence in Aſia; nor is it by ſuch cold Precautions that our Power is to be maintained, eſpecially at an Hour of general Hoſtility againſt us. The Board are led into theſe Obſervations, from an ingenuous Conſideration of the Difficulties in which the Governor General found himſelf involved at Banaris, and a Conviction of the Motives under which he acted. The firſt were ſurmounted with Ability and Fortitude: The latter they moſt ſincerely believe do him real Honour.

Eaſy would be the Taſk to approve the Suppreſſion of the Rebellion, and to ſtand diſconnected with any Reſponſibility, by juſtifying thoſe Acts which certainly precipitated the Storm from the Cloud in which it had gathered; Acts which Judges at a Diſtance, Judges unoppreſſed with the actual Embarraſſments of this Government, may, with great Specioufneſs of Argument, condemn. But the Board wiſh not, they cannot permit themſelves to proceed ſo diſingenuouſly or guardedly. They are at the ſame Time aware, that in a rigid Inveſtigation of the whole of this Buſineſs, the following Queſtions will be aſked:

1ſt. Where were the Governor General's particular Inſtructions for ſuch extraordinary Demands upon Cheit Sing?

2dly. Why was that Chief put in Arreſt, when he offered to make every Conceſſion?

3dly. Whether there was not a Compact between him and the Company, which ſpecified, that he was only to pay them a certain annual Tribute?

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 267.

Subſequent

Subſequent to the Maſſacre of our Troops, and the Events that followed, no Queſtions will be aſked.

In anſwer to the Firſt Queſtion, the Board think the Governor General was fully authoriſed by the general Tenor of his Inſtructions. The Governor General having a deciding Vote, could have written out and approved more particular Inſtructions. There was a Delicacy in the Mode he preferred; and it impoſed a greater Reſponſibility.

In regard to the Second Queſtion; it is evident from Cheit Sing's Anſwers and Preparations, and the whole Tenor of his Conduct, before and at the Time, that nothing but Arreſt could have convinced him of the Governor General's Determination.

That the Arreſt was not intended to proceed farther than the Payment of a proper Fine to the Company, who ſtood in the Place of his Sovereign and Benefactors, is evinced by the Governor General's Anſwer to Cheit Sing, after his Confinement.

Had a total Revolution in the Adminiſtration of the Zemeedary been intended, the Arreſt muſt have been effected with more Force, and greater Marks of Severity.

That the Officers who went to execute this Service were convinced that no Meaſure of determined Severity was intended againſt Cheit Sing, appears from that unfortunate Want of Precaution which coſt them and their Followers their Lives.

The Third Queſtion involves much Argument, yet is fully anſwered by that Part of the Governor General's Narrative, which diſcuſſes the Sunnud under which Cheit Sing ruled the Provinces, and which was ſo liberally granted by the Company.

The Correſpondence with the India States, ſhews clearly their Ideas of the Rights of Zemeedars and Rajahs protected in their Zemeedaries by a ſuperior Power. Had Cheit Sing been an Ally Sovereign Prince, who paid only a fixed Subſidy, his Military Preparations, and his inſidious Conduct, under Pretences of Poverty, in diſappointing the Expectations of the Government from the Army under Major Camac, juſtified, together with his Correſpondence with our Enemies, the ſevereſt Exertion of Aid to aſſiſt the Company in their Diſtreſſes, and atone for his Ingratitude and Treachery to a Power who protected him, and to whom he owed his Situation.

On the Subject of the Treaty concluded on the 18th of September laſt, between the Governor General and the Nabob Vizeer, and which the Difficulties of the Communication prevented the Governor General from explaining ſo fully before, the Board have to obſerve, that the Treaty is evidently a political Expedient, which forfeits no Advantage, which promiſes the Acquiſition of many, and which, properly managed by this Government (as Events favourable, or even unfavourable, ariſe), may lead to the final and complete Arrangement of an Alliance with the Vizeer. Such an Alliance, being leſs oppreſſive to him, may be more advantageous and honourable to the Company, and may remove that too general but dangerous Impreſſion, which the different States of this Country have received from the double Character in which we have hitherto appeared in India—that of Allies and Conquerors.

If the Nabob Vizeer ſhould not be able, under the Support of the Troops of this Government ſtationed at Cawnpoor, to maintain the Tranquillity of his Dominions, and collect thoſe Reſources which are neceſſary to defray even his reduced Expences, and diſcharge his heavy Debt to the Company, a new Arrangement muſt follow; and that Arrangement neceſſarily, at the expreſs Requeſt of the Vizeer, will ſecure every Advantage that can be wiſhed or expected from his Provinces by this Government.

The Reduction of that heavy Burthen of Expence, which was at once oppreſſive to the Vizeer, and of no Return to the Company (though a Source of Patronage to this Adminiſtration), the Board approve of moſt heartily; and, with a full Senſe of the Credit which a Meaſure of ſuch Difficulty and Unpleaſantneſs reflects upon the Governor General, they take this Occaſion of pledging to him and to their Employers their utmoſt Support, not only in this, but in every other Branch of public œconomical Reformation, which he may propoſe.

Upon the Return of the Governor General, the Board reſolve to diſcuſs with him thoſe Parts of the Treaty, which carry the Appearance of a haſty Agreement. The Diſaffection of many of the Vizeer's principal Jagheerdars; and the Steps which, from the Repreſentations of Colonel Hannay and other Officers, appear to have been rapidly taken by the Begums, to ſupport the Rebellion of Cheit Sing; were probably very early known to the Governor General, and through the Medium of all the Suſpicions that his Situation, at the Time he met the Vizeer, had naturally created.

At ſuch a Moment, and under ſuch Suſpicions, and even while the Iſſue of the Conteſt of Cheit Sing was depending, it is not ſurpriſing that ſome Parts of the Agreement between the Governor General and the Vizeer were ſpeedily adjuſted, and, as the Governor acknowledges, in Converſation at their Firſt Interview.

A ſhort Time will ſatisfy the Board, whether the Vizeer is willing or able to fulfil his Part of the Treaty: If he is, and that the Company can recover their Debt from him in the preſent Emergency and Diſtreſs of their Affairs, the Board cannot then but agree that the Governor General has acted in the Arrangement not only with Zeal, and the beſt public Intentions, but with a maſterly Deciſion, that muſt entitle him to the grateful and complete Approbation of his Employers.

It

It remains with the Board to concert with the Governor General, upon his Return, thoſe Meaſures that may ſecure this Government from any future Inconveniencies or Diſtreſs, that can be ſuppoſed connected with the Confidence repoſed in the Vizeer, for the Adminiſtration of the Affairs of his Revenue and Military Eſtabliſhments.]

APPENDIX, N° LIV.

Book 29.

Extract of a Letter from the Board at Calcutta to the Court of Directors.

(a) [Honourable Sirs,

Par. 1. IN our laſt Letter from this Department, by the Swallow Packet, dated 29th December 1781, we informed you of the Detention of that Veſſel for the Purpoſe of carrying home a complete Narrative of the Governor General's Proceedings while at Benares and Chunar, which we daily expected to receive from him; however, as the Length of this Paper, and the great Number of References annexed to it, made it impoſſible to ſend them down ſooner than he did, and we found it would require a long while to copy them after their Arrival, we determined to diſpatch the Swallow without them, judging that you would be impatient to hear from us on the Reſtoration of Peace in the Diſtricts of Benares, and to receive the lateſt Accounts from Madras of the Situation of Affairs in the Carnatic.

Par. 2. We determined at the ſame Time to diſpatch the Nancy Snow, Captain Kiſſernan, with theſe Reports, as ſoon as they could be prepared; and we have now the Pleaſure to tranſmit them to you, a ſeparate Number in this Packet.

Par. 3. The above Papers contain ſuch a full Account of all the Tranſactions of the Governor General upon this Service, together with the Motives and Reaſonings upon them, that we think it would be ſuperfluous to add any Thing of our own, but to recommend them to your attentive Peruſal.]

Par. 4. By theſe it will appear that the Treachery and Intrigues of Cheyt Sing, ſupported by the Diſaffection and reſtleſs Diſpoſition of the Bhow Begum, Mother to the Nabob of Owde, at Fyzabad, produced Inſurrections in that Country which till lately we were unapprized of, on account of the Communication between that Place and Benares being wholly cut off.

Par. 5. At the ſame Time that the firſt Information of theſe Diſturbances reached us, we were happy to hear that they had been quelled by the Accounts received there of the ſucceſsful Efforts of our Troops in Benares, and the March of Two Regiments from Cawnpore to the Relief of Colonel Hannay, whoſe Sepoys gave evident Proofs, by their Deſertion, that they had been tampered with, and he with moſt of his Officers were in great Danger of their Lives, a Detachment under Lieutenant Gordon having been actually attacked and cut off, and the reſt of the Corps being ſurrounded by the Rabble levied under Sanction of the Begum, avowedly for the Service of Raja Cheyt Sing.

Par. 6. The Circumſtance of theſe Levies is further corroborated by various Reports from Fyzabad, and by the Liſt of Cheyt Sing's Forces delivered to the Governor General at Chunar, in which the Troops ſaid to be come from Lucknow, which formed a Part of his Strength, muſt evidently be the ſame (ſince they agree in Number) with thoſe which Colonel Hannay declares to have been raiſed and ſent to him from Fyzabad.

Fort William, 11th February 1782.

(b) Par. 7. The juſt Grounds of Suſpicion which had been given to the Nabob, by the Begum and other principal Jaghyrdars in his Country, by the Symptoms of Diſaffection, and even Treachery diſplayed in their Conduct, made it an Object of ſerious Conſideration with him to take the firſt Opportunity which ſhould offer, conſiſtent with Juſtice, to diſpoſſeſs them of the Means of becoming injurious to his Authority; and the Neceſſities of his Government requiring extraordinary Aid, he reſolved to take this Occaſion of depriving them of thoſe extenſive Jaghyrs, which enabled them to become troubleſome, by the Revenues which they yielded, and the Number of Dependents neceſſarily retained for their Collection and Defence, and to reſume the Lands, allowing Penſions to the Jaghyrdars, in lieu of the Revenues.

Par. 8. As the Reſident at Lucknow had been made Guarantee to an Agreement, formerly executed between the Nabob and the Begum, in which he had engaged for a ſpecific Sum of Money, to desist from all further Claims upon her, it was necessary for him to acquire the Sanction of this Government to his Intentions, before he could carry them into Execution, which the Infidelity of the Begum gave but too much Reason to grant. You will find this Measure provided for in the new Treaty*, concluded with the Nabob by the Governor General, at Chunar, on the 19th September last.

* Vide N° 1 & 2 of the first Part of the Appendix to the Governor General's Narrative.

Par. 9. On the First Attempt made by the Nabob to carry this Plan into Execution against the Begum, she determined to resist his Authority, and raised a Revolt by the Means of her Eunuchs, Jewer Ally Cawn and Behar Ally Cawn, who had collected a Force of about 5000 Men in order to set the Nabob at Defiance. Notice of this Second Insurrection having been transmitted by the Resident, without Loss of Time, to the Governor General at Banares, he immediately ordered a large Detachment to march from Campore, and the Nabob resolved to go in Person to Fyzabad; on his Arrival there, by the Assistance of our Troops, he took possession of the Kella; and the Eunuchs, seeing it would be in vain to make a stand when superior Forces were expected, surrendered themselves Prisoners to the Nabob, and their Followers dispersed.

Par. 10. In Order to punish the Begum for this daring Ill-conduct, and to put it out of her Power to apply the Treasures which she had amassed, to the Purpose of raising further Commotions in the Country, the Nabob resolved to seize her Wealth, which by the Mahomedan Laws he was intituled to, as an Inheritance from his Father, who in the latter Years of his Life had committed his Treasury wholly to her Charge, and it had remained with her after his Death.]

Par. 11. This Wealth, whatever it might be, he determined to apply to the Payment of his Debt to the Company; and we have received Information from the Resident, who attended him to Fyzabad, that he had actually paid him the Sum of 55 Lacks of Rupees in ready Money, and by Draft on Bahar and Jewar Ally Cawn, which would soon be realized.

At a Council; Present,
The Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, President,
Lieutenant General John Clavering,
Richard Barwell, } Esquires.
Philip Francis, }

READ the following Letters from Mr. Bristow.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

Herewith I have the Pleasure to forward the Honourable Board the following Papers:

N° 1. General Statement of the Vizier's Army.
2. Statement of the Vizier's Military Disbursements.
3. Statement of the Vizier's Civil Expences.
4. Statement of the Jaghiers in the Vizier's Dominions.
5. Statement of the Vizier's Revenues.
6. Statement of the Vizier's Issues and Receipts on Account of the Hindoo Year 1184, or from the 28th of September 1776 to the 28th September 1777.

By these Statements, or rather Estimates, the Honourable Board will observe the enormous Sum by which the Vizier's Expences exceed his Income; and, as I obtained my Information from the best Authority, I have great Reason to believe that I have not over-rated them.

The Ministers have often represented to the Vizier his Situation, but without Effect; for though he may have been convinced at the Time of the Necessity of a Reform, yet his Turn for Expence will render it a most difficult Task to bring him to abide by any regular System. Besides this Reason, there is a very principal one arises from the Opposition his Ministers meet with from Imaum Busk, Tipper Chund, and the favourite Tellinga Rajas, who counteract every Measure they propose for introducing good Order and Œconomy. The Characters of his Excellency's Favourites I explained to the Honourable Board in my Letter of the 21st August last, and am ignorant of any Change having happened in his Sentiments towards them.

It appears to be his Plan to intrust to the Tellinga Rajas the Management of any Farms that may in future fall vacant. I dread the bad Consequences that must ensue; for it needs little Judgment to penetrate into the Conduct of Men of low Birth, without either Education or Abilities, and whom I may safely declare totally unfit for the Charge of Government. The Country already feels the Effects of their Violence, and the Vizier does not receive even a temporary Advantage from it; as, whatever they may collect from the Country, the Payments to him from all the Diſtricts fall infinitely ſhort of the former Rents.

The Miniſters, whoever they be, will be conſtantly perplexed how to act towards the Favourites, as their Influence with the Vizier places them above Controul, and likewiſe enables them to obtain extravagant Allowances for the Charges of Collection, as well as great Deductions for the Failure of Crops, deſerted Lands, and under various Pretences void of Foundation. Theſe Men themſelves, I am told, doubt the Permanency of their Situations—they are ſenſible of the general Diſguſt which prevails againſt them, and that on any Change of Government they would be the firſt to feel the Effects, and therefore are the more earneſt to acquire Emoluments, without regard to the Means.

In my Addreſs of the 8th of Auguſt laſt, I informed the Honourable Board of the Abuſes which reigned in the Mint, and of the Improbability of their being rectified, owing to the Influence of the Manager, one of the principal Tellinga Rajas. I am ſorry to obſerve, that Abuſes daily encreaſe; for at this ſhort Period of Time from my forwarding the Honourable Board a Table of Aſſays, the Coinage at ſome of the Mints has been debaſed near Three per Cent. Such Departments of the Government as are not under the Management of the Favourites are neglected, and the Perſons inveſted with the Charge of them expoſed to the greateſt Difficulties. Aumils, whoſe Diſtricts are filled with refractory Zemindars, and require Troops to ſubject them, cannot obtain Aſſiſtance in proper Time, and, on this Account, I have known great Loſſes often accrue in the Revenue. Another great Difficulty they labour under is, the Aſſignments granted on them exceeding the Rent of the Lands they hold. To many People of Influence who have theſe Aſſignments they do not dare to give a Refuſal, for fear of being injured by them, and they are at the ſame Time unable to comply with their Demands; ſo that I recollect many Inſtances of Aumils, whoſe Attention has been more taken up in making Excuſes to Tuncawdars, than in the Care of their Diſtricts. Every Tuncawdar ſends a Vackell, Hircarras, and a Number of People to collect his Tuncaw, and if he has Troops under his Command, he detaches a Party to exact Payment from the Aumil; very often Troops, whom the Vizier cannot pay at the Preſence, are ſent to collect their Arrears from an Aumil. They frequently treat him in the moſt ignominious Manner, by confining and depriving him of all Suſtenance, until he finds Means to ſatisfy them. So conſiderable an Officer of Government as an Aumil, whoſe Character ſhould be held up to the People in the moſt reſpectable Light, to be thus diſgraced, muſt not only affect the Vizier's Authority, but his Revenue, and is ſo prejudicial, that it will be impoſſible for the Government to ſubſiſt long upon this Plan.

☞ (a) [Another great Abuſe which prevails, is the Contempt with which the Vizier's Authority is treated: His Orders are ill executed; his Perwannas diſregarded, even in the neighbouring Diſtricts to the Capital, unleſs accompanied by ſimilar ones from the Perſon immediately in Charge of the Province. In ſome diſtant Parts of the Country, neither his Excellency nor his Aumils are much regarded; the Gurrocpore Diſtrict particularly can hardly be ſaid to be under the Vizier's Government, as it is held by Zemindars who pay little Obedience to the Aumils, and diſcharge their Revenues with great Irregularity.] ☜

Heretofore it was uſual to annex the Sayer, or the Collection of Duties of Goods tranſported by Land, to the Department of the Aumil of the Province, but the Vizier has thought proper to make the Sayer of all his Dominions a ſeparate Office, and entruſt it to the Management of Bowanny Sing. This has been productive of much Confuſion and general Complaint, becauſe it interferes with the Authority of the Aumils, and creates perpetual Diſputes. The Perſons under the Sayer are frequently concerned in the Farming of Lands, and holding Offices under the Aumils. Both the Daragha of the Sayer, and the Aumils, have Claims on the ſame Man, and both iſſue Warrants to ſeize his Perſon and Effects. Many Aumils have found ſuch great Impediments from this claſhing of Authority, that they have made the Darogha a Preſent to give them up the Farm of the Sayer. To this Evil I ſee no Remedy, becauſe the Vizier's ſtrong Attachment to the Darogha deters all Complainants from repreſenting their Grievances; and the Cauſes of Complaint are really aggravated by the Diſpoſition of the Darogha, who exerciſes his Office in a very arbitrary unbecoming Manner.

In the late Vizier's Time there was a Collection of the Sayer confined to Duties on Goods tranſported by Water from particular Places only; but the Sayer, on its preſent Footing, is a very extenſive important Department, not ſo much from the large Amount of the Collections of it, but from the Opportunities it gives an ill-diſpoſed or incapable Man at the Head of it to cauſe Irregularities in the Government.

The Sale of Spirituous Liquors had become, in the late Vizier's Time, ſo great a Nuiſance, that he found it neceſſary to publiſh an Edict, making it Death to diſtil or vend any. Some Offenders who were the moſt notorious he puniſhed; ſtill the Advantages accruing to the Country from the Conſumption of Articles uſed in the Still, rendered it neceſſary to wink at the Infringement of this Edict, if it was not carried to exceſs. The preſent Vizier has thought proper to eſtabliſh an Office, under the Appellation of Abkany, merely for the Prevention of making Spirituous Liquors, the Authority of which extends to all his Dominions, and is entruſted to the Management of Rhemaum, who was a menial Servant of his Excellency's. He has under him many Companies of Sepoys, which he disposes of throughout the Country, accompanied by a numerous Body of Agents; and, under the Pretence of Distillers or Venders of Spirituous Liquors, every Individual is exposed to their Violences. This Office is not only the Cause of great Oppression, but of Loss, for the Aumils on this Account complain much of the slow Sale of many Articles, particularly of the Sugar Cane. In like Manner with the Sayer, the Office of Abkany interferes with the Authority of the Aumils.

The Honourable Board will observe, by the Statement of the Vizier's Revenue, the extensive Districts entrusted to the Management of Individuals, which has been the Cause of much Confusion and Irregularity; and the Division of them ought to be one of his Excellency's first Objects.

I have to observe to the Honourable Board, the Abuses which I enumerated in the Administration of the interior Parts of the Country are at least equalled by those at the Presence.

The Execution of Business at the Public Offices is protracted unnecessarily, owing to the Vizier's Inattention, and the Difficulty the Ministers are under in bringing him even to give his Sanction to their Acts: Without it, however great the Latitude may be, he avowedly grants them, still they dare not proceed; for in the present divided State of the Court, the Ministers have too much to apprehend from the Insinuations of their Opponents, to enter into any Measures, unless expressly authorized by his Excellency.

On the Appointment of the Ministers, I informed the Honourable Board of the Advice I had given the Vizier, and the Confidence I entertained of their earnest Wish to promote the joint Interests of their Master and the Company; and I have equal Reason to believe they are zealous in their Duty. Hyder Beg Cawn has shewn Abilities sufficient to discharge the Trust reposed in him; but, curbed and opposed on every Occasion as he had been, it is impossible to expect he should have been hitherto able to introduce a Reform in the Government. I shall dwell particularly on this Subject, because I know his Attachment to the Company has exposed him to the Enmity of all the Court; but I humbly hope the Honourable Board will regard Hyder Beg Cawn as a Man to whom their Countenance and Protection are necessary, as well to support the Vizier's Government, as the Company's Interests.

Tipper Chund and Imaum Bucsh are the principal Opponents of the Ministers, because they are themselves endeavouring to obtain the Administration of Affairs. Imaum Bucsh has a very great Influence with the Vizier, who has conferred every Mark of Distinction and Honour on him that he could, and dignified him with the Title of General; his being a weak Man, and having such Weight with his Excellency, are useful and necessary to Tipper Chund, without being in the least dangerous. Tipper Chund directs all their Plans; and, as I understand, it is their constant Endeavour to impress the Vizier with Doubts and Suspicions of the friendly Intentions of the English, and the Infidelity of the Ministers. These Suggestions, together with positive Assurances, that in case of their coming into play, his Excellency's Privy Purse should ever be kept full, let what other Funds and Assignments might fail, have so far succeeded, that the Vizier is inclined to make Tipper Chund his Minister, if the Honourable Board should approve of it; and I therefore think it my Duty to mention these Circumstances without Reserve. I know him to be a Man avowedly ill-disposed to the English, and ever since my first having had the Honour to hold the Station of Resident, I have met with constant Opposition from him in all my Negociations, particularly in that principal one of securing Funds for the Payment of the Expences of the Nabob's Troops under British Officers, and the Army Subsidy.

In respect to the Tellinga Rajas, the Part they have taken in these Intrigues is not so conspicuous; but the Ministers, in doing their Duty, must clash with their Interests, and in consequence are their strenuous Opponents. I have to observe, by the Irregularities in the Vizier's Government, the Company must ultimately suffer; for I conceive it an Impossibility that the Assignments granted, either for the Payment of the Subsidy or Balance, can be realized on the present System.

The Resident is unable to have such vigilant Agents as to prevent the Collections of all the Places on which he has Assignments from being appropriated to other Payments in preference to his. Some private Tuncawdars will make it the Aumils Interest to favour them. Mutinous Troops exact the Money for their Tuncaws, and thus the Deficiencies will fall on the Company. On the other hand, if the present Mode is set aside, and Ready-money Payments demanded of his Excellency, little or nothing would be realized.

The Freedom with which I have stated the Situation of the Vizier's Affairs, and the Necessity of a Reform in them, will, I hope, meet with the Excuse of the Honourable Board. I, for my Part, shall only presume to say, that from the Experience I have had of his Excellency's Disposition, he will hardly of himself regulate his Affairs, and that the only Remedy to be found is in the Assistance and Protection of the English.

LETTER from Mr. Middleton to the Governor General and Council, dated Lucknow, 9th February 1777.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

The growing Ascendancy of the personal Favourites of the Vizier, in opposition to the Ministers, who his Excellency himself made choice of, and whose Conduct he has hitherto been pleased to approve, appeared to me fraught with such dangerous Consequences, that I have thought it incumbent on me to give the latter the strongest Assurances, that the same Support they have hitherto met with from the English, and which alone can insure to them the Influence necessary to the due Execution of their important Trust, would be continued to them so long as their Conduct should furnish no Cause of Complaint against them; but these Assurances, without some concurrent Testimony from the Vizier himself, would not have had the immediate Effect which I wish them to work: I was, at first, struck with this Necessity, from the Circumstances which Mr. Bristow has set forth in his Address of the 22d Ultimo, respecting the Characters and Dispositions of the Men who compose the Opposition against the Ministry, and which I have found, from every Enquiry I have been able to make, to be, so far as regards them, just. I have, indeed, had more convincing Proofs than my Predecessor, of the outrageous and destructive Lengths this Faction would dare to proceed, having been pretty well ascertained that it has been a Measure agitated, and actually agreed on, to assassinate the Minister Hussein Reza Cawn, and his Naib Hyder Beg, to make room for Tipper Chund and Immaum Buxh, whom the Party have chosen for the Ministry. Mr. Middleton. 9th Feb.

The Persons who evidently appear to be the Principals in this Confederacy, are Immaum Buxh, Tipper Chund, and most of the Tellinga Rajahs. Although I am thoroughly convinced that his Excellency is unconcerned in, and unacquainted with, these Cabals, and that he is so far from harbouring Ideas correspondent with such Designs, that he has a good Opinion and a real Confidence in Hussein Reja and Hyder Beg Cawn, both Men of Family, and among the oldest of the late Vizier's Dependants; yet such is the Influence of the Orderlies (particularly Immaum Buxh), from being the Companions of his Pleasures, over his Excellency's Affections, that I should fear he might be ready to excuse in them an Act which he himself would abhor the Commission of, and even take the Perpetrators of it into the same Degree of Favour they before possessed. How soon an uncontrouled Reign of such People would plunge the Nabob's Affairs, and this Country, into irredeemable Ruin, is but too obvious from the Mischiefs which result from their present Influence, controuled and counteracted as it is. They are, indeed, of Characters, as infamous as they are, from the want of Abilities and every requisite Experience, incompetent to the Charge of the Offices they wish to seize, by the Sacrifice of those who now hold them. In so serious a Conjuncture as this, I thought it necessary to sound the Nabob's Disposition towards the Ministers, and as I found that he entirely approved their Conduct, and had no personal Objections to them, or any apparent Wish to remove them for others, I thought it prudent to mention to his Excellency (but without telling him of the Cabals forming), that as he assured me he entirely approved of the Conduct of the Men already in Station, I could wish he would be pleased to honour them with some new Marks of his continuing Favour, that it might be apparent to the World the same Conduct would be observed towards them as heretofore; adding, at the same Time, that this would manifest to the World that I heartily joined in wishing to support Men, whom his Excellency had first adopted, and still deemed competent to the Charge of the important Offices they were entrusted with. I have the Pleasure to acquaint the Honourable Board, that his Excellency, without the smallest Reluctance, but, on the contrary, with the utmost Cheerfulness, acquiesced in my Proposal, and appointed last Night to bestow Khelauts upon Hussein Reza and Hyder Beg Cawn, which was accordingly done in my Presence.

I hope the Honourable Board will approve the Conduct I observed on this Occasion, which appeared equally necessary for the Preservation of Tranquillity in the Vizier's Government, as for for the Prevention of a Piece of Villany, ſhocking in its Nature, and in its probable Conſequences extremely deſtructive.

I have the Honour to be, with the higheſt Reſpect,

☞ (a) [The Country of Gorruckpore, particularly that Part which lies contiguous to the Mountains, although not in actual Rebellion, is ſo far unſettled, as ſcarcely to be deemed a Part of the Vizier's Dominions. The Revenue of that Diſtrict is rated at 560,000 Rupees; but, from the Manner in which the Payments have hitherto been made, I do not apprehend that more than Half that Amount will be realized: And the Reaſon which the Aumul aſſigns for this Failure is, the Number of Zemindars on the Confines of the Province, who, being in Poſſeſſion of Mud Forts, withhold their Revenue, under various Pretexts, until extorted from them by Force. Under theſe Circumſtances, the Charge of the Army neceſſary to be kept up, in that one Diſtrict, is almoſt equal to the Amount of the Collections.]

His Excellency intends to march towards Gorruckpore as ſoon as the Ceremony of the Mohurrum is over; his Plan is to bring theſe Zemindars to an equitable Adjuſtment of their Accounts, to reduce all the Forts that are not immediately neceſſary for the Defence of the Country againſt foreign Invaſions, and to put thoſe in the Poſſeſſion of Men whoſe Fidelity and Allegiance he can rely upon.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident.
And
Lieutenant General Sir Eyre Coote, K. B. abſent on Command at the Preſidency of Fort St. George.

READ the following Letters from Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Collector of his Excellency the Vizier's Aſſignments to the Honourable Company.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I have now the Honour to encloſe a Copy of the Letter addreſſed to me by Mr. Purling, on delivering to the Charge of my Office, together with the ſeveral Papers it contained.

It appears by the Treaſury Account that a Balance of Fd Rs 15,469: 4: 10 remains in hand. I have ſince found a Depoſit of Rs 31,600 in the Hands of Mr. Graham, who acted under Mr. Purling, which I have received into the Treaſury, underſtanding it to be a Payment made by the Farmers of Gopeemow, regarding which the Pleaſure of your Honourable Board has not been finally ſignified.

Excluſive of the Bond mentioned in Mr. Purling's Letter, he delivered to me Three Bonds, viz.

One of Almaſs Ally Khan, for	35,00,000
One of Khoſa Ain o Dien, for	28,00,000
And one of Syf Alla Beg, for	1,40,000

Which are the Amount of the Agreements that appear to have been made at the Period of Mr. Purling's delivering over Charge. For the Information of the Board I encloſe a Jumma Waſul Bakee found upon theſe Bonds, and made up to the Day I received Charge, by which there appears a Balance uncollected of 716,81,075.

I have alſo the Honour to tranſmit a Copy of the Eſtimate for the new Year, delivered to me by Mr. Purling, for the Amount of which I ſhall immediately apply for Aſſignments from the Vizier, and inform your Honourable Board of the Reſult.

I underſtand that large Arrears of ſome Months are due to the Paymaſters of the Kawnpore and Futty Ghur Stations. I am unable to aſcertain immediately the preciſe Amount, as no Account of it has been delivered to me; but I have written to the reſpective commanding Officers to

To Mr. Nathaniel Middleton.

Sir,

Agreeable to the Orders of the Governor General and Council, I now deliver over to you Charge of that Part of my Office which relates to the Tuncaws, and all the pecuniary Transactions between our Government and his Excellency the Vizier, together with the Papers and Accounts thereunto belonging. As you have so lately transacted the Business of this Office, it will be only necessary for me to advert to such Orders of the Governor General and Council as have remained unexecuted.

Enclosed you have Two Letters; One under Date 21st August, disapproving of the Enormity of the Expences incurred by the Aumils, on account of the Collections, which I have endeavoured to carry into Execution without Success.——I also enclose a Letter from his Excellency in Answer to One I wrote him on the Subject, assigning strong Arguments for the Necessity of keeping up the present Force, and incurring the Expence he is at, being far inferior to the Disbursements on the same Account during the Time of the Nabob Suja ul Dowla.—You will of course take what Measures you think adviseable upon the making of your Settlement with his Excellency for the Expences of the current Year.

The other Letter from the Honourable Board, under Date 21st September, contains an Order for the Exclusion of the Demand of the late Mr. Piper on his Excellency in the Estimates of the present Year; Mr. Piper having made over the above-mentioned Demand to the Honourable Company for the Debt due from him to them. To this his Excellency has consented, and Mr. Piper's Bond is enclosed, and amounts to Lucknow Sicca Rupees, that in conſequence of its Removal at ſo critical a Juncture, the Aumil has totally loſt his Authority in no leſs than Thirteen Purgunnahs, and their Collections have been almoſt entirely ſtopped for upwards of Two Months; nor can his Authority be eſtabliſhed without the Aſſiſtance of a Battalion. As this Event involves the Fate of the Company's Tunka upon theſe Diſtricts, I beg leave to ſubmit to you the Expediency of procuring him the neceſſary Aſſiſtance as ſoon as poſſible.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

I have now the Honour to lay before you the Reſult of my Endeavours to obtain from his Excellency the Vizier complete Aſſignments for the whole of the Eſtimated Claims in Behalf of the Honourable Company, &c. as ſtated by Mr. Purlings, the late Reſident.

The incloſed Perſian Papers, No. 1 and 2, are Copies of my Application to the Vizier on the Subject, with his Reply. The latter, I am ſorry to ſay, exhibits but too ſtriking a Reſemblance of his Excellency's Situation and Finances; and the Truth of his Aſſertions and Arguments to prove his Inability to comply immediately with the whole of my Demands upon him, having been confirmed as well by the ſolemn Teſtimony of his Miniſters as by every other authentic Information I could obtain, I have for the preſent been compelled to accept ſuch Aſſignments as his Excellency declared himſelf able to grant me, with Two ſeparate Bonds, bearing Intereſt at 12 per Cent. per Annum for the Balance of laſt Year and the Army Donation; the Two Sums of the Bonds, with the Aſſignments, including the total Amount of the Honourable Company's Eſtimated Claims, as well what is due to them for their own proper Account, as for the Account of thoſe Individuals whoſe Intereſts and Demands have received the Sanction of your Honourable Board. However ſenſible I may be of the Vizier's Inability to afford me further Aſſignments without infringing the Reſources which appear neceſſary for the Maintenance of himſelf and Family, the Honourable Board will be pleaſed to underſtand that the Settlement now effected with his Excellency, being only temporary, is ſubject to their Reviſal and final Determination. I have the more readily been induced to yield to it, as the Amount of the Aſſignments, though far unequal to the whole Eſtimate, exceed the current annual Demands of the Honourable Company; and an Intereſt of Twelve per Cent. upon ſo conſiderable a Sum as R^{s} 43,18,613 appeared to me an eſſential Object to the Advantage of my Employers. And further, as I have received every Aſſurance from the Nabob and his Miniſters of their moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours to prevent any material Balance accruing at the Cloſe of the Year upon the Aſſignments granted; under theſe Aſſurances, on which I place the firmeſt Reliance, I conſider the preſent Settlement as favourable as any that has heretofore been made; for whatever may have been ſtated on Paper, the Honourable Board and only refer to the Accounts of the Reſidency for ſome Years back to be convinced that the actual annual Collections have never exceeded the Sum for which I am now in Poſſeſſion of valid Aſſignments. The whole Amount of the Settlement, as it now ſtands, is R^{s} 1,42,13,858, of which I have obtained Aſſignments for — — — 98,95,345
Bonds — — — 43,18,613

The neceſſary Claim for the Services of the current Year, in Behalf of the Honourable Company, amounts only to R^{s} 92,94,344 : 4 : 3; ſo that the Amount Aſſignments exceed it by ſome Lacks; and upon the whole I confidently truſt I ſhall have ſufficient Aſſets to enable me, excluſive of the full Payment of the Troops ſtationed in the Vizier's Dominions, to ſupply, agreeably to your Orders to the late Reſident, any Funds which may be neceſſary for the Maintenance of the Army under Major Camac; and ſhould theſe not form any very large Amount, I ſhall expect to be able alſo to make ſome conſiderable Remittances to the Preſidency. I earneſtly hope therefore to receive your Sanction for finally limiting the Demand of Aſſignments for the current Year to thoſe already received, as I ſincerely believe them to be the utmoſt Extent of what the Vizier can really grant, by reaſon of the deplorable State to which the heavy Claims of late Years have reduced his Finances, rendered the more inſupportable by the great Drains of Bullion from theſe Provinces, the total Stop to all Importations from the Southward and Eaſtward, occaſioned by the exorbitant Exactions in Rajah Cheyt Sing's Zemindary, the great Drought of Laſt Year diminiſhing the Reſources, while the Demands were larger than ever; which together left him in the moſt cruel Diſtreſs, nearly deſtitute of the Means of Subſiſtence, and in fact reduced to the Neceſſity of living on the Bounty of his Dependants. All theſe Circumſtances, joined to the lateneſs of the Seaſon (1-4th of the Year being elapſed), I repeat my Hopes, will induce your Approbation of what I have done.

It is to be obſerved, that the Aſſignments exceed the eſtimated Demands in the Sum of Rupees of Sorts — — — — — 6,00,000

And that the eſtimated Claim for the Troops at Futty Ghur exceeds the probable Diſburſements — — — — — 6,00,000

Making together 12,00,000

This Amount, when realized, ſhall, if you approve of it, be applied, as far as it will go, at the Cloſe of the Year, to the Liquidation of the Bond to the Army, agreeably to your Orders for obtaining Payment of that Claim, under Date 25th Auguſt 1779.

I might have included the 10,50,000 in theſe extra Aſſignments, but I judged it more expedient to preſume the Latitude the Mode I have adopted will afford as a Reſource for unforeſeen Accidents or Contingencies, as it always may be uſed as moſt adviſeable at the End of the Year, while by the other Claims are accumulating at Intereſt; whereas if they had been inſerted in addition to the Amount Claims, the whole might be cramped without Remedy.

I have, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Coll[t] Viz[rs] Aſſ[t] to the Honble. Company.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

On the 3d Inſtant I had the Honour of ſubmitting to you Copies of his Excellency the Vizier's Application, together with mine to Colonel Morgan, for a Battalion of Sepoys to aſſiſt in the Collections of the Phouzdar of Allahabad, upon whom the Honourable Company have an Aſſignment of 5,50,000.

Herewith I have the Honour to incloſe Copies of the Correſpondence which reſulted, containing Colonel Morgan's Refuſal to grant his Excellency the Vizier's and my joint Solicitations, ſupported by the Authority of your Inſtructions to me, dated the 28th October laſt.

I conclude that One Cauſe of this Refuſal is, that the neceſſary Orders, conformably to my Inſtructions, were not iſſued in G. O. Permit me therefore earneſtly to requeſt, that your Honourable Board will be pleaſed to iſſue the neceſſary Orders, conformably to the Inſtructions I have been honoured with; as the greateſt Difficulty may occur to the Honourable Company's Collections by any Delay in this. The Phouzdar of Allahabad already lays Claim to large Deductions, grounded upon his having been unable to enforce his Collections in Aneel and Barrack, for want of the Aſſiſtance of the Battalion he applied for. He has further repreſented, that upwards of 9000 Ateets having entered Allahabad, to waſh at the Conflux of the Jumna and Ganges, whoſe uſual licentious Conduct (which from the ſame Circumſtances he is unable to repreſs) will probably occaſion further Impediments in his Payments

I have the Honour to incloſe the Three following Receipts:

One from the Infantry Paymaſter at Futty Ghur, for — — —	R[s]	95,000
One from Cavalry D[o] — — —		55,000
One from Paymaſter 2d Brigade — —		2,00,050

The undermentioned Sums have alſo been paid, for which the Receipts have not yet been returned:

To the Infantry Paymaſter at Futty Ghur — —	R[s]	3,30,000
To Major Camac — — —		1,00,000
To Mr. Wombwell — — —		1,00,000
To Cavalry Paymaſter — — —		1,50,000
To the Paymaſter 2d Brigade — —		1,00,000
Making	R[s]	7,80,000

For which I ſhall forward the Receipts as ſoon as they may come to hand.

I have, &c. &c.

Nath. Middleton,
Coll. Viz[r] Aſſ[ts] to the Hon. Company.

It is to be obſerved, that the Two Firſt Bills, amounting to 1,50,000, are Receipts for Money paid by Mr. Purling, for which the Receipts arrived after his Departure.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I have herewith the Honour to lay before you an Account of Kiſtbundee of ſuch Part of his Excellency the Vizier's Aſſignments to the Honourable Company for the Fuſſely Year 1188; for which I have hitherto obtained Bonds. Although theſe Bonds are yet wanting to complete the Statement, I have thought it expedient to tranſmit it in its preſent State, that your Honourable Board might be acquainted with the Progreſs I have made.

My Account Collections for the elapſed Month of Aughun ſhall be ſubmitted to you Tomorrow.

Lucknow,

Ordered, That the Receipts incloſed in Mr. Middleton's Letter of the 24th Dec. be ſent to the Accountant General.

Ordered, That the Papers ſaid to be incloſed in Mr. Middleton's Letters, and not above recorded, be entered after the Conſultation.

Agreed, That the following Letter be written to Mr. Middleton.

Sir,

We have received the Letters which you have written to us, under Date the 27th Nov. 3d, 16th, 24th, and 31ſt Ult.

27th Nov.——With reſpect to the Depoſit of R^s 31,600 received into the Treaſury, as a Payment made by the Farmers of Gopee Mow, we direct that you credit the Vizier for the Amount, placing the ſame in your Treaſury Account under its proper Head.

3d and 24th Dec.——You have been informed by our Secretary of the Orders which have been ſent to Colonel Morgan, to withdraw all the Detachments and Guards that had been ſeparated from the Corps at Cawnpore and Futty Ghur, and not to permit any to be ſent from them hereafter, but to preſerve entire the Forces appointed for the capital Stations of the Army beyond the Provinces, and ready to be employed on any Service required of them; and to theſe Orders we have ſince thought it neceſſary to add, that the Troops at Cawnpore and Futty Ghur ſhould hold themſelves in Readineſs to take the Field immediately. Having given you this Information, we have only to acquaint you further, that we cannot, in conformity with theſe Reſolutions, ſend to Colonel Morgan the Orders which you deſire for detaching any Force to the Aſſiſtance of the Phouzdar of Allahabad; and at the ſame Time that we think it proper to direct that you allow no Remiſſions or Deductions whatſoever to this Farmer, we cannot but pay the leſs Regard to the Repreſentations which he makes; remembering, that at the Time when Force was ſtationed in the Diſtricts of Arriel and Barrah, under his Phouſdary, to aſſiſt the Collection of the Revenue; ſo far from deſiring the Continuance of its Aid, his Complaint effected the Recall of it, and it does not appear that his Country is in a more unſettled State now than it was at that Time.

16th and 24th Dec.——Allowing the Weight due to the Reaſons which you have ſtated for not extending the Demand of Aſſignments from his Excellency the Vizier for the current Year, beyond thoſe which you have already received; we approve of the Limitation to which you have fixed it, and of what you have done, adding only our Hopes to your own, that there will be no Failure in the Realization of any Part of the Aſſignments.

Copy of an Arzie from Mr. Middleton to the Nabob Vizier, dated the 8th Zeherdja.

The Papers of Accounts belonging to the Sircar of the Company which Mr. Purling has given me, I encloſe for your Highneſs's Peruſal. I have Orders from the Council to receive the Company's Aſſignments conformably to thoſe Accounts; and as my Duty requires that I ſhould obey their Commands, I therefore requeſt of you to be pleaſed to pay into my Hands the whole Amount of the Company's Aſſignments agreeable to the encloſed Accounts. In caſe of a Failure in the Payments, the Council will claim from me the Amount of the Aſſignments, ſo that it is not in my Power to allow of any Delays: It is therefore incumbent on your Highneſs to diſcharge the whole Amount of the Aſſignments agreeable to the Directions of the Council. Every Year large Balances of the Company's Money remain with you; and they are obliged to pay from their own Treaſury the Troops ſtationed in your Country: It is therefore neceſſary this Year, that the whole Amount of the Company's Aſſignments be diſcharged.

Copy of a Letter from the Nabob Vizier to Mr. Middleton.

I have received your Letter encloſing me a Paper of Accounts of the Aſſignments and Tuncahs of the Army, &c. &c. requeſting that the whole Amount of them might be diſcharged in ready Money. This Letter gave me great Pleaſure, and made me acquainted with all Particulars. My ſole and conſtant Wiſhes and Deſires are, to maintain my Friendſhip with the Company, and to give Satisfaction to the Nabob, Governor, and the Gentlemen of the Council; and in this I never wilfully failed. The Particulars of the Diſtreſſes and Difficulties which for Four Years I have laboured under are well known to you; and yet, notwithſtanding all theſe Diſtreſſes, I remained ſtedfaſt in my Reſolution to pleaſe the Nabob, Governor, and Gentlemen of the Council, as my Friendſhip for the Company required; and entertained Hopes, that the Nabob and Gentlemen would, upon diſcovering my ruinous Situation, have extended their friendly Aid to me: But as yet this has not taken place. Laſt Year, from the Want of Rain, Deficiencies happened in the Country, and Mr. Purling took from me all the Reſources which I had for the Payment of my own Houſehold: But this I cheerfully ſubmitted to, and ſupported during the whole Year ſuch a Weight of Diſtreſſes, that my Brothers were obliged to go to Delhi to keep themſelves alive, and my Houſehold Servants nearly died of Want. This Year, beſides the Deficiencies from the Drought laſt Year, Additions have been included in the Aſſignments, and I, by ſtopping my unavoidable and neceſſary Expences, together with the Stipends of my Grandmother, of the late Nabob's Wife, and of my Brothers, added to the Aſſignments for the Tuncahs of the Army, &c. every Thing which I could; and am now unable to add any Thing more, as I have not the ſmalleſt Reſource left; if I had, I ſhould not make any Excuſes. I have therefore prepared Bonds for the Amount of the Money due, which I requeſt you will ſend to the Nabob, Governor, and to the Gentlemen of the Council, and which ſhall be diſcharged at a future Time. My Hopes are, that the Nabob, Governor, and Gentlemen of Council will take Compaſſion on me, that I may be reſcued from my Difficulties, and may not be diſtreſſed for my neceſſary Expences, and thoſe of my Brothers and Family. My Houſe and whole Country belong to the Company and Governor and Council.

Aſſiſtant Collector, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Nabob Vizier to Mr. Purling.

I have received your Letter, in which you inform me, that Letters to this Purport are come to you from the Governor and Council:—That the Pay of the Sepoys ſtationed with the Aumils of my Provinces, and the other Expences of the Mahals, are very conſiderable; but that all which the Aumils deduct from the Sircar for the Payment of thoſe Sepoys, and the Expences of collecting, is not really ſpent, and that every Thing ſo deducted on thoſe Accounts is their Profit: That if the Troops are neceſſary for the Management of the Country. You will furniſh them from the Company. You therefore requeſt, that as the Gentlemen of the Council have written ſolely from their Friendſhip, and for my Advantage, I ſhould accordingly comply with their Requeſt.

All theſe Particulars I underſtand, and am perfectly convinced of the firm Friendſhip and Affection of the Nabob, Governor, and the Gentlemen of Council; and that they have written to me from the Sincerity of their Love, and for my Advantage; but the Manners and Methods of the Adminiſtration of this Country are not fully known to the Nabob and Gentlemen. The Number of Horſe and Foot, and the Deductions to the Aumils in the Time of the late Nabob, and in the Two Firſt Years of my Government have been greatly diminiſhed; but when I found if any further Diminution was made in the Number of Horſe and Foot, the Management of the Country would be injured, I therefore ſettled the Tuncahs of the Sepoys for Eight and Six Months (whereas in the late Nabob's Time they received Twelve Months), that a ſufficient Number might remain for the Management of the Country, and that yet there might be a Saving: the Army having been long in my Service, and being attached to me, readily agreed, upon ſeeing my Difficulties, to receive Six and Eight Months, in hopes of future Advantage: Thus the neceſſary Number were kept up at a diminiſhed Expence; but if any were deducted, Loſſes and Injuries would ariſe in the Collection of the Money. The Troops which are ſtationed out are alſo in my Service, and the Deſcriptions of them are in the Paper of the Sircar; and Mutededdies for muſtering and paying them who were employed in the Time of the late Nabob, are now at different Places, and the Aumils pay them agreeable to the former Cuſtom. What Power have the Aumils to deviate from it? There is not the ſmalleſt Reaſon to ſuſpect them. As for the Company's Army, you yourſelf well know that they are ſtationed at the Places where their Preſence is requiſite, and from whence they cannot be ſuffered to go and ſettle the Affairs of the Country. The Aumils, in caſe of any Diſpute with the Zemindars, who poſſeſs ſtrong Forts, requeſt from me Support and Aſſiſtance, and I, at the Times when it is requiſite for their Aid, or for the Reduction and Puniſhment of Rebels, apply for One or Two Battalions from Futtyghur. It is abſolutely neceſſary, and it is likewiſe the eſtabliſhed Cuſtom of this Country, that beſides the Troops ſtationed, further Aſſiſtance ſhould be ſent from the Sircar and the Preſence; becauſe, as the Troops ſtationed diſperſe and divide for the Purpoſe of collecting, if on a Diſpute or Attack Succours were not ſent by the Sircar, the whole Management of the Mahals would be loſt. Accordingly in many Places during theſe Two Years, for want of Attention and Aſſiſtance from the Preſence, the Aumils have been killed. If it had been poſſible to tranſact the Buſineſs of the Country with a ſmaller Force, I ſhould certainly have done it; but the preſent Number cannot be diminiſhed, becauſe it is conſiderably leſs than the Force kept up by the late Nabob, and is merely what is abſolutely indiſpenſable. Should this be decreaſed, the Aumils will not be able to keep themſelves out of the Hands of the Zemindars, nor will any Collections be received; and the Deductions for the Expences are not now the Fourth Part of what they were, and what now remains is abſolutely neceſſary. As the Payment of the Company's Troops is ſo indiſpenſable a Duty of mine, that I am at any Rate to ſubmit to any Diſtreſs for the Purpoſe of diſcharging it; had it been poſſible for me to pay that off by diminiſhing thoſe Expences, I ſhould certainly have done it; without the preſent Number of People and the preſent Expences, no Money can be collected nor any Thing done. Do you conſider well, and reflect maturely, that you are to receive a conſiderable Sum on account of the Company, and that without the preſent Force and neceſſary Expences the Country cannot be managed, nor will any Money be received from the Aumils. By the Bleſſing of God you are wiſe, and comprehend all Matters, ſo that any Thing further on this Subject is unneceſſary.

 Injuries

To Charles Purling Eſquire, Reſident, &c.

Sir,

I have been favoured with your Letter of the 9th Inſtant, incloſing a Purwannah from his Excellency the Vizier, requiring a Battalion of Sepoys to be ſent to Allahabad, to ſubdue to Obedience the refractory * under the Aumil there, and to compel them to the Payment of his Demands. Permit me to let you know, that I am conſtrained from a Compliance with his Requiſition, by an Order of the Board that is in force, and forbids Detachments of ſuch Strength being ſent from the Brigade; and the Commander in Chief, when he viſited the Station, gave me to underſtand, that the Brigade was ſtationed here with the Intent of ſecuring his Excellency's Dominions from being invaded or diſturbed by foreign Powers; and Battalions were not to be detached to aſſiſt the Aumils in collecting the Revenues; and I ſhould ſuppoſe his Excellency always had on Foot a Force of his own ſufficient to enforce the Payment of his Revenues.

*Sic in Orig.

I have here now only Five Battalions: My Force having lately been diminiſhed by a Battalion being ſent to Benares, and the unpromiſing Aſpect that our own Affairs wear at this Juncture, would induce me not only to † on not weakening it farther, but make me deſirous of adding to it; therefore, I beg leave to requeſt the Favour of you to let me know, when I may order Captain Crabb's Battalion to join my Brigade.

†Sic in Orig.

The Commander in Chief alſo aſſured me, that Captains Lucas and Crabb's Battalions were not to remain long detached; thoſe Battalions being ſent to aſſiſt in the Collections, muſt be conſidered as Indulgencies granted by the General, who had the Power of removing and detaching Troops as he thought proper; but I am not inveſted with that Power, excepting on ſuch Emergencies as may demand it, for the Security of the Nabob's Dominions againſt his public Enemies.

I have the Honour to be,
Sir,
Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

P. S. I ſhall do myſelf the Honour of writing an Account of this to the Honourable the Governor General, with his Excellency's Requiſition, and a Copy of this Letter to you in Reply to it.

To

To Nathaniel Middleton Esquire, Collector of the Vizier's Assignments to the Company.

Sir,

I have been favoured with your Letter of the 2d Instant, covering one from his Excellency the Vizier, reiterating a Requisition, that a Battalion of Sepoys might be sent from this Station to Allahabad, &c.

I enclose you a Copy of my Answer to the late Resident's similar Application, by which you will perceive that I have not the Power of complying with this Requisition.

I wrote the Honourable the Governor General a Letter immediately, requesting his Instructions on that Head, the Answer to which I expect will arrive in Four or Five Days. I will acquaint you with them when they arrive, and should the Authority be delegated to me, shall immediately comply with his Excellency's Requisition. But when One Battalion is detached from this Station, now *, there will scarcely remain a sufficient Number of Sepoys to perform the Camp Duties; therefore, I must request the Favour of you to let me know when I may send for that Battalion at Kerybad, from the Command of which Major Crabb being now removed, those Reasons that acted most forcibly for the Detention of it there, will cease to exist, as I understood the Battalion was sent there with an Intent of serving him more than promoting any public Service.

* Sic in Orig.

I have the Honour to be,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

Ja^s. Morgan,

Colonel, commanding in the Field.

Camp, near Cawnpoor,
December 4, 1780.

To Colonel James Morgan, commanding in the Field.

Sir,

I have been honoured with the Receipt of your Letter of the 4th Instant, and cannot but express my Concern, as well on account of the Loss and Inconvenience which must ensue to the Vizier's Government, as the consequent Failure I have to dread in my Collections, that you should have found it necessary to decline Compliance with the Nabob's Requisition enclosed in my Address of the 2d Instant. Your not having been furnished with Authority to comply with such Requisitions, I am inclined to believe must be owing to some official Neglect or Omission at the Presidency, as I am well assured it was the Intention of the Honourable the Governor General and Council, that I should be furnished with every Aid from the Company's Troops stationed in the Dominions of the Vizier, that I might consider absolutely necessary for the Protection and Security of his Excellency's Assignments to the Company; and to evince to you the Grounds on which I ventured to concur in the Nabob's Requisition, I do myself the Pleasure to enclose you an Extract of the Honourable Board's Instructions to me upon investing me with my present Office.—My Opinion of the Expediency, and even the indispensable Necessity, of the Aid which the Nabob has solicited for the Phousdar of Allahabad, remains unaltered; and so well am I convinced of the Impossibility of realizing the heavy Assignment he has given me on Behalf of the Honourable Company on that Province in the present State of its Affairs, that I shall be under the Necessity of returning the Assignment, unless I can hope to obtain from you the Assistance required. I therefore shall be happy if you should consider the enclosed Extract as sufficient Authority to warrant your Compliance with the Vizier's Request.

I beg you to be assured, Sir, that it shall ever be my Endeavour to prevent the Honourable Company's Troops serving in Detachments from being detained from their Stations longer than may appear indispensably necessary, because I am aware that the Honourable Board wish as much as possible to avoid having their Troops ordinarily employed in the Service of the Vizier's Collections; but when I assure you that the Security of the Revenue of Two very considerable Districts depend * upon the 13th Battalion, I persuade myself you will not hesitate to continue it for some Time longer under the Vizier's immediate Direction, and that I shall stand justified to my Superiors in requesting it. I am unacquainted with any private Considerations which may have operated in the original Application for the Service of the Battalion.—Those who made it must be the best Judges of the Motives of their Conduct; it is sufficient for me to declare, that I am influenced by no other Considerations or Views whatever than a due Regard to the Welfare of the Vizier's Government and the punctual Discharge of the important Trust reposed in me.

Extract of a Letter from the Honourable the Governor and Council to Mr. Nathaniel Middleton, Collector of the Vizier's Assignments to the Honourable Company, dated 18th October 1780.

" The more effectually to enable you to secure the Collections amidst those Tumults and " Disorders which too frequently disturb the Vizier's Government, especially in the remote " Provinces, you will apply to his Excellency, whenever you may find it necessary, for the Assist" ance of such Troops under British Officers, as well as others maintained by him for the " Service of the Collections; and when these should, in your Judgment, prove inadequate to " the Service required, which we understand hath frequently been the Case, we authorize you
" to apply, in conjunction with the Vizier, to the Commanding Officer at the nearest Station of " our

" our Troops, who ſhall be inſtructed to furniſh you with ſuch Reinforcement as you may re" quire, and he may with a due Regard to the Safety of his Station be able to afford you."

To Nathaniel Middleton Eſq. Collector of the Vizier's Aſſignments to the Company.

Sir,

I have received the Honour of your Letter of the 6th Inſtant, with an Extract from the Honourable Governor General and Council's Letter to you.

Be aſſured, Sir, that I hold the true Intereſt of the Company warmly at heart; and that I am deſirous of promoting and preſerving Obedience and good Order to the Governments of his Excellency's (their Ally) Country, as well as of preventing Tumults and Diſorders in it. But I muſt beg leave to remark in the Extract, the Security of this Station's Safety is the premier Conſideration to be held in Regard, and that therein is pointed out the Neceſſity of my being furniſhed with Inſtructions relative to detaching Troops on the Vizier's Requiſition.

That I make the Safety of the Station the leading Object of my Care, is manifeſted from my Endeavours to keep together a Force formidable enough to awe the envious and watchful Powers that ſurround us from Attempts on his Excellency's Dominions, from my Solicitude to preſerve good Diſcipline among the Troops, which I muſt here obſerve to you, is unavoidably ruined by their being detached on the collecting Buſineſs, as I with much Concern obſerved in Two very recent Inſtances. I clearly apprehend how needful a Compliance with the joint Requiſition of that Nature is; yet being at the ſame Time convinced that I am not ſufficiently warranted to detach a Battalion in Breach of the Orders of the Board, I, on the Receipt of Mr. Purling's firſt Application, immediately addreſſed the Honourable the Governor General with a Requeſt, that his Inſtructions on that Head might be tranſmitted to me without Delay; as in my preſent Situation I did not conſider myſelf inveſted with Authority enough to make ſuch Compliance, I expect to be honoured with their Inſtructions on the 10th or 12th at fartheſt.

I ſhould be ſorry you were reduced to the Neceſſity of returning the Aſſignments, yet I cannot imagine that the Evil is in want of an adequate Remedy. But ſhould I by my Conduct hazard the Safety of this Country, and bring the Company's Affairs into Perplexity, I can't hope that my Juſtification would be found in the Urgency of your Requiſitions; therefore I muſt at preſent conſider that my own Security is cloſely involved alſo in every Meaſure that I take. Now the
* Sic in Orig. Defence and Safety of theſe Countries (of courſe the Company and * Intereſts) are lodged in my Hands; and though I cannot venture to predict, yet I am obliged to apprehend, that ſome bad † Sic in Orig. Conſequence may † derive from my allowing the ſmall Body of theſe I have with me now to be divided and detached in ſuch a Manner, that a Junction of the Parties could not be effected upon a very ſhort Notice, which would be a Thing impoſſible to be done by Troops from Bhara and Areyl, and from the other Side of the Dewar.

Your receiving daily Intelligence from every Quarter, makes it unneceſſary for me to let you know what I learn. But it is requiſite for me to employ my Vigilance, and to watch the Motions and Intrigues of the Mahrattas and Nujif Khaan. I learn that the Vakeel from Hyder Ally, now with Nujif, has communicated to him the Fall of Arcott, and I can't doubt that you will agree with me in the Opinion, that theſe diſtant Succeſſes againſt the Company may operate adverſarily in this Part of India. However, I wiſh you to be aſſured that I ſhall always be ready to lend you every Aſſiſtance in my Power, and ſhall have a Battalion ready to march immediately on my receiving the Honourable the Governor General's Directions. I don't ſuppoſe the Delay of a Day or Two will be the Occaſion of much Loſs in the Collections. Permit me to requeſt that you will place yourſelf in my Situation, and then review the Matter under Conſideration.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Fort William, the 12th May 1783.

At a Council; Preſent,
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident, Edward Wheler, John Macpherſon } Eſquires.

THE Governor General lays before the Board the following Letters from Mr. Briſtow to him, dated 12th December.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings, Eſquire, Governor General.

Honourable Sir,

Your Inſtructions of the 23d October have been the invariable Rule of my Conduct; and now I have held my Office a ſufficient Time to ſpeak with ſome Degree of Certainty to moſt Points, I ſhall enter upon an Explanation of the State of this Government.

Your Obſervation, that your new Meaſures will require a long Time to execute, is but too true. The total Want of Syſtem, and lawleſs Habits which prevail, muſt be corrected by progreſſive Means; the Peace and Security of the Country, and Regularity in the ſeveral Departments of the State, will be gradually eſtabliſhed. I beg leave to anſwer the ſeveral Heads of your Inſtructions in the ſame Order in which you have placed them.

First Head. Balance and Aſſignment.

Immediately after my Arrival I urged the acting Miniſter to deviſe and recommend Arrangements for the complete Diſcharge of the Balance at the Concluſion of the Year. To relieve myſelf from Cenſure in caſe of Failure in this eſſential Point, it is neceſſary I ſhould explain the Tranſaction with the Bankers. The Balance at the End of laſt Year was not in fact paid, but transferred to the Bankers, and encreaſed by the Load of a very high Intereſt. There were Two diſtinct Engagements;

One for Bills immediately granted on the Preſidency for			26,50,000
Another for Teeps promiſing Bills, to be delivered by Inſtallments at the following Periods, and in the following Propons, viz.
Bhaudun	1189	6,50,000
Cooaur	1190	6,50,000
Cautick	Do	6,50,000
Aughun	Do	6,50,000
			26,00,000
By this Statement you will obſerve the Revenues of the preſent Year have been anticipated in the Sum of			52,50,000 bearing an Intereſt of Two per Cent. per Menſem. I encloſe an Eſtimate (N° 1) of the whole Demand upon the Vizier, on Account of the Honourable Company and the Bankers, by which it appears his Excellency has to furniſh this Year the Sum of One Crore Forty-one Lacks Two thouſand Five hundred and Seventy-eight Rupees (Rupees 1,41,02,578). Mr. Middleton gave his Bond to the Bankers, on Account of the Firſt Engagement, Rupees 26,50,000, for Bills on the Preſidency, engaging to ſee them repaid their Money. The Revenues of certain Diſtricts were aſſigned to him on Account of the Bankers, and were, as collected, to be paid to them.

When Almaſs Ally Cawn returned to Lucknow, a Negociation was ſet on Foot to transfer the Security from Mr. Middleton to him, and concluded a few Days before my Arrival. The Bond was returned to Mr. Middleton, and Almaſs's granted in lieu of it. The additional Diſtricts propoſed to have been entruſted to Almaſs, were Part of thoſe aſſigned to the Bankers; and the Vizier's Orders, and other Documents, had paſſed for putting him in Poſſeſſion, a few Days before my Arrival; I was ſoon expected, and Almaſs of his own Accord deferred taking charge, as I have already informed you and the Board, until the Meaſure ſhould, through me, receive your Sanction.

When I conſidered the Power poſſeſſed by Almaſs, and your Inſtructions to reduce it, if poſſible, I did not heſitate to reject every Idea of extending his Authority; a Difficulty occurred about the Bond he had granted, and a Payment he had made to the Bankers, of Three Lacks Seventy five thouſand Rupees (R' 3,75,000). The latter Point was eaſily ſettled, by giving him Credit for that Sum, on Account of the Revenues of Etwa, Cora, &c.; but the Bankers refuſed any any Security except mine, in lieu of the Bond. The Bills of Exchange had actually been transmitted to the Board, and were in Courſe of Payment; to have annulled the Engagement would have diſappointed you of a Reſource, and hurt our Credit with the Bankers; it was abſolutely neceſſary that Almaſs's Bond ſhould be returned to him: I was therefore induced to take the Engagement upon myſelf, and I am happy to find, by the Board's Letter of the 22d Ultimo, that my Conduct has been approved.

Although my Attention has been principally directed to the Liquidation of the Balance, I have hitherto found it utterly impoſſible to procure Aſſignments equal to the Amount required. Diſtricts have been over-rated to me; and before I can conclude a fair Engagement with any Aumil, I am obliged, in every Inſtance, to ſeparate fictitious from juſt Eſtimates, which takes up Time, and is the Cauſe of my not ſending the Accounts.

I have been endeavouring to prevail upon the Vizier to fix his Diſburſements within his Income: If I can accompliſh this Point, I ſhall be careful that the Eſtabliſhments ſhall not be hereafter encroached upon; the Particulars will of courſe be tranſmitted to you.

I have repeatedly informed the Miniſter, no Excuſes will be admitted in the Exculpation of a Balance at the Concluſion of the Year; that the whole muſt be paid, and the Means reſt with him.

Second Head. Account Current with the Nabob.

You will obſerve, by the Eſtimate of the Demands upon the Vizier, Fourteen Lacks were mentioned by Mr. Middleton as the Balance. The acting Miniſter expected he could prove Claims nearly to this Amount, due from the Company to the Vizier, which would liquidate the Account. I have explained this Matter fully to him, and believe he is now convinced of the Juſtneſs of the corrected Account. An Examination, however, into the diſputed Points ſhould, in my Opinion, take place, and any trifling Difference that may be eſtabliſhed allowed to the Vizier. This I ſubmit to your Conſideration: In the mean Time I ſhall perſiſt in my Endeavours to realize the whole Amount.

Third Head. State of the Vizier's Dominions.

Deſpotiſm is the Principle upon which every Meaſure is founded, and the People in the interior Parts of the Country are ruled at the Diſcretion of the Aumil or Phouſdar for the Time being. They exerciſe, within the Limits of their Juriſdiction, the Powers of Life and Death, and Deciſions in Civil and other Caſes, in the ſame Extent as the Sovereign at the Capital. The Forms preſcribed by the ancient Inſtitutions of the Mogul Empire are unattended to, and the Will of the Provincial Magiſtrate is the ſole Law of the People. The total Relaxation of the Vizier's Authority, his Inattention and Diſlike to Buſineſs, leave the Aumils in Poſſeſſion of this dangerous Power, unawed, uncontrouled by any Apprehenſion of Retroſpection, or the Interference of Juſtice. I can hardly quote an Inſtance, ſince the Vizier's Acceſſion to the Muſnud, of an Aumil having been puniſhed for Oppreſſion, though the Complaints of the People and the State of the Country are notorious Proofs of the Violences daily committed—it is even become unſafe for Travellers to paſs, except in large Bodies.—Murders, Thefts, and other Enormities ſhocking to Humanity, are committed in open Day.

Every Zemindar ſhould be conſtituted the Magiſtrate in his Zemindarry, and collect the Revenues according to certain eſtabliſhed Rates recorded in the Cutcherry, and publiſhed throughout the Diſtrict. The Aumil ſhould be the controlling Power between the Ryot and the Zemindar; ſhould enforce the Regulations; ſee Peace and good Order preſerved in the ſeveral Zemindarries; and make the Zemindars accountable for all Tumults, Thefts, and Murders, within their Juriſdiction—in great Towns there ought to be a Cutwall, or Haakeem, to diſtribute Juſtice.

Such has been the Syſtem of this Government, that the Oppreſſions have generally originated with the Aumils. They have been rarely ſelected for their Abilities or Integrity, but from Favour, or the Means to advance a ſmall Sum upon being appointed to their Office. The Aumil enters upon his Truſt, ruined in Reputation and Fortune; and unleſs he accompliſhes his Engagements, which is ſeldom the Caſe, Diſgrace and Puniſhment follow. Though the Balance of Revenue may be rigorouſly demanded of him, it has not been uſual to inſtitute any Inquiry for Oppreſſion. The Zemindars, thus left at the Mercy of the Aumils, are often driven to Rebellion. The weak are obliged to ſubmit to his Exactions, or fly the Country; and the Aumil, unable to reduce the more powerful, is compelled to enter into a diſgraceful Compromiſe. Every Zemindar looks to his Fort for Protection, and the Country is crowded with them. Almaſs Ally Cawn aſſerts, there are not leſs than Seven hundred in his Diſtricts; hence it has become a general Cuſtom to ſeize the Brother, Son, or ſome near Relation or Dependant of the different Zemindars, as Hoſtages for the Security of the Revenue. A great Aumil will ſometimes have Three or Four hundred of theſe Hoſtages, whom he is obliged to confine in Places of Security.

A few Men, like Almaſs Ally Cawn and Coja ain ul Deen, have, from their Regularity in the Performance of pecuniary Engagements, rendered themſelves uſeful to the Vizier. A ſtrict Scrutiny into his Affairs was at all Times irkſome to his Excellency; and none of the Miniſters or Officers about his Perſon poſſeſſing the active perſevering Spirit requiſite to conduct the Detail of Engagements for a Number of ſmall Farms, it became convenient to receive a large Sum from a great Farmer, without Trouble or Deficiency. This Syſtem was followed by the moſt pernicious Conſequences; theſe Men were above all Controul; they exacted their own Terms, and the Diſtricts they farmed were moſt cruelly oppreſſed. The Revenue of Rohilcund is reduced above a Third, and Almaſs Ally Cawn's Adminiſtration is well known to have been extremely violent.

The foregoing Repreſentation of the State of this Government will, I hope, ſatisfy you of the Difficulty in collecting the Revenues. A very ſtrong Military Force will be required to preſerve the Country in Peace. The Number for which Funds are at preſent allotted would, in my Opinion, amply ſuffice, if it exiſted; but I ſuppoſe not Two Thirds of the Men kept upon the Books are actually entertained. The Diſcipline and proper Application of this Force will become a Matter of ſerious Conſideration: I do not mean to propoſe, they ſhould be put under the Command of Britiſh Officers, as a very extraordinary Expence would attend that Meaſure; and I do not think the Service of the Collections would be ſo well executed. The Troops now in the Vizier's Service are ill paid and ill appointed, not owing to the Want of Means; as I think, when I ſhall forward you the Statements I have been ſo long endeavouring to complete, you will judge them adequate to every Service, if not diſſipated and ſquandered away. The Evil originates in the Want of Checks upon the Diſburſements to the Army, of proper Officers and Commiſſaries to ſee them duly appropriated.

The ſame Inconveniencies exiſt in the Receipts of the Vizier's Revenue, and other Branches of his Government in the General Department. Offices of Collections and Treaſury, and Courts for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, ought doubtleſs to be eſtabliſhed. In a Duty of ſo delicate a Nature, as the Execution of your Commands on this Head, I muſt neceſſarily expoſe myſelf to the Oppoſition of Perſons intereſted in the Continuance of the Abuſe.]

Second, Military Defence, and Diſtribution of the Nabob's Force.

Third, Revenue.

I have in the foregoing Repreſentation in Part anſwered theſe Heads. I beg leave to defer what remains to be ſaid on them till I forward you the Statements.

Fourth, Zemindars, and Means taken to reſtore Peace.

The Collection of the Revenues under the Controul of the Aumils is entirely in the Hands of the Zemindars, the Lands throughout the Country being granted in Talooks and Zemindarries.

The Means taken to reſtore Peace are explained in my Letter to the Board of the 1ſt Inſtant. The Detachments from the Honourable Company's Troops I conſider only a temporary Expedient. I propoſe recommending, that a ſeparate Plan for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice in all Matters of Revenue ſhould be formed, and carried into Execution. You may perhaps make this Branch Part of the Duties of the Office of Collections, and the Decan will act in it, and appoint Deputies in each Aumildarry.

Peace is by no means reſtored, for if the Company's Troops were relieved from the Places at which they are now ſtationed, I ſhould expect the Commotions would be renewed. Gorrockpore, Bairaitch, Sultanpore, Aſemgur, Gonda, and all the Frontier, are Provinces in which the Vizier's Authority is ill eſtabliſhed. In ſome of them there are Troubles at this Time. New Detachments of the Honourable Company's Troops might be adviſeable, if the State of Affairs in other Reſpects did not render the Appearance of a formidable Force on the Frontiers neceſſary, as well to awe Foreign Powers, as to keep Almaſs Ally Cawn, and Khoja Ayn ul Deen, within the Line of their Duty.

Fifth, Character and Credit of the principal Aumils.

When I forward the Statements of the Revenue, I will take the Names of the Aumils in Order, and anſwer you upon this Head.

Sixth, Whether the Sums lately levied have been drawn from the Country, or borrowed, and Aſſignments given for the Repayment on the Revenues of the laſt, or by Anticipation of the current Year.

Fourth Head. Hyder Beg Cawn.

Seventh, By what Means were thoſe Collections made?

By Anticipation, as I have already explained under the Head of Balance and Aſſignment.

I have communicated your Commands to Hyder Beg Cawn. He urges, in Excuſe for the Letters which have been written in a Tone of Reproach and Reſentment, that they were forwarded unknown to him, that the Vizier has People about him who are happy at an Opportunity of giving Trouble, and wiſh to overſet the Influence of the Engliſh in this Government. He profeſſes a juſt Senſe of the Confidence you have placed in him, of his intire Dependence upon you, and that without your Protection he ſhould loſe his Office, his Property, and poſſibly his Life. He aſſured me of his utmoſt Endeavours to prevent a Repetition of Letters in a ſimilar Style, and that he is ready to give Proofs of the Sincerity of his Attachment to the Company.

I uſed the Diſcretion you allowed me of not delivering your Letter to Hyder Beg Cawn. I found upon my Arrival, as you informed me, all the Influence of this Government veſted in his Hands. I was under the Neceſſity of having Recourſe to him for Information and Accounts; and it appeared unadviſeable to raiſe Doubts in his Mind of my good Intentions, or to expreſs an Inclination to inſtitute a Retroſpection into his Conduct: I previouſly wiſhed to obtain his Confidence,

Confidence, to convince him that I acted upon public Grounds, and if poſſible, perſuade him to unite heartily with me in every Meaſure. I could then deliver the Letter, informing him of the View with which I had acted, and not be liable to any Suſpicion of having ſolicited it. In the mean Time I endeavoured to acquire a Knowledge of the Buſineſs, that I might be enabled to report to you my Opinion of his Attachment to your Government, and of his Zeal, Ability, and Integrity in the Diſcharge of his Duty. I deferred preſenting him the Letter until the 30th Ultimo, and have left him to anſwer it without giving any Advice.

He rendered me his Aſſiſtance very heartily and willingly in Almaſs's Buſineſs. A Jealouſy had long ſubſiſted between Hyder Beg Cawn and Almaſs; the latter having been conſidered a Pretender to the Neabut, it was ſuppoſed Hyder Beg intended to ruin him; his Conduct in withdrawing is imputed by many who think favourably of him, to Neceſſity, otherwiſe his Fortune might have been endangered. A Reconciliation took place between them, and they publicly continue upon the beſt Terms, but I believe neither to be ſincere. If I had expreſſed any Diſſatisfaction againſt Hyder Beg, he and Almaſs would probably have formed a Combination, and I ſhould have had new Difficulties to contend with.

The Accounts I have called for have many of them been furniſhed, and Hyder Beg has given me his Information and Opinion of every Matter upon which I have aſked them: I cannot help however complaining of the Delays in tranſacting the moſt common Buſineſs; this proceeds from no proper Channels through intermediate Offices being eſtabliſhed; all Accounts are framed by Hyder Beg; he plans and executes every Meaſure; he propoſes, and in ſhort undertakes, Matters which ſhould be truſted to ſubordinate Agents, and executed off hand. Any undue Influence he may be thought to poſſeſs will be done away by the Degree of Conſequence and Support you may think proper to give to the new Officers.

I have hitherto left Hyder Beg Cawn in the Poſſeſſion of his Power, as being the acting Miniſter, and entruſted with the executive Authority ſo long as he might diſcharge his Duty: I thought I conformed to your Commands in ſupporting him. I have not failed repeatedly to expoſtulate with him upon the Conſequences of Procraſtination in the Execution of the Buſineſs. In the Event of further Delays, I ſhall continue my Expoſtulations, and by exerting the Powers with which you have inveſted me, avoid expoſing myſelf to your Cenſure for an Appearance of Neglect, which does not originate with me. I beg leave to remark, by being the Inſtrument of eſtabliſhing Officers which are to ſerve as a Controul over Hyder Beg's hitherto unparticipated and intire Adminiſtration, I ſhall unavoidably expoſe myſelf to his Jealouſy and Reſentment.

Fifth Head. Offices.

I beg leave to ſubmit to your Conſideration the following Perſons to be nominated to the Office you have thought proper to direct ſhould be immediately eſtabliſhed, viz.

The Collections - - -	Rajah Soorut Sing, who was Dewan to the late Vizier.
The Treaſury - - -	Rajah Tipper Chund, who likewiſe held an Office ſimilar to this in the late Vizier's Time.

Mr. Middleton informed the Board, under Date the 17th of September 1782, of his having named Tuſſia Haveeſes, or Commiſſaries for muſtering the Troops. I purpoſe enforcing this Meaſure, as I find the Abuſes in the Vizier's Army prevail to an unaccountable Degree; many Corps are more than a Year in Arrears, and no Part of it intirely paid up, notwithſtanding the large Sums annually charged on this Account under the Head of Mootayenna. I have already informed you of my Hopes of attaching the Cavalry, by being inſtrumental in procuring their Pay.

The Inſtitution of Adauluts will be attended with the utmoſt Difficulty: The Reaſons you have yourſelf aſſigned are ſo forcible, that I have only to trouble you with a few Hints in corroboration of your own Opinions.

The Nabob, the Miniſters, and every Man of Rank at his Court, will be intereſted in oppoſing the Inſtitution of Courts of Juſtice. The Nabob is ſurrounded by Perſons who, preſuming upon the Countenance they receive from him, commit every Kind of Oppreſſion: They are generally Men of low Birth, ſuddenly raiſed to Power and Conſequence, which they are ignorant how to uſe. The Miniſters have more creditable Dependants, but they preſume, in an equal Degree, on their Influence. The Reſumption of Jagheers, and Reduction of Salaries, have unavoidably involved Numbers of People in Debts, which has led to the Commiſſion of Acts of Violence.

To inſtitute Courts of Juſtice upon a reſpectable Footing, they ſhould extend to Men of all Deſcriptions: The Favourites and Dependants of the Nabob and Miniſters, long accuſtomed to live independent of all Controul, will not eaſily be brought to ſubmit to a regular Juriſdiction. I would, however, propoſe that Molavee Mowbine, the Man recommended by Mr. Middleton, ſhould continue, with the Name of Sudder ul Huck. When Regularity ſhall be introduced into other Branches of the Government, the Extenſion of the Powers of the Sudder ul Huck will form Part of the Plan.

Sixth Head. Aumils.

I am to ſpeak to the Characters of the Aumils in general, when I may forward the Statement. Pledges for the perſonal Appearance of Almaſs Ally Cawn, and Khauja Ain ul Deen, cannot be obtained. Theſe Two Men are in Charge of the Frontier Provinces of Cora, Etawah, and Rohilcund.

bellious Zemindars.

I have already explained my Sentiments and Conduct on this Head, both to yourself and the Board.

Upon every Occasion of Tumults that have occurred since my Arrival, I have recommended that the Vizier's Shokes be issued, publishing his Determination to apprehend and punish Offenders with the greatest Severity. But in the present State of the Vizier's Government, with an ill-paid Army, and Aumils doubtful of their Permanence in Office, it is an Impossibility to expect Commotions will immediately cease. For other Matters relative to rebellious Zemindars, I beg leave to refer you to my Answer to the Third Head of your Instruction upon the Government of the Vizier's Dominions.

The Battalion at Fyzabad is recalled; and my Letter to the Board of the 1st Instant has explained my Conduct to the Begum. The Letter I addressed her, a Translation of which I beg leave to enclose (N° 2) was with a View of convincing her that you readily assented to her being freed from the Restraints which had been imposed upon her, and that your Acquiescence in her Sufferings was a Measure of Necessity, to which you were forced by her extraordinary Conduct. I wished to make it appear this was a Matter on which you directed me to consult the Vizier's Pleasure, that it might be known you were the Spring from whence she was restored to her Dignity and Consequence.

urteenth Head.
e Nabob Vizier.

I have endeavoured to conciliate the Vizier, and never undertaken any Measure but under the Sanction of his Orders. Hyder Beg Cawn did, upon my first entering on the Business, mention his Excellency's Objections to the Mode of receiving the Company's Claims by Assignment on the Country; and sounded me, whether it would not be practicable to induce you to make an Alteration in the System: He even told me, the Vizier expressed his Disapprobation of the Detachment under the Command of Colonel Sir John Cumming. His Excellency had agreed to defray the Expence of Four Regiments previous to my Arrival, but he wished the Troops might not be stationed in his Dominions; of this Transaction you have received Information. The Nabob told me, at my Second Interview, that his Country was in Peace, and he did not require any further Military Aid from the Company: This Language corresponded with what I had Reason to expect, from your Explanations. I candidly told Hyder Beg Cawn that I considered it dictated by him; when I afterwards furnished him with the Estimate of Claims upon the Vizier, he assented to the Account, and assured me of his entire Conviction of the Necessity of the Detachment, and that the Vizier would approve its being stationed in his Dominions. Since this Conversation Hyder Beg Cawn has not pleaded any Objection by the Vizier as Obstacles to my Measures, but has obtained his Sanction on every Occasion that I have found it necessary inthe Execution of my Duty.

Hyder Beg Cawn confesses to me that Funds to the Amount of Forty-nine Lacks of Rupees were last Year appropriated to the Vizier's Expences. From this Sum he was to defray not only the Charge of his Household, but the Pensions of the Tuncawdars and Jagheerdars, whose Jagheers were resumed. The Nature of the Disbursements you will understand from the Statements.

I think the Sums charged could not have been applied to the Services for which they were allotted: The Persons intrusted with the great Offices about his Excellency's Person must have abused the Confidence reposed in them, as large Arrears are due to the Nabob's Servants;—to ascertain the Fact will require Time. I have recommended that the Plan you have thought proper to direct in regard to the Vizier's Expences be carried into Execution; and shall in due Time communicate the intended Arrangements for your Approbation. Notwithstanding the Language occasionally held by the Vizier, I have every Reason to believe he is sensible of the Advantages he derives from his Alliance with the Company, and of his Inability to support himself without it. You are so fully acquainted with his Character and Disposition, that I shall not presume to trouble you with any Particulars of his Conduct. I only hope, in compliance with your Directions, so long as I may have the Honour to hold my present Station, that I shall be able to obtain his Confidence, and prevent Expostulations which might interrupt the Confidence and Cordiality that ought to subsist between his Excellency and your Government.

I believe the principal Object of the Vizier's Expostulations was to prevent any Interference in the Government of his Dominions, and to remove his Apprehensions of the Company's placing him in the same Situation as the Nabob Mobareck ul Dowla. He one Day expressed himself to me on this Head in very strong Terms. I assured his Excellency nothing of the Kind was intended: I recommended it to him on no Account to credit Reports of this Nature, and intreated him to withhold his Confidence from Persons who might endeavour by such insidious Representations to alarm his Mind. He had always, I added, received strong Proofs of the Respect and Regard you personally entertained for him; and the Steadiness of his Conduct had tended to confirm and perpetuate the Friendship and Alliance subsisting between his Excellency and the Honourable Company. I beg leave, before I conclude this Head, to inform you, an Opinion had prevailed of there being Diviſions in the Councils of your Government. I hope I have done my Duty in repreſenting, both to the Vizier and the Miniſters, that the whole is a palpable Falſehood. It has been my Study to render as public as poſſible my Teſtimony of Unanimity in the Members of Adminiſtration, that the Shadow of a Hope of evading or protracting the Execution of your Meaſures may not exiſt.

Fifteenth Head. Nabob's Claims of the Reſumptions of the Aſſignments.

Agreeable to your Commands, I ſounded Hyder Beg Cawn, and am convinced it is ſtill his Wiſh to eſtabliſh the Nabob's Claim of the Reſumption of the Aſſignments. This Meaſure would, he conceives, unite upon a firmer Footing the Authority he has hitherto poſſeſſed, both on the Part of the Vizier and the Honourable Company. He grounds this Claim upon the Pretence of relieving the Company from the Embarraſſment attending the preſent Syſtem of Detail in the Management of the Buſineſs. I have been aſked by Hyder Beg Cawn, in the Name of the Nabob, if it would be poſſible to induce you to conſent to a Change: He informed me of the Particulars which had paſſed between Major Palmer and him on the Subject, and mentioned the Encouragement you had given to the Propoſition; inſinuating from thence, that you might not be averſe to it. I could only anſwer, that you were in every Reſpect diſpoſed to comply with the Vizier's Requiſitions. I could not ſpeak upon this Subject, having no Inſtructions to enter into the Conſideration of a Point of ſo much Importance, and therefore the preſent Syſtem muſt be continued. When I aſked his Opinion, his only Reply was, that he had expreſſed the Nabob's Pleaſure. I frankly told him, that I muſt conſider every Meaſure propoſed by the Nabob as originating with him. This produced the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of Attachment to you and the Company, and a Declaration that all Modes were the ſame to him, and that he would yield implicit Obedience to your Commands. This paſſed above a Month ago; and the Propoſition not having been repeated to me, I conclude it is dropped, and Hyder Beg Cawn will be cautious of renewing it.

Sixteenth Head.

Does not require an Anſwer.

Seventeenth Head. Diſcretionary Power.

The Confidence with which you have honoured me will ever make me cautious in the Uſe of this Power. The Tranſactions at Furruckabad, and the Continuance of the Detachments of the Honourable Company's Troops, are the only Inſtances in which I may be ſaid to have exerted it. With reſpect to Furruckabad, I was ſolicited by Muzuffer Jung to interfere between him and the Nabob, which I declined; and as I gave no Advice, I hope my continuing the Regiment, in compliance with the Vizier's urgent Requeſt, will not be interpreted into an Extenſion of your Orders. Muzuffer Jung's Solicitations are ſtill continued to me: I have anſwered, in general Terms, that if my Interference would tend to accommodate and conciliate Differences, I ſhould be happy to give it. My Letter to the Board of the 1ſt Inſtant, will explain the Motives of my Conduct, both in regard to this Matter, and the Meaſure of continuing the Detachments.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,
Honourable Sir,
Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

Honourable Sir,

In Addition to what I have urged in my Addreſs of this Date to the Board, I hope I ſhall meet with your Excuſe for repreſenting ſome further Circumſtances relative to the Begum.

I have experienced great Embarraſſment in treating with her, for, as the Mother of the Vizier, the People look up to her with Reſpect; and any harſh Meaſures practiſed againſt Women of her high Rank create Diſcontent, and affect our national Character. Her Conduct in withholding his Excellency's Patrimony, and during the Troubles at Benares, juſtly loſt her that Attention and Regard to which ſhe would have been otherwiſe entitled: Still ſhe is the Mother of the Prince of the Country; and the religious Prejudices of Muſſulmen prevail too ſtrongly in their Minds for them to forget her Situation. Superior Wiſdom will guide your Meaſures, and I ſhall willingly execute every Order I may receive; but I think it my Duty, and a Tribute I owe to the Confidence you have placed in me, freely and candidly to offer my Sentiments on ſuch Subjects, as, from a near View, may preſent Difficulties that would not occur to Perſons at a Diſtance.

I would recommend every perſuaſive Argument might be urged to the Begum to induce her to fulfil her Engagements. I would even endeavour to convince her, that it was intended to renew the Reſtraints upon her; but I really think it not adviſable to carry them into Execution.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect,
Honourable Sir,
Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

Tranſlation of Letter from Mr. Briſtow to the Begum.

I have had the Honour to receive your Letters.—Whereas the Proſperity and Welfare of the Vizier's Affairs are the earneſt Wiſh of the Governor General, I have, in obedience to my Inſtructions, repreſented to his Excellency, that I ſhould conform to his Pleaſure in whatever he might think proper to direct. I am happy to convey his Commands, that Major Gilpin ſhall, on the Arrival of Affrien Ally Cawn, march from Fyzabad, and immediately releaſe Bahar Ally Cawn and Soakur Ally Cawn. This Meaſure affords me the greater Pleaſure, as I am perſuaded, from the kind Expreſſions in your Letters, of the Regard you entertain for the Vizier, being dearer to you than Life, that you will in future conſult and cheriſh his Intereſts.

It is probable the Vizier would have continued the Reſtraints upon your Excellency, if the Governor General had not, out of Reſpect for the Ties which bind you, and from a natural Benevolence of Diſpoſition, given his Aſſent. The ſtrict Alliance ſubſiſting between the Governor General and the Vizier will ever render an Union of Councils and Meaſures the Line of Conduct of both Governments. And it is a moſt pleaſing Circumſtance to me, to convey the Governor General's Approbation of the Reſtoration of your Excellency to the Dignity and Conſequence to which your high Rank and Birth juſtly entitle you.

I beg leave to return my Thanks for the Senſe you expreſs of the becoming Conduct of Major Gilpin in the Execution of his Duty.

Permit me to remind your Excellency, that there is ſtill a Balance of above Five Lacs due, on Account of your Engagements; and as you promiſed, immediately on the Enlargement of your Eunuchs, to pay that Sum, I hope you will excuſe my Solicitations and Aſſurances, that by a Compliance you will render a Service both to the Vizier and the Company, whoſe Affairs at preſent require the Aſſiſtance of every pecuniary Aid.

APPENDIX, N° LIX.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 21ſt April 1783.

Fort William, the 21ſt April 1783.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, Preſident,
Edward Wheler,
John Macpherſon, } Eſquires.
John Stables,
Sir Eyre Coote gone to Fort St. George.

Inſtructions from the Governor General to Mr. John Briſtow.

THE Governor General deſires that his Inſtructions given to Mr. Briſtow, which were read to the Members of the Board, and minuted in Conſultation on the 24th October laſt, may be now entered.

To Mr. John Briſtow.

Sir,

Conformably to the Reference of the Board, I recommend and enjoin your ſtricteſt Attention to the following Inſtructions:

Balance and Aſſignment.

1ſt. The Balance due from the Nabob Vizier to the Company, partly from the Negligence and Inaccuracy with which the monthly Accounts were drawn out, and partly from the Inattention of the late Reſident, had been ſuffered to accumulate to an Amount exceeding that at which it ſtood at the Cloſe of the laſt Year, notwithſtanding the ſpecial Care which I myſelf had taken in my Agreement with the Nabob Vizier, concluded on the 19th of September 1781, at Chunar, and my Inſtructions delivered at the ſame Time to the Reſident, ſince enforced with very peremptory and repeated Orders. This obliged me lately to write, in very ſtrong and unuſual Terms, both to the Reſident and to the Miniſter, and produced the Effect of an immediate Exertion and conſequent Diſcharge of a Part of the Balance, and Aſſurances of the ſpeedy Payment of the Remainder.

I do

I do not implicitly rely on these Assurances, but conclude, that on your Arrival you will find either a large Balance still out-standing of the last Year's Account, or that the whole has been paid off by Encroachment on the current Year's Revenue. In either Case, your Attention will be equally required to the Settlement of this Year's Assignment, unless it shall have been already accomplished. You will be careful to guard against fictitious Estimates; and if any such shall appear in the Assignments already formed, you will of course insist upon their being exchanged for others, or their Jumma reduced to their real Value, and others added, to complete the Sum of the Year's Demands; that is to say, the last Year's Arrears, the Two Subsidies of the current Year, and the other Sums for the Payment of which our Government has or shall have made itself responsible; so that at the Close of the Year the whole shall be entirely and completely discharged.

Account current with the Nabob Vizier.

2d. You will observe a very considerable Difference between Mr. Middleton's Account, and the corrected Account delivered to him by the Accountant General, and now in the Possession of your Accountant Mr. Wombwell; a Difference nearly equal to Thirty Lacks of Rupees. To the former, though made up with false Calculations, gross Omissions, and even Balances falsely transferred from one Month's Account to the other, Mr. Middleton has pertinaciously adhered, affecting to call the Difference a new Claim upon the Nabob. I fear this may render it an unpleasant Office to you to rectify his Error, as I have no Doubt that the same Declaration which he has made to this Government will have been made as a Concession to the Nabob and his Minister, and of course your Demand for the Difference treated as unjust, and formed on false Pretences; but the real Account is so clear, and the Difference so self-apparent, that it will be impossible for the Minister to controvert or misunderstand them, however he may affect the latter.

3d. Endeavour to obtain an early and minute Information of the State of the Provinces of Owde especially, and the rest of the Nabob Vizier's Dominions; and report the Result of your Inquiries to me, under the following Heads, viz.

1st. Their Government.
2d. Their Military Defence, and Distribution of the Nabob's Forces.
3d. Revenue.
4th. Disposition and actual Conduct of the Zemindars, and the Means taken for restoring and preserving the Quiet of the Country.
5th. The Character and Credit of the principal Amils.
6th. Under this general Head, I must also refer to your Inquiry, and desire you will inform me, whether the Sums lately levied, or affirmed to have been levied and brought to the Company's Credit by Mr. Johnston, have been drawn from the Revenue of last Year, or borrowed, and Assignments given for the Repayment of the Revenue of that Year, or exacted by Anticipations of the current Revenue: One of which Cases I very much suspect, because they must have been received at a Season in which the regular Collections are always at a stand.
7th. Also by what Mode, and through what Agents, these Collections were made.

Hyder Beg.

☞ [4th. Immediately on your Arrival found the Disposition of Hyder Beg Cawn: His Conduct has for some Time past been highly reproachable. Till within these Three Months, when Mr. Johnson assumed a large Portion of his Authority, he possessed, without Controul, both the unparticipated and entire Administration, with all the Powers annexed to that Government, the Nabob himself being, as he ever must be in the Hands of some Person, a mere Cypher in his, and the Sanction by which he exercised his Authority; yet he has dared to use both the Nabob's Name, and even his Seal, affixed to Letters, either dictated to the Nabob, or written from him without his Knowledge, containing very improper Demands on our Government, and such as evidently tended to promote Hyder Beg's Influence and Interest, and even to make him assume a very unbecoming Tone of Refusal, Reproach, and Resentment, in opposition to Measures recommended by me, and even to Acts done by my Authority, in literal Conformity to the Nabob's own and earnest Solicitations; such as the Resumption of the Jagheers, and the Seizure of his Father's Treasures, which had been so long suffered to remain in the Hands of the Begum his Mother, and the other Conditions of the Engagements exacted from me at Chunar. On every Occasion of this Kind, the late Resident has been the faithful Echo and Support of the Minister's Pretensions; I must therefore have recourse to you for the Introduction of a new System in that Government; nor can I omit, while I express my Reliance upon you for this Purpose, to repeat the Sentiments which I expressed in the verbal Instructions which I gave you at your Departure, "that there "can be no Medium in the Relation between the Resident and the Minister, but either the Re- "sident must be the Slave and Vassal of the Minister, or the Minister at the absolute Devotion of "the Resident." Much as I am displeased at the Conduct of the Minister, I impute it more to the Sufferance of Mr. Middleton than to himself; and if he will submit to hold his Office on such Conditions as I require, I would certainly prefer him to any other Man who could be nominated to his Office, because he possesses Abilities, and a Knowledge of Business; he exists by his Dependence on the Influence of our Government; and above all, because a Change of Administration,

tion, in a Government ſo looſe as that of Owde, where all the Parts of it are held together by the Exertion of actual Power, and not by the Springs of an eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, would be unavoidably productive of Confuſion and Loſs of Revenue: Therefore it muſt be adviſeable to try him by the Mode of Conciliation, in your final Converſation with him, at the ſame Time that it will be neceſſary to declare to him, in the plaineſt Terms, the Footing and Condition on which he ſhall be permitted to retain his Place, with the Alternative of Diſmiſſion, and a Scrutiny into his paſt Conduct, if he refuſes it. In the firſt Place, I will not receive from the Nabob, as his, Letters dictated by the Spirit of Oppoſition; but ſhall conſider every ſuch Attempt as the Miniſter's, and as an Inſult on our Government: In the ſecond Place, I ſhall expect that nothing is done in his official Character, but with your Knowledge and Participation; at the ſame Time, the firſt Share of the Reſponſibility will reſt with you. The other Conditions will follow diſtinctly in their Places, becauſe I conſider you as reſponſible for them.]

Offices. 5th. No Adminiſtration can be properly conducted without regular Offices. In that of Owde there is not one, the whole being engroſſed by the Miniſter. Two are indiſpenſably neceſſary; Firſt, an Office of Collections; Secondly, an Office of Treaſury. I inſiſt upon theſe Eſtabliſhments being formed immediately; and it muſt be your Care to appoint ſuch Checks to each, that whatever Sums are paid from the Revenue ſhall be duly entered, and Credit given for their exact Amount in the Office of Collections; and in like manner, that no Sums ſhall paſs the Treaſury, without a ſimilar Controul. The Heads of theſe Offices muſt of courſe be under the general Directions of the Miniſter in all Points, excepting their Accounts; for the Fidelity of which they muſt be ſolely reſponſible, and made liable to the ſeveral Puniſhments if they falſify them. What other Officers may have been in Uſe in the Time of the Nabob Suja ul Dowlah, and at this Time neceſſary, you will enquire, and either cauſe them to be re-eſtabliſhed, or not, as it ſhall appear to be proper.

Adawlets. In this laſt Deſcription I include the Adawlets. You will find them recommended but conditionally in my Inſtructions to Mr. Middleton. It is certain that the Want of them, and the univerſal and extreme Licentiouſneſs occaſioned thereby, is One of the moſt diſreputable Defects in the Nabob's Government; yet I much doubt whether, introduced into ſuch a State at once and abruptly, they would not add to the Miſchiefs which they were intended to redreſs; for perhaps there is ſcarce an Individual who would not become immediately obnoxious to their Authority, and I fear ſcarce an Individual capable of diſcharging even a ſmall Portion of their Decrees. While they do not exiſt, every Man knows the Hazard which he incurs in lending his Money. Their Eſtabliſhment might tend to deceive, by holding out the Appearance of falſe Aſſurances; and with reſpect to Oppreſſions of every Species, unleſs each Court was armed with a ſtrong Military Force, it would not be in their Power to prevent or puniſh them; neither in that Caſe is it certain they would not themſelves prove the greateſt Inſtruments of Oppreſſion. The Aumils in the Firſt Inſtance, and the Munduls or Chiefs of the Villages ultimately, muſt ſupply this Defect, if it cannot be otherwiſe remedied. I merely intimate this Subject to you, as proper for your Enquiry and Conſideration, but cannot give you any Inſtructions concerning it.

Aumils. 6th. Great Care muſt be taken in the Choice of Aumils. I ſhall not deſcend to Particulars, but enjoin One Caution only, as indiſpenſably neceſſary, that no Aumil be appointed to a Frontier Station, without ſuch Pledge, or other Security, for compelling his perſonal Appearance whenever required, as may inſure, beyond a Doubt, his Obedience and Fidelity; and both theſe and others, wherever ſtationed, ought to have the Means of Self-protection, and to be truſted and ſupported.

Almaſs Ally Cawn. 7th. The Means by which Almaſs Ally Cawn has been permitted to acquire Independency have been long ſeen, and the Effects of it foretold by every Perſon acquainted with the State of that Government, except thoſe immediately intereſted in it. The late Reſident has been his conſtant Advocate, and I lately underſtand that, however truly, the Miniſter diſclaims all Concern in this imprudent Meaſure. It is very extraordinary that his Defection, his Retreat to the Frontier, the ſubſequent Negociations which paſſed between him and the Nabob, the Engagements concluded between them, which reſemble more a Treaty between equal States than a Tranſaction between a Sovereign and his Vaſſal, have all paſſed without the leaſt Communication or Report of them made to me by the Reſident, or his Aſſiſtant, or the Miniſter; and in a Letter which I have lately received from the Nabob, the Miniſter has had the Preſumption to make the Nabob declare the whole to be falſe, and without Foundation, and to affirm that every Part of his Dominion enjoyed the moſt perfect Peace and Tranquillity. Upon this Subject, the Behaviour of the Miniſter is ſo reprehenſible, that I think it incumbent upon me to let him know my Sentiments of it: It will at leaſt ſhew him how thin the Veil is by which he covers his own Acts, and that ſuch Artifices will only tend to make them the more criminal, from the Falſehood and Duplicity with which they are aſſociated. As for Almaſs Ally Cawn himſelf, the Policy which has been obſerved towards him has been ſcandalouſly derogatory from the Nabob's Dignity and Intereſt, and hurtful to the Reputation of our Government, as far as it is connected with it. If any Engagement ſhall actually ſubſiſt between them at the Time you have charge of the Reſidency, it muſt, however exceptional, be faithfully obſerved; but if he has been guilty of any criminal Offence to the Nabob his Maſter, for which no Immunity is provided in the Engagement, or he ſhall break any one of the Conditions of it, I do moſt ſtrictly enjoin you, and it muſt be your ſpecial Care to endeavour, either by Force or Surprize, to ſecure his Perſon, and bring him to Juſtice: By bringing bringing him to Juſtice, I mean that you urge the Nabob, on due Conviction, to puniſh him with Death, as a neceſſary Example to deter others from the Commiſſion of the like Crimes; nor muſt you deſiſt till this is effected.—I cannot preſcribe the Means; but to guard myſelf againſt that Obloquy to which I may be expoſed by a forced Miſconſtruction of this Order, by thoſe who may hereafter be employed in ſearching our Records for Cavils and Informations againſt me, I think it proper to forbid, and proteſt againſt, the Uſe of any fraudulent Artifice or Treachery to accompliſh the End which I have preſcribed; and as you alone are privy to the Order, you will of courſe obſerve the greateſt Secrecy that it may not tranſpire: But I repeat my Recommendation of it as One of the firſt and moſt eſſential Duties of your Office.

Rebellious Zemindars.

8th. From the Practice which the late Reſident and his Deputy, and the Miniſter, ſeemed to have preſcribed to themſelves of withholding all official Information from me, I have been under the Neceſſity of forming my Opinion of the State of the Nabob's Government upon private Intelligence; but this, from its Variety, from its Concurrence, notwithſtanding the various Channels through which it has paſſed, and above all from its Notoriety, comes to me with all the Weight which the higheſt Authority could give it. For ſome Facts I have the Teſtimony of ſworn Evidence; ſuch are the Tranſactions of the Rebel Zemindars of Gooruckpore and Bareach in the Inſurrections of the laſt Year, which had for their immediate Object the Deſtruction of Colonel Hannay, and the Officers of his Command; and, ultimately, the Extirpation of the Engliſh Influence and Power throughout the whole of the Nabob Vizier's Dominions. The Zemindars who diſtinguiſhed themſelves on this Occaſion were Zalem Sing, Genoo Roy, and Perly Pall Sing. I am well informed that theſe Men have perſevered in their rebellious Conduct, without Deviation, to the preſent Time, though the Nabob's, and not our Government, is the Object of it.—Repreſent to the Nabob, and effectually, the bad Policy of ſuffering ſuch Examples to paſs with Impunity. Obtain his Order for employing ſome ſure Means for apprehending theſe Zemindars; and if it ſhall appear, on a fair and regular Inquiry, that their Conduct towards the Nabob (I paſs over that which regards ourſelves alone) has been ſuch as it has been reported to be, he ought, and you muſt inſiſt upon it, to puniſh them with Death, and to treat with the ſame Rigour every Zemindar, and every Subject who ſhall be the Leader in a Rebellion againſt his Authority. Severe as this Injunction may appear at firſt Sight, it will be Mercy in its Effects, if the Nabob will adopt the Policy, by inſuring the Tranquillity of his Country, and ſaving the Blood of his People; for the Reſolution, once publiſhed, and enforced in a ſingle Inſtance, will make it unneceſſary to proſecute it to a ſecond Example.

9th. I have been informed by the late Colonel Hannay, that ſome Time before his Recall was determined, he had agreed to a Settlement of 23 Lacks complete, and without Deductions, for the Revenue of Goorookpore and Bareach for the preſent Year, and that on his Recall a new Arrangement had taken place, in which a Selection had been made of the moſt valuable Talooks or Portions of this Diſtrict, and that they had been diſtributed among the Domeſtics and other Favourites of the Miniſter, and that the reſt had been farmed to one Aumil Abdool Beg, as I recollect, and the whole reduced to a Jumma of 18 Lacks, from which a Proviſion of future Remiſſions was made for Seebundy Anticipations, and Pymauly, or Ravages committed during the late Inſurrections. Theſe are Facts of ſuch a Kind as will confirm themſelves by their own Evidence; and if you find them to be ſuch, it muſt be your Care to correct the Abuſe if you can, for the preſent, or at leaſt to apply the beſt Remedy in your Power to it, and reſtore their future Jumma to its real Value. I ſhall not enter further or more minutely into the Subject of the general Collections, but I am particularly ſolicitous to aſcertain the real Value of this Diſtrict, for a Reaſon which I will proceed to explain.

From the Nature of our Connection with the Government of Owde, from the Nabob's Incapacity, and the Neceſſity which will for ever exiſt while we have the Claim of a Subſidy upon the Reſources of his Country, of exerciſing an Influence, and frequently ſubſtituting it entirely in the Place of an avowed and conſtitutional Authority in the Adminiſtration of his Government, and from the Conſequences inevitable in ſuch a connected Syſtem, directed as it muſt be under all the various Changes and Reſolutions incident to our Government by Men of various Character, and Degrees of Capacity and Integrity, the Time will come when that Claim ſhall accumulate to a Sum exceeding the Nabob's Ability to diſcharge it, but by ſome ancient Meaſures of Accommodation, which may at the ſame Time releaſe him from an intolerable Burden, and yield to us a more rational and ſubſtantial, though leſs oſtenſible Income. Such a Reſource, and indeed in no other, would be afforded by an Aſſignment in Property, and in Perpetuity, of the Diſtrict of Goorookpoor and Bareah, in lieu of all Demands whatſoever for Subſidy, even though the additional Charge of extraordinary Detachments furniſhed for the Defence of his Dominions were added to it. Such an Accommodation, if even it ſhould take place, muſt be produced by a ſtrong Neceſſity compelling it; for neither would the Nabob, weak as he is, ſubmit to yield to it now, nor would I, firmly convinced as I am of its Expediency, recommend the Acceptance of it at this Time, while ſo ſtrong an apparent Difference between the Produce of the Aſſignment, taken at its higheſt probable Eſtimate, and the Amount of the Subſidy, exiſts as an Objection to it. The annual Claim of the Subſidy being 34,020,000 Rupees, and Colonel Hannay's Jumma of Goorookpore and Bareach, which muſt be taken at its higheſt Rate, but at 23 Lacks; but as an Argument for the Meaſure, if ever it ſhould become a

Subject

Subject of immediate Conſideration, I will briefly add the Advantages which will certainly accrue from it:

1ſt. Its Situation, bounded by a great and impaſſable River, the Dava, connecting with the Ganges, the Boundary Line of the moſt defenſible Part of our Dominions.

2d. The Means which it would afford us of putting a total Stop to the continual Inroads and Ravages by which our own Diſtrict of Sircar Saurun has been, and will be continually infeſted, from its open Communication with the rude Territory of the lawleſs Zemindars of Goorookpore immediately adjoining to it.

3d. A certain and improveable Revenue, inſtead of a precarious Demand on Account, payable from a Fund which I have ſaid muſt at ſome Period prove inſolvent.

Having thus expoſed to you my Views, I now leave them a Charge on your Recollection, recommending it to you to obtain all the Inſight which you can into the Subject, both with reſpect to its preſent Revenue, to the Improvement of which it would be capable in our Hands, and to the Means by which the Aſſignment itſelf could at a proper Seaſon be obtained.

10th. On the Information of the Defection of Almaſs Ally Cawn, of Symptoms apparent of the like Diſpoſition in the Aumil of Rohilcund, and of the general Anarchy which prevailed in every other Part of the Nabob's Dominions; the Board, though officially unapprized of theſe, as of every other Subject requiring their Knowledge of them, reſolved and ordered that a ſtrong Detachment, under Colonel Sir John Cummings, ſhould march into the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier, both for its internal Defence, and for the Relief of the numerous Detachments which we underſtood (and this alſo from private Information only) have been made by the ſole Authority of Mr. Johnſon, covered by the Nabob's formal Requiſition, from the Army ſtationed at Cawnpoor: You will receive an Order from the Board to notify to the Commanding Officer of every Detachment, that its Services are no longer required; which Notification it will reſt with your Diſcretion to make on the Inſtant in which you ſhall ſee that it can be done with Safety; and a correſpondent Order will be ſent to Colonel Morgan, to command the inſtant Return of every Detachment within Four-and-twenty Hours after the Receipt of every ſuch Notification upon this Subject. I deſire you to bear in Mind, that the Army at Cawnpore, or in whatſoever Part of the Frontier it may be ſtationed, is appointed for the internal Defence of the Nabob's Dominions, and for that only; that this was its original Deſtination intended by the Treaty of 1773, commonly known by the Treaty of Benares; and that every Deviation from this Object, and every Diminution of its Force, are impolitic and highly dangerous to our own Exiſtence, by the Encouragement which it will afford to foreign Invaſion. I underſtand that at this Time there are only Two Regiments of Sepoys left to ſupport the ſmall Body of Europeans to which the Strength of that Station is now reduced.

Events may hereafter ariſe of ſo ſudden and urgent an Emergency, as to require a temporary Deviation from this Maxim; but it will be with the greateſt Reluctance and Diſſatisfaction that the Board will ever hear of ſuch a Diſpoſition, and therefore you muſt be careful that the Exigency be ſuch, from its Urgency and Neceſſity, as will clearly juſtify you in deviating from it, though but by the Call of a ſingle Regiment of that Station to any Part of the Nabob's internal Dominions; and on every ſuch Occaſion you muſt be careful to comply with every Formality enjoined by my Inſtructions to Mr. Middleton, dated the 23d of September, and to tranſmit inſtant Advice of it to the Board, not waiting for the Detail of your Reaſons, which, to prevent Delays, may follow as you ſhall have more Leiſure to form them.

I muſt make it my particular Injunction, that ſuch a Notification as I have mentioned above may be at all Events inſtantly tranſmitted to the Officer commanding the Detachment ſent to Furruckabad, if my Information be true, that ſuch a Meaſure has been aſſumed by Mr. Johnſon, for which no Pretext can juſtify him.

11th. What I have to ſay under this Head is immediately connected with the concluding Part of the preceding. From a Solicitude to guard againſt any Imputations to which the Reputation of our Government might be expoſed by its Interference in the Nabob Vizier's Claims upon the Nabob Mozaffer Jung, I made uſe of my Influence with the Miniſter, enforced by ſtrong Injunction to the Reſident, that no Force ſhould be exerciſed on that Nabob, nor any Perſon ſent to uſurp the Charge of his Government and Collections, while he continued to pay his ſtipulated annual Tribute to the Vizier as it became due: The Conſequence of this Recommendation was, if I may credit the Reports of the Reſident and the Miniſter, that from the Inſtant that the Nabob withdrew his Interference, the Nabob Mozeffer Jung deſiſted from making his Payment: You will know with Certainty whether this Report was true; if it was, you muſt leave the Nabob and the Miniſter to act in this Buſineſs in what Manner ſoever they pleaſe, and entirely forbear from all Interference in it.

12th. Mr. Middleton has written to the Board that Fyzoola Cawn has been making Preparations for entering on open Hoſtilities with the Nabob Vizier, and combining other Perſons againſt him; I ſuſpect the Information, but Prudence requires to be prepared againſt the Poſſibility of ſuch an Event. It is poſſible that the apparent Weakneſs may have excited Fyzoola Cawn to form ſuch a Deſign; it is more probable that he has been driven to it by the public Declarations and Menaces both of the Reſident and the Miniſter. I have written a Letter to him, ſuch as I think beſt calculated to divert him from any ſuch Undertaking, by Aſſurances of the favourable Diſ-poſition of this Government towards him, while he ſhall not have forfeited it by any improper Conduct, and by ſtating to him the fatal Conſequences which muſt attend his Defection. That Letter you will perhaps receive earlier than I ſhall be able to put you in poſſeſſion of theſe Inſtructions; I ſhall only add, upon this Head, that you muſt be guided by your own Diſcretion in whatſoever relates to it; but be careful to prevent the Nabob's Affairs from being involved with new Difficulties, while he has already ſo many to oppreſs him.

13th. The Severities which have been exerciſed towards the Begums were moſt juſtly merited by the Advantage which they took of the Troubles in which I was perſonally involved the laſt Year to excite a Rebellion in the Nabob's Government, and to complete the Ruin which they thought was impending on ours. If it is the Nabob's Deſire to forget and to forgive their paſt Offences, I have no Objection to his allowing them in Penſion the nominal Amount of their Jaghires; but if he ſhall ever offer to reſtore their Jaghires to them, or to give them any Property in Land after the Warning which they have given him, by the dangerous Abuſe which they formerly made of his Indulgence, you muſt remonſtrate in the ſtrongeſt Terms againſt it—you muſt not permit ſuch an Act to take place, until this Government ſhall have received information of it, and ſhall have had Time to interpoſe its Influence for the Prevention of it.

14th. Study on every Occaſion to conciliate the Good-will of the Nabob, and ſhew him every oſtenſible and external Mark of Reſpect. I ſhould hope that with due Attention you would not find it difficult to make him himſelf the Mover of every Act neceſſary, whether for the Advancement of his own Intereſts, or the Diſcharge of his Debts to the Company. But this can never be effected while the Miniſter maintains that Aſcendant over him which he at preſent holds by the Means of a nearer and more private Intercourſe, and by affecting to be the Vindicator of his Rights againſt the Claims of our Government. In my late Engagement with the Nabob it was ſtipulated that a certain Sum ſhould be ſet apart monthly for his private Expences, and this made a Part of my Inſtructions to Mr. Middleton. The Sum was afterwards fixed, as I recollect, of 30 Lacks. It was my Intention and Direction, that this Appropriation ſhould be made before any other, and this I make my preſent Injunction to you; requiring alſo that you do make it a Part of immediate and ſtrict Inquiry, whether the Nabob has hitherto received the whole and punctual Payment of the Sum aſſigned to this Account, or any Part of it has been withheld from him, whether with or without his Concurrence. I mention this, becauſe, from ſome private Information which I have lately received, I have Reaſon to ſuſpect that this is actually the Caſe. Whatever Foundation there may be for this Report, let Juſtice be done to the Nabob; and if he has been deceived, undeceive him.

15th. The Nabob has repeatedly and bitterly complained of the Indignity which he ſuffers in his Authority, by the Uſurpations of the Company's Reſidents; and has repeatedly demanded, that whenever the Company's Balance ſhall be completely diſcharged, he may be freed from this Vexation; that he may be permitted to pay the Subſidy in Ready Money; and that the Aſſignments which have been granted to ſatisfy that Demand may be reſtored him. I confeſs that I did myſelf give Encouragement to this Propoſition, knowing at the ſame Time the Quarter from which it came, I mean from Hyder Beg; and willing to exonerate this Government from the Trouble and Reſponſibility, and the Company from the Diſgrace of whatever might attend the Adminiſtration of the Nabob's Government. I thought too that it preſented a ſure Proſpect of the regular Payment of the current Demands, by the Penalty which would attend the Failure, in the Reſumption of the former Syſtem of Aſſignments, and in the perſonal Claims which it would lay on the Miniſter. But his Miſconduct has ſince manifeſted itſelf in ſo many particular Inſtances, beſides the univerſal Diſorder of the Country, and this is ſo alarming in its Effects to our Government, that I ſhall heſitate, until I have the ſureſt and moſt ſatisfactory Grounds, to recommend an Acquieſcence in ſuch a Meaſure. At preſent the Plea on which it is grounded is probably yet at ſome Diſtance; for while I am writing theſe Inſtructions freſh Circumſtances occur to my Knowledge, which make me much ſuſpect the real Payment of the Sums brought to the Nabob's Credit for the laſt Year's Balance. It may not, however, be amiſs to talk with the Miniſter on this Subject, to let him know that it is well underſtood to be a Demand for ſubſtituting his Authority in the Place of the Company's, and to inveſt him with the Sovereignty of the Nabob Vizier's Dominions;—to aſk him, whether in ſuch Caſe he ſhall expect the Company's Protection? and if he does, by what Claim of Right? And whether, in the Event of his involving our Government in a new Scene of Hoſtilities, by thoſe which his Mal-adminiſtration may produce, whether internally, or by Invaſion in that Country, he ſhall think himſelf in Juſtice exempt from the perſonal Vengeance which we may be diſpoſed to exact from him?—At all Events the Propoſition muſt be diſcouraged till a ſafer Seaſon for its Acceptance; but the abſolute Rejection of it eluded with the Nabob, if he ſhall himſelf renew it.

16th. For the reſt I refer you to my Inſtructions to Mr. Middleton, to which, in every Point not revoked or qualified by theſe Inſtructions, I muſt require your moſt attentive and literal Obedience.

17th. I do Juſtice to my Senſe of your Character, in declaring my entire Reliance on your Prudence and Integrity, and to theſe I truſt for your Deviation from any Part of theſe Inſtructions at your Diſcretion, in any Inſtance which ſhall appear to you neceſſarily to require it; deſiring however, as a proper Caution, that as much as you can you will leave the Subject free for my Correction rection of it; and instantly inform me, or the Board, according to the Degree of its Importance, that you have acted in such Manner, with your Reasons for it.

I am, Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,

APPENDIX, N° LX.

Book 131.

Letter from the Governor General to the Honourable Court of Directors of the Honourable United East India Company.

Honourable Sirs,

Benares, 1st October 1784.

I HAVE the Honour to send you a Duplicate of my last Address, and a Copy of a Letter to the Council, dated the 20th of September last, containing the Report of my Proceedings, and of the State of your Claims on the Nabob Vizier to that Period, being within Three Days of the Close of the Fusselee Year: This is so full as to render any further Information on that Subject unnecessary. The Nabob Vizier is so sensible of the just and disinterested Conduct which I have observed towards him, and possesses, if I may credit Appearances amounting to the strongest Evidence of which such a Conclusion is capable, so entire a Confidence in my Intentions respecting his Concerns with the Company, that I have on my Part an equal Reliance on his steady Support of the Arrangements which have been formed under my Inspection, both for the Administration of his Revenue, and the Discharge of his Debt to the Honourable Company depending on it. He has given me the firmest Assurances of this, and I have every Reason to expect that the Influence of the most respectable Persons of his Family will be employed to counteract every other which may tend to warp him from it. I am sorry to say, that such an Assistance was wanting; as the Nabob, though most gentle in his Manners, and endowed with an Understanding much above the common Level, has been unfortunately bred up to Habits that draw his Attention too much from the Care of his own Affairs, and often subject him to the Guidance of insidious and unworthy Confidants. This is One Motive of my Intention of making a longer Stay at Benares than is necessary for the Settlement of this Zemindary, which is already nearly concluded, that I may be at hand to counteract any Attempt to defeat the Effect of my Proceedings at Lucknow: But I believe that the Precaution, though dictated by Prudence, will prove unnecessary.

☞ (a) [My only remaining Fear is, that the Members of the Council, seeing Affairs through a different Medium from that through which I view them, may be disposed, if not to counteract the System which I have formed, to withhold from it their Countenance and active Support. While I myself remain, it will be sufficient if they permit it to operate without Interruption; and I almost hope that in the Event of a new Administration of your Affairs, which shall confine itself to the same Forbearance, and manifest no Symptoms of intended Interference, the Objects of my Arrangements will be effectually attained; for I leave them in the Charge of Agents whose Interests, Ambition, and every Prospect of Life, are interwoven with their Success, and the Hand of Heaven has visibly blessed the Soil with every elementary Source of progressive Vegetation. But if a different Policy shall be adopted; if new Agents are sent into the Country, and armed with Authority for the Purposes of Vengeance or Corruption, for to no other will they be applied; if new Demands are raised on the Nabob Vizier, and Accounts overcharged on One Side, with a wide Latitude taken on the other, to swell his Debt beyond the Means of Payment; if political Dangers are portended, to ground on them the Pleas for burdening his Country with unnecessary Defences and enormous Subsidies; or if, even abstaining from direct Incroachment on the Nabob's Rights, your Government shall shew but a Degree of personal Kindness to the Partizans of the late Usurpation, or by any constructive Indication of Partiality and Disaffection furnish Grounds for the Expectation of an approaching Change of System;—I am sorry to say, that all my Labours will prove abortive; for the slightest Causes will be sufficient to deject Minds sore with the Remembrance of past Conflicts, and to elevate those whose only Dependance is placed in the Renewal of the Confusion which I have laboured with such Zeal to eradicate, and will of course debilitate the Authority which can alone ensure future

Succes.

Succeſs. I almoſt fear that this Denunciation of Effects, from Cauſes ſo incompetent as they will appear to thoſe who have not had the Experience which I have had of the quick Senſibility which influences the Habits of Men placed in a State of Polity ſo looſe, and ſubject to the continual Variations of capricious and deſpotic Authority, will be deemed overcharged, or perhaps void of Foundation; nor, if they ſhould come to paſs, will it be eaſy to trace them with any poſitive Evidence to their Connection; yet it is my Duty to apprize you of what I apprehend, on Grounds which I deem of abſolute Certainty, may come to paſs, and I rely on your Candour for a fair Interpretation of my Intention.]

It is not quite foreign from this Doctrine, as it will be highly acceptable to your Honourable Court to be informed, that during my Reſidence (and I may take the Date further back, to the Expectation of it at Lucknow) the moſt perfect Tranquillity prevailed, and it ſtill ſubſiſts in every Part of the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier, a Circumſtance unexampled in the Annals of that Government, either in any former Period, or during that in which our Influence has been blended with its own Conſtitution; and this I attribute excluſively to the Prevalency of Opinion, or, to apply the general Maxim, to the univerſal Conviction of a Power, and a Diſpoſition actually exiſting, the one equal to the Suppreſſion of any Movement of Sedition, and the other determined to the Puniſhment of it: Nor has my Time been unprofitably beſtowed, even in the long Interval in which I was obliged to wait for the firſt Appearance of the rainy Seaſon, before I could ſee the Beginning of the new Settlement. It afforded Leiſure for the conſtitutional Adminiſtration of the Country to recover its Authority; it impreſſed the Minds of all Men, that the Government which I repreſented was determined to render it permanent; and it enabled me to eſtabliſh my own Influence and Aſcendant over the Minds of the Nabob, his Miniſters, and his People, on the Grounds of their Confidence in me. This was an eaſy Line, for it required nothing to be done, nothing but Forbearance: I daily conferred with the Miniſters, I received their Reports, I gave my Advice; but I left every Thing wholly to their Management. I aſſumed no Appearance of Command, I exerciſed none, not even in private; I iſſued not a ſingle Warrant, nor ſuffered any Individual of my Dependents to uſe my Name, even in the common Bazar, with any Privilege diſtinct from the Rights of any other Inhabitant. The Nabob met me on the Border of his Territory, our Troops and Baggage were intermixed on the Road, and our Camps often joined: I and my People, who were numerous, with a large Society of Engliſh Gentlemen, which was unavoidable, lived in the the ſame City Five Months, and * of that Time within the ſame common Encloſure of the Nabob's Palace; nor in all that Time did a ſingle Accident happen from ſuch a Mixture of Society to diſturb its Peace, or to create Miſunderſtanding between either the Principals or Parties of either, but they continued united with the ſame Harmony that exiſts between the Members of a private Family: Nor, whether in public or in private, though Occaſions of great Delicacy often occurred, did a Word ever paſs in Converſation between the Nabob and myſelf, inconſiſtent with the ſtricteſt Amity and mutual good Humour. I hope this will not have the Air of Self-commendation.—My Behaviour was regulated by a preconcerted Policy, the Nabob's by a natural Benevolence and Pliancy of Temper, joined to a Perſuaſion that I merited more than an ordinary Return of Kindneſs from him, which left my Part very eaſy, and will, I truſt, ſtill continue to operate for the common Benefit of his Intereſt and yours, whatever may be my Lot; for I have promiſed that I will not abandon him to the Chance of another Mode of Relation, and moſt confidently given him Aſſurances of your Ratification and Confirmation of that which I have eſtabliſhed between his Government and the Company.

* Sic in Orig.

I hope I ſhall be pardoned for repeating a Remark, which I have already made in my Letter to the Council (for it ought to be known and remembered) that I have provided for the complete Diſcharge, in One Year, of a Debt contracted by the Accumulation of many, and from a Country whoſe Reſources have been waſted and diſſipated by Three ſucceſſive Years of Drought, and One of Anarchy.

The Recovery of ſo large a Part of your Property will alſo afford a ſeaſonable and ſubſtantial Relief to the Neceſſities of your Government, and enable it, for ſuch is my confidential Hope, to begin upon the Reduction of your Debt at Intereſt before the Concluſion of this Year, I mean the Year of our own Computation.

Whatever may be the Event of this Tranſaction, I cannot conclude the Report of it without teſtifying my Acknowledgment of the very uſeful Aſſiſtance which I have received from the official Skill and Abilities of Mr. David Anderſon. His Reputation, which has been eſtabliſhed on the Merits of much more important Services, will receive little Addition from this Tribute paid to it; yet the Circumſtances under which they were yielded on this Occaſion would not allow me to ſuppreſs it, as he had formed the Reſolution of reſigning the Service for the Recovery of a very declining Health, and had actually beſpoke his Paſſage on One of your Homeward bound Ships, when his Friendſhip and public Zeal induced him to remain, at my Solicitation, and to accompany me on this Deputation. As I have occaſionally mentioned the Number of Gentlemen which compoſed my Family, I have a Pride and Pleaſure in adding, that they all contributed, by the Correctneſs of their Manners, and conciliating Behaviour, to maintain that familiar and cordial Intercourſe which I have already deſcribed to have ſubſiſted between the Nabob and myſelf, and to leave a laſting and favourable Impreſſion of the Britiſh Character with his Subjects.

For the reſt I beg leave to refer to my Letter to the Board; and am, with the moſt reſpectful and dutiful Attachment,

Honourable Sirs,
Your moſt obedient and moſt humble Servant,
Warren Haſtings.

APPENDIX, N° LXI.

Extract of a Letter from E. Cornwallis to the Court of Directors.

☞ (a) [Par. 3. I Was received at Allahabad, and attended to Lucknow, by the Nabob and his Miniſters, with every Mark of Friendſhip and Reſpect. I cannot, however, expreſs how much I was concerned, during my ſhort Reſidence at his Capital, and my Progreſs through his Dominions, to be Witneſs of the diſordered State of his Finances and Government, and of the deſolate Appearance of the Country: The Evils were too alarming to admit of Palliation, and I thought it my Duty to exhort him, in the moſt friendly Manner, to endeavour to apply effectual Remedies to them. He began with urging, as Apologies, that whilſt he was not certain of the Extent of our Demands upon him, he had no real Intereſt in being œconomical in his Expences; and that, while we interfered in the internal Management of his Affairs, his own Authority, and that of his Miniſters, were deſpiſed by his own Subjects. It would have been uſeleſs to diſcuſs theſe Topics with him; but, while I repeated my former Declarations, of our being determined to give no Grounds in future for ſimilar Complaints, he gave me the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of his being reſolved to apply himſelf earneſtly to the Encouragement of Agriculture, and to endeavour to revive § the Commerce of his Country.] (" And, in order to enable him to be punctual in his pecuniary ☞
" Engagements with us, and otherwiſe to give Eaſe to his Finances, he likewiſe promiſed, not " only to diſband a large Number of his own uſeleſs Rabble of Troops, but alſo to retrench a " great many of his other ſuperfluous Articles of Expenditure. I think it proper to ſay, that
" my principal Dependance for the Performance of thoſe Promiſes, reſts upon ſimilar Aſſurances
" from the efficient Miniſter, Hyder Beg Khan, who is undoubtedly the ableſt Man employed by
" the Vizier, and who, there is Reaſon to expect, will, from Conſiderations of perſonal Intereſt
" and Safety, be at great Pains to avoid giving juſt Cauſe of Complaint to this Government.
" He knows, in particular, that it is to him I look for the punctual Diſcharge of our annual " Subſidy of Fifty Lacks; and, though I am ſenſible that, for ſome Time to come, there may " frequently be Difficulties, I truſt that they will never more fall conſiderably into Balance, as I " am perſuaded of their Anxiety to avoid it.)" §

4. Several commercial Arrangements have been under Conſideration, which having principally for their Foundation the Reduction of ſome Duties, and the fixing of the Extent of all public Impoſts, as well as giving full Protection to all Traders and Merchants, will, I am convinced, contribute greatly to promote the mutual Advantage of both Countries. As the Conſequences of the Influence of our Authority in the commercial Affairs of Oude have been extremely pernicious, I have been deſirous that in diſcuſſing thoſe Subjects with Hyder Beg, each Point ſhould be deliberately examined; and that he ſhould not think himſelf under the Neceſſity of giving his Acquieſcence, unleſs convinced of its Utility to the Intereſts of the Vizier, or of his Subjects; for that Purpoſe I made uſe of Mr. Barlow, who, by his Manners and Addreſs, was peculiarly well qualified to gain his Confidence, and who had previouſly given me the moſt convincing Proofs of Ability, by his maſterly Inveſtigations and Reports on the State of Commerce of Oude and Benares. As I think it may command the more Preciſion on the Side of the Vizier, in the Obſervance of the different Articles that may be ſettled, it has been propoſed that this Agreement ſhall be in the Form of a Commercial Treaty; and as moſt of the Heads are already adjuſted, I hope that it will ſoon be finally concluded.

5. The Diſtreſs and Oppreſſion that the Commerce of Oude has hitherto ſuffered by the Means which were employed in procuring our Inveſtment in that Country, are clearly and very juſtly deſcribed in Mr. Barlow's Report. We have therefore, and without giving up any Advantage of our own, granted a moſt ſubſtantial Favour in relinquiſhing it. I have likewiſe had it in my Power, by attentive Enquiries upon the Spot, to make ſome Additions to the Regulations for military Bazars, that had been already publiſhed; which, without interfering in the ſmalleſt Degree with the real Conveniencies of the Troops, have, I truſt, effectually removed all Grounds for future Complaints from the Country upon that Subject, and for which the Vizier and his Miniſters have expreſſed the higheſt Gratitude.

APPENDIX, N° LXII.

A ſuccinct View of the State of the political Connexion ſubſiſting between Mahajee Saindeah and the Britiſh Government in India.

IT has been inferred, from certain Circumſtances in the early Conduct of Saindeah towards our Nation, that if he has not always entertained a Sort of Partiality in our Favour, he has at leaſt been long actuated by a Deſire of cultivating a cloſe political Connexion with us. In ſupport of this Opinion, particular Streſs has been laid upon his Behaviour at the Capitulation of Worgaum, which, as it would be romantic to attribute it to an undiſcriminating Generoſity, muſt neceſſarily be traced to a different Source. The Terms obtained by the Bombay Deputation on this Occaſion were, it is true, ſufficiently hard; but then it ſeems to have been generally thought, that the Maharattahs, had they ſo pleaſed, might at that Conjuncture have totally deſtroyed our Army. It is poſſible however that the Maharattahs did not judge in the ſame Manner, touching the Facility of ſuch an Enterpriſe, with thoſe, to whom, through the Gloom of Deſpondency, it might appear more practicable than it really was; or perhaps it might occur to their Leaders, that no permanent Advantages were likely to accrue to them from puſhing Matters to Extremity againſt us, ſince they were not ignorant that our main Power and Reſources were eſtabliſhed on Foundations that exiſted independently of our Poſſeſſions in the Bombay Quarter. They might deem it more prudent to reſt ſatisfied with the ſpecific Conceſſions which they found us willing to make to them at Worgaum, than, by ſeeking for greater but more precarious Advantages, to call forth our moſt vigorous Exertions, in the Defence of our Rights and the Recovery of our Honour; and indeed, had the Conditions of this Treaty been ſtrictly fulfilled by us, the Event would have abundantly juſtified ſuch a moderate Policy on their Part. Our Stipulations held out to them the moſt entire Security for the future againſt our Ambition, and it is not probable that they entertained any Doubt of our faithful Obſervance of them.

If this Reaſoning ſhould be thought to account adequately for the temperate Conduct of the Maharattahs, on the Occaſion referred to, there will remain no Neceſſity either for giving Credit to Saindeah on that Score, for a wild and improbable Generoſity, for ſuppoſing him to be actuated by a Partiality equally extravagant,—or for attributing to him, at ſo early a Period, a ſecret Deſire of entering into a political Union with us.

It is material to underſtand this Point rightly, in order to form an accurate Judgment of the Connexion ſubſiſting between Saindeah and the Engliſh Government in India, as well as of the Conduct which it behoves the latter to purſue towards that Chieftain.——It * it ſuppoſes itſelf to be under eſſential Obligations to him, and to be, above all other Powers, the Object of his peculiar Confidence and Regard, it will of courſe allow him to poſſeſs a Claim to its Gratitude,—a Principle, whoſe Operation, although more limited and leſs active among Public Bodies than among Individuals, is nevertheleſs occaſionally ſuſceptible of conſiderable Extenſion in the political Commerce of States, as has been already experienced by Saindeah.—On the other hand, if it be believed, that his Conduct towards us has in all Situations been determined purely by Conſiderations of Convenience, we ſhall then perhaps think it ſufficient to act by him honourably and juſtly, as long as he continues to regulate his Behaviour towards us by the ſame Standard.

* Sic in Orig.

I am for my own Part thoroughly ſatisfied, that Saindeah's Deportment, in the Affair here alluded to, proceeded neither from the Impulſe of Generoſity, from any Preference ariſing from Admiration or particular Regard; nor from a Deſire of conciliating our Friendſhip, with a View to the Advancement of any political Purpoſe of his own. His general Character precludes the former Idea;—national Vanity alone can account for it in the ſecond Way;—and I can diſcover nothing in his earlier Proceedings to authoriſe the Concluſion of his having formed, at the Seaſon referred to, any ambitious Deſign, in the Proſecution of which he could reckon upon deriving the leaſt Advantage from a Connexion with us. That he might ſometimes turn his Thoughts towards Hindoſtan, I can eaſily imagine; but it could not be till a very late Period that he conceived the Idea of eſtabliſhing himſelf in that Country in the Manner he has ſince done.

Till the Death of Nujjef Khan, his Views in this Quarter moſt probably never embraced any other than the ordinary Objects of his Nation, namely, Plunder and Contributions; or if towards the Year 1781 he extended them further, it ſeems likely that the Reduction of the Rana of Gohud formed the ultimate Point at which he aimed.—He had ſome Claims upon this Rajah, and was exaſperated againſt him, on account of the Alliance which he had entered into with the Engliſh. Indeed he had very good Reaſon to diſlike this Union, but he could have none for ſuppoſing it poſſible to diſſolve it ſo completely, as to render us indifferent to the Deſtruction of the Rana. He could not foreſee that the Conduct of the latter would provoke us us totally to abandon his Cauſe; conſequently it does not appear prior to the * Diſtrictions which enſued on Nujjiff Khan's Death, wherein the Friendſhip of the Engliſh could be in any Shape aſſiſtant or beneficial to Saindeah. That he might wiſh to engage our Good-will, without any immediate Views of an intereſted Nature, but in the Idea that ſome future Contingency might render ſuch an Acquiſition valuable to him, is, I acknowledge, poſſible; yet as this Sort of provident Policy is by no means one of the Characteriſtics of Saindeah, any more than of the Generality of Hindoſtan Princes, I do not ſee the Propriety of attributing it to him, when his Conduct can be equally well accounted for on Principles of a more ſimple and obvious Kind.

* Sic in Orig.

It is obſervable, notwithſtanding what has ſo often been ſaid, reſpecting the Generoſity of Saindeah in the Affair of Worgaum, and his early Deſire to cultivate our Friendſhip, that our Government does not appear to have manifeſted any ſtrong Senſe of Obligations to that Chief, or Inclination to meet his Wiſhes, till the Time when he negociated the Treaty at preſent ſubſiſting between us and the Maharattah State. Prior to this Period, he was perhaps, of all his Countrymen, the one who ſuffered moſt from our Arms during the Courſe of the War. He it was who was chiefly haraſſed by the Operations of General Goddard's Army,—and Colonel Camac's Detachment was ſpecially deſtined againſt his Country.

Our preſent Connection with Saindeah is one of the Fruits of this laſt Meaſure, which it was foreſeen would certainly diſengage him from the War in Guzerat:—It was alſo, or at leaſt might have been foreſeen, that it was no leſs calculated to bring about a Peace between us and the Maharata. The Operations of our Troops in Malva convinced Saindeah that there was no Safety for him but in a ſpeedy Accommodation; and fortunately, he poſſeſſed the Power as well as the Inclination to accompliſh an Object, that could not be leſs deſirable or neceſſary to him than it was to us.

Neither therefore in his Conduct at Worgaum, nor in his Negociations for a general Peace, do I diſcover any Thing that might not, and that I believe did not, proceed from Conſiderations of immediate Convenience and Self-intereſt. If this be admitted, it will follow, that however neceſſary it may be, in a political Point of View, to maintain a cloſe and amicable Intercourſe with him, he has no Claim on our Gratitude for any extraordinary Conceſſions, or over-ſtrained Acts of Courteſy. I will not ſay that we have already been too liberal to him, but it is certain that we have been ſufficiently ſo, to turn the Balance of Obligation in our Favour.

Although it was unqueſtionably a Dread of our Arms that firſt inſpired him with the Deſire of treating with Colonel Muir, yet it is not to be denied that he began, about the very Period when his Negociations with that Officer were depending, to diſcover, that a cloſe Connexion with our Government might, beſides ſecuring the immediate Tranquillity of his Dominions, be production* of other capital Advantages to him. Our Expedition againſt Malva had drawn him involuntarily, as it were, into a Situation, from whence he was enabled to ſurvey a Scene well calculated to ſtimulate him to ambitious Purſuits, and from whence a Proſpect of future Aggrandizement opened itſelf to his View, of which he had probably never before formed even the Idea. Nuijef Khan dying in the Beginning of 1782, after a languiſhing Illneſs, the Acceſſion to his Dominions and Authority was diſputed by thoſe who had poſſeſſed his chief Confidence and Favour. The Conſequences were ſuch as uſually reſult in India from Conteſts of this Kind;—Aſſaſſinations, Anarchy, and Violence, every where excited Conſternation. In ſuch a Conjuncture, Saindeah had only to appear, in order to eſtabliſh his Power on the Ruins of the Fabric which had been erected by Nujjiff Khan, with leſs Policy than Courage. The principal Officers of the Army, by means of which the late Nabob had maintained his Sway, had ſeparated into Factions, and no Perſon was to be found capable of re-uniting them with ſufficient Efficacy. Men actuated by Animoſity, and other diſcordant Principles, could form no Union which Saindeah was not able with great Eaſe to diſſolve.

*Sic in Orig.

It is foreign to the Object of the preſent Diſquiſition to enquire whether or not this Chief was concerned in the Death of Afraſiab Khan. That Event was no doubt eſſential to his Intereſt; and Ambition rarely ſcruples to accompliſh its Purpoſes even by the moſt atrocious Crimes. Yet the Character of Saindeah not being chargeable with ſanguinary Propenſities, this Point may juſtly be allowed to remain in its preſent Uncertainty, till clearer Circumſtances than have hitherto been adduced on the Occaſion, may better qualify us to judge accurately reſpecting it.

Before however Matters were ſufficiently ripe for his embarking in this important Enterprize, Saindeah had Time to effect the entire Reduction of the Ranna of Gohud, and of all the Country lying between Gualiar and the Jumma, and bounded to the Northward by the Chumbul: Indeed without accompliſhing theſe Objects he would have been unable to have availed himſelf in a proper Manner of the favourable Conjuncture preſented to his Ambition by the diſtracted State of the Moghul Government; and on this Occaſion it was that he firſt experienced the Value of our Friendſhip. In the ſeparate Treaty concluded between Colonel Muir and Saindeah, the Security of the Ranna was amply provided for; but as we had no Reaſon to be ſatisfied with the Conduct of this Ally, we tacitly conſented to wave the Stipulations which we had obtained in his Favour, and to ſuffer Saindeah to act by him as he might think fit. Had we adhered to the Ranna, and protected him from the Reſentment and Ambition of the Maha-rattah, this Chief would very probably never have formed the Deſign of paſſing the Chumbul, as in that Caſe he would perhaps have imagined that it was our Determination to oppoſe ourſelves to his Progreſs on the Hindoſtan Side. Even our Compliance with his Wiſhes in reſpect to the Ranna, although it certainly ſeemed to argue on our Part an anxious Deſire of cultivating his Goodwill (whatever Conſiderations might really have induced it), and was even calculated in ſome Degree to encourage him in the Purſuit of his ambitious Schemes, could not altogether ſatisfy him that we ſhould perſiſt in viewing his Encroachments with Indifference; for when he called to mind the Avidity of Power and Dominion which had uſually marked our Tranſactions in India, it was natural enough for him to apprehend that we might, in the Event of his attempting to extend his Territories, eſpecially towards our Quarter, from his Friends become his Rivals and his Enemies. This Idea would of courſe, while his Objects were unaccompliſhed, render him at the ſame Time active in his Endeavours to conciliate, to humour, and to amuſe us, and prone to diſtruſt our Profeſſions of Neutrality and Moderation.

The nearer he approached our Frontier, the more apt would he be to ſuſpect us of temporizing; nor, important as he himſelf would doubtleſsly conſider his Superceſſion of the Vizier by his own Elevation to the Dignity of Wakeel Ulmutluh, could he well account on any other Principle for our Dereliction of our Ally's Rights on that Occaſion. We might view this Matter in an inſignificant Light (whatever the Vizier might do), and conſequently not think it worth a Queſtion; but it is by no means likely that Saindeah ſhould attribute ſuch Sentiments to us when his own were ſo very different.

Here therefore was another Incident ſeemingly well calculated to convince the Maharatta Chief that we were unaffectedly anxious to preſerve for ever a cordial Underſtanding with him; ſince our entire Silence under ſuch a Circumſtance as the Superceſſion (and perhaps, both in his Eſtimation and the Vizier's, Degradation) of our ancient Ally, was not naturally to be aſcribed to the Deſire we had of accommodating ourſelves as much as poſſible to his Views. But although it is probable that he previouſly reckoned upon our Forbearance on this Occaſion, yet I am diſpoſed to think that he would not look for it in our Friendſhip ſo much as in our Convenience; and indeed [ſuch is the Impreſſion which our former Character and Policy have left on the Minds of the Natives, that, notwithſtanding the many Proofs which our more recent Conduct has furniſhed of our being at preſent directed by a very different Spirit, I am perſuaded that neither he nor any other Hindoſtan Potentate gives us Credit for Sincerity in the Declarations which we have latterly made on this Subject: Time no doubt might ſubdue this obſtinate Incredulity; but who can certainly ſay that we ſhall adhere long enough to our preſent moderate Syſtem for the Purpoſe of inforcing this Belief?]

It is by the Impreſſion here deſcribed working on a Mind naturally diſtruſtful, that we can alone ſatisfactorily account for the Jealouſy and Suſpicion of us, conſtantly manifeſted by Saindeah, which would, no doubt, be increaſed by our ſecretly intriguing with his Enemies, but which ſubſiſts in a ſtrong Degree, independently of any ſuch Idea. Unreſtrained himſelf by the Conſiderations of Honour and good Faith, he is the leſs forward to give us Credit for thoſe Principles: Thus it is partly owing to his Temper, partly to his own habitual Diſregard of the Obligations of Treaties, and partly to his Recollection of our former Policy and Conduct, that we in vain endeavour to inſpire him with a liberal Confidence either in our Intentions or our Aſſurances.

As to the Spirit of Forbearance and Moderation which has latterly marked all our Tranſactions with the Native Powers, it would certainly not be extravagant in him (viewing Things through the fallacious Medium which he does), were he to ſuppoſe it aſſumed for temporary Purpoſes, and to proceed from the embarraſſed State of our Finances. And indeed I think it probable that he judges of us exactly in this Manner, and that he has no Idea of our remaining quiet any longer than the Neceſſity of our Affairs may render it expedient for us to do ſo: A Prepoſſeſſion of this Sort keeping his Jealouſy and Apprehenſion of us perpetually awake, not only ſeems to preclude the Poſſibility of our being ever united together in a cordial and unſuſpecting Friendſhip, but makes it even difficult to preſerve the Appearances of it, in a courteous and good-humoured Intercourſe with him. For under the Influence of this political Jaundice, which communicates to every Object the Colour of his Fear, the moſt trivial Circumſtance is capable of raiſing in him a Belief that the fatal Period is at hand when we ſhall be in a Condition to give the Reins once more to the Ambition which formerly actuated us, and which he imagines to be inſeparable from our national Character. The moſt unfounded and extravagant Rumour even, whether proceeding from the Exceſs of political Vigilance, or from the Arts of deſigning Men, is ſufficient to produce theſe Alarms in his Mind. Mankind indeed are often obſerved to be ſtrangely forward to believe what they are moſt averſe to know, and Saindeah is a ſtriking Inſtance of this curious Sort of Infatuation. He would appear to have Ears for none but his ſecret Intelligencers, whoſe Credit with him does not ſeem to be at all weakened by the Falſehoods in which he could not fail of occaſionally detecting them, were he to compare theſe Communications with the actual State of Things. Either, however, his Judgment is not ſuited to ſuch deliberative Operations, or it is altogether blinded by his ruling Paſſions, or he has ſome deluſive Method, if not of reconciling reconciling ſuch Contradictions, at leaſt of accounting for them without affecting the Credibility of his Informers.

Agitated by the Doubts and by the Fears which have been deſcribed, it is not ſurprizing that Saindeah ſhould wiſh to keep both us and the Vizier at as great a Diſtance as poſſible from all the other Powers of Hindoſtan, and eſpecially thoſe over whom he exerciſes either Influence or Authority. Hence his conſtant Uneaſineſs,—and hence the Diſſatisfaction that he ſometimes avows—at the ſlight Intercourſe which we maintain with a few of them. It would be impoſſible to convince him that our Correſpondence with ſuch conſiſts purely in an Interchange of complimentary Enquiries and unſubſtantial Profeſſions of Friendſhip. His natural Diſtruſt, ſtrengthened by the Inſinuations of evil Counſellors, make him refer every Tranſaction of this Sort to a political Deſign on our Part of undermining his Power, and of paving the Way to the future Extenſion of our own. Probably any ſerious Attempt to undeceive him on this Head would, ſo far from producing the deſired Effect, ſerve only to confirm his Suſpicions; a Solicitude of this Kind arguing, in ſuch a Mind as Saindeah's, more of an artificial and deſigning than of an ingenuous Conduct.

Here is One fruitful Source of conſtant Diſagreement between Saindeah and our Government, or rather of a Diſcontent on his Part, which makes it exceeding difficult to keep him in Good-humour, without ſtraining our Complaiſance for him further than might conſiſt either with our Honour or our Intereſt. Another Obſtacle to the Attainment of ſo deſirable an End ariſes from a certain ſullen and obſtinate Sort of Pride, that conſtitutes One of the moſt prominent Features in the Character of the Maharattah Chief: This renders him, whenever embarraſſed in his Situation, more than ordinarily tenacious of his Military Reputation, and more than commonly boaſtful of his Power and Reſources. However he may yield in ſecret to the Impreſſions of Fear, he revolts at the Idea of its being imagined that he is acquainted with that Paſſion; and this Jealouſy of Honour (if it may be ſo called) ſuggeſts to him on ſuch Occaſions a very ſingular Mode of concealing his Uneaſineſs.

This conſiſts in the vapouring Language which has juſt been noticed, and in a Conduct leſs conciliating and amicable than uſual, towards thoſe whoſe Proceedings or Movements may have alarmed him.

A diſreſpectful and ſlighting, not to ſay an inſolent, Demeanour, proves, he thinks, under ſuch Circumſtances, his Confidence in his own Strength, and his Diſregard of the Power at which he ſecretly trembles; whereas an obliging and accommodating Carriage might occaſion Inferences of a Nature directly oppoſite, which would at once be mortifying to his Feelings and prejudicial to his political Intereſts. Hence it is, that whenever an Idea prevails of our entertaining hoſtile Diſpoſitions towards him (which, as there is no reſtraining popular Speculations or Rumours, is ſometimes the Caſe), the Harmony that ought to ſubſiſt between us is more apt, than at other Times, to be diſturbed; and hence it alſo ariſes, that he never experiences any Repulſe from us in the ſiniſter Attempts, to which he is encouraged by our preſent Forbearance and Moderation, without endeavouring to make himſelf amends for it by ſome new Procedure, not leſs calculated, it would ſeem, to breed Ill-humour between us, than to inculcate an univerſal Perſuaſion of our Submiſſion to his Pleaſure, and conſequently of his own Superiority and Aſcendancy. From the Intention of offending us on theſe Occaſions, I entirely clear him, becauſe that cannot be neceſſary to his main Deſign; but as it is impoſſible that he ſhould be able to purſue the Ends which I have here and elſewhere attributed to him, without frequently exciting in us much great Diſpleaſure, it follows that the political Pride in which thoſe Views originate, muſt tend greatly to augment our Difficulty in maintaining a good Underſtanding with him. There is indeed, in my Judgment, but one effectual and certain Means of accompliſhing this deſirable Object, and that, as I have ſtated on other Occaſions, Occaſions * conſiſts in reducing the Intercourſe and Connection between us within ſtraiter Limits than circumſcribe them at preſent; a Meaſure which I am of Opinion might be adopted without either Inconvenience or Injury to public Affairs. Having formerly been induced to conſider this Point at ſome Length, it would be uſeleſs to urge it any further in the Place; and there would, for the ſame Reaſon, be as little Propriety in my touching at this Time on the particular Methods practiſed by Saindeah, in order to the effectuating of the Schemes in which his Vanity, his Fear, and his Ambition, engage him. Theſe I have already taken ſome Pains to explain, but under ſuch Diſadvantages as may probably have rendered my Labour fruitleſs.

* Sic in Orig.

Without a conſiderable Knowledge of the Manners and Notions of Saindeah and of his Durbar, it muſt be difficult to comprehend clearly many Parts of their Conduct, and not eaſy to believe others; and yet thoſe muſt be underſtood and theſe credited, before a proper Key to their Character can be obtained. From hence I infer, that an Experience derived from perſonal Intercourſe is alone able to convey to the Mind a full and ſatisfactory Conviction on this Head.

Having mentioned the fabricated Reports of ſecret Informers among the Cauſes which fed and keep alive Saindeah's Diſtruſt of our Government, I think it right to obſerve, that Rajah Cheet Sing is at the Head of theſe Incendiaries. This wretched Fugitive for a long time entertained Hopes of being able, ſooner or later, to ſoften the Reſentment of the Engliſh, and even ultimately of obtaining an entire Pardon.

Theſe Hopes however appear now to have totally vaniſhed, and to have been ſucceeded by Deſpair. While he indulged the Expectation of future Forgiveneſs and Favour, his Conduct in reſpect to us was probably unexceptionable, but ſince he has been inſpired with leſs ſanguine Thoughts, I have Reaſon to believe that his Endeavours have not been wanting to indiſpoſe his Protector towards us. He has a Vakeel at Calcutta, and ſome Correſpondents at Benares, from whom he either actually receives, or pretends to receive, ſuch Accounts relative to our Deſigns and Tranſactions, as, being communicated to Saindeah, conduce often I believe to confirm the Suſpicions and Fears, of that Chief in regard to us. Theſe Attempts of Cheit Sing to diſturb the Harmony which we wiſh to ſubſiſt between Saindeah and our own Government, merit perhaps nothing but our Contempt. It is the ineffectual, and probably the expiring Effort of an alienated Exile; but although in a political Light it be of no Importance, it many * nevertheleſs appear improper to tolerate the Continuance of his Agent at Calcutta, when it is known that his Reſidence there is converted to inſidious Purpoſes.

* Sic in Orig.

I hold preciſely the ſame Opinion of Saindeah's Diſpoſitions in regard to us that I believe he entertains of ours towards himſelf. He is reſtrained, I am perſuaded, from encroaching upon us and the Vizier, † nothing but his Inability to do ſo with any Effect, or with any Probability of Succeſs. His Ambition is boundleſs, and little liable to be checked in the Purſuit of its Objects by Conſiderations of Gratitude, of Honour, or of good Faith; but happily, his Situation teems with ſo many Difficulties which at once diſable him from diſturbing us, and make it his Intereſt to keep us quiet, that we may be ſafely pronounced to be in no Sort of Danger from his inſatiable Thirſt of Power and Dominion. I muſt of courſe be underſtood as delivering this Opinion with ſome Reſervation; were he, for Example, completely to ſubdue the Confederacy, from which both his perſonal and political Exiſtence are at this very Time in imminent Danger, it is not certain that he would not become ſo formidable as to be able, if not to keep the Maharattah State in a Kind of Tutelage, at leaſt to throw off his preſent Dependance on it. Uncontrouled by its Authority, and uninterrupted by its Coercion, he would be enabled to act with more Deciſion, and with more Syſtem, than he has yet been equal to. Both his Finances and his Military Force would aſſume a more regular and permanent Form than they bear at this Juncture; and, in a Word, his Power would ſtrike ſo deep a Root as might not only excite him to an Attempt againſt the Poſſeſſions of the Vizier, but alſo furniſh him with the Means of proſecuting it with conſiderable Proſpect of Succeſs. This however is an Event or Situation of Affairs, which, though certainly poſſible, is notwithſtanding very far from probable, and therefore the leſs neceſſary for us to guard againſt.

† Sic in Orig.

It cannot occur ſo ſuddenly but that we ſhall have abundant previous Warning of it; and there is hardly a Stage in Saindeah's Progreſs to that Point or State in which he might become a dangerous Neighbour, wherein we ſhould not be able effectually to check him, were we to judge ſuch a Meaſure expedient.

Much as the temporiſing Policy, ſecretly imputed to us by Saindeah, agrees with the real Diſpoſitions of that Chief himſelf towards us, there is one Point in which our Sentiments are eſſentially diſſimilar, and which accordingly occaſions a ſtriking Difference in our Behaviour to each other. This conſiſts, on one hand, in the Dread which he entertains of our Military Character; and, on the other, in the low Eſtimation in which we juſtly hold his. Doubtful as we may be of his Deſigns and Inclinations, yet as we are uninfluenced by Fear of his Power, and are always prepared to meet its utmoſt Exertions, our Carriage towards him is never marked by thoſe little Jealouſies, Anxieties, and Suſpicions, which tend ſo much to breed Diſcord and to excite Miſunderſtanding between neighbouring States. On the contrary, it is uniformly open, liberal, indifferent (as to his Military Operations), and goodhumoured. Far otherwiſe (as has been ſhewn) is the general Deportment of Saindeah in reſpect to us; and much of his ungracious Conduct is to be traced to a Fear of our Power working on a Mind of a very particular Frame. For the moſt Part it muſt be allowed that the Kind of Apprehenſion which I here attribute to Saindeah is apt to produce conciliating and ſubmiſſive Behaviour; but this Effect is prevented in the preſent Caſe by the exceſſive political Pride of that Chief, which, generally ſpeaking, is of a Quality remarkably unyielding, although in private or ſocial Life no Perſon in the World perhaps is leſs tainted with that Vice.

It is here fair to acknowledge, that whatſoever Advantages Saindeah might, in the early State of our Connection, draw either from our Solicitude firſt to engage him in our Intereſts, and afterwards to make him adhere firmly to us, or from our Gratitude for actual or ſuppoſed Services, he is at preſent under fewer Obligations to our Friendſhip than to the Change which has taken place in our political Syſtem.—I do not mean to ſay, that our original favourable Diſpoſition towards him has ſuffered any Alteration or Diminution, but it is certain that he derives no Benefit from the Forbearance with which we now view his ambitious Strides, of which he would not be equally ſecure, although there ſubſiſted no Sort of Intercourſe between us, our Neutrality and Moderation in reſpect to him not being the Effect of partial Attachment or Eſteem, but of a deliberate and univerſal Policy. There was a Time when the Eſtabliſhment of the Mahrattah Power in the Doab would have been oppoſed, either by Arms or by Negociations, as being dangerous to our Intereſts; yet Saindeah was permitted to to poſſeſs himſelf of the greater Part of that Territory, without receiving (I believe) a Hint of his Progreſs in that Quarter being diſagreeable to us.

Our Silence on this Occaſion was not owing to any expreſs Dereliction of the Principle formerly entertained on this Heard*, but to the new Connection which had taken place between us and the Maharattah. Here then was a capital Advantage which Saindeah drew from our Friendſhip, ſince this led us tacitly to concur in what we had been uſed to think politically wrong, becauſe unſafe; but what aroſe, in the Inſtance juſt referred to, either from an exceſſive Anxiety to conciliate Saindeah, or from a Perſuaſion that our Treaty with the Maharattahs made it unneceſſary any longer to guard againſt them, proceeds from a ſyſtematic and ſteady Diſregard of the Tranſactions and Diſputes of our Neighbours among each other, and a firm Reſolution not to take up Arms, or hazard the Commencement of Hoſtilities, but in the Maintenance of our Honour, the Vindication of our Rights, or the Defence of our Poſſeſſions.—Hence it follows, that the Benefits which reſult to Saindeah, excluſively and abſolutely, from his Connection with us, muſt be confined to the Effects which his Addreſs enables him to draw from the particular Mode of our Intercourſe with him, and from the general Tenor of our Conduct towards him. Theſe indeed have been by no means inconſiderable, as I have elſewhere endeavoured to ſhew.—A Concurrence, however, of various Circumſtances has, within this Year or Two, operated to obſtruct his Deſign in the Artifices here alluded to, and perhaps at preſent there are few of his Neighbours who have not a tolerable accurate Notion of the Nature of the Alliance ſubſiſting between him and the Engliſh Government.

* Sic in Orig.

No doubt he perſeveres in his Project, and ſtill endeavours to inculcate the Perſuaſion that we are at his Devotion; yet as it is obvious that a Deluſion of this Sort cannot be always ſucceſsfully practiſed, but muſt ſome Time or other be diſcovered by thoſe whom it is meant to deceive, it might ſeem neceſſary for us to adopt any Meaſures for the Prevention of an Evil, that may be ſaid to carry its own Remedy along with it, and which cannot exiſt long enough to take a deep or dangerous Root. And in Truth, were it not that the greater Part of the Expedients employed by Saindeah to accompliſh his Purpoſe have a Tendency to exclude from our Intercourſe that Good-humour and Cordiality ſo proper to be maintained between us, the Attempt might be ſafely enough diſregarded by us. Conducting it, however, as he does, it really is pregnant with conſiderable Inconveniences; and on this Account, though it may not be worth our while directly to oppoſe his Deſign, yet the Means which he uſes to effectuate that Deſign ought certainly to be ſo far reſiſted, as to induce his Diſcontinuance of them.

There probably was a Time when Saindeah might, beſides endeavouring to inculcate the Belief in others, have ſeriouſly thought himſelf that he would have no Difficulty in engaging us, whenever he ſhould require it, to take an active Part in his Affairs; nor would there, indeed, have been any Thing very extravagant in ſuch an Expectation, at the particular Period when we appeared moſt ſolicitous to attach him to us, conſidering the Facility with which we had, on ſome former Occaſions, entered into ſimilar Views and Connections. He would even ſeem, from certain diſtant Propoſals which he has latterly made, not to have yet totally relinquiſhed this Idea; but I am inclined to think, that in Overtures of the Kind alluded to, he may be more actuated either by a View of ſounding our Diſpoſitions, or by a Habit of Perſeverance, than by an † Hopes of Succeſs.

† Sic in Orig.

From the foregoing Statement, joined to other Facts ſufficiently well known, it may be ſummarily deduced, that Saindeah is at this Time as deſirous of extending his Influence and Dominion as ever we were formerly, or can be hereafter; that our preſent Syſtem of Neutrality and Moderation is in one Senſe favourable to his Views, but by no means calculated to excite his Gratitude, or to engage him in a ſtrict Attachment to us; that he does not reckon upon the Duration or Firmneſs of our Friendſhip; that his Prejudices and Ambition on the one Hand, and our Policy on the other, conſidered, it moſt probably is not an Object with him to cultivate a cordial or ſincere Connection with us, from which it does not appear that he could draw any excluſive or abſolute Advantage; that it is his Intereſt now, and will in all Likelihood ever be ſo, to preſerve inviolate the Peace ſubſiſting between us; but that ſhould he (in ſpite of the numerous Chances againſt him), ſurmounting all the Difficulties of his preſent Situation, firmly eſtabliſh himſelf in Hindoſtan, and we, on the contrary, be unexpectedly involved in any new Diſtreſſes, which might ſeem to offer a propitious Occaſion of incroaching upon us, it is hardly to be doubted but he would attempt to avail himſelf of ſo inviting a Conjuncture. I am thoroughly perſuaded, that the Part which he acted in 1785, relative to the King's Claim of Tribute from Bengal, was by no means a reluctant one. Fluſhed with his eaſy and unlooked-for Succeſs, and preſuming perhaps on the Generoſity, or, as he would probably think it, the neceſſary Facility of our Conduct towards him, he might imagine that he would hazard nothing in taking this Occaſion of feeling our Pulſe. That he ſhould have denied the Concern which he had in this Tranſaction, is not to be wondered at. He found we were not ſo yielding as he ſuppoſed it poſſible for us to prove; and not being in a Condition to force us into a Compliance with his Wiſhes, he very prudently determined to diſavow thoſe Wiſhes.—His Behaviour, however, in this Inſtance, begot, I believe, the firſt Suſpicion of the real State of his Mind towards us; and has, I fancy, contributed conſiderably to prove to Government, that we have no Security from his Ambition, which does not depend either upon the Embarraſſment of his Affairs or the Proſperity of ours.

If

If the Expoſition of the Views and Character of Saindeah, given in the preceding Pages, be juſt, and if the Eſtimate which I have made in this Diſcourſe, and on other Occaſions, of that Chief's political Strength, be accurate, it will follow that we have very little to hope from his Friendſhip, and as little to fear from his Ambition. Under theſe Circumſtances it would appear as if the main Object of our Policy, in reſpect to him, ſhould be the preventing him from entering into any Connection with the natural Enemies of our State. Under this Deſcription I claſs the French and Tippoo Sultan, with both of whom I believe him to be at preſent totally unconnected. The latter, indeed, there is Reaſon to think is eſpecially indiſpoſed towards *, on account of the ſeparate Treaty which he concluded with us in 1781, and of the active Part which he took in the Peace of 1782. Saindeah having in theſe Meaſures certainly purſued no other Object than his own Intereſt, we are no further obliged to ſupport him againſt the eventual Effects of Tippoo's Reſentment than political Expediency may warrant. How far ſuch a preventive Policy as that which I allude to might carry us, were we at any Time to adopt † in its full Extent, is a Queſtion of too much Magnitude and Delicacy to be ſlightly diſcuſſed, and as it is by no means neceſſary to my Subject, I ſhall gladly paſs it by. —The Caſes are not many which can ever give riſe to it in reſpect of Saindeah, the Ruin and Embarraſſment of whoſe Affairs can only affect us in Two Ways: One of theſe refers to the Event of his Power and Dominions paſſing into the Hands either of our natural Enemies, or of ſome Chief or State cloſely united with them: The other turns upon the Poſſibility of his being at ſome future Period ſo hard preſſed and involved in Difficulties, by the Exertions of thoſe Powers who may confederate againſt him, as to be obliged to ſolicit foreign Aid, when, ſhould he deſpair of engaging our Aſſiſtance, Neceſſity might throw him into the Arms of our moſt formidable and irreconcileable Rivals. There are, it muſt be owned, more Circumſtances than the one laſt mentioned, that might draw him into Connections dangerous to our Intereſts; but I am of Opinion that they are all either very remote or very improbable. The Threats or Intrigues of Tippoo Sultan might induce him to make his Peace with that Chief, by entering into his Views againſt our Nation; he might be allured, by the Proſpect of new Acquiſitions, to join and co-operate with ſome future Combination of our Enemies; if ſtrongly tempted at any Time to extend his Conqueſts to the Eaſtward, he might treat for the Support either of the French or of Tippoo in ſuch an Enterprize; or, finally, provoked by ill Treatment from our Government, he might, to gratify his Reſentment, cabal with its avowed Adverſaries. Much may be objected to the Likelihood of each of theſe Contingencies; and as to the laſt of them, it muſt at leaſt be referred beyond the Period of the preſent Adminiſtration in India.

† Sic in Orig.

But however certain it may be, that our Government will never offer any real Wrong, or intentional Slight, to Saindeah, it cannot be denied that it has a very arduous Taſk in the political Duty of pleaſing that Chief. Much of this Difficulty ariſes, as I have already ſhewn, from his natural Jealouſy and Diſtruſt, but it muſt be partly aſcribed to another Cauſe. Saindeah has experienced ſo much overſtrained Complaiſance from us, that he may be compared to the ſpoiled Child, who after being indulged in a Variety of Demands, cried at laſt becauſe it could not obtain the Moon. He often carries his Pretenſions to nearly an equal Height of Unreaſonableneſs and Extravagance, expecting from us at Times, on the Strength of former Compliances, ſuch Conceſſions as would conſiſt perhaps neither with Prudence nor with Honour to grant. Hence it becomes neceſſary, in conſidering both the Applications and the Complaints of Saindeah, to keep in mind the Character and Views of himſelf and of his Durbar; under which Denomination I range all his Favourites and principal Servants, whether actually near his Perſon, or employed at a Diſtance. It is, generally if not univerſally ſpeaking, compoſed of Men familiarized to Diſſimulation, expert at Circumvention, practiſed in Falſehood, and in a Word, but little reſtrained by any Sort of Principle. Of theſe there are probably but few who look beyond themſelves, or who are really anxious to promote the Proſperity of their Maſter; nor will any of them, however ſincerely attached they may be to his Intereſts, be found to poſſeſs much true political Sagacity. They, for the moſt Part, make their Court to him, by feeding his Jealouſy and his Vanity; and when they offer him Counſel, if it ſhould not be dictated by private Conſiderations, it is ſuch as they know will be agreeable to him, or ſuch as may be expected from Men of contracted and undiſcerning Minds, and who are noways qualified for the Conduct of great Affairs.

The Suggeſtions and Repreſentations of Perſons of the foregoing Deſcription will rarely be found, on due Examination, to merit much Regard. To ſay nothing at preſent of the Applications or Demands liable to proceed from ſuch a Durbar, it may be obſerved, that its Complaints are very apt to be fictitious or pretended; for although the Maharattahs are but little under the Influence of the more violent Paſſions, as Revenge and Anger, yet they are not uncommonly impelled by leſs worthy Incentives to indulge themſelves freely in Miſrepreſentation and Exaggeration. Indeed thoſe Practices appear in many Caſes to be purely the Effect of Habit and Education, ſince it is not always poſſible to refer them to intereſted Motives or to particular Deſign. The End, however, uſually meant to be anſwered by the fabricated Complaints here alluded to, is the invalidating or weakening ſome actual Charge, or Remonſtrance, for which the Conduct either of Saindeah, or of his Servants, may have furniſhed Grounds. This Artifice ſometimes precedes the Complaint which it is intended to deſtroy, deſtroy, and at other Times follows it; it generally conſiſts in a Statement of Facts directly oppoſite to thoſe alleged on the other Side, and carries with it, for the moſt part, as few Marks of Judgment as of Truth.

It is plain, that the diſregarding of ſuch Complaints as are here deſcribed, can never be productive of any ſerious Conſequence; for although Saindeah may feel ſome ſlight Mortification at being foiled or diſappointed in theſe little Views, yet an inward Conſciouſneſs of his own Diſingenuity muſt prevent his conceiving any real Offence on ſuch Occaſions. It is otherwiſe, however, in reſpect to thoſe Wrongs which he may actually, though erroneouſly, imagine himſelf to ſuffer, eſpecially when this Impreſſion reſults from a Miſconſtruction of any of the Articles of the Treaty ſubſiſting between us. It * ſuch Caſes, it would not perhaps be right to ſcrutinize too nicely, whether or not ſuch Miſconſtructions be affected or ſincere; there can be no Harm in receiving them at all Times in the latter Light, and in treating them accordingly, on that Footing. A temperate Diſcuſſion of theſe Points, and a candid Explanation of the Senſe and Force affixed by ourſelves to the Engagements by which we are bound, though they were always to fail of convincing and of ſatisfying Saindeah, would nevertheleſs conduce to the Prevention of many Heats and Diſputes which ariſe, in critical Situations, from Miſunderſtandings cleared up at too late a Period. If our Meaning continues to be miſconceived after ſuch Explanations, we ſhall be no longer chargeable with the Conſequences; and may, beſides, ſafely refer a Miſapprehenſion ſo pertinacious and invincible, to an Affectation aſſumed for ſome ſiniſter or fraudulent Purpoſe.

* Sic in Orig.

Among the Sort of Injuries laſt mentioned, is to be reckoned the Behaviour of the Vizier in granting an Aſylum to the Guſain, Kimmut Behauder. This has long been a Subject of grievous Complaint with Saindeah, nor has any Thing which has been ever repreſented to him on the Occaſion had the leaſt Effect towards ſatisfying him of the Propriety of his Excellency's Conduct in this Particular. He continues either really to think, or to pretend to think, that the Protection which has been afforded to this Fugitive, amounts to a Violation, not only of the Spirit but the Letter of the Treaty ſubſiſting between us, and conſequently between the Vizier and him. Now, although it cannot be admitted to be an Infraction of any poſitive Engagement, yet it certainly is much to be lamented, that his Excellency ſhould have † betrayed into a Step which ſo ſtrongly marked his Indiſpoſition towards his Mahratta Neighbour. Kimmut Behaudre, at the very Time that he ſought a Refuge in our Ally's Dominions, ſtood in the Relation of a Traitor and an Enemy to his Excellency's Government, againſt which he had been guilty of the moſt atrocious Offences. Under ſuch Circumſtances to favour or protect ‡, not leſs obnoxious to Saindeah, was in the Vizier nearly equivalent to a Declaration that there could be no Crime committed againſt either his own Perſon or Authority, which § not be atoned for by a marked Hoſtility towards the Mahratta Chief. I do not pretend to ſay, that Saindeah has ever drawn ſo ſtrong a Concluſion from this Affair, though, conſidering the peculiar Colour, and the uſual Bias of his Mind, it would not be extraordinary if he ſhould.

The Reception given by Saindeah to Cheit Sing, as it never was preſſingly objected to by our Government, may not be thought to furniſh any Juſtification of the Meaſure here alluded to. I cannot, indeed, help thinking that Saindeah, in granting an Aſylum to Cheit Sing, acted with great Impropriety and Indelicacy towards us; for although we had not at that Period concluded a general Peace with the Maharattahs, yet Saindeah had entered into a ſeparate Convention with us, which ought to have prevented him from adopting a Line of Conduct, that certainly breathed but little of that favourable Diſpoſition towards us, for which we have been uſed to give ſo much Credit to this Chief. At the ſame Time I am ready to own, that it would be very impolitic in us, were we in our Commerce with the Mahrattahs to ſquare our Behaviour towards them, on every Occaſion, exactly by the rigid Rule of Retaliation. It will, no doubt, be ſometimes proper for us to enforce a ſtrict Performance of what may be due by them to our Honour, and to the Faith of Treaties; but it may be queſtioned, whether the moſt effectual Way of accompliſhing this Point, would be by imitating in any Caſe the cuſtomary (and indeed proverbial) Looſeneſs with which that People at all Times acquit themſelves of their Engagements. Such a Proceeding would be leſs calculated to produce a Change in their national Habits and Character, than to lay the Foundation of perpetual Diſagreements between us. Not being uſed to view ſlight or indirect Infractions in the ſame heinous Light that we do, they cannot comprehend why they ſhould be very ſeriouſly reſented, and conſequently this can hardly ever be done without their thinking themſelves in ſome Meaſure injured. Excepting, therefore, on very important Occaſions, it will perhaps be more dignified and more prudent to diſregard, than to copy, ſuch an irregular Conduct.

Frequently, however, as the Complaints of Saindeah will prove frivolous, unreaſonable, and totally ungrounded, Candour requires it ſhould be acknowledged, that in regard to the Vizier's Government, it is to be feared they have at Times but too much Foundation. Neither is this Circumſtance difficult to be accounted for: His Excellency has certainly but little Reaſon, upon the whole, to be ſatisfied with the Mahrattah Chief. This hereditary Antipathy to the Nation of the latter out of the Queſtion, more Circumſtances than One have had the Effect of exciting in him a perſonal Diſguſt, and I may even venture to ſay Hatred, towards Saindeah. Nor will this be much wondered at, however it may be lamented, when it is conſidered, that in conſequence of the ſucceſsful Uſurpation of the Mahrattah, he has has been deprived of an honorary Pre-eminence in the Empire, that may be affirmed to have conſtituted a part of his Patrimony; his Officers at Dehli have been plundered and haraſſed; his own Property there violently invaded; ſome of his diſcontented and refractory Relations countenanced; and others, in whom he is either really, or affects to be, intereſted, impriſoned and maltreated. I do not pretend to affirm that Saindeah is equally blameable on all theſe Points; neither is it to be admitted, that any of them can be properly excuſed by pleading the licentious Nature of his Government, ſince the ſame Apology might, with the ſame Juſtneſs, be offered for the moſt flagrant Outrages, and might often be employed to cover Acts of intentional Slight and Injury. Be this as it may, however, their Effect on the Mind of the Vizier is very great; and being alſo, it may be ſaid, natural, will be found the more difficult to correct. But as ſuch an Indiſpoſition towards Saindeah on the Part of his Excellency may be pregnant with Danger, by having, in ſome Degree, a Tendency to drive the former into Connections inimical to our Intereſts, it doubtleſsly behoves us to labour earneſtly for its Removal. For my own Part, I confeſs I ſee but One effectual Way of accompliſhing ſo deſirable an End. Our Influence over the Vizier is certainly conſiderable; but then, his Mind is probably not leſs under the Influence of Pride, of Jealouſy, and of an Indignation at Wrongs, partly perhaps real, and partly imaginary. Hence, to employ our Credit with him in order to reconcile him to an unqualified Reſiſtance againſt the Suggeſtions of Paſſions, commonly very uncontroulable, would, beſides very * ineffectual, ſavour more of unreaſonable Violence than I am ſure would be agreeable to our Government. To correct and gradually to ſubdue theſe unfriendly Diſpoſitions (which the Vizier would in vain attempt to diſguiſe, and which are evidently communicated to a great Part of his Subjects), it is neceſſary, if not to redreſs the Circumſtances that have given riſe to them, at leaſt to prevent for the future the Recurrence of ſuch Matter as is calculated to keep them alive.

* Sic in Orig.

To this End, it would be requiſite to effect a more conſiderable † in the Conduct and Sentiments of Saindeah than I will venture to pronounce to be practicable; yet till this be done, I am afraid it will be to no Purpoſe for us to endeavour to reſtrain the Vizier's Government within the Bounds neceſſary to the great political Ends which have been hinted at.—His Excellency may deny that he affords Protection to Fugitives from the Territories o the Mahrattah; he may affirm that he carries on no improper Correſpondence, or indeed any at all, with Tributaries or Enemies of that Chief; and he may even promiſe that effectual Care ſhall be taken for the Prevention of ſuch Practices; yet I heſitate not to pronounce, that all theſe Evils will continue, without our being able, perhaps, to aſcertain with Preciſion the Exiſtence of any of them.—In a Word, the Principle of reciprocal Advantage and Honour muſt be introduced into the Connection ſubſiſting between Saindeah and our Ally the Vizier, before it can ever be made agreeable to the latter, or before a liberal and cordial Intercourſe can be eſtabliſhed between them.—Some Appearances of Harmony may be preſerved; mutual Proteſtations, Declarations, and Injunctions may be exchanged; but as thoſe, while the Seeds of Ill-humour prevail on either Side, will mean nothing, neither will they ever produce any good.

† Sic in Orig.

It may not be improper, before I cloſe the preſent Diſcourſe, to take ſome ſlight Notice of the Perſons employed by Saindeah in the Management of his Concerns with our Government. Theſe are oſtenſibly only Two, viz. Bow Buckſhee, and Apa Byhroo Naht; but it is very certain that there are others, who on particular Occaſions, being more in the Confidence of their Maſter than either of theſe Miniſters, take the Lead of them in Engliſh as well as in other Affairs.

Of the Characters of thoſe Two Men it is not neceſſary for me to ſay much, ſince they differ little or nothing from the Bulk of the Durbar of which they are Members, and which I have already attempted faintly to delineate.—Apa, who is a Sort of Dependant on the Bow, and acts in the Capacity of his Deputy or Aſſiſtant, appears to be rather ſuperior to his Principal, as well in Sagacity as in Addreſs. They are both to be conſidered, however, rather as the Inſtruments than the Counſellors of Saindeah, being employed for the moſt Part only in executing what ſeems to that Chief himſelf adviſeable, or what ſome of his more confidential Servants ſuggeſt as expedient. Their Views indeed being at all Times either very confined, or very intereſted, they are better qualified to act as Agents than as Counſellors.—In the former Station they acquit themſelves ſufficiently well, being as ſupple and as ſubſervient as their Maſter can wiſh them to be; and though they ſometimes ſeem to move in the latter Sphere, yet it is rarely that they do more than propoſe the Means of accompliſhing what is known to be deſired, and of executing what is known to be already determined on.

It is not to be denied, that Bow Buckſhee has derived both Conſequence and Profit from the Share which he has had in conducting the Intercourſe between his Maſter and our Government; but it appears to me that he was not ſelected for that on any Grounds of a creditable Nature to himſelf. The Connection between Saindeah and us was eſtabliſhed through a ſufficient Agency. It was Servajee Eethul Rao who was employed to negociate and conclude the ſeparate Treaty with Colonel Muir, which laid the Foundation of the general Peace that enſued. The Character of this Perſon ſtands very high, not only among his Countrymen, but alſo in the Eſtimation of their political Enemies.—His Conduct, during the Negociations which he managed, received the moſt honourable Teſtimony from the Gentleman who treated with him on the Part of Colonel Muir.—He holds an important Station in the Mahrattah Empire, pire, and continues to be particularly distinguished by Saindeah, although no longer employed by him in the political Line.—It is not difficult to account for his having lost the Confidence of the Mahrattah Chief; being at the Head of a Body of the Government Troops, he was not independent in a great Degree of Saindeah, but even in some respect co-ordinate with him. This Consideration, joined to his high Reputation, rendered him eminently useful in a Conjuncture when the Necessity of Saindeah's Affairs made a speedy Peace with the English indispensable. This Object, however, accomplished, and the Views of Saindeah changing with Circumstances, it became necessary for him to lay aside Eethul Rao, whose Relation to the Poonah Government, whose Rank and Credit, and whose general Character, altogether disqualified him for a Situation in which no Person could be safely trusted but a Creature of his own. Bow Buckshee was accordingly raised to an Office, for accomplishing the Purposes of which his loose and flexible Principles were infinitely better suited than the unaccommodating, but independent Spirit of Etehel Rao. It is remarkable, however, that although the latter has no longer any Share in the Conduct of English Affairs, yet he continues to keep up the State of employing a Vakeel at Calcutta, an Assumption to which, notwithstanding it cannot be agreeable to Saindeah, this Chief never appears to have offered any any * Objection.

* Sic in Orig.

Bhow Buckshee does not at this Time derive either so much Credit or Advantage from his ministerial Station as he formerly did. The Connection between Saindeah and our Government has assumed that Kind of Form which requires and admits but little of intermediate Agency. Hence being almost totally unemployed as a Negotiator, the Importance which he derived from that Situation has almost ceased. While he could make his Master believe that it was possible to bind us to his Interest by closer Ties than at present unite us together (a Piece of Address which I have Reason to think he long practised successfully), he experienced no Diminution of Influence; but as Saindeah is by this Time, I fancy, thoroughly convinced that this is an unattainable Point, and as it must consequently appear to him that the Bhow does not possess that Degree of Weight with us which he has always affected to enjoy, I am of Opinion that the Credit of the latter is on the Decline. It is probable, indeed, that he will be able to maintain his Ground for some Time longer; but whenever he shall be marked as a proper Object for the rapacious Necessity of his Master (which in all Likelihood will one Day be the Case), it is not the subordinate Part which he has in the Management of Affairs, that will protect him from Disgrace and Ruin. His Conduct in his Revenue Employment will at any Period furnish Arguments sufficiently plausible for criminating, for squeezing, and for degrading him; and I believe he is too well acquainted with the Character of Saindeah to reckon upon any Support, in his Difficulties, from the Favour or or † Interposition of the English Government. As a View, therefore, to this Sort of Advantage is not likely to have any Influence on his Conduct in respect to us, there is the greater Reason for believing that the better to ingratiate himself with his Master and with his most confidential Counsellors, he will enter into all the Views of the latter, and instead of labouring, as he ought, to remove the former's Distrust of us, rather encourage and keep it alive by every Means in his Power; I wish had no Reason for suspecting that he has already adopted so insidious a Policy.

† Sic in Orig.

Before I quit this Subject, it may not be amiss to observe that Bhow Bukshee has a considerable Rival in Ambajee, whose Conduct oftener than once has plainly indicated a Desire of acquiring the Direction in English Affairs. I have had very broad Overtures from him to this Effect, which I of course discouraged with sufficient Explicitness. But supported as he is by Rana Khan Bhal, and high as he stands in the Confidence of Saindeah, it is not at all unlikely but he may at some future Juncture resume his Views to this Situation. It may be questioned, however, whether we should benefit any Thing by such a Change, for although Ambajee has affected to charge the Bhow with Duplicity and Insincerity in the Administration of his Office, yet it is not clear that he could himself fill the Station to his Master's Satisfaction without practising the same Arts; nor am I convinced that he would feel any Reluctance in putting them in Execution.

APPENDIX, N° LXIII.

Letter from Mr. Middleton to Sir Elijah Impey.

My dear Sir Elijah, Lucknow, the 5th December 1781.

I was only this Morning favoured with your very friendly and intereſting Letter of the 1ſt Inſtant; and I am only able at preſent, in Reply, to touch ſlightly on the moſt important Points of it. In the firſt Place, my dear Sir, I muſt beg your Acceptance of my moſt unfeigned Acknowledgments for the obliging and attentive Regard you have ſhewn to all my Requiſitions and Wiſhes, which are not the leſs due to you becauſe your Endeavours have not been productive of all the Succeſs I hoped for from them. It would be impertinent, and, perhaps, not altogether decent, for me to urge any Thing further on the Subject of Muzuffer Jung and Iſmael Beg. The Governor's Expectations in regard to both muſt and ſhall be anſwered; and my only Deſire now is, that he will permit the Nabob and his Miniſters to make it appear a Meaſure of their own, and not forced upon them by his immediate Authority. I feel nothing on my own Account for the Furruckabad Buſineſs, as I urged it only in conſequence of the Vizier's earneſt Deſire, which I thought extremely reaſonable, and made on Grounds which appeared to me to bear not a Shadow of Doubt in regard to Juſtice or Propriety. His Excellency only is the Sufferer, and I think I can anſwer for him, that he would much rather have given up his Claims on the Nabob of Furruckabad altogether, in his own Way, than be obliged now to withdraw his Agent, which muſt leſſen him ſo much in the Eyes of his Neighbours. In regard to Iſmael Beg, I feel myſelf very differently ſituated; for, excluſive of the Diſapprobation it was my Duty to teſtify to a Conduct ſo extremely diſreſpectful and inſulting to the Nabob and his Miniſters, I could not help perſonally feeling and reſenting the Indignities he offered, in the moſt atrocious and barefaced Manner, to my Station. But I muſt own to you, my dear Sir, I feel theſe Inſults, and the Triumph which this Villain has obtained over me, although it will give a ſevere Stab to the Influence and Authority of my Station, leſs than I do the Mortification of ſeeing more Regard paid to the Repreſentations of others than my own, on Subjects which ſo eſſentially concern myſelf, and which to ſuſpect me capable of miſrepreſenting, ſeems to declare me undeſerving of the Confidence of the Governor, and conſequently of the Office I hold under him. I would aſk, my dear Sir Elijah, what Intereſt, or poſſible ſiniſter View, I can have in eſpouſing the Cauſe of the Nabob againſt Iſmael Beg? Had Intereſt been the Rule of my Conduct, his own Overtures, before he had been Six Hours in Confinement, would have dictated a different Line; but I thought his Conduct to the Nabob too infamous to paſs unpuniſhed; and not to have reſented his Conduct to myſelf, and to Mr. Haſtings, whoſe Station and Character he took every Means in his Power to depreciate, would have been the higheſt Injuſtice both to my Friend and myſelf. If Mr. Haſtings cannot yield Credit to my ſolemn Declarations reſpecting the Conduct of this Man, it would, I conceive, be an eaſy Matter to get all I have ſaid, and indeed much more, verified upon Oath. But after what you have ſaid, I ſhall never again open my Lips, or employ my Pen, on the Subject. I feel the Diſappointment far more than I can expreſs, but it is only to yourſelf that I ſhall ever breathe a Complaint upon it.—I muſt obſerve to you, that I think it very likely the Nabob may again addreſs the Governor on both theſe Subjects, before he finally complies with his Injunctions, in which Caſe I have moſt earneſtly to entreat, that you will not ſuffer Mr. Haſtings to ſuppoſe me acceſſary to it.—I ſolemnly aſſure you I will do every Thing in my Power to prevent any further Delay in the Execution of the Governor's Orders, and if another Reference is made, it will not be with my Conſent.—I ſhall demand the Execution To-morrow Morning—if it is not complied with, the Nabob will of courſe diſpatch his Appeal in the Evening, to which an Anſwer may be received in Six Days: Should the Nabob decline to withdraw his Sizauwol from Furruckabad, and releaſe Iſmael Beg until the Governor's Anſwer arrives, I ſhall be without Remedy; and I ſhall truſt to your good Offices to obtain me his Indulgence, under a ſolemn Engagement, that the very Day the Anſwer may arrive, his Orders, be they what they will, ſhall be executed.

☞ (a) [The Meaſure reſpecting the Begums, and the Reſumption of the Jagheers, will be inſtantly adopted. The latter has only been ſuſpended for the Governor's Sentiments on the former, as the Jagheers of the Begums and their Dependants are the moſt conſiderable; and, to have attacked them, without being prepared, at the ſame Time, to enter immediately on the Execution of the grand Deſign, would have being doing Things by Halves, and poſſibly have defeated our Expectations. Do not, my dear Sir Elijah, ſuffer this Delay to be urged or conſidered as an Imputation of Blame upon me. I entered on the Buſiness the very Day after you left me, and went ſo far as to look upon the Matter as finally agreed upon, the actual Execution only ſuſpended until I could receive either yours or the Governor's Sentiments upon the further Propoſal, which is certainly of far greater Conſequence than the Reſumption of the Jagheers, as it will do at one Stroke, if we are not all groſsly miſtaken, what the Jagheers will be at leaſt Two Years in doing. To-morrow Morning, I am to be informed of his Excellency's intended Mode of Attack, and ſhall not fail to acquaint the Governor; in the mean Time you may be aſſured, that whatever may be acquired by the Meaſure ſhall be faithfully and wholly applied to the Liquidation of the Company's Debt.] With reſpect to Cator, I will write when I have ſpoken to him; at preſent I have not Time even to read what I have written: I ſhall be happy if you find it intelligible, and I am ſure you will have the Goodneſs to excuſe its Imperfections.

Mrs. Middleton joins me in kindeſt Remembrances to Lady Impey; and I am, with ſincere Regard, My dear Sir Elijah,

Your ever faithful, obliged, and moſt affectionate Friend, Nathaniel Middleton.

Sir Elijah Impey.

Extract of a Consultation of the 29th September 1783.

Fort William, 29th September 1783.

At a Council; Present,

The Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, President,

John Macpherson, and } Esquires.
John Stables, }

Edward Wheler, Esquire, absent up the Country.

THE Governor General delivers in the following Minute, containing his Observations on Mr. Bristow's Letter and Defence:

It is with great Regret that he offers a Composition of such unusual Length for a Place in the Consultations. It was written with a stronger Regret, operating as a Discouragement on his Mind, and no less Mortification, from the Reflection of the Incongruity of such a Drudgery with the Cares and Functions which ought to be the Occupation of the Person filling a Station so important as that which he holds, had he the Power of attending to the first, or discharging the latter. He solemnly declares, that the Powers of this Government are not in his Hands, nor exercised by the Principles which he possesses. Disarmed of the Means of averting, by an instant and decided Act of Authority, the Evils which he has long since seen impending on the British Character and Interests, he has devoted himself to the Labour of displaying them for the View of higher Authorities, on whose Wisdom and Justice he securely depends for their due Retribution, if this Representation shall arrive too late to produce the Remedy which he hopes to derive from it.—The Ruin of a great Dominion, the open Violation of Justice and Public Faith, the Contempt reflected on this Government from its Representation, and Reproach from the Acts done under its Authority, merited at least the Labour of a few Days for the Production of the only Resource which remained for their Removal, even from the first and executive Member of the Constitution, if they have not interfered with more urgent Calls of his Duty.—To him it has been the Sacrifice of a Length of Time which he reviews with Pain.—He foresees the Consequences to which it may lead, in the long Interval which must precede its Effects, but is prepared to meet them; and whatever may happen of the Events which he dreads in the Train of Affairs now subsisting, he shall at least receive this Consolation under them, that he used his utmost Exertions to prevent them, and that in the Annals of the Nations of India which have been subjected to the British Dominion, he shall not be remembered amongst their Oppressors.

(Signed) Warren Hastings.

Governor General.

It would have been unjust to have prescribed to Mr. Bristow, either the Mode or Bounds of his Defence. I shall assume the same Privilege in my Examination of it, and by throwing aside all the extraneous Subjects, Reasonings of Difficulty, or unimportant Applications, Professions of Integrity, and sounding Declamation, which make up the Bulk of the Composition, endeavour to comprize all that is essential of the general Subject in the following Remarks.

On the 21st of April I laid before the Board Two Letters from the Nabob Vizier, and Three from his Minister Hyder Beg Khaun, all filled with various Complaints of the Conduct of Mr. Bristow, the Resident of this Government at the Court of the Nabob Vizier: As the constitutional Channel of all political Correspondence, I had no Option, had I been so inclined, to suppress them.—They were as much the Concern of the other Members of the Board as my own; but as they personally regarded an Individual highly patronized, and then recently withdrawn from that Dependance on my Authority, with which I had endeavoured to accommodate my Submission to the Orders of the Court of Directors in his Appointment to the Station which he held, I foresaw at once all the Difficulties of the Part which I had to act, both with respect to my immediate Colleagues in Office, and my Superiors at Home.—Under this Impression I imparted the Subject with much Delicacy to the other Members of the Board, but thought I saw in its Reception a Temper which boded little Ease to my Feelings in the Prosecution of the Charges, or Justice in the Termination of it—The Gentlemen of the Board must not be offended at this Declaration; I mean mean not to allude to what paſſed when we were in private at the firſt Communication of the Complaints, but to the firſt Minutes which were delivered upon them on the 19th and 22d of the Month following.—I had ſuffered all the intermediate Delay, from a Fear of Irritation; and on the 19th of May I ſimply moved that the Charges ſhould be tranſmitted to Mr. Briſtow, with Orders to revoke all Appointments made by him under the Government of the Nabob Vizier, and not appertaining to the Duties and Rights of his Office.

On this Queſtion the Members of the Board entered their ſeparate Opinions, agreeing to tranſmit the Charges for Mr. Briſtow's Defence; but objecting to any other conſequent Act until he ſhould nave replied to them, as it appeared that he had not exceeded his Inſtructions, and that the Complaints were founded on intereſted Motives.—Mr. Macpherſon added to his Opinion a Propoſal, that the ſimilar Charges ſhould be drawn againſt Meſſrs. Middleton and Johnſton, on which the Board had been partly induced to remove thoſe Gentlemen from the Truſt ſince committed to Mr. Briſtow; and Mr. Stables, with a Deciſion which ſeemed to preclude the Neceſſity of any Enquiry whatever, delivered it as his Opinion, that, "in Juſtice and "Candour to the Nabob Vizier and his Miniſter, the Board ought explicitly to declare, that "they could not on any Account comply with the Vizier's Requeſt, to grant him diſcretional "Powers over his Country, whilſt ſuch heavy Debts remained due to the Company."—I was ſilent, and the Debate briefly cloſed without any Reſolution following it.

On the 22d of May I laid before the Board another Letter from Hyder Beg Cawn, with Narratives of Converſations held between him and Mr. Briſtow. I recapitulated what had paſſed with relation to the former Papers remarked on the Minutes of the preceding Council, and renewed the ſame Queſtion, which had been left undetermined. The other Members entered their Opinions, which amounted to a Reſolution, formally paſſed, to ſend to Mr. Briſtow the Charges, but not to revoke the Appointments which he had made.—I proteſted; declared the Inſtructions to be annulled which I had given to Mr. Briſtow, and which had been pronounced a valid Authority for his Acts; requiring the other Members to form other Rules for his Conduct more conſonant to their own Principles.

In the mean Time Mr. Briſtow having Intimation of the Firſt Complaints againſt him, which had been laid before the Board on the 21ſt of April, addreſſed a Letter to the Board, dated the 13th of May, and filled with general Complaints againſt Hyder Beg Cawn, and a ſpecific Charge of having impeded his Endeavours to eſtabliſh a new Plan, which he had formed for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice for the City of Lucknow and the Dominions of Oude. This Letter was received on the 29th of May, but the Board properly agreed to ſuſpend the Conſideration of it till the Receipt of his Reply to the Charges which had been preferred againſt him; and theſe were accordingly tranſmitted to him in a Letter of that Date, which was more than Five Weeks after their Firſt Delivery.

I ſhall detain the Narrative in this Place but to make One brief Obſervation of the Difference of Mr. Macpherſon's Behaviour on this, from that which he ſhewed on a former Occaſion, not very diſſimilar:—When Mr. Johnſon, acting in the Place of Mr. Middleton, was accuſed of having appointed Aumils or Collectors over the Lands aſſigned by the Nabob Vizier for the Payment of the Company's Balance and growing Debt, and of having aſſumed other Acts of Authority which appertained ſolely to the regular Adminiſtration of the Nabob Vizier, I moved the Board to order his immediate Recall, deeming it improper to expoſe a whole Province to Diſorder, and the Credit of the Engliſh Name to Imputation, through a Principle of Delicacy to an Individual, who might have Time and Freedom allowed for his Defence, and, if innocent, might be both effectually acquitted by an Act paſſed at any remote Period of Time, and receive full Compenſation by Appointment to an equal or higher Poſt of Credit. I well remember with what Promptneſs thoſe Sentiments were adopted by Mr. Macpherſon. My Motion was delivered on the 7th of September, in a written Meſſage to the Board, dictated from my Bed, to which I was confined by a ſevere Indiſpoſition. It paſſed unanimouſly on the ſame Day, with Orders correſponding, to Mr. Middleton the Reſident, announcing Mr. Johnſon's Recall; to Mr. Johnſon, requiring his Departure within Forty-eight Hours, on Pain of Arreſt; and to Colonel Morgan, the commanding Officer at Cawnpore, commanding him to ſend Mr. Johnſon a Priſoner to Calcutta, if he exceeded the Time preſcribed. Little more Ceremony was obſerved towards Mr. Middleton, whoſe imputed Miſconduct was the Cauſe of his Removal, though a ſcrupulous Attention to the Orders of the Court of Directors was the Ground of Mr. Briſtow's Appointment to ſucceed him. Theſe were Officers of my own Nomination, and how favoured and ſupported by me, while their Conduct appeared to merit it, the World well knows. When I ſaw Cauſe to change my Opinion of them, and thought their Continuance in Office of a pernicious Tendency to the Company's Intereſts, I moved, and Mr. Macpherſon gave his hearty and unqualified Voice, for their Diſmiſſion, without allowing them an Hour of Grace for Defence, or even for a Reply. But when Mr. Briſtow ſtood charged with the ſame Acts, and other accumulated Offences, Mr. Macpherſon, the Patron of Mr. Briſtow, recommended that, on a Principle of common Juſtice, he ſhould be heard in his Defence; diſcredited the Authority of the Miniſter, which had divulged them; and intimated, I am ſure not on a Principle of common Juſtice, that, during the Proceſs of the Enquiry, Mr. Briſtow's Authority ſhould be rendered effectual, that is, abſolute, and the Miniſter's of courſe annihilated; yet the Miniſter's was the ſame Authority, and the chief, if not only Authority, on which Mr. Johnſon was removed, though that of the Nabob Vizier is added to the Accuſation of Mr. Briſtow, and both his Oath and his Miniſter's tendered in ſupport of them.

That I may not be charged with a Miſconſtruction of Mr. Macpherſon's Words, I will ſubjoin them, in the following Extract of his Minute:

" It is my Opinion, upon a Principle of common Juſtice, as well as from a Regard to the " Company's Regulations, that Copies of the Vizier's Letters, and of thoſe of Hyder Beg " Cawn, containing Complaints againſt Mr. Briſtow, ſhould be immediately ſent to him for his " Information, and to prepare his Defence againſt the Complaints."——" And as the Reſi- " dent is now under heavy Accuſations, probably for a neceſſary Exerciſe of that Power (the " Power of checking the Influence of the Miniſter), ſo it is evident that our Government will " ſtand in Suſpenſe, if it is not rendered (a) effectual at the Court of Oude during theſe Con- " tentions between the acting Miniſter and our Reſident."

On the 23d of June the Board received a Letter from Mr. Briſtow, dated the 13th, and acknowledging the Receipt of the Board's Orders of the 29th, with a Promiſe of a ſpeedy Reply, and a declamatory Recrimination of Hyder Beg Cawn.

The Promiſe contained in this Letter remaining unperformed on the 24th July, I complained to the Board of this Diſreſpect ſhewn to their Authority; and on the next Council Day following, which was the 28th, I moved, " That Mr. Briſtow, for Diſreſpect to the Board, and Diſobedience " of the Orders written to him by the Board on the 29th of May, and acknowledged by him " on the 13th of June, in having to that Time avoided or neglected to reply to the ſame, ſhould " be removed and recalled from his Station and Office at Lucknow."

I alſo moved, " That as the Nabob of Oude, in his Letter received on the 7th of April laſt, " and laid before the Board on the 21ſt of the ſame Month, had deſired that Meſſrs. Briſtow " and Cooper, the actual Reſident and Deputy appointed for the Tranſaction of the Company's " Affairs at his Court, might be recalled from thence, and that he might be allowed the Exerciſe " of diſcretional Power for the Management of his Country, and the Payment of the Company's " Money or Debt; and had engaged, that on theſe Conditions he would pay the full Amount of " whatever ſhould be due to the Company, both of the paſt and growing Debt, in ſuch a Man- " ner as the Board ſhould preſcribe; that the Office of Reſident at the Court of the Nabob of " Oude, with that of the Deputy and other ſubordinate Parts of the ſame Eſtabliſhment, except- " ing the Office of Accomptant, ſhould be diſſolved, and the Nabob of Oude, and his Miniſter " Hyder Beg Cawn, made jointly reſponſible, according to the Terms of their Letters, as ſet " forth in the Extracts ſubjoined to my Minute, for the Payment of the Sums due to the Com- " pany for the preſent and enſuing Year Fuſſulee, ending in September 1784."

Mr. Macpherſon being prevented by Sickneſs from attending at the Board, it was propoſed, and I yielded, to defer the Deciſion of my Queſtion to the next Meeting.

It muſt be remarked that, on the 7th of July, the Board received a Letter from Mr. Briſtow dated the 23d of June, mentioning that he had been ſick, and confined to his Bed ſince the 20th of the ſame Month; and this was pleaded as an Excuſe for his not having yet replied to the Board's Commands of the 29th of May: And on the 28th of July the Secretary informed the Board that he had received another Letter from him, dated the 16th, repeating the ſame Excuſe, with a Promiſe that his Reply ſhould follow on the Morrow, or next Day at fartheſt.

On the 31ſt of July the Board being fully aſſembled, paſſed a decided Negative on my Queſtion, in both the Terms of it. I was a little ſurpriſed to find ſomething like an Accuſation brought againſt myſelf by Mr. Wheler, in an Obſervation made by him in a Minute produced at the Board, ſtating, " that it was improper to ſhift the Ground of the original Charges to Diſreſpect," adding, " that this was of all others the moſt improper Time to leave the Nabob and the Com- " pany to the Mercy of his Miniſters."

I think the Remark uncandid. Nine Weeks had now paſſed ſince the Board had tranſmitted to Mr. Briſtow a Series of Accuſations amounting to the general Charge of his having uſurped the Sovereign Authority of the Subahſhip of Oude, and required his Anſwer to them.—Under a Pretext of a few Days of Sickneſs he had evaded the Reply, and it yet remained a Doubt whether he meant to make one. From the Rumours which had ariſen in the intermediate Time, of approaching Changes in this Government, and the Advantage which Mr. Briſtow was ſaid in his imputed Converſation with Hyder Beg Cawn to have made of them, I did believe, and do believe, that his Object in the Delay was principally to allow Time for the Rumours, if true, to be verified by their Effect, and the Enquiry, or the Severity of it at leaſt, precluded by my Removal from the Government; though it might ſerve for another Purpoſe, which I ſhall ſpeak of hereafter. It is certain that a ſufficient Time had paſſed for Mr. Briſtow to have made his Defence, and for the Board to have received it, had his Sickneſs been ſuch as he repreſented it. In the mean Time he retained the Powers which he had uſurped; the Credit of his Influence was eſtabliſhed, to the

(a) I find, on comparing this Extract with the original Minute, that the Word effectual has been erroneouſly written for ineffectual, which is the Term uſed in the latter. As my Obſervation applied immediately to the Word effectual, I cannot now change it, and this Note will ſuffice to do Juſtice to the Text; nor will it affect the Fidelity of my Obſervation, the Meaning of both Words being conſtructively the ſame; for Mr. Briſtow had required the Removal of Hyder Beg Khaun, on the Plea that he ſhould be unable to diſcharge the Duties of his Station effectually without it, and Mr. Macpherſon's Repetition of the Plea is an Implication of the ſame Concluſion, or it ſtands for nothing.

Diſcourage-

Diſcouragement both of Oppoſition, and of any Evidence which might have been produced againſt him; he was in poſſeſſion of the Privilege which forbids that a Man accuſed ſhall be convicted unheard, with powerful Advocates to maintain it; for even in the Debates of this Day, it was aſſerted in his Favour, and on the Strength of it he might maintain his Ground unmoleſted to any indefinite Period. I have underſtood it to be in many Caſes a Maxim of Law, that if a Man accuſed before a Tribunal competent for his Trial ſhall refuſe to plead to the Accuſation, his Refuſal ſhall be aſſumed to be equivalent to Conviction: It is certainly Contumacy, and as ſuch, applied to the Occaſion and Conſequences of it, it merited both the Puniſhment of the Offender, and that Remedy for the public Diſorders attendant on it which the Board could apply; and theſe were the united Principles and Objects of my Queſtion. Was this a ſhifting of the original Charges; or when theſe were evaded, and the only Alternative that remained was, either to let a Criminal eſcape with Impunity, and divide the Authority which had called on him for his Defence, or to proceed to Judgment againſt him—was it not ſtrictly regular in me to propoſe the latter, and thus, by a decided Act of Government, to remove at once both the Evil and its Author?

Mr. Macpherſon's Objections to the Queſtion were, that he could not condemn Mr. Briſtow unconvicted; that Mr. Briſtow had been ſick, and might have had other Reaſons for the Delay; that he could not conſent to the Abolition of the Reſidency, "and leaving to the Vizier and his "Miniſter the Powers which they required,"—without full Security for the Company's Intereſts, and the Peace of "our Frontiers;" adding a Suggeſtion, which I do not well comprehend, relating to the Re-eſtabliſhment of the French in India.

I ſhall only take notice of that Part of his Minute which relates to Mr. Briſtow's Plea of Sickneſs—I am impelled by a Senſe of Duty, ſuperior to the Conſideration of perſonal Tenderneſs, to declare, that the Plea, even in the Terms of it, is unadmiſſible *, and that I believe it to be almoſt wholly without Foundation. Mr. Briſtow acknowledged the Receipt of the Charges in a Letter dated the 13th of June.—On the 23d of June he wrote to the Board, that he had been ſick, and confined to his Bed ſince the 20th, that is, little more than Two Days; and on the 16th of July he wrote to the Secretary, that his Indiſpoſition had prevented him.—Surely his Indiſpoſition was not ſo violent in all this long Period, but that, with the acknowledged Benefit of One entire Week of Health, he might have found Intervals of Eaſe to finiſh that Part of his Defence which required his perſonal Labour; for, abſtracted from the Copies of the original Papers with which he has connected it, and which were the Work of his official Aſſiſtants, his Defence alone might, in the Judgment of any unbiaſſed Reader, be rated as the Compoſition of a very few Days.—The Expreſſion of Mr. Briſtow's Letter to the Secretary does not convey the Idea of ſevere Sickneſs; and I am glad of it, becauſe I am morally certain that his Sickneſs, whatever it was, was not of ſuch a Kind as to ſerve for the Excuſe to which he has applied it. I will give my Reaſon for this Concluſion:—When Mr. Briſtow's laſt Plea arrived, I aſked Rajah Gobin Ram, the Vakeel of the Nabob Vizier, whether he had heard that Mr. Briſtow was very ill, he anſwered me with ſuch an Air and Tone of Voice as uſually accompany the Expreſſion of common Information, that he had not; and that if Mr. Briſtow had been very ill, he ſhould ſurely have known it.—As my Reply ſeemed to mark a Doubt of his being truly informed, he brought to me, I believe the next Day, an Extract of a Letter from his Correſpondent at Lucknow, which adviſed him of a ſlight Diſorder with which Mr. Briſtow appeared to have been affected in February or March laſt; inferring from thence, that if Mr. Briſtow had been ſeriouſly ill at a later Period, his Correſpondent would not have failed to inform him of it, which he had not done.—Let not Rajah Gobind Ram be the Object of Diſpleaſure to any one for the Uſe which I have made of his Evidence; for to this Hour he knows not the Purpoſe for which it was exacted, nor has, I am certain, a Suſpicion, that in a plain Anſwer to an unimportant Queſtion, he was furniſhing an Argument of perſonal Conſequence to the Gentleman to whom it related.

* Sic in Orig.

On the 11th of Auguſt Mr. Briſtow's long-expected Defence arrived, with a Letter, dated the 30th of July.

It may not be unuſeful, in this Place, to recur to the Documents which contain the Charges againſt him: Theſe will be found at large in the Nabob Vizier's Letters, and in the Letters and other Papers of his Miniſter, Hyder Beg Cawn, which were entered on the Conſultations of the 21ſt of April, and 2d of May. Thoſe of the Nabob Vizier I ſhall here enter at large, referring for the others to the Places in which they regularly ſtand, and to Mr. Briſtow's Tranſcripts of them, annexed to his Defence.

From the Nabob Vizier to the Governor General, Letter the 1ſt: Received the 28th March 1783.

Uſual Introduction.

From the Commencement of the Friendſhip between the late Nawaub and you, and the Gentlemen of the Council, on this Side there has been no Deficiency. In conſequence of the Interchange of Turbans between you and the late Nawaub, I look up to you as the Brother of my Father. My Country and my Dwelling are yours. I have on all Occaſions ſtudied your Pleaſure, and the Satisfaction of the Gentlemen of the Council; you on your Part have ſtill acted with the Duties of Friendſhip and Affection, and I feel and acknowledge the Obligation.

The

The Diſpoſition and Conduct of Mr. Briſtow were formerly known to you. You lately wrote to me, that having included him in the Number of your choſen and ſelect Friends, you had ſent him here; and Major Palmer, agreeable to Inſtructions from you, returned from Cawnpore to Lucknow to adviſe and encourage me. This he did, recommending Attention and Regard to the Inclinations and Satisfaction of Mr. Briſtow.

Mr. Briſtow, at his Firſt Interview, aſſumed the Diſguiſe of Affability and Kindneſs. His Firſt Propoſal was, that I ſhould entruſt him with the Management of my Houſehold: If I would, he ſaid, he would conduct the Buſineſs of that Department in ſuch a Manner as would give infinite Satisfaction.—I replied, that for the Intereſt of the Company's Surcar he had full public Powers, and that I approved of them from my Heart, as the Means of confirming and ſtrengthening the Friendſhip between the Company and me, and that I would comply with every Thing he might propoſe for the Benefit of the Company's Surcar; but that in my Houſehold Concerns there was not any Thing of ſuch Importance as to render it neceſſary to trouble him.

In a few Days he aſſumed a Line of Conduct correſpondent to his Diſpoſition—to attempt a particular and minute Account of it would be vain and fruitleſs. Not One Circumſtance which could be productive of Indignity, Contempt, or the Annihilation of my Authority, has he left unperformed. Shoccahs reſpecting the Regiments and other Matters he has cauſed to be written through Hyder Beg Khaun, without my Knowledge; he has ſent a Suzzawul to Furruckabad contrary to my Inclinations; and is preparing to ſend Suzzawuls to other Places. He has ſtrictly forbade my Miniſters from writing to you on the State of Things, declaring that if any preſumed to write a ſingle Circumſtance of the Tranſactions here to Calcutta, he would call him to a ſevere Account. He ſeht a Meſſage to me, directing me to appoint a Treaſurer and Comptroller of his chuſing; that the Monies from the Mahalauts (a) aſſigned for the Expence of my Houſehold Eſtabliſhments and Domeſtics ſhould be paid in to the above-mentioned Treaſurer and Comptroller, and kept in a ſeparate Houſe allotted to that Purpoſe—that People ſent by him ſhould be ſtationed there for its Protection, and that what was neceſſary ſhould be expended with his Knowledge and under his Direction.

I replied, that every one throughout the whole Empire, from the higheſt to the loweſt, had the Direction of his own Houſehold Eſtabliſhments and Domeſtics; and deſired to know whether he would deprive me of that Authority alſo. He anſwered, that ſuch were the Orders of the Gentlemen of the Council, and he would execute them. I repreſented to him, in the moſt earneſt and forcible Terms, by Meſſage, that this Meaſure could be of no Benefit to him, but that it would cover me with Indignity and Diſhonour in the Eyes of all Mankind; and that it would be ſaid, the Nawaub Vizier was ſo completely diveſted of all Power and Authority, that by the Appointment of a Treaſurer and Comptroller, he had no longer any Command over his own Houſehold Eſtabliſhment and domeſtic Servants. This Meſſage had no Effect: He came to viſit me, and aſked why I entertained Apprehenſions from the Appointment of a Treaſurer and Comptroller; that he propoſed it with a View to the Regulation of my Affairs: (He had ſaid, at firſt, that neither he nor Hyder Beg ſhould have any Concern in the Appointments of the Treaſurer and Comptroller, but that I ſhould appoint whom I thought proper.) I replied, that the Appointments of Treaſurer and Comptroller of my Houſehold would be a Diſgrace to me: After that he propoſed, that I myſelf ſhould take upon me the Management of all my Affairs, and that the Miniſters ſhould be diſmiſſed. As I knew that this Propoſal for the Diſmiſſion of the Miniſters was made with a ſecret View to the full Eſtabliſhment of his own Authority, in order to ſound his Intentions I obſerved, that in the Time of Mohtaur ul Dowlah ſimilar Converſations had paſſed between us, and that when I wanted to do it he himſelf protected him. He replied, that I might now do whatever I thought proper with reſpect to the Miniſters, that he would give it under his Hand and Seal, that they ſhould not receive Protection either from him or from the Gentlemen of the Council. I ſaid, that the Miniſters had hitherto committed no Crime worthy of Diſmiſſion; but that I wiſhed he would give up the intended Appointments of Comptroller and Treaſurer. He replied, that he had Orders to that Purport, and that it was not in his Power. Here the Converſation ended.

Again he repeated his Meſſage for the Appointment of the Treaſurer and Comptroller; I ſaid, in Anſwer, that the Jagheers of my Parents, my Relations, my Friends, and my Officers, were all ſequeſtered, that they had no Means of Subſiſtence, and that it was my Wiſh to admit them all to a Participation in the little which remained to me, but that he would not permit even that; that he threw a Cord about my Neck to prevent my eating my Morſel in Eaſe and Comfort; that the Miſeries of my Friends, Relations, and Jagheerdars, filled me with the deepeſt Diſtreſs; to that he added theſe Diſquietudes: And * intreated him for God's Sake to leave me at reſt.

* Sic in Orig.

He again viſited me in Perſon, ſaying, "I deſire you to appoint a Treaſurer and Comptroller; "your Highneſs refuſes to acquieſce. To-day I tell you plainly, that my Orders are peremptory; "that whether you may be pleaſed or diſpleaſed, I will at all Events appoint a Comptroller and a "Treaſurer, will call in the Money from the Jaguidaads (b), and will iſſue it under my own Au- "thority, for the Expences of your Houſehold." I replied, "Whatever you may propoſe for "the Benefit of the Company's Surcar, I am ready to acquieſce; but to an Arrangement of my "Houſehold, ſo diſgraceful and pernicious, I alſo will never agree: I will not conſent to be de-

(a) Aſſigned Lands. (b) Literally Aſſets. It here means Aſſignments.

"prived

" prived of my proper Authority, and to receive from your Hand the Subſiſtence for my domeſ-
" tic Servants, and the Animals of my Houſehold."—" If your Orders are peremptory, give to " me a Copy of the Orders of the Gentlemen of the Council—My Seal is forthcoming, I will
" ſend it to you, and you may do by Violence whatever you may think proper.—I will ſhut up
" the Doors of my Houſe—there I will ſit, and ſeclude myſelf from all Society." He replied, it was well—he would give me a written Copy of the Orders from the Gentlemen of the Council, I might ſend my Seal: He would at all Events execute the Meaſure.—He then roſe, and retired.

For Two Days repeatedly I ſent my Seal to him by the Mowluvvee, that he might do whatever he thought proper; and then he ſaid, that if I would not affix my Seal voluntarily, my Seal was unneceſſary: He would ſend Letters under his own Seal, and would himſelf appoint a Treaſurer; to which I returned no Anſwer. Accordingly the Tunkhaw Monies which came in he delivered to Mr. Cooper, and Mr. Cooper appointed a Man named Dechait to the Office of Treaſurer.

Whatever he chuſes to have written to any one, he cauſes Drafts of the Shoccahs to be made out by his own Moonſhee, and ſends them by Shaick Shuffee Ullah. Sheik Shuffee Ullah's Kiſtmutgar cauſes them to be written by my Moonſhee, and having cauſed my Seal alſo to be affixed to them, carries them away. Hence you may form a Judgment of the Extent of my Authority, and of that of my Miniſters.

He brought forward and carried into Execution a Reduction of the Troops, and that too even without conſulting me even as a common Siriſhtedar (a). He threatens my Miniſters, telling them to act as he directs, otherwiſe he will cauſe them to be turned out of their Offices. The Miniſters, influenced by the Terror of this Menace, obey him; and this he conſtrues into the Management of Affairs with the Advice and Approbation of the Miniſters of my Surcar.

The whole City, and many of the Gentlemen here, are acquainted with the Indignities I ſuffer. My Situation, my Friend, although I am every way devoted to your Pleaſure, is wretched beyond Meaſure. My Friends and my Relations, the Jagheerdars, and the Officers of my Government, are ſtarving. By Enquiry inform yourſelf of the actual Situations of theſe People. Such is my own Condition, that Mr. Briſtow throttles me, as it were, in order to force the Morſel from my Mouth.

I am made wretched to extreme by this Conduct of Mr. Briſtow. If you will give me Leave, and write to me to that Purport, I will come to you. Allow me not to be rendered contemptible in this Country, where we have lived for Three Generations in Honour and Proſperity. I will come to you, and I will make no Complaints; either do this, or deliver me from the Hand of this Man. I am devoted to your Pleaſure; I will not object to any Thing. Whatever you may direct, agreeably to that I will act. If you are ſolicitous to promote my Proſperity, confer upon me diſcretional Power over my Country, and for the Payment of the Monies to the Company. By heaping theſe Miſeries and Indignities upon me, Mr. Briſtow has engaged for the Payment of certain Sums. After obtaining a perfect Knowledge of my Situation, whatever may be the Mode on which you ſhall determine, be pleaſed to inform me thereof, and I will cauſe the Monies to be paid to you through the Hands of my Miniſters. If any Deficiency or Default of Payment ſhall ariſe, do, on the Inſtant, whatever you ſhall think proper. In freeing me from theſe Indignities, you will procure a laſting Reputation on yourſelf.

Concludes as uſual.

P. S. In the Nawaub Vizier's own Hand.

My Diſtreſſes, my Friend, exceed all Bounds. This is the Time for Kindneſs and generous Affection. I entreat that I may either obtain my Requeſt, or that you will call me to you.

From the Nabob Vizier to the Governor General, Second Letter: Received the 7th of April 1783.

Uſual Introduction.

I have already informed you fully of the Perſecutions and Indignities I have ſuffered from the Hands of Mr. Briſtow. The Contumely and Deprivation of Authority which I experience at his Hands, are redoubled daily. I am every way diſpoſed to fulfil your Pleaſure. The Payment of the Company's Demands I conſider as an Object ſuperior to all others, and wiſh to diſcharge them in Preference to every other Appropriation.

I entreat you, by Enquiry, to make yourſelf acquainted with the Conduct of Mr. Briſtow. The Meaſures on which he has determined, and which he is carrying into Execution, cannot, I am certain, correſpond with your Sentiments and Intentions towards me, or with thoſe of the Gentlemen of the Council.

He declares that the Government of this Country is his by Right, for that he has brought Orders or Authority from Europe; that he will take the entire Management of it into his own Hands, and with his own Hand give what is to be given. It is his Intention to reduce me to the State of a Servant dependant upon him. I am oppreſſed to the laſt Extremity, and my Life is become a Burthen to me.

(a) The Head of an Office.

I am

I am ready and willing to pay the Company's Monies. I entreat, as a Favour, that you will recall Mr. Briſtow and Mr. Cooper, and permit me the Exerciſe of diſcretional Power for the Management of my Country, and the Payment of the Company's Monies. I will cauſe Payment of thoſe Monies to be made through the Hands of my Miniſter, in the Manner hereafter mentioned:

That is to ſay, Whereas Mr. Briſtow has declined taking Bills from the (a) Mahajens, for the Balance of Teeps, for 26 Lacks given by them; and has taken the Jauidauds aſſigned to thoſe Mahajeries into his own Hands, and declared that he himſelf will collect the Amount, and remit it to the Company's Treaſury; the Truth of which you may aſcertain from the Mahajens, who have given Teeps, and who declare themſelves ready to grant Bills for the ſame, if put in poſſeſſion of the Jauidauds originally aſſigned to them. When your Orders, eſtabliſhing my Authority for the Management of my Country, and the Payment of the Monies, ſhall arrive, and Mr. Briſtow and Mr. Cooper be recalled from hence, I will procure Bills to be granted by thoſe Mahajens, to the Amount of the Balance of the Teeps, and tranſmit them to you; and whatever Sums may remain due on the Bills for 26 Lacks, granted by Gopaul Doſs Sâhoo, from whom Mr. Briſtow has taken, by Violence, my Miniſter's Tummuſſook (b), and ſubſtituted his own in the Place thereof, I will take back Mr. Briſtow's Tummuſſook from the Gomahtahs of the aforementioned Sâhoo, and cauſe it to be returned to Mr. Briſtow; and for what ſhall remain due to the ſaid Sâhoo, I will cauſe ſuch good and ſubſtantial Securities to be given to his ſaid Gomahtahs on the Spot, that no Cauſe for Suſpicion or Doubt ſhall remain; and with reſpect to the preſent Year Fuſſuly (c) 1190, and the Jâdauds for the Company's Money ſettled and received by Mr. Briſtow, and for the Amount of which he has taken Tummuſſooks from the Aumils of the ſaid Jâudauds, let him be directed to deliver up the Tummuſſooks of the ſaid Aumils to me, and whatever Sums may remain due from the ſaid Jâudauds, and payable by the ſaid Aumils, the ſame ſhall be remitted to you in Bills, Kiſt by Kiſt, by my Miniſters; and whatever Sums you ſhall direct to be paid here from the Amount thereof, for the Uſe of the Company's Troops, the ſame ſhall be paid here Monthly, to the commanding Officer of the Troops.

And for the enſuing Year 1191 Fuſſully, whatever Plan or Mode you ſhall be pleaſed to dictate and determine, that Plan or Mode, on your informing me thereof, ſhall be received, and ſtrictly followed. I will not object to or heſitate to fulfil your Pleaſure in any Reſpect whatever. If you will pleaſe, as a Mark of your Friendſhip, to recall Mr. Briſtow and Mr. Cowper, and confer on me diſcretional Authority for the Management of my Country, and for the Payment of the Company's Monies, with God's Aſſiſtance I will cauſe thoſe Monies to be furniſhed and remitted by my Miniſters. Agreeably to what I have written, if any Defect or Deficiency ſhall happen, you will, on the Inſtant, take whatever Meaſures you ſhall think proper.

Concludes as uſual.

In the Nawaub's Vizier's own Hand:

I hope my Friend, from your Kindneſs, that I ſhall be delivered from theſe Diſtreſſes, and obtain my Requeſt.

The Allegations of the preceding Letters, and of thoſe of Hyder Beg Cawn, in which they are more fully detailed, if reduced to diſtinct and formal Charges, will ſtand as follows.

1ſt. That Mr. Briſtow had aſſumed an abſolute Power in the Adminiſtration of the Affairs of the Nabob Vizier, appropriating, or endeavouring to appropriate, to himſelf all the Offices of Government; taking all the public Accounts under his own Charge; diſmiſſing and appointing the Aumils or Officers of the Collections; receiving and iſſuing the public Money of the Nabob's State; and performing other Acts appertaining ſolely to the Sovereignty of the Nabob Vizier, or to the Authority delegated by him, ſome without the Knowledge, and ſome againſt the Conſent, of the Nabob Vizier.

2d. That he had aſſumed the Inſpection and Controul of the Nabob's private Expences and domeſtic Arrangements, not only without his Conſent, but againſt his Entreaties and vehement Proteſtations.

3d. That he had demanded and attempted, by Threats of Diſmiſſion from Office, to extort from the Miniſter, Hyder Beg Cawn, a Contribution of 25 Lacks of Rupees from his private Fortune.

4th. That he had compelled the Miniſter to write and iſſue Shoccahs, or Mandates, under the Nabob Vizier's Privy Seal, without the Knowledge of the Nabob Vizier.

5th. That he had treated the Nabob with perſonal Indignity and Inſult, viſiting him for the declared Purpoſe of making Declarations to the Nabob of his Reſolution to aſſume the Controul of his Adminiſtration, and uſing harſh and unbecoming Language in his Preſence; and treating, in Converſation with the Miniſter, the Nabob Vizier's Remonſtrances and Fears with Deriſion, calling them Tricks and Artifices.

6th. That he had forcibly aſſembled the Nabob Vizier's Mutteſuddies, or official Servants, at his own Houſe, detaining them there Eight Days, and compelling them to prepare Muſter Rolls of the Nabob's Mutayena, or Militia Forces; that he had afterwards diſbanded 4,000 Horſe and (a) Bankers. (b) Bond. (c) The Fuſſuly Year begins on the 14th of September.

7,000 Foot of the ſaid Troops, declaring his Intention of raiſing Sepoys for the Nabob's Service in their Room: And that theſe Acts and Declaration were made without the Authority of the Nabob Vizier, either obtained or ſolicited.

7th. That he had appointed a Trooper, named Mahomed Beg, a Sezawul or Comptroller of Furruckabad, in direct Oppoſition to the Nabob's Repreſentations, and compelled the Miniſter to iſſue the Shoocka, or Vizier's Mandate, for the Appointment.

8th. That, excluſive of the Revenues aſſigned for the Debt of the Company, Mr. Briſtow had prohibited the Diſpoſal of the Remainder, thereby precluding the Penſioners, Jagheerdars, Officers, Troops, and Servants of the Nabob Vizier from the Means of Subſiſtence, to the Diſgrace of the Nabob Vizier, and the Danger of his State.

9th. That for all the preceding and other Acts, performed or attempted by Mr. Briſtow, he had affirmed that he had * poſſeſſed written Orders from myſelf, and from the Governor General and Council.

* Sic in Orig.

10th. That on the Demand made by the Nabob Vizier for a Copy of Mr. Briſtow's Orders for aſſuming the Controul of his Houſehold, he promiſed to deliver to the Nabob the ſame in Writing, which Promiſe he never performed; and that he had in like Manner promiſed to write to the Governor General the Nabob Vizier's Objections to that Interference, and Requeſt to be freed from the ſame, which Promiſe he never performed.

11th. To theſe Charges Mr. Briſtow has himſelf added One more in his Letter to the Board, dated the 13th of May, namely, that he had attempted to carry into Execution a Plan for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and had inveſted Mr. Cowper with extraordinary and undefined Powers for receiving Complaints from the Subjects of the Nabob Vizier, and ſuperſcribing them with Orders in the Stile of Mandates from the Nabob Vizier for the Redreſs of the Complainants.

I paſs over other Charges which are either in themſelves leſs culpable, or ſuch as may derive their Criminality from the Claims which I poſſeſs to Mr. Briſtow's Reſpect of my Authority, or to his perſonal Gratitude.——The Liberties which have been taken with my Character by my former Opponents in Office, the contumelious Terms which have been uſed by the Court of Directors in almoſt all their Letters written in a long Courſe of Years to this Government, the Wounds which have been inflicted on my official Influence even by the ſame Men, the Truſtees of the Company, and of the national Intereſts in India, and even in the moſt deſperate State of their Affairs, while they called upon me for my particular Exertions for their Retrieval, will afford Mr. Briſtow a Sanction in the Opinions of many, for every Declaration or Artifice uſed by him, or imputed to him, which had the Deſtruction of my Influence or Authority for its Object.—On theſe Points I ſhall let the original Charges and Mr. Briſtow's Defence ſtand uncommented, and make their own Impreſſion.

I regret that the Mode in which the Charges preferred againſt Mr. Briſtow were tranſmitted to him renders it difficult to follow the Order in which I have arranged them, or any other, in the Examination of his Defence.—I could not preſcribe a better Mode, nor could I have propoſed it without expoſing myſelf to Miſconſtructions.—I muſt therefore follow Mr. Briſtow's Defence, as he has applied it to the correſpondent Parts of Hyder Beg Cawn's Firſt Letter, which appears to me to comprize the whole of it.—One Thing I own ſurprizes me; which is, that though the Nabob Vizier has been loud in his Complaints, and is the only relative Subject of Mr. Briſtow's Guilt or Innocence, in the immediate Effects of the Acts on which they depend, Mr. Briſtow paſſes them either wholly without Reply, or with Remarks which are wholly foreign from his own Acquittal, and confines himſelf with a ſtudied Adherence to the Firſt Letter of Hyder Beg Cawn.

Perhaps it will be expected, that I ſhould firſt take notice of Mr. Briſtow's Letter which accompanies his Defence.—Upon this I can ſay but little: When it was read at the Board, I liſtened to it with more than common Attention, expecting it to contain the principal Ground of his Juſtification; and was a little mortified, that in the Firſt Pages of it I could catch nothing which I could ſubſtantially apply either to his Acquittal or Condemnation; nothing that I could either admit or refute; but an Elegance of Style exceeding by infinite Degrees the Talents of its oſtenſible Writer; a characteriſtic Prudence and Delicacy of Expreſſion, which, avoiding the Terms both of Affirmation and Denial, gently touched on both, and left ſuch an Impreſſion on my Mind as, had I not wholly confined my Attention to the Expectation of Information, would have diſarmed me of the moſt painful of the Senſations which had been excited by what I already knew too well of the general Subject.

To whomſoever Mr. Briſtow is indebted for this Compoſition, it is certainly not his own.—Combining the Date of his Letter to the Board, which beſpoke the Forbearance of his Delays, with the Length of Time requiſite for his original Draft, or whatever Materials were furniſhed for the Subſtance of the Letter, to arrive in Calcutta; for the Compoſition of the Letter, or for its Correction; and for its Tranſmiſſion to Lucknow, and final Diſpatch to Calcutta, altogether comprehending the exact Space of Thirty-ſeven Days;—I believe it to have been the Work, I mean either in the Compoſition or Correction, of a very diſtant Hand.—I owe it in Candour to the the Perſon on whom my Conjectures have fixed it, to declare that I attribute it to Mr. Macpherſon.

I ſhall now examine Mr. Briſtow's Replies to the Firſt Letter of Hyder Beg Cawn, received the 28th Day of March.

In the firſt Paragraph he uſes this Expreſſion: "I have unremittingly perſevered in exerting my "Services for the Benefit of both Sircars."

Profeſſions of this Kind are ſeldom taken literally; but Mr. Briſtow ſeizes it as an Inſtrument for diſcrediting Hyder Beg Cawn's Evidence in all his Aſſertions, becauſe he ſays, "the Articles "of the Treaty of Chunar are without Exception to this Hour in the ſame Forwardneſs, with "reſpect to their Accompliſhment, as they were on the 23d of September 1781, or on the Day "of the Ratification."—I do not know what Article of the Treaty of Chunar does remain unaccompliſhed.—It is certain that the principal Article, which related to the Reſumption of the Jagheers, was accompliſhed; for the Jagheers were not only reſumed, but they were inſerted in Mr. Briſtow's own Accounts as making Part of the laſt Year's Aſſignments, granted or taken for the Diſcharge of the Company's Balance.—It is certain, therefore, that Mr. Briſtow has in this Inſtance hazarded an Aſſertion which his own Evidence has refuted: Yet I do not think that even his own Example would warrant his Opponent in calling it "a Declaration that carries Falſe-"hood in the Face of it," in applying to it the Terms of "the moſt unbluſhing Confidence,"—and, "an utter Contempt of Truth," or in affirming that "it is ſufficient to deſtroy at once all "Opinion of his Veracity." While Mr. Briſtow yields to the Impulſe of ſo unguarded a Malevolence, in arraigning the Character of another, he ought at leaſt to be careful not to furniſh Weapons for wounding his own. I ſhould not have caſt away a Moment's Attention on ſo frivolous an Argument, but that Mr. Briſtow ſeems to have reſted upon it as the principal Ground of his Defence; aſſerting univerſally, on the Strength of it, his Right to implicit Belief, on the Credit of his own Veracity, and the aſſumed Falſehood of Hyder Beg Cawn.

—In the Second Paragraph, Hyder Beg Cawn accounts for his paſt Silence on the Subject of his actual Complaints, by aſcribing it to "the ſtrict Injunctions of Mr. Briſtow, that no "one "ſhould preſume to inform this Government of the State of Affairs here," that is, at Lucknow;—to this Charge Mr. Briſtow applies the full Face* of the Poſition eſtabliſhed in the preceding Paragraph. His Words are ſo remarkable, that any Comment upon them would but weaken their Impreſſion: I ſhall therefore quote them at large.—"This, Gentlemen, is alſo an "Aſſertion without Proof: I crave Permiſſion to oppoſe it by a flat Denial; and in Addition to "what I have ſaid in the preceding Article, I beg it may be remembered, that I have never yet "been convicted of deliberate Falſehood."

2d Para.

* Sic in Orig.

With reſpect to the Charge itſelf, it muſt be admitted, that it is, if true, capable of poſitive Proof, were there any Power on the Spot competent to collect the Evidence of it; and that Hyder Beg has not offered to produce any Proof of it. But neither does it appear that it was intended as a criminal Charge, but rather as an Excuſe for Forbearance; nor that it was the Deſign either of the Miniſter, or of his Maſter, to convey in their Letters more than the Repreſentation of Facts: The Proofs in this, as in every Inſtance of the like Nature, were regularly to follow in the Proceſs of Enquiry, inſtituted on the Reception of the Charges. Yet I can myſelf afford a preſumptive Proof in ſupport of it, which is, that all Intercourſe between the Court of Lucknow and myſelf had certainly ceaſed ſince Mr. Briſtow's Arrival, unleſs it may be affirmed to have ſubſiſted in a very few Letters of mere Form, or in an Application for Bramins to be ſent to the Nabob, who were ſkilled in the Art of inoculating. I can poſitively vouch for the Effect, whatever Cauſe may have produced it; nor can I deviſe any other, unleſs it can be ſuppoſed that the Nabob and his Miniſter had early conceſted† this Plan of Reſerve, for the Purpoſe of aſcribing it to Mr. Briſtow; a Suppoſition inconſiſtent with itſelf, as it ſtates an Effect of Reſentment preceding the Ground of Injury.—This Paragraph conſiſts of Profeſſion on one Side, and of Denial and Invective on the other. They require no other Comment.

3d Para.

4th Para.—This claims a different Notice. Hyder Beg Cawn accuſes Mr. Briſtow, firſt of an early Declaration of his Intention to aſſume the immediate and entire Charge of the Nabob's Adminiſtration, in moſt of the Terms comprehended in the 1ſt Article of the Charges which I have prefixedto this Examination; and, ſecondly, of attempting to extort from him 25 Lacks of Rupees of his own private Property, which is the 3d Article of my Charges. To the Firſt Point Mr. Briſtow replies, that it is a vague and unſupported Aſſertion, marked by its Abſurdity, contradicted by Fact, and requiring no other Refutation.—I muſt differ in this Concluſion: If the Charge is contradicted by Fact, it is capable of Refutation; and the Fact ought to have been produced with its Evidence, to refute it. Plain Aſſertion and Denial are not Refutation.

4th Para.

On the 2d Charge he dwells with a ſtranger Emphaſis, affirming it to be an abſolute Falſehood in Terms, ſtating the Fact to which it relates in contradiction of it; and concluding with a declamatory Antitheſis on the Defeat of his Antagoniſt, a Commendation of his own Moderation, and an Expreſſion of Regret, that the public Intereſts had ſuffered by his too ſcrupulous Adherence to it. I ſhall only examine the Fact which he calls "a moſt ſimple Tranſaction." Hyder Beg Cawn's State of the Claim made on him by Mr. Briſtow, is expreſſed in theſe Words: "Therefore I muſt give Five-and-twenty Lacks of Rupees from my own private Property, to "enable "enable him to pay the Troops, Houſehold Eſtabliſhment, and Jagheerdars." Mr. Briſtow affirms it to be "abſolutely falſe," or, in other Words, that he did not require of Hyder Beg Cawn "that he muſt give Five-and-twenty Lacks of Rupees from his own private Property," &c. I propoſed, ſays he, "to the Miniſter, to aſſiſt Government with a Loan from his own "Fortune, or upon his Credit; obſerving, that it was incumbent on thoſe who derived Advan-"tages from their public Station to prove their Zeal for the State, by uniformly exerting them-"ſelves to relieve its Diſtreſſes."—The palliating Terms, I propoſed, and to aſſiſt Government, will not change the Quality or Identity of the Fact. A Propoſal to aſſiſt with a Loan, connected with a Declaration that it was incumbent on him to yield to it, is a Demand; and is exactly the ſame in Subſtance, though differing, and but little, in Expreſſion, from Hyder Beg's State of the Fact, which Mr. Briſtow affirms to be abſolutely falſe. As to the qualifying Offer, which Mr. Briſtow ſays he made, "of employing his Influence with the Bankers, to procure a "Sum equal to what it might be in his Power to advance," I do not comprehend either the Generoſity or Object of it. If Hyder Beg Cawn was able to advance the Sum which the Bankers were to be influenced to lend, there ſeems to be little Occaſion for the Uſe of any Influence for ſuch a Purpoſe, ſince there would be in that Caſe no Occaſion for the Loan; and in whatever Senſe the Offer was made, it was certainly meant that Hyder Beg was to make the Advance. Therefore it is fully proved, that Mr. Briſtow did require of Hyder Beg Cawn that he muſt give Five-and-twenty Lacks of Rupees from his own private Property. Mr. Briſtow will not, I hope, avail himſelf of the Diſtinction which the Forms of Speech will afford him, between the Terms of Gift and Loan, ſince it is as notorious, from the State of the Nabob Vizier's Reſources, and the Demands upon them, as it evidently follows, from the Reaſon aſſigned for the Demand, that they were in that Caſe ſynonymous. As Mr. Briſtow has aſſigned no other Ground for this extraordinary Tranſaction, but that Hyder Beg, as a Servant of the State, ought to prove his Zeal for it, and that it had for its ſole Object the Service of the Public; and as there is not a Syllable in my Inſtructions that can warrant, by the moſt diſtant Conſtruction, ſuch a Violation of the Principles of common Juſtice, I do pronounce it to be a moſt flagitious Abuſe of his public Truſt, aggravated by his Concealment of it from the Knowledge of the Board.

Paragraph 5th.—This contains the Subſtance of the 4th and 9th Charges. Hyder Beg Cawn affirms, that Mr. Briſtow required him to write and iſſue a Shooka or Mandate, in the Name of the Nabob Vizier, without the Vizier's Knowledge; "aſſerting, that he had it in Command "from the Governor General and Gentlemen of the Council, to act as he ſhould deem proper, "without waiting to inform the Nabob, or allowing his Meaſures to depend on his Highneſs's "Pleaſure or Diſpleaſure."

To this Mr. Briſtow replies, that it is moſt true, that the Shooka in queſtion was written without the Knowledge of the Vizier: But that it is as true, that it was written by the Miniſter alone; and adds, that in the Inſtance of the Aſſignment in favour of the Toorkſawaurs Hyder Beg had practiſed the ſame Forgery, and had iſſued Shookas unknown to the Vizier. What follows muſt be repeated in Mr. Briſtow's own Words: "When I underſtood this to have been "the Caſe, I ſeverely cenſured his Behaviour; explaining to him withal the Abhorrence with "which Acts of this Nature were regarded by the Natives of Europe; and warning him, that "ſhould you ever be advertiſed of the Tranſaction, he would aſſuredly fall under your heavieſt "Diſpleaſure; and that my Silence would depend upon his religiouſly obſerving my Injunctions "againſt a Repetition of ſuch unwarrantable Conduct." Had Mr. Briſtow ſtopped here, ſo pointed a Denial would at leaſt have left the Credit of the Fact in Suſpenſe; and the Prejudice with which every Engliſhman views a Conteſt between One of his own Countrymen, and a Native of Hindoſtan, would have affixed to it a general Impreſſion equivalent to a full Refutation. But Mr. Briſtow, unfortunately for his own Safety, purſues his Victory with too great Precipitation into a Field of Argument which turns the Defeat on himſelf. "You, however, Gentlemen," he adds, "will judge how well this affected Delicacy, with reſpect to the Application of the Na-"bob's Seal, accords with his being in actual Poſſeſſion of it for Years, with a diſcre-"tionary Power alſo, as he pretends, freely granted him by his Maſter, to uſe it as he ſhould "ſee fit. Under this Sanction he has ſince reigned with the moſt unbounded Authority over "the Territories of Aſſof ul Dowlah, and in commanding he has ruined them." But if this is a Fact of ſuch Notoriety, as is implied by * alluſive Conſtruction of the Sentence which introduces the Mention of it, nor is it eaſy to conceive how ſuch a Fact could have exiſted for Years without Notoriety, and if under this Sanction (that is, by uſing the Nabob's Seal without his Knowledge) the Miniſter had reigned with the moſt unbounded Authority, and ruined the Country, it will ſeem very extraordinary that Mr. Briſtow ſhould have felt ſuch Sentiments of Abhorrence on the Detection of a few recent Inſtances of it, and iſſued ſuch peremptory Injunctions againſt a Repetition of it, on Pain of the heavieſt Diſpleaſure of our Government. If Mr. Briſtow believed that the Miniſter poſſeſſed the Nabob's Authority for the diſcretionary Uſe of his Seal, it was an Abſurdity in Terms to charge him with Criminality for uſing it. If he knew that the Miniſter did not poſſeſs that Authority, but knew, as he certainly muſt have known, that the Miniſter had been in the Practice of this Guilt for Years, his Indignation would have been excited by the Falſehood of the Miniſter's Plea of the Neceſſity of applying to the Vizier for his Authority to uſe his Seal, and to iſſue the Shooka. As a Corrector of Abuſes, he could not have failed to make this the firſt Object of his Reformation; but by his Relation of the Caſe, he appears to have ſuffered the long and uninterrupted Continuance of it without Reproach or Notice, and ſuddenly it appears not on what Provocation reprobates it as a Crime regarded with Abhorrence by all the Natives of Europe, and denounces the ſevereſt Judgment and Penalties againſt the Repetition of it.

But what were the Occaſions in which the Nabob's Seal and Mandates were thus fraudulently uſed?—It appears from Mr. Briſtow's own Account, in various Parts of his Correſpondence with Hyder Beg Cawn and the Nabob Vizier, and even his Letters to the Board, that it was for the Purpoſe of carrying Two Points, which Mr. Briſtow himſelf had at heart, and firſt urged to the Miniſter, namely, to call for the Aſſiſtance of Regiments of the Company's Forces, and to conſtitute new Aſſignments for the Payment of the Nabob's Houſehold Troops; Two Points, to which he knew the Nabob Vizier would object, if they had been propoſed to him; and which form Part of the Charges preferred by Mr. Briſtow himſelf againſt Hyder Beg Cawn, for his Oppoſition to them. Is it poſſible that Hyder Beg Cawn, charged by Mr. Briſtow with ſo perſevering a Determination to thwart him in all his Meaſures, and availing himſelf of his Aſcendency over the Nabob Vizier to that Effect, ſhould have committed ſo flagrant an Encroachment on the Nabob's Sovereign Rights, for the ſake of carrying into Execution the Meaſures of Mr. Briſtow, of which he himſelf diſapproved, and which he had himſelf oppoſed; that he ſhould hazard the Commiſſion of an Act ſo repugnant to his Intereſt and Credit with his Maſter, and yet ſuppreſs the Knowledge of it from Mr. Briſtow himſelf, with whom he had an undoubted Title to ſome Merit in the Sacrifice? It is impoſſible; for I affirm that ſuch a Conduct is without Example in the whole Hiſtory of Human Nature. Were extraneous Proofs wanting, in default of inherent Conviction, the Letters written to Mr. Briſtow by Hyder Beg Cawn, in which repeated Alluſions are made to his having, in obedience to Mr. Briſtow's Orders, iſſued Shookas with the Nabob's Seal, unknown to the Nabob, are of themſelves undeniable Evidences of the Fact, for Mr. Briſtow admits them without a Denial; though it will appear, on the Peruſal of his Letters, that he dwells with Repetition on other Matters of infinitely leſs relative Moment, and paſſes, without a Word of Exculpation or Reply, the Imputation of an Act to which he affixes every Idea of Horror in his Application of it to another.

Paragraph 6th.—This Paragraph contains the Particulars of the Second Charge. It ſtates, that Mr. Briſtow began by an Order to the Miniſter to deliver to him the Accounts of the Vizier's Kitchen, his Horſes, Elephants, and Camels; that on the Miniſter's Heſitation to comply with a Demand ſo unuſual and offenſive to his Maſter, Mr. Briſtow inſiſted, with Anger, and ſaid, "I have Orders to take poſſeſſion of all Papers;" that the Miniſter, on this Information, complied; that Mr. Briſtow proceeded to the Appointment of a Treaſurer and Comptroller of the Nabob Vizier's Houſehold, firſt propoſing it to the Vizier himſelf by Meſſage, and afterwards in Perſon; that the Nabob Vizier objected, and proteſted againſt the Appointments, and againſt Mr. Briſtow's Interference in his private Expences; that the Nabob, unable to prevail on Mr. Briſtow himſelf, deputed the Miniſter to entreat him to deſiſt from this Purpoſe, to aſk him why he thus perſecuted and depreſſed him; adding, the little which falls to my Lot, even that he will not allow me to eat in Peace and Quietneſs; that this Declaration was accompanied by Tears of Anguiſh. Mr. Briſtow's Anſwer to this Meſſage, and his Reflections on the State of Miſery and Humiliation to which he had reduced the Nabob, if they have been fairly ſtated, are equally an Outrage to Decency and Humanity. I will not debaſe my Mind with the Drudgery of tranſcribing ſo foul a Subject, nor attempt to abridge what ought, for our national Credit, to be alike conſigned to Oblivion. The Readers of this Minute will be furniſhed with the ſame Means of reading both the original Repreſentation, and Mr. Briſtow's Reply; and it will not be difficult for a Mind accuſtomed to Repreſentations, written under the Influence of Intereſt, Pride, or Malevolence, to decompoſe the Subſtance of each, and ſeparate the Truth from the groſſer Matters which invelope it. It is ſufficient to my Subject to mention, that both the Nabob's Prayers and the Interceſſion of the Miniſter were alike unavailing. Mr. Briſtow not only inſiſted on the Appointments which he had recommended, but went himſelf to the Vizier for the Purpoſe, as he is ſaid to have declared, of telling him ſo Face to Face, and in plain Terms; ſaying, "that his Orders from the Gentlemen of the Council "were peremptory." The Nabob is aſſerted to have demanded a written Copy of the Orders; to have bidden him take his Seal, and do by Force what he thought proper; and to have declared in the Agony of his Feelings, and the conſcious Shame of his Degradation, that he would confine himſelf within his Apartments, and exclude himſelf from all Society. Mr. Briſtow promiſed to give the Nabob a Copy of his Orders; but remained inflexible to his Point, declaring his Reſolution to iſſue his own Orders to the Aumils for the Delivery of their Collections, if the Nabob continued to refuſe the Authority of his Shookas; and that he would keep the Treaſury, that is, the Treaſury of the Nabob's private Expences, in his own Hands. I again refer to the original Letter, and add my earneſt Intreaties, that the candid Readers of this Minute will take their Information from that, and not from this brief and very imperfect State of it, or rather Alluſion to it.

I proceed to Mr. Briſtow's Reply.—By the introductory Quotation of my Inſtructions, it would appear that he avows the Charge, and juſtifies it by his preſcribed Duty. This Quotation conſiſts ſiſts of Extracts from my Inſtructions to Mr. Middleton, the preceding Reſident, and from thoſe which were perſonally directed to Mr. Briſtow on his Appointment.

The plain Deſign and expreſs Charge of both was, that the Sum allotted for the Nabob's private Expences ſhould be paid in equal Monthly Inſtallments, and be allowed a Preference to every other Demand: It was dictated with a Spirit as oppoſite to Mr. Briſtow's Application, as the ☞ wideſt Extremes of Nature. [It made a Part of a general Injunction to treat the Nabob with every poſſible Delicacy, Conciliation, and Attention; and was written purely from the Apprehenſion of a Deficiency in the public Funds not admitting the full Payment of the Company's juſt Claims, and the Calls of his perſonal and neceſſary Wants; and may I add, without the Hazard of drawing on myſelf a ſevere Cenſure from ſuch of my Conſtituents as ſhall think that, in the Time of their Diſtreſſes, my firſt and excluſive Care ſhould be given to their Relief, than that of having authorized the Deprivation of an unhappy Prince, whoſe Alliance had ſubjected him to a ſervile Dependance on the Power of this Government, that it was my Intention to preclude the Operation of ſuch a Plea, by directing that the Nabob's perſonal Share of his own Finances ſhould be fully allotted to him, although the Company's Debt remained wholly in Balance. Let me be judged with Candour. Our Alliance has proved the Extinction of his Sovereignty, and the Impoveriſhment of his Country and Revenue; and it was but juſt to allow him the Means of Subſiſtence, if no more remained of the Reſources of his Inheritance.] (a)

I cannot ſuppreſs a Spark of Reſentment in repeating Mr. Briſtow's Application of my Inſtructions in the Words immediately following his Quotation of them:—"Theſe are the Grounds, "Gentlemen, upon which I recommended to the Nabob the Separation of his public and private "Funds," and for that Purpoſe, as he afterwards explains it, "the Eſtabliſhment of an Office of "Treaſury," which he calls "the Execution of an Article ſo explicitly provided for by the "Treaty;" that is to ſay, that becauſe I had enjoined to Mr. Briſtow a particular Care that the Nabob Vizier ſhould, againſt every other Exigency, receive the full Amount allotted to his private Expences, Mr. Briſtow ſhould iſſue Shookas, or Mandates, in his own Name and Seal, if the Nabob refuſed the Sanction of his, to the Aumils, for the Aſſignment of their Collections for a Fund of his own Appointment; that he ſhould himſelf, or Mr. Cowper for him, or a Treaſurer for both, for the Arrangement has never been well defined, receive the Money of theſe Aſſignments; iſſue them as he pleaſed, not to the Nabob, but to the menial Officers of his Houſehold; diſpoſe of his ſuperfluous Horſes and other Cattle; determine how many Elephants were neceſſary to the State of the Vizier of the Empire; and the Number of Domeſtics for his Attendance; and pry into his Kitchen, for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining the Quantity of Victuals which ought to be dreſſed in it; that Mr. Briſtow ſhould controul the Accounts of theſe Diſburſements, and appropriate to his own Uſe, for the Conſequence is inevitable, if he choſe it, the Reſidue produced by theſe œconomical Retrenchments. Yet Mr. Briſtow has pretended that he acted by Inſtructions from me, and in the Execution of a Treaty made by me with the Nabob Vizier; and he has had the Boldneſs to affirm, that it was "the only Meaſure that could prevent the Nabob from "continuing a Cypher."—I know not what Mr. Briſtow means by his Alluſion to the Treaty, which moſt aſſuredly does not contain a Syllable which can juſtify his Conduct; but by the unexampled Latitude which he aſſumes in his Conſtructions, he may, if he pleaſes, extort this or any other Meaning from any Part of it.

I ſhall make no other Comment on this Tranſaction than to obſerve, that the Controul which Mr. Briſtow has aſſumed over the Nabob Aſſof ul Dowlah is ſuch as no Man living, however mean his Rank in Life, or dependant his Condition in it, would permit to be exerciſed by any other, without the Want or Forfeiture of every manly Principle; and can only be equalled in Inſolence with his abetting a young Servant of the Company, his Aſſiſtant, in dictating to the Sovereign of the Country the written Drafts of his own Mandates.

Such is the State to which the Company's Influence has reduced One, and the Firſt of its Allies, and ſuch the Example held out to the other Princes of India, who may be tempted to enſnare themſelves in the ſame Connection.

7th Paragraph.—This contains the Sequel of the ſame Tranſaction, with the Particulars of the 6th Charge, namely, "That he had forcibly aſſembled the Vizier's Mutteſuddies, or official "Servants, at his own Houſe, detaining them Eight Days, and compelling them to prepare "Muſter Rolls of the Nabob's Mutayena, or Militia Forces; that he had afterwards diſbanded "4,000 Horſe and 7,000 Foot of the ſaid Troops, declaring his Intention of raiſing Sepoys for "the Nabob's Service in their Room; and that theſe Acts and Declarations were made without "the Authority of the Nabob, either obtained or ſolicited." Mr. Briſtow avows the Deſign, but affirms that it failed through the Oppoſition of the Miniſter, and that the reſt of this Article "as detailed by the Miniſter, is an abſolute Romance"—What Part of this Article Mr. Briſtow means by "the reſt," does not appear, ſince no Part of his Reply expreſsly applies to any Part of the Charge; but if he was really concerned in any Part of the Conduct attributed to him, it will not be eaſy to ſeparate it from the reſt, and the whole was unwarranted by his Inſtructions.

Paragraph 8.—I have not included this in the Liſt of analyſed Charges, for I do not underſtand it. It alludes to an Attempt made by Mr. Briſtow to remove the Miniſter from his Office, and to obſcure Converſations held with the Nabob Vizier upon it.—And Mr. Briſtow's Reply ſeems to have have been dictated by ſome ſtrong Provocation of Anger, the Cauſe of which is not apparent; for he begins it with ſaying, "I am now fully convinced, and I have told your Honourable "Board ſo, that the Salvation of Owd depends upon the Diſmiſſion of the Miniſter." There the Sentence cloſes.—I can make nothing of it, and leave it.

Paragraph 9th.—This is general, both in the Charge and Defence; yet there is in both an Alluſion which I muſt not permit to be loſt. Hyder Beg Cawn ſays, "Such is Mr. Briſtow's "Diſpoſition, that he outwardly profeſſes and careſſes, while in reality he is endeavouring to "expel me from my Office, and then frequently denies or contradicts his own Declarations. In "the Repreſentation which I have made, I ave not in any One Inſtance deviated from "the Truth; and it is a poſitive Proof of the Reality of many of the Particulars, that Mr. Briſtow "did not reply to thoſe which hare ſtated in my Anſwer to his Letter, but at our next Interview "aſſumed Appearances of Affability and Good-will."

This Paſſage relates to the Shookas which were iſſued without the Knowledge of the Nabob Vizier; and of theſe the Hiſtory, as related by Hyder Beg Cawn, is as follows:

The Firſt Inſtance occurred early, the Time is immaterial, and therefore I do not trace it. Mr. Briſtow thought it neceſſary to call for the Aſſiſtance of the Company's Troops from the Detachment commanded by Colonel Sir John Cummings, at Futty Ghur. He applied to Hyder Beg Cawn for the Nabob's Shooka or Letter, under the Nabob's private Seal, requiring them, ſuch being the Form preſcribed for ſuch Occaſions: Hyder Beg Cawn anſwered, that it would be neceſſary to communicate this Affair to the Nabob Vizier. Mr. Briſtow aſſented, and ſaid he would ſpeak to him himſelf; but changing his Mind, reproachingly ordered Hyder Beg Cawn to cauſe the Shooka to be written, without making any Mention of it to the Nabob Vizier; ſaying, that ſuch was the Pleaſure of the Governor General and the Gentlemen of the Council. Hyder Beg Cawn, awed by this implied Menace, ſubmitted, and gave him the Shooka, with the Nabob's Seal furtively affixed. This Account is thus detailed in the 5th preceding Paragraph.

The latter Inſtance is thus related:—When Mr. Briſtow aſſumed to himſelf the Controul of the Nabob Vizier's Houſehold Expences, he found the Nabob's Body Guard of Horſe, which are mentioned by the Name of Toorkſawars, greatly in Arrears: He, in like Manner as before, compelled Hyder Beg Cawn to cauſe Shookas to be written, with the Seal, and in the Name, of the Nabob Vizier, but without his Knowledge, to certain Aumils or Collectors of the public Revenue, commanding them to pay their Collections in Aſſignment, for the Diſcharge of thoſe Arrears. The Vizier, having Notice of it, was very much offended; and when Mr. Briſtow preſſed him on the Subject of the Appointment of a Treaſurer and Comptroller of his Houſehold, he, after long Reſiſtance, yielded, being, as he ſaid, without Remedy; but exacted, as a Condition, that the Shookas which had been iſſued by Mr. Briſtow ſhould be at the ſame Time withdrawn, and others iſſued by himſelf in their Stead. As it ſeems to have been Mr. Briſtow's Practice, whenever he found a Difficulty in carrying any of his Meaſures into Execution, to lay his Diſappointment to the Account of the Miniſter, imputing it either to his ſecret Oppoſition, or to Want of due Exertion, the Miniſter, in Return, juſtified himſelf againſt theſe Imputations, by Appeals to Inſtances of his Obedience, yielded even at the Hazard of forfeiting the Nabob's Favour, and eſpecially to theſe in queſtion. Theſe Appeals form the Subſtance of his Letters to Mr. Briſtow, which ſtand on Record of the following Dates; viz.

11th of Rubbe ul Owel, or 14th February 1783.
16th — Ditto — 19th Ditto.

The ſame Subjects are alſo mentioned in a Shooka or Letter written by the Nabob Vizier to Mr. Briſtow, and returned by Mr. Briſtow to Hyder Beg Cawn, with a Letter dated the 20th Rubbe al Owel, or 23d of February.

The following Extracts from the preceding Correſpondence will illuſtrate the Expoſition which I have given of it, but cannot add to the Proofs which have been already exhibited in my Remarks on the 5th Paragraph, which relate particularly to the ſame Subject.

Extract of a Letter from Hyder Beg Cawn to Mr. Briſtow, dated the 11th of Rubbeal ul Owel, or 14th February 1783.

"From the Moment of your Arrival I have not in any Manner been deficient in Obedience, but "have in every Buſineſs, and without Heſitation, fulfilled your Commands; as in the important "Buſineſs reſpecting the Regiments at Futty Ghur, which you were pleaſed to direct ſhould not "be ſuſpended by Attention to the Nabob's Permiſſion, or by the Neceſſity of informing him "thereof."

To this Letter Mr. Briſtow made no Reply.

Extracts of a Letter from Hyder Beg Cawn to Mr. Briſtow, dated the 16th of Rubbeal Owel, or 19th February 1783.

" And reſpecting the Tunkhaw, which, by the Contents of the Shookas which you have cauſed " to be written to the Aumils, is included in the Tunkhaw of the Company, and the Superin- " tendance of which has been given to Mr. Cowper, and a ſeparate Treaſurer appointed for the " ſame, that you will withdraw this Meaſure, and return theſe Shookas, and that Shookas, re- " ſpecting the Tunkhaw of the Toorkſuwars, may be written, directing the Monies to be tranſ- " mitted to his Highneſs."——" His Highneſs replied to me in a Paſſion, and ſaid, you " firſt cauſed Shookas to be written, including the Tunkaw of the Turkſawars in that of the " Company, and delivered them without my Knowledge; and now that it has been agreed to " return thoſe Shookas, you again counteract it.—I will not conſent.—Let that which has been " agreed, to be performed."——" I repreſented to you in Reply, the Things which I had " done, both in Affairs of Importance, and in Concerns of leſs Moment, both with and with- " out the Knowledge of his Highneſs, in compliance with your Directions, and likewiſe the " Cauſes of the Delay which had occurred in certain particular Affairs; and I furthermore re- " marked, that my having wrote and delivered to you the Shookas reſpecting the Tunkaw of " the Toorkſawars, in the Manner or to the Purport which you had directed them to be writ- " ten, without the Knowledge of his Highneſs, muſt ſtand as an inconteſtable Proof of my " Obedience to your Commands. And on this Account his Highneſs has repeatedly upbraided " me, demanding to know how I preſumed to cauſe Shookas to be written and delivered without " his Knowledge. ❀ I informed you of the Nabob's Diſpleaſure, and you told me to be under " no Apprehenſion; that what I had done I had done by your Orders."——" Notwith- " ſtanding ſuch Proofs and Demonſtrations, the written Evidence of which ſtill exiſt, you ſay " that Profeſſions of Duty and Obedience, unattended by the Execution of Buſineſs, are of no Avail."

I muſt take notice that Mr. Briſtow, in the Appendix to his Defence, gives a different Tranſlation of this Letter from that which is entered on the Conſulations, and which was not received when the Charges againſt him were ſent to him.—In his Tranſlation, which is exceedingly faulty throughout, the Paſſages which I have quoted are ſo mutilated, and warped from the real Meaning, as to render the Tranſaction, of which they are an Evidence, either too obſcure for Application, or almoſt innocent. I ſhall inſtance only One Sentence of Mr. Briſtow's Tranſlation, anſwering to that above bearing this Mark ❀; and I will add the Perſian Text in the Margin.

" I ſeveral Times informed you of the Nabob's Diſpleaſure on this Head, and your Commands " were, that I ſhould take no Heed of it, ſince the Buſineſs muſt be ſettled as you had ordained."

There is a wide Difference between a Declaration ſaid to be made by Mr. Briſtow, that an Act already done " muſt be ſettled as he had ordained," which, by the bye, is not reconcileable to common Senſe, and his Acknowledgement, that " it had been done by his Orders:" And if this Sophiſtication was not an Error unintended, it will be very obvious why it was made, though not yet eaſy to reconcile it with the Horror with which Mr. Briſtow pretends to have been affected, when he obtained the firſt Information of the Act.

I myſelf vouch for the Fidelity of the firſt Tranſlation, having compared it with the Original; and if it is diſputed, I will put it to Proof.

To this Letter alſo Mr. Briſtow made no Reply, aſſigning as a Reaſon, " that he had already " explained to him in the plaineſt Language his Intentions, which he ſtill wilfully miſunderſtood, " and invariably miſrepreſented;" and " that, having every Thing of Importance yet to do, " he did not chuſe to engage in a ſilly and endleſs War of Words, or to ſit down ſeriouſly to an- " ſwer Fables, becauſe he choſe to dignify them with the Name of Facts."——This is a very eaſy Refutation, but not ſuch a one as the Magnitude of the Charge deſerved, or as would commonly ſuffice to a Mind conſcious of its Integrity, and ſenſible to the Feelings of wounded Honour.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Briſtow to Hyder Beg Cawn, dated the 10th of Rubbe al Owal, or 23d February 1783.

" His Highneſs deſires that the Monies may be kept in the Pungmahla, under the Charge of " the Muttaſeddies of the Sircar, and that I will return the Shookas which were formerly iſſued " concerning the Tuncaw of the Toorkſawars, agreeably to his Highneſs's Commands.—I con- " ſent to both.——P. S. I ſend back his Highneſs's Shookas addreſſed to me, and Sheikh Go- " laum Surroor."

Copy of a Shooka or Letter from the Nabob Vizier to Mr. Briſtow, which was returned by Mr. Briſtow to Hyder Beg Cawn with the preceding Letter.——I cannot extract it.

It may afford a Triumph to Mr. Briſtow to have ſuch a Proof of " the unprincely Style of the " unhappy Aſſof ul Dowlah, oppoſed to the dignified Idea of inſulted Sovereignty;" but if there is is a Spark of generous Virtue in the Breasts of any of my Countrymen who shall be the Readers of this Compilation, this Letter shall stand for an Instrument to awaken it to the Call of Vengeance against so flagitious an Abuse of Authority, and Reproach of the English Name.

" You desired that a Treasurer and Comptroller might be appointed over the Disbursements of " the * Dowuab, Domestics, &c. of my Household; I rejected, because it would reflect Disgrace " upon me in the Eyes of the whole World, since it would be apparent that I had no longer any " Authority over my own Household, my Dowaub, and my Domestics, &c. at the same Time that " it would be productive of no Advantage whatever to the English Nation.—You insist upon the " Appointments being made from the highest to the lowest; it has still been customary for every " one, whatever Income his Situation afforded him, to manage the Expences of his own Domestics " and Dowaub at his Discretion;—yet, such are the Events which my Fate has brought forwards, " that a new Treasurer and Comptroller are about to be appointed over my Household, Domestics, " and Dowaub.—The Infant that has aught in his Hand, will weep if it is forced from him.—I " also understand what is and what is not for my Advantage; and I now with Humility tell you, " that if for my Satisfaction, and out of Friendship for me, you will desist from this Measure, you " will confer a Favour upon me; but in case it is your Pleasure that it shall be so, I am without " Resource—make the Appointments.—Yet, at least, let thus much of Appearances be preserved, " that the Monies for the Jaidaud Mahals, for the Dowaub, Domestics, and Household Disburse- " ments, and for the Tunkaw of the Toorkshawars, may be transmitted to the Place where I reside, " and separately delivered into the Charge of my People.—The Monies on Account of the Dowaub " and Household Expences shall be issued by Dawaugaudas the Treasurer, and Mahomed Hassan, " Comptroller, and Tahakoordas the Comptroller's Paishkor, under my Directions or Authority; " and the Tuncaw of the Toorkshawars, corresponding to the Regulations and Practices of this " Surcor, shall be issued to them as formerly by Rajah Tippar Chund; and that you will return " the Shookas, which you caused to be written without my Knowledge, concerning the Tuncaw " of the Toorkshawars, directing the Monies to be included in and remitted with the Tuncaw of " the Company; and that you will hereafter, as my Friend, write to the Governor General, and " request his Orders to abolish the Appointments of the new Treasurer and Comptroller which are " about to be made."

* This Word must not be confounded with the Province of the same Name. It means only Cattle of different Kinds.

10th Paragraph.—This contains the 7th Charge; namely the Appointment of Mahommed Beg, a Trooper, to the Sezawlee of Furruckabad, by Mr. Bristow's Order, against the Remonstrance of the Minister, and the Nabob Vizier's Disapproval.—I pass the rest, which is but a Repetition of former Charges.

Mr. Bristow, in Answer, refers the Board to his Address of the 30th January 1783, for Proof " that he always considered the Appointment of a Sezawel to Furruckhabad, as a desperate Alter- " native, but it was the only one; that he therefore acquiesced in it when urgently recommended " by the Minister, and was happy to find that Acquiescence honoured and confirmed by our Ap- " probation."

It is very true that Mr. Bristow did inform the Board of this Appointment, and obtained their Approbation of it; and so he might of any other Transaction, however unexceptionable, by suppressing every Information which could render it such. He represented this Appointment, and his Participation in it, as the Effect of the desperate State of the Company's Assignment on the Nabob Mozuffer Jung, the Oppressions exercised by the former Naib Mahomed Saced Cawn, the Complaints of the Nabob Mozuffer Jung, and the urgent Request of the Nabob Vizier and his Minister. My Instructions to Mr. Bristow were, to abstain entirely from all Interference in the Transactions of the Nabob Vizier and his Minister with the Nabob Muzuffer Jung; but neither could I nor the Board take any reasonable Offence at his Interference, when he apologized for it, grounding it not only on absolute Necessity, but on the united and urgent Wishes of the Nabob Vizier, his Minister, and the Nabob Mozuffur Jung, whom it principally regarded.

The Nabob Vizier and Hyder Beg Cawn both represent it as an Act of Mr. Bristow's own Choice, and executed by his own Authority, and against the Will both of the Nabob Vizier and of his Minister. These are strong Contradictions; but I cannot trace them to any Proof, except the following Passage in a Letter from Mr. Bristow to Hyder Beg Cawn, dated the 8th of Seffer, or 13th January 1783, which I think a strong one:—" Considering the bad State of Affairs at " Furrukabad, it is necessary that Mirza Mahomed Beg should receive his Dismission as soon as " possible. He will be introduced to you by this Letter. You will give him his Dismission To- " day, and in such a Manner that it may be unknown to every one."

This Letter, urging the Dispatch of the new Sezawall, giving him his Introduction as of a Stranger to the Minister, and prescribing the Mode of his Appointment, does not very well agree with the passive and reluctant Part which Mr. Bristow ascribes to himself in the Transaction; but is more likely to be understood by an uninformed Reader as the Address of a Principal urging a Point to another less inclined to the Acceptance of it: And with this Construction I must leave it until Mr. Bristow can furnish a better.

11th Paragraph.—This requires no Comment on either Side.

12th Paragraph.—This is not a Charge, but a Prayer to be freed from the Oppressions of the Resident, with the Acceptance of the Nabob's Offer of the Security of creditable Bankers for the punctual punctual Discharge of the Company's Demands. This, by a most extraordinary Perversion of Reasoning, is seized by Mr. Bristow as a clear Refutation of all the Charges which had been preferred by Hyder Beg Cawn against him; but the Nabob Vizier has himself proposed the Offer, and has complained against Mr. Bristow, in Language expressive of as much keener Sensibility, as his Sufferings exceed the Vexations exercised on his Minister.

It is natural for a Man labouring under any Grievance to wish for the Removal of the Cause of it; and it is proverbial, that even the poor Worm will turn with the Impatience of Anguish on the Foot that crushes it; but it was never before inferred, that a Desire to be delivered from the Power and Presence of an Oppressor, was an Evidence against the Existence of the Oppression.

I shall here close my Observation on Mr. Bristow's Replies to Hyder Beg Cawn's First Letter, and proceed to the Examination of Mr. Bristow's Letter, addressed to the Board, of the 13th May, which contains the Particulars of the 11th Charge, namely, "that he had attempted to carry into "Execution a Plan for the Administration of Justice, and had invested Mr. Cowper with extraor-"dinary and undefined Powers for receiving Complaints from the Subjects of the Nabob Vizier, "and superscribing them with Orders in the Style of Mandates from the Nabob Vizier, for the "Redress of the Complainants."

I have already said, that I considered this Letter as an Anticipation of the Complaints which Mr. Bristow knew had been made against him, but which he had not received, nor indeed were they sent to him till the 29th of the same Month. Whatever Advantage may be derived from the Title of having been the First Complainant, it has certainly some in its Influence on common Judgments, and this perhaps arises from the Construction which every Man instinctively affixes to recriminated Accusations, as being the Effects of a vindictive Principle, and therefore liable at least to Exaggeration. This Letter has very much this Appearance, for it has all the characteristic Forms and Qualities of a systematic Attack. It begins with an accumulated, though general, Reprobation of the Conduct and Character of Hyder Beg Cawn—it proceeds to the circumstantial Detail of a specific Fact, and concludes with a Prayer for his Dismission from Office. Mr. Bristow's Mode of writing renders it an Attempt of Difficulty to reduce the Substance of his unconnected and often unaplied Periods to precise Facts or Propositions, on which I can depend for their certain Relation to them. If, therefore, I shall err in my Construction of them, the Fault is not intentionally mine, but the Effect of the Obscurity of the Text, which I am compelled to explain before I can make the proper Use of it.

Of the Letter, which consists of Four small Sheets of Paper, the Two First, and Part of the Third, contain only general Positions which may be comprised within the Two following Brief Articles:

1st. That Hyder Beg Cawn had rejected all Mr. Bristow's "frankest Offers of Friendship and "Confidence," and 2d, had obstinately and contumaciously opposed all his "Innovations," which he is pleased to call in his first, though not the most respectful Application of my Official Title, the "wise System prescribed by the Honourable the Governor General." The Means by which the Minister is enabled to maintain so powerful an Opposition, are summarily ascribed to "the Influence "of his Power, his Talents, and his Wealth," and in a more large Detail to his Ascendency over the Mind of the Nabob Vizier his Master. His Account of this Effect is curious, and contradicts every physical as well as moral Principle, which is supposed to regulate the Actions or stimulate the Passions of Mankind. The Nabob, he says, detests this Minister from a declared Conviction that the Minister has reduced his Provinces to Desolation, and his Court to a "speaking Picture "of Penury, Nakedness, and Famine." Yet that the Nabob supports his Minister against all Mr. Bristow's Endeavours to free him from so abject a Thraldom, to give Peace, Order, and Plenty to his Country, and to administer an Abundance for the Relief of all his personal Wants —because the Minister is yet in Possession of his Finances, and by dealing them to his Master with a sparing and artful Œconomy, which Mr. Bristow calls "alternately exerting his Hopes and "Fears," he "prevents the Nabob from adopting any firm and dignified Resolution;" and this philosophical Solution he concludes in the following Words: "These Passions (i. e. Hopes and "Fears) whilst in Equilibrium over the Mind, keep it hesitating and undetermined, the Reso-"lutions of Despair alone are unqualified and decisive." I shall leave this Doctrine to work its own Effect, and proceed to the specific Instance, which seems introduced to prove the general Charge of Hyder Beg Cawn's Opposition to Mr. Bristow's Innovations.

This, as I with Difficulty collect it from the Letter and its Enclosures, of which the Letter is little more than a Comment, is as follows:

In my Instructions to Mr. Middleton, I directed him to urge the Nabob Vizier to endeavour gradually, if it could not be done at once, to establish Courts of Justice throughout his Districts. Mr. Middleton, who had shewn little Attention to any Article of my Instructions, appears to have taken not the least Notice of this, till a short Time before his Recall, and when he most probably expected. It was then, and not till then, that without any recent Ground assigned for it, or Advice given to me or the Board of the Measure, or of his Intention preceding it, he prevailed upon the Nabob Vizier to appoint a Man named Morolevy Mobein to the Office of Sudder ul Stuck, or Chief Administrator of Justice to the City of Lucknow, and the Dominions of the Nabob of Owd; but without any Assignment of Power, local Office, or Salary; and the poor Man himself seems to have have felt the humiliating Conſciouſneſs of his own Inſufficiency for ſo elevated a Dignity, to which the laſt Step of his Promotion was the Profeſſion of a Schoolmaſter, which had occupied the greateſt Part of a Life already far ſpent. To this feeble Inſtrument Mr. Briſtow had early Recourſe, for the Eſtabliſhment of a new Regulation for the general Adminiſtration of Juſtice throughout the Nabob's Dominions; although it does not appear, either from the Letters of Mr. Briſtow or of Mr. Cooper, to whom Mr. Briſtow appealed for the Explanation of his Inſtructions, that he had ever formed any preciſe or defined Plan reſpecting it, for both allude to it as intended for the Inſtitution of "proper Courts of Juſtice," yet both ſtyle it "a Fowjdarry Adawlet," which is a Court inſtituted for the Trial of Criminal Offences; and Mr. Briſtow in his Correſpondence generally confounds it with the Office of "Police of the City," which is commonly the Charge of the Cutwall, and never aſſigned to the Court of Juſtice either Civil or Criminal.

The Means uſed by Mr. Briſtow to carry this Plan into Execution mark no great Extenſion of Deſign, or Effort of Invention:—The Account which he himſelf gives of his progreſſive Acts in this Buſineſs is, that very early after his Arrival he deſired the Miniſter to eſtabliſh the Fowjdarry Adawlet upon a reſpectable Footing; that he next applied for the Appointment of a Houſe to hold the Court: That all the Nabob Vizier's Houſes being occupied (for Mr. Briſtow ſays, that the Miniſter had purpoſely filled them with Lumber, to ſerve as an Excuſe for withholding them), the Miniſter allotted a Tent for the Uſe of the Mowlerry. At length a Houſe was allowed him, but he did not like it, becauſe it was "ſituated in the Center of the Palace, where his Proceedings "would be ſubject to Reſtraint," the Place itſelf too confined, and ſome of the Nabob's Effects remaining in it. The Correſpondence encloſed by Mr. Briſtow ſhews that he too thought the Houſe too ſmall, and that the Miniſter maintained a contrary Opinion, but would apply for another; that both concurred in Opinion of the Unfitneſs of the Tent for a Court of Juſtice—the Miniſter praying for Time to get a Houſe: That Mr. Briſtow required the Court to be held in the City—and the Miniſter pleaded the Nabob's Orders for its being held in the Palace, with other Queſtions of the like Moment; but that on a firm Declaration made by Mr. Briſtow, that he would appeal to the Governor General and Council, the Miniſter implicitly ſubmitted, affirming, at the ſame Time, that he had never diſputed Mr. Briſtow's Orders. In the ſame Period of Time another Source of Difference aroſe, which is moſt imperfectly connected with the ſame Subject, and is thus explained by Mr. Cooper, in reply to an Appeal made to him by Mr. Briſtow for that Purpoſe. That Mr. Briſtow "recommended to the Nabob Vizier the immediate Inſtitution of a Fowjdarry Adawlet at Luck-"now;"—that Mr. Briſtow's "ſole Motive in this Recommendation (if Mr. Cooper had not in-"terly miſunderſtood him) was to reſtore Peace and Order to the Capital, and Security to its In-"habitants;"—that as the Governor General had himſelf mentioned the Want of proper Courts of Juſtice, as a Cauſe of great Evils, but adviſed much Caution in their Introduction; and as both Mr. Briſtow and Mr. Cooper apprehended "Danger from the abrupt Application of the Remedy, "when the Evil was univerſal," Mr. Briſtow, whoſe "Attention was engaged by Objects of more "immediate Importance," requeſted, "that Mr. Cooper would enquire and endeavour to aſcertain "how far a Reformation, ſo neceſſary to the Proſperity and Happineſs both of the Prince and "People, might be effected with the leaſt poſſible Inconvenience and Delay."—That "in con-"formity to Mr. Briſtow's Wiſhes, he ſent for Mowlerry Mobein, who had received his (Mr. "Briſtow's) Inſtructions to aſſiſt him, propoſing to enter with him into ſuch Explanations as "might afford him an Idea of the Syſtem of Juriſprudence then eſtabliſhed there;" but the Mowlevy aſſured him, that "there was not, nor had been for Years, even the Shadow of a "Police;" that his Appointment was "a Mockery, and himſelf a Pageant,"——After much Diſcuſſion of the Unfitneſs of ſuch a Man as the Mowlavy (a Schoolmaſter) "to diſpenſe Law "to a whole People, and to unite, in his Perſon, the Civil and Criminal Juriſdiction of ſuch "extenſive Countries," which he ſays was an Indication of the Diſpoſition of the Miniſter, too plain to be miſtaken, he adds, "I muſt confeſs, I drew a Concluſion from it that at once in-"duced me to augur very ill of our Undertaking, and determined me to proceed in it with all "Warineſs and Circumſpection." The Iſſue was, that after very mature Deliberation, he adviſed Mr. Briſtow "to confine his Views for the preſent to the Inſtitution of a Fowjdarry Court for the "Capital only" (which I muſt obſerve he had before mentioned as the original Inſtitution, and actually formed)—that Mr. Briſtow took his Advice, and obtained the Nabob's Aſſent, and his Appointment of Mowlavy Mobein to preſide in the Court, now limited to the Capital; "and "here," ſays he, "the Matter ſtill reſts to this Hour; and to this Hour the Inhabitants of "Lucknow are left in a Condition of Licentiouſneſs, very near approaching to a State of "Nature."

I have recapitulated Mr. Cooper's Account of his Commiſſion, but I profeſs that I do not underſtand the Drift either of the Appointment, or of his Explanation of it. What gave Occaſion for the latter was this:—Mr. Cooper, by ſome Commiſſion from Mr. Briſtow, received Petitions from the Inhabitants, to which he affixed Orders, in the formal Style of Mandates from the Nabob Vizier, for the Redreſs of the Petitioners. This, Mr. Briſtow ſaid, had been miſrepreſented as a Superintendance of the Court of Adawlut, and an Uſurpation of his Excellency's Right of Sovereignty;—and he therefore called upon Mr. Cooper, in Writing, to ſtate the Inſtructions which he had received from Mr. Briſtow on this Occaſion, and his Proceedings in conſequence; and explain his Conduct relative to ſuch Petitions as Mr. Briſtow might have referred to him. The Sum of Mr. Cooper's Explanation is, if I conceive it rightly, that he received from Mr. Briſtow neither Appointment nor Inſtructions, nor performed any Act relative to either.

With reſpect to the Petitions, he ſays, and prefaces what he ſays with calling it the undiſguiſed State of the Caſe, that as the Petitions were referred to him he had them read, and directed Hoſſein Ali Cawn to write upon the Face of them ſeverally an Order, ſuch as, had it finally reſted with him to ſettle them, he ſhould have iſſued upon the Occaſion, and then bid him carry them to the Miniſter: "Not," he adds, "that the Vizier's Seal ſhould be affixed," but that the Miniſter ſhould decide upon the Propriety of his Ideas, and ultimately reject or adopt them, as he ſaw fit. This the Miniſter was to know inſtinctively, as it appears from what immediately follows: "And I choſe this Mode of communicating them rather than by Letter, "becauſe it was the ſimpleſt and readieſt, &c." He then refers to one of the Petitions, which he incloſes; and I will inſert it here, with Two others furniſhed by Hyder Beg Cawn, for their Curioſity.

Sets forth, That the Two Sons in Law to Hawjee Aukau Mahomed have been confined in Priſon during the whole of the laſt Year: From the Time of Fuckeer Chund's Appointment, he has treated them with the utmoſt Severity, even to the prohibiting their Food from being brought to them.—We had rented the Pergunnah of Aally Gunge for Three Years.—Four Months of the Fuſſul of Hurreef remained when we were turned out: All that was received to that Period was paid; and if we had continued through the Hurreef Fuſſul, the Remainder would have been paid. We are in no Shape guilty. We hope from your Favour and Goodneſs, that in your Kindneſs to the Poor and the Helpleſs you will ſet them at Liberty.

Let thoſe who will, comment on this Tranſaction. It was a groſs and moſt indecent Attempt to dictate to the Vizir of the Empire the Words of his own Mandates, which the Vizir was to copy from Mr. Cowper's Draft, and iſſue without a Knowledge of the Subject. It is an Inſult to Common Senſe to impoſe any other Conſtruction upon it.

Mr. Briſtow's Motives for giving theſe extraordinary Authorities, and enforcing them with ſo many angry Movements, is more extraordinary than the Acts themſelves; and I muſt own that I firſt read them with an Idea which no conſequent Act has effaced, that he wrote them under the Conviction that he might write what he pleaſed, in the Aſſurance of its being favourably received.

I have already mentioned the Inſtructions which I gave to Mr. Middleton, relating to the Introduction of Courts of Juſtice in the Nabob Vizir's Dominions, which will be found, on a liberal Examination of them, to have been dictated under Doubts of its Expediency. In my Inſtructions to Mr. Briſtow, written with a fuller and recent Experience, I expreſſed thoſe Doubts in Terms, aſſigning many ſtrong Reaſons for entertaining them, and concluded with recommending the Subject to his Enquiry, but without venturing to give him any Inſtructions concerning it. Mr. Briſtow, in a Letter which he wrote on the 12th December, profeſſedly intended as a Detail of his Tranſactions and Intentions reſpecting the Execution of my Inſtructions, adopts all my Concluſions; and adds to them other Arguments, much ſtronger, againſt the Execution of Adawlets; and ſo much ſtronger, that theſe alone ought to have deterred him from attempting it. He cloſes the Subject with the following Words:

" I would, however, propoſe, that Mowlerry Mobein, the Man recommended by Mr. Mid" dleton, ſhould continue with the Name of Sudder ul Huck; and when Regularity ſhall be " introduced into other Branches of the Government, the Extenſion of his Power will form
" Part of the Plan."

Theſe are the Authorities which Mr. Briſtow quotes from his Attempt to introduce the Eſtabliſhment of his Plan, whatever it was, for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice; and they are inſerted at full Length in the Third Number of the Appendix to his Letter. I appeal to the ſame Authorities, for Proof that I gave him no Inſtructions to inſtitute Courts of Juſtice; that he had had therefore no Authority to attempt it; that he himſelf declared it to be improper; and by his own Interpretation of my Inſtructions, gave them the Force of Orders prohibiting any ſuch Attempt; that by ſuch a Declaration, concluding with a Recommendation to ſuffer the nominal Appointment to ſubſiſt, without any ſubſtantial Application of it, he certainly intended to convey to me the Aſſurance inevitably implied by it, that he would himſelf attempt nothing beyond the Appointment; and that, by attempting it, he has conſequently been guilty of the double Charge of Diſobedience of Orders and Deception.

I have now gone through the Examination of the Charges againſt Mr. Briſtow, and of his Anſwers to them, according to the Order in which he has himſelf arranged them. I ſhall not attempt, by any Recapitulation of them, to point out the Strength of the former, or the Inſufficiency of the latter. I ſhall leave both to make their own Impreſſion; and doubt not that they will neceſſarily produce, in the Minds of others, a Conviction which they have produced in my own, that the Truth of every Charge againſt Mr. Briſtow is either poſitively or preſumptively eſtabliſhed, even by the Authorities which he has himſelf produced to refute them.

I myſelf am perſonally aggrieved by Mr. Briſtow's Conduct and Pretenſions. Every Accumulation of his Guilt is doubled by the Attempt to fix the original Charge of it upon me. In his Declarations to the Nabob Vizir, to the Miniſter, and even in his Addreſſes to the Board, he appeals to my Inſtructions, as the Rule and Warrant of his Actions. To diſprove this, I need only to appeal to my Inſtructions themſelves: Theſe had one eſſential Object,—the Diſcharge of the Arrears due from the Nabob Vizir to the Company, with his growing Debt; and every Article of them had a Regard either to the Means of rendering this Point effectual, or to the Cautions requiſite in the Exerciſe of an unavowed Influence, in the place of a lawful Authority. ☞ (a) [The Means by which our Government acquired this Influence, and its Right to exerciſe it, will require a previous Explanation: Both originated in our Connection with the Nabob Suja Dowla. I found him a Dependent on the Company, or rather on the Commander in Chief of the Army. Under the Authority of the Council, of which I was the Preſident, in the Year 1773, I concluded a Treaty with him, which left him optionally free, but virtually dependant on our Government, by the reciprocal Obligations of it, which on our Part conſiſted in Military Aſſiſtance whenever he demanded it; and on his, the Payment of a fixed Monthly Subſidy for the Expences attending it. He remained the abſolute Sovereign of his own Dominions; and whenever he found the Preſence of our Army, or the Aſcendant of our Alliance, too powerful for his Eaſe or Dignity, he might free himſelf from both, by the Diſmiſſion of the former. But the Neceſſity of his Affairs rendered it unſafe or inconvenient to part with it, as was evinced by the Experiment of a few Months, in which the Army was remanded to our Frontier, and again recalled for his Service; and thus its Attachment to him, and the Kind of Tribute which he paid for the Uſe of it, were rendered permanent, but in ſuch a Mode, as conduced to his Intereſt and Safety, without a Diminution of perſonal Conſequence. He was himſelf the Inſtrument of forming this Relation; he felt the Advantages of it; he experienced nothing humiliating in the Superiority of the Part aſſigned to our Government in it; and in the ſhort Interval which followed the Conſtruction of it, Two rich and extenſive Members were added to his paternal Dominions, beſides that which he acquired with it. Let me add, without the Imputation of aſſuming too much Self-conſequence, that my perſonal Behaviour to him was invariably marked by a ſtudied Reſpect. In public, I addreſſed him as my acknowledged Superior; in private, for only One Perſon was ever privy to our Conferences, I made my Demands in firm but decent Language; exacted his Compliance, by ſtating the Grounds of our mutual Neceſſities, without either Concealment or Exaggeration; and obtained, with his cheerful and moſt willing Conceſſion, the beſt Acceſſion of a new Dominion, of Portion of the Wealth of a valuable and remote Territory, without the Burthen of its Adminiſtration. He parted from me contented; and if I may truſt to thoſe Aſſurances which my Station may be ſuſpected to have extorted from private Adulation, he publicly and frequently acknowledged the Obligations which he owed to me; and even in his laſt Moments recurred to them, in the Line of Conduct which he recommended to his Son and Succeſſor, the preſent Nabob Aſſof ul Dowlah.

With his Death a new political Syſtem commenced, and Mr. Briſtow was conſtituted the Inſtrument of its Formation, and Truſtee for the Management of it. The Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah was deprived of a large Portion of his Inheritance, I mean the Province of Benares, attached by a very feeble and precarious Tenure to our Dominions; the Army fixed to a permanent Station in a remote Line of his Frontier, with an augmented and perpetual Subſidy; a new Army, amphibiouſly compoſed of Troops in his Service and Pay, commanded by Engliſh Officers of our own Nomination, for the Defence of his new Conqueſts; and his own natural Troops annihilated or alienated by the Inſufficiency of his Revenue for all his Diſburſements, and the prior Claims of thoſe which our Authority or Influence commanded; in a Word, he became the Vaſſal of this Government: But he ſtill poſſeſſed an oſtenſible Sovereignty, his titular Rank of Vizir of the Empire rendered him a conſpicuous Object of View to all the States and Chiefs of India; and on the Moderation and Juſtice with which the Britiſh Government in Bengal exerciſed its Influence over him, many Points moſt eſſential to its political Strength, and to the Honour of the Britiſh Name, depended.

This is not a Place, nor have I Room, to prove in it what I ſhall here content myſelf with affirming, that by a ſacred and undeviating Obſervance of every Principle of Public Faith, the Britiſh Dominion might have by this Time acquired the Means of its Extenſion, through a virtual Submiſſion to its Authority, to every Region of Indoſtan and Decan. I am not ſure that I ſhould adviſe ſuch a Deſign, were it practicable, which at this Time it certainly is not; and I very much fear that the limited Formation of ſuch equal Alliances as might be uſeful to our preſent Condition, and conduce to its Improvement, is become liable to almoſt unſurmountable Difficulties. Every Power in India muſt wiſh for the Support of ours, but they all dread the Connection.

The Subjection of Bengal, and the Deprivation of the Family of Jaffier Ally Cawn, though an Effect of inevitable Neceſſity, the Uſurpation of the Rights of the Nabob Wallah Jah, in the Carnatic, and the licentious Violations of the Treaty exiſting between the Company and the Nabob Nizam ul Dowla, though checked by the remedial Interpoſition of this Government, ſtand as terrible Precedents againſt us. The Effects of our Connection with the Nabob Aſſof ud Dowlah had a rapid Tendency to the ſame Conſequences, and it has been my invariable Study to prevent it, by the Removal or Reſtriction of every Authority or Influence derived from our Government which interfered with his, and by the Promiſe of whatever Means I might poſſeſs for withdrawing that Interpoſition of it in the internal Management of his Affairs, which we exerciſed in the Aſſignments made of Portions of his Revenue for the Payment of the Company's Debts, whenever he ſhould either have diſcharged them, or could afford a Security for their Payment. It is not unknown to the Members of the Board, who compoſed it in the Beginning of the Year 1781, how much it was my Wiſh, even then, to return on a new Commiſſion to the Reſidence of the Nabob of Oude, provided I could be entruſted with Powers to make ſuch an Accommodation, for his Finances were daily diminiſhing; the Preſence of the Repreſentative of our Government enfeebled that of the Nabob in its executive Acts, and all the Provinces of his Dominions were gradually ſinking into Decline, the Reproach of which, even from our own Countrymen, was caſt upon our Government as the Cauſe of it.]

Unfortunately, the Nabob Vizir wanted the requiſite Talents for Buſineſs. His Underſtanding, though far under-rated in the common Opinion of it, was deficient in many other requiſite Qualities of Government; but it was united with a Gentleneſs of Manners, a Suſceptibility of Kindneſs, and a Pliancy of Will, which might, in proper Hands, conſtitute an Equivalent to them. It was in my Reliance on the Effect of theſe Qualities that I ſolicited, and in their Effect obtained from him, in Return for my Conceſſions, his Agreement to the Admiſſion of the Aſſiſtance of the Reſident, in the Charge then ſpecially given to his Miniſter, of his Finances and public Diſburſements. Diſſatisfied with the Conduct of Mr. Middleton, the Reſident to whom this Charge was firſt committed, and of his Deputy, Mr. Johnſon, to whom he delegated it, I formed the Reſolution of nominating Mr. Briſtow to it in their Stead. To this I had various and powerful Inducements. The firſt and principal was, the reiterated Order of the Court of Directors for his Appointment: Secondly, the Wiſh of the other Members of the Council urging it: Thirdly, their Declarations of uniting to ſupport my Authority, and other concurrent Circumſtances removing the Objections which had hitherto oppoſed it: Fourthly, a Reliance on the perſonal Gratitude of Mr. Briſtow, for my optional Nomination of him to ſo important a Truſt: And, Fifthly, his Aſſurances, and a Pledge given me for the Performance of them, in which I then repoſed a religious Confidence:—I propoſed, and the Board agreed to his Appointment, leaving it to me to give his Inſtructions. Theſe were accordingly delivered, firſt verbally, but accompanied with Heads in Writing for his Remembrance, in a Diſcourſe which occupied Four Hours of my Time, when I was yet too ill to write; and they were afterwards dictated, for I continued unable to write them; and having received the Approbation of the Board, they were tranſmitted to him on the 24th of October. I have detailed the Proceſs of this Affair to ſhew, at leaſt, the Improbability of Mr. Briſtow's miſunderſtanding my Intentions reſpecting the Line of Conduct which he was to purſue, if theſe were really contrary to that which he did adopt. Hitherto the Reſident had never interfered beyond Advice and Perſuaſion. I myſelf never affected a higher Claim; nor had I a Suſpicion that Mr. Briſtow would go beyond it; it therefore never occurred to me to guard againſt it. On the contrary, I will freely confeſs, and I am aſhamed of it, I yielded to him an implicit Confidence. As to my Inſtructions, and their real Objects, I affirm, that they have been wholly neglected; nor has any Uſe been made of them but to pervert them to Deſigns of which I know not the Authority, nor can deviſe any other End but private Rapacity. In One Inſtance, indeed, he may appear to conform to them, which is in his Diſagreements with the Miniſter, with whoſe Conduct I was certainly much offended on the Occaſions which had afforded me ſo much Offence againſt Mr. Middleton; and I therefore warned him to keep a watchful Eye on Hyder Beg Cawn, and I ſpoke of him in Terms which marked great Diſtruſt of his Principles and Diſlike of his Character. Whether I was right or wrong in my Judgment, I will not now attempt to determine: I certainly erred in the unreſerved Manner in which I communicated it, ſince it has been ſo frequently and powerfully retorted upon me: But Hyder Beg Cawn is not the Object of this Diſcuſſion. Let his former Conduct have been what it would, it will not juſtify Mr. Briſtow in Acts done conſequent to it, and independent of it,

it. Let his preſent Conduct be what it will, it will not warrant Mr. Briſtow's Uſurpation of an Authority which was never entruſted to him, and in the Commiſſion of Inſults and Indignities to a Sovereign Prince, united by Treaty to the Company and to the Britiſh Nation. There is not a Syllable of my Inſtructions which will admit of a Conſtruction of a Power to aſſume any Authority whatever in the Adminiſtration of the Nabob Vizir. The only Paſſage which I find, in a recent Search, to bear any thing like a Tendency to it, is the Cloſe of the 13th Article; in which, ſpeaking of the dangerous Abuſe which the Begums had made of their Jagheers, I direct him to remonſtrate in the ſtrongeſt Terms againſt their Reſtoration; and I add, that he "muſt "not permit it until this Government ſhall have Information of it;" but how far even this Expreſſion was from conveying the Idea of his exerciſing an Authority over the Nabob, will be demonſtrated by the expreſſed Purpoſe of the Communication, in the Words immediately following; viz. "and ſhall have had Time to interfere its Influence for the Prevention of it." This Extract will ſhew, that in a Caſe which I deemed of the utmoſt Conſequence to the Safety of the Nabob's Dominions, and of our political Intereſts, in this Inſtance more nearly than any other connected with it, I did not conceive that even the Governor General and Council, in their collective Capacity, had a Right to interfere with Authority; but could only make uſe of the Means of Perſuaſion, or, as it is expreſſed, "to interpoſe their Influence," for preventing the Evils which we ſuppoſed; and can it be believed that I ſhould inveſt Mr. Briſtow with Powers of which I diſavowed the Uſe myſelf, and denied the Exerciſe of them to the Adminiſtration of which I was the Firſt Member?

The Article reſpecting the Nabob Vizier begins with an Injunction "to ſtudy, on every Oc-"caſion, to conciliate his Good-will, and to ſhew him every oſtenſible and external Mark of "Reſpect." I expreſſed "my Hope, that he would not find it difficult to make the Nabob "himſelf the Mover of every Act neceſſary, whether for the Advancement of his own Intereſts, "or the Diſcharge of his Debt to the Company." I recommended to him to endeavour to win the Nabob's Confidence from Hyder Beg Cawn; and I remember uſing this, or a very like Expreſſion, in my verbal Inſtructions:—"Be you his Miniſter, and make yourſelf his Ad-"vocate, and the Vindicator of his Rights, if his preſent Miniſter ſhall injure them." And I ſtrictly enjoined a Preference of the Nabob's Claim to the Sum allotted to his perſonal Expences before any other, little imagining that this Clauſe would be perverted to a virtual but effectual Deprivation of the Uſe of it.

The Advice which I thus pointedly recommended to Mr. Briſtow was ſuch as I ſhould have purſued myſelf, had I been in his Situation, and with a well-grounded Expectation of ſucceeding in attaining the preſcribed Objects of it; for I have myſelf experienced what might be effected by Conciliation in Situations the ſame as his, and in others not diſſimilar from it, and on Minds more difficult than the meek Spirit of the Nabob Aſoph u Dowlah; for I never found either the acute Apprehenſions and quick Suſceptibility of Meer Coſſim, nor the Pride and manly Senſe of the Nabob Suja Dowla, impenetrable to Arguments applied to their Intereſts, and delivered with Truth and plain Dealing, which were all the Arts I ever uſed in my political Negociations.

But I have a further Proof, and an unanſwerable one, that I neither had, nor could have had, any Deſign in any Commiſſion given to Mr. Briſtow, either hoſtile to the Nabob Vizir, or offenſive to his Feelings, without ſuch a Profligacy of Character as muſt have been marked by the whole Tenor of my Life according with it. When I mentioned to Mr. Briſtow my Intention of appointing him to the Reſidency of Lucknow, I at the ſame Time informed him, that I could not yet effect it, until I had an Aſſurance that it would be acceptable to the Nabob Vizir, not knowing whether, from former Tranſactions, the Nabob might not have a perſonal Exception to him; and I therefore directed him to apply by Letter to the Nabob himſelf for his Conſent. Mr. Briſtow did write to him accordingly. I alſo cauſed Rajah Govind Ram, the Nabob's Vakeel, to apprize his Maſter that the Application was made with my Knowledge, and with my Wiſh that it might prove effectual, if the Nabob had not the Objection which I had apprehended; and leſt he might be induced, by his Remembrance of the Intereſt by which Mr. Briſtow's former Appointment had been before made, to object to it on a Principle of Delicacy to myſelf, I deſired Rajah Govind Ram to aſſure him, that Mr. Briſtow ſhould receive his Appointment from my own Choice, not by the Impoſition of any Authority contrary to it: But I abſtained from any direct Communication of theſe Sentiments, that the Nabob might be the freer in his Deciſion upon the Propoſition ſubmitted to him. I have already alluded to this Tranſaction in a Minute, dated the Seventh of March 1783, and dictated on a different Occaſion, and with other Particulars, which are here omitted.—Mr. Briſtow will not deny the Fact, as I have related it; and Mr. Macpherſon will poſſibly recollect it.

Is it poſſible that I could have uſed ſo much Delicacy, and affected ſuch a Tenderneſs towards the Nabob, if I meant to ſend a Tyrant to rule over him?

I ſhall forbear to ſpeak my Apprehenſions of the Conſequences, if it ſhall be finally reſolved by the Members of this Board, that Mr. Briſtow ſhall be formally veſted with the Power of ruling the Dominions appertaining to the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah, and guaranteed to him againſt all Invaders, by a ſacred Treaty, by which the Faith and Honour of the Britiſh Nation, and not the Company alone, are pledged to maintain it. A Syſtem of ſuch Controul cannot ſubſiſt on conſtructive Powers; and if the Board do not notify to Mr. Briſtow the Declaration which I have made, made, of the Revocation of thoſe which he received from me, and which he has groſsly abuſed, I ſhall; and at his Peril let him dare hereafter to quote them, as containing the Authority for his Actions. Thoſe who abet him in his Conduct ought to preſcribe to him the Rule of it. When I am made acquainted with that Rule, I will record my Opinion of it.—Would to God I could prevent it, and the dreadful Conſequences which, however qualified, muſt attend the Exerciſe of any Dominion built on ſuch a Foundation, and committed to ſuch a Ruler!

The Inſtructions given to the Governor before his Departure for Benaras, which the Board at that Time thought proper to ſeal up, and depoſit in the Cuſtody of Mr. Alderſey, are now opened and recorded as follows, with the Letters written in conſequence.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Preſident and Governor of Fort William, &c. &c.

Honourable Sir,

At our Conſultation of the 19th April, we expreſſed our Approbation of the Reſolution of the Select Committee, for your obtaining a perſonal Interview with the Vizir, and as, in conſequence of the Vizir's repeated Deſire, you have now determined on proceeding for that Purpoſe to Banaras, we ſhall beg leave to lay before you ſuch Points in the political Intereſts of the Company, as from the Orders of the Court of Directors, and the preſent State of Affairs in this Government, are the more immediate Objects of our Wiſhes: At the ſame Time, the Circumſtances of our Situation and Connections with the King and the Vizir, are liable to ſo many Variations, that we find it difficult to mark out any preciſe Line for your Conduct; nor, indeed, do we judge it neceſſary, as we repoſe an entire Confidence in your Experience and Abilities to improve to the utmoſt, for the Company's Benefit, the different Events which may occur.

It is evident, that the Treaties which at preſent ſubſiſt between the Company and the Vizir are ſettled upon an unequal Footing. We are called on every Occaſion to his Aſſiſtance, without any immediate Advantage to our Employers, or even any regular and adequate Adjuſtment of the Stipulation in the Treaty for the Payment of our Expences, while, on his Part, the Aid which he is bound to afford us is left looſe and undefined, and in all Probability, from the Nature and Conſtitution of his Army, in caſe of real Danger, would prove uſeleſs and ineffectual. It is therefore adviſeable to effect an Alliance with him on Grounds of reciprocal Advantage and Support.

Of ſuch an Alliance, One of the moſt eſſential Articles will be to ſecure the regular Payment of ſufficient Subſidies for the Charge of ſuch Bodies of our Troops as may march at the Requiſition of the Vizir; and although, in our former Treaty, the Stipulation is made only for our extraordinary Expences; yet, when we conſider that, whilſt removed at ſuch a Diſtance from our Territories, they are in Effect loſt to our own Service, we think it reaſonable that the whole Expence ſhould be borne by him; but this can only be effected by your Addreſs and judicious Management, as the Engagements now ſubſiſting between us, from which we do not mean to depart, do not entitle us to claim it as a Right.

While

While the King continues at Delhi, whither he proceeded in oppoſition to our moſt ſtrenuous Remonſtrances, we ſhall certainly conſider the Engagements between him and the Company as diſſolved by his Alienation from them and their Intereſts. The Province of Korah, in this Caſe, will revert to them as to the original Proprietors, by his Inability to hold it on the Terms and for the Purpoſes for which it was ceded to him. As the Poſſeſſion of ſo remote a Country can never be expected to yield any Profit to the Company, and the Defence of it muſt require a perpetual Aid of their Forces, and prove a Source of much Jealouſy to the neighbouring Powers, it muſt be our earneſt Wiſh to be freed from ſo inconvenient a Poſſeſſion on the beſt Terms which can be obtained for the Diſpoſal of it. If the King's Pretenſions are removed, the Claim of the Vizir to this Diſtrict will come next in Preference, both on account of our Alliance with him, its Contiguity and Relation to his Dominions, and this Preference being conſonant to the Company's Orders. In that Caſe, it would undoubtedly be our firſt Wiſh to obtain from him the Diſtricts of Chunar and Gauzipore in Exchange for it. The Honourable Company have earneſtly enjoined us to endeavour to effect this for the ſole Purpoſe of placing the King in the Poſſeſſion of a Territory ſituated ſo near to our Borders, and would, no doubt, be well pleaſed with the Acquiſition of it to their own Poſſeſſions; yet we are aware of the Repugnance of the Vizir to part with ſo valuable and important a Territory; and as we cannot, either in Juſtice, or in obedience to the Commands of our Superiors, which recommend the ſtricteſt Delicacy in our Negociations with their Ally, uſe any peremptory Requiſition with him to engage his Acquieſcence in ſuch an Accommodation; we content ourſelves with intimating the utmoſt Extent of our Deſires on this Head, leaving the Accompliſhment of them to your Management and Diſcretion in ſuch a Mode, and to ſuch a Degree, as you ſhall find yourſelf enabled to effect it.

If, however, as is moſt probable, the King ſhould make Overtures to renew his former Connections, we are of opinion, that his Right to reclaim the Diſtricts of Cora and Illahabad cannot with Propriety be diſputed, and we authoriſe you to reſtore them to him, on the Condition of his granting to the Company a ſolemn Renunciation of the Tribute which has been allowed him from the Provinces of Bengal and Bahar, both of the Arrears which may be due, and of all future Payments for ever. While we require this as a juſt Retribution for the Service afforded him in maintaining the Poſſeſſion of theſe Diſtricts againſt the Marattas, to whom his Weakneſs had abandoned them, we are juſtified by the ſtronger Plea of abſolute Neceſſity, in inſiſting upon it, as our Revenues are utterly unable to ſupport any longer ſo ruinous an Expence.

It is probable, that the ſevere Proof which he has recently experienced of his utter Inability to ſupport his Pretenſions to the Power and Dominions of his Anceſtors, and the diſgraceful Treatment which he has received from his falſe Protectors, will exempt him from the Hazard of the like Deluſion hereafter, and induce him to remain contented with his former Reſidence, in a State more ſuited to the moderate Compaſs of his Genius, and the reduced Influence of his Family; in that Caſe, it will be his beſt Policy to connect himſelf again with the Vizir, and to entruſt him with the Adminiſtration of his Affairs, as we do not ſee how it is poſſible for him to ſubſiſt by his own Strength, and the State of our Finances rendering it inconvenient to us to burthen ourſelves with ſo unprofitable a Charge. The Pride of the Vizir may be gratified with ſuch a Connection, and his Authority may derive ſome Degree of Support from the Veneration which is yet paid to the Royal Name. This Point, therefore, we heartily recommend to your Attention. The Power of the King and the Vizir being thus united, and the Object for which the Preſence of the King near the Borders of Bahar was deſired by the Company, being removed by the Renunciation of the Tribute, it will then become an immaterial Conſideration in what Part of the Territories of the Vizir he ſhall hereafter reſide.

We refer to you to adjuſt the Claim of the Vizir on the Company, for the Tuncaw granted him by the King on the Treaſury of Moorſhidabad, and herewith furniſh you with the Extracts from our Conſultation of 13th May, containing the only Information which we have hitherto received concerning that Tranſaction; and you will, no doubt, be furniſhed with the reſt from the Select Committee.

We empower you to renew, in behalf of Raja Cheyt Sing, the Stipulation which was formerly made with the Vizir in favour of his Father Raja Bulwand Sing, in conſideration of his Services to the Company in the Year 1764.

In a Treaty of firm Alliance with the Vizir, a free Intercourſe of Commerce with his Dominions ought to form an Article; and as you are acquainted with the earneſt Wiſhes of the Company on this Head, you will no doubt pay the greateſt Regard to them. The Regulation of this Commerce with reſpect to the Mode of carrying it on, and the Duties to be paid, will be an Object of your Attention, and we rely on your Care and Judgment for adjuſting theſe to the Satisfaction of our Employers. A ſimilar Regulation to that which we have lately adopted with reſpect to Duties in our own Territories, would be the moſt deſirable if the Vizir's Conſent can be obtained.

Mr. Laurell will have our Orders to meet you at Benaris, and furniſh you with ſuch Informations as he may have collected regarding the Diſtricts of Corah and Illahabad; he will alſo be directed to conform to any Meaſure or Stipulation which you may engage in for the Ceſſion of theſe Diſtricts.

We have found it neceſſary this Seaſon, for the more effectual Protection of the Vizir's Dominions, to extend our Operations to the Country of the Rohillas, on the North of the Ganges:

We,

We approve of your concerting with the Vizir any Plan which may be neceſſary for his future Security on that Side, conſiſtently with the Spirit of the Company's Orders.

In conſequence of the Meaſures which you may adopt, it will reſt with you to determine whether or not any Troops ſhall be ſtationed in the Vizir's Dominions: If there ſhould, we recommend that the Second Brigade do relieve the Firſt and take its Tour of that Duty.

We have already obſerved, that we mean rather to intimate our Wiſhes than lay down any abſolute Rules for your Conduct on this Occaſion. For your more particular Guidance, we furniſh you with Copies of the Public Treaties and the Company's Orders, extracted from their ſeveral Letters ſince the Firſt Treaty that was entered into with the Vizir.

P. 522. The Governor delivers in to the Board the following Report of his Negociations with the Nabob Suja ul Dowla at Benaras, and of his other Proceedings during his Abſence from the Preſidency, with all the Papers referred to in the Report.

To William Alderſey, Eſq. &c. Council at Fort William.

Gentlemen,

I have already adviſed you, in my Letter of the 7th September from Benaris, of the Iſſue of my Negociations, and the Sum of the Treaty concluded with the Vizir. I now lay before you N° 1. the Treaty itſelf, a Counterpart of which remains in his Poſſeſſion. The other Papers which accompany this I ſhall refer to, numbering them in the Order in which they may occur.

In the Courſe of my Journey to Benaris, I repeatedly addreſſed the King, adviſing him to ſend ſome Perſon of Confidence to meet me there with full Powers to treat upon his Affairs; he did not comply with my Advice, but contented himſelf with writing to the Vizir and to Munneer o' Dowlah, to demand the Balance of the Tribute of Bengal, the regular Payment of it in future, and the Reſtitution of Corah and Allahabad to Munneer o' Dowlah on his Behalf, but without impowering them to deviate from thoſe Demands. Under ſuch Circumſtances your Inſtructions directed me to treat for the Ceſſion of thoſe Countries with the Vizir. I propoſed to him the Exchange of the Territory of Rajah Cheyt Sing for them, but I found him inflexibly averſe to it. He replied, that if I inſiſted upon it, he had not the Power to diſpute it, and muſt of Neceſſity ſubmit, but that he would never willingly conſent to part with a Span of his Territory; that his principal Inducement to wiſh for the Diſtricts of Corah and Illahabad was that he might have the Credit of repoſſeſſing all the Territory which he before enjoyed, and had inherited from his Father; that an Exchange would defeat his Purpoſe; that he could have no Reaſon to give up a valuable Part of his Country, with a certain Revenue, for a Diſtrict which, even in Time of Peace, would not yield him near ſo large net Revenue as was paid him by Rajah Cheyt Sing; and in War, or even the Alarm of War, nothing, beſides being continually expoſed to the Invaſions of the Marattas. Theſe Arguments were certainly juſt, and as my View was to confirm and ſtrengthen the Alliance between him and the Company, and this Propoſal, if inſiſted upon, would have been productive of a contrary Effect, I thought it adviſable to drop it. Indeed I mentioned it but ſlightly, knowing his Repugnance to it; and I flatter myſelf that the Sum of 50 Lacks of Rupees, and the Stipulation of 210000 Rupees per Month for the Payment of an incomplete Brigade whenever required for his Service, will appear to you, Gentlemen, and to our Honourable Maſters, a very advantageous Compenſation for a Territory which perhaps ought in Policy to have been given to him, even though no Return had been made for it.

To have kept it ourſelves would have been inconſiſtent with the repeated and peremptory Commands of the Company. The 7th, 8th, and 10th Paragraphs of their General Letter, dated the 11th May 1769, are ſo directly in Point, and mark ſo forcibly their Sentiments concerning the Impropriety of holding Territories beyond the Boundary of their own Provinces, and ſeparate from them, that this Adminiſtration would have been culpable in the higheſt Degree in retaining Poſſeſſion of Corah and Illahabad for any other Purpoſe than that of making an Advantage by the Diſpoſal of them. It would have impoſed on us the Neceſſity of ſending our Troops continually out of the Provinces of Bengal, not at the Requiſition of the Vizier and at his Charge, but at our own Expence, and for the Protection of the diſtant Acquiſitions; and as the Marattas muſt unavoidably paſs either through theſe Diſtricts, or near them, to invade the Vizier, this would furniſh him with a perpetual Excuſe for refuſing to bear his Proportion of the Expence of the Forces which ſhould be employed in his Protection; nor indeed would it ever be neceſſary for him to call for their Aid, ſince the Preſence of our Army for the Protection of the Lands lying on his Frontier would make them a ſecure Barrier to him, and thus leave us the whole Burthen and immediate Hazard of the War, although he would be the greateſt, and and in the End would probably appear the only Gainer by it. Nor is their Contiguity less exceptionable on account of the Tendency which our Poſſeſſion of them would have to deſtroy the Harmony and good Underſtanding which our Honourable Maſters ſo earneſtly enjoin us to maintain with the Vizier their Ally, ſince, as he himſelf obſerved to me upon it, they do not form a compact and detached Space, which would admit of an eaſy Defence from One central Station, with its Bounds clearly defined, but conſiſt in a narrow Line without Breadth extending along the Weſtern Frontier of his Dominions, and ſo intermixed with them (many Parts lying on the Eaſtern Bank of the River) that his Aumils and ours would be for ever engaged in mutual Quarrels, which could not fail to weaken the Friendſhip between him and the Company, as it would be impoſſible to examine on which Side the Right lay at ſo great a Diſtance from our Obſervation; nor (to uſe the Words of our Honourable Maſters) could we ſend a Man or a Gun for the Defence "of theſe new Acquiſitions, without paſſing through his Country, which would "be a perpetual Source of Diſpute and Complaint."

Had we reſtored theſe Diſtricts to the King, who ſo lately abandoned them, and who is confeſſedly unable by his own Strength to maintain them, we ſhould ſtill have been burthened with the Care of their Defence, or we ſhould have given them only nominally to the King, but in reality to the Marattas; the evil Conſequences of which it is needleſs to enumerate.

By ceding them to the Vizier, we ſtrengthen our Alliance with him; we make him more dependent upon us, as he is more expoſed to the Hoſtilities of the Marattas; we render a Junction between him and them, which has been ſometimes apprehended, morally impoſſible, ſince the Pretenſions to Corah will be a conſtant Source of Animoſity between them; we free ourſelves from the Expence and all the Dangers attending either a remote Property or a remote Connection; we adhere literally to the limited Syſtem laid down by the Honourable Court of Directors; we are no longer under the Neceſſity of exhauſting the Wealth of our own Provinces in the Pay and Diſburſements of our Brigades employed at a Diſtance beyond them; but, by fixing the Sum to be paid by the Vizier for their Services at their whole Expence, and by removing every poſſible Cauſe for their paſſing our own Borders, but at his Requiſition and for his Defence, we provide effectually for the Protection of our Frontier, and reduce the Expences of our Army even in employing it; and, laſtly, we acquire a net Sum of 50 Lacks of Rupees, moſt ſeaſonably obtained for the Relief of the Company's Neceſſities and the deficient Circulation of the Currency of the Provinces.

P. 530. The Vizier was at firſt very deſirous of the Aſſiſtance of an Engliſh Force to put him in Poſſeſſion of the Rohilla Country, lying North of his Dominions and Eaſt of the Ganges. This has long been a favourite Object of his Wiſhes; and you will recollect that the firſt Occaſion of my late Viſit was furniſhed by a Propoſal of this Kind. He had certainly juſt Grounds of Reſentment againſt the Chiefs of this Nation, who had not only failed in their Engagements to pay him 40 Lacks of Rupees for his Protection againſt the Marattas, but had actually ſupplied them with Money when they appeared in Arms againſt him. He offered to make the Company a Conſideration for this Service of 40 Lacks of Rupees, beſides the ſtipulated Sum for the Expences of our Troops; but he afterwards laid aſide this Deſign, fearing that it would diſable him from fulfilling his Engagements for Corah and Illahabad.

P. 531. The Vizier having no Occaſion for the Services of the Firſt Brigade, I have directed it to return within the Provinces, and I have ordered Lieutenant Colonel Muir, with a Battalion of Sepoys from the Second Brigade, to relieve Lieutenant Colonel Wilding in the Fort of Chunar.

P. 532. The Vizier inſiſted very ſtrongly on his Right to the Balance of the King's Tuncaws on the Treaſury of Moorſhedabad; he ſaid that he advanced the Money for which they were granted to him on the Faith of Lord Clive's Agreements at Illahabad before there was the ſmalleſt Intimation that the Tribute would be diſcontinued; and that Mr. Cartier had both promiſed him Payment and accepted his Aſſignments on them. As theſe Arguments appear to be well grounded, and the Amount of the Tuncaws was actually due to the King before he ſeparated himſelf from our Protection, I thought our Credit required that this Demand ſhould be complied with, and I accordingly agreed to it.

His Engagements for the extra Expence of the Firſt Brigade during the laſt Campaign have been adjuſted, and the Account cloſed to the 15th of this Month. The Balance being 4,52,834:13:3, is to be paid by an Aſſignment; 3,23,000 on the King's Tuncaw, and the remaining 1,29,834:13:3, in ready Money at Fyzabad. No. 14 is a Copy of the Account.

In the Courſe of our Conferences he made a Demand upon me for the Pay of the Nineteenth Battalion of Sepoys from the Time it was firſt ſtationed with him, and was very urgent for the Payment. I told him I was not then furniſhed with the neceſſary Papers to enable me to adjuſt the Account at Benaris, this being the firſt Intimation that I had ever received of his having ſuch a Claim, but promiſed to ſettle it equitably after my Return to Calcutta. The Vehemence with which he inſiſted on the immediate Concluſion of this Buſineſs, notwithſtanding the Length of Time in which it had remained unnoticed, proved an Interruption to the other more important Affairs which were depending. The incloſed Tranſlation of our Correſpondence on the Subject, No. 15, will will explain the Circumſtances of this Demand. You will obſerve that the Vizier denies his having agreed to pay 15,000 R' a Month for his Half of the extra Expences of the Brigade at Illahabad: But this Circumſtance ſeems to be very well atteſted; and he at length acquieſced to refer it to our Records, and if theſe ſhould eſtabliſh the Claim, to allow it to ſtand againſt his Advances for the Nineteenth Battalion.

I had much Converſation with the Vizir concerning a free Intercourſe of Commerce with his Dominions, and recommended to him an Eſtabliſhment of Cuſtoms ſimilar to that which we have lately adopted in Bengal, of which I gave him a Plan and Explanation in Writing, but I found it impoſſible to convince him of the Utility of either. He ſeemed confirmed in the Perſuaſion that the current Specie of his Country would be drained by a free Trade with ours; that if the Engliſh Gomaſtahs were authorized to reſide there, they would exerciſe an Authority prejudicial to his Revenue, notwithſtanding any Regulations or Reſtrictions of our Government, and involve him in Diſputes which perhaps might end in the Ruin of his Connections with the Company. I promiſed that no Engliſh Gentleman ſhould reſide in his Country, and that I would never interfere in any Diſputes between Engliſh Gomaſtahs and his People, which I left to be decided by his Officers, who might exerciſe the ſame Authority over them as over his own Subjects. As I found it impoſſible to overcome his Objections, and I learnt that Myrzapoor was the Mart from which not only his Dominions, but all the interior Parts of Indoſtan were ſupplied with Goods from Bengal, I judged it improper to preſs him any further to agree to Innovations ſo much againſt his Will, when I could effect the ſame Purpoſes by an Agreement with Rajah Cheyt Sing, to whom the Town of Myrzapoor belongs, as well as all the intermediate Country from the Borders of Bahar. I informed him of my Intention, to which he ſaid he had no Objection. I accordingly ſettled with Raja Cheyt Sing, that the Articles of Broad Cloth, Copper, and Lead bought at the Company's Sales ſhould paſs Duty free through his Territories at Myrzapoor, and that on all other Goods he ſhall collect an equal Rate of Duties from all Merchants, European or Native, or others indiſcriminately.

P. 536. I applied to the Vizir for the Diſmiſſion of Mr. Gentil, uſing ſuch Arguments as I thought moſt likely to induce him to make it his voluntary Act, but not inſiſting on it. He promiſed that he would diſmiſs him; but I confeſs I much doubt whether he will. As the peremptory Injunctions of the Company in the 52d and 53d Paragraphs of their Letter to the Commiſſioners, dated the 23d March 1770, required my Endeavours to obtain this Point, ſo I have literally obſerved their Orders in the Mode in which I ſolicited his Compliance with it. At the ſame Time I muſt declare my Opinion, that the Man has acquired his Importance only from the Notice with which he has been thus repeatedly honoured, having neither Abilities nor Influence which are likely to affect our Intereſt.

☞ (a) " [In the Courſe of our Converſation, the Vizier frequently expreſſed the Satisfaction which he had received from our Meeting, and from the friendly and confidential Intercourſe which had taken place between us. Though ſuch Profeſſions are not always to be received in their literal Senſe, I took Occaſion from them to aſk him, whether it would be agreeable to him that a Perſon in whom I confide ſhould be appointed by me to reſide near his Perſon, for the ſake of perpetuating and ſtrengthening the good Underſtanding ſo happily begun, as well as for the Tranſaction of ſuch ordinary Affairs as might not ſuit the Formality of a Correſpondence by Letter, but which, in their Amount, are always found to be productive of important Effects? That I deſired it myſelf; but unleſs it was equally his Wiſh, I would neither propoſe nor conſent to it, as it would not, in ſuch a Caſe, be productive of the good Effects which I meant to derive from it. He declared to me, that it would be entirely pleaſing to him. I told him, that I would again addreſs him after my Return to Calcutta on the ſame Subject, when I ſhould have made choice of a Perſon duly qualified for ſo important a Truſt. It now reſts with you, Gentlemen, to determine on the Propriety of this Appointment. I will offer it frankly as my Opinion, that if you ſhall think it proper to entruſt with me the ſole Nomination of ſuch a Reſident, and the Power of recalling him whenever I ſhall judge his Preſence to be no longer neceſſary, it may be attended with good Effects. In any other Mode, I fear the Appointment would exclude me from being any longer the Channel of Connection between this Government and the Vizier, and prevent me from availing myſelf of that Influence with him, which I have taken much Pains to eſtabliſh, and I hope not altogether unſucceſsfully."]

P. 540. Treaty with Sujah ul Dowlah. No. 1.

The Vizir of the Empire Aſiph jah Shujah ul Mulk, the Nabob Shujah ul Dowlah, Aboul Munſoor Cawn Bahader, Sifdar Jung Sippah Salah on the one Part, and Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Preſident of the Council, Governor of Fort William, and Commander in Chief of the Forces of the Engliſh Company, in the Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Oriſſa, for and in the Name of the Engliſh Company, on the other Part, do agree on the following Articles:

1ſt. Whereas in the Treaty concluded at Allahabad, the 16th Auguſt 1765, between the Vizir and the Company, it is expreſſed that the Diſtricts of Corah and Allahabad were given to his Majeſty for his Expences; and whereas his Majeſty has abandoned the Poſſeſſion of the aforeſaid Diſtricts, and even given a Sunnud for Corah and Currah to the Marattas, to the great Prejudice of the Intereſts both of the Vizir and of the Engliſh Company, and contrary to the Meaning of the ſaid Treaty, and hath thereby forfeited his Right to the ſaid Diſtricts, which has reverted to the Company, from whom he received it; it is therefore agreed, that the aforeſaid Diſtricts ſhall be put into the Poſſeſſion of the Vizier on the following Conditions; and that in the ſame Manner as the Province of Owd and the other Dominions of the Vizir are poſſeſſed by him, ſo ſhall he poſſeſs Corah, and Curray, and Allahabad, for ever; he ſhall by no Means, and under no Pretence, be liable to any Obſtructions in the aforeſaid Countries from the Company and Engliſh Chiefs; and excluſive of the Money now ſtipulated, no Mention or Requiſition ſhall by any Means be made to him for any Thing elſe on this Account. This Argument ſhall be obſerved by all the Engliſh Chiefs, Gentlemen of the Council, and by the Company, nor ſhall it ever be broke or deviated from.

CONDITIONS: viz.

He ſhall pay to the Company Fifty Lacks (50,00000) of Sicca Rupees, according to the Currency of the Province of Owd, as follows, viz.

In ready Money, - -		20,00,000
In Two Years after the Date hereof; viz.

The Second Year, - -	15,00,000
		30,00,000
Sicca Rupees		50,00,000

2d. To prevent any Diſpute ariſing concerning the Payments which ſhall be made by the Vizir, for the Expences of the Company's Troops that may march to his Aſſiſtance, it is agreed, that the Expence of a Brigade ſhall be computed at Two Lacks Ten Thouſand (2,10,000) Sicca Rupees per Month, according to the Currency of the Province of Owd.—By a Brigade is meant as follows; viz.

2 Battalions of Europeans.
6 Battalions of Sepoys.
1 Company of Artillery.

The Expence of the ſaid Troops ſhall be defrayed by the Vizir, from the Time that they ſhall have paſſed the Borders of his Dominions, till they return within the Borders of the Province of Bahar; and excluſive of the abovementioned Sum, no more ſhall on any Account be demanded from him. Should the Company and the Engliſh Chiefs have occaſion to ſend for the Troops of the Vizir, the Company and Engliſh Chiefs ſhall alſo pay their Expences in the like Manner.

P. 546. From the King to the Governor. N° 8.

We are informed, by our loyal Servant Manneer ul Dowlah, that you, the Strength of our Empire, have ſent your own Aumils into the Diſtricts of Allahabad and Corah. My choſen Servant! it is now Two Years ſince we have received any Money from Bengal, Allahabad, or Corah, and our Diſtreſs for Money is in the greateſt Degree. The Engliſh Chiefs are bound by a Treaty of Allegiance to our ſacred Perſon, to pay our Tribute from Bengal, and at what Place ſoever we may reſide, to let Corah and Allahabad remain in the Hands of our own Servants. From this Treaty we are aſſured there will be no Deviation, conſidering the Loyalty and Rectitude of you our loyal Servant. We have full Confidence that you will remit to our Preſence the Balance of our Tribute from Bengal, and continue the monthly Payments in future; and that you will deliver up Corah and Allahabad into the Hands of Munneer ul Dowlah, and at the ſame Time enforce Payment of our Revenue from thence, regularly Month by Month. Do you our loyal Servant, in concert with our Brother as dear as Life, the Vizir of the Empire, come to our Royal Preſence. Should it happen that you cannot yourſelf come, let General Barker be ſent, and after their Arrival we ſhall aſſent to whatſoever they may propoſe. We had Intentions of ſending to you our noble Kinſman Mujad ul Dowlah, to communicate to you our Commands, and to reconcile you to our Royal Perſon, of which we informed you in a former Shuleha: Afterwards this Counſel occurred to our enlightened Mind; that if we were informed that you had Intentions of ſettling the Affairs of our Empire, we would then ſend our noble Kinſman to you, that after learning from him our Royal Commands, you might diſpatch the General with the Vizier to our Preſence; and we could then be aſſured, that when we had Two ſuch Supports with us as the Vizir and the General, your Emulation would not ſuffer you to permit the Uſurpers, and Diſturbers of the Peace of our Empire, ſuch as the Jauts and the Rohillas, to hold Poſſeſſions ſo near our Capital. As for the reſt, know that our Royal Favour attends you. Remit our Tribute from Bengal, and give up Corah and Allahabad, which will give the utmoſt Satisfaction to our ſacred Perſon.

Poſtſcript in the King's own Hand.

Do you, our loyal Servants, come with Cheerfulneſs to our Preſence. After ſettling Affairs here, we ſhall give our Royal Aſſent to whatever you may repreſent.

From the Governor to His Majeſty Shah Allum. N° 9.

Written the 13th September 1773.

I have had the Honour to receive your Majeſty's Commands by the Hands of Mahomed Jacob Cawn, which I have thoroughly underſtood.

Long before my Arrival at Benaras, I repeatedly addreſſed your Majeſty with a Requeſt, that ſome Perſon of Confidence, and impowered to treat upon your Majeſty's Affairs, might be appointed to meet me at that Place: And I was happy when you intimated to me your Pleaſure, that Mugid ul Dowlah was deputed for this Buſineſs, becauſe I had no Doubt, that with the Aſſiſtance of ſo capable a Perſon every Thing would be adjuſted to your Majeſty's Satisfaction, as I repreſented in the Addreſſes which I ſent on this Subject. But upon my Arrival at Benaras, I underſtood that the Orders for his Departure were repealed, and that your Majeſty's Attention was engaged in other Affairs. In this Caſe I was remedileſs. The Vizir having afforded me a Meeting at the abovementioned Place, after many Conferences, I judged it moſt expedient, for the Security of the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe Parts, and even for the Benefit of your Majeſty's Affairs, that the Chucklahs of Corah and Allahabad ſhould be reſtored to his Poſſeſſion, and I have accordingly aſſigned them to him. I think it incumbent on me to explain to your Majeſty fully my Motives for this Tranſaction. While the Union between yourſelf and the Company ſubſiſted, your Majeſty is Witneſs, and all the World have ſeen, that, poſtponing the Conſideration of every other Concern, the Wealth and Forces of the Engliſh Company were continually employed in promoting your Proſperity, and in the Care of your Safety the ſame Deſire and Attachment ſtill prevail; but the Neceſſity of the Times requires other Meaſures and other Counſels. When your Majeſty ſeparated yourſelf from the Engliſh and the Vizir, and gave your Preference to, and conferred your royal Favours on others, whoſe Views have ever been hoſtile to your former Friends and Allies. Whatever Power your Majeſty poſſeſſed inſtantly became theirs, and preſuming upon it, they oppoſed their Taxes to the Vizir and the Forces of the Engliſh Company, and even proceeded to Acts of Violence againſt both, which we forbore to repel, from Reſpect to your Perſon, which authorized their Proceedings. What Return of Loyalty and Services your Majeſty received for the Grace which you thus beſtowed upon them, your Majeſty beſt knows. In Addition to your other Bounties, you were pleaſed to grant them Sunnuds for the Diſtricts of Corah and Currah, which in effect would have alſo given them the Command of Allahabad. By whatever Means the Sunnuds were obtained, it is evident that your Majeſty either wanted Power to retain theſe Diſtricts, or that you abandoned them of your own free Will to Strangers, whoſe Deſigns and Intereſts were ever contrary to the Deſigns and Intereſts of the Company. As theſe Diſtricts were originally aſſigned by the Company for the Purpoſe of paying your Expences, when they ceaſed to be your Property, by the univerſal Principles of Juſtice they reverted to the Company, from whom you firſt received them; and I accordingly cauſed Poſſeſſion to be taken of them in the Name of the Company, both for the Security of their Rights, and to prevent an Enemy from uſurping them: And I have given them to the Vizir for theſe Reaſons; firſt, becauſe as his Intereſts and the Company's were the ſame, and this Country lay contiguous to his, the Defence of it would be more eaſy, and our mutual Alliance become ſtronger by this Addition to his Dominions. Secondly, Becauſe the Vizir being your Firſt Servant, and the only Repreſentative of your Perſon, it would enable him hereafter more effectually to ſerve your Majeſty, and to retrieve your Affairs. It was certainly my Intention to have put theſe Diſtricts again into your Hands, and it was with this View that I ſo repeatedly entreated your Majeſty to ſend a Perſon of your Confidence, to ſettle with me the Means of effecting this, and the other Arrangements dependent on the Company. But as no one came, and being informed that nobody would come, and I knew, that without ſome well-concerted Plan of Defence, to reſtore them to your Hands would in effect be to give them up to the Marattas, and prove a certain Means of arming their Hands againſt us, I was therefore compelled to change my firſt Deſign, and act as the Neceſſity of the Seaſon adviſed.

Upon the Affairs of Bengal, I have before, in my Letters, repreſented the diſtreſſed Conditions of the People, and the Poverty of the Country, which are ſolely owing to the heavy Drafts which have been made of its current Specie for your Majeſty's Remittances. As it is the Will of God, and agreeable to the Commands of the Engliſh Company, my Maſters, that I am entruſted with the Care and Protection of the People of theſe Provinces, and as their Condition, which is at this Time on the Edge of Miſery, would be ruined paſt Remedy, by draining the Country of the little Wealth which remains in it, I muſt plainly declare, that until the Safety and Welfare of theſe Provinces will admit of it, I cannot conſent that a ſingle Rupee be ſent out of them, which it is in my Power to detain. This Declaration I make from the Integrity of my Heart, and a real Attachment to your Majesty, which will not suffer me to deceive you by doubtful Promises, while I am certain that they can have but one Effect. For the Arrest, I pray to the Almighty for a more favourable Season, to enable me to shew my Zeal for your Majesty's Service, and shall continually communicate with the Vizir on the Means of exerting our Endeavours in Conjunction for this Purpose; which, God willing, may be speedily and happily accomplished.

APPENDIX, N° LXVI.

To the Nabob Vizier.—Written 21st May 1777.

THE Alliance which has so long subsisted, and is now so firmly established, between your Excellency and the Company, has happily been productive of the greatest Advantages to both, and it is evident that no Benefit or Misfortune can attend either, of which the other will not essentially participate. This Union of inseparable Interests renders it my indispensable Duty, as the Representative of the English Nation and of the East India Company, not only to advise, but to urge in the most earnest Terms, every Expedient that may promote the Prosperity of your Dominions and the Increase of your Reputation, but more especially such as are required for your Safety from impending Danger.

It is now Two Years since, at your Request, I assented to the Appointment of British Officers, for the command and disciplining of your Troops. The Deference which I always pay to your Wishes would alone have been Motive sufficient to engage my Compliance with them on that Occasion, but a more forcible Reason subsisted in the Danger to which your Person and Dominions were exposed, from the licentious Outrage of your Sepoys. These were Considerations of too alarming a Nature to admit of Delay, although I plainly perceived the Defects of the System then adopted, and which have in fact since attended it: They are many, but I shall content myself with mentioning only the principal ones.

1st. The Officers employed in your Excellency's Service are released from the Company's Authority, without being subject to yours in such a Degree, as is necessary for establishing a proper Dependance on you, and due Obedience to your Commands.

2dly. The Expence of your Army being uncontrouled by the Authority of this Government, cannot be regulated by that Œconomy which in Reason and Justice ought to be observed for your Excellency's Advantage.

The Abuses arising from these Defects are daily accumulating, and unless immediately remedied must terminate in the most fatal Consequences, from a total Relaxation in the Discipline of the Troops, and an Increase of Expence too enormous for your Excellency to bear.

The sincere Friendship which I entertain for your Excellency, and the anxious Concern which I feel for your Welfare, have excited my utmost Attention, and engaged a considerable Portion of my Time, in devising Means for obviating the Effects which must follow the Continuation of so faulty a System.

After revolving many Plans in my Mind, I have at length adopted the following, which on the maturest Deliberation is, I am convinced, the best that can at present be formed for our mutual Advantage, and absolutely necessary to be carried into immediate Execution—It is this:

☞ (a) [That of the Troops now belonging to your Excellency, and commanded by British Officers, the following Corps be transferred to the Service of the Company, viz. Nine Battalions of Sepoys, Three Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Horse,—One more to be added for that Purpose, to complete the Establishment.

2dly. That these Corps be formed into a Brigade, for the Service of your Excellency entirely; but, for the sake of maintaining Discipline and Subordination, be immediately subjected to the Authority of this Government, by which their Pay is to be issued, their Accounts regulated, their Expence controuled, and their Conduct ultimately directed; but they shall act solely under your Orders, in all their military Operations, for the Defence of every Part of your Dominions, whilst you retain them in your Service.

(a) Vide supra, P. 763.

3dly. That an Eſtimate be formed of the Expence of this Eſtabliſhment, on the Trial of One or Two Months, which your Excellency will defray; and after that, the ſame ſhall remain a fixed Charge for ſo long a Time as you ſhall require the Corps for your Service.]

Your Excellency will perceive by this Plan, that no ſubſtantial Charge is made by it, either in the Strength or Service of the preſent Eſtabliſhment, but that it is formally converted to the Service of the Company, for the ſole Purpoſes of rendering it more effectual to yours, and the leaſt burthenſome to your Finances.

If you approve of this Meaſure, as this is the Seaſon for executing it, I hope that you will be pleaſed to iſſue immediate Orders to Colonel Goddard to that Effect: I have written to him accordingly.

APPENDIX, N° LXVII.

From the Vizier.—Received 17th June.

AFTER recapitulating the Contents of the Governor's Letter of the 21ſt of May, he proceeds thus:

The Defects which you point out in the Syſtem on which the Forces under Britiſh Officers are now eſtabliſhed, do in fact exiſt, and the Plan which you have formed to remedy theſe Defects is of the wiſeſt Nature, and calculated to promote the Advantage of my Government: Convinced that in the Eſtabliſhment of this Syſtem you heartily wiſh the Proſperity of my Government, which in the Eye of Friendſhip is that of the Company's alſo, I have therefore given my Approbation to the Plan.

It is well known that the Engliſh Chiefs, keeping the Intereſt and Proſperity of my Government conſtantly in View, have exerted themſelves on all Occaſions to promote theſe Ends, and having never been deficient in affording me their Aid and Aſſiſtance, have been the Supporters of my Honour and Dignity, and they will continue ſuch.—It is needleſs to mention this.

(a) [It is alſo equally certain, that I regard it as an indiſpenſable Obligation on me to preſerve the warmeſt Friendſhip for the illuſtrious Engliſh Chiefs from that Day, when, by the Means of the Engliſh Friendſhip, I aſcended, by hereditary Right, the Muſnud of my Anceſtors. It has been my moſt earneſt Deſire deeply engraved on my Mind, by every Means to preſerve a ſtrict Friendſhip and Union with them, and to cultivate and improve it to the utmoſt, which would be the Means of inſuring my Stability and Intereſt. Actuated by theſe Sentiments, I intruſted my Intereſts to the Engliſh Chiefs, and have, on every Occaſion, regulated my Conduct by their Opinion and Advice, and have never in any one Inſtance acted contrary to their Pleaſure.]

I have accordingly found the Affairs of my Government improving daily, and it is morally certain, that I ſhall ever preſerve the ſtricteſt Friendſhip for them, and always keep in View the Duties which ſuch Friendſhip and Union require at my Hands, and on no Account deviate therefrom.

The new Forces which you wiſh to raiſe to complete the preſent Syſtem, I entirely approve of and agree to: Of the Troops now commanded by Britiſh Officers, I have transferred to the Company 9 Battalions of Sepoys, 3 Companies of Artillery, 2 Regiments of Horſe, and One more Regiment of Horſe to be raiſed in the Room of 3 Battalions which ſhall be diſmiſſed from the 12 Battalions now on Foot. I have accordingly given Colonel Goddard Information of this. It now depends on you and the Gentlemen of Council to diſcipline and direct theſe Forces, which I have transferred to the Company, in ſuch Manner as you may think the Circumſtances of the Times require.

I HAVE had the Pleaſure to receive your agreeable Letter. (Vide N° 36.*)

Actuated by Sentiments of the warmeſt Friendſhip and Regard towards me, you write that you conſider yourſelf as under an Obligation to point out to me every Circumſtance by which my Intereſt and the Proſperity of my Affairs may be affected, and that it is equally incumbent on me, both in Conſideration of our Friendſhip and of the Succeſs of my own Affairs, to pay Attention to your Advice; and in the first Place you observe, it is highly expedient that all Men of mean Extraction and unworthy Characters, such as Imaum Buksh, whose Society reflects Dishonour on my Government, and is fraught with Detriment to my Affairs, be banished for ever from my Presence and Dominions. 2d. That I should chuse a Naib of Capacity for the Exercise of my Authority in the Management of my Affairs, and of approved Attachment and Integrity, such as Hussein Reza Khan. 3dly. That having invested the said Khan with the Management of all my Affairs, especial Orders should be given that all the Officers of my Government act under his immediate Direction, and that he should be directed to retrench all my superfluous Expences.

All these Particulars I clearly comprehend, and feel the utmost Pleasure and Gratitude from the Consideration of these Instances of your Affection and Regard.

☞ (a) [My Friend! My Nature revolts at all base and unworthy Characters. Before the Arrival of your friendly Letter, I had expressed my Displeasure against Imaum Buksh, and driven him from my Counsels; nor did I admit any Person of such a Character in my Presence. I had long before that Period given the sole Direction of all my Affairs, Civil and Military, into the Hands of Hussein Reza Khan. It is true, that he is a Man of old and proved Attachment to my Family, and of great Capacity, Experience, and Discernment; and I am fully convinced of, and highly satisfied with, his Integrity and Fidelity; and since you, my Friend, have judged it advisable that he should be entrusted with the Management of the Affairs of my Government, and have given it me as your Advice accordingly, requiring no further Inducement, I have invested him with the Charge thereof, and given express Injunctions to all my Officers implicitly to obey all my Orders issued by the said Khan. You may rely with the utmost Confidence on these Declarations which I have made. My Desire to comply with your Advice on every Occasion is without Bounds.]

I regard the said Khan in the Light of a true and hearty Friend, and approve of all his Measures. You may rest assured of this. Let me request that you will continue to favour me with your Advice on every Occasion in which my Interest is concerned. I know you to be a warm Friend, ever attentive to my Happiness. In your Friendship is my Strength and Security.

Regarding me as ever anxious to hear of your Welfare, I flatter myself you will frequently let me enjoy that Pleasure.

☞ (b) [At a Council; Present,

The Honourable Warren Hastings, Governor General, President;
Richard Barwell, Philip Francis, } Esquires.

THE Proceedings of the 1st Instant read and approved. Read the following Letter from Mr. Middleton:

Mr. Middleton, 18th August.

Honourable Sir and Sirs,

Not being favoured with your Commands, in Reply to my Address of the 26th June, and being moreover apprehensive, that with the very large Claims which the Company now have on his Excellency, the Mode I there proposed, of taking, in every Instance, Assignments of whole Districts, where the Vizier's Power of Controul over the Aumils, on the Troops stationed with them, should in no Respect be exerted, would almost annihilate every Appearance of his Excellency's retaining any Authority in his own Dominions; I thought it better to consent to what the Nabob himself appeared willing to allow, and what, I flatter myself, will be deemed by the Honourable Board as adequate a Security for the Claims of the ensuing Year, as the present State of Affairs in this Country would admit of. His Excellency has agreed to assign over the Rents of the Provinces of Rohilcund and the Doaub, after deducting the Charges of Collection, the usual stationary Troops there, and the Claims for recoverable Balances of last Year, exclusively, to the Payment of the Company's Demands; the Aumils to be either of my Appointment, or such as I shall approve; and with whom I am at Liberty to expressly stipulate, that, except on the Accounts above mentioned, they shall not pay any Drafts whatever but mine, on Pain of their immediate Removal. The Districts of Allahabad, Corah, Sharah, Jugdrispoor, &c. are to be assigned over to me in the same Manner, after deducting such Part of the Jagheers of Sallar Jung and Mirsa Allee, as have always been upon those Districts. For the Remainders of the Company's

Claims,

Claims, his Excellency has ordered his Miniſters to lay before me ſuch a State of Aſſignments as ſhall, in Amount and Security, appear to me fully ſufficient, and gave me a ſolemn Aſſurance, that he would not make a Grant of a ſingle Tuncaw upon any of his Diſtricts until this be done. As the making the Bundobuſt of the Country, with the ſingle Stipulation in favour of Bow Anny Sing, has been committed to the Miniſtry, I hope, with their Aſſiſtance, to have ſuch Aumils appointed, and ſuch an Influence over them, that I need be under no Apprehenſions, where I have even only partial Drafts on them, of their paying the Claims of others in Preference, or to the Injury of the Company's. The Nabob's Orderlies, from whom I ſhould have moſt to dread, will be excluded, unleſs it may, perhaps, be judged expedient to give ſome ſmall Diſtricts to one or two of them, who have ſome Claim to Favour, from having paid the Aſſignments on them this Year entirely, or nearly, without Balance. For a further Security to the realizing the Aſſignments given in favour of the Honourable Company, and to obviate one of the moſt ordinary and principal Cauſes of Balances this Year, the diſorderly Behaviour of the Troops ſtationed for the Defence of the Provinces, or quartered on them for Subſiſtence, I have obtained his Excellency's Conſent to Three of his Battalions being delivered over to me, for the Purpoſe of aſſiſting the Aumils in the Maintenance of their Authority, both over the Zemindars, and againſt any Troops who may diſtreſs the Province by riotous Behaviour or oppreſſive Exactions; and alſo to ſecure the realizing of my Claims, when and wherever I may think them in Danger of being invaded or violated.]

I have this Day encloſed to the Governor General a Letter from his Excellency, requeſting that a commanding Officer, and Three others under him, may be appointed by the Honourable Board to theſe Troops. With this Force, which is to be paid by me in the ſame Manner as his other Troops under Britiſh Officers, I think it will be eaſy to prevent any Alienations of the Company's Rights from the Violence of the Nabob's lawleſs Troops, and alſo that Devaſtation to the Country itſelf, and real Injury to its Revenues, which was ſo generally occaſioned from the ſame Cauſe. As it will take ſome Time to adjuſt exactly this Year's Balance and Receipts Account, the Army's Subſidy, the Company's Account Current, and the Vizier's Troops under Britiſh Officers, as well as to ſettle the Aumils Account for this Year, and to make the Settlement with them for the next, I muſt defer the drawing out a general Statement to an After-period. In the mean while I have the Pleaſure to inform you that the Doaub has been already aſſigned over to me, and an Aumil appointed thereto of the beſt and moſt eſtabliſhed Reputation in the Country, and that I am ſtudiouſly and unremittingly endeavouring, in conjunction with the Miniſters, to ſettle the whole Claims on his Excellency in a Manner which I flatter myſelf will meet with your Approbation. As ſoon as ever Matters may be finally adjuſted, I ſhall not fail to forward you the moſt particular Account both of the Balances of this Year, and the Nature of the Aſſignment for the Liquidation of them, and the Demand for the next Year.

Lucknow, 18th Auguſt 1777. (Signed) Nath. Middleton, Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Minutes of the Board on Mr. Middleton's Letters.

The Governor General.—Although the Continuance of the Three remaining Battalions of the Nabob's diſciplined Sepoys on their original Footing, is liable to the ſame Objections in Part as thoſe which I have ſtated againſt the entire Corps to which they formerly belonged; yet as the Nabob's Aſſignments have hitherto proved ſo defective, and as I know that no Part of his Revenues can be realized without a ſtrong military Force, as well to enforce Payment from the Zemindars, as to oppoſe the Competitions of others, on whom the Nabob may laviſh Grants on the ſame Lands; and as the Meaſure has come recommended both by the Vizier and the Reſident, I muſt propoſe that it be confirmed, that the Board do permit ſuch of their Officers to command them as may be required for that Purpoſe, but that the Term of their Service be limited to One Year, or a leſs Time, if other Means can be deviſed in the intermediate Time, for the Security of the Tuncaw Collections. I would further propoſe, that Mr. Middleton be directed to tranſmit to us a particular Account of the aſſigned Lands, ſpecifying the particular Services to which each is appropriated, and their eſtimated Amount.

☞ (a) [Mr. Francis.—By the foregoing Letter from Mr. Middleton, it appears, that he has taken the Government of the Nabob's Dominions directly upon himſelf. I was not a Party to the Reſolutions which preceded that Meaſure, and will not be anſwerable for the Conſequences of it.]

Mr. Barwell acquieſces in the Governor General's Motion.

Agreed to the Governor General's Motion, and reſolved, That Mr. Middleton be informed accordingly, when an Anſwer ſhall be written to his other Letters now before the Board.

Extract of a Conſultation, of the 19th May 1777.

Fort William, the 19th May 1777.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,
Lieutenant General John Clavering.
Richard Barwell, and } Eſquires.
Philip Francis, }

RECONSIDERED the Governor General's Plan for regulating the Troops under Britiſh Officers in the Service of the Nabob of Oude, which ſtands recorded in Conſultation of the 5th Inſtant.

Mr. Francis delivers his Opinion in the following Minute.

A Plan for a great military Arrangement, which has not been concerted with the Commander in Chief, nor communicated to him, comes before me without that Authority which his Recommendation would give to any Meaſure properly belonging to his Department. The Views of the Legiſlature in General Clavering's Appointment are well known. The Company concurred in them, by appointing him Commander in Chief of all their Forces in India. The Tenor of their Inſtructions, and the Approbation they have ſince given him, ſhew plainly how much they originally depended on his Knowledge and Experience in military Affairs, and how much they ſtill expect from his Services. Our Inſtructions evidently draw a Line between the Civil and Military Departments, which had not been preſcribed to any former Government, and give Powers to the Commander in Chief, which had hereforore been exerciſed by the Preſident of the Council, yet without limiting any of thoſe which belong to the former as a Member of the Adminiſtration. A Diſtribution of Power eſtabliſhed by ſuch Authority, ought to be inviolably preſerved, and every Evaſion of it oppoſed. On theſe Principles I object, in the firſt Inſtance, to the Introduction of a Plan for a new military Eſtabliſhment to which the Commander in Chief is not a Party; and ſuppoſing the Meaſure to be reſolved on without his Concurrence, ſhall deem the Governor General and Mr. Barwell particularly reſponſible for all the Conſequences that may attend it.

My Objections to the Meaſure itſelf are partly to the Propriety of the Plan in its Detail, without a Reference to its main Object, but principally to its general Purpoſe and Operation. The laſt are fundamental, and not to be removed by any Arguments by which the firſt might be anſwered. I mean, that if the Plan within itſelf were unexceptionable, as a military Arrangement; that alone would not be to me a ſufficient Motive for adopting it.

1ſt. I underſtand it is propoſed to augment the Company's preſent Force with Nine Battalions of Sepoys, Three Companies of Artillery, and Six Regiments of Cavalry. Theſe, whether paid by the Nabob or not, are to conſtitute Part of our ſtanding Army, though not for the Defence of Bengal. Three of the above Regiments of Cavalry are, however, not to be raiſed without the Company's Orders, out of whoſe Treaſury this Part of the Expence is to be provided for. The preſent Eſtabliſhment of the Company's Army has been deemed adequate to the ordinary Defence of their Territories; and as this Force has been found ſufficient, not only for that Purpoſe, but to ſpare One whole Brigade for the Defence of the Nabob of Oude's Dominions, I muſt ſuppoſe any Augmentation to be inconſiſtent with the Views of the Court of Directors; nor can I conceive it to be neceſſary on any Suppoſition, but that of an Invaſion by the French. But according to the Governor's Plan, no additional Force will be kept up within the Provinces; at the ſame Time that the Number of the Nabob's Troops under Britiſh Officers will be conſiderably diminiſhed.

Far from conſidering an Augmentation to the Company's Eſtabliſhment in this Form, and ſo diſpoſed, as a Meaſure which muſt conduce to Safety and Succeſs, I think it uſeleſs in point of Safety, and as for Succeſs, I know not in what Deſigns we are to ſucceed, unleſs it be in depriving the Nabob of the Government of his Country, or in Schemes of Conqueſt, in which I never ſhall concur. With reſpect to the Nabob, the Injuſtice is manifeſt, if he is to pay an Army without being allowed any Share in the Command, or any Judgment in the Diſpoſition of it, for the Defence of his Dominions, a conſiderable Part of which cannot be defended by the Company's Army, without a Breach of their Orders; I mean the Doab and Rohilchund. If this Arrangement is to be impoſed on the Nabob, by means of the actual Power we have over him, it is a Violation of Juſtice, and a Breach of ſpecific Treaty with him, for which this Government can have no Excuſe.

2dly. I cannot agree that the actual Exiſtence of a Sum of Money in our Treaſury will authoriſe this Government to laviſh it in raiſing Regiments of Cavalry not neceſſary to the Defence of Bengal, much leſs that the general Circulation of the Country (ſo much diſtreſſed as the Governor obſerves, by its lying uſeleſs in our Coffers) will be benefited either by the Purchaſe of Horſes (the whole of which will be ſpent out of the Provinces), or by an Encreaſe of Military Eſtabliſhment, for the conſtant Support of which the Country muſt hereafter be taxed. Augmenting the ſtanding Force of a Country, in order to promote Circulation, is a new Idea, and plainly ſhews the Inutility of racking theſe Provinces in the Manner they have been. When it is conſidered, however, that our Treaſury has been ſupplied, and that the preſent Surplus created by Reſources which do not properly belong to Bengal, and on which we have no Right to place a conſtant Dependance, I mean by the Subſidy of the Brigade and direct Payments from the Nabob of Oude, I think there is no Reaſon to apprehend that it will remain long unemployed. If my Judgment of the Decline of our own Revenues, on which alone we can ſafely depend, be not much miſtaken, the Time is not very diſtant when the Supply of the Inveſtment and the Support of our preſent Eſtabliſhment will gradually ſink and appropriate the exiſting Surplus. At all Events, inſtead of ſquandering Money becauſe we have it, I conceive that a more beneficial and benevolent Uſe might be made of it, by applying it to Current Services, and by granting a proportionate Remiſſion for a few Years in the Taxation of the Country. In this Way, whatever we ſow we ſhould reap; whereas an Increaſe of the ſtanding Army in the Firſt Inſtance abſorbs the Saving in hand, and leaves the Country burthened with an additional Eſtabliſhment. This Argument I deem to be valid againſt any Augmentation which has not for its Object the direct Security of Bengal.

3dly. It is admitted, that the Eſtabliſhment of the Troops under Britiſh Officers has anſwered the Ends of Diſcipline and Subordination to a certain Degree. The Defects therefore which may ſtill attend it might eaſily be removed or corrected by Savings and Reductions, in which I ſhould readily concur with the Governor General, without ſo violent an Alteration as that which the Plan propoſes. 1ſt. The extraordinary Pay of the Officers may be reduced, as I believe the double Batta, which all the Troops enjoy out of the Provinces, would be a ſufficient Inducement to our Officers to continue in that Service. 2d. I never heard that there has been any Difficulty in recruiting our Battalions of Sepoys; on the contrary, the Regularity of our Payment, and the Credit of our Diſcipline, makes the Company's a favourite Service.

If effectual Checks on the Expences of theſe Troops are not yet provided, the Office of Audit and Control has been to no Purpoſe. I believe the Governor is miſtaken in affirming that the Paymaſters and Officers are allowed to draw for Advances from the Nabob's Treaſury, and that they conſider themſelves as reſponſible to him alone for the Application of them. I underſtand the eſtabliſhed Pay and Contingencies are iſſued according to Abſtracts, taken from actual Muſters, ſigned by the commanding Officers, and by the Commiſſaries. The ſame Form is obſerved in the Company's Troops. As for extra contingent Bills, not one was paid before Colonel Goddard's Appointment, nor can be now without his Sanction. Where fixed Rules can be ſtated, the Auditor's Check over this Branch of Expence will be ſufficient. In extraordinary Caſes, ſome Degree of Truſt muſt be repoſed in Colonel Goddard's Diſcretion; and if this be an Inconvenience, it is one of thoſe which cannot in its Nature be avoided, without incurring a greater.

4th. If the Services be too remote for the Government to remove and reſtrain all Abuſes in it, it ſhews, that our Dependance muſt ultimately reſt with the Officers whom we think fit to appoint to high Stations in that Service. The mere Transfer of the ſame Troops from one Eſtabliſhment to another will not alter the Nature of the Service itſelf, nor leſſen the Abuſes which attend it.

5th. I believe the Governor is not founded in aſſerting, that the Officers now employed in the Nabob's Troops are exempt from the Articles of War. They hold their Rank in the Company's Service, and receive their Pay and Batta directly from the Company, through the Hands of their Reſident.

6th. The Idea of annexing Two Regiments of Cavalry to each Brigade ſeems to me to defeat any uſeful Purpoſe of entertaining a Body of Horſe in the Company's Pay. Six Regiments, when united, are but an inconſiderable Force againſt the numerous Bodies of Horſe to which they muſt be oppoſed, if they acted at all. If Two Regiments are to be ſeparately ſtationed with each Brigade, it does not appear to me that they can be of any Service whatſoever. I ſpeak with Diffidence on a Subject in which I do not pretend to be converſant; but I have always underſtood that the true and only Defence of Bengal depends on our Infantry.

7th. Suppoſing the Utility of entertaining a Body of Horſe to be admitted, I ſhould ſtill object to the Men furniſhing their own Horſes. The additional Pay of Men who ride their Horſes, and the Indemnification for all Coſt on Service, will ſoon exceed the firſt Coſt. On the other Hand, it is not probable that many Horſemen ſhould be found, who are in a Condition to mount themſelves in a proper Manner; nor will it be the commanding Officer's Intereſt to find ſuch Men. The Horſes will be in fact his Property, as a conſiderable Part of them are at preſent in the Nabob's own Cavalry. The ſame Perſon, then, who owns the Horſe will fix his Value, and either caſt him as unfit for Service, or continue him, as may beſt ſuit his own Intereſt. As I am convinced that this will be the Caſe, I think it is more to be apprehended that there will be a conſtant Mortality among the Horſes, than that they will not be expoſed to Labour or Danger.

From the concluding Words of the Plan, I collect, that, when a Horſe dies, or is caſt, the Trooper is diſmiſſed, and not re-admitted until he is provided with another. Such a Man has it in in his Option to quit the Regiment entirely, and carry the Diſcipline he may have learnt with us into another Service, or return, if he thinks proper.

On the whole I obſerve, that the total Saving propoſed by the immediate Change of Eſtabliſhment is to be 6,88,188 Rupees. If this Saving of Expence could have been accompliſhed without a Reduction of Numbers, it would undoubtedly have proved an Objection to the preſent Syſtem, and a Merit in removing it; but I obſerve, that it is intended to reduce the Nabob's Body Guard, and three other Battalions of Sepoys, amounting to above 3,200 Men: I can neither admit that there is any real Œconomy in the Meaſure, nor am I ſatisfied that the Numbers to be kept up will be equal to the Defence of the Nabob's Dominions. The Body Guard is not only a uſeful Corps, but very neceſſary to the Nabob's perſonal Dignity and Safety; a Propoſal to diſband it can never be freely conſented to by him, nor effected without an abſolute Force over him.

Mr. Barwell.—It is long ſince I have conſidered the Neceſſity of rendering the Military Eſtabliſhment formed for the Defence of the Vizier's Dominions of Uſe to this Government. Upon its firſt Formation I ſuggeſted the Propriety of having theſe Troops our own; I am ſtill of that Opinion; and having fully weighed the Advantages that will probably reſult from the Plan offered by the Governor General, I ſhall give my Approbation of it, unleſs any Arguments that I am not aware of ſhall be advanced by General Clavering. I confeſs that none occur to me in oppoſition to the Meaſure propoſed; however, I reſerve to myſelf to alter my Opinion, ſhould I be convinced that it is formed upon wrong Grounds.

General Clavering.—Mr. Barwell has mentioned, that when the Military Eſtabliſhment was formed for the Defence of the Vizier's Dominions, he ſuggeſted the Propriety of rendering that Eſtabliſhment uſeful to this Government.—If it would not be too much Trouble to him, I would beg leave to deſire that he would ſtate the Conſultation where that Suggeſtion is in.

Mr. Barwell.—It is in Conſultation 14th December 1775; I beg that a Copy of it may be recorded in this Place.

Extract Conſultation, 14th December 1775.

"I receive the General's Plan for forming a Body of Troops for the Service of the Nabob of "Oude, but at the ſame Time I think it ſhould be conſidered, whether in diſciplining a Body of "Infantry, and regulating a Corps of Artillery, we may not arm him againſt ourſelves? This "Government, I conceive, can well ſpare a ſufficient Body of Black Troops for the Service of "the Nabob. A proper Body of Cavalry, diſciplined and commanded by our Officers, may, I "apprehend, be of great Utility both to his Government and ours. I have no Objection to the "General's Plan, upon the Principle that we cannot ſpare ſuch a Body of Sepoys and Artillery "from our own Forces as is now propoſed to be kept up for the Nabob's Service."

General Clavering delivers in the following Minute.

Although I might be diſcouraged by the fruitleſs Endeavours I have hitherto made to avert the Miſchiefs which former Projects ſeemed to me calculated to produce; yet in whatever Light the Plan now under the Conſideration of the Board is regarded, whether as political, military, or œconomical, I am equally called upon in my Capacity as a Counſellor of this Government, or Commander in Chief of the Company's Armies in India, to deliver my Sentiments freely upon a Meaſure connected with each of theſe Situations, however unavailing I am apprehenſive my Arguments may prove on this Occaſion. In delivering my Sentiments therefore on the Plan before me, I am ſorry I muſt be obliged to declare, that I cannot receive it in the Light which Mr. Haſtings offers it, as a Scheme of diſintereſted Utility, but as a Meaſure without an Object, not prompted by Neceſſity or any adequate Motive, poſitively infringing the Orders of the Court of Directors, and laviſhing the Treaſure of the Company; nor yet can I agree with him in looking upon it as no Innovation, or no Stricture upon paſt Meaſures: Becauſe, in the firſt Place, I cannot conſider a total Subverſion of an Eſtabliſhment, new-modelling Corps, altering the Rank of Officers, otherwiſe than as an Innovation: Becauſe in the ſecond Place, I cannot regard the five Objections he has endeavoured to eſtabliſh, and the Invective and Aſperſions (deſtitute of all Proofs) with which he has branded the Service of the Nabob, in any other Light than a partial Cenſure of paſt Meaſures. For my own Part, I hold myſelf always open to the Conſequences of any Act in which I have concurred; but in the preſent Inſtance, the Governor General ſhould have foreſeen, that in blaming the Meaſure he condemns himſelf; as in fact, I only gave the official Courſe to a Plan that he himſelf propoſed, accompanied with his moſt hearty Concurrence; and upon this Occaſion, as upon many others, I would moſt earneſtly have wiſhed that the Governor General had abided by his Declaration on the 28th November laſt, in the following Words: "I had de-"termined to avoid all Kind of Innovations, and to confine the Influence which had thus unex-"pectedly devolved upon me to the current and ordinary Occurrences of Government." Indeed, upon a due Conſideration of the Diſapprobation with which his previous Conduct had been received in England, Prudence might have ſuggeſted to him not to engage in new Plans until he was informed of the Succeſs of his old ones.

I ſhall

I ſhall now proceed to an Examination of the Governor General's Objections to the old Eſtabliſhment; but firſt muſt expreſs my Surpriſe at his Humility in relinquiſhing the Honour of this Plan in favour of Mr. Barwell; as upon referring to the Proceedings of the 29th November 1775, I find the Credit is entirely due to himſelf. Vide his Note of 20th November, and Mr. Barwell's Aſſent. And again, on the 14th December Mr. Barwell's Recommendation of the Company's Sepoys being employed in his Service; a Meaſure that could not be adopted by the Board, becauſe of the Limitation to the Operation of our Troops within the Bounds of the guaranteed Provinces, by which they would have been rendered totally uſeleſs to the Nabob in reſpect to the Defence of his other Provinces.

Extract of the Governor's Note, 20th November 1775.

"As the Diſorders which have prevailed in the Nabob's Troops require an inſtantaneous and "effectual Remedy; and that the Propoſal in this Letter promiſes the ſureſt Succeſs, I heartily "ſubſcribe to it. If the other Members of the Board join in this Opinion, they will alſo ſee "with me the Neceſſity of ſignifying it immediately to Mr. Briſtow, and of forming the Ar-"rangement required for its Reſolution."

To this Mr. Barwell aſſents, as a Meaſure of Security and Œconomy to the Company.

Extract of the 14th December 1775.

Mr. Barwell apprehends we ſhall hereby arm him againſt ourſelves, and adds, "This Go-"vernment, I conceive, can well ſpare a ſufficient Body of Black Troops for the Service of the "Nabob; a proper Body of Cavalry, diſciplined and commanded by our Officers, may, I ap-"prehend, be of great Utility, both to his Government and to ours. I have no Objections to "the General's Plan, upon the Principle that we cannot ſpare ſuch a Body of Sepoys and Artil-"lery from our own Forces as is now propoſed to be kept up for the Nabob's Service."

From theſe Extracts it plainly appears, that if any Cenſure is due for the Conſequences of the above Plan, it muſt fall upon the Governor General, who propoſed it; and if any Merit can be claimed for the Innovation now attempted, it cannot be aſcribed to Mr. Barwell, whoſe Views evidently had a very different Tendency from that which is now under Conſideration; viz. of the Thirteen Battalions actually in the Service of the Nabob, taking Nine, Three Companies of Artillery, Two Regiments of Horſe now exiſting, and a new one to be immediately raiſed into the Company's Service, and to add Three more to them when the Company's Inſtructions are received.

N. B. The firſt mentioned Three are to be paid by the Nabob.

The Governor General ſeems to ſuppoſe, that there have been Two Plans, of which the latter has not removed the bad Effects of the former. The Fact is, there has been only One Plan; the Eſtabliſhment has been the ſame from the Beginning. The Regiments that had been eſtabliſhed by the late Nabob having been made over to European Officers, they mutinied and were broke, and were raiſed again with other Men, preciſely in the ſame Form with the original Conſtitution of the Officers.

I will now proceed to the Objections offered by the Governor General to this Eſtabliſhment.

1ſt, The ſuperior Pay and Emoluments enjoyed by the Officers in that Service, excite Murmurings and Diſſatisfaction in thoſe who remain in our own, and by diſcouraging their Zeal and Attention to their Duty, tend to the general Relaxation of Diſcipline.

1ſt, The Reaſons for which the Board unanimouſly agreed to the Allowance of ſuch ſuperior Pay were, becauſe the Officers were to enjoy ſuperior Commands: viz. Lieutenants to command Battalions, and Captains Regiments of Two Battalions; therefore their Pay was made adequate to their Commands, not to their Ranks in the Company's Service. But if it be true, that this Regulation has occaſioned the Murmurings mentioned by the Governor General, and has, in any Manner, tended to relax the Diſcipline of the Army; I am as ready now to aſſent to the Reduction of Pay propoſed by the Governor General, equal to the Company's Officers of the ſame Rank, as I was before to concur in the former Propoſal.

2dly, The Pay of the Nabob's Sepoys being made equal, at all Times, to the increaſed Allowance of thoſe of the Company, when on Service in the Field, is a great Detriment to our own Service, by diſcouraging Recruits from engaging in it, while they can obtain ſuperior Advantages from the Nabob's.

2dly, The Pay of the Nabob's Sepoys, before they were put under the Command of European Officers, was Nine Rupees per Month; it has ſince been reduced to the Level of our Service, which is, after deducting the Off-reckonings, 8 : 10 : 8 for the Sepoys in the Field. If no Inconveniency was felt to the Company's Recruiting, while the Pay was ſuperior, how can the Objection be valid now that the Pay is reduced?

Yet,

3dly, The Want of effectual Checks. That Principle of Moderation which ſhould actuate the Conduct of the Officers in their public Diſburſements, loſes much of its Influence when the Expence is defrayed by a State on which they have not a natural and permanent Dependance; and hence, the Burthen becoming too enormous for the Nabob to bear, it muſt ultimately fall upon the Company. To guard againſt this Conſequence, an Officer of Audit and Controul has been lately appointed by the Board, but with what Succeſs Time muſt ſhew, as we are not yet adviſed of his having entered on his Office; but there are too ſtrong Grounds for the Preſumption, that his Authority will avail but little while the Paymaſters are allowed to draw for Advances from the Nabob's Treaſury, and they conſider themſelves as reſponſible to him alone for the Application of them. The Board have a recent and ſtriking Inſtance either of the Indifference or Licentiouſneſs of thoſe who have been thus intruſted with Sums in Advance by the Nabob, in the Difficulties which they have experienced in obtaining from Lieutenant Colonel Goddard, notwithſtanding their repeated and peremptory Commands, the Accounts of the paſt Expenditures, after waiting for thoſe Accounts for Seven Months, in which Time we were told that he had been unable to collect them, that ſome had been delivered which he had returned, becauſe they were defective, and others withheld on pretence that no Accounts had been kept, or that having been paſſed, they had been torn; at length a parcel of Abſtracts were tranſmitted, not of the whole, but only of a Part of the Accounts, expreſſing in groſs Sums the Advances and Diſburſements, but without a Voucher, without any Specification of Time, or of Numbers, or of Ranks, or of the Circumſtances, under which Contingencies were incurred, or any Document whatever that could ſhew the Propriety or Truth of the Charges. Such however muſt be the Practice while the Temptation and Means conduce to it; nor can it perhaps be ſo juſtly imputed to thoſe whom the Provocation of preſent Profit, aided by the Concurrence of Example, and the too liberal Conſtruction which is commonly Yet, if the Objection could be true, the Governor's new Plan offers no Remedy to it.

3dly, If the Governor General is convinced, as he ſeems here to ſet forth, that the Checks he has eſtabliſhed by the Appointment of a Commiſſary of Audit and Controul will be of no Avail; I am ſorry he has taken the Trouble of ſo uſeleſs a Meaſure.

But if Reference be made to the Directions originally given to Mr. Briſtow, it will be ſeen that no Precautions were omitted that could be taken, to prevent even the Poſſibility of any Overcharge; for he was prohibited diſcharging any Bills for contingent Expences, but to ſend them down to the Board. Vide Letter of 5th February 1776, which Order remained in force till Col. Goddard was appointed, whoſe Inſtructions, reſpecting this Matter, were drawn up by the Governor General, as may be ſeen by his own Handwriting in the foul Draught (a), altering the former Mode to the allowing Col. Goddard to counterſign them himſelf; the Governor's Words were, "We leave it to you to counterſign ſuch Bills as "you ſhall approve, and we confide in your "Zeal and Attention to the Service, for prevent-"ing any improper and unreaſonable Charges." If Col. Goddard has abuſed his Truſt, or Capt. Webber (to criminate whom was the profeſſed Object in calling for this Account) has raiſed the large Fortune the Governor General once aſcribed to him, let each of them anſwer for it. But the Governor General's Silence upon Capt. Webber's particular Account, at a Time when he not only poſſeſſes the Accounts, but is Maſter of the whole Country, to come at every poſſible Information againſt him, and now running into general Invective, affords a ſtrong Preſumption that his Intelligence is too void of Foundation to be produced as a Charge.

By a Reference to the only poſitive Fact which he advances, that the Board were Seven Months in obtaining theſe Accounts, it will appear, that the Letter, requiring the Accounts, was dated the 2d December, and the Anſwer, returning the Accounts, was of the 22d March. As that Letter was received here the 4th April, or Thirteen Days after its Date, the ſame Time muſt be allowed for the Letter, which ordered the Account, reaching Col. Goddard, which will bring it to the 15th December, leaving Three Months and Seven Days for what the Governor calls Seven Months.

I have ſubjoined theſe Extracts (b), which is all that Colonel Goddard wrote upon the Subject, becauſe

(a) Extract Letter 5th February 1776.

"It is a material Object with us to prevent the Nabob from being burthened with unreaſonable Demands "from theſe Officers on the Head of Contingencies, or extraordinary Allowances; and we think it will be "expedient to fix a monthly Sum to be allowed for each Corps when in Cantonments, and in Proportion "employed on actual Service, in lieu of all Contingencies; we therefore deſire you will recommend this Meaſure "to the Nabob, and when you have conſulted him upon the Subject, tranſmit for our Approbation any Plan "of this kind, which he may agree to adopt; in the mean Time we direct, that you pay no Bills for Con-"tingent Charges of any Kind until further Orders, but that you refer to us all that ſhall be preſented."

(b) Extract of a Letter from Colonel Goddard, dated 17th February 1777.

"I beg leave to apologize for having ſo long delayed Compliance with the Orders you were pleaſed to ſend "me of the 2d December laſt, which has been occaſioned by many of the Gentlemen not keeping themſelves "an exact Account of the Money they have received, and being obliged to make a Reference to the Pay-"maſter's monly given to the Latitude of contingent Bills, may have led to commit it, as to the natural Effects of a defective Syſtem; but it will be the Fault of Government if it knowingly ſuffers ſuch Defects to remain, and they are capable of a Remedy.

becauſe they not only ſhew how invidiouſly the Fact is ſtated of the Time that the Board waited for the Accounts, but alſo the Miſrepreſentation, "That others (Accounts) had been withheld, on "Pretence that no Accounts had been kept, or "that having been paſſed, they had been torn."

The latter Word, or Circumſtance, is not even inſinuated in either Letter; and as to the former, if not keeping correct Accounts is to be deemed keeping no Accounts, I much fear the Company have never had any yet.

Colonel Goddard, by a Reference to the original Bills in the Paymaſter's Hands, did every Thing that could be required to make them regular, and to authenticate them.

When the Extent of the Country in which thoſe Troops are ſtationed is conſidered; and that Applications were to be made to a Variety of Officers little verſed in the official Forms of keeping Accounts, as alſo to the Deputy Paymaſters, and to compare the one with the other, to aſcertain their Exactitude;—when theſe Circumſtances are conſidered, and weighed with the Difficulties we daily find in obtaining Accounts from our Deputy Paymaſters, who were lately Four Months in Arrear, even at the Preſidency and at Berhampore, and that the general Army Accounts of Two Years ſtanding 74-5, are only now gone home, with immenſe Sums upon them unadjuſted; when we ſee Claims for large Sums made upon Captain Brooke and Toone, gone home, as far back as the Year 1773; when we obſerve that full Batta has been paid, ſince the Year 1772, to the Troops ſtationed at Chunar, according to the Governor General's own Confeſſion, contrary to Orders, and that the Battalion ſtationed there is ſtill permitted to draw the ſame Batta, notwithſtanding the Acknowledgm nt of the Abuſe; when we know that the Governor General's own Troop had never been muſtered ſince it was raiſed; that the Commanding Officers have been drawing Pay for Men and Horſes without a Check; and that though the Allowance regulated by Government for the Purchaſe of the Horſes be limited to 500 Rupees, yet it appears, upon the whole Number purchaſed, that there has been an Exceſs of 142 Rupees per Horſe, making upon the whole Amount 20649 Rupees; when we further conſider the Diſcovery that was made, of no leſs a Sum than 15 Lack of Rupees overpaid the Nabob Mobareck ul Dowlah in the Year 1772; and when it will be apparent to the Court of Directors, that, contrary to their expreſs and peremptory Commands for limiting the Sum on account of Fortifications and Buildings to 100,000 l. that ſo careleſs has this Preſidency been, as to admit of the Expenditure of 45,000 Rupees at Chunar above that Sum in the laſt Year, although ſpecially enforced in the 25th Paragraph of the general Letter of the 15th December 1775? Making, I ſay, due Allowance for ſuch Irregularities in Accounts under immediate Controul and Check at the Preſidency, can any Surprize remain, that the collecting and forming Accounts of a new Eſtabliſhment ſhould have taken up Three Months and Seven Days?

4thly, The Service being too remote for this Government to obſerve and reſtrain all the Abuſes in it, and being in its preſent Nature incapable of Relief, local Intereſts are acquired, and Opportunities of making undue Advantages afforded.

5thly, Our Officers employed on this Service being exempt from the Articles of War, we have no further Influence over their Conduct, than ſuch as the Dread of loſing their Profits may create; and this alone will never reſtrain the Exceſſes ariſing from the ſame Principle.

4thly, Upon the Fourth Objection I have only to aſk, Will the Governor's Plan diminiſh the Diſtance between the Seat of our Government and the Province of Owde?

5thly, It is impoſſible for me to diſcover upon what Grounds the Governor General makes this Aſſertion.

The Orders ſay, "In caſe any of the Officers "ſhall be guilty of Diſobedience to the Nabob's "Orders, or of any other Offences againſt his Au- "thority, he will be at Liberty to diſmiſs (a) them "from his Service; but if their Offences be ſuch "as ſhall appear to him to deſerve a more ſevere "Puniſhment, he muſt apply to the commanding "Officer of the Brigade, and obtain a proper "Warrant for their being tried by a General "Court Martial."

But whilſt diſplaying the Difficulties of controuling Perſons in the Service at ſuch a Diſtance, who, as it has been ſhewn, are ſubjected to Martial Law, let me aſk, what Precautions he has taken to controul the Commiſſary General and his Train of Dependants, all Perſons out of the Service, and not ſubject to the Martial Law.

Theſe Five are the Objections that the preſent Syſtem is ſaid to be ſo fraught with; and to remove which, the Governor General thinks it neceſſary to introduce his new Plan, which in fact is making an Augmentation of the Company's Troops, and (as he ſagaciouſly obſerves) employing the Company's Treaſures, now loſt to Circulation, all in order to correct the Nabob's Accounts.

If it ſhall be found that the Objections upon which the Governor General eſtabliſhes the Neceſſity of his Plan are removed by the above Obſervations; or if not thereby obviated, that more moderate and applicable Means, or leſs ruinous to the Company, cannot be found to correct them, I will ſtill hope that a maturer Conſideration of the Welfare of the Company will outweigh whatever private Engagements he may have entered into, and induce him to drop a Project ſo variouſly infringing their poſitive Orders, upon the Pretence of Difficulties, which, if true and united, would not juſtify the Infringement of the moſt trifling Order the Company ſends out, much leſs of thoſe Regulations which they lay down as the grand fundamental Principles of their political and commercial Intereſts.

I therefore ſay, I hope his Prudence will make him deſiſt from violently enforcing this; as in the Caſe of continuing his Negociations with Nudjiff Cawn, although the Motives alleged by himſelf for making a Subſidiary Treaty with him have long ſince diſappeared, and Nudjiff Cawn's Refuſal to accept of our ſupplicating Propoſitions, have humiliated us in the Eyes of every Potentate in Indoſtan.

Although the general Arguments urged by me againſt the Plan ought to be more than ſufficient to prevent its Adoption, yet that nothing may be left undone on my Part, in endeavouring to deter its Execution, I will conſider the Detail of it.

It propoſes that the Nabob's Army, commanded by Britiſh Officers, compoſed of 13 Battalions, ſhould be reduced to Nine, and taken into the Company's Service, and annexed to the Brigades, together with Three Companies of Artillery and Six Regiments of Cavalry, Four of which are to be raiſed in Addition to the Two now exiſting; ſo that each Brigade will conſiſt of Ten Battalions, Two Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Cavalry of 480 Privates each; and by the 5th Article, if I underſtand it right, Nine Battalions of Infantry of One of theſe Brigades, Two Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Horſe, are to be employed for his Service, while he may require them. In conſequence of this Diſpoſition, I ſuppoſe it is intended that the 10th Battalion ſhall garriſon the Fortreſs of Chunar, as the 7th Battalion belonging to the Brigade in the Field now does; and that Twenty Battalions, Four Companies of Artillery (excluſive of the Two for the Garriſon of Fort William), and Four Regiments of Cavalry, ſhall remain for the Defence of the Provinces. Of theſe, according to the 6th Article, a complete Brigade ſhall, at the Expiration of Two Years, relieve that in the Field. If this Statement be not erroneous, the Forces of the Nabob for the Defence of his Country, conſiſting, as I ſaid before, of 13 Battalions, Three Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Cavalry, with the Addition of our Brigade, conſiſting of Six Battalions and One Company of Artillery, in all making Nineteen Battalions, Four Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Cavalry, will be reduced to Nine Battalions, Two Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Horſe; of courſe his Defence is leſſened by Ten Battalions of Infantry. However, it is to be remarked, that only One of thoſe Regiments is to be raiſed, in Addition to the Two now eſtabliſhed, in the ſhort Interval remaining of the fair Seaſon, and the Three others are not to be levied till after the Receipt of the Company's Orders; conſequently, until that Period, we ſhall have, for the Defence of theſe Provinces, only One Regiment of Cavalry, and that at the Charge of the Nabob.

Upon this Statement, the Three Regiments of Cavalry are to be in the Service of the Company, but in the Pay of the Nabob.

Quere, Will not theſe Three Regiments be liable to all the Evils enumerated as the Cauſe for transferring them to the Pay of the Company, not having a natural and permanent Dependance on us, while in the Pay of a foreign Prince? The ambiguous Terms in which the whole is couched, I confeſs, makes me diffident of deciding upon the poſitive Meaning of every Part of it; if therefore I have committed any Error, the Governor will be pleaſed to rectify it by an Explanation.

It may be ſeen that I have all along taken it for granted, that the Company are to bear the Expence of this new Plan, excepting the Three Regiments particularly allotted to the Nabob, becauſe no Mention is made of the Payment of the Remainder of the Army by him; on the contrary, the Objection lays * againſt the preſent Eſtabliſhment, on account of the Troops being in the Pay of a foreign Prince, which the Plan under Conſideration profeſſes to obviate, by making them Part of our own Eſtabliſhment; that becauſe it is propoſed, that Part of theſe Troops are to ſerve in the Company's Provinces, where it would be highly abſurd to ſuppoſe that the Nabob is to pay them; and becauſe the Plan ſets forth the great Ability of the Company to bear the Expence, and the Neceſſity of circulating their Treaſure: That, finally, becauſe Arms and Accoutrements are to be ſupplied to the Cavalry out of the Company's Stores: Therefore, on the Suppoſition that I have not miſtaken Mr. Haſtings's real Intentions, it is neceſſary to ſtate the Expence taken from the comparative Eſtimate accompanying the Plan.

* Sic in Orig.

It would be miſ-ſpending Time to ſtate all the Objections that occur againſt the comparative Eſtimate; as for Inſtance, the Saving ariſing from a Compariſon of diſſimilar Numbers (which can only deceive thoſe who look no further than Sums total), or by ſtating impracticable Eſtabliſhments, which, when attempted to be realized, would be made up by contingent Bills.

In the Year 1773, the European Regiments, which conſiſted of 20 Companies of 50 Men each, were reduced to 10 Companies of 100 each; a Saving certainly aroſe of the Pay of One Half of the Officers; but, according to the Opinion of every Officer of Eminence, the Service has been much injured and weakened by it; for if Three Officers are only thought ſufficient for 50 Men in Europe, much leſs can they be thought ſufficient for 100 Men in this Climate, where the Men require more Diſcipline and the Officers more Relief.

In the preſent Inſtance he compares the full annual Charge of maintaining 14,787 Men for R' 33,95,028 with the full annual Charge of maintaining only 11,254 for R' 27,06,840, and ſtates the Difference of R' 688,188 as a Saving; although, according to the Statement, the only Difference in the Rate of the Expence is, that in the latter Number is included 480 Horſe more than in the former.

(a) "9,148. This Number appears erroneouſly ſtated with regard to the Plan, as it includes under the "Head of Cavalry 2,192 Men, inſtead of 1,639, the Amount of Three new Regiments expreſſed in the "Plan in the 2d Par. of the 4th Article, That the Corps be compoſed of the Two Regiments already in "the Service of the Nabob, and of which the Horſes are his Property; the Numbers to be reduced to "the propoſed Complement of the new Regiments; that it be immediately increaſed by a Third, &c." This

These Numbers are exclusive of the Three additional new Regiments of Cavalry proposed to be levied; when they are added, the smallest Number of Troops will cost most; the Difference might then be reckoned an Excess, with as much Justice as the present Alteration is called Saving.

However, according to his own Statement of the Expence of the Troops to be transferred to the Company, the Estimate amounts to

Infantry — —	12,86,970
Extra Allowance when marching —	14,244	13,01,214
Artillery — —	2,43,672
Marching — — —	19,872	2,63,544
Staff — — —		1,37,028
	Rupees	17,01,786
And Cavalry, including One new Regiment of Cavalry, when raised		10,39,170 (†)
		27,40,956

This Sum does not include the additional Three new Regiments of Cavalry to be raised hereafter.

Daily Experience evinces, that the correctest Estimates are always exceeded in the Fact; but this Estimate makes no Allowances even for the very Proposals contained in the Plan to which it is annexed, and which it professes to be calculated for; nor has the Governor General chosen to avail himself of his own Experience upon Record, to endeavour to bring it in some rational Degree near the Truth.

1st. Arms, Accoutrements, Ammunition, and an excessive Number of various other Contingencies, are left unexpressed.

2d. No Account is made of the Seventy-two Officers which the Nine Battalions will require, agreeable to his Remark upon the Second Article, when they come to be relieved, to make them equal to the Brigade Establishment, though the Plan, with profound Wisdom, declares, that as the Want of them will not be materially felt while upon Service, it follows that the Troops that go up to relieve must leave Seventy-two of the Officers behind, to be transferred to the returning Troop upon the Peace Establishment, while the Remainder carry the Men into the Field.

3d. The Expence of the Cavalry does not seem to include the Effect, in any Degree, of the Fourth Regulation of the Plan for the Establishment of the new Cavalry.

It makes no Allowance for the 1st Article of the 4th Regulation for Horses killed in Battle, or by Marches exceeding 15 Cos: Either Circumstance entitles the Rider (and, if he dies, most probably his Estate) to the full Price of his Horse, estimated at 600 Rupees.

Nor does it make Allowance for the 2d Article of the 4th Regulation, providing for the Loss of Horses that die, or become unfit for Service without extraordinary Accidents. A Horse is to be received at Six Years Service, and indeed it is rational to suppose that they will not be fit for Service after that Period; consequently that the whole will be paid for during that Term. Each Regiment will at the least possess 545 Horses; allowing but One for Officers and Men indiscriminately, and rating both at 600 Rupees per Horse, without Distinction between Officers and Private (though doubtless a sufficient one will be made), each Regiment in the Course of Six Years will receive 3,27,000, which, for Six Regiments, makes Rupees 19,62,000.

But had this Capital been added to the Estimate of Cavalry, even erroneously as that now stands, it would not near amount to what the Governor General's Experience might have pointed out to him as the actual Charge of this Mode of raising Cavalry. To evince this, I will only quote his own Proceedings (a) of the 23d May 1772, from which it will be evident, that a Corps of 480 Men should with more Accuracy be rated at 4,80,000 annual Expence than 2,63,508; for if the Body of Cavalry then in Pay, consisting of 300 Men, cost 3,01,000, it may safely be advanced, that 480 will cost 4,80,000, consequently for the Six Regiments 28,80,000.

As the Governor General declares the chief Objection against his Plan is, that it is in direct Opposition to the Orders of the Court of Directors, and therefore defers levying the Cavalry, it may be hoped, now that it has been pointed out to him, that every Article of it is in the same Predicament, that out of Deference to their Authority, and his Wish to act immediately from it, he will equally defer the whole.

This then falsifies the Number of Men by 553 Men; and the Sum of (†) Rs. 10,39,170 by 3,21,774; as the Three new Regiments should only amount, according to No. 6. to Rupees 7,17,396.

(a) Extract of Consultations, 23d May 1772.

The Board deliberating on the little Service the small Body of Cavalry in the Company's Pay can ever be of; and that in Time of actual Service it would be either exposed to the perpetual Hazard of being cut off at any Distance from the Infantry, or prove an Embarrassment if joined to it; reflecting also, that the Expence of a Body of Horse capable of doing real Service would exceed our Means, since the annual Cost of so inconsiderable a Number as we now maintain is not less than Rupees 3,01,678;

Resolve, The whole Cavalry, both European and Indostan, be directly disbanded, &c.

In

In waiting for ſome Inſtructions that may be applicable to the Subject, I cannot ſuppoſe he means ſuch as can only be applied by ſtraining the Expreſſions and perverting the Meaning, as in the Caſe of the Orders upon which he undertook the Rohillah War; but that he means poſitive and clear Injunctions, that muſt, in Subſtance and Spirit, direct as follows:

1ſt. That the Nabob of Oude be reduced, with reſpect to his real Power, to the State and Situation of the Nabob of Bengal.

The depriving a Prince of his Army is in other Words to dethrone him; his Conſent can never be voluntarily obtained for it, though he may be under ſuch Circumſtances as to be obliged to ſay ſo.

The Reduction of Mobareck ul Dowlah's Penſion from 32 Lacks to 16, and the Eſtabliſhment of Courts of Juſtice in this Country, have been aſſigned by the moſt ſolemn Acts in the Court of Judicature as Reaſons for his not being an independent Prince; though it is well known, that a Treaty was ſigned with him as one, and that he remonſtrated very ſtrongly againſt the Reduction of his Penſion. If Mr. Haſtings takes the Vizier's Troops from him, in whatever Terms his Conſent to it may be expreſſed, he may afterwards inſult his Condition, by calling him a mere Pageant and Phantom of Power (a).

2d. That the Reſtrictions laid on the Company's Troops paſſing the guaranteed Provinces, be annulled.

When the Nabob's Army is transferred to the Service of the Company, they can be of no Uſe to him in defending a very large Part of his Dominions, as the Duab and Rohilchund, unleſs the Reſtrictions, which by the moſt poſitive and preciſe Orders have been laid on this Government, be removed.

(a) Vide Minute 25th November 1776.

These Orders are numerous, and ſome of them very recent. Whether the Reaſons aſſigned of inaccurate Accounts can amount to that urgent Neceſſity that can juſtify Mr. Haſtings in taking upon him to increaſe the military Expences 27 Lacks, without reckoning Contingencies of all Kinds, he beſt knows; for this Part of his Plan I refer him to the General Letter 15th December 1775, Para. 23d, declaring, "That whatever "Number of Troops may be then entertained by "the Subah of Oude, we muſt again repeat, "that the whole Expence muſt be borne by him." He thinks the Company would be indemnified, in caſe of a defenſive War, for the Expence of Nine or even Twelve Regiments of Cavalry.

3dly. That all the Orders formerly given by the Court of Directors, prohibiting an Augmentation of the Company's Troops without urgent Neceſſity, be annulled.

The taking theſe Companies of Artillery, compoſed entirely of Natives, into the Company's Service, would be a poſitive Infraction of the * Paragraph of the general Letter, dated

* Sic in Orig.

4thly. That the Orders forbidding the Natives to be employed in the Artillery be annulled.

5thly. That the Orders reſtricting the Numbers of the Cavalry to One Troop be annulled.

Of all the prohibitory Orders that will be violated by the Adoption of this Plan, this is the only one at which Mr. Haſtings ſtarts; yet far from ſtopping or going back, he only turns round the Object and proceeds in his Career: The Reſpect he bears for the Commands of his Honourable Maſters, makes him, he ſays, deſirous of waiting for their Approbation (b) or Diſapprobation of the Meaſure taken, to appoint Britiſh Officers to the Nabob's Troops. But, inſtead of adhering to that Reſolution, he actually propoſes that the Two Regiments of Cavalry now in the Nabob's Service, and One other to be raiſed, ſhould be taken into the Company's Service to be paid by the Nabob. Reſpecting the Meaſure of the appointing Officers to the Nabob's Troops, the Court of Directors have anticipated their Sentiments

(b) Vide his Plan.

6th. That the reiterated Orders enforced in every Letter tranſmitted to this Government, to reduce the Expences, civil and military, and to make Œconomy our chief Aims, be all annulled.

Sentiments on the Subject, by directing us in their Letter of the 15th December 1775, Para. 20, to make thoſe Appointments for the Nabob's Cavalry, but not a Word of taking the Nabob's Cavalry into the Company's Service.

It is a demonſtrable Truth, of which the Court of Directors as well as Mr. Haſtings cannot but be convinced, that our preſent Abundance of Treaſure has entirely ariſen from extraordinary and unnatural Reſources. We have no Reaſon to expect any further Supplies from our Ally, Aſoph ul Dowlah; that Source, whence our Treaſury has been repleniſhed, ſeems now quite exhauſted; his Debt to the Company, which on the 28th September laſt was 28 Lacks, is now encreaſed to 35 Lacks. His Arrears to the Troops under Britiſh Officers have been lately ſeveral Months more in Arrear than before. Finally, by the Eſtimate Mr. Briſtow made of his Receipts and Diſburſements, it appears there is an Exceſs in the latter of 58 Lacks.

What further Mine of Wealth Mr. Haſtings promiſes himſelf, whether by his new Settlement, or by new Conqueſts, it is impoſſible to diſcover. I am afraid to conjecture what his Views are. Should his Neceſſities drive him to poſſeſs himſelf of the Revenues of Aſoph ul Dowlah, under Pretence of reforming his Finances, I leave to Imagination to gueſs what a Scene of Oppreſſion, Rapine and Plunder muſt enſue from ſending Collectors into that Country.

But perhaps the making the Mountains of Thibet and Tartary the Boundaries of our Poſſeſſions may be the political Barrier to this Country, which the Governor General ſo pathetically laments in his Minute of the 25th November, that his Influence and Authority was too circumſcribed to complete.

(Signed) J. Clavering.

Reſolved, That the Plan be adopted.

Governor General.—I recommend that the above Reſolution be communicated to the Nabob in the following Letter:

To the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah.

The Alliance which has ſo long ſubſiſted, and is now ſo firmly eſtabliſhed, between your Excellency and the Company, has happily been productive of the greateſt Advantages to both; and it is evident that no Benefit or Misfortune can attend either, of which the other will not eſſentially participate. This Union of inſeparable Intereſts renders it my indiſpenſable Duty, as the Repreſentative of the Engliſh Nation and of the Eaſt India Company, not only to adviſe, but to urge, in the moſt earneſt Terms, every Expedient that may promote the Proſperity of your Dominions and the Increaſe of your Reputation; but more eſpecially ſuch as are required for your Safety from impending Danger.

It is now Two Years ſince, at your Requeſt, I aſſented to the Appointment of Britiſh Officers for the Command and Diſcipline of your Troops: The Deference which I always pay to your Wiſhes would alone have been Motive ſufficient to engage my Compliance with them on that Occaſion; but a more forcible Reaſon ſubſiſted, in the Danger to which your Perſon and Dominions were expoſed from the licentious Outrage of your Sepoys. Theſe were Conſiderations of too alarming a Nature to admit of a Delay, although I plainly perceived the Defects of the Syſtem then adopted, and which have, in fact, ſince attended it: They are many, but I ſhall content myſelf with mentioning only the principles Ones.

1ſt. The Officers employed in your Excellency's Service are releaſed from the Company's Authority, without being ſubject to yours in ſuch a Degree as is neceſſary for eſtabliſhing a proper Dependance on you, and due Obedience to your Commands.

2d. The Expence of your Army being uncontrouled by the Authority of this Government, cannot be regulated by that Œconomy which in Reaſon and Juſtice ought to be obſerved for your Excellency's Advantage.

The Abuſes ariſing from theſe Defects are daily accumulating, and unleſs immediately remedied muſt terminate in the moſt fatal Conſequences, from a total Relaxation in the Diſcipline of the Troops, and an Increaſe of Expence too enormous for your Excellency to bear.

The ſincere Friendſhip which I entertain for your Excellency, and the anxious Concern which I feel for your Welfare, have excited my utmoſt Attention, and engaged a conſiderable Portion of my Time, in deviſing Means for obviating the Effects which muſt follow the Continuation of ſo faulty a Syſtem.

After revolving many Plans in my Mind, I have at length adopted the following; which, on the matureſt Deliberation, is, I am convinced, the beſt that can at preſent be formed for our mutual Advantage, and abſolutely neceſſary to be carried into immediate Execution. It is this:

1ſt. That of the Troops now belonging to your Excellency, and commanded by Britiſh Officers, the following Corps be transferred to the Service of the Company; viz. Nine Battalions of Sepoys, Three Companies of Artillery, and Two Regiments of Horſe, One more to be added for that Purpoſe to complete the Eſtabliſhment.

2d. That theſe Corps be formed into a Brigade for the Service of your Excellency entirely; but, for the ſake of maintaining Diſcipline and Subordination, be immediately ſubjected to the Authority of this Government, by which their Pay is to be iſſued, their Accounts regulated, their Expence controuled, and their Conduct ultimately directed; but they ſhall act ſolely under your Orders in all their Military Operations for the Defence of every Part of your Dominions, whilſt you retain them in your Service.

3dly. That an Eſtimate be formed of this Eſtabliſhment, on the Trial of One or Two Months, which your Excellency will defray, and after that the ſame ſhall remain a fixed Charge, for ſo long a Time as you ſhall require the Corps for your Service.

Your Excellency will perceive by this Plan, that no ſubſtantial Change is made by it, either in the Strength or Service of the preſent Eſtabliſhment; but that it is formally converted to the Service of the Company, for the ſole Purpoſes of rendering it more effectual to yours, and the leaſt burthenſome to your Finances.

If you approve of this Meaſure, as this is the Seaſon for executing it, I hope that you will be pleaſed to iſſue immediate Orders to Colonel Goddard to that Effect. I have written to him accordingly.

☞ (a) [Mr. Francis.—I conceive it to be impoſſible that the Nabob, or any Prince whoſe Underſtanding is capable of forming the Idea of Independence, can give a voluntary Conſent to a Meaſure which dethrones him. Nothing is left for me, however, but to proteſt againſt it.] ☜

Mr. Barwell—I entirely approve of the Letter propoſed to be written to the Nabob.

☞ (b) [General Clavering—I proteſt againſt the Letter and all the Conſequences of it.] ☜

Reſolved that the Letter be approved, and the Governor General is requeſted to write it accordingly.

Reſolved, That Letters be written to the Reſident at Oude, and to Colonel Goddard, informing them of the Reſolution of the Board, and tranſmitting Copies of the Plan and of the above Letter to them.

Sir,

The preſent Eſtabliſhment of the Vizier's Troops, under the Command of Britiſh Officers, being found liable to many Inconveniences and Objections, we have thought it adviſeable to propoſe a new Mode for the Defence of his Country, conformably to the encloſed Plan, which we have recommended to the Vizier in a Letter whereof we alſo tranſmit a Copy for your Information.

You will be pleaſed to conſult the Nabob's Sentiments on the Subject of this Propoſal, and communicate his Determination to us as ſoon as you ſhall be acquainted with it.

At a Council; Preſent,
The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,
Lieutenant General Sir John Clavering,
Richard Barwell, and
Philip Francis, } Eſquires.

THE Proceedings of the 7th Inſtant read and approved.

☞ (a) [The Commander in Chief, agreeably to the Intention which he before expreſſed, now ☜ delivers in the following Proteſt to the Plan for the new Brigade, propoſed by the Governor General, and agreed to by the Board on the 7th Inſtant:

Sir John Clavering.—Perceiving that my Minute of the 19th May, while remaining in every Point unanſwered, has in no Shape altered or cauſed any Amendment in any one Article of the Plan propoſed by Mr. Haſtings on the Fifth of that Month, for transferring a Part of the Nabob's Army to the Company's Service, but on the contrary ſeveral of the Evils pointed out by me in it have encreaſed and are otherwiſe brought on with aggravating Acts, in violation of the Company's moſt poſitive Orders, and all without any well-founded Reaſons, the only one urged by Mr. Haſtings being becauſe I had oppoſed his Plan in Council, and becauſe, having already propoſed it, it became prudent in him to enforce it. But this is brought on, as Mr. Haſtings himſelf acknowledges, without any preſſing Neceſſity, although in daily Expectation of deciſive Orders from England.

The Fortieth and Forty-ſeventh Paragraphs of the Company's Military Inſtructions fully and clearly draw the Line between the Powers to be exerciſed by the Governor General and the Commander in Chief, limiting the Firſt to Fort William and the Town of Calcutta, and particularly entitling the latter to recommend all Officers for the Staff, and thoſe who ſhall be appointed to fill all Vacancies in the Sepoy Corps. But this ſolemn Act has been entirely ſet aſide and violated by Mr. Haſtings, and only becauſe I have oppoſed the Meaſure in Council; conſequently it follows that it would be adviſable for the Court of Directors not hereafter to allow their Commander in Chief a Seat in the Council, if he is either to concur in all Meaſures, however detrimental, which the Governor may propoſe, or if he is to be entirely ſilent, under Pain of having the Powers in his Commiſſion ſuperſeded.

Notwithſtanding the Line drawn ſo prudently by the Company between the Governor General and Commander in Chief of the Forces, in order to prevent, as they declare, the great Injury occaſioned to the Service by the Diſputes which had ariſen in India on account of the Power claimed by each, has been broken down and trampled on by Mr. Haſtings, and that he is aſſumed the Powers of which he was abſolutely deprived, and reduced my Office to be nothing more than a Channel to convey the Reſolutions of the Council to the Army; ſtill as long as I am permitted to have a Seat at this Board I will uſe the only Privilege which is yet left me of delivering my Sentiments on Meaſures which I do not approve, how unavailing ſoever they may prove, in deſpight of the Conſequences which may yet attend to deprive me of the Shadow of Authority of which it has been thought proper not to diſpoſſeſs me. I ſhall therefore take the Liberty of making ſome Obſervations on the Variations from the Plan as it was firſt offered, and as it has been finally reſolved on; and, accompanied with ſome Remarks which I before omitted, I ſhall conclude the whole with a ſolemn Proteſt againſt the Meaſure.

Finding by the Eſtabliſhment of Artillery now reſolved on for the new Brigade, that there is an Exceſs in the Number of Officers, upon the Eſtabliſhment propoſed in the Minute of the 5th May, I am willing to hope that this is a Miſtake; becauſe in caſe of any Exigency whereby the Service of our Artillery ſhould be wanted, I apprehend that even their preſent Strength of Officers would not be ſufficient for the Duty. The Vacancies which will be made by the Removal of ſo many Officers, may be nominally filled up by others, but not by Officers of Experience, which the Service of the Artillery ſo eſſentially requires. The actual Number of Officers now in the Service of the Nabob's Artillery is only Three. The Number reſolved upon on the 5th May was Nine. The Number now reſolved upon is Twelve; though the Number of Men which they are to command is not encreaſed.

In my Anxiouſneſs for the Safety of Bengal I can admit of no Competition between the Security of our own Poſſeſſions, and the Defence of the Nabob's Dominions; the Tranquillity of which might probably remain undiſturbed, did not the preſent Meaſure of taking the Nabob's Army from him, and occupying the conquered unguaranteed Provinces with the Company's Troops, demonſtrate a Deſign to ſeize his Country (to effect which nothing is wanting but to take the Collections thereof into our own Hands), and thereby render an Union of the Northern Powers againſt us a common Intereſt, and an Act of Policy for their Self-preſervation.

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 766.

In the Eſtabliſhment of the Staff, Artillery, and Cavalry, I find ſeveral Variations from the Firſt to the Second Reſolution as follows:

	More.	Leſs.
Staff.	Colonel, 1 Aid de Camp, Auditor of Accounts, Deputy Judge-advocate, 2 Surgeons.	Quartermaſter-General, A Commiſſary, and Superintendant of Stores.
Artillery.	1 Major, 2 Lieutenants.
Cavalry.		2 Lieutenants.

Not having ſeen Mr. Haſtings's Minute of the 6th January 1774, at the Time that I wrote mine in the Month of May laſt, wherein I proved, by Calculation, that allowing the Men to purchaſe their own Horſes would be more expenſive than if the Horſes were purchaſed by Government, I am glad now to find that my Opinion is therein ſupported by the Authority of Mr. Haſtings himſelf, who then declared it a great Saving, in the following Words:—"The Difference between this Plan and a Troop on the old Eſtabliſhment, is Rupees 16,936:12:6 per Annum. I propoſe the Purchaſe of the Horſe on the Company's Account; becauſe it is the only Method by which the Cavalry can be formed on an uniform Plan of Diſcipline, or the Conduct of the Men ſecured." It is true that Opinion has been ſince overſet by a very oppoſite one delivered by him in May laſt, when he ſays, "There are other eſſential Objections to this Mode; their current Expence is too great; their Contingencies indefinite; and every Caſualty proves an immediate Loſs, and becomes the heavier by the Want of an Intereſt in thoſe who have the Charge of the Horſes to prevent it." But from what Lights he has adopted an Opinion ſo very different from his Firſt, cannot be conjectured, unleſs the Expence of his Troop of Cavalry, which has appeared to have exceeded the Eſtimate very conſiderably, though the Eſtimate was declared ſo high as to afford Room for a Reduction, has made Mr. Haſtings miſtake an Abuſe that ought immediately to have been reformed by the Commiſſary General, for an Error of Calculation.

N. B. The Purchaſe of the Horſes amounted, in the Three Firſt Years, to R^s 97,145; whereas Mr. Haſtings's Eſtimate for Seven Years amounts only to R^s 60,100; and the whole Expences of Three Years, deducting Money paid to Cheyt Sing, and other extra Charges, as follows:

Total Diſburſement	—	—	—	3,07,736
Deduct Extra Charges		—	—	51,705
				2,56,031

This divided by Three makes one Year 85,343, which, inſtead of a Saving of 16,936, makes the Expence greater by 5,000 per Annum, making a Difference of R^s 22,000 per Annum from what he promiſed.

Becauſe taking the Nabob's Troops into our Service leaves the Engliſh Nation the open and declared Enemy to all thoſe with whom the Nabob may become at Variance, drawing upon the Engliſh Nation the Odium of every Act of Tyranny and Cruelty that may be committed under his Government; making us Principals where we ſhould only be Allies.

Could any of theſe Acts admit of Aggravation, the taking them up at a Time when Mr. Haſtings cannot fail being ſenſible that he is not ſuppoſed, in England, to hold the principal Seat in this Government; when he himſelf avows that he expects, in the courſe of this Seaſon, clear, decisive, and abſolute Orders, in * whoſe Hands the Government of theſe Provinces ſhall be committed; when he muſt be convinced that a Syſtem of ſuch Magnitude, of which the forming the New Brigade is, as he declares, but a Part, cannot be annulled without a Loſs of National Reputation, and great Expence: Theſe Conſiderations, inſtead of ſimply aggravating them, ſhould of themſelves, in good Policy, and Reſpect for the Company, have formed an inſuperable Bar to the undertaking them, at leaſt until he had been aſſured of being enabled to ſupport them, by ſeeing, as he is pleaſed to ſay, that our Superiors have rectified the paſt Errors, and left the Chief Adminiſtration of Affairs in his Hands.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 8th September 1777.

Fort William, the 8th September 1777.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident, Richard Barwell, } Eſquires.
Philip Francis, }

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Members of the Supreme Council at Fort William.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I HAVE now, in obedience to your Orders of the 12th May, the Pleaſure to forward you the Nabob's Account Current with the Company to the End of May laſt; his Account Current with the Army under Britiſh Officers to the End of February laſt, Wanſil Bankees, on Kiſt Bundees of the Tunkaws, granted in favour of the Company, the above-mentioned Army, and the Rohillas, to the End of Ihait Jumma Wanſil Bankee of the ſame Tunkaws, to the ſame Periods, in the Form required by the Honourable Board; as alſo Accounts Caſh in the Hands of the Reſident for April and May. My Caſh Account for April, as well as an Account Current to that Period, have been delayed to this Time, merely from the Hopes I entertained of being able to tranſmit the Army Account with them long ere this: Such, however, was the Intricacy of the Military Accounts, in conſequence of the State of Arrears, the Troops were delivered over to the Britiſh Officers in the total Want of Funds. At firſt, the ſlow and inadequate realizing of thoſe Funds when they were aſſigned, and afterwards the Confuſion created by the Mutinies, the few Aſſiſtants there were for that Employment, and the Want of having been furniſhed with the Regulations prevailing in the other Paymaſter's Offices, that I have utterly been unable to collect theſe Accounts before into any Form or Order, and them only to the Month of February laſt. A regular Office having been eſtabliſhed from that Time under the Deputy Paymaſter General, the preparing the Accounts to a very late Period will be attended with little Trouble; and I therefore hope to tranſmit the Honourable Board the military Accounts to the ſame Period to which I have drawn out the others, in a few Days. The Balance of the Company's Account Current amounts to Rupees 26,64,697 : 3 : 2; that of the Company's Tuncaws unreceived to only about a Lack of Rupees more. As there are Four Months of the Year remaining, during which the Nabob's Debts will increaſe by 2,60,000 Rupees a Month, or 10,40,000; it follows, that, ſhould even every Rupee remaining due on the Tuncaws be received, the Aſſets would ſtill be inſufficient to the Liquidation of the Nabob's Debt to the Company by above Nine Lacks of Rupees. Sorry I am, however, to be obliged to obſerve, that, ſo far from there being a Probability of the Balances on the Tuncaws being nearly realized, I have little Expectation of realizing Ten Lacks of Rupees more on that Account. The Season of the Collections may now be looked upon as over, and what further Monies may be received will be chiefly raised on the Credit of next Year's Collections.

On the Account Current of Military Receipts and Disbursements, there appears Balance of 21,39,138 : 6 : 1 Rupees. This Account I believe I may venture to offer to the Honourable Board as correct, unless some very trifling Sums may be due, which the Officers may have neglected to draw for, and the Deputy Paymasters to charge, in consequence of Monies having been at first, when the Funds came in, in no Degree proportionate to the Expences advanced them on Account: Such Differences, however, must be exceedingly trifling, if any, and shall be immediately rectified if they exist. This Account being only drawn out to the End of February last, it is necessary to observe, that full Twenty Lacks of Rupees have been received since that Time; and as the Military Expences for March, April, May, and June, can scarcely exceed Fourteen Lacks of Rupees, at 3,50,000 per Month, it will follow, that this Balance must now be reduced to about Fifteen Lacks of Rupees. It appears from the Wansil Bâkee of the Military Tuncaws, that the Balance remaining to be received on these Tuncaws is Rupees 20,78,034 : 6 : 2; estimating the Debits of the remaining Two Months at 3,50,000 R^{s} per Month, the Amount thereof, being 7,00,000, added to the before-mentioned Balance due to the Troops, will make the Sum of 22,00,000 R^{s}, or about a Lack more than the Amount remaining due on the Tuncaws, were this to be realized: But there is little Reason to think that these Monies, any more than the Company's, will be nearly realized. The Prospect of such large Balances accruing in both the Company's and Military Funds, the absolute Necessity of providing for the Disbursements of the Brigade, and the almost equal Necessity of providing for those of the Troops under British Officers, important as I conceive the Honourable Board would consider their being kept upon a regular Footing to the Company's Interests, were the Reasons which induced me to forbear sending down the Company's Cash in Hand, till I could present just Statements to the Board of the Sums likely to be realized on the Company's and Military Tuncaws, and obtain their Orders in consequence, as to the Propriety of remitting the Money, or detaining it for the Use of the Brigade, and in case of Necessity appropriating Part to the Disbursements of the Troops under British Officers. The Balances have by no means increased, since my taking charge of this Station, more than in proportion to the additional Kists which have become due: In Truth, the Evils, which have occasioned these Balances, have originated from the Time of the Tuncaws being granted, have continued to the present Period, and have been such as neither my Predecessor or myself could possibly remedy; nor can indeed any Remedy be applied in future but by the Adoption of a new System. It is my Duty to represent, in short, what these Evils are, and to propose what appears to me the only effectual Remedy; that the Honourable Board may take the Matter into their serious Consideration, and either adopt the Mode proposed by me, or such other as they may deem most expedient. The Causes of such Balances having accrued are, first, the Revenues having been injured by the Lands having been given in Farm to improper People, particularly the Orderlies and Favourites about the Nabob; Men, as I have already observed, of the lowest Extraction, most of them raised from common Sepoys, of Dispositions as mean as their Extractions, and who, from Want of Education, must be totally ignorant of the farming Business. Thus elevated, and, as most Men suddenly raised to Posts of Power and Station are, rapacious, they have plundered the Ryots wherever they have had Charge of Provinces, and of course made them desert, desolated the Country, and ruined its Revenues. Secondly, the Vizier's Desire to raise his Revenues, which will scarcely in any Instance bear such an Increase, without certain ensuing Loss. This has not only been the Case in making a new Bundabust, but often Two Months after Engagements entered into by Government with Aumils, when an Increase on the Revenues has been offered by any Adventurer, without any Charge of Delinquency, or even a Failure on the old Aumil's Part—the Vizier, from his idle Extravagancies ever distressed for ready Money, and allured by Paishgee, usually paid here on the first Instalment of an Aumil, has accepted the new Offer, disgraced the old Aumil, though an unexceptionable one, and put in a needy Adventurer, who, if he does any way realize his Increase, must do it by plundering the Country, and sucking the Blood of the Inhabitants. It is evident, that Proceedings like these must destroy all Confidence in Government, and effectually deter any creditable Men, solicitous of performing their public Engagements, and to improve the Country, from taking the Lands. Lastly and principally, in Addition to the foregoing Circumstances, his Excellency's public and private Expences are so inordinate and disproportioned to his Revenues, so ill calculated for any useful Ends, and the Conduct of them entrusted in such improper Hands, his Parasites, and the Ministers of his unworthy Pleasures, that he is perpetually surrounded with clamorous Creditors; and, to get rid of their Importunities, he grants fresh Tuncaws on the Lands, although those he may formerly have given exceed the utmost Amount of their Rents. A great Part of these Creditors consisting of his Excellency's undisciplined Troops, it is but too evident how much an Evil so great in itself must be encreased by so lawless a Rabble being let loose in the Country, who will naturally plunder as they may be able, neither paying any Regard to what may be their just Demand, nor the Mode in which they levy it; hence it has, within my Knowledge, ledge, frequently happened, that the Troops, which have been ſtationed with an Aumil for his Protection and Aſſiſtance, have put him in Confinement, and not ſuffered either him or his Officers to meddle with the Collections, until he has ſatisfied their exorbitant Demands. Theſe united Cauſes have occaſioned the Balances which have fallen ſo heavily on the Company's and Military Tuncaws; Cauſes which it has been impoſſible to obviate, theſe Tuncaws having been partial Drafts on the Revenues of particular Provinces, where the Vizier's Authority remained in full Force, and where the Reſident had no Troops to oppoſe the Nabob's lawleſs Rabble. I have been continually repreſenting to his Excellency the Impoſſibility of the Company's and Military Tuncaws being realized, while he continued granting others, exceeding the actual Revenue of the Provinces. My Remonſtrances have, however, proved ineffectual; and as I had no Authority over the Aumils, in oppoſition to his, the Evils have continued increaſing inſtead of diminiſhing. Plunged irretrievably, as the Nabob is, in Idleneſs, Extravagance, and Luxury, it is in vain to expect that he ſhould act, or indeed be able to act, another Year, in a Manner leſs injurious to the realizing the Engliſh Tuncaws, unleſs I am impowered by the Honourable Board to demand from his Excellency the excluſive Aſſignments of the whole Revenues of certain Provinces, to an Amount equal to the Demands upon him; with an expreſs Stipulation that the Rents ſhould be wholly paid into my Hands, without any Interference on the Part of his Excellency's Government; ſo that it ſhall by no means be allowed to diſmiſs the Aumils on whom ſuch Aſſignments are given, unleſs on a Repreſentation from me that they have failed in their Payments, or that from their Conduct I have Reaſon to expect ſuch Failure; alſo that the Troops ſtationed for the Service of the Collections ſhall by no means be changed, but at my Inſtance, in conſequence of any Complaints from the Aumils of their Miſbehaviour. If the Honourable Board think proper to inveſt me with Authority to make the above Demands from his Excellency, I think I may venture to aſſure them, that whatever Balances may be due on the Honourable Company's and the Military Accounts, at the Cloſe of this Year, may be very nearly if not wholly realized in the Courſe of the next Year; eſpecially if the Honourable Board ſhould alſo judge proper to authorize me to demand from his Excellency, that only ſuch Troops as may really aſſiſt the Collections be ſtationed in the Provinces aſſigned me, to the Excluſion of Cavalry, which is not only an uſeleſs but a moſt pernicious Charge on the Country.

In noticing the Accounts which accompany this Letter, I omitted to mention an Abſtract of Diſburſements to the Vizier's Troops under Britiſh Officers, under their reſpective Heads, from the Beginning of the Eſtabliſhment to the 28th February 1777, which I have alſo incloſed for the Information of the Honourable Board.

As the Seaſon for forming the new Settlement is now near at hand, I entreat to be favoured with the Honourable Board's Sentiments and Determination upon the above Subjects as ſoon as poſſible, that my Meaſures may be taken accordingly.

Lucknow,
the 28th June 1777.

I have, &c.
(Signed) Nath. Middleton,
Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

P. 616. 28th June. Ordered, That the Reſident be directed to make the neceſſary Advances to the Military Paymaſter of the Troops in the Field, and retain the Amount of One Month's Pay in Advance for the new Brigade; that he remit the Balance of Caſh, which may then remain in his Poſſeſſion, to the Preſidency, according to the ſtanding Orders for that Purpoſe.

Mr. Barwell.—I am of Opinion, that this Government has nothing at all to do with any Debts contracted with by Nabob, but with the Company. I have not the leaſt Objection to any of the Officers, or other Individuals, belonging to the Company, lending their Money to the Nabob; but I object to any Kind of Interpoſition whatever, in this Government, to force the Nabob to the Payment of ſuch Loans. I move that Mr. Middleton be ordered to ſtrike theſe Loans out of his Accounts, and to order the Deputy Paymaſters to do the ſame; unleſs there is ſome poſitive Engagement, authorized by the public Miniſter who is or has been at the Vizier's Court, to take up ſuch Loans on Account of the Nabob, and to paſs them in Account between the Company and him.

Mr. Francis.—The Title of the Account in queſtion deſcribes it to be an Account Current between the Nabob and his Troops under Britiſh Officers. The Charges, which I ſuppoſe are conformable to the Eſtabliſhment, are ſtated on One Side; the Receipts, or Means out of which thoſe Charges are defrayed, are ſtated on the other; among the latter are ſtated certain Sums ſuppoſed to have been lent to the Nabob by Britiſh Officers and others, and applied to the Diſcharge of the Expences of the Military Eſtabliſhment on the other Side: This cannot properly be called an Account of the Nabob's private Debts. If it can be proved that ſuch Sums were really lent and applied to the Pay of the Troops, it is a public Debt, for which his Treaſury muſt be anſwerable. I agree with the Governor General in the Enquiries he propoſes to make, and in the Order to be given to Mr. Middleton until we are ſatisfied with the Reſult of thoſe Enquiries; but I cannot agree with Mr. Barwell, that theſe Loans ought to be ſtruck out of the Account, if they were borrowed and applied for the Purpoſe expreſſed; they belong to this Account, and cannot be ſtruck out of it without Injuſtice to the Creditors. When we have obtained a Liſt of all the ſuppoſed Creditors, with the reſpective Sums due to them, and the Rate of Intereſt at which the Debts ſtand, I think we ſhould tranſmit it to the Court of Directors, that they may ſee how their Servants have profited in that Service; but I cannot conſent that any Money, really lent for public Service, ſhould not be repaid: And, ſince we have taken the Government of the Country, in Effect, from the Nabob, an Attempt to ſhift the Debt perſonally upon him would be the ſame Thing with not paying it at all.

Mr. Barwell.—I muſt ſpeak a few Words by way of Obſervation to Mr. Francis's Reply. Upon the preſent Occaſion, and upon a very late Inſtance, Mr. Francis affects noticing, that we have taken the Government of Oude from the Nabob: I know of no particular Change that this Government has undergone ſince the Nomination of Reſident at the Court of Oude of Mr. Briſtow was made by Mr. Francis; nor do I know of any Act of the preſent Reſident's, countenanced or not countenanced by this Government, of a Nature ſo exceptionable and ſo derogatory of the Authority of the Nabob, as the humiliating Conceſſion the Nabob was forced to ſign by Mr. Briſtow, touching the Execution of Ragonaut Metre Sircar, his own Subject, and the Manner in which that was inſiſted upon; but I eſteem it the Unhappineſs of Mr. Middleton to have held this Office under the Appointment of the Governor General, as it ſubjected him to the Removal from his Station on the Commencement of the new Government, and may poſſibly to many Difficulties hereafter, eſpecially as his Reſtoration is marked by the Recall of Mr. Briſtow. I cannot ſuppoſe that on the Commencement of the Nabob's Government, when Mr. Briſtow was Reſident, and when all the Officers of the Nabob's Houſehold were appointed under his Influence; when the Sum of near Fifty Lacs of Rupees was claimed from the Bhegum, and compromiſed for Thirty; ſurely at this Time, with the leaſt Attention to the Finances of the Nabob, a Plan might have been ſtruck out and executed which would have amply provided an Eſtabliſhment for the Civil and Military of his Government; but as the greater the Degree of Irregularity, and the greater the Treaſures left to his Diſſipation, the greater would be his Means to gratify the Dependants of the Court. The Military Eſtabliſhment has been left unfounded, his Wealth ſwallowed up by greedy Dependants, and a Sum of 21 Lacks of Sicca Rupees accumulated, with which the Government will be burthened, if theſe Loans are not ſtruck out of the Public Accounts, and thrown entirely upon the Nabob. The Revenues of the Suba of Oude are above Crores of Rupees, as ſtated by Mr. Briſtow himſelf; out of this the Subſidy and the new Eſtabliſhment, which he is to pay into the Hands of our Reſident, may amount to 70 Lacks per Annum; there will then remain for him to diſpoſe at his Pleaſure One Crore odd Lacks. It could not, therefore, have ſubjected him to any Difficulty, had the Reſident at his Court inſiſted on his ſupporting an Eſtabliſhment he applied for himſelf, inſtead of burthening the Government with a Debt to many Individuals, under the Pretext of enabling the Nabob to defray the Charge incurred by their Troops.

Mr. Francis.—As I have not mentioned Mr. Middleton's Name, nor alluded, either directly or remotely, to any Act of his, I preſume Mr. Barwell will explain, in proper Time, for what Purpoſe the preſent Strictures on Mr. Briſtow's Conduct, and the Compariſon between his Situation and that of Mr. Middleton, are introduced. The Fact referred to by Mr. Barwell, I muſt aſſert, is not candidly ſtated; Mr. Briſtow, at the earneſt perſonal Solicitation of the Nabob, took upon him the Office of Mediator between him and ſome Battalions of his mutinous Troops, and, at the ſame Solicitation, pledged his Faith to the Men that their Offence ſhould be forgiven; the Nabob afterwards cauſed One of them to be executed, without any Form of Trial, or previous Notice to Mr. Briſtow.—Mr. Briſtow conſidered himſelf as aggrieved and diſhonoured by this Act. He foreſaw, that many bad Conſequences might follow, if the Interpoſition of the Engliſh Name, and of the Authority of the Company's Repreſentative, were ſuffered to be a Maſk of Deception; he therefore inſiſted on an Acknowledgment from the Nabob, that he had violated his perſonal Faith pledged to him, and that he, Mr. Briſtow, was not a Party to it. This is the Fact; whether he did right or not is another Queſtion: If it deſerved Cenſure, it ſhould have received it at the ſame Time when it happened. I believe myſelf that it was a juſt and proper Act, and that it will bear the Teſt of the ſtricteſt Examination.—(a) [Mr. Barwell is pleaſed to ſay, that he knows of no particular Change that the Government of Oude has undergone ſince the Nomination of Reſident at the Court of Oude of Mr. Briſtow by Mr. Francis.—I ſaid, that we had in Effect taken the Government from the Nabob: I will not put it upon Mr. Barwell to affirm the contrary. The Nabob is a Cypher, and known to be ſo to all Hindoſtan. Within theſe very few Months we have taken his Army from him; we have inſiſted on his committing the Civil Adminiſtration to one particular Perſon; we have inſiſted on his diſmiſſing his Favourites; and now Mr. Middleton tells us, that he has taken the Collection of the Revenues of the Doaub and Rohilchund under his own Direction, or to that Effect. I refer to his Letter of the 18th Auguſt. I ſhould be glad to know what Branch of the Sovereign Power is really left to the Nabob. As for the reſt, I ſhall content myſelf with obſerving, that all the foregoing Acts are ſubſequent to Mr. Briſtow's Recall. Before this happened, he neither had nor could have the Power which Mr. Barwell attributes to him.] I do not mean, however, to enter into a Diſcuſſion of his Merits, or thoſe of Mr. Middleton; I conſider them as the Inſtruments of the Board, and not reſponſible for the Orders they obey.

(a) Vide ſupra, P. 767.

Mr.

Mr. Barwell.—My Reaſon for mentioning Mr. Middleton's Name, is warranted by the concluding Words of Mr. Francis's Reply to my Minute. My contraſting the Conduct of Mr. Briſtow, was to ſhew in the ſtrongeſt Light how Gentlemen may regard Actions of different Men in different Points of View. Mr. Middleton appears treated under the ſame Circumſtances under which Mr. Briſtow acted as Nabob of Oude; and Mr. Briſtow, who ſubjected the Nabob to the moſt humiliating Condition, and exerciſed the moſt arbitrary and deſpotic Influence over the Nabob, was regarded as the ſimple Agent of this Government. I deſire Mr. Francis will recollect, whether the Army, the Treaſures, and the Civil Government, were not much more within the Power of the Reſident, to do what he pleaſed with, during the Time that Mr. Briſtow acted, than in the preſent. It is true that the Civil, Military, and Financiering Department, carried a different Form, which did indeed ſubject our Reſident to very little Reſponſibility in the Acts of the Nabob, while they allowed his private Influence the utmoſt Sway. I deny that the Power of the Reſident at the Court of Oude is encreaſed; ſo far from it, that in the Meaſures I have approved, I approved them under a Conviction of ſhackling his Authority, and ſecuring to this Government its juſt Rights; the more our Reſident ſtands forth entruſted with Securities for the Payment of the Public Money, the leſs Means he has of perverting thoſe Securities to any other Purpoſe. For my own Part, I diſclaim all Kind of Interference in the Government of Oude, declare I have no Kind of Correſpondence with any of the leading Men in the Government, or even any private Gentlemen, who from Station or Truſt could be of Uſe to me in that Light. The Sovereignty of Oude is left unimpaired with the Nabob. If the Recovery of the Debts due to this Government, and the Means of ſecuring ſo great a Part of the Company's Property, is a Crime, by its being inſinuated to take from the Nabob's Sovereignty, it is a Crime which the little Care and Attention of the former Adminiſtration in this Country has forced upon the preſent;—it is a Crime that I ſhall always regard as a great Happineſs to the Company, if it could but procure to them the Payment of the monſtrous Debt that is at this Moment outſtanding. The Alluſion I made to the Interpoſition of Mr. Briſtow, upon a certain Occaſion, upon an Examination of the Fact, I am certain will be found to be candid. If I miſtake not, Mr. Briſtow was deceived, and the Perſon on whoſe Behalf he interpoſed was puniſhed for the Crime of cheating the Sepoys of their Pay—a Crime totally independent of the Mutiny, and I believe it happened Three Months after it.

Mr. Francis.—It is admitted that the Form at leaſt is changed, though the Power is ſaid to be the ſame with that exerciſed by Mr. Briſtow. He undoubtedly had conſiderable Influence at the Court of Oude, as the Company's Reſident always muſt have; but it was an Influence obtained by Negociation, not by direct Power. The Facts are before our Superiors, to whoſe Judgment I ſubmit. I ſhall give the Board no further Trouble on this Queſtion, nor perhaps on any other—I am too ſenſible that it is giving both them and myſelf a very uſeleſs Trouble.

Mr. Barwell.—I muſt beg leave to be underſtood by the Word Form, ſimply the Manner or Mode of conducting the Buſineſs, not any Thing relative to the Fundamentals of the Government. I have often heard Mr. Francis's Opinions with much Deference, and ſhall with Pleaſure give that Weight to his Reaſonings upon all Occaſions, when they are not partially directed in Support or Condemnation of a particular Set of Meaſures or Men. This is not a ſimple Profeſſion, I feel what I expreſs.

Reſolved, That the following Letter be written to Mr. Middleton.

(EXTRACT.)

Sir,

P. 632. In the Incloſure, N° 2, which is titled, An Account Current of the Nabob with his Army under Britiſh Officers, we obſerve with Aſtoniſhment the enormous Sum of Sicca Rupees 21,76,327 : 14 : 3 ſtanding as a Balance due to the Officers, Paymaſters, and others, for Money lent to the Nabob. We cannot paſs ſo vaſt and irregular a Charge without Examination. In the Firſt Place we do not underſtand with what Propriety the Nabob's Debts are brought into a public Account of his Military Diſburſements. In the Second Place we totally diſapprove of Money being lent to the Nabob by any Individuals in the Service of the Company, nor will we ſuffer the Company's Influence to be miſuſed for the Recovery of ſuch Debts.

We deſire you will tranſmit to us a fair State of the Money actually lent by each of the Perſons whoſe Names are inſerted in the above Account of Balances, the Rates of Intereſt charged on their reſpective Loans, and the Names of thoſe for whom we ſuppoſe Mr. O'Donnel is an Agent; as it appears morally impoſſible that he could have been poſſeſſed of Property to the Amount which ſtands in his Name, being Sicca Rupees 7,32,205 : 11 : 8.

We alſo forbid you to make any Payments in diſcharge of theſe Bonds, from your Office, without ſpecial Orders from us for that Purpoſe.

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,

Sir Eyre Coote abſent on a Viſit to the different Stations of the Army.

RECEIVED the following Letter from the Commander in Chief.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

The Day before Yeſterday I encamped near Allahabad, where the Vizier did me the Honour of a Viſit; and Yeſterday Morning, in my Way hither, I returned it, and was received by his Excellency with every Mark of Reſpect and Diſtinction.

This Morning he called here, and we had ſome general Converſation, which principally turned upon the Subject of his Attachment to the Engliſh, and his Readineſs to ſhew the Sincerity of it upon all Occaſions.

It is to be wiſhed we had employed the Influence which ſuch favourable Sentiments muſt have given us more to the Benefit of the Country and ourſelves; but I fear the Diſtreſſes which evidently appear on the Face of the one, and the Failure of Revenues to the other, are not to be wholly aſcribed to the Vizier's Management.] ☞

Captain Popham has juſt informed me that his Party is ready to move except the Candahar Horſe, which were not arrived. I ſpoke to the Nabob concerning them this Morning, who aſſures me they are ready to join him whenever they are demanded; and though he is a Lack and an Half of Rupees in Arrears to them, they make no Objections to marching and receiving the current Pay from us, provided they have Security that the Nabob will diſcharge this Debt in future; ſo that you will now, Gentlemen, pleaſe to give your final Orders reſpecting the Movement of this Detachment, which ſhall be followed by ſuch Military Inſtructions as I may find neceſſary to give. However, I wiſh ſome further Accounts may com * from General Goddard relative to his Situation before thoſe Orders are put in Execution: For if all the flying Reports I hear be true, it may be true †, it may be neceſſary to move a great Part of the Troops here in order to ſecure the Junction we meditate, as Captain Popham ſeems ſenſible that from Delay occaſioned by Lateneſs of the Seaſon the Deſign is too well known through the Country.

Indeed if War is to be continued with the Marattas, others and more conſequential Steps muſt be taken than merely the ſupplying General Goddard's Army from hence. And I ſhould hope the Gentlemen at Madras have taken into Conſideration before this Time the Letter we addreſſed to them upon that Subject.

I incloſe the Copy of a Return I have received from Brigadier General Stibbert, as a convincing Proof that the Golandawze have no Objection to enter into other Corps, either as Sepoys or Laſcars, and that you have conſequently a Right to expect they will enliſt with equal Facility at Calcutta, unleſs Obſtructions are thrown in the Way of my Orders.

Upon a careful Survey of Chunar Ghur, I find myſelf exceedingly diſappointed in it as a Place of Strength; it is by no means ſuch, as in its preſent State it can only be defended by Muſketry; and that to ſo little Purpoſe, that I will venture to ſay, an Army well conducted would not be ſtopped Four and Twenty Hours by it; but if its natural Advantages are properly attended to, it may at a very moderate Expence be made a Poſt of great Conſequence, where Magazines of all Kinds of Military Stores, ſo neceſſary for the ſupplying of all different Stations, or to anſwer any Exigencies in theſe diſtant Provinces, might be laid up in Security. Captain Gardiner has already laid a Plan before you, which I have inſpected, and would recommend to the Board as anſwering (with ſome ſmall Alterations, which I mentioned to him and he approved of) every Purpoſe deſired.

The little Fort at Buxar will become entirely uſeleſs unleſs it is kept in repair; and as I think it a Poſt of great Advantage in many Reſpects, I ſhould adviſe its being attended to immediately.

The Eſtimate is made at Ten Thouſand Rupees, but the Sum of Five Thouſand would, I ſhould imagine, anſwer the Purpoſe at preſent, and an Allowance of One Hundred Rupees per Month be sufficient to keep it up afterwards. By what I have seen of Captain Eaton, who commands there, I think he might very properly be entrusted with the Management of this Business, as his Attention to it has already been such as to induce him to be at the Expence of several little Matters himself rather than see them run entirely to Ruin.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Resolved, That the following Reply be written to the Commander in Chief.

To Lieut. General Sir Eyre Coote, K. B. Commander in Chief.

Sir,

We have been favoured with your Letter of the 11th Instant.

We beg leave to inclose, for your Information, Copy of a Letter which we have just received from General Goddard, under Date the 28th October; and that you may be apprized as early as possible of his further Proceedings, we have directed the Secretary to furnish you with Copies of all the Letters which we may receive from him immediately on their Arrival. With respect to the Expediency of sending Captain Popham's Detachment to reinforce General Goddard's Army, as you will be the best Judge whether it can now reach him in Time to render any effectual Service to the Cause in which he will be engaged, we request that you will order it or not as you shall see necessary.

We are, &c. &c.

TRANSLATION of a Newspaper, giving an Account of the Transactions of the Royal Durbar, dated 26 Shawaul. Received 1st January, 1777.

Intelligence arrived that Timur Shah had sent Simput Shawer, at the Head of a good Army, with Directions to throw a Bridge, with all possible Expedition, over the River Atuk, and that Timur Shah himself was already in the Field, intending to begin his March towards the said River as soon as the Bridge should be finished.

An Arzee from Zabitta Khan, accompanying a Letter from Timur Shah, was presented for his Majesty's Perusal within the Mahul. Five Subahs of Hindostan are under the Dominion of the English; on one Side are the Infidel Sykes; Nijuff Khan, whom you, my Brother, raised from the Dust, has also possessed himself of another Soubah. A Remnant of Mahometanism was left in Rohilcund; Sujah Dowlah, an Heretic, made himself Master of that Country, and expelled all the Mussulmen; yet you, my dear Brother, remained an idle Spectator in the Fort of Dehli. God willing, set your Heart at rest; notwithstanding the Connection which Zabita Khan has formed with the Infidel Syks, and they transmit Arzies to me, I place no Confidence in these Infidels; I proposed to you a Plan for settling the Affairs of Cashmere, that you should cross the River Atuck, and enter Cashmere by the Mountains, and reduce it under your Authority; and I wrote to the Inhabitants of Futtah and Buckrah, and to the Balochies in the Neighbourhood of Sinda, praising them in the highest Terms for their good Conduct in not suffering the Infidel Sykes to make themselves Masters in their Country, and telling them that they might expect to see me very shortly in that Quarter, at the Head of a brave Army, to punish the Infidel Sykes, and that it was my Intention to pass from thence into Hindostan, through the Country of the Rajahs; that they should be ready with an Army of Mussulmen to accompany me, and that we would jointly with my Brother Shah Allum bring to condign Punishment the rebellious in every Part of Hind †.

☞ Indeed our Dignity and Honour are one; set your Mind at Ease, and consider me as absolutely arrived. (a) [It is well known that the Dominions of Asoph ul Dowlah extend to within Three Days Journey of Dehli, and that the English are Masters of his Country, and he himself a mere Spectator of what is acted therein.] Why do you not, my Brother, support Cossim Ally Khan? ☞ It is said that he resides within Three Days Journey of Dehli, and nevertheless has not yet been admitted to your Presence. He is a Victim of the English Arms, and it would be political to keep him at your Court; he is, moreover, a Man of Abilities. By the Favour of God, now that I am coming to Dehli, I ſhall continue there ſome Years and completely regulate the Affairs of all Sides of Hind *.

Copy of the Anſwer which His Majeſty returned to Timur Shah.

This is your Fifth Letter, but it is Matter of Surprize that you have ſo repeatedly written your Intention of coming into theſe Parts, and that we are nevertheleſs ſtill kept in the greateſt Anxiety for your Arrival: You truly obſerve that our Dignity and Honour are as one, and that our Dominions are in the Hands of our Servants.

The Want of an Army and the Diſagreement amongſt our own Nobles, have obliged us to retire to Dehli, having no Hope but in the Aſſiſtance which we look for from you, our Brother. The Soubah of Dhakah, the Soubah of Behar, and the whole of Bengal, are in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh.—Moreover, by the Perſuaſions of Sujah ul Dowlah, they have traiterouſly with-held from us, ever ſince our Arrival at the Capital, the Trifle which they ſtipulated for the Support of our Houſehold, viz. Illahabad, and alſo the Tribute they engaged to pay us.

☞ (a) [Sujah ul Dowlah, by the Influence of the Engliſh, even took poſſeſſion for himſelf of the Province of Illahabad; and his Son the Nabob Aſoph ul Dowlah being immerſed in Voluptuouſneſs, the Soubah of Illahabad, and even of Oude, are in Reality under the Dominion of the Engliſh.

A ſmall Remnant of Mahometaniſm was left in Rohilcund; their Country alſo, which is not leſs than a Soubah, is apparently under Aſoph ul Doulah, but the Engliſh are in fact the Maſters of it, for Aſoph ul Doulah is abſolutely incapable of Buſineſs; thus undoubtedly there are Five Soubahs under the Engliſh Government.] ☜

With reſpect to your Recommendation of Meer Caſſim Ally Khan, many Difficulties would ariſe from our inviting him at this Seaſon to our Preſence; we have not however ſent him away; he now reſides within Three Days Journey of our Capital.—By the Favour of God, when you our Brother ſhall honour Dehli with your Royal Preſence, he ſhall moſt undoubtedly be ſent for. There is indeed no Dependance to be placed on the Engagements of the Infidel Syks. In whatever Manner you can effect it, come with an Army of Belouchies by the way of the Hills, about Futtah and Bhakrah, and paſſing Mulſana proceed through the Country of the Rajahs; if by any Accident you cannot come in Perſon, ſend a veteran Army under the Command of ſome Nobleman of Diſtinction, into theſe Parts, with the utmoſt Expedition: On no Account neglect or delay this. We are prevented ſending you any of the Productions of this Country, on account of thoſe lawleſs Banditti, the Infidel Syks; but where ſo ſincere and perfect a Friendſhip is eſtabliſhed in our Hearts there is the leſs Neceſſity for Preſents to prove it.

Abdulaid Khan ſent his Majeſty's Letter in an Arzee from himſelf, and ſent it by Shah Abdul Ullah to Timur Shah.

The Subſtance of his Arzee was as follows:

His Majeſty is anxiouſly deſirous of your Arrival—I am alſo your Servant, and cannot expreſs the Earneſtneſs of my Deſire to pay you my Reſpects. Since I firſt heard of your advancing your Standard towards theſe Parts, I have been employed Night and Day in Prayers that you may ſpeedily arrive victorious in Hindoſtan. It cauſes me the greateſt Regret that I cannot pay my Reſpects to you in Perſon at the River Atuck, but the unſettled State of Affairs in Hindoſtan prevents the Poſſibility of it. Enemies have ſprung up in every Quarter and ſeized on the Dominions of the Empire; Rebellion prevails in every Part, all Allegiance is thrown off: Doubtleſs you have learnt this from the Public Papers, and there is no Hope of reſtoring the Affairs of the Empire except by your Preſence.

Abdulaid Khan ordered 500 R[s] to the Meer Bahur for the Purpoſe of erecting the Bridge, and gave ſtrict Orders that the greateſt Expedition ſhould be employed to get it finiſhed.

Abdulaid Khan ordered Bahram Kooly Khan to ſend his Tents on Camels to the other Side of the River Jummun.

Yeſterday Afternoon the Nabob Abdulaid Khan received Letters from Bow Niamut Sing, alſo an Arzee from Roy Moochcram, from the Army of Nijuff Khan, mentioning that the Nabob Nijuff Khan came before the Fort of Biſwa, and demanded that whatever Tribute they had been accuſtomed to pay to Sooruje Mull Jaut, and others of that Nation, they ſhould transfer to him, and that he would make no further Demand on them.

From Fize Ullah Khan. Received 13th February.

I TRANSMITTED to my truſty Vackeel Roy Buktawur Sing, an Account of the Calumnies of my Enemies, reſpecting the Extent of this ſmall Tract of Country, the Gift of the Engliſh, and many other falſe Aſſertions and Accuſations which they brought againſt me, to be by him related to you; and it is with the moſt ſincere Pleaſure and Satisfaction of Mind I learn from him, that on his repreſenting theſe Matters to you, you were graciouſly pleaſed to ſpeak to him in Terms of Encouragement, telling him, that I muſt religiouſly adhere to my Engagements, and that no one ſhould give me Trouble on account of the pretended Extent of my Country, or the other Charges alleged againſt me; and further, deſiring that I would tranſmit particular Accounts of the Affairs of this Quarter, which would be conſidered as a Proof of my Attachment to yourſelf and the Company. I am truly grateful for theſe kind Aſſurances, and offer up my Prayers to the Almighty, that he will reward you by long preſerving you under his Protection, in the Enjoyment of the Dignity you now hold, and of every Bleſſing.

In a ſteady Adherence to my Word and Engagements, I view my own Advantage both here and hereafter, it being a Duty ſtrictly inculcated by the Precepts of my holy Religion. By the Bleſſing of God, whilſt I live, I will never deviate in any Degree from them, and will ever continue obedient to your Will. Being firmly aſſured of this, let not your Excellency regard my Repreſentations in the Light of a Man influenced by worldly Motives, for I have no View but that of acting in a Manner ſatisfactory to your Excellency and the Company; and will purſue ſuch a Line of Conduct as ſhall gain me your utmoſt Confidence. My Fidelity ſhall be worthy of Praiſe and Applauſe.

I am hopeful that your Excellency will regard me as a Dependant of the Company, and one who is, on every Occaſion, ſubmiſſive to your Pleaſure.

Encloſure in the above.

Zabita Khan, defeated by his Majeſty and the Nabob Nejif Khan, retired to the Diſtrict of Sahrun, under the Dominion of the Seiks, and having got together a Body of 5 or 6000 Cavalry, returned and ravaged the Villages in the Neighbourhood of Delhi, and is now ſhifting from Place to Place in the Diſtricts of Sahruppore, Merut, &c. within the Doaub.

Nejiff Cooley Khan has put the Fort of Sahrunpore in a State of complete Defence, and retired within it.

Nejiff Khan has ſurrounded the Fort of Cumhare, and opened his Batteries againſt it.

Row Pertaub Sing, the Chief of Majhares, has revolted from Nejiff Khan, and ſtrengthened himſelf in the Fort of Aloor.

The Forces of the South, or Deccan, are engaged in Hoſtilities with Ranna Chatter Sing.

☞ (a) [This Country of Cutthar, which formerly depended on the Rohilla States, and which I conſider as now appertaining to the Company, was very populous and flouriſhing; but ſince the Commencement of the Nabob Vizier's Government, the Farmers appointed by his Miniſters have deſolated the Country; its Situation is at preſent very ruinous; Thouſands of Villages, formerly populous, are now utterly deſerted, and no Trace is left of them. I have already written to Roy Buktawur Sing, a full Account of the Tyranny and Oppreſſion exerciſed by the Farmers, to be communicated to you. The conſtant Revenue of a Country depends on the Care of its Rulers to preſerve it in a flouriſhing State.

I have been induced to make the Repreſentation by my Attachment to the Intereſt of the Company, for otherwiſe it is no Concern of mine.

Should theſe Oppreſſions continue One or Two Years longer, and the Rulers take no Meaſures to put a ſtop to them, the whole Country will be a Deſert.]

Extract of a Conſultation of the 21ſt April 1783.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,

Edward Wheler,
John Macpherſon, } Eſquires.
John Stables,

Sir Eyre Coote gone to Fort Saint George.

From Hyder Beg Khawn to the Honourable the Govarnor General: Received March 28th, 1783.

Uſual Introduction.

AT the Beginning I was raiſed by the Hand of your Favour, and from that Period to the preſent, you have uniformly protected my Honour, and by your Countenance conferred Reſpectability upon me. Aſſiſted by ſuch Patronage and Support. and deeming my Fidelity and Attachment to the Company, and to the Nabob Vizier, as Duties which admitted of no Diſtinction or Separation, I have, as is well known to you, unremittingly perſevered in exerting my Services for the Benefit of both Sarcars.

At this Period, and for ſome Time paſt, various Circumſtances and Events have come to paſs, which, in conſequence of ſtrict Injunctions, that no one ſhall preſume to inform you of the State of Affairs here, my Apprehenſions have hitherto deterred me from communicating; hoping at the ſame Time, that you might learn them from public Report, and that the neceſſary Remedies would be applied; or that Mr. Briſtow would himſelf adopt more favourable Diſpoſitions.—As neither of theſe Events has happened, I ſee no Remedy or Expedient whatever, except in a Repreſentation to you of all that has paſſed; and am therefore neceſſitated to make this Communication.

In conſequence of the Receipt of your frequent and iterated Informations and Declarations, both to his Highneſs and to me, by Letters immediately from yourſelf, and alſo through the Medium of Major Palmer, who returning from Cawnpore did perſonally, at various Interviews, and repeatedly through the Medium of others, communicate your Sentiments reſpecting Obedience to the Directions, and Attention to the Satisfaction, of Mr. Briſtow; declaring that in the firmeſt Reliance on his Conduct, you had veſted him with ample Powers in the Arrangement and Regulation of the Nuvvaub's Affairs, and as your choſen and ſelect Friend had appointed him to the Execution of this Office; that we ſhould not deviate in the minuteſt Degree from his Directions, or in the ſmalleſt Point neglect or diſregard his Pleaſure; and that we ſhould pay the ſame Attention to his Satisfaction as we would to yours. In conſequence of the foregoing, as his Highneſs and myſelf regard an implicit Reſpect and Obedience to your Advice and Directions as the firſt and only Objects of our Attention; therefore, agreeably to your Commands communicated by Letter, and by Major Palmer, I have in every Particular obeyed the Directions of Mr. Briſtow, from the Hour of his Arrival down to the preſent Moment.

Papers which he demanded I have delivered, contrary to the Pleaſure of the Vizier; in no Point whatever have I been deficient in Obedience and Submiſſion. Whatever he has directed, on whatever Subject, I have conſidered a Compliance with his Directions as Obedience to your Commands, and without Difficulty or Heſitation have fulfilled them. Volumes would be inſufficient to contain the Particulars on this Ground; to relate them circumſtantially is therefore impracticable; and you muſt already be well and fully informed on the Subject, as many of the Gentlemen reſiding here are perfectly acquainted with moſt of the Circumſtances. Notwithſtanding this entire and implicit Obedience and Attendance on his Will, every Mark of Attention, and every Inſtance of Support, which you, in your Solicitude for the Happineſs and Well-being of his Highneſs, and from your Regard for the Honour and Reſpectability of his Miniſters, have always and uniformly ſhewn, and which the Gentlemen heretofore appointed to this Office, in Obedience to your Pleaſure, were wont to exhibit, have been totally neglected and diſregarded by Mr. Briſtow. The firſt Order that he gave on his Arrival was, that I ſhould deliver up my Papers to him. He examined them, and after an Interval of ſome Days, declared that he was to take all the Affairs of this Country, all the Officers, Houſehold Eſtabliſhments, &c. &c. and all the Troops in the Service of his Highneſs, under his own immediate Management, and make the Diſburſements to each with his own Hand; that as the Military Expences, thoſe of the Houſehold, of the Jagheerdars and Tunkawdars, appeared to be very conſiderable, an Addition to the Ways and Means would be wanting wanting, and therefore I muſt give 25 Lacks of Rupees from my own private Property, to enable him to pay the Troops, the Houſehold Eſtabliſhments, Jagheerdars, &c. I repreſented to him, that from the moderate Ruſſoom granted and confirmed to us, under the Sign Manual of his Highneſs, I had annually advanced more or leſs to the Nuvvaub Vizier, in Proportion to his Neceſſities; and that what remained had been diſburſed in defraying my own neceſſary Expences; that the Accounts reſpecting the Ruſſoom, from my firſt Appointment to the Neabut, were forthcoming, which he might examine. He replied, that Accounts were uſeleſs; that I had accumulated great Wealth; if I would give the Sum he had mentioned, it was well; if not, he would, by a Change in the Office of Neabut, find Means to procure the Money. I aſked him, Whether the Money could be procured by making that Change? He replied in the Affirmative; and I retired from his Preſence.

By One of his Friends I afterwards ſent him the following Meſſage:—That the Neabut, and the Reſpectability which I poſſeſſed, were the Gifts of the Governor General; that his Highneſs, with his uſual Benevolence towards his Servants, had ſhewn me Favour; and that to the preſent Time I had not been wanting or deficient in my Duty to either Sircar; that as he, Mr. Briſtow, had been induced, at the Inſtigations of my Enemies, to make the preceding Declarations, if he was really and poſitively determined, in conſequence of ſuch Advice, to diſmiſs me from my Office, it was well, I would retire with my Family to Calcutta. His Friend replied by Meſſage, that what he, Mr. Briſtow, had ſaid, had proceeded from the Impulſe of a violent Temper, worked upon by the Advice of ſeveral miſchievouſly-diſpoſed Perſons; and that it would in the End ſubſide. I returned for Anſwer, that I would wait upon Mr. Briſtow the next Day, and never quit him, Day or Night, until I had ſucceeded in removing the Idea which he entertained reſpecting my Wealth. With this Intention I waited upon him on the following Morning: What Converſation had paſſed between him and his Friend I know not; but immediately on my Arrival at his Houſe, he ſent me a Meſſage, adjuring me to lay aſide all Appearances of Anger, as inconſiſtent and improper; and propoſing that we ſhould meet, and confer together upon Affairs as uſual.

Deeming it in every Reſpect neceſſary to obey, I conducted myſelf as he had deſired; and, without entering upon the Subject, delivered to him the Accounts, written at large, of the Receipts of Ruſſoom for the laſt Six Years; obſerving that the Country and the Aumils, both thoſe in and thoſe out of Employment, were forthcoming, and that he might oppoſe and compare theſe with their Accounts. He replied, that at all events Money muſt be raiſed. I anſwered, that I ſhould not have been backward, if the Means had been in my Poſſeſſion.

After the preceding Affair, he brought forward the Buſineſs reſpecting the ſtationing of the Regiments, ſaying, that I muſt procure a Shoccah to be written by his Highneſs on that Subject. I obſerved, that it would be neceſſary to communicate the Matter to the Navaub Vizier, and obtain his Conſent. At firſt he agreed, and ſaid he would ſpeak to his Highneſs on the Subject. After ſome Days employed in Conferences on this Buſineſs, deeming it improper to mention it to the Navaub, he told me that it was altogether unneceſſary; complained at the ſame Time, that on all Occaſions I was wont to introduce the Name of the Vizier, demanding my Reaſons for ſo doing. I replied, that every Meaſure which was carried into Execution without the Vizier's Knowledge muſt ultimately draw the Diſpleaſure of both Parties upon me. He aſſerted the contrary, ſaying, he had it in Command from the Governor and Gentlemen of the Council, to act as he ſhould deem proper, without waiting to inform the Nabob, or allowing his Meaſures to depend on his Highneſs's Pleaſure or Diſpleaſure, and ordered me to cauſe the Shoccah to be written.

As I conſider his Highneſs's Well-being and Proſperity to be promoted by my Attachment to the Company, and eſteeming it a Duty, in obedience to your Commands, to obey Mr. Briſtow, I thought it improper to ſay any Thing further to him on the Subject; and therefore I did as he had directed, and without the Vizier's Knowledge cauſed the Shoccah to be written, and I delivered it to Mr. Briſtow. In the ſame Manner, from the Apprehenſion of ſuffering Diſgrace, I was induced to write and deliver to him, by his Orders, ſeveral other Shoccahs, without his Highneſs's Knowledge. At length the Vizier obtained Information of theſe Particulars, and I fell under his Diſpleaſure. Still conſidering my Duty to the Company's Sircar, and my Duty to his Highneſs as inſeparable from each other, and looking up to you for Favour and Protection, I continued to exert myſelf as uſual.

The preceding was followed by an Order from Mr. Briſtow, to make out and deliver to him an Account of the Expences of the Nuvvaub's Kitchen, Horſes, Elephants, Camels, &c^a. &c^a. I repreſented that he had never, during his former Reſidency, demanded theſe Papers, nor had they ever been demanded by either of the Gentlemen who ſucceeded him; and that if I ſhould now preſume to deliver them without his Highneſs's Conſent, he would certainly reſent it. To which Mr. Briſtow replied, In every Buſineſs you ſtill introduce the Name of his Highneſs—it will not be well for you; I have Orders to take poſſeſſion of all Papers. Without Remedy I delivered to him the Accounts above-mentioned. He then demanded the Military Accounts; and thoſe alſo I delivered. This was followed by an Order to write, and ſend to him, Muſter Rolls of the Troops, both the Mootaiya-neh and thoſe attending the Preſence. I repreſented to him, that he had already taken from me the whole of the Revenue Accounts; that a full Statement of the Mootaiya-neh was included therein. He replied, that I muſt write and deliver ſeparate Muſter Rolls of the Troops to him.

I requeſted a Reſpite of a few Days for this Purpoſe. He anſwered, No—that would be improper, that the Mootaſudees muſt be ſent to his Houſe, and write there. Accordingly, he gave Orders to Mr. Cooper to aſſemble them there, and there they continued, in the Style of Priſoners, writing from Sun-riſe till Nine at Night, for the Space of Seven or Eight Days. When the Regiſter or Muſter Roll was finiſhed, Mr. Briſtow ordered Four thouſand Horſe and Seven thouſand Foot of the Mootaiyaneh to be diſcharged; ſaying, that if the Aumils ſhould have Occaſion for more Troops, he had ſent for Fifteen thouſand Stands of Arms from Calcutta—he would raiſe Sepoys; and in lieu of the Troops, he would ſend thoſe Sepoys entertained by himſelf to the Aumils. I replied, that he was Maſter, and poſſeſſed of ſupreme Power—he was to act as he thought proper. Some * after he told me, that the Arms which he had ſent for from Calcutta were not arrived; that on the Commencement of the Year he ſhould ſet on Foot an Eſtabliſhment here for the repairing and making of Arms, and raiſe Troops, as he had ſaid before. It was now become neceſſary for me to approve and acquieſce, with entire Submiſſion, in every Thing which he was pleaſed to ſay or direct.

* Sic in Orig.

Mr. Briſtow now declared, that a Treaſurer and Comptroller muſt be appointed to the Navaub's Houſehold. This Meaſure he at firſt propoſed to his Highneſs through the Medium of other Perſons: At laſt he himſelf viſited the Navaub, and on this Occaſion communicated to his Highneſs certain Arrangements, implying Advice or Propoſals for my utter Expulſion from Office. To which the Navaub replied, "On a former Occaſion I was prevailed upon by your Counſels to "adopt a Conduct ſimilar to that which you now recommend towards Mochtaur-u-Dowlah, and "afterwards you yourſelf ſtood forth to aid and protect him—What are your real Intentions now?" Mr. Briſtow replied, that his Highneſs might ſet his Heart at Eaſe with reſpect to him; that he would be a Surety, and would give an Engagement in Writing, under his Seal, that on this Occaſion no Protection or Aſſiſtance ſhould be afforded to his Highneſs's Miniſters on the Part of the Engliſh; that his Highneſs, in changing the ſaid Miniſters, and ſubſtituting others, might take whatever Steps he thought proper.

As the Navvaub did not acquieſce in this Meaſure, but on the contrary made Objections to the Appointments of Treaſurer and Comptroller, Mr. Briſtow applied to and directed me to prevail upon his Highneſs to make thoſe Appointments. Agreeably to his Orders, I waited upon and made the neceſſary Repreſentations to the Navvaub, who in Reply ſaid, "Mr. Briſtow, the Day "before Yeſterday, declared to me, that Hyder Beg Khawn ſhould have nothing to do in theſe "Affairs—after what Manner was it poſſible to him to communicate this Meſſage to you?" I anſwered, that, except by the Directions of Mr. Briſtow, I could not have brought the Meſſage. His Highneſs commanded me to return to Mr. Briſtow, and to repreſent to him, in Terms the moſt forcible, that he Mr. Briſtow could obtain no Benefit by the Appointments of Treaſurer and Comptroller; but that thoſe Appointments would reflect Diſgrace and Contempt upon his Highneſs, ſince it would become apparent that the Vizier poſſeſſed no Authority whatever, even over his Houſehold Eſtabliſhments, Domeſtics, and Beaſts of Carriage and Burden; to aſk him why he thus perſecuted and diſtreſſed him—adding, "The little which falls to my Lot, even that he will "not allow me to eat in Peace and Quietneſs." This Declaration was accompanied with Tears of Anguiſh.

I delivered his Highneſs's Meſſage to Mr. Briſtow, and repreſented to him all that had paſſed, and the State of Mind in which he was. Mr. Briſtow replied, that with reſpect to the Navaub's crying, ſuch Tricks and Artifices were of no Avail with him. That the Navaub knew him well—knew him to be that Mr. Briſtow who always did that which he had ſaid and declared he would do; that he ſhould do ſo on the preſent Occaſion: That he had laboured hard for Six Years; that the Gentlemen in Europe would have appointed him to a Seat in the Supreme Council, but he had refuſed it, he had been labouring to obtain this Office—the Government of this Country; that all People, and all his Friends, had told him he would never obtain it. Yet at laſt he was come, and he had poſitive Orders to act in every Reſpect as he ſhould think beſt; that he was poſſeſſed of full and complete Authority; that he ſhould cauſe the Treaſurer and Comptroller to be appointed this Year, and from the Beginning of the next he would take the total Revenue or Treaſury of the whole Country into his own Hands, and would himſelf iſſue in Specie ſuch Sums as ſhould be neceſſary; that ſuch Expences for Elephants, Horſes, &c. were extravagant Expences; the Number of Domeſtics was immoderate; and that there was more Victuals than was neceſſary dreſſed in the Navvaub's Kitchen; that he would not permit or ſuffer ſuch Expences. I aſked Mr. Briſtow, if I was to communicate what he had ſaid to the Navvaub? Yes, he replied, and that I ſhould tell his Highneſs what he had ſaid in plain Terms; that he alſo would go Face to Face, and tell him ſo. Accordingly, at the End of Two Days, he came to the Navaub, and deſired him to make the Appointments of Treaſurer and Comptroller; adding, that they were Points which he never would give up, that his Orders from the Gentlemen of the Council were peremptory.

His Highneſs replied, "If you have peremptory Orders on this Subject, give to me a written "Copy of thoſe Orders; my Seal is forthcoming, take it, and do by Force whatever you think "proper. I will ſhut up the Doors of my Houſe, and there I will ſit, and ſeclude myſelf from "all Society."

Mr. Briſtow replied, that he would give him a written Copy of the Orders from the Gentlemen of the Council; and with regard to his Seal, which he offered to ſend, he might ſend it.

For

For Two Days after the preceding Converſation, the Navvaub ſent his Seal by the Molavy along with me, to Mr. Briſtow; in conſequence of which, Mr. Briſtow ſaid, that if the Navvaub thought proper, he would act as he (Mr. Briſtow) had deſired, and in that Caſe himſelf affix his Seal to the Shoccahs; if not, he would not allow the Buſineſs to depend upon the Navvaub's Seal; he would ſend Letters under his own Seal to the Aumils, directing them to tranſmit the Money to him, and would keep the Treaſury in his own Hands.

The having wrote thoſe Letters is mentioned by Mr. Briſtow in his Letter to me (vide Copy, N° 4); to ſuch a Degree has he depreſſed and degraded the Nuvvaub! The Converſations which have paſſed, and an Account of the Oppreſſions exerciſed towards his Highneſs, will be made known to you by his Letter. When the Nuvvaub made Objections to the Appointments of Treaſurer and Comptroller, grounded on the Indignity and Contempt which thoſe Appointments would bring upon him, Mr. Briſtow directed his Suſpicions towards me, and wrote me a Letter, to which I replied. Copies of both Letters are ſubmitted to your Inſpection (vide Copies, N° 4 and 5); thence my Culpability or Innocence, together with Mr. Briſtow's Declarations reſpecting my Diſmiſſion from Office, and other Particulars, will be made known to you. As my Letter in Reply contained a Matter of Fact Recapitulation of all that had paſſed, Mr. Briſtow did not reply to or contradict it.

The next Time I waited upon him, he propoſed that we ſhould be reconciled to each other. I ſaid that I was obedient to his Pleaſure; that I had not hitherto been wanting in Obedience, and that in future I ſhould not; but that Kindneſs on his Part was alſo neceſſary. He replied, that Reconciliation on his Part would depend upon my not having wrote to the Governor General any Information of what was paſſing here. I replied, that I had nothing to do with writing Accounts of what paſſed here; but that thoſe Things which he had done, and thoſe which he intended to do, were known to People of all Deſcriptions in this City. That Mirza Iſmael Beg, who was his Counſellor and Manager, had publiſhed them to every one, and that People ſpoke of them without Reſerve to each other. Mr. Briſtow anſwered, that he had never mentioned any Thing on theſe Subjects to Iſmael Beg. I ſaid, "If that be the Caſe, why does he preſume to tell the People that you will turn out the Navvaub's Aumils, and appoint Aumils of your own? Many to whom he has made this Declaration are ready to bear witneſs to the Truth of it." On hearing this, he coldly replied, that he had never ſaid ſo; for as Iſmael Beg had propagated theſe Reports agreeable to Mr. Briſtow's Inclinations, he did not think it proper to call him to any Account for them.

Such is Mr. Briſtow's Diſpoſition, that he outwardly profeſſes and careſſes, while in Reality he is endeavouring to expel me from my Office, and then frequently denies or contradicts his own Declarations. In the Repreſentation which I have made, I have not, in any One Inſtance, deviated from the Truth; and it is a poſitive Proof of the Reality of many of the Particulars, that Mr. Briſtow did not reply to thoſe which are ſtated in my Anſwer to his Letter; but at our next Interview aſſumed Appearances of Affability and Good-will. All Perſons of Rank and Condition in this City are fully acquainted with the foregoing Circumſtances. The abſolute Power aſſumed by Mr. Briſtow in the Affairs of this Surcar is arrived at ſuch a Pitch, that to conſult the Pleaſure of the Navvaub, or to adviſe with me in the Conduct of Affairs, are Circumſtances which he totally diſregards. Thus the Appointment of Mahommed Beg, a Trooper under Mirza Aboo Tulib, the Intimate of Mr. Johnſon, to the Sezawully of Furruckabad, by the Removal of Mahomud Syed Kawn, and through the Interpoſition of Iſmael Beg, which ſome Time ſince took place, is a Circumſtance known to all Mankind. I repreſented to Mr. Briſtow, that his Highneſs did not approve of the Appointment; but my Repreſentation was diſregarded, and he poſitively obliged me to write and deliver to him a Shoccah appointing Mahomud Beg. In the ſame Manner he has reſolved, and intends to ſend out Sezawuls from himſelf to all the Mhalauts. He moreover, on all Occaſions, both in private and in public, declares, and has repeatedly ſaid the ſame to me, that at the Commencement of the enſuing Year he will turn out all the Navvaub Vizier's Aumils, and appoint Aumils of his own; that he will order the whole of the Revenues to be paid in to him; and that he will iſſue to the Navvaub in Specie, with his own Hand, what he himſelf may think neceſſary for his Highneſs's Expences; and that he will not ſuffer the Authority of this Sircar to remain in a ſingle Mahaul. He frequently ſays, "Why does the Navvaub keep ſo many Elephants and Horſes? Why are ſuch Quantities of "Proviſions dreſſed in his Kitchen? Such Numbers of Domeſtics are unneceſſary; I will curtail "the whole."

With reſpect to us, who are your Dependents, and the Miniſters of his Highneſs, our Credit and executive Authority in all Affairs is utterly annihilated. Like the Houſehold Servants of Mr. Briſtow, who are Day and Night attending his Commands; yet even by this Conduct he will not be prevailed upon to govern with Candour and Complacency: Notwithſtanding all that we do, our Hours are filled with unremitting Alarms for the Safety of our Honour. We have no Reſource, but in your Benevolence; no Proſpect of Redreſs, but from your Equity and Juſtice. Impelled by the moſt urgent Neceſſity, his Highneſs has written to you a Narrative of his Situation; and I, your devoted Servant, have thus repreſented all that has paſſed under my Obſervation, to the preſent Time, without Addition or Diminution, that we, the Miniſters, may not hereafter be deemed guilty of Neglect, in withholding the neceſſary Information of the preſent State of Things here. The Happineſs and Proſperity of the Navvaub depend upon your

Favour

Favour and Kindneſs; our Honour and Stability on your Bounty and Support. Whatever may be your Determination in behalf of the Surcar, it will be received with Joy and Reſpect. Deeming it a Duty to make this Repreſentation, I have thus laid it before you. It was heretofore the eſtabliſhed Cuſtom with the Gentlemen appointed to ſuperintend the Company's Affairs at this Court, to take Jauedauds to the Amount of the Company's Demand, and to leave the Balance of Revenue, ariſing from the Remainder of the Country, at the Diſpoſal of his Highneſs; in conſequence of which, more or leſs was forthcoming to the Tunkawdars, Jagheerdars, and Huzzoory Troops, and for the Expences of the Navvaub's Houſehold Eſtabliſhments, Elephants, Horſes, Camels, &c. In the preſent Year, Mr. Briſtow, after taking the Company's Jauedaud, gave Orders, that from the Remainder of the Revenues of this Country, no Money ſhould be iſſued to any Perſon whatever: That, having appointed a Treaſurer and Comptroller, he would call in the Monies, and direct the Diſburſements himſelf; in conſequence of which, to the preſent Period, no Subſiſtence whatever has been received by the Tunkawdars, Jagheerdars, Hindoſtan Troops, or People employed in the Offices of Government, and they are one and all calling out for Redreſs and Juſtice. Such is the Situation of Things here, that all Mankind are reduced to a State of Deſpair by the Hand of Mr. Briſtow.

☞ (a) [We, the Miniſters, owe our preſent Stations to your Bounty. His Highneſs alſo is devoted to your Pleaſure in all Reſpects; and from the Interchange of Turbans between you and the late Nabob, he conſiders you as the Brother of his Father. Whatever may be your Pleaſure in Behalf of his Highneſs, and with reſpect to the Well-government of this Country, which in a peculiar Manner appertains to you, his Highneſs does in no Reſpect whatever object; whatever Directions you may give, thoſe Directions he will obey.] ☜

I, from the Kindneſs and Affection which you bear towards his Highneſs, you ſhall pleaſe to confer upon him diſcretionary Powers for the Diſcharge of the Company's Demands, whatever may be the Sum ſtated by Mr. Briſtow to you as payable and to be paid in the Courſe of the current Year, his Highneſs, on receiving Information of the Amount, is ready and willing, with ſuch Powers, to diſcharge the ſame; and we, the Miniſters, in obedience to your Pleaſure, and ſtrengthened and ſupported by you, will at all Events raiſe the neceſſary Supplies for the Payment thereof: And for the enſuing Year, agreeably to ſuch Plan or Syſtem as you may determine upon for the Payment of the current Demand, with diſcretionary Powers to his Highneſs, we will take Meaſures for the Payment of the ſame in ſuch Manner, that under the Favour of God, and under your Protection, the Sums payable to the Company's Sircar ſhall be punctually received. By ſuch a Syſtem, your Fame and the Fame of the Engliſh People ſhall extend throughout this Empire; and due Regard to your controlling Power, Submiſſion and Obedience to your Orders, though ſecretly operating, ſhall be ſo firmly eſtabliſhed, as ſhall afford you ample Cauſe for Satisfaction. The Succeſs of theſe Propoſals depends upon your Favour: With you it muſt reſt to form ſuch a Plan for the Payment of the Company's Demands, as may be conſiſtent with the Honour and the Dignity of the Nabob Vizier; and whatever Mode you may pleaſe to point out, with the Bleſſing of God, agreeably thereto your Pleaſure ſhall be fulfilled, without the ſmalleſt Deviation. Through God's Favour, your Knowledge and Experience are celebrated among Men; you are the Support and Protector of your Friends, and Affairs of every Deſcription are familiar to your Penetration. It is apparent, that in caſe his Highneſs's Authority ſhall be reſtored, Bankers, Merchants, Friends, and Connexions—all will be filled with Confidence. Looking forward to future Benefits, every one will conſider his Difficulties as Objects of Indifference or Satisfaction. The Payment of the Company's Demands, and the Fulfilment of your Pleaſure, will be the Firſt Objects of their Views and Wiſhes. No Man will complain of Hardſhips; but in the Expectation of future Proſperity, one and all with Gratitude acknowledge your Goodneſs, and cheerfully ſubmit to every poſſible Saving, for the Purpoſe of diſcharging the Debt to the Company. With reſpect to theſe Arrangements, whatever may be your Pleaſure will be proper and juſt, and our Obedience is unlimited. Redreſs and Protection in Behalf of his Highneſs, from the Hand of Mr. Briſtow, under whom the moſt unbounded Oppreſſion is experienced, peculiarly depend upon your Benevolence. Whatever may appear to you moſt proper, let us be favoured with your Orders, and they ſhall be obeyed.

Memorandum. The Navvaub Vizier and Hyder Beg Khaun declare, that diſgraceful as it is held amongſt Mahommudans of their Rank to prove Facts upon Oath, they will ſubmit to it, with reſpect to the Contents of the preceding Narratives, if the Governor General and Council require it.

Extract from a Letter from the Governor General to Hyder Beg.

The Firſt is this, to ſhow how thin the Veil is by which you attempt to cover this Policy, and of courſe to convince you that I ſhall receive and conſtrue every Declaration, however made to me from the Navvaub, and every Letter written in his Name, tending to deſtroy or leſſen the Friendſhip ſubſiſting between us, as your Declaration, as your Letter: The 2d is, That as I do not ſo much aſcribe theſe Artifices to you as to the evil Counſels and Encouragements which you have lately received from other Perſons, whoſe Names I need not mention, you may ſee and know on what Terms you may expect hereafter to retain that Friendſhip and Support which I have hitherto given you. For the reſt I refer you to Mr. Briſtow, to whom, both verbally and in Writing, I have communicated every Tittle of my Sentiments, Intentions, and Expectations upon this Subject.

Anſwer from Hyder Beg Khan to Mr. Briſtow.

I have received your Favour; agreeably to your Commands I will make the Repreſentation what he may pleaſe to ſay in Reply. The Letters to the Aumils I will write and deliver to you, agreeably to your Orders. You are pleaſed to ſay, "That from your Reliance on me you have refrained hitherto. That if, poſſeſſing an entire Authority and Power in the Surcar of the Vizier, I declare that he refuſes to attend to my Repreſentations, the worſt Conſequences are to be apprehended therefrom to me, inaſmuch as I am the Deputy of the Nuvvaub, poſſeſſing unlimited Authority,—yet repreſent and lay before him Meaſures of Importance, and am unable to obtain his Aſſent to them. That whenever the Confidence of the Vizier is withdrawn from me, and neceſſary Meaſures can no longer be carried into Execution, the Buſineſs is at an End."—Although to reply to theſe Particulars of your Pleaſure is to deviate from the Reſpect due from the Obedient; yet when, without Cauſe and without Fault, the Hour of Crimination arrives, to repreſent the real State of Things becomes unavoidable. (a) [My Power and Authority in the Surcar of his Highneſs is the Gift of the Governor General. And I have hitherto received the Support and Aſſiſtance of the Gentlemen in Power here; regardleſs of the Enmity of People at this Court, and contemning their Animoſity, I have continued to do my Duty; and in Return for faithful Services I have been included in the Objects of the Governor General's Favour. From you I hoped for an Increaſe of Support and Aſſiſtance, of Credit and of Power. It muſt have proceeded from a Change in my own Fortune, and not from any Deficiency of Favour on your Part, that my Repreſentations, by the Efforts of Enemies, have been rendered ineffectual.

From the Moment of your Arrival, I have not in any Manner whatever been deficient in Obedience; but have in every Buſineſs, and without Heſitation, fulfilled your Commands, of whatever Nature they might be; as in the important Buſineſs reſpecting the Regiments at Futty Gurr, the Execution of which you were pleaſed to direct ſhould not be ſuſpended by Attention to the Nabob's Permiſſion, or by the Neceſſity of informing him thereof: In the ſame Manner in every Buſineſs whatever, on which I have received your Orders, at whatever Time received, and whatever the Nature of them, I have paid the moſt implicit Obedience to thoſe Orders, on the Inſtant. From my firſt Appointment to the Neabut, I have been enabled to conduct the Affairs of both Surcars, which I have ever conſidered as one and the ſame, by the Aſſiſtance and Support of the Gentlemen here, and have on all Occaſions acted in Obedience to their Directions. And thus I have repeatedly repeatedly repreſented to you, that on Condition of Support and Aſſiſtance, I would execute all your Commands; and that in the Affairs of the Company I was ready to fulfil the Commands of the Governor General, thoſe of the Gentlemen of the Council, and your Pleaſure, without Heſitation or Evaſion, at the Hazard of my Life, inaſmuch as I conſider my own Intereſt and Proſperity as depending thereon.

When you formerly ſpoke to me reſpecting the Toorkſuwaurs, and the Houſehold Eſtabliſhments of the Nuvvaub Vizier, I then informed you, that I never had any Concern in the Management of thoſe Eſtabliſhments—that this Circumſtance was known to the whole World, that they were under the Direction of the Vizier's own People—and that he never would voluntarily conſent to the Meaſure. You told me in Reply, "That the Governor General's Orders were to "be obeyed, and ſo I muſt inform the Nabob."

I, on my Part, told his Highneſs, in the moſt pointed Terms, that there was a Neceſſity for his Compliance with whatever Propoſals you ſhould make by the Governor's Order for the Improvement of his Affairs. But other People, at the ſame Time, carried Meſſages from you to the Nabob, importing that whatever his Pleaſure might be, you would act agreeably thereto; nay, you even went ſo far as to recommend in Perſon to the Nabob, that I ſhould not be employed in theſe Affairs, but that he ſhould conduct them as he thought proper himſelf. Other Expreſſions dropt from you with reſpect to me, which I know not how to repeat, for ſuch I never could have expected from you. This being the Caſe, in Juſtice conſider, that having expreſſed yourſelf as you did expreſs yourſelf, what Authority, or Influence, or Reſpectability can remain with me? The Conduct of this Buſineſs did not depend upon me, and therefore the Delay cannot have ariſen from Neglect on my Part. Several People have been employed in Conferences on this Subject with the Nabob Vizier, by your Orders. Now that, from Motives of Kindneſs and Favour, you have directed me to forward this Buſineſs, and added Declarations reſpecting Support and Aſſiſtance, I am, as I have always declared, ready to obey; to whatever you ſhall pleaſe to Command, I ſhall never object; and every way ready to obey your Orders in the Execution of Affairs, independent of the Inclinations of the Nabob Vizier, if you will aſſure me of Support and Protection in caſe of his Diſpleaſure: I have never yet objected, nor will I now object. Devoted and powerleſs as I am, the Increaſe of my Reſpectability and Influence depends upon your Favour towards me, and their Diminution proceeds from oppoſite Cauſes. Thus I have ever acted; and this I have repeatedly declared, and I now repeat, that in the Affairs of both Surcors I am ready to obey the Orders of the Governor General, and the Gentlemen of the Council, and yours, at the Hazard of my Life, and without Evaſion or Excuſe.] The Delay which has hitherto come to paſs in this Buſineſs has not in any Manner proceeded from Neglect on my Part; the Negotiation of this Affair did not depend upon me; whenever I ſpoke to his Highneſs on the Subject, he always replied, "Mr. Briſtow has told me that you muſt have no-"thing to do in theſe Affairs; why then do you talk to me on the Subject? leave it to me and "Mr. Briſtow." This Particular I have heretofore fully and repeatedly mentioned to you. Now that, from Motives of Kindneſs, you have favoured me with your Commands, I am ready to obey them, I will act agreeably to your Directions; if you had favoured me with them formerly, they would have been inſtantly executed, no Delays would have intervened.

I wiſhed the Day before Yeſterday to lay this Repreſentation of the State of Things before you, but was deterred by my Apprehenſions of your Aptneſs to Anger. As I entertain the fulleſt Hopes from your Favour, I have at length ventured on this Communication of my Situation.

Uſual Introduction.

I formerly repreſented to you the Particulars of the Perſecutions exerciſed towards his Highneſs by Mr. Briſtow, and the Unhappineſs and Diſtreſs of Mind under which his Highneſs laboured. A Repetition of the ſame Circumſtances muſt alſo have reached your Ears through other Channels, in as much as they have come to paſs in ſo publick a Manner as to be known almoſt to every Body.

Relying on your Goodneſs, his Highneſs has requeſted the Removal of Mr. Briſtow, and the Grant of diſcretional Authority to him in the Management of his Country, and for the Payment of the Company's Monies: If you ſhould be graciouſly diſpoſed to comply with his Requeſt, and at the ſame Time ſo far to favour me as to appoint me from yourſelf to the Management of Affairs here, agreeably to the Propoſals here made to you by his Highneſs, both reſpecting the Sums remaining due on Teep, and on Mahajujun's Bills, and with Regard to the preſent Year 1190 Fuſily, and for the enſuing Year Fuſily 1191, in any Manner you ſhall pleaſe to direct, I will engage, in Obedience to your Orders, to remit the ſame to you Kiſt by Kiſt in Bills, and as much thereof as ſhall be neceſſary for the Payment of the Company's Troops in this Quarter.]

So much on Receipt of your Orders I will pay on the Spot to ſuch commanding Officer of Troops as you ſhall pleaſe to direct. As I was originally raiſed from your Hand, and am Debtor to you for the Rank and Reputation, ſo now, alſo aided by your Favour and Protection, by your Patronage and Support, I ſhall be enabled to effect theſe Objects. If you ſhall pleaſe to honour me with this Appointment, as your particular and immediate Dependant, with God's Aſſiſtance, I will not be deficient in conducting the Affairs of the Company's Sircar, or in Obedience to your Commands.

92. JUST now an honouring Shokeh from his Majeſty forwarded by Major Brown, has made its honouring Deſcent, a Copy of which is incloſed in this for your Information. A Shokeh from the ſacred Sahebeh Mhal, and an Arzee from a Domeſtic of his Highneſs to him, have alſo arrived, Copies of which given to me by his Highneſs will reach you. The Circumſtances of the Diſorders among the Chiefs in the glorious Preſence muſt have been fully made known to you from the News and other Writings.

His Majeſty's Firmaan to the Nawab Vizier.

May the Light of our Eyes, dearer than Life, our deſerving Son favoured by Proſperity, being under the divine Care and Protection, always be bleſſed with his Deſires in both Worlds. The Affairs of theſe Parts you will have learnt fully from the News and the Letters of Major Browne. At this Time, having marched with Glory and Proſperity from Akbarabad, we have arrived at our Tents, and ſhall proceed by regular Marches to our Army bleſſed with Victory. Juſt now Two or Three Lacks of Rupees for the Expences of the Sepoys and Battalions of the Sublime Preſence are wanted; therefore it is written with the Pen ſhedding Jewels, that on the Deſcent of the ſacred Shokeh, having collected the Sum, you ſend it, or write to Major Browne that he may obtain it and convey it to the Sublime Preſence. The late Nawab Vizier ul Momalic paid us many Lacks, and we beſtowed them upon him again, and we will now give you Tuncaws on the Diſtricts for the Sum, ſo that it may be paid; at this Time whatever Duty and Service you ſhall perform will gain you much Merit. Further Particulars will be made known to you from the Letters of Major Browne. Eſteem us mindful of you.

N° 95. YOUR Excellency's Letter, in Reply to mine, arrived. I ſhall ſuch an Anſwer to his Majeſty's Shokeh, commanding me to the Sublime Preſence, as you ſignified; but the Raſhneſs of the Chiefs who are now in the Royal Preſence, and the Change of Times, are ſuch, that there is no Opportunity for Addreſſes to be conveyed, in Anſwer to the Orders and Shokehs of his Majeſty; till a Plan be formed how will Rivals, confuſing Affairs, give Leiſure? From the News, and other Circumſtances, you will have heard of the State of Affairs. Shokehs to his Royal Highneſs, according to the Pleaſure of the Pateel Mahajee Sindia, and an Arzie from him, are arrived; Copies of which will reach you, incloſed in this. From the Contents of Mahajee Sindia's Letter, his Sentiments and Intentions concerning his Royal Highneſs will be explained. I can give no Anſwer to ſuch Points without your Directions; ſo that I beg you will communicate your Pleaſure. My Friend, now that you are at ſuch a Diſtance, much Diſtreſs affects my Mind; for all my Affairs depend on your Perſon.]

Such a Revolution is now happening, that what has never yet occurred is now on the Point of Appearance.—This is an Affair of Government, and you muſt not regard the State of Affairs in the Royal Preſence as of little Moment; for in a ſhort Time much Conſideration will be required. Although you have but little Leiſure, yet in Affairs of Policy Rulers muſt attend to every Point. If you do not attend to theſe important Matters, great Inconveniencies will enſue. Whatever your Pleaſure ſhall direct muſt be proper, and without you, my Friend kind to Brothers, nothing can be determined.

WHATEVER you ſaid to Raja Gobind Ram upon every Point, the ſaid Raja has fully written it to me. My Friend, from the Beginning of the Friendſhip between the noble Chiefs of the Company and the exalted Gentlemen of Council, and my deceaſed Father and myſelf, no Deficiency ever appeared; and after the Death of my deceaſed Father I have conſtantly remained, and ſtill remain, employed from my Heart and Soul in preſerving this Friendſhip more than formerly, and on the Part of the Gentlemen alſo the Syſtem of Intimacy was preſerved. In many Concerns, the Diſtreſſes which from various Cauſes had happened, the Governor General, Mr. Haſtings, after learning, applied himſelf to relieve my Situation, and ſettled a Plan by which the Company's Money would properly be paid by my Miniſters, and the Company and all the Engliſh Gentlemen would receive Credit.

After his Departure you, from your Kindneſs, were favourable to my Concerns, and preſerved the Plan and Agreement which had been ſettled between him and myſelf, and with the greateſt Friendſhip you wrote to me the completeſt Confirmation; and Major Palmer, in obedience to your Orders, gave repeated Conſolation to me and my Miniſters. I am convinced that the good Situation of my Concerns will be increaſed by your Favour. Conformably to the Agreement to pay the Company's Money, which was ſettled between me and the late Governor General, my Miniſters have to this Time paid the Kiſts, and no Deviation has happened; you may learn this from Mr. Wombwell. And I, conſidering the Diſcharge of the Company's Debt to be the moſt neceſſary of all Affairs, pay it from the Receipts of the Country and the Loans of the Bankers, and I apply myſelf to nothing but the Diſcharge of the Company's Debt and the Preſervation of your Friendſhip. You told Raja Gobind Ram that to this Time the Money had not been regularly paid, according to the Agreement which had fixed Kiſts for the Company's Money: This Order aſtoniſhes and confounds me, becauſe from laſt Year to this Time, whatever Agreement had been made for the Payment of the Company's Money, my Miniſters have paid conformably to the Kiſts, and are in future ready to pay, by the Bleſſing of God, according to the Engagements of Payment; but your Favour and Countenance is requiſite. This Order muſt certainly have been cauſed ſolely by the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons; and I from this am much afflicted, that notwithſtanding the regular Payment of the Money according to the Kiſts, you ſhould give ſuch an Order upon the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons, otherwiſe ſuch Orders could not have proceeded from your exalted Mind, becauſe many Days have not elapſed ſince you, in Writing, gave me Confidence on every Point; and whilſt the Money were * regularly paid, you would not give ſuch Orders: At any rate, I hope from your Favour the Obſervance of this Rule, never to liſten to the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons, becauſe in ſuch Caſes the Affairs are diſgraced, and the Bankers and Miniſters are diſpirited. With reſpect to the Brigade at Futtyghur, you ſay, that you had, agreeably to my Requeſt, ſent Orders for it to march to Behurghurra; but to this Time Hyder Beg Khan has not advanced the Money for their Expences. My Friend, my Requeſt, whatever it be, is known to you. In all Concerns there is One Word upon which I rely, that whatever Agreement was made between me and Mr. Haſtings, and the Plan which was ſettled, and you have repeatedly written that you have approved of and preſerved that Engagement and Plan, in that Engagement, out of Conſideration to my Diſtreſſes, whatever is promiſed with reſpect to the Removal of that Brigade is well known to you; and you alſo have written to Major Palmer, who has given me Confidence that you, from your Kindneſs, for my Relief, do not approve of keeping an increaſed Army in this Country; but that now, until the Doubts from the Weſt are removed, the Futtyghur Brigade muſt remain. I alſo, who deſire only your Satisfaction, approved of this Advice, becauſe, as the Reduction of my Expences, and the Relief of my Concerns, is your Wiſh, it will be done at a proper Opportunity. When your Letter for the Futtyghur Brigade to remain a little Time longer here was received by Major Palmer, and the Major, agreeably to your Orders, told me, that this Year, beſides One Crore and Five Lacks of Rupees, which had been engaged for the Payment of the Company's Money, no more would be demanded; I was entirely ſet at Eaſe by your Kindneſs. You now order, that I ſhould make Advances for the Expences of the Brigade. My Situation is not hidden from you; why ſhould I for ever trouble you, that this Year I pay from the Receipts of the Country, and the Loans of the Bankers, for the Diſcharge of the Company's Money, what has been engaged. Do you yourſelf order from your Favour and Kindneſs, whatever may be adviſeable towards the Relief of my Concerns. The Affairs of my Country and Property, and of the Company's Government, through Friendſhip are the ſame. Such Matters depend upon your Kindneſs. You will learn full Particulars from the Letters of Major Palmer. With reſpect to the Expences of the Gentlemen who are here, I have before written in a covered Manner; I now write plainly, that I have no Ability to give Money to the Gentlemen, becauſe I am indebted many Lacks of Rupees to the Bankers for the Payment of the Company's Debt. At the Time of Mr. Haſtings's Departure I repreſented to him, that I had no Reſources for the Expences of the Gentlemen. Mr. Haſtings, having aſcertained my diſtreſſed Situation, told me, that after his Arrival in Calcutta he would conſult with the Council, and remove from hence the Expences of the Gentlemen, and recall every Perſon except the Gentlemen in Office here. At this Time that all the Concerns are dependent upon you, and you have in every Point given Eaſe to my Mind, according to Mr. Haſtings's Agreement, I hope that the Expences of the Gentlemen may be removed from me, and that you may recall every Perſon reſiding here beyond the Gentlemen in Office. Although Major Palmer does not at this Time demand any Thing for the Gentlemen, and I have no Ability to give them any Thing, yet the Cuſtom of the Engliſh Gentlemen is, when they remain here they will in the End aſk for ſomething. This is beſt, that they ſhould be recalled. Mr. Haſtings wrote to me for the Abolition of Captain Frith's Battalion. At that Time the Diſturbances of the Seiks exiſted in the Neighbourhood of Berelly, and my Army was ſtationed on the Ghauts of the River, at thoſe Places, which at this Seaſon are always fordable. This Year many other Ghauts were fordable, and the Seiks croſſed croſſed over to plunder, which is their Cuſtom. My Army, which was already there, came upon them, and puniſhed them, and they, finding no Strength to remain, croſſed back again, and returned; but it became neceſſary to guard all Ghauts, and I therefore ſtationed for the Defence of the Berelly Ghauts, my old Battalions, which were fixed at Kerrabad, and the other Mahuls; and I ſent the Battalions of Captain Frith, which were newly raiſed for the Settlement of the Mahuls of Kherrabad, &c. Thoſe Battalions went under the Command of a Commandant belonging to me, and no Engliſh Gentlemen went there. In theſe 4 Battalions, according to the Rule of all my Battalions, there are Three thouſand Men, and the Expence of them, including the Artillery, is 25,000 Rupees in each Month. For a little Time I thought this Expence adviſeable, for the Execution of Two important Objects, the Settlement of the Country, and the Expulſion of the Seiks, which by the Bleſſing of God have both been effected I have now determined to diſband them after ſatisfying them; but I conſider it proper to guard the Ghauts until Chyte; till when the Fords continue, after that, when the River be full, ſo large an Army will not be wanted at the Ghauts. In this Caſe I requeſt your Advice, that as the Army is on a reduced and ſaving Eſtabliſhment, if you chuſe I will keep the Battalions until Chyte; or if you order, I will diſmiſs them immediately. Captain Frith will have no Concern in the Battalions; Commandants belonging to me will command them. With reſpect to Lieutenant Polhill's Battalion, which, with other Gentlemen, is in Attendance on the Prince, you ordered me to learn his Royal Highneſs's Wiſh, and that if he ſhould be deſirous to keep them they might remain a little Time with him. Upon learning his Deſire, I, conformably to your Inſtructions, have conſented to retain the Battalion a little Time, but I did not ſpeak about retaining Lieutenant Polhill, and the other Gentlemen, nor does he continue with me in this Command; I merely wrote to you in obedience to his Royal Highneſs's Deſire, requeſting that Lieutenant Polhill alone might remain; the Approbation and Refuſal of which depend entirely upon your Pleaſure; ☞ I have no Ability to maintain the Battalion with the Gentlemen: (a) [I deſire nothing but your Satisfaction, and hope that ſuch Orders as relate to the Friendſhip between the Company and me, and as may be your Pleaſure, may be written in your own private Letters to me, through Major Palmer, or in your Letters to the Major, that he may, in obedience to your Orders, properly explain them to me; and whatever may be ſettled, he may firſt in ſecret inform you of it, and afterwards I may write to you, having learnt your Pleaſure: In this Way the Secrets will be known to your Mind alone, and the Advice upon all the Concerns will be given in a proper Manner.] For further Security, I trouble you again with my Requeſt, that you will not liſten ☞ to the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons with reſpect to my Concerns; for in this Caſe, my Affairs are diſgraced, and the Bankers, from whom I have borrowed many Lacks towards paying the Kiſts to the Company, are alarmed.—I labour from my Heart and Soul to preſerve your Satisfaction, and you from your Kindneſs are inclined to maintain the Plan and Agreement which has taken place; therefore to give Entrance to intereſted Perſons, is laying the Baſis of Diſagreement. I hope from your Favour that in the Concerns between me and you, no intereſted Perſon may be admitted to hear the Secrets between the Company and myſelf, and your Orders.

A Letter from Hyder Beg Khan to the Governor General.

Fom Hyder Beg Khan. Received 21ſt April 1785.

71. FROM your Favour, and Kindneſs, and Sincerity of Heart, whatever Doubt had ariſen in your Mind from my Neglect, you informed Raja Gobind Ram of it; Iam for this Reaſon grateful for your Kindneſs, that you have plainly declared the Diſpleaſure which you had conceived towards me. My Protector, I am obedient to you, and under your Orders; and I am the Well-wiſher and faithful Servant to the Government of the Company and of his Highneſs, which in every Reſpect are the ſame; and on this I know to be founded my Good and Advantage. Till this Time I have never to my own Knowledge been guilty of any Deficiency in the Duties of Attachment to both Governments, and of Allegiance and Obedience to your Commands. An Arzie of Rajah Gobind Ram, containing all your Orders, was received by his Highneſs, from whom a Letter in Anſwer to every Point will be preſented to you, and from it you will learn all Particulars: I do not therefore write the Circumſtances explicitly and at large; but I repreſent the Affairs conciſely. Conformably to the Agreement which was entered into between his Highneſs and Mr. Haſtings for the Diſcharge of the Company's Money, and the Plan and Syſtem which was ſettled, to this Time the Kiſts have been regularly paid to Mr. Wombwell, who is at your Preſence, and from him you may learn it: And in future alſo, in caſe of your Favour, Countenance, Aſſiſtance, and Protection, the Company's Money will according to the Kiſts and to the Agreement be, by the Bleſſing of God, regularly paid. No Deviation from it ſhall happen in the Concerns of the Agreement and Plan which was made between his Highneſs and Mr. Haſtings, and by approving which you have given the greateſt Eaſe to his Highneſs, and have repeatedly written to give him Confidence; and Major Palmer by your Orders has comforted his Highneſs: It is certain that you preſerve the ſame Favour towards his Highneſs, which will be a Cauſe of Glory to you in all Hindoſtan. His Highneſs, for the Preſervation of your Friendſhip, is and will be from his Heart fixed in Obedience and Readineſs to execute your Orders, which is a moſt neceſſary Matter—and I, who am your Servant, know my Happineſs and Advantage to depend upon my Obedience and Allegiance to you—no Deviation ſhall ever happen. I hope that in every Concern which his Highneſs has written, you will attend to the Rights of his Highneſs with the Eye of Favour and Benevolence, and will order whatever may be the Will of your Mind. His Highneſs, from his Regard to Friendſhip, can make no Excuſes againſt your Pleaſure: He hopes for Relief to his Situation from your Kindneſs, and accordingly you alſo have repeatedly given him Confidence.

☞ (a) [I hope that ſuch Orders and Commands as relate to the Friendſhip between his Highneſs's and the Company's Governments, and to your Will, may be ſent through Major Palmer in your own private Letters, or in your Letters to the Major, who is appointed from you at the Preſence of his Highneſs, that, in obedience to your Orders, he may properly explain your Commands, and whatever Affair may be ſettled, he may firſt ſecretly inform you of it, and afterwards his Highneſs may, conformably thereto, write an Anſwer, and I alſo may repreſent it. By this Syſtem, your Pleaſure will always be fully made known to his Highneſs, and his Highneſs and we will execute whatever may be your Orders, without deviating a Hair's Breadth; and let not the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons be approved of, becauſe his Highneſs makes no Oppoſition to your Will; and I your Servant am ready in Obedience and Service; and I make no Excuſes.] ☜

In caſe you attend to the Repreſentations of intereſted Perſons, it will cauſe Diſcredit to his Highneſs's Concerns, and Injury to the Tranſactions with the Bankers. The good State of his Highneſs's Affairs depends upon your Favour and Kindneſs, that the Servants of his Highneſs's Government, and the Bankers, being confident in your Protection and Countenance, may tranſact Buſineſs as uſual.

THE Governor General delivers in the following Minute, in conſequence of that of the Board, entered on the Proceedings of the 14th * ultimo. — Extract Secret Dep. Conſ. 5 Feb. 1782.

* In the Original, the Figures 14 are in Red Ink.

The Governor General acknowledges his Obligations to the Board, for this repeated Inſtance of the liberal Manner in which they have been pleaſed to record their Judgment on his Conduct. Had it been expreſſed in the ſimple Terms of official Approbation, he ſhould have been pleaſed, and ſatisfied that it had received ſo reſpectable a Sanction; but by tracing the Sources of it, in the Motives which he has avowed; by their Examination of thoſe Motives with their relative Facts and Circumſtances; and by the Doubts which they have anticipated and ſolved, on the Propriety of ſuch Parts of his Conduct as might moſt obviouſly ſuggeſt them; they have juſtified their own Approval, and entitled him to expect the ſame favourable Sentiments in their common Superiors.

Nor is he leſs pleaſed with the Reſerve with which the Board have declared their Satisfaction in the Arrangement concluded by him with the Nabob Vizier; becauſe he thinks it will be received as an Evidence of the Deliberation and Sincerity of their former Approval. He is willing to ſubmit the Propriety of the Meaſure to the Teſt of its Succeſs. The Reſident has already informed the Board, that he had received of the Treaſures of the late Vizier, left in the Charge of

The first of these Balances is 32,68,613: 11, the last 12,09,876: 9: 8. The Sum of both is R^{s} 44,78,490: 4: 8. Owd Siccas. The Resident seems to have understood this to be the whole of the Nabob's Debt. There is a further Balance of 26 Lacks, which appears to have been by some means overlooked, or withheld from Mr. Middleton on the Transfer of his Office from Mr. Purling. A rectified Account, drawn to the latest Period, has been transmitted to Mr. Middleton, by the Accomptant General, which it is hoped will arrive in Time to prevent his stopping at the Receipt of the supposed Balance; and at all Events, the Profits of the resumed Jagheers ought to yield a Fund, more than sufficient both for the complete Liquidation of what may remain of the Nabob's present Debt, and to make up the Deficiency of the Assignments granted on his Revenue for the current Year, within the Course of it.

The Governor General expects this Service from the Resident, and relies upon his Fidelity for the Performance of it. But in the Supposition of the Possibility of a Disappointment, he again offers his personal Services to proceed to Lucknow, on the first Symptom of such a Failure; and, with the Confidence which he feels in his own Influence, aided by the powerful Support of the Board, he will venture to promise, that he will not return with their Object unaccomplished.]

He hopes and believes that there will be no Necessity for this Extremity; but adds it as a Ground for the Assurance which he ventures to propose; and wishes the Board to give † to the Honourable the Court of Directors, in the Advices to them now under Dispatch, that there is the fairest Prospect, amounting as near to a Certainty as can be affirmed, of an Event not in Expectation, that the Debt due from the Nabob Vizier to the Company, and even that of the Rohilla Donation, will be completely paid off in the Course of the present Year, and a Supply added to our ordinary Resources, which will fully answer all our own Wants for that Period, and enable us to contribute still further, and we hope effectual Aids to those of the Carnatic.

☞ (a) [The following Letter from the Governor General, received on the 2d Instant, is now recorded.

Gentlemen,

I left Benares on the 7th of this Month; the slow Progress which I have made thus far, has been occasioned as much by purposed Delays, as by natural Impediments. I am now decided in my Journey, and compute to be at the Presidency very early in the next Month.

Since the Suppression of the late Revolt of the Zemeendary of Benaris, three distinct Objects have engaged my Attention and Residence in that Quarter, not so much for the Purpose of executing any determinate Measures requiring my Presence, as for that of being at hand, and ready for any immediate Occasion which might eventually demand my personal Interposition. These Objects are as follow:

1st. The Negotiation with Madajee Scindia. You are already acquainted with my first Instructions to Mr. Anderson, and with the subsequent Orders which I thought it proper to send to him, on the Advice of Mhadagee Scindia's having expressed a Disinclination to admit Mr. Anderson's Deputation, until he should be authorized by Answers to the Letters which he had written to Poonah for that Purpose; and of his having received Cheit Sing into his Protection, with some apparent Marks of Encouragement. A few Days after, I received Letters from both Colonel Muir and Mr. Anderson, advising me, that Mhadagee Scindia had pressingly invited Mr. Anderson to proceed to him, and that he had rejected the Solicitations of Cheit Sing: On this Occasion, I wrote to Mr. Anderson to prosecute his Journey, and to pay no regard to my former Letter, requiring only the Removal of Cheit Sing from the Presence of Mhadagee Scindia, while Mr. Anderson was with him. In the mean time, that Gentleman having conformed to the Substance of my first Orders, had obtained from Mhadagee Scindia a formal Assurance, that he would neither accept the Solicitations of Cheit Sing, nor assist him in any Way whatever, and that he would even prohibit him and his Attendants from his Durbar and Cutchirry. Mr. Anderson, satisfied with this Concession, had resolved to proceed to his Camp immediately; his last Letter upon the Subject was private, and dated the 3d Instant, from Bandere, which was about Sixteen Cos's from Scindia's Camp. It contains Expressions of much Satisfaction, and so firm a Conviction of the Sincerity of that Chief, that he was preparing to send the Notification, directed in my Instructions of the 12th ultimo, to Colonel Muir, for the Removal of the Troops to the Stations allotted them by the late Arrangements, with a Promise, that he would soon address me publicly on the same Subject.

I have long since relinquished the Design, which I first entertained, of visiting Scindia myself, and, indeed, I see so fair and earnest a Disposition in him to become the Instrument of terminating the War yet subsisting between his Principals and our Government; his Interest is so evidently connected with it, and I have so well-grounded a Confidence in the Ability of Mr. Anderson, to contribute whatever may be required on his Part to forward this Iſſue of the Negociation, that I doubt whether my Interference might not rather impede than promote it, by the Loſs of Time which it would neceſſarily occaſion in tranſmitting the ultimate Propoſals to Poonee.

2dly. The Zemeendary of Benaris has hitherto engaged my principal Attention. I had juſt Grounds to apprehend, that the ſlighteſt Cauſes might occaſion freſh Diſturbances in that Country from the Novelty and Weakneſs of the new Adminiſtration, and could not therefore venture to leave it until I had ſeen that Adminiſtration firmly eſtabliſhed, and until I had formed ſome Experience of the Ability of the Naib for conducting it. I have the Satisfaction to inform you, that his Authority is everywhere completely eſtabliſhed, and that I have every Reaſon to hope for the full Performance of his Engagements. The Diſpoſition which I have made of the Forces allotted for the Peace of this Zemeedary is ſufficient to anſwer, with Certainty, every Purpoſe of internal Defence, and, at the ſame Time, to prove a Check on the Zemendars of the Dominions of the Nabob Vizier which border upon it, this being the moſt likely Scene of new Diſturbances, from the natural Turbulency of the Nabob's Subjects, and their Colluſion with their Neighbours in this Zemeendary. Copies of theſe Orders, with the other military Orders, which I have thought proper to iſſue for the Diſtribution of the Troops of that Station, will be forwarded to you as ſoon as they can be tranſcribed, after the Diſpatch of this Letter.]

The new Naib appears to have conducted himſelf in his Office with great Diligence and Aſſiduity; and as he poſſeſſed a good Underſtanding, I have no Doubt of his Succeſs.

As I found it difficult to accommodate the Claims of the ſeveral Zemendars, to whom a Promiſe had been made of reſtoring to them, in conſequence of their late Attachment, the Rights which they poſſeſſed in the Lands, from which they were formerly excluded by Rajah Cheit Sing, with the Influence and Intereſt of the preſent Adminiſtration, I have granted to them Sunnuds; which at the ſame Time eſtabliſhed their Rights, and intitled them to a Maulk kunah, or Proportion of the Revenue, to be paid them by the Reſident, inſtead of preſent Poſſeſſion, which I have thought it more prudent to reſerve to the Rajah. Copies of theſe Sunnuds, and of other Orders, which have been iſſued to the Reſident, ſhall alſo be tranſmitted after this Letter.

3dly. The Engagements concluded on the 19th September with the Nabob of Oude, I did hope, that on his Return to his Capital, which I had urged for that Purpoſe, he would immediately have entered upon the Execution of the Meaſures neceſſary for the Accompliſhment of the Plan which we had mutually agreed upon, and particularly the Reſumption of the Jagheers; an Act equally neceſſary to the Reſtoration of the Peace of his Country, and to the Diſcharge of his Debt to the Company.

After having long waited with much Impatience for this Effect, I was appriſed by the Reſident's Letters, that the Nabob, from what Cauſe I know not, had ſhewn a great Reluctance to enter on this Buſineſs, notwithſtanding the Warmth with which he himſelf originally ſolicited my Acquieſcence in it; that he at length did reſolve to carry it into Execution, and accordingly appointed an Aumil to take poſſeſſion of the ſequeſtered Jagheers; but that a powerful Oppoſition had been prepared by the Begums, which had obliged him to apply for the Aſſiſtance of our Troops; and that the Reſident had accordingly written to Colonel Morgan to ſend a Regiment of Sepoys for that Service. As the Reſident at the ſame Time expreſſed to me his Opinion, that a larger Force would be requiſite to ſurmount the intended Oppoſition, I judged it improper to expoſe a Service of ſuch Importance, either to the Hazard of a Defeat, or to the Chance of a Delay, and therefore immediately iſſued Orders, of which you have already been adviſed, for the March of Colonel Sir John Cumming, with his entire Detachment, for the Performance of it, adviſing the Reſident of it. He in Reply expreſſed an Apprehenſion, that the Nabob Vizier would object to the Movement of ſo large a Force into the Heart of his Dominions, without what he would deem an adequate Occaſion for it, to other Motives, which might be productive of Conſequences hurtful to our Connection with him, and intreated that the Order might be revoked, aſſuring me, that there was no preſſing Occaſion for it.

I accordingly ordered it to be ſuſpended. In the mean Time, as I had conceived ſome Alarm from the Delays and Difficulties which had attended this Buſineſs, which did not appear to me of a Nature ſuſceptible of them, I wrote to the Reſident, requeſting him ſolemnly to declare to me whether, with the Powers with which he had been inveſted, he was competent to carry into Execution this and the other Meaſures directed in my Inſtructions; that if he were not, I would myſelf proceed to Lucknow, and afford the Nabob my perſonal Aſſiſtance for carrying them into Execution; but that if in his Anſwer he ſhould aſſure me that he was capable of accompliſhing this Service, I would leave the Charge and Reſponſibility of it to him, and depart for the Preſidency. I wrote a Letter to the Nabob in ſimilar Terms. I received the Reſident's Anſwer on the 2d of January; it contained a Declaration that my Preſence was in no Shape neceſſary in that Quarter, and that he was fully competent to undertake and to effect the Accompliſhment of all the Meaſures required by my Inſtructions, and that he ſhould immediately march with the Nabob to Fyzabad for the Purpoſe of enforcing his Claims on the Begums.

On the Receipt of this Letter, concluding that the Nabob's Anſwer would be to the ſame Effect, and that I ſhould be ſufficiently warranted by them to leave the Buſineſs in their Hands, I prepared for my Departure, allowing a ſufficient Time only for the Receipt of the Nabob's Letter, Letter, which I expected at the lateſt to receive on the 7th. On that Day I left Benaris, but proceeded only to a ſhort Diſtance below the Town. At the ſame Time I cauſed an Intimation to be given to the Nabob, that although, to prevent a further Loſs of Time, I had thought it proper to begin my Journey towards Bengal, yet I ſhould proceed by ſhort Stages, and ſuſpend my final Reſolution until I had received his Letter in anſwer to mine, ſtill retaining the Reſolution of conforming to the Contents of it. If theſe ſhould require me to proceed to his Preſence, according to the Tenor of the Proffer, and that if I did not receive it before my Arrival at Patna, I would wait for it there. It was not till my Arrival at Patna, which was on the 19th Inſtant, that I did receive his Anſwer, a Tranſlation of which ſhall accompany this. As it contained only a complimentary Invitation, accompanied with an Aſſurance ſimilar to that given me by the Reſident, in relation to the impending Buſineſs, I conſidered it as intended to leave me the free Option either to accept of his Invitation on the Footing he had expreſſed it, or to return to the Preſidency. After much Heſitation, and I will confeſs with ſome Reluctance, I have reſolved on the latter. I dread the Imbecillity and Irreſolution which too much prevail in the Nabob's Council, and muſt influence in ſome Degree both the Conduct of the Reſident and the Miniſters; and I conſider the impending Meaſure of too much Conſequence to be expoſed to the Riſk of a Diſappointment; yet the preſſing Letters which I have written to the Nabob, the ſtrong Injunctions which I have repeated to the Reſident, and the poſitive Aſſurances which I have received from both, afford me every Reaſon to hope that they will be carried into Execution, without further Difficulty or Delay; and I am further confirmed in this Concluſion, by the ſubſequent Advices which I have received ſince my Departure: Theſe amount to the following Subſtance—that the Nabob Vizier arrived at Fyzabad on the 8th, the Reſident accompanying him; that on the 12th he found it neceſſary to employ a Military Force to take poſſeſſion of the Kellah, which was effected without any Effuſion of Blood. The Two Eunuchs, Bahar and Jowarhur Ally Cawn, who were the prime Movers of the late Troubles, and the active Leaders of the preſent Oppoſition, were taken into Cuſtody, and their Followers, amounting to about Three or Four Thouſand armed Men, expelled from the Town and diſperſed. I think it proper to tranſmit to you a Copy of the Reſident's Letter, and to refer you to it for the Particulars of this Event.

It may be neceſſary in this Place to inform you, that in Addition to the former Reſolution of reſuming the Begum's Jagheers, the Nabob had declared his Reſolution of reclaiming all the Treaſures of his Family, which were in their Poſſeſſion, and to which, by the Mahometan Laws, he was entitled. This Reſolution I have ſtrenuouſly encouraged and ſupported; not ſo much for the Reaſons aſſigned by the Nabob, as becauſe I think it equally unjuſt and impolitic that they ſhould be allowed to retain the Means of which they have already made ſo pernicious a Uſe, by exciting Diſturbances in the Country, and a Revolt againſt the Nabob, their Sovereign. I am not ſanguine in my Expectations of the Reſult of theſe Proceedings, but have required and received the Nabob's Promiſe that whatever Acquiſitions ſhall be obtained from the Iſſue of them, it ſhall be primarly * applied to the Diſcharge of the Balance actually due from him to the Company.

*Sic in Orig.

Notwithſtanding the Reſolution which I have taken to return to the Preſidency, I yet foreſee that many Events may happen which may again require my perſonal Attendance in this Quarter, but even theſe will require that I ſhould firſt concert with you the Plan of my future Conduct reſpecting them. Though the Powers which I poſſeſs are ample and ſufficient for every Purpoſe which may occur, yet as they were granted in a very different State of Affairs, it is become abſolutely neceſſary that I ſhould avail myſelf of a free and full Communication with you upon every probable Contingency, which may proceed from the Effects of the late Changes, before I can venture again if it ſhall be at all neceſſary to interfere with my own Authority in any of the Affairs of this Quarter.

I have made ſuch a Proviſion for this Event that I ſhall at any Time have it in my Power to arrive at Lucknow within at leaſt Three Weeks from my Departure from the Preſidency, and there is little Cauſe to apprehend any material Change of Affairs in the ſhort Interval which muſt neceſſarily precede my Arrival there.

Sir,

I was this Day honoured with your Commands of the 10th Inſtant, informing me of the Military Station you have formed at Jaunpore, with the Liberty you grant the Nabob Vizier of claiming their Aid to quiet any Diſturbances in the adjacent Parts of his Province.

I have accordingly communicated it to his Excellency, who, with great Juſtice, was highly pleaſed with the Diſpoſition, as in truth the Diſtricts bordering upon the Zemendary of Benares have, for a long Period of Time, been of all others the moſt turbulent and diſaffected; and nothing leſs than the Arrangements you have now formed, could effectually ſecure the Peace and Tranquillity of that Neighbourhood, ſo eſſential to the Proſperity of the Nabob's Government and Revenues.

With reſpect to the Buſineſs here, I have the Honour to inform you, that Yeſterday finding that the temporizing and indeciſive Conduct of the Nabob ſeemed to promiſe an Iſſue very different

ent from that expected in your Commands of the 26th of December laſt, and that the only Uſe the Two leading Eunuchs under the Bow Begum made of the Delay, was to aſſemble and call in armed Men from all Quarters; which, when united with the large Force already in Town under their Direction, would in all Probability have brought the Matter to a much more ſevere and arduous Teſt than it at preſent could admit of. I found myſelf neceſſitated to take the moſt immediate and deciſive Interference which the Force with me was capable of; and accordingly, having the Nabob's written Requiſition, marched the Twenty-third Regiment, under the Command of Major Naylor, with a Detachment of his Excellency's own Troops, againſt the Kella, and hath the Happineſs to ſucceed in putting the Nabob's Party in poſſeſſion of it without any Effuſion of Blood; the armed Men retiring from it on the Approach of our Troops, and drawing up with their Guns in a large broad Street before the Houſe of the old Beegum, to which the Bhow Beegum and her Two principal Eunuchs had retired the preceding Evening. This effected, the Nabob iſſued his peremptory Orders for the immediate Departure of all armed Men, excepting his own Troops, beyond the Precincts of the Town, threatening them with * inſtant Attack if they diſobeyed. This Order, after many Evaſions, was promiſed to be complied with; and the Two Eunuchs, Bahr and Jowar Ally Cawn, at the ſame Time coming in and delivering themſelves into the Nabob's Cuſtody, the armed Men, amounting to between Three and Four Thouſand, evacuated the Town and diſperſed. I have ſince learnt, that had the Nabob's Troops alone attempted the Seizure of the Killer, a very deſperate Reſiſtance was reſolved upon; which appeared very probable from the State in which the armed Men were found, being the preceding Evening furniſhed with a very large Store of Ammunition, and now drawn up in regular Order with loaded Pieces and their Matches lighted; but they were prudent enough to think themſelves unequal to the united Efforts of his Excellency's Troops ſupported by an Engliſh Regiment, and by this Conviction much Miſchief has been happily been † prevented.

From the Vizier to the Governor.

Your Letter of the 16th Mohunum arrived on the 25th of that Month. I am greatly obliged by your friendly Advice.

I have not, to my Knowledge, been deficient in any Thing, nor will I be deficient. Whatever I agreed to do, and whatever Mr. Middleton ſhall adviſe for the Advantage of my Affairs, I will do. I have, to confirm and increaſe our Friendſhip, even done that which was not thought of or reſolved on. You will be informed of the whole by the Letters of Mr. Middleton. I wiſh much to ſee you and Mrs. Haſtings, and have come to complain, that you have allowed ſo much Time to elapſe at Banaris without coming here, notwithſtanding I had requeſted you ſo to do. Refuſing to conſider my Houſe as yours, as is apparent from your not coming, I had Cauſe to complain of your Want of Friendſhip.

APPENDIX, N° LXXXII.

Book 120.

Letter from the Governor General to Hyder Beg Khan. Written the 15th Auguſt 1782.

26. WHEN I prevailed upon the Nawab Vizier to commit the entire Charge of the Revenues and the Adminiſtration of his Finances to his Miniſters, of whom you are the acting and reſponſible Perſon, with the Concurrence of the Reſident, Mr. Middleton, I had ſo firm a Reliance on your Integrity, Diligence, and Abilities, which are univerſally known, and no leſs on the ſame Qualities of Mr. Middleton, that I departed with a Mind perfectly at Eaſe, expecting that Order would be reſtored to the Nawab's Affairs, capable and truſt-worthy Aumils appointed to the Superintendance of the Diſtricts, the Forces duly ſtationed for the Security of Peace and the Confirmation of the Authority of the Sircar, and that the paſt and growing Debt of the Company would be completely diſcharged in the Courſe of the Year, and that I ſhould receive the Thanks of the Nawab your Maſter for the Effects of my Solicitude for the Support of his Dgnity and Eaſe. The Event has proved the Reverſe of theſe Hopes, an Accumulation of Diſtreſs,

Diſtreſs, Debaſement, and Diſſatisfaction to the Nawab, and of Diſappointment and Diſgrace to me. Every Meaſure which he had himſelf propoſed, and to which he had ſolicited my Aſſiſtance, has been ſo conducted as to give him Cauſe of Diſpleaſure; there are no Offices eſtabliſhed by which his Affairs could be regularly conducted; mean, incapable, and indigent Men have been appointed Aumils of the Diſtricts, without Authority, and without the Means of perſonal Protection; ſome of them have been murdered by the Zemindars, and thoſe
* Sic in Orig. Zemindars, inſtead of Puniſhment, have * have been permitted to retain their Zemindaries with independent Authority; all the other Zemindars ſuffered to riſe in Rebellion, and to inſult the Authority of the Sircar, without any Attempt made to ſuppreſs them; and the Company's Debt, inſtead of being diſcharged by the Aſſignments and extraordinary Sources of Money reſerved for that Purpoſe, is likely to exceed even the Amount at which it ſtood at the Time in which the Arrangements with his Excellency were concluded. The Growth of theſe Evils was early made known to me, and their Effects foreboded in the ſame Order and Manner as they have come to paſs.

Added to theſe, I this Inſtant learn that Almas Alli Cawn, to whom you have entruſted the greateſt Portion of theſe Collections, without any Pledge or Security for his Fidelity, has thrown off his Allegiance, and quitted the Nawab's Dominions, taking with him an immenſe Treaſure, the Fruits of his Embezzlement and Oppreſſions, and an Army raiſed for its Protection; this too was long ſince foretold, and ought to have been ſuſpected.

In ſuch a State of Calamity and Diſgrace no longer remain a paſſive Spectator; nor would it be becoming to conceal my Sentiments, or qualify the Expreſſion of them. I have hitherto forborne to interfere, that I might not weaken your Influence, and thereby diſable you from fulfilling the Reſponſibility of the great Truſt which had been aſſigned to you. I now plainly tell you, that you are anſwerable for every Misfortune and Defeat of the Nawab Vizier's Government; you poſſeſs Abilities and the Means of retrieving them; nor is it yet too late, for the Reſources of the Country ſtill remain. I expect it, and immediately; and as the firſt Effect of your Exertions, I require that the Balance that is due to the Company be fully cleared by the End of the Year; ſo that not an Anna ſhall remain in Arrears. I have a Right to exact this Return to the Confidence which the World has ſeen me place in you, and to the good Offices which the Friendſhip of the Nawab Vizier has enabled me to afford you. If I am diſappointed, you will impoſe on me the painful and humiliating Neceſſity of acknowledging to him that I have been deceived, and of recommending the Examination of your Conduct to his Juſtice, both for the Redreſs of his own and the Company's Grievances, and for the Injury ſuſtained by both in their natural Connection.

Do not reply to me, that what I have written is from the Suggeſtion of your Enemies; nor imagine that I have induced myſelf to write in ſuch plain and declaratory Terms, without a clear Inſight into all the Conſequences of it, and a fixed Determination upon them.

Letter from Mr. Middleton to Captain Jaques.

To Captain Leonard Jaques, commanding at Fayzabad.

Sir,

I Have had the Honour to receive your Letters of the 13th, 17th, and 18th Inſtant. I am very ſorry your Bills have been rejected by the Commiſſary General, which muſt proceed from an Omiſſion of the proper Officers of Government, in not furniſhing him with neceſſary Inſtructions. I have addreſſed the Honourable the Governor General and Council on this Subject, and hope by that Means to effect the Removal of any Impediments of this Sort in future; in the mean Time, I make myſelf perſonally reſponſible to you for the Reimburſement of ſuch Charges as you have incurred, although I am unable to prevail on the Nabob to paſs them without the Sanction and Authority before deſcribed. You will be pleaſed to recall the Company of your Battalion from Nabob Gunge, whenever it may have performed the Service for which it was detached thither. I have mentioned to the Nabob your Propoſal of ſending a Company of your Battalion to ſecure ſome ſtolen Property of which you had obtained Information, in order to reſtore it to the right Owner, to which his Excellency agrees, upon the Condition of your being able previouſly to aſcertain poſitively the Place of Concealment, and enabled to reſcue the Property without diſturbing or alarming the Country.

☞ (a) [I am ſorry it is not in my Power to comply with your Propoſal of eaſing the Priſoners for a few Days of their Fetters. Much as my Humanity may be touched by their Sufferings, I ſhould think it inexpedient to afford them any Alleviation while they perſiſt in a Breach of their Contract with me; and indeed no Indulgence could be ſhewn them without the Authority of the Nabob; who, inſtead of conſenting to moderate the Rigours of their Situation, would be moſt willing to multiply them.] ☞

The Accident which has happened to the Phougedar of Bahraich affording too much Reaſon to apprehend Diſturbances in that Country, I have thought it neceſſary to order the Remainder of Major Gilpin's Regiment to unite with your Detachment at Fayzabad, in order to be near a hand to act with Effects * as Emergency may require, either in that Country or in the impending Matters at Fayzabad. You will be pleaſed to deliver over charge of the Kella and Priſoners to Major Gilpin on his Arrival at Fayzabad, and furniſh him with your original Inſtructions, and ſuch ſubſequent Directions as you have received from me for the Guidance of your Conduct in this Service, which I with Pleaſure aſſure you has met with the Nabob's and my own entire Approbation.

Nathaniel Middleton Eſquire, Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Sir,

I AM honoured with both your Letters of the 22d Inſtant, and requeſt the Favour of obſerving, that the Commiſſary General has not rejected my Bill. His Words are, "I have no Authority "to audit any Accounts of his Excellency the Vizier, againſt whom the Charges in your Bills are "ſtated." This I preſume does not infer he has rejected them, which would give me ſome Uneaſineſs, as I would ſooner ſuffer in my Property, than make a Charge that had the leaſt Appearance of being exorbitant.

I have ordered Lieutenant Gawen to return with the Two Guns and Company in the Morning, as the Collections are made and Jenour Sing's Authority ſufficiently eſtabliſhed.

I have ſent my Hircarrahs to enquire minutely about the ſtolen Goods again. The Information they bring will determine me how far I am to act.

☞ [The following Letter, and its Enclosures, were received from Mr. Bristow on the 8th instant, and circulated.] ☜

Honourable Sir, and Gentlemen,

THE frequent Robberies and Murders perpetrated in his Excellency the Vizier's Dominions have too often been the Subject of my Representations to your Honourable Board. From the total Want of Police, hardly a Day elapses but I am informed of some tragical Event, whereof the bare Recital is shocking to Humanity. About Two Months since an Attempt was made to assassinate Raja Ticket Roy, the acting Minister's confidential Agent, but he happily escaped unhurt: Nabob Bahadre, his Highness's Brother, has not been so fortunate, as will appear from Translations of Two of his Letters to me, N° 1, which I have the Honour to enclose for your Information. Although my Feelings are sensibly hurt, and my Compassion strongly excited, by the disgraceful and miserable State of Poverty to which his Excellency's Brothers are reduced; yet, situated as I am, it is not in my Power to interfere with Effect. My Efforts on a former Occasion failed of Success, and my Interposition now would only excite the Resentment of the Minister towards the unhappy Sufferers, in consequence of their Application to me; from whom alone, however, they hope for Relief from their present Distress, which, their near Connection with the Vizier considered, is both shameful and unprecedented.

That no regular Courts of Justice have been established in this Country, is particularly pointed at in my Instructions, as "the most disreputable Defect in his Highness's Government;" yet the Minister seems determined on abolishing even the Shadow of so necessary an Institution. The Office of Sudder ul Huck, as held by Molovy Moubine, was ever nugatory, but now it is sunk into the lowest Contempt. The original Establishment, inadequate as it was, is mouldering away, and the Officers now attached to it are literally starving, as no Part of their Allowances has been paid for above Six Months past: He himself has proposed to resign his Appointment, being every Way precluded from a Possibility of exercising the Duties of it.

☞ [I have the Honour to forward, for your further Information, the Enclosure, N° 3.—It contains a Relation of the Hardships endured by the Ladies of the late Vizier's Zenana.

Translation of a Letter from Nabob Behadre, his Highness the Vizier's Brother, to Mr. Bristow; dated 28th December 1783.

Your own Servant carried you the Account of what he himself was an Eye Witness to after the Affair of last Night. These are the Particulars:—About Midnight my Aunt received Twelve Stabs from a Man, of which she died: I also received Six successive Stabs, which alarmed the People of the House, who set up a Shouting, whereupon the Assassin ran off. Besides being without Food, or the Means of providing any, this Misfortune has befallen me. I am desirous of sending the Coffin to your Door. It is your Duty, both for the Sake of God and of Christ, to execute Justice, and to enquire what Harm I have done to the Murderer, sufficient to deserve Assassination, or even Injury.—You now stand in the Place of his Excellency the Vizier: I request you will do me Justice. What can I say more?

P. S. I am also desirous to shew you my Wounds.

From the ſame.

7th January 1784.

You have been duly informed of all the Circumſtances relative both to the Murder of the Innocent, and my being wounded, as well by my former Letter, as by the Meſſenger whom you ſent to enquire into the State of my Health; and I have every Reaſon to hope, from your known Kindneſs, that you will not be deficient in ſeeking out the Aſſaſſin. I am at this Moment overwhelmed in Misfortune; whilſt the Blood is flowing from my Wounds, neither I, nor my Children, nor my Servants, have wherewithal to procure Suſtenance, nor have I it in my Power either to purchaſe Remedy, or to reward the Phyſician; 'tis for the Sake of God alone that he attends me. Thus loaded with Calamity upon Calamity, I am unable to ſupport Life; for I find no Relief from my Affliction, either Day or Night. Do you (now ſtanding in the Place of my Father) grant me freſh Life by ſpeedy Acts of Benevolence.

For theſe Two laſt Years his Excellency eſtabliſhed a Penſion for me of Twenty Thouſand Rupees, but I never received the full Amount of it, either laſt Year or the Year before; ſhould it however be paid me, though inadequate to my Deſires, I ſhall ſtill be enabled to ſupport myſelf. From the Beginning of this Year to the preſent Time I have not received a Farthing, nor do I expect any; though if you afford Protection to the Oppreſſed all my Wiſhes will be accompliſhed. I was deſirous of waiting on you with my Family, that you might be an Eye Witneſs to their Condition; but I was adviſed not to ſtir out, on Account of my Wounds. What more can I ſay?

Tranſlation of a Letter from the Nabob Vizier's Brothers, Myrza Hyder Ally, Myrza Imayut Ally, and Myrza Syfe Ally, to Mr. Briſtow, Reſident at the Vizier's Court; received 9th March 1783.

The manly and generous Conduct of the Engliſh Gentlemen towards all Nations is as clear as the Sun at Noon Day; ſo well known is the Favour ſhewn by the Company, the Governor and you, to our late Father, and our whole Houſe, that it is unneceſſary to write the Particulars.—We before this communicated to you, through Myrza Iſhmael Beg, ſome general Circumſtances concerning our Diſtreſs, to which you returned for anſwer, that you would cauſe 2,000 Rupees a Month to be paid to each of us, and aſk us to viſit you. It is ſome Time ſince we received this Meſſage, and we go on without any Means of Subſiſtence, and in the utmoſt Miſery, entirely upon the Hopes of your Friendſhip. Apparently, from the Multiplicity of Buſineſs on your Hands, you have forgot your Promiſe. Our Situation is not fit to be repreſented; for Two Years we have not received a Hubba on Account of our Tuncaw, though the Miniſters have annually charged a Lack of Rupees, and never paid us any Thing.—After all, we are the Sons of Sujah ul Dowlah.—It is ſurpriſing, having ſuch a Friend as you, our Situation is arrived at that Paſs, that we ſhould be in Diſtreſs for dry Bread and Cloaths. Whereas, as you have done many generous Acts, be pleaſed ſo to ſhew us your Favour, that by ſome Means we may receive our Allowances from the Company's Treaſury, and not be obliged to depend upon and ſolicit others for it. We hope you will grant us a favourable Anſwer through Mr. Cowper.

From Myrza Hyder Ally, Myrza Emayut Ally, and Myrza Syfe Ally, to Mr. Cowper: Received 10th March 1783.

We have, through your Favour, received Mr. Briſtow's Anſwer; it has been Thouſands of a Thouſand Cauſes of Satisfaction to us.—May the everlaſting God, in the Purity of his Glory, preſerve Health to you, who have ſhewn us all this Favour.—Our Pens fail in expreſſing our Gratitude.—We are now perfectly ſatisfied that from your Favour we ſhall receive our Allowances Month by Month: For Inſtance, the Gomaſtah of Rajah Ticket Roy ſent us an Order on the Houſe of Lalla Buchagie for the Sums of 2,000 Rupees each.—We hope you will apply in our Names to the Reſident, that our Penſions may be granted us from the Company's Treaſury, in the ſame Manner as that of our Brother Saadut Ally: We alſo repreſented this Matter to the Reſident.—Whereas the Perſon who brought your Letter to us was a Burgally, and Hircarrahs from the Preſence watch us; likewiſe we are under great Fear of the Nabob Vizier, and the People in his Court, leſt they ſhould be informed of our having any Dependance of * the Engliſh Gentlemen, whereby an Injury might be done us: We therefore requeſt, that if you have any Indoſtan Moonſhy, as undoubtedly will be the Caſe, he may be employed in our Negociations. Hindoſtannies paſſing will not be regarded, and nobody will be informed thereby.—As you have favoured us with your Friendſhip, you will ſhew it by not diſcloſing our Secret, until we have an Interview with the Reſident, and oblige us by delivering the encloſed Letter to him.

[Tranſlation of a Paper of Intelligence from Fyzabad.

The Ladies, their Attendants, and Servants, were ſtill as clamorous as laſt Night. Latafut the Daroga went to them, and remonſtrated with them on the Impropriety of their Conduct, at the ſame time aſſuring them, that in a few Days all their Allowances would be paid; and ſhould that not be the Caſe, he would advance them Ten Days Subſiſtence, upon Condition that they returned to their Habitations: None of them however conſented to his Propoſals, but were ſtill intent upon making their eſcape through the Bazar; and in conſequence formed themſelves in the following Order:—The Children in the Front, behind them the Ladies of the Seraglio, and behind them again their Attendants; but their Intentions were fruſtrated by the Oppoſition which they met with from Latafut's Sepoys.

The next Day Latafut went twice to the Women, and uſed his endeavours to make them return into the Zamâna, promiſing to advance them 10,000 Rupees, which, upon the Money being paid down, they agreed to comply with; but Night coming on, nothing tranſpired.

On the Day following their Clamours were more violent than uſual.—Latafut went to confer with them on the Buſineſs of Yeſterday, offering the ſame Terms; depending upon the Fidelity of his Promiſes, they conſented to return to their Apartments, which they accordingly did, except Two or Three of the Ladies, and moſt of their Attendants.—Latafut then went to Hoſhmund Ally Cawn to conſult with him about what Means they ſhould take; they came to a Reſolution of driving them in by Force, and gave Orders to their Sepoys to beat any one of the Women who ſhould attempt to move forward.—The Sepoys accordingly aſſembled, and each one being provided with a Bludgeon, they drove them by dint of Beating into the Zennana. The Women ſeeing the Treachery of Latafut, proceeded to throw Stones and Bricks at the Sepoys, and again attempted to get out; but finding that impoſſible from the Gates being ſhut, they kept up a continual Diſcharge till about Twelve o'Clock, when, finding their Situation deſperate, they retired into the Rung Mahal, and forced their Way from thence into the Palace, and diſperſed themſelves about the Houſe and Gardens: After this they were deſirous of getting into the Begum's Apartments, but ſhe, being apprized of their Intentions, ordered the Doors to be ſhut. In the mean Time Latafut and Hoſhmund Ally Khan poſted Centuries to ſecure the Gates of the leſſer Mahal. During the whole of this Conflict, the Ladies and Women remained expoſed to the View of the Sepoys. The Begum then ſent for Latafut and Hoſhmund Ally Khan, whom ſhe ſeverely reprimanded, and inſiſted upon knowing the Cauſe of this infamous Behaviour. They pleaded, in their Defence, the Impoſſibility of helping it, as the Treatment the Women had met with had only been conformably to his Excellency the Vizier's Orders. The Begum alleged, that, even admitting that the Nabob had given theſe Orders, they were by no Means authoriſed in this Manner to diſgrace the Family of Sujah Dowlah; and, ſhould they not receive their Allowances for a Day or Two, it could be of no great Moment: What had paſſed was now at an end, but that the Vizier ſhould certainly be acquainted with the whole of the Affair, and that whatever he directed ſhe ſhould implicitly comply with. The Begum then ſent for Two of the Children who were wounded in the Affray of laſt Night, and, after endeavouring to ſooth them, ſhe ſent again for Latafut and Huſmund * Ally Khan, and in the Preſence of the Children again expreſſed her Diſapprobation of their Conduct, and the Improbability of Aſoph ul Dowlah's ſuffering the Ladies and Children of Sujah Dowlah to be diſgraced, by being expoſed to the View of the Rabble: Upon which Latafut produced the Letter from the Nabob, repreſenting that he was amenable only to the Order of his Excellency, and that whatever he ordered it was his Duty to obey; and that had the Ladies thought proper to have retired quietly into their Apartments, he would not have uſed the Means he had taken to compel them.—The Begum again obſerved, that what had paſſed was now over;—ſhe then gave the Children 4,00 Rupees and diſmiſſed them, and ſent Word by Sumrud and the other Eunuchs, that if the Ladies would peaceably retire to their Apartments, Latafut would ſupply them with 3 or 4,000 Rupees for their preſent Expences, and recommended to them not to incur any further Diſgrace; and that if they did not think proper to act agreeable to her Directions they would do wrong. The Ladies followed her Advice, and about 10 at Night went back into the Zennana.—The next Morning the Begum waited upon the Mother of Sujah Dowlah, and related to her all the Circumſtances of the Diſturbance. The Mother of Sujah Dowlah returned for Anſwer, that after there being no Accounts kept of Crores of Revenue, ſhe was not ſurprized that the Family of Sujah Dowlah, in their Endeavours to procure Subſiſtence, ſhould be obliged to expoſe themſelves to the meaneſt of People. After bewailing their Misfortunes, and ſhedding many Tears, the Begum took her Leave and returned Home.

RECEIVED the following Letter from the Collector of Sircar Saurun:

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Members of the Supreme Council at Fort William.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

I have the Honour to incloſe a Copy of a Letter which I have received from Mr. Briſtow the Reſident at the Court of the Vizier Aſuph ul Dowla. Of the Perſons he claims, only One has yet been diſcovered in the Pergunnah Cowaree; and I requeſt to be favoured with your Orders relative to his being delivered up, and that you will alſo be pleaſed to inſtruct me in regard to others who may be in the ſame Predicament. Within the Company's Dominions in the Province of Bahar, in all Caſes of Tallookdars or Ryots abſconding from the Payment of the juſt Demands of Government, the Liquidation of the Sum due is all that is required, or ever complied with; but no Reſtraint whatever is exerciſed on the Perſon of the Defaulter to oblige him to reſide in any particular Diſtrict contrary to his Inclination; and I beg leave to remark on the preſent Inſtance, that Rajah Soorut Sing, the Aumil of Goruckpore (a Copy of whoſe Repreſentation has been tranſmitted to * by Mr. Briſtow), does not charge the Perſons he ſolicits for with any Crimes, but merely with withholding their Rents.

* Sic in Orig.

I have acquainted Mr. Briſtow, in reply to his Letter, that my Endeavours ſhall not be wanting to cauſe Payment of any Balances of Revenue that may be due by Tallookdars or others who take refuge in the Diſtricts under my Superintendance, and that I have addreſſed you for Orders relative to the Requiſition for their being delivered up.

I have the Honour to be with, &c.

To Charles Græme Eſquire, Collector of Sircar Sarun.

Sir,

Beny Madoo and Dukeel Roy, the Tallookdars of Suddoah Choba, in the Diſtrict of Goruckpore, have fled the Vizier's Dominions and taken refuge in Cowany. Application has been made to me by the Aumil Raja Soorut Sing to requeſt your Aſſiſtance in apprehending the aboveſaid Perſons, and delivering them over to his Charge. I trouble you with a Copy of the Repreſentation.

The Honourable the Governor and Council have directed me to obtain Orders from the Vizier to his Aumils, ordering them to prevent Futty Saw and other refractory Zemindars from finding an Aſylum in his Dominions. Major Lucas has informed me of the particular Perſons under this Deſcription, and I have ſucceeded in obtaining the neceſſary Orders. The Application I now make you being of a ſimilar Nature, I beg Leave to inform you it is his Excellency's the Nabob Vizier's Wiſh, to unite with the Board in putting an entire ſtop to the Depredations of Zemindars on the frontier Provinces. I have addreſſed the Governor General and Council upon this Subject, and if you ſhould not think yourſelf authorized to apprehend the Offenders until you may receive a regular Order to do it, you will oblige me by aſcertaining their Places of Reſort.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

To Mr. Charles Græme, Collector of Sircar Sauran.

Sir,

We have received your Letter of the 8th ultimo, encloſing Copy of an Application made to you by the Reſident at the Vizier's Court, for apprehending and delivering over to the Vizier's Officers, Beny Madoo and Duckeel Roy, Two of his Talookdars who had abſconded, and deſiring our Authority for the ſame. We direct that you accordingly deliver up either or both of theſe Men if they can be found; and in any future Inſtances when the Nabob's Aumils ſhall attempt to take refuge within the Limits of your Juriſdiction, and the Reſident ſhall apply to you for that Purpoſe, you will order them to be delivered up to the Vizier's Officers.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Members of the Supreme Council at Fort William.

P. 236. Honourable Sir, and Gentlemen,

I now beg leave to lay before you a Detail of the Services on which Detachments from the Honourable Company's Troops have been employed in the Vizier's Dominions.

The Inſurrections in Sahlone and its Dependencies were created and ſupported by Rajah Bulbudder Sing, Zemindar of Tellooie, who having been diſpoſſeſſed of his Zemindary during the Government of the late Vizier Suja ul Dowla, thereupon attempting to raiſe Diſturbances, and collected numerous Followers. Suja ul Dowla immediately detached a very large Force to Sahlone, with Orders to ſhew no Mercy. Great Numbers of People, taken in Arms, were put to death in the Courſe of the Campaign, and Bulbudder never again oppoſed the Authority of Government during his Life-time.

When Sahlone was granted in Jaghyr to the Begum, ſhe agreed to give this Rebel an Allowance, in lieu of Land, of 500 Rupees per Month, and a Beit upon the Country, amounting altogether to about 12,000 Rupees annually, and he ſtipulated not to create Diſturbances. When the Jaghyrs were reſumed, that of the Begum fell under the general Regulation, and the Aumil appointed by the Vizier refuſed to continue this Allowance to Bulbudder, who in Conſequence renewed his former Depredations. Since the Month of February laſt, the Majors Gilpin, Scott, and Lumſdaine, have been ſucceſſively employed in endeavouring to reduce him to Obedience; it appears by the Letters of thoſe Officers, that he has met with repeated Defeats; he nevertheleſs conſtantly appeared again after a ſhort Time, followed by as great Numbers as before. The Inhabitants of that Country in general look up to Bulbudder's Family as the Stock from which they have all deſcended; and Zeal for their Chief has united the circumjacent Towns and Villages in a League, to co-operate offenſively and defenſively in his Favour. He is thus enabled to aſſemble, at the ſhorteſt Notice, Bodies of Eight or Ten Thouſand Men; and when attacked, if defeated, he mixes with the Crowd, and all Attempts to apprehend him fail. His uſual Reſort upon theſe Occaſions is to the thick Woods within the Diſtrict of Sahlone and its Dependencies; and unleſs Detachments can be fixed at proper Stations, to oppoſe and intercept his March from Place to Place, and prevent the People from aſſembling, it appears little Succeſs would be likely to follow any military Operations againſt him. When hard preſſed, he flies to ſome other Provinces of the Vizier's Dominions, or takes refuge in the Bundlecund Country.

The Officers who have commanded on this Service accuſe the Aumils and Phouzedars of Negligence, and ſome of them even of conniving at the Rebel's Depredations. I have urgently recommended it to the Vizier to publiſh in their Diſtricts his Determination to puniſh, with the utmoſt Severity, the Adherents and Abettors of refractory Zemindars. The Aumils make a Practice of exaggerating the Miſchief done by theſe Commotions, urging them as a Plea for Balances and Claims of Deductions; and thus, by their Intrigues and Management, much larger Loſſes have accrued to Government on this Account than had been actually ſuſtained.

The Expedients propoſed to reſtore the Peace of the Diſtricts of Sahlone, are, either to ſtation ſo conſiderable a Force on the Spot as would deter the Rebel from any future Attempts to diſturb it; or, which appear * in the preſent Situation of Affairs perhaps more adviſeable, to grant him an Allowance upon the Plan formerly ſettled between him and the Begum. He is at preſent quiet, and has ſent me a Letter, expreſſing in general Terms his Inclination to become a peaceable good Subject. The incloſed Letter from Major Lumſdaine I ſubmit to your Conſideration, as a further Explanation of this Subject. As that Officer appears to agree with me in Opinion, that theſe Commotions are not likely to be quelled by Force, at leaſt not the One he has with him, I propoſe, with your Approbation, to try the other Expedient.

* Sic in Orig.

Since the Beginning of October, Major Nicol has acted with a complete Regiment in the Diſtricts of Khyrabad and Mhaumdy, which have long been remarkable for the refractory and turbulent Spirit of the Inhabitants. Since the Vizier's Acceſſion to the Muſnud, except when Almaſſallee Cawn farmed them, a very great Proportion of the Revenue has been annually loſt to Government, and the Phouzedars in general diſgraced. Alee Reza Cawn, during his Aumildarry, darry, loſt his Brother, and a Number of his People, in different Engagements with the Zemindars, and has been ſince upwards of Two Years, as I am informed, in Confinement for Balances; his Caſe appears hard, and I have ſolicited his Releaſe. Almaſſallee Cawn collected the Revenue, during his Adminiſtration, by over-running the Country with a numerous Force, and exerciſing great Cruelties. The Miſchiefs ariſing ſometimes from the total Relaxation of Authority, and at others from the too violent Exertion of it, has materially affected the Cultivation. Thoſe Diſtricts however being remarkably fertile, I am in Hopes they may, by good Management, be quickly reſtored. It appears, from the Repreſentations of Major Nicol, that they contain a Number of Forts, but being moſtly in ſuch bad Repair as to be ſcarcely tenable, I have Expectations that his Aſſiſtance will have great Effect in realizing the Revenue. He is at preſent with the Aumil on a Circuit through the Diſtricts, for the Purpoſe of awing and compelling the Appearance of the refractory Zemindars; all of whom, except One, as far as their Circuit has extended, have given their Attendance; and it is with Pleaſure I inform you, the Meaſures adopted by Mahomed Huſſein Cawn, the Aumil, are exceedingly mild, having ſucceeded hitherto more by the Terror of his Force than the actual Exertion of it.

Khyrabad and Mhaumdy were farmed by Almaſs Allee Cawn at the Time of his withdrawing himſelf from the Vizier's Authority: His Naibs in conſequence relinquiſhed their Charge; and they were for a Period of ſome Months in a State of Anarchy, no new Aumil having been appointed to them. The Inhabitants, relieved from the Severities of his Adminiſtration, quickly reſumed their former Habits of Independance; and the Viziers not having made any Proviſion for an Event like that of Almaſs's Seceſſion, and being unable to furniſh a ſufficient Body of Troops to quell the Inſurrections that followed, he was obliged to apply for a Regiment from the Brigade. I hope Peace will ſoon be re-eſtabliſhed; and as the Bankers have an Aſſignment on thoſe Diſtricts, I recommend the Continuance of the Detachment.

Mirza Iſmael Beg, the Soubadar of Allahabad, has always moſt earneſtly ſolicited Support from the Company's Troops, the Force allotted him by the Vizier not being ſufficient for the Subjection of the Country, which is in many Parts filled with Forts, and in Arms the Zemindars are ever ready to create Commotions; Captain Robert Dennis, with a Battalion from Chunar, was therefore detached on this Service in September laſt; he is now on the other Side of the Jumna, quelling ſome Diſturbances which have lately happened in that Quarter.

☞ (a) [Major Gilpin, with One Battalion, has been ſtationed at Fyzabad, for the Purpoſe of ſupporting the Vizier's Claim againſt the Begum for the Recovery of his Patrimony depoſited in her Charge. I applied to the Vizier immediately upon my Arrival, for his Conſent to withdraw this Battalion, ſeeing little Probability that violent Meaſures would effect any further Payments. I propoſed to him, to truſt to her Generoſity for the Liquidation of the Balance, which was about Five Lacks. The Vizier would not at that Time acquieſce in my Propoſal, but determined on making one more Effort previous to leaving it in her Diſcretion to prolong the Term of Payment; his Excellency accordingly addreſſed a Letter to the Begum, conveying his Senſe of her evading the Performance of her Engagements, in very harſh Terms; and threatening, in caſe of Non-compliance with them, that her Eunuchs ſhould continue in Confinement, and Means be taken to recover the Money from her, as the Company would never be ſatisfied without it: The Begum in reply repreſented her Inability, having paid away all the Treaſure ever entruſted to her Charge by the late Vizier; but if the Eunuchs were enlarged, ſhe might, with their Aſſiſtance, be enabled to raiſe the Money upon Credit. On his Excellency's receiving this Anſwer, I renewed my Solicitations for Permiſſion to withdraw the Battalion, reſting the Matter upon the Begum's Promiſe of diſcharging the Balance when her Eunuchs ſhould be releaſed: I was induced to this Meaſure by the Repreſentations of Major Gilpin, who had been employed in the Buſineſs from the Commencement; his Opinion, aſſerting that every practicable coercive Exertion had been uſed, I beg leave to ſubmit to you in the encloſed Copy of his Letter to me on the Subject. The Vizier at length acquieſced in the Battalion's being withdrawn; for which I was the more anxious, as your Inſtructions to me diſapprove of Detachments, and the State of Affairs requires the Appearance of a formidable Force on the Frontiers.]

There will now remain on Detachments a compleat Regiment at Khyrabad, another at Sahlone, and a Battalion at Allahabad, making altogether Two Regiments and a Half, which I recommend to be continued for the preſent, as thoſe Countries appear to require their Aſſiſtance.—One of the Battalions at Sahlone, and that of Allahabad, belonging to the Chunar Station *; Colonel Morgan has ſtill with him a Body of Three Regiments and a Battalion, and Colonel Sir John Cumming's Force is compleat. Whenever I may be apprized of the leaſt Danger upon the Frontiers, I ſhall not fail immediately to communicate my Intelligence to the Commanding Officers.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Members of the Supreme Council.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

Beny Madoo and Dukul Roy, the Talookdars of Suddooah Choba, in the Diſtrict of Goruckpore, have fled the Vizier's Dominions, and taken refuge in Cowarry, in Sircar Sanier. Application had been made to me by the Aumil of Beraitch, Rajah Soorut Sing, through the acting Miniſter, to requeſt Mr. Græme's Aſſiſtance in apprehending the above Perſons, and delivering them over to his Charge. I have accordingly addreſſed Mr. Græme, and in caſe he ſhould not be authorized to apprehend the Offenders without your Inſtructions, I have deſired him to aſcertain their Places of Reſort.

In conſequence of your Commands, under Date the 29th October 1782, I have procured the Vizier's Orders to the Aumil of Goruckpore to apprehend Futty Saw, or any refractory Zemindars (agreeable to the Deſcription furniſhed me by Major Lucas) that may attempt to find an Aſylum in his Dominions; and it is his Excellency's Wiſh to unite with you in preventing their Depredations on the Frontier Provinces.

I have the Honour to be, with, &c.

To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, and the Members of the Supreme Council, Fort William.

Bengal Secret Conſ. 3d March 1783, F° 269.

Honourable Sir, and Gentlemen,

I take the liberty to encloſe you Papers and Accounts agreeable to the encloſed Liſt, to which I beg leave to refer for a full Explanation of the Amount of the Claims on the Nabob Vizier.

Immediately after my Arrival I urged the acting Miniſter to deviſe and recommend Arrangements for the complete Diſcharge of the Balance at the Concluſion of the Year; to relieve myſelf from Cenſure, in caſe of Failure in this eſſential Point, it is neceſſary I ſhould explain the Tranſaction with the Bankers. The Balance, at the End of laſt Year, was not, in fact, paid, but tranſferred to the Bankers, and increaſed by the Load of a very high Intereſt.—There were Two diſtinct Engagements,

One for Bills on the Preſidency, for	—	—	22,67,485	2	4
Received in Caſh	—	—	3,82,514	13	8
					26,50,000 — —

Another for Teeps, promiſing Bills, to be delivered by Inſtalments at the following Periods, and in the following Proportions; viz.

Bhaudoun	—	1189	as explained in	6,50,000
Goaur	—	1190	Mr. Middleton's	6,50,000
Cautic	—		ſeparate Letter	6,50,000
Aughun	—		to me, No. 2.	6,50,000
					26,00,000 — —
					52,50,000 — —
Paid them from the Balances of 1189		—			2,91,166 — —
By this Statement you will obſerve the Revenues of the preſent Year have been anticipated in		—		—	49,58,834 — — bearing an Intereſt of 2 per Cent. per Menſem.—The whole Demand upon the Vizier, on Account of the Honourable Company and the Bankers, will this Year amount to the Sum of One Crore Forty-one Lacks Two thouſand Five hundred and Seventy-eight Rupees (1,41,02,578); Mr. Middleton gave his Bond to the Bankers, on Account the Firſt Engagement, for Rupees 26,50,000, engaging to ſee them repaid their Money. The Revenues of certain Diſtricts were aſſigned to him on Account of the Bankers, and were, as collected, to be paid to them.

When Almaſs Ally Cawn returned to Lucknow, a Negociation was ſet on foot to transfer the Security from Mr. Middleton to him, and concluded a few Days before my Arrival. The Bond was returned to Mr. Middleton, and Almaſs's granted in lieu of it. The additional Diſtricts propoſed to have been entruſted to Almaſs were Part of thoſe aſſigned to the Bankers, and the Vizier's Order and other Documents had paſſed for putting him in Poſſeſſion a few Days before my Arrival. I was ſo ſoon expected, that Almaſs of his own accord deferred taking Charge, as I have already informed you, until the Meaſure ſhould through me receive your Sanction.

When I conſidered the Power poſſeſſed by Almaſs, I did not heſitate to reject every Idea of extending his Authority. A Difficulty occurred about the Bond he had granted, and a Payment he had made to the Bankers of Three Lacks Seventy-five thouſand (R^{s} 3,75,000), the latter Part was eaſily ſettled by giving him Credit for that Sum, on Account the Revenues of Etawa, Corah, &c^{a}. but the Bankers refuſed any Security except mine, in lieu of the Bond. The Bills of Exchange had actually been tranſmitted to the Board, and were in Courſe of Payment:

Payment: To have annulled the Engagement would have disappointed you of a Resource, and hurt our Credit with the Bankers; it was absolutely necessary that Almas's Bond should be returned to him; I was therefore induced to take the Engagement upon myself, and I am happy to find, by your Commands of the 22d Ultimo, that my Conduct has been approved of.

Although my Attention has been principally directed to the Liquidation of the Balance, I have hitherto found it utterly impossible to procure Assignments equal to the Amount required. Districts have been over-rated to me; and before I can conclude a fair Engagement with any Aumil, I am obliged in every Instance to separate fictitious from just Estimates, which takes up Time, and is the Cause of my not sending the Accounts of the Vizier's Revenues, which are now copying, and will be forwarded in the Course of a very few Days.

The Bankers upon my Arrival claimed my Protection in realizing their Demands; and on maturely considering the Matter, it appeared to me most advisable to blend the Honourable Company's and their Claims under One Head; unless I had done this, there would have been a perpetual Interference in the Collection of the Assignments; and in case the Bankers should have failed in realizing their Monies, they would have fallen proportionably short in their Payments at the Presidency. These were the Reasons which induced me to unite the Two Accounts, and I hope they will meet with your Approbation.

There remains a Sum of Thirteen Lacks on Account of the Teeps, for which Bills of Exchange on the Presidency are now due. I took charge of my Office without any Cash in the Treasury, and a Sum of near 30,09,000 Rupees due to the Bankers. I afterwards, under Date the 2d November, transmitted you Bills of Exchange for 6,50,000 Rupees, which (as my Receipts at that Period were very inconsiderable) accumulated the Debt to near 36,59,000, the whole bearing an Interest of Two per Cent. per Mensem. The Bankers were disinclined to give any more Bills, until Part of this Balance was liquidated. The Season of the heavy Collections being so near at hand, it appeared to me most advisable to delay transmitting you other Bills, until such Time as I might be able to pay the Balance due to them, and I could receive further Monies, and give them Cash for their Bills, by which the Vizier would derive the additional Advantage of saving the Interest; and the Difference to the Company would have been the Delay of perhaps Three Months only in the Receipt of the Remainder to be remitted to the Presidency, on account of the Teeps.

All Sums hitherto collected have been paid to the Bankers. In order to supply the Demands of the Paymasters to the Troops in the Field, I have borrowed a Sum of Fyz^{d} 16 S^{n} S^{s} R^{s} 3,59,670:4:4; for this the Vizier is to pay an Interest of One per Cent. per Mensem only, whereby a Saving of as much more will arise on the Interest, and was the Reason why I preferred a Loan to stopping that Amount from the Receipt of the Bankers.

My Time has of late been principally employed in urging the Minister to supply Funds for the current Disbursement of the Vizier's Government, and the complete Discharge of the Balance due to the Honourable Company; my Endeavours shall not be wanting to accomplish an Object which I know will render such essential Service to the Company's Affairs at the present Juncture. The proposed Retrenchments will be very considerable, and I shall shortly submit them to your Consideration.

I have the Honour to be, with, &c.
(Signed) John Bristow,
Resident at the Vizier's Court.

Lucknow,
2d January 1783.

To the Honourable Warren Hastings Esquire, Governor General, and the Members of the Supreme Council, Fort William.

Honourable Sir, and Sirs,

Under Date the 1st Ultimo, I had the Honour to communicate to you a Detail of the Services upon which Detachments had been made from the Honourable Company's Troops. The Vizier has found it necessary to continue the Regiments at Sahlone and Khyrabad, a Battalion at Allahabad, and Six Companies in the Districts of Furickabad.

I have the Pleasure to inform you, Three of the most refractory Zemindars in Khyrabad, named Mohum Sing, Hindoo Sing, and Nayfut Sing, have been apprehended by the Aumil Mahomed Hussein Cawn; owing to this Circumstance, the other Zemindars have been awed, the Peace of that District is in a fair Way of being restored, and I entertain great Hopes the full Amount of the Honourable Company's Assignments will be realized.

The Detachment in Sahlone has been constantly employed on Service against refractory Zemindars in that and the neighbouring District of Pertabgur. The Plan of inducing Bulbudder to return to his Allegiance to the Vizier, by the Grant of a Pension and a Beit upon the Country, was found impracticable. He demanded a Consideration of about Thirty thousand Rupees a Year, and remained in the Country threatening to create Disturbances, if his Demands were not complied with. A Treaty with a Rebel acting upon this Principle was subversive of the Vizier's Authority, and holding forth Impunity to other ill-disposed Zemindars. He was told to quit the Country, or attend at Lucknow, and a submissive obedient Conduct in future might intitle him to the Vizier's Favour; but as he rejected these Propositions, a Reward of Twenty thousand Rupees has been put upon his Head. The Aumils of Sultanpore, Purtabgur, Sahlone, and the adjacent Diſtricts, were directed to uſe their utmoſt Exertions to expel him the Country, to aſcertain the Zemindars of Villages from which he draws his Support; and that if the Aumils ſhould ever ſuffer him to remain unmoleſted within their Juriſdictions, no Deduction of Revenue would be allowed, and they muſt expect the ſevereſt Puniſhment for their Neglect. They are directed to co-operate, and detach the Troops they may not immediately require for the Collections in conſtant Purſuit of Bulbudder. The Vizier has thought proper to approve a Propoſal of Major Lumſdaine's, for keeping One Battalion for the Protection of Sahlone, and detach the other upon this Service. I have recommended to him to avoid burning or deſtroying Villages, upon the Suppoſition that the Inhabitants aſſiſt Bulbudder. Such Perſons as are found in Arms he is requeſted to uſe his Endeavours to apprehend, that the Vizier may adminiſter Juſtice after a formal and fair Trial.

The Reward put upon Bulbudder's Head, and the ſtrict Injunctions to the Aumils, if they be enforced, ought ultimately to effect the Seizure of Bulbudder, or elſe render his Reſidence, which I hope it has effected, in the Country ſo dangerous, that it at all Events will prevent his creating Diſturbances in future. I have applied to Mr. Markham to endeavour to ſeize him, if he ſhould take refuge in Benares, which he uſed to do whilſt Cheit Sing held the Zemindarry.

I Yeſterday received Intelligence that Bulbudder, Bahadur Sing, and Amrow Sing, had collected a great Force at Norvaijee, a Fort on the Confines of the Diſtricts of Monickpore, Allahabad, Purtabgur, and Sahlone. Captain Jaques, with One Battalion of Sepoys, in conjunction with the Aumils, had ſurrounded and taken the Fort, in which they ſeized between Eight and Nine hundred Perſons. Bulbudder and Behadur Sing had made their Eſcape; but Amrou Sing, and a famous Inſurgent of the Name of Gundcharry, were ſecured, and they and their Families have been detained by the Aumils. The other Priſoners were ſuffered to leave the Fort upon laying down their Arms, to the Number of Five hundred Matchlocks, beſides Swords, Bows, and Arrows. The People with Bulbudder are diſperſed, and I underſtand he has quitted the Country. This Succeſs was attended with the Loſs of very few Lives; and I hope a capital Example of the Two Ringleaders, after a fair Trial, will immediate * other refractory Zemindars.

* Sic in Orig.

I have the Pleaſure to inform you the Kiſts of the Honourable Company's Aſſignment on Sahlone have been regularly paid, entirely owing to the military Aid granted by the Honourable Company.

The ſure Means of rendering the Vizier's Alliance honourable and advantageous, will be to reſtore his Authority, and the Peace of his Dominions. Great Loſſes in the Revenue have unavoidably ariſen, owing to the total Want of Subordination among all Ranks of the Officers of Government, and the perpetual Inſurrections of Zemindars: The Vizier can only look to the Honourable Company for effecting a Change; his own Military is at preſent unequal to the Taſk; and I hope you will aſſent to the Detachments remaining until the Service may be completed, eſpecially as great Advantages are derived by them to the Vizier's Affairs.

A general Order has been iſſued by the Vizier to prevent Zemindars from building or repairing Forts, and that thoſe taken ſhould either be garriſoned by his Excellency's Troops, or deſtroyed, whichever might be moſt adviſable.

I beg leave to ſtate the whole Force now detached; viz.

19th December. We have received a Letter from the Collector of Sircar Saurun, informing us that One of the Vizier's Talookdars, ſaid to be fled into that Diſtrict, has been diſcovered, and deſiring our Orders regarding him. We have in conſequence directed the Collectors in this and every other Inſtance in which the Vizier's Talookdars or Aumils ſhall abſcond to avoid Payment of their Balances, and Application be made to him by the Reſident for that Purpoſe, he ſhall cauſe them to be delivered up to the Officers of the Vizier's Government.

1ſt Decemr, 30th Janr. We approve very much of the Conduct which you have obſerved reſpecting the rebellious Zemindars, and the Means which you inform us you had recommended to the Vizier for quieting the Diſorders, and reſtoring the Peace of his Country. On this Occaſion we have only to recommend the ſtricteſt Attention to the Inſtructions which you have received from the Governor General, and to deſire that you will make them your conſtant Guide.

While the diſordered State of the Vizier's Dominions ſhall require the Preſence of the Military Detachments which have been ſtationed for their Defence, we muſt approve of the Continuance of them, and truſt to your Diſcretion and Judgment, poſſeſſed as you are of our Sentiments on this Subject, to prolong or abridge the Period of their Continuance, according to the Nature of the Circumſtances which may preſent themſelves; yet it does not appear to us why ſo many Detachments are neceſſary, while the Army under the Command of Colonel Sir John Cumming remains inactive, and confined to a ſingle Station, ſince the ſame Services which are performed by the other Detachments might be rendered with equal Effect by this Corps. Theſe are our Sentiments, formed upon your Report of the State of the Country, and the Diſtribution of our Forces in it; but we only ſtate them as ſuch, without grounding any Orders upon them, as we cannot depend ſufficiently upon our own Information, and are ſatisfied to rely on your Knowledge, ariſing from a nearer and more complete View of Affairs; but we deſire that you will report to us very minutely any Arrangement which may be finally made after the Receipt of this Letter, for the Defence and Protection of the Vizier's Dominions.

Appendix to Conſultation, 3d March 1783.

To John Briſtow Eſquire, Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

Sir,

From your having requeſted me in your Letters to uſe my utmoſt Endeavours to reſtore Peace to this diſtracted Country, I take the Liberty of laying before you my Sentiments of the Mode I judge moſt effectual to attain the End you ſeem ſo much to deſire.

To eſtabliſh Peace and Quiet in this Country Two Ways can only be adopted, either quelling the Diſturbances by Force, or by giving the Rajah Bulbudder ſuch Allowances as may be thought adequate to his Rank and Influence in the Country. As an Officer at the Head of a Detachment employed to cruſh the Rebellion, the deciſive Exertions of a Military Force firſt naturally preſent themſelves, and there can be little Doubt entertained but that a Detachment of Artillery, a Regiment of Sepoys, and 500 of his Excellency the Vizier's Horſe, is a ſufficient Force to compel the Rebel to relinquiſh this Country, or even to expel him the Vizier's Dominions: Were the different Fouzedars, under the ſevereſt Penalties, obliged to attack him and his Adherents, wherever they ſhould take refuge in their particular Diſtricts, and to puniſh in a moſt exemplary Manner ſuch of the Zemindars in their Governments, who ſhould conceal, protect, or aſſiſt the Rebel, ſuch a Plan, vigorouſly executed, would no doubt force the Rebel to quit the Vizier's Dominions. The Difficulty of apprehending him is ſo great, that it can ſcarcely be hoped for. It is probable, that when he found himſelf attacked on all Sides, he would retire acroſs the Jumna to Chitterpore, the Place of his Reſidence in the Time of the late Vizier; and that immediately on the Recall of the Detachment from this Country he would again return, and recommence his deſtructive Depredations; nor would it be neceſſary for him to bring a Force with him; no Part of the World abounds ſo much with Soldiers of Fortune as Indoſtan, who in Crowds enliſt under any Standard, encouraged by the Hopes of Plunder or of Pay. The Zemindars are much attached to the Rajah, whom they conſider as their hereditary Prince, and never fail to aſſiſt him; they alſo find their Advantage in fomenting the Diſturbances, as they withhold their Rents from Government under various Pretences, and give but a trifling Conſideration to the Rebel.

From the above Reaſons I am clearly of Opinion, that the allowing the Rajah a Penſion, ſuitable to his Rank and Influence in the Country, is the moſt certain Mode of attaining a permanent Peace; and when it is conſidered in an œconomical View, the Advantages to the Vizier, indeed I may ſay to the Company, their Affairs being ſo connected, are ſo obvious, that it is unneceſſary to remark them. The Vizier will get rid of the Expence of the Detachment, and the Company will have a Force which may be employed elſewhere. The great Difficulty which the Officers of Government at preſent meet with, in realizing the Revenues of the Country, will be removed, as the Inhabitants, on the Diſturbances being quieted, would bring back to their Villages their Families, Cattle, and Effects; of courſe Government would have ſome Security for the Revenue, whereas at preſent they have none.

When I conſider the Matter further in a political View, I ſee alſo ſtrong Reaſons for coming to an Accommodation.—The Rajah Bulbudder is the lineal Deſcendant of the moſt powerful Hindo Family in this Part of Hindoſtan. Connections with him are eagerly ſought after, as they are thought to confer Honour; he is much reſpected himſelf, nor is his Rebellion againſt Government looked on as a Crime; on the contrary, all of the Zemindars in the contiguous Diſtricts are inclined to aſſiſt him, and ſome are even induced to follow his Example.

I have given you my Opinions with Candour, and to the beſt of my Judgment; in delivering them, I have been guided ſolely by a Deſire to promote, to the utmoſt of my Power, the Public Good. They muſt appear to you diſintereſted, for if the Plan I ſubmit to you is followed, the Occaſion for my Services in this Part of the Vizier's Dominions will I hope ſoon ceaſe.

I have the Honour to be, with Reſpect, &c.

To John Briſtow Eſquire, Reſident at the Court at Lucknow.

Sir,

Before my Return to Fyzabad, the Bow Begum had replied to his Excellency the Nabob Vizier's Letter; the Contents of which I imagine he would communicate to you.

The elder Begum I underſtand (from Report only) never intends to put Pen to Paper to him again.

What Probability there may now be of ever receiving the Balance from the Begum, you (from her Letter to the Nabob) will be beſt able to judge; but I am clearly of Opinion, that whilſt her Eunuchs Bahar and Jewar Ally Cawn remain Priſoners, and the Battalion continues here with any Reſtraint on her, that ſhe never will agree to pay a further Sum on the Score required; and indeed it appears to me only recoverable by moderate Means. If the Priſoners were releaſed, and the Troops withdrawn from her, I fancy ſhe would, in a ſhort Period, enter into a Negociation with you; and on certain Terms be induced to pay the Sum wanted.

Encloſed I ſend you the Copy of a Letter which I received this Morning from her. The Circumſtance of her Servants quitting her for Want of Subſiſtance is very certain and public; and whether real or fictitious, I will not take upon me to determine; but I judge it neceſſary to make you acquainted with the Circumſtance.

I have the honour to be, &c.

A true Copy,

Aſſiſtant to the Reſident.

Extract from Mr. Middleton's Letter, dated 23d October 1782.

The moſt material Object I have to claim your Attention to, is the collateral Agreement concluded by me, on behalf of the Honourable the Governor General and Council, with the Houſe of Gopaul Doſs Sah and others, for their Security and Reimburſement in the Advance they were prevailed upon to make the Vizier, upon the Credit and Faith of this Office, for the Liquidation of his Excellency's Debts to the Company, and which Subject you will find ſtated in my Addreſs to the Board of the 7th Ultimo.

The Advance for which the Houſe of Gopaul Doſs Sah ſingly and excluſively engaged was 26,00,000 Rupees, which included the Balance of the Vizier's Account Current with the Honourable Company, as it ſtood before the additional Claim lately made out by the Accountant General, at the Preſidency, and ſundry Army Debts of his Excellency, for which as they were an Exceſs upon the original Eſtimate formed at the Commencement of the Year, no Proviſion had been made. The other Sum of 26,00,000, for which Teeps were granted in Partnerſhip by Gopaul Doſs Buch Rauge Fukhar Chund, and Kiſſen Chund, payable by Inſtallments, as expreſſed in the Teeps, were intended as a Depoſit in the Hands of the Governor General and Council, for the Liquidation of ſuch Part of the additional Claim of 26,48,571 : 3 : 8, made out by the Accountant General, and tranſmitted to this Office in October laſt, as the Board, after taking into Conſideration the Counter-claims, and Expectations of the Vizier, ſhould deem equitable. For further Information on this Head, permit me to refer you to the Contents of my Addreſs to the Honourable Board of the 7th September, to which I have received no Reply. For both theſe Sums the Vizier has paſſed his ſeparate Obligations to the reſpective Parties, and has granted Aſſignments upon his Revenue for the Re-payment. But this alone, Sir, would have gone a very little Way towards inducing the Shroffs to hazard ſo large a Property in the Nabob's Funds, had not the Faith of our Government been alſo pledged for their collateral Security, which has been done by the ſtrongeſt verbal Aſſurances it was in my Power to give them in my Official Capacity; and in the Caſe of Gopaul Doſs Sah, who is much deeper concerned than any of the others, a written Engagement to ſupport him to the utmoſt of my Power in the Recovery of his Debts, for which Almaſs Ally Cawn ſtands immediately and excluſively reſponſible. He has already paid him to the Amount of Nine Lacks, promiſing Four more in the Courſe of Fifteen or Twenty Days, and the remaining Thirteen Lacks he agrees to make good in equal Kiſts, in the enſuing Three Months of Aughun, Phoos, and Maug, which I have not a Doubt of his punctually fulfilling, if you think proper to confirm the Aſſurances I have given, and yield your Influence to the Support of them, which I perſuade myſelf you will ſee the Propriety of, as well from a Principle of common Juſtice, as an Inducement to ſimilar future Exertions, ſhould the Exigency of the Honourable Company's Affairs at any Time call for them. The other Advance of Twenty-ſix Lacks being ſecured by Aſſignments upon reputable Aumils, I have little Fear of its being realized, without giving you any farther Trouble, than that of giving your Sanction to the Meaſure, and occaſionally making uſe of the Influence of your Station, to expedite the Payment of the Kiſts, when the Aumils may ſhew a Diſpoſition to be tardy.

I muſt

☞ [I muſt beg leave to refer you to my Correſpondence with the Honourable the Governor General, for a full Account of the Origin and Nature of my Tranſactions with the Begums at Fayzabad; and the Letters which have paſſed between me and the Officers who have ſeverally commanded there, will ſhew you the Progreſs and preſent State of that Buſineſs. The Balance due from the Bow Begum, upon her Agreement, made in January laſt, after allowing her Credit for the trifling Articles lately ſent here by Major Gilpin, will be about Five Lacks, which I apprehend may be realized, if you deem it expedient to continue the Reſtraints which have been impoſed for that Purpoſe: She had, indeed, given Major Gilpin the moſt ſatisfactory Aſſurances of an immediate Liquidation of this long-depending Account, in which, I believe, ſhe was ſincere; but, probably, from an Expectation of a Change of Meaſures, upon my Removal, ſhe has lately retracted thoſe Aſſurances, and now declares her Determination to make no further Payments whatever, but upon the Certainty of her Jaghire's being reſtored to her; which I could give her no Hopes of, as the Propriety of its Reſumption has been ſanctified by the Approbation of the Honourable the Governor General; who further expreſsly enjoins me, in his Inſtructions of the 27th January, to exert my Influence with the Nabob, to prevent the Concluſion of any final Settlement between him and the Begums, until I ſhould be furniſhed with Inſtructions from him or the Board on that Head. Not having, ſince the above Date, received any Directions from the Board, or the Governor General, relative to the Begums, I know not what may be their Wiſhes in regard to them; but I thought it, at all Events, my Duty, conformably to the Spirit of the Orders I had received, to retain poſſeſſion of the Killa at Fayzabad, and the Perſons of the Bow Begum's Two principal Eunuchs, until the Sum ſhe had ſtipulated to pay was fully liquidated, or the Honourable Board ſhould notify their further Pleaſure: And in this State, Sir, I commit the Buſineſs to your future Directions, expreſſing my ſincere Wiſh, that you may find Means to effect the Recovery of this Balance; which, among other Balances, originally conſtituted a Part of the Securities made over to Gopaul Doſs, for the Repayment of his Advance to the Vizier for the Company's Uſe, and ſhould, I apprehend, if poſſible, be realized for Almaſs Ally Cawn, who has employed his own Credit upon the Faith of thoſe Funds for the immediate Satisfaction of Gopaul Doſs's Debt.] ☜

APPENDIX, N° LXXXVII.

Book 80. P. 615.

Extract of a Conſultation of the 12th May 1783.

Fort-William, the 12th May 1783.

At a Council; Preſent,

The Honourable Warren Haſtings, Governor General, Preſident,

Edward Wheler, } Eſquires.
John Macpherſon, }

READ the the following Letters from Mr Briſtow.

I beg leave to inform you the Allowances on Account the Jaghyres and Tuncaws were recorded upon the Vizier's Books, at the following annual Amount.

The Jaghyres	—	—	—	39,38,054	4	6
The Tuncaws	—	—	—	17,19,610	—	—
				56,57,665	4	6
The propoſed Allowance on Account the Tuncaws, as per Statement, No. 1	—	10,25,214	12	—
The propoſed Allowance on Account the Jaghyres, as per Statement, No. 2	—	22,68,671	—	—
				32,93,885	12	—
Reduction per Ann. Rup[e]				23,63,779	8	6

Even in the preſent reduced State, the Amount is very high; but conſidering the Perſons to whom they are granted, being principally the Vizier's Relations, the old Dependents of his Family, or the Servants of Government, it would be difficult to make further Reductions; particularly as moſt moſt of them were Perſons living in great Affluence, and now depending ſolely upon the Bounty of the Vizier for Subſiſtence. The Funds for the Payment of theſe Allowances can only be procured by the Savings and Reductions of uſeleſs and unneceſſary Expences. In all Arrangements, however, the Vizier's perſonal Charges, the Army, and the Honourable Company's Claims, will be firſt provided for.

(Signed at the End) John Briſtow,
Reſident at the Vizier's Court.

P. 689. To the Honourable Warren Haſtings Eſquire, Governor General, &c. Fort William.

Honourable Sir,

In Addition to what I have urged in my Addreſs of this Date to the Board, I hope I ſhall meet with your Excuſe for repreſenting ſome further Circumſtances relative to the Begum.

I have experienced great Embarraſſment in treating with her, for, as the Mother of the Vizier, the People look up to her with Reſpect; and any harſh Meaſures practiſed againſt Women of her high Rank create Diſcontent, and affect our national Character. Her Conduct in withholding his Excellency's Patrimony, and during the Troubles at Benares, juſtly loſt her that Attention and Regard to which ſhe would have been otherwiſe entitled: Still ſhe is the Mother of the Prince of the Country; and the religious Prejudices of Muſſulmen prevail too ſtrongly in their Minds for them to forget her Situation. Superior Wiſdom will guide your Meaſures, and I ſhall willingly execute every Order I may receive; but I think it my Duty, and a Tribute I owe to the Confidence you have placed in me, freely and candidly to offer my Sentiments on ſuch Subject as from a near View may preſent Difficulties that would not occur to Perſons at a Diſtance.

I would recommend every perſuaſive Argument might be urged to the Begum to induce her to fulfil her Engagements. I would even endeavour to convince her that it was intended to renew the Reſtraints upon her; but I really think it not adviſeable to carry them into Execution.

I have the Honour to be, with the greateſt Reſpect, &c.

Lucknow,
31ſt March 1783.

(a) [Tranſlation of a Letter from Mr. Briſtow to the Begum.

I have had the Honour to receive your Letters:—Whereas the Proſperity and Welfare of the Vizier's Affairs are the earneſt Wiſh of the Governor General, I have, in obedience to my Inſtructions, repreſented to his Excellency that I ſhould conform to his Pleaſure in whatever he might think proper to direct. I am happy to convey his Commands, that Major Gilpin ſhall, on the Arrival of Auffrein Ally Cawn, march from Fyzabad, and immediately releaſe Bahar Ally Cawn and Joahur Ally Cawn. This Meaſure affords me the greater Pleaſure, as I am perſuaded, from the kind Expreſſions in your Letters, of the Regard you entertain for the Vizier, being dearer to you than Life, that you will in future conſult and cheriſh his Intereſts.

It is probable the Vizier would have continued the Reſtraints upon your Excellency, if the Governor General had not, out of Reſpect for the Ties which bind you, and from a natural Benevolence of Diſpoſition, given his Aſſent. The ſtrict Alliance ſubſiſting between the Governor General and the Vizier will ever render an Union of Councils and Measures the Line of Conduct of both Governments. And it is a most pleasing Circumstance to me, to convey the Governor General's Approbation of the Restoration of your Excellency to the Dignity and Consequence to which your high Rank and Birth justly entitle you.

I beg leave to return my Thanks for the Sense you express of the becoming Conduct of Major Gilpin in the Execution of his Duty.

Permit me to remind your Excellency, that there is still a Balance of above Five Lacks due, on Account of your Engagements; and as you promised, immediately on the Enlargement of your Eunuchs, to pay that Sum, I hope you will excuse my Solicitations and Assurances, that by a Compliance you will render a Service both to the Vizier and the Company, whose Affairs at present require the Assistance of every pecuniary Aid.
